STITT WILSON TO SPEAK AT CONVOCATION

Addresses Students at All University Meeting in Gym Thursday

Stitt Wilson, Ex-Mayor of Berkeley, California, and internationally known as a leader in social reform, and a religious worker among the students of the United States and England for more than twenty years, is to be the principal speaker at the All-University Religious convocation to be held in the gymnasium at 4:30 next Thursday afternoon.

His talk will be the first of the four addresses on the general topic of "Constructive Christian Democracy" which he will deliver at successive meetings on Thursday, Friday, and Sunday.

Mr. Wilson has had a very remarkable career and one which makes him well fitted to talk upon the subject which he has chosen. He spent his undergraduate days at Northwestern university and there interested himself in work in the Chicago slums among the foreign population. The interest aroused then has determined his life work, for he soon after went to Oxford, England, where his brilliance as a leader of constructive labor movements brought him great prominence in British politics.

Returns to U. S.

He determined to return to the United States, however, and, taking up residence in Berkeley, he soon had a reputation as a speaker on social conditions that resulted in his winning the office of mayor. His services as a patriotic speaker during the war were in constant demand. His only son was killed in an aviation accident at Mather's field in Sacramento.

Since that time Mr. Wilson has devoted himself to student religious

JUNIORS GIVE MIXER IN GYM TONIGHT; MANY EXPECTED

Thompson's Orchestra to Keep
All Feet Moving—Frosh
Urged to Come

The men and women of the freshman class are specially invited to attend the all-university mixer given by the junior class tonight at the men's gymnasium.

The mixer is given for the purpose of giving freshmen an opportunity of getting acquainted not only among themselves, but with other students who are past the yearling stage. A 10-piece Thompson's orchestra will supply the music in sufficient volume and "peppiness" to keep all feet moving and Al Hotten will supply the stunts.

The following juniors are members of the committee which is putting the mixer across: Dave Mahoney, chairman, Al Hotten, Dexter Brown, Bill Collins, Zerian Blish, Marion Strassburger and Peg Green.

CARDINAL INSTALLS HONOR-SYSTEM BOX ON UNIVERSITY AVE.

Deliveries Arranged for Subscribers on Mound and Neighboring Streets

The Cardinal has established a second honor-system newsstand to accommodate subscribers living outside the carrier-delivery district who wish to be sure of getting their Cardinals in the morning, instead of waiting for uncertain mail delivery.

This is in addition to the stand which went into use Thursday morning on the corner of State and Park, and will be located on University avenue, in the "Midget" store, next to the University post office.

Subscribers wishing to get their papers at this stand should notify the Cardinal office immediately as to their intention to take advantage of this extension of service. The subscriber is to leave his name on a slip of paper in the coin-slot each day when he takes his Cardinal.

Deliveries have now been arranged for subscribers living on Bowen court, St. James court, Desmond, Milton, and Mound streets, and between Warren and Brook streets.

FUNNY MAG EXTENDS TIME FOR NEW JOKES

Because the Comeback number of The Octopus will come out on October 27, the deadline for contributions has been changed to Wednesday, October 13.

Jokes have been pouring in to the Octopus office, the editors say, but they want more, in order to have the greatest possible choice. Art work and ideas for drawings are in demand also. Anyone interested in doing posters or funny pictures can see the art editor at 4:30 on Monday.

In the name of the business staff, William Rendall sends out an extensive call for freshmen and sophomores to fill all sorts of positions on the business staff. The business manager will be in his office any afternoon after 3:30, and will be glad to see applicants.

GRADUATE CLUB WILL FROLIC AT LATHROP TONIGHT

Milk Drinking Contest to Feature
First Dance of Grads

Attendance at the Graduate club dance tonight in Lathrop hall concert room, will dispel the popular conception of the graduate as a staid, dignified, lifeless, and intellectually saturated old fossil. The committee in charge, consisting of J. Lush, chairman, Dorothy Hart, J. Haynes Miller, Alice Crewe, Ruth Chase, John Monteith, Arthur Foster, Preston E. McNall, and Henry W. Taylor are planning an evening of enjoyment and childishness never before associated with those who have passed beyond the realms of the undergrad.

One of the special features will be a milk drinking contest, to be staged by the department of plant pathology. Those participating in the competition will have the opportunity of their lives to get "tanked" on the highest grade of milk. The same department will also conduct a sleight-of-hand contest, the object of which will be the releasing by couples of themselves, tied together with strong cord. A prize will be awarded to the winning lady.

Prof. E. B. Gordon will lead songs and stunts at 8:45. Games and varied entertainment will be afforded throughout the evening for those who do not dance. Old fashioned refreshments will be served.

The object of the dance is to bring the graduate students of the university together informally in a social way.

With interest running high, probably one of the most spirited preliminary contests for years will be witnessed at Camp Randall this afternoon when the Badgers will clash with the Michigan Agricultural college eleven. The game will start at 2 o'clock.

Although the Aggies have not made a startling showing so far this season they are intending to go the limit in an effort to win the big game on their schedule for this year, and the student body of the agricultural college is backing them to the last ditch.

Rooters Will Come

A crowd of about 100 rooters accompanied by a band of 60 pieces will arrive in Madison this noon. In order to send the band to support their team the M. A. C. students raised a fund of $1,250 by popular subscription, and chartered a boat for transportation across the lake from Muskegon to Milwaukee.

