Coach Steinauer 'Retired' After 39 Years on 'U' Staff

By HERB ROZOFF
Cardinal Sports Editor

They officially retired Coach Joe Steinauer last night. Wisconsin's swimming coach was honored at a farewell banquet at the Park hotel by more than 300 Badger sports followers, friends of Joe, and the staff of the athletic department.

After 39 years of service (almost to the exact date, as Steinauer was hired by the university on May 2, 1912) the man who has seen more coaches come and go "than anyone else" was paid tribute by his counterparts at practically every Big Ten school.

The dinner, organized by the National "W" club, had as its "roastmaster" Lloyd Larson, Milwaukee Sentinel sports editor—who was assisted by "Roundy" Coughlin of the Wisconsin State Journal.

Steinauer was "overjoyed" when the chairman of the event, Ed Schmitz, presented him with the keys to a 1951 Nash car. It was the only way they felt it would be fitting to honor him, Schmitz told the group.

"Roastmaster" Larson read letters from friends of Steinauer who could not attend the dinner. "Roundy" described the honored guest as one of the "immortals of Wisconsin."

The speakers got the jump on Joe—who finally admitted that he "might have cheated a year or two" on his retirement—by telling stories about Joe. The opposite is usually the case, as he is famous for his many tales that surrounded his varied life.

The story of "Uncle Joe" describing a football game (he is said to be the first sports announcer in the nation) and of his asking for the removal of a "pesky" dog off the field was retold to the few who may have missed it. Steinauer announced before the days of the center and pre FCC.

Steinauer's first official job was as a crew trainer. He graduated from Marquette university medical school. He has held practically every job available in the athletic department.

He has been intramurals director, gymnastics coach, crew coach, ice hockey coach—and once worked in a circus before he came to Wisconsin.

His last official position, as a coach here, will come this Saturday as he takes the Badger golf team to Minneapolis for the final match of the season—with Minnesota.

Dean Outlines Scholarships

By ABBY MANN

Dean of Men Paul L. Trump recently described the extent of the university scholarship program in an effort to acquaint the student body with scholarships now available.

About eight and a half per cent of the students now enrolled as undergraduates have scholarships. There are 420 cash scholarships available, averaging $250 a year. Also, 360 resident fees are remitted each semester at Madison and the extensions. Non-resident fee scholarships are offered to 160 students each semester.

The majority of scholarships are granted from the general university cash fund. These are given to continuing students who show future promise and financial need. About 115 were given last year.

Finance Committee Votes 7-4 To Defeat Lake Shore Bill

Supporters Plan To Renew Fight on Senate Floor Monday

By HOWARD SAYRE

By a 7 to 4 vote, the legislative joint finance committee recommended indefinite postponement for the proposed Lake Shore college yesterday. The senate will take up the bill in floor debate Monday afternoon.

The proposed bill was sent to the joint finance committee March 28 after receiving unanimous approval of the senate education committee. The assembly education committee has not reported its decision on the bill.

The bill and amendments calls for the establishment of a four year liberal arts college in the Lake Shore area.

Senator Robert P. Robinson (R. Beloit), chairman of the senate education committee, and a co-author of the bill, said supporters of the bill would keep right on fighting.

"I think it is something we should give the young people," Sen. Robinson said.

Assemblyman W. W. Clark, (R. Wood), author of the bill in the assembly, said he was very surprised at the finance committee's decision. "I think the senate will pass the bill anyway," Assemblyman Clark said.

Larry Harrington, SJ 3, Milwaukee, one of the students who spoke for the college at a joint legislative hearing Feb. 22, expressed disappointment in the committee's actions.

"The joint finance committee's recommendation to kill the Lake Shore college bill is a severe blow to those who have worked for its passage," Harrington said.

"Partisan politics and personal prejudices have no place in this issue. It's about time our politicians realize that the YGOP and the Young Dems spoke the truth in stating that it was not an issue for partisan political maneuvers," Harrington said.

Nat'l Economist Urges Tax Hike To Beat Inflation

By CARYL BINDLER

Higher taxes are one way of reducing today's inflationary gap, Roy Blough told the opening session of the second conference on city and regional planning last night at the Union.

Blough, a member of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, spoke on "Contours of our Economy in the Coming Decade." According to Blough this is a period of high defense production which will generate increased incomes. Demand will tend to rise while supply falls or remains stationary, he said.

To prevent this inflationary rise, it will be necessary to have a strong stabilization program supported by the public and Congress, he warned. Adequate taxation is one method of preventing the inflationary spiral, he concluded.

