BAY LEAVE

Vol 5 #2

WILLIAMS BAY, WIS.
January 14, 1937

LOOKING AHEAD.

Have you vision ? Can you look ahead ten or fifteen years and see our lake front the show place on Geneva Lake with the highway back far enough to make room for a " Board Walk " with a fine border of shade trees along the entire beach, which had been widened and filled in with sand for the pleasure of our hundreds of citizens and the thousands of Summer guests?

Can you see the lagoons with the piers allotted to fishermen and others ?

Can you see the pavillion set on piers for the pleasure of all alike? A building which can be used for refreshment and recreation.

Can you see the streets of the village with orderly shade trees, beautiful to behold, up and down all the streets?

Today these may be dreams but most of us will live to see the dreams become realities.

OUR SUMMER RESIDENTS GLAD TO RECEIVE "BAY LEAVES"

The editor of Bay Leaves received the following letter from Mr. O.A. Rosboro, Chicago., who owns a summer home in Loch Vista Subdivision and is now building a new residence on the lake shore in Oakwoods Estates.

"Thanks for the interesting issue of "Bay Leaves" of January 7th. We want to continue receiving all issues. Enclosed is my check for subscription and for the good of the cause."

We were much interested in the report that something is to be done about the water supply from Williams Bay. This action will surely be appreciated by the summer residents. As I am building a new home on the lake front, I am thus glad not to be obliged to install an individual water softener. Hope they get this installed before the summer."

WILLIAMS BAY TO HAVE HANDICRAFT MARKET

A group of Williams Bay energetic and talented citizens is promoting a project which will develop a demand or a market for handicraft articles, created by some of its talented and skilful citizens.

Mrs. G. Van Biesbroeck is the leader of the movement. Associated with her in planning the development are; J.S. Hotton, George R. Hotton, Louis Rasmussen, Misses Elsie Piehl and Ethel Gray.

Williams Bay and other towns in the Geneva Lake region have citizens who are capable of producing many useful and attractive articles, originally designed, in pewter; wrought iron, pottery, lawn and house furniture, paintings in oils and water colors, silhouettes, art photographs, fine needlework; also homemade preserves and jellies, the very best.

All workers in the community who are interested, are asked

FORTY YEARS AGO IN WILLIAMS BAY

Back in March, 1896 Wm C. Dean who lived in the house now occupied by Ned Grimm edited and published a newspaper in Williams Bay, called
"The Williams Bay Observer".

In the Salutory he said "The Observer has no apologies to make for its appearance in the newspaper field. The importance of Williams Bay is generally conceded, and its being represented by a newspaper will be accepted as a matter of fact.

From the issue of January 14th, 1897 a few items are copied herewith.

Huml & Augesky have painted the inside of the large dome (Observatory) one coat and are at work on the outside as weather permits.
The first coat outside is a mineral red.

A cablegram was received by Prof. Barnard last Friday informing that the Royal Astronomical Society of England had decided to award to him the gold medal annually upon the astronomer whose work best deserves that distinction.
There is but one other in the United States who possesses the honor.

John Andell moved into his new home Monday and on Monday evening a large group of their friends dropped in to help settle and give them a housewarming.

Don't forget the free supper and entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid Society at F.A. Williams tonight.

Three candidates were baptized
in the Bay last Sunday by L.D.S. people. The society seems to be steadily increasing in membership.

Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Hackett are rejoicing over the advent of a son.

MR. W.C. BLAKE, BROTHER-IN-LAW OF MRS. E. H. HOLLISTER, DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. E.H. Hollister received a message on Monday, January 11th that her sister's husband, Mr. W.C. Blake had died of a heart attack on that day, at Long Beach, Calif.; where Mr. and Mrs. Blake had been since the latter part of November last, expecting to spend the winter in order that Mr. Blake might regain his health.

Mr. Blake had long been in the merchandise business at Manchester, Iowa where he owned a large store, but had recently sold his business and retired.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Blake had visited in Williams Bay many times and their friends here will regret to learn of his sudden death. Mr. Blake was not old in years and always seemed to enjoy much in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollister left Tuesday morning, going to Manchester, Iowa, where the funeral services and burial will take place.

NOTED ASTRONOMER VISITS WILLIAMS
BAY

Dr. Henry Norris Russell, Professor of Astronomy at Princeton University, Princeton, N.J., and President of the Astronomical Society of America, was a guest at Yerkes Observatory on last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Russell is very well known in the Scientific world from the articles he contributes to Scientific American magazine.

" Bay Leaves " is edited and published by F.M. Van Epps, Williams Bay, Wis. It will be mailed every Thursday. Subscription price is 50¢ for six months. The goal is 100% subscription in Williams Bay and most of the Summer residents. It will be chock full of information they will like.

LAST RITES FOR MAYOR DUNN OF LAKE GENEVA

Col. J.E. Atkins, E.H. Hollister, M.T. Peterson and Les Sawyer attended the funeral Monday morning of the late Edward F. Dunn, who was killed in an automobile accident last Thursday near Kenosha.

The whole city mourned his passing. Flags along the street were flown at half mast; the school children stood with bowed heads along the street in front of the schools as the funeral cortege passed. The Catholic Church was filled to capacity and then many could not gain admittance. There were over two hundred floral pieces.

Mayor Dunn was active in city, school and other local affairs; in Democratic circles, in lumber organizations and in his church.

The yards of the Hollister Lumber Co. were owned by Douglas and Dunn prior to the purchase by A. Hollister & Sons twenty-five years ago. Mr. Dunn lived in Lake Geneva and came on the train to the Bay each day.

Eloise Johnson gave an interesting talk on "Skin Deep" by M.C. Philips of Consumers "Research." The meeting was then adjourned.

VILLAGE TAKES ANOTHER STEP TO SECURE PURE WATER

At the adjourned meeting of the Village Board Tuesday evening the committee reported that a PWA Project for the construction of a water purification plant would take a long time as about five hundred projects from Wisconsin are already awaiting action.

Village Attorney Charles Wilson reported that the amount needed can be secured from the State Public Lands Commission at 4% interest.

A Special Election will be held on February 2nd for securing the voters approval of the loan. The amount needed will be $30,000, which spread over twenty years, will mean $1.00 per thousand of property valuation. The plant will take out all impurities in the water and also soften the water.

An adjourned meeting of the Village Board will be held next Tuesday January 19th, at the Fire Station Social room at 7:30 P.M.