The sale of tickets which will be open at the gymnasium until noon has already reached large proportions for a preliminary contest, and if the visitors are able to furnish opposition strong enough spirit should not be lacking.

Gude May Play

As in the Lawrence game the lineup which starts the play will probably not continue throughout, but numerous changes will no doubt be made in order to give the coach a chance to try out different combinations. Hans Gude who has been working at the left tackle position a good part of the week may begin the game in place of Scott. Scott appeared for practice last night after an absence of two days.

While the game this afternoon is going on there will be two conference conflicts in progress and five other institutions in the "Big Ten" will be playing preliminary contests. Minnesota will stack up against Northwestern at Evanston, and Purdue and Chicago will lock horns on Stagg field. The teams opposing non-conference elevens will play the following contests: Illinois vs. Drake University, Ohio State vs. Oberlin, Iowa vs. Cornell college, Michigan vs. Case, Indiana vs. Mississippi college.

FORENSIC BOARD PLANS DEBATE WITH COLUMBIA

The forensic board is working on plans for debates with Southern California and Columbia, in addition to the annual contests with Illinois and Michigan. Tryouts for new men who desire places on the teams will be held in about a month.

Let Wedding Bells Ring

Prominent Campus Celebrities Throw Off Yoke of Bachelorhood and Join Ranks of Benedicts

Among the important social events which reached the society ed too late for publication in the society column is the news of the marriage of Ross Rogers to Grant Brown. The affair took place last evening at the home of Mr. Frederick E. Wolf, secretary of the university "Y," an old friend of the bride's family, and was by far the most brilliant function of its kind which has occurred in Madison this fall.

The bride was charmingly arrayed in a light dress of pink organdy, and the groom was attired in a novelty suit which had for its salient points a neat pair of clean white trousers, and a full dress coat. The bride was given away by Milton Borman, acting for her father, and the quaint and touching manner in which her shy tears were bravely held back brought many a lump to the throats of the guests.

Roy Sorenson was bridesmaid and Milt Powers took the side of the groom. Winsome Willard Kates was the flower-girl, and Al Willett was the priest who tied the knot. Carl Rogers and F. S. Brandenburg were property men and guests.

The wedding came as a complete surprise to the intimate friends of both parties and even Mr. Wolf was so unprepared for the ceremony as to have been caught varnishing the floors of his new home when the party appeared. His unpreparedness was compensated for by the foresight of the wedding party, however, and the wonderful angel food wedding cake and pre-arranged ice cream and punch made an enjoyable wedding supper for the happy pair and their guests. After the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Wolf sang appropriate songs and flashlight photographs were taken by one of the leading society photographers.

GOLF IS NOW A RECOGNIZED SPORT AT "U"

Placed in Same Class With Hockey and Skiing—
No Letters Given

Golf is now a recognized sport at the University of Wisconsin, by action of the athletic board. It is placed in the same class with hockey and skiing which are neither major nor minor sports and for which no letters are awarded.

In order to help along the enthusiasm manifested in the new sport the athletic council on recommendation of Coach T. E. Jones, has allowed the sum of $40 to help defray the expenses of sending two men to the Western Inter-collegiate Golf tournament to be held in Chicago October 22 and 23.

The elimination contest to determine who shall represent the university will be played here as soon as suitable arrangements can be made. It will consist of a 36 hole, medal play. It is expected that about 40 will participate.

George A. Bauman, '21, recently elected president of the University Golf club is enthusiastic over the prospects of golf being an important sport in the university in the future.

"We have some mighty good golf men in school, several having played in state contests, and with promising material in the freshman class prospects for the years to come are even brighter than for this one," said Bauman yesterday. "What we need now is a lot of boosting.
About 40 turned out for our first meeting and the faculty are all for us."

Coach Jones declares that what the athletic department looks forward to is a university golf course.

WHEN Ivanhoe jumped on his horse and rode off in all directions,

"With a course of our own we

W. A. A. APPOINTS NEW COMMITTEE ON 5-MILE HIKES

Semi-Weekly Hikes Planned
For All University
Women

At the meeting of W. A. A. Tuesday night, a new committee on hikes was appointed. It consists of Florence Hupprich, chairman, Louise Fritchie, Elizabeth Kirk, Selma Albrecht, and Romaque Barryman.

The purpose of this committee is to stage regular semi-weekly, 5-mile hikes. These are led by W. A. A. members and give opportunity to all university women to gain points toward W. A. A. membership.

It is strongly urged that the freshmen women come out for these hikes. The schedule for the week's program will appear regularly in the Cardinal, as well as on the W.
A. A. bulletin board in Lathrop hall.

The program for next week is as follows: Thursday, October 14, leave Lathrop, 3:30 p. m.; Saturday, October 16, leave Lathrop 10 a. m.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON GRADUATE COMES TO WISCONSIN TO STUDY

From Bristol university, and the University of London, England, comes Miss Rose Bracher to the University of Wisconsin to study plant pathology.

Last year Miss Bracher completed her second year of post graduate work at the University of London as an assistant instructor in botany. "I felt that I was not making enough progress in my research work in plant diseases," she said, "so on hearing of the Rose Sedgewick Memorial fund providing for study in American universities, I made application for the scholarship last May. I was notified in June that it had been awarded to me, and I immediately booked passage for New York."