"The needs of the defense effort may be expected to lead to an early completion of the St. Lawrence seaway and power project because of its importance in replenishing our high-quality reserves by imports from the new mines in Labrador. Blough said.

Senior Women's Herfurth Winner To Be Announced

The 1951 winner of the Theodore Herfurth award honoring a university senior woman for "initiative and efficiency" will be named at a dinner at the Union Wednesday May 23.

The award, and its companion honor that goes to a university senior man, are given annually as a living memorial of the late Theodore Herfurth, Madison insurance executive and philanthropist. Candidates are judged on scholarship, degree of self-support, significance of extra-curricular activities, and capacity for "convincing oral expression."

The eight 1951 women finalists are: Nancy J. Becker, Monticello; Armina E. Bedrosian, Milwaukee; Sarephine V. Glowacki, West Allis; Jean A. Langenegger, Milwaukee; Marilyn G. Miller, Milwaukee; Helen L. Schaars, Madison; Rosemary A. Scott, Fond du Lac; and Lorna R. Smithyman, Pewaukee.

The winner will be selected by this committee: Prof. Paul L. Trump, chairman; Mrs. George Chatterton, Madison; Roma J. Borst, a former Herfurth award winner, Brooklyn; and these faculty members: Dean of Women Louise Troxell, Prof. Helen Dawe, Prof. C. H. Sorum, Assoc. Prof. Katherine L. Cronin.

Half Dollar Raise In Dues Approved By MHA Cabinet

A 50 cent increase in dues was approved by the Mens' Halls association (MHA) cabinet last night after it passed the proposed budget for the 1951-'52 school year.

The increase in dues was passed after more than $800 had been trimmed from the proposed budget. The final budget figure for proposed expenditures is $15,868.65.

The dues increase was attributed to an increase in the price of athletic equipment and administrative expenses, and because revenues from the dorm store operated by the MHA have fallen from previous years' record highs.

In other business, the cabinet heard a report by Bill Comstock, chairman of 1951 Legislators' Day, on possible reasons for the poor attendance of legislators at the day this year. Comstock said that the affair took place when the assembly and senate were doing the greatest share of their legislative work.

The Legislators' Day committee probably will have a surplus of about $90, which will be kept as a future contingency reserve for the committee, Comstock said.

Harry Fischer, president of the MHA, announced that election of officers for the 1951-'52 cabinet would be held next Wednesday.

Blood Drive To Start Monday; 1,000 Pint Goal Set for Campus

Another all campus blood drive will get underway on Monday, May 21, with a goal of obtaining 1,000 pints of blood. Ted Taylor and James Jensen, chairmen of the drive, have announced.

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be set up in Great hall between 1 and 6 p. m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturday.

A parade advertising the drive will march down Langdon st. today at 12:30 p. m. Convertibles, Badger beauties and a dixieland band will be used to stimulate interest in the drive.

Students should obtain pledge cards at the Union desk or at the information window in Bascom hall. On these the donors should indicate their choice of day and hour.

Students between the ages of 18 and 21 must have their parent's signature on these cards. After these cards have been filled out they should be left at the Union desk.

Those who cannot pick up these cards and who wish to donate their blood should make an appointment in Great hall early next week.

University students have already contributed more than 600 pints of blood since June 1950 in three separate drives.

Phi Beta Kappa Initiation

Baldwin Emphasizes US Aid to World

Technical assistance and military preparedness must not be the limit of United States aid to the world, Ira L. Baldwin told the annual Phi Beta Kappa initiation dinner at the Union last night.

Baldwin, the university's vice-president of academic affairs, said this country must "aid in the great efforts which will be necessary to develop in various corners of the world more stable economies, more equitable governments, and a more satisfactory way of living."

"Inevitably part of these efforts will necessitate military preparedness," he said, "but much more will be needed in the way of assistance from the United States than mere military aid. Assistance in the technical aspects of production alone will not be enough. Improvements in productivity must be accomplished by the development of more satisfactory economic, political, and social organizations."

Baldwin defined scholarship for the 72 initiates as "that dynamic process by which man comes to discover himself and to understand his world."

Scholarship means searching for answers, not taking them ready-made, he said. It means questioning, self-imposed discipline, focusing the knowledge of the ages on the problems of today.

"Scholarship demands truth, honesty, integrity, and hard work," Baldwin declared.

