The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dear Friends:- Enclased is 4 pictures I have Negatives for these Its hard to tell who's who on the Steam Engine but I was the Engineer, My Bro. Oswald is setting on the edge of the Water tank on one picture - I'm on the engine

On the other picture My Bro is behind the Steering wheel.

On another picture - Thrashing but no picture of the thrashing machine, too bad the picture didn't have both rigs on.

Picture of the Musicians (accordionist) Ole Gynnild ACCORDION - the band back My Uncle Ed Treadall on fiddle - he was going then to play
you can see I was a Gay? - - - Artist

The Original photos were faded badly - Brownish They were taken in the early 30's

These are yours for keeps you two share them if you will same the tape for the both 2 of you over

Wed. Eve I drove over to La Vern Randolph and just put down a few notes

Non Rehearsed

Side 1

Have just learned a Waltz of Harald Saunson and guess I had turned the Volume way up so it's too loud. in mid way through about is the song! - Same tunes as Froggie went a Counting Side 2. at the Smithsonian

Triddle from Norway playing the Devils tune I'm playing a Waltz - Note I was the only American & Scandinavian to play on the Scandinavians' <sup>stage</sup> platform, they from Europe had and us from America had separate stages and the rest of the tape is about all

X Finnish Music - Finlanders

So see you all soon

Will be going up on the 8th

So - Bob hope to see you the later part of the afternoon