"But perhaps," Miss Bracher suggested, "you do not know what this memorial is. Miss Sedgewick was a graduate of Oxford university and came to the United States with the British Educational mission which came to your country to establish firmer scholastic relations. While on a lecture tour in 1919, she was stricken with influenza, and died. This fund was really founded by the Americans, in her memory. But that is so typical of the American spirit, I have found."

"You see we are not restricted in any way. To get the scholarship we must be university graduates, and of good moral standing. We are judged by our past record. When we leave England, we are given 30 pounds for passage, and when we arrive in New York we are given $1,000 and allowed to go to any university we choose, to pursue any branch of study we desire."

"Dr. Harper, of Columbia University, one of the greatest botanical authorities in your country, advised me to come to the University of Wisconsin and study plant pathology under Prof. Jones, as he said it is the best course of its kind in the country."

"In New York, I was simply astounded. Your harbors are so very much larger than ours. And the representatives who met me when I landed were so kind about showing me things. Of course the very first night I saw the brilliant lights on Broadway, and they almost blinded me after our dim lights of war times. You see I live in Salisbury, and really I am having difficulty in finding expressions to describe the things I see here. Why London is just as different from New York as chalk is from cheese. And that big white building down town, what do you call it?"

"The capitol building?"

"Yes," she agreed. "The only building I can compare that to at home is St. Paul's cathedral, if the stone were just a little darker."

Miss Bracher was evidently quite active on the University of Bristol publications, as an editor, the magazines coming out three times a year. She has promised to write an article for this paper while she is here, about the student life in an American university. "And I shall certainly encourage everyone I possibly can to work for scholarships," she concluded.

Miss Bracher will be here at least this first semester, and will then complete her course of study under Dr. Harper at Columbia University. It is her ambition to return to England, and teach plant pathology there. She said that this branch of study had not greatly advanced in England, that they were slow about taking up new things. So it is in the interest of agricultural advancement in England that she is here.

AT THE FULLER

One of the essential things in musical comedy is the chorus, and Jimmie Hodges, who will present his new 1920 version of "All Aboard for Cuba" at the Fuller Wednesday, October 13, is very proud of his male and female chorus with the big musical show. Many musical comedy producers mention in every form of advertising their so-called "Broadway Chorus"; but not with Jimmie Hodges.

He claims there are just as good looking girls in the smaller towns and the country, and with the proper training they are just as nimble in the dances, and their voices are just as sweet in song. After several seasons with temperamental New York chorus ladies, he decided he would produce his own chorus, and as he was at the time playing through the cities of the South, he there formed his famous female chorus.

Every girl in the Jimmie Hodges show was an amateur when starting with the show, but with care and patience has now a chorus that is the talk of musical comedy producers. He looked first for youth, because the younger generation are more easily taught the intricate dancing steps; only those possessing good looks were taken, and he now has the best trained chorus in the field of musical comedy.

MANITOWOC, Wis.—The loss on the fire at Two Rivers last night which completely destroyed the main plant of the Two Rivers Woodenware company was today estimated at $75,000. Aid was asked of Manitowoc, and a bumper made the seven mile trip in 10 minutes. The blaze was confined to the main building.

Park

Louis Hirsig head of the Madison council of Boy Scouts as the result of the annual election held Thursday evening at Henry Vilas park. Other officers elected were: vice presidents, Judge M. B. Rosenbury and H. J. Loftsgordon; treasurer, Prof. W. S. Marshall; secretary, R. A. Overholser; executive committee, L. M. Hanks, Louis Hirsig, Judge Rosenberry, H. J. Loftsgordon, H. L. Geisler and Dr. J. C. Elsom.

The meeting was featured by a chicken barbecue.

Scouts of troops 5, 20 and 21 entertained the council before the feast with a water boiling contest, first aid race and a fireman's drill.

The water boiling contest, was one of particular interest. Each boy was given a board, an ax and two matches with which to make a quart of water boil. The boy succeeding was George Bulovsky of troop No. 5 who accomplished the feat in 19 minutes. The honors in the first aid race were won by troop No. 21. After the stunts and the big chicken fry, a short talk was given by Scout Executive Overholser.

MAYOR HOAN TO SPEAK HERE

Milwaukee Mayor to Appear in Madison on Tuesday Night

Daniel W. Hoan, Milwaukee mayor, who has caused considerable comment during the past two weeks by his stinging attacks on the Constitutional Defense league and his charges that moneyed interests are planning to fasten universal military service on America, will speak in Madison Tuesday night.

The talk, which will be under auspices of workers and farmers in the neighborhood, is the semi-wind-up of a two week's campaign in the interest of the Socialist state ticket, headed by William Coleman for governor.

Hoan attracted world-wide attention in 1919 when he said, "To hell with kings, I'm for the working man," when asked to invite Albert, king of Belgium, to be the guest of the city of Milwaukee.

