I'M LOOKING DOWN UPON YOU MOTHER. 3

Words by Rev. J. W. CARHART.

Music by J. P. WEBSTER.

VOICE Moderato con espressione. 1. I'm

PIANO

look - ing down up - on you , mother , Said a sweet and laughing voice ;

And a chubby face hung o'er her , Youngest born , the mother's choice . I'm looking down up - on you , mother , Now good night , a kiss I throw ;

I shall see you in the morning, Mo-ther dear, I love you so!

I shall see you in the morning, Mother dear I love you so!

2. From the holy lights a-bove us,.....
3. Clouds of witnesses be-hold us,.....

Where the stars their vigils keep,
As we run life's weary race;
Cherub eyes look down up-on us,.....
They are waiting to re-ceive us,.....

As we watch, and wait, and weep, I'm look-ing down up-on you, mother,.....
 In a fond and long embrace. Then look up, ye pilgrims weary;.....

Hear the an-gel voices say; And I kiss you in the zephyr,.....
 See bright faces in the skies, See the beckoning hands beyond you,.....

Or with evening's farewell ray, And I kiss you in the zephyr,.....
 Where the domes of glory rise, See the beckoning hands beyond you,.....

Or with evening's farewell ray.
 Where the domes of glory rise.