Son of Upton Sinclair Is Enrolled at U. W.; Working Way Through

David Sinclair Says "Dad" Chose "Most Liberal University"

David Sinclair, son of the noted Socialist and author, Upton Sinclair, whose book, The Brass Check, an indictment of American Journalism, was recently reviewed in The Capital Times, has entered the university here as a freshman, and is going to earn his way through. He is 18 years old, and has just graduated from the Greenwood, Miss., high school. Asked why he chose Wisconsin, when his father resides in Pasadena, Cal., young Sinclair answered:

"My dad chose this university because he believes it to be one of the most liberal in the country. You see, I've been to school chiefly in the east and way out west, so I thought this would be a good place now. The east is so much more conservative than the middle west."

Mr. Sinclair is enrolled as a student in engineering, but he isn't sure yet whether he will be an engineer or an author, like his father. He cannot yet see any particular reason why he could not be an engineer and an author too. At present he has his hands full, being employed at the Kamera Kraft shop during his spare hours.

Mr. Sinclair was unwilling to give many of his views on social and political conditions, declaring that he was necessarily too young to have formed many opinions of his own. He stated, however, that he is a socialist, and that if he were old enough to vote he would cast his ballot for Debs.

"Putting Debs in jail," he observed, is parallel with putting Christians in jail at the time when they were still persecuted. Some day the people will realize that the men who put Debs in jail are just as stupid as the old time emperors."

Speaking of politics he declared that in Mississippi nearly everyone is a good democrat, with the result that the few radicals there have a much easier time than they do in California, where there are a number of radical organizations.

CANDIDATES SLOW TO FILE PETITIONS

Although several tickets are being slated about the campus for the university election on October 29, political aspirants have thus far neglected to file their nomination petitions. Only one petition has been filed, that of Henry C. "Pat" Dennis for the student senate.

The student senate elections committee urges all candidates to announce their candidacy early in order that the student body may have an opportunity to consider their choice carefully. All petitions, accompanied by election fees and advertising for the election booklet, must be filed at the office of the Dean of Men by 5 p. m. Friday, October 15.

FROSH FOOTBALL SQUAD SOON TO BE CUT IN SIZE

Large Number of Yearling Candidates Necessitates Dropping of Many Men

Although no final selection has been made of a first freshman football team, Coach "Keg" Driver today stated that a large number of the 131 candidates who have reported for the sport will be dropped from the squad.

The squad will be cut the latter part of the coming week, as Driver with his two assistants, Bob Quick and Beyers, has been unable to handle the unwieldy number and still give individual attention to the men.

As many as six yearling elevens have been working out on the Camp Randall practice field, and of these, two tentative first teams have been picked to cope with the varsity grid-ders and Coach Lowman's All-American squad.

The youngsters give every evidence of developing into first class pigskin chasers, and with the smaller squad receiving the individual attention necessary to polish off the rough edges, Driver should have a well oiled machine to combat Richards' warriors.

TENNIS GAMES ATTRACT MANY

Long List of Entrants in Two Tournaments Now in Progress

With two tennis tournaments in progress now, a varsity "round robin" tourney and a freshman elimination contest, devotees of the sport should not become rusty from lack of competition.

The novel plan of a "round robin" has been instituted by Coach G. E. Linden, and the enthusiasm with which upperclassmen have taken hold of the idea is shown by the long list of entrants. Keen competition will be furnished by Fanning, Gottfredson, Clague, Parker, Aagesen, Bailey, Tredwell, Neisser, Murphy, Bartels, King, Sullivan and Galpin.

Rules of the varsity competition call for each man to play every other contestant, the best two out of three sets constituting a winning match. The results of this meet will enable the coach to get a definite line on the tennis material which he will have to work with next spring.

The freshman tourney is already under way with twenty-five men entered in the competition. Winners of matches which have been completed are McCartney, who defeated Czanoski, 6-0, 6-0, and Moulding, victor over Burus in two straight sets, 6-2 and 6-1. There is much good material in the list of freshman racquet wielders, and winners in this preparatory tourney will have the edge on men who delay until next spring to show their wares.

190 DISABLED SOLDIERS ARE SENT TO UNIVERSITY

More than 190 disabled soldiers, under the direction of the federal board of vocational education, have already enrolled in the University of Wisconsin this fall, and M. H. Teige, their counselor, expects the fall enrollment to reach 200.

A total of 111 soldiers are enrolled for regular courses, and in addition there are 81 who cannot meet university requirements but are taking special work. Of those in regular courses, the greatest number are in the College of Letters and Science, mostly in the course of Commerce. Twenty-two are in the College of Agriculture, 23 are in the College of Engineering, 10 in the Law school, 5 in the Medical school, 5 in the course in Pharmacy, and one in the School of Music. Seven are graduate students. Among the special students 46 are in the College of Agriculture, 20 in engineering, and 16 in the college of Letters and Science.

The federal board men are divided into two groups, one receiving their tuition, books and supplies, and the others receiving in addition $100 a month.

BADGER JOURNALISM GRADS TEACH IN OTHER SCHOOLS

Seven former students in the Course in Journalism at the University of Wisconsin are now engaged in teaching journalism in other colleges and universities.

Norman J. Radder, Sheboygan, 1917 journalism graduate, is acting head of the department of journalism at Indiana university this year. Last year he was in charge of the courses in journalism at the University of Minnesota.

Reuel R. Barlow, who was graduated from the Course in Journalism in 1918, has just taken charge of the work in journalism at the University of Minnesota. Mr. Barlow had been on the staff of daily papers in La Crosse and Madison.

Frank B. Thayer, who received the master's degree in journalism from Wisconsin, is associate professor in charge of the department of journalism at Washington State College, Pullman. He was formerly on the staff of the departments of journalism at the University of Kansas and the State University of Iowa.

Blair Converse, who obtained the degree of master of arts in journalism at Wisconsin, is assistant professor of journalism at the Iowa Agricultural College, Ames.

GERMANY PRODUCES MOVIE THRILL ARTISTS TO RIVAL THOSE OF U. S.

Harry Piel in a daring auto leap in a German movie.

America has no monopoly on movie thrill artists, as the photo helps to prove. Harry Piel, Germany's daredevil film actor, is shown performing a stunt that has rarely been equalled in American film history. The photograph was taken at the moment when his automobile plunged successfully over the open space of a destroyed bridge.

600 WORK AT MACHINES IN ENGINEERING SHOPE

More than 600 men students are working in the machine shops of the University of Wisconsin College of Engineering this fall. Because of the crowded conditions resulting from this large enrollment, the college is eagerly awaiting the completion of the new shop buildings that are being erected at Camp Randall and the proper installation of the new machines that have been provided and are now temporarily installed in the old shops.

Of these 600 students who are learning various branches of machine shop work, 330 are first-year students, 185 are sophomores, 40 are juniors, and 25 are seniors.

Five women students are working in the shops as members of the class in auto mechanics.

In February, the major portion of this shop work will be moved to the new modern shop buildings and equipped with many new machines.

KIND ACT WINS HIM $10,000,000

David K. Byrne of Montreal is the heir to a ten million dollar estate left by the late W. G. Byrne as the result of a kind act he performed thirteen years ago. Byrne, then David S. Kidd, induced a beautiful girl who had gone wrong in Chicago to reform and return home. She was the daughter of W. G. Byrne, who, to show his appreciation, asked Kidd to change his name to Byrne and become the elder Byrne's heir.

Fire Department Fights Bog Blaze

Madison firemen were still fighting the marsh fire which has been burning in the peat bog between North st. and the Starkweather creek for the last three days, it was stated at the central fire station this afternoon. There is considerable danger to neighboring farm houses from this fire, which Chief Heyl declared has reached a depth of five feet in some places. It is also endangering the crops in the neighboring fields.

BETTER STUDENT POLITICS

DEMOCRACY in the university, as in the nation, is highly desirable if it can be made to work efficiently. But, in the university as in the nation, the desired efficiency is too often unattained. Too often indeed, the hand-shaker, the good mixer, the politician is elected over the man of ability—in fact, so often that the man best qualified to fill a public office is reluctant to enter a political contest.

As the student elections draw near, it is well to think of bringing our university democracy up to the desired standard. This may be accomplished in two ways: first, by encouraging men who are best qualified to fill campus jobs to energetically go after them; and second, by every student voting in the final election. As a matter of fact, these two means of bettering our self-government are inseparable—the well qualified student should have the assurance that every person will vote as he sees fit, and that no clique will carry the election simply because of the lethargy of the student body. The defeat of good men and the domination of our politics by small organizations is less the fault of these organizations than of the voting body which, by its lack of interest, fails to express its will.

The nominating petitions for the coming election must be filed with the dean of men by October 15. Men and women who feel that they are qualified for any of the offices to be filled should enter the contest. Among the positions vacant are those of class officers in all the classes; sophomore, junior, and senior representatives to the Student senate; and Prom chairman. These positions require men and women of ability and integrity if their respective purposes are to be fully achieved. Surely, if anyone is qualified for any of the aforesaid jobs he owes it to himself and to his fellow students to enter the coming election.

Furthermore, it is the unquestionable duty of every student qualified to vote to cast his ballot on election day for the betterment of our self-government. The talk that has pervaded the campus of cliques or rings dominating student politics could have arisen only under conditions in which the entire student body failed to exercise its prerogative.

In the coming student election, let us have a true expression of the will of our voters. It is in this way and in this way only that we can get the best men and the best women in our elective offices.

A STEP FORDARD

ONE redeeming feature of the otherwise disappointing class rush is the program offered by the sophomore tradition committee in making recommendations for the conduct of future rushes.

The salient points in the report are that both classes be fully instructed in the rules governing the rush before the affair is held, that the starter be in a position to be seen by all when he gives the signal, that fake starts be checked immediately, and that the field of battle be roped off.

This program is constructive and may serve as the basis for future rushes. Everybody is agreed that the hit-or-miss policy for putting on this ancient and honorable event should be abandoned and that some sensible plan be put into operation to prevent another miserable spectacle like the one a week ago.

It should be made impossible for a fake signal to be given. As long as such a thing can be perpetrated one impetuous or over-zealous man can put his whole class to shame and cause the judicious student body to grieve.

Some satisfactory method for dealing with the handicap of numbers should be considered or else some plan devised to equalize the numbers on both sides. The ten-yard handicap for the sophomores this year was probably more than the freshmen could have overcome in an orderly rush.

All the students want to preserve the essential features of the rush as a permanent tradition of the school. They sorely regret any occurrence that makes a farce of the affair.

The recommendations of the traditions committee are worthy of careful consideration and the members of this body, representing their class, are to be congratulated in offering something constructive rather than sulking because the rush was declared forfeited to their enemies.

BADGER ASKS ALL SENIORS TO HAVE PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN

Urges That Pictures Be Taken Soon to Relieve Rush on Engravers

Seniors who wish their pictures to appear in the 1922 Badger must co-operate with the Badger board and get their pictures taken before November 15, according to an appeal to seniors issued by the Badger editors yesterday afternoon; the engravers working on the Badger cannot handle any work on senior portraits after that time.

The editors also urge seniors to make appointments with their photographers immediately in order to avoid a rush at the last moment.

The following instructions, issued by the Badger editors, are being sent to all seniors:

LOCAL FRAT TO BE INSTALLED IN FEW WEEKS

Awema Club Granted Charter in Sigma Phi Epsilon in July

The Awema club, the oldest local fraternity at Wisconsin, was granted a charter in Sigma Phi Epsilon last July. The chapter is to be known as the Wisconsin Beta of Sigma Phi Epsilon. The installation will take place from November 11 to the 13 inclusive. A banquet will be held on the Saturday evening of that week at the recently purchased home at 134 W. Gorham street.

There are 34 active members at present. Besides these, about 40 alumni are expected back for the installation, among whom are John Messmer, formerly a prominent Wisconsin athlete, Glenn Taylor, who played quarter back on the Wisconsin team, and also George L. Service, who was once business manager of the Cardinal.

The Awema club was organized in 1905 by a group of men from Milwaukee. At first it was called the Keota club, but later it was changed to Awema. Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded at Richmond college, Richmond, Va., in November, 1901. A club called the "Saturday Night Club" was the basis of the organization. Since then the fraternity has grown very swiftly. At present, there are fifty chapters in the national organization. Among these are those at Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio State, Purdue, Iowa, and Lawrence.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB HAS FIRST MEETING

The International club held its first meeting of the year last evening in the S. G. A. room of Lathrop hall. Prof. E. A. Gilmore of the Law school addressed the members on the subject of International Court Decisions.

All new foreign students of the university were invited to be present at the meeting, and initiation of those who desire to become members will be held next Friday evening. A cafeteria supper will precede the initiation.

CHURCHES HOLD RECEPTION FOR
NEW STUDENTSOlder Students Plan Many Stunts to Entertain Newcomers at U

The students of five university churches put on varied entertainments for their new members and friends last night.

The older students were in charge of the programs, which included musical features, stunts, in some of which the various schools and colleges were humorously represented, and refreshments. The affairs were planned to give the new-comers a good introduction to the older students and to the members of the faculty attending the church.

Entertainments were given in the following churches: First Baptist, University Methodist Episcopal, First Presbyterian, University Lutheran, and First Congregational.

CORNELL STUDENTS FOUND GUILTY OF
CHEATING AT EXAMS

Found guilty of cheating in exams, 106 men at Cornell were dismissed from the university for a year, though the committee in charge later suspended the sentence of dismissal during good behavior, allowing the student to return to the university on parole for one year.

Information regarding the questions which were to appear on the examination papers was secured by certain students, and this information was circulated among a large number of men, mostly freshmen, who were taking these courses.

One student, who was proved guilty of attempting to steal an examination paper, was dismissed from the university for a year, as were also two others who were found guilty of a second offense. One man was dismissed permanently because of previous offenses.

A degree was withheld until after September from one member of last year's graduating class who received the information only a few minutes before the examination, and who had not sought to obtain it.

This is the first instance in the history of the university in which fraud has had to be dealt with on a large scale.

Wilson For Nov. 14 As Armistice Day; Flags To Be Lowered

President Urges Observance in Honor of Soldiers

WASHINGTON — President Wilson today directed that on Sunday, Nov. 14, the American flag be displayed at half mast on all public buildings and naval and military posts "As a token of the nation's participation in the memorial services held for the heroic American soldiers, marines and others who gave their lives to their country in the world war."

In connection with the order, the president said: "The selection of a formal day which shall annually be set aside to commemorate our participation in the world war will some day doubtless be effected through legislation and already memorial day, rich in heroic memories has acquired additional significance as being appropriate also to the commemoration of the heroes of the world war. I am, however, so heartily in favor of the suggestion that has been made that I take this occasion to express publicly my approval of the idea."

LARRY HALL WRITES MAGAZINE ARTICLE

"How to be a Cheer Leader." That is what Larry Hall, former University of Wisconsin football cheer leader has told the boys of this country in an article he wrote for the American Boy magazine for October.

Larry has had six years experience as a cheer leader, four of them here at the university. In this article he points out that the most essential requisites for a good cheer leader are great loyalty for the school, abundant enthusiasm for the sport which he is cheering, poise, and personal magnetism. He says that the leader must also have an understanding of the game and be able to control the thousands of people in the grand-stands. He goes into the more technical aspect of cheer leading and described the

Absentee Ownership Of Newspapers Is Scored By G. P. Norris

Editorial Writer of Washington Herald Talks to Press Club

Absentee ownership of newspapers was last night characterized by George Perry Morris, editorial writer of Herbert Hoover's Washington Herald, as one of the greatest problems in present day American journalism in a talk delivered to the University Press club at its first meeting of the year.

"The growing tendency to have newspapers owned by men who neither know nor see the men they employ creates an ever increasing evil," he said. "There is a lack of contact between employer and employee which is as dangerous in journalism as it is in the business world. A very few men control the policies of a great number of newspapers, and the number of people who read these papers is enormous. The question is, are we capable of developing men great enough to hold such positions?"

In comparing eastern journalism movements which must accompany certain yells in order to draw the audience out, and to keep it on its ties.

Accompanying the article was a picture of last year's cheering squad.

with that of the west, Mr. Morris stated that the comradeship of the west was entirely lacking in the east. He also scored the work of American news writers at the peace conference. "They tried to apply American methods," he said, "and while they accomplished a few things, they were unable to discuss intelligently the affairs about which they were writing with the trained European journalists."

Over 50 members of the club attended the meeting. President Henry C. Dennis officiated for the first time. A committee was appointed to arrange for the first annual "Frolic of the Cubs" which will take place Friday evening in the Lathrop ball room.

Badger Forest Fires Are Again Menace

SUPERIOR—Forest fires thought under control last night started up again this morning in Douglas county. The worst fires are burning near Bennett where if a strong south wind comes up the situation will become alarming. Over 200,000 feet of timber were destroyed yesterday when fires reached a sawmill belonging to Jack Erickson at Copper Creek, near Black River in Douglas county.

MARQUETTE ENROLLMENT The enrollment at Marquette university is the largest in its history. It is expected that at least 4,000 students will register this year.

Last April we inaugurated a policy of taking smaller profits on all sales.

Today that stand has made us famous—given us more business than we ever dreamed of—placed our name high in the annals of community sentiment and held down the prices of men's clothing by making it hard for competition to compete with us—unless they played fair with you.

We have accomplished what we set out to accomplish—but instead of the success going to our heads it has gone to our hearts.

U. S. CENSUS SHOWS SHIFT TOWARD CITY

Population Trend is Away
From Farms, Figures
Indicate

GAIN IS 14.9 PERCENT

Total Population of Country is 105,683,108; Increase
Falls

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The 1920 population of continental United States was announced as 105,683,108 by the census bureau. This is an increase of 13,710,842, or 14.9 per cent, since 1910.

Approximately 12,250,000 people are living in the country's outlying possessions. This would bring the population of the whole United States up to about 118,000,000.

Director Rogers of the census bureau said that, while the foregoing figures were preliminary and subject to correction, the final official population, as transmitted to congress in December for apportionment purposes, was not likely to be greatly different.

The outstanding features of the report, as announced by Director Rogers, are:

Trend of population in the decade has been from the farm to the city, and has great bearing on the high cost of living.

Slight increase in total number of farms, but an unusually large decrease in tenanted farms of the west and middle west.

Large falling off in rate of growth (from 21 per cent in 1910 to 14.9 in 1920) for the country as a whole is due mainly to an almost complete cessation of immigration for more than five years.

Epidemic of influenza and casualties resulting from world war also big factor in small increase shown by report.

HENRY C. KING WILL TALK AT MUSIC HALL

LUTHERAN CHURCH HAS GET-TOGETHER PARTY LAST NIGHT

Will Go to Picnic Point This Afternoon With Methodists

A decided success in every way was the annual Lutheran students' get-together held last night in the parlors of the Lutheran Memorial church. A large number of students, new and old, assembled shortly before 8 o'clock to spend a pleasant evening playing games and getting acquainted.

The welcoming address by Rev. A. J. Soldan was followed by short talks from Nels Federson, Anne Christensen, Marion Neprud, and Frank Kiehl, members of the Lutheran student cabinet, which gave the party. The formal part of the evening concluded with a solo by Mr. Swain.

Numerous games and other forms of merry-making formed the nucleus of the evening's entertainment. The advent of cider and cookies was hailed with delight by everyone and proved a most successful way of rounding off the evening.

This afternoon there will be a picnic at Picnic Point of members of the Lutheran and Methodist student organizations. A great deal of rivalry exists between the two groups and this will be "taken out" in a game of indoor baseball. Dope is scarce on the outcome, as the teams are very evenly matched, and much spirit is being shown on both sides as to the result. The game will be followed by a wiener roast.

SITE FOR HOSPITAL TO BE READY SOON

A committee, appointed to consider requests made by the university to have certain streets on the university property vacated for the purpose of making a suitable location for the State hospital, met yesterday afternoon in the city hall.

Under the direction of the chairman, Mr. P. H. Barry, the committee agreed to the vacation of Morris street from Charter to Warren, and of the part of Orchard lying between University avenue and Morris. A petition to that effect was drawn up and filed in the City Clerk's office.

Mr. Peabody, the university architect, will begin at once to formulate the design of the building.

Opportunity for Development of All Urged by Mrs. Robins

Self Government Without Time for Self Improvement Not Possible, Says Consumers' League President

OPPORTUNITY for every boy and girl, man and woman to develop body, mind and soul to the fullest capacity, to allow of real citizenship and creative work, when there is capacity for such, was urged eloquently by Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the National Consumers' league, who addressed about 400 men and women at a dinner given under the auspices of the local Consumers' league at Christ Presbyterian church last evening.

The industrial problems of our cities are perhaps the most outstanding phases of our industrial unrest, she declared. In Illinois, she pointed out, women may still be worked 70 hours a week. What is the price the nation must pay for such conditions, she asked. Citizenship means something more than merely casting a ballot, it means the capacity for self-government. How can we develop in people the capacity for self-government, if we do not give them time to do constructive and creative thinking outside of their working hours, she demanded.

Need More Recreation.

"It is not that the working people want less work," Mrs. Robins declared. "It is that they want more time for recreational things, for study, for pursuits natural to everyone. They want time for dreams, without which no great achievements have ever come about. If only we would wish our neighbors to be our equals, we should have the solution of many of our problems."

A strong defense of unions was made by Mrs. Robins, who is also president of the National Women's Trades Union league. She told how, about 15 years ago, it was discovered in Brooklyn, N. Y., that policemen were hired to arrest girl strikers without warrants for such arrests, to bring them into court, where a judge who knew nothing about their cases and cared less, heard the policemen's testimony and fined them upon it. Each policeman was paid $5 by the employers for every striker he arrested, so naturally the arrests were numerous. Another judge, succeeding this one, changed matters, and discovered the foregoing conditions, to which his attention had been drawn by Mrs. Robins.

Rebels Now Heroes.

She pointed out that the political and industrial situation today is not so fundamentally different than it has been many a time in the past; that the rebels of yesterday are the heroes of today; and that the people of the Boston tea party were not unopposed at the time of the tea party. The fight for liberty is a part of the great labor movement and of the world struggle of today. Mrs. Robins stated.

Mrs. A. J. Vinje presented Mrs. Robins, who, after the meeting answered a number of questions put by her audience.

Nurse Wades Across Swamps To Attend Patient In Country

Handicaps in Profession Related in Report Filed Here

How the work of a county nurse occasionally is done under handicaps common to the erstwhile war zone is suggested in the monthly report of a northern Wisconsin county nurse, received by the bureau of child welfare and public health nursing.

She was called one night to assist with a surgical operation. Reporting it she said:

"The patient was in a farmhouse several miles from town and a half mile from the road across a swamp through which we had to walk. The house, barn and chicken-coop are all under one roof. We had a small kitchen table, a dripping, wash basin, a teakettle, and two small dish pans to work with. We brought our own towels and sterile sheets. There were two beds in the room, in one of which there were five children, three at the head and two at the foot, and a baby slept in a cradle which was wound up like a clock and rocked itself.

"We got to the place about 10:30 p. m. We had one lamp and two lanterns for light. The patient is doing very nicely."

The same nurse in the same month took care of a baby having convulsions for 36 hours, and when an umpire in a baseball game was struck on the head by a swift ball and no doctor could be found, she gave him first aid and took care of him for 24 hours.

AT THE FULLER

Vivian Martin, the dainty star who has been absent from the screen for a long time, has returned in a story, the character of which is ideal for her fragrant personality, "Husbands and Wives." The theme of this story is based upon the conflict of sexes and shows how a husband attempts to tame his wife with the latter a peculiarly obstinate bit of femininity. A rip-roaring comedy, Fit to Fight, with Bobby Vernon completes the program at the Fuller today.

Prof. W. W. Wier of the soils department of the university left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., where he accepted a position with the soil improvement committee of the National Fertilizer Association, which has offices all over the United States. He will have the work of editing a magazine of the organization. Mrs. Wier will join her husband as soon as he can find a suitable residence in Washington.

MINERS HAVE FEED AT FIRST MEETING

Plan Mixer to Entertain New Members in Near Future

The University of Wisconsin miners turned out 100 per cent strong at the first meeting of the Mining club this year.

An enthusiastic and peppy business session, during which plans for the activities of the year were discussed and decided upon, was followed by strong miners' brew and donuts, eased off with smokes of varied fragrance.

The men were all in high spirits, and indications point to a year of activity, the celebrated feeds as formerly featuring "juicy steaks" playing no insignificant part of the program. Among other matters, plans for a mixer to entertain the new men who have entered the field were started, definite announcements of which will appear later.

MOVIE

Prize Contest Under Way for Plot for Movie to Be Staged
By Edwin Booth

A prize of $25, in addition to the honor of having his name featured with the production, will be awarded to the student who originates the plot used for the Varsity movie, according to the production manager.

The Varsity movie, to be produced this year by the Edwin Booth dramatic club, will be an all-student production, written, enacted, photographed, and directed by students in the university. When completed, it will be presented at the university and then turned over to a booking agency to be circulated to all parts of the country.

There are few limitations in connection with the plot contest. The story must be a comedy, not of the slap-stick variety, centering around university life and featuring student activities. Any story to be considered must be submitted by the first week in November; three have been submitted already.

Anyone thinking of writing a plot for the production should telephone Willett Kempton at Fairchild 272, today.

Madison may be in for a cold snap next week, if the weather "dope" released today has tipped off conditions rightly.

Whether or not the cold snap is due early next week the local forecaster could not say this morning.

A five mile course will be laid out on the campus for the event, and blue prints of the course sent to all Big Ten teams entered in the meet. Coach Gill plans to have the same course as in the Michigan meet last season.

Indiana also bid for the meet and was unofficially awarded the event, but at a meeting of the conference officials Illinois was allowed the staging of the annual contest.