The ceremonies preceding Baldwin's address saw 58 seniors, 12 juniors and 2 faculty members initiated into the society. The faculty members, both receiving honorary memberships, were Baldwin and Prof. Andrew Weaver, speech. Prof. Charlotte Wood, English, president of the local chapter, presided at the ceremonies.

Following Baldwin's speech, a senior response was given by Louise Moede and a junior response by Art Laun.

World News...

AT A GLANCE

FROM THE WIRES OF THE UNITED PRESS

Edited by Stan Zuckerman and Nancy Playman

THE UN POLITICAL COMMITTEE has voted to clamp a tight embargo on arms and war materials to the Chinese and North Korean Communists.

The vote, forty-five to nothing, with nine absentions, paves the way for a final vote by the General Assembly tomorrow. The resolution calls on all nations of the world to ban shipment of arms or strategic materials to areas under Chinese Communist or North Korean control.

An intelligence source says Red China may reopen the Burma road if the proposed UN embargo shuts off the normal sources of supply. The spokesman says the Reds have recently bought hundreds of war surplus American trucks designed to haul military supplies over the eight-hundred mile route from Lashio, Burma, to Kunming, China. An unconfirmed report also says the Communists have begun negotiations with Burma's left-wing government, offering to call off Red rebels in Burma in return for the right to use Burmese ports.

OPENING THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE, Chinese communist troops massed on the Seoul defense line of allied artillery, tanks, and machinegun and aircraft fire. Fighting along a 100-mile front, red troops are again attempting to push back American lines along the flank of their breakthrough.

Failing to crack allied lines north of Seoul, three Communist battalions attacked the perimeter from the northeast side, early Friday, Korean time.

UP Correspondent Richard Applegate reports that Red forces met even heavier defense positions. Allied officers, he said, are confident the Allies can "hurl back the attackers." In the Chunchon sector, there was no sign of the Chinese Communist troops 18 hours after they hit UN elements in an early morning attack yesterday. American and allied forces are fighting to close a hole in their line in the eastern slopes of the Korean mountains, Applegate reports. A Red division crashed through South Korean positions and gained several miles before it was checked.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN said yesterday that he considered firing Gen. MacArthur a year before the actual ouster. Speaking at his weekly news conference, the president said the final decision came when the general issued his ultimatum to the Chinese Communist commander in Korea.

Mr. Truman said the idea of dismissing MacArthur and the final decision to do so originated with him alone, and not with any member of his staff. He emphasized that Secretary of State Dean Acheson had nothing to do with the firing, but that Acheson actually advised caution because of the bitter political row expected to follow MacArthur's recall.

A Welcome To Parents On Their Weekend To Badger Parents

THE CAMPUS WILL be yours this weekend. Student committees have been working hard the past several weeks in preparation for the annual Parent Weekend planned especially for you.

Conducted tours, open houses and a weekend packed with festivities have been designed to give you a good picture of life at the university. Whether you plan to participate in all the planned events or just prefer to sit in on a few informal "bull sessions", the time will be well spent.

It will be an invaluable opportunity to see student life first hand, to meet with your sons and daughters' special friends and favorite teachers, and hear of their own problems all in a campus setting.

FOR THOSE OF YOU who have memories of the university a generation ago, the change will be quite startling. We hope you will find time to survey the site of the new Memorial library, Babcock hall, the engineering wing, the Wisconsin General addition, and other campus building projects.

Your support has been a main factor in making the university a school we've been proud to attend. It's only fitting that one weekend in the year be set aside to show our appreciation for the fruits of this support.

In years past the event was called Mothers' Weekend. We're glad to see that fathers, too, have been included in recent years. It might be a good idea, in fact, to have the entire family represented at these annual weekends.

There can be no better way of raising good public relations for the university.

To Graduating Seniors

LEAVING THE UNIVERSITY will mean leaving a good many things that are hard to say good-bye to flippantly. For most students, one of these, doubtless, will be the Memorial Union — their campus "living room" for four years.

About this time every year the Union comes forth with a proposal which makes it possible not to say good-bye in any final way.

The Union is again offering a $60 life membership which saves students $40 of the regular alumni rate. The semesterly $5.00 or $5.50 paid as a part of university fees will be credited against the total. In addition, a year's leeway is given to pay the balance of the sum.

UNION LIFE MEMBERSHIP includes free admissions you have been used to as a student, preference in reserving seats for paid events, hotel accommodations for your future returns to the campus and a number of other advantages.

Arrangements for life membership can be made by contacting the membership secretary, at the Union.

Both for those who will make Madison their permanent home and for those who will plan to return to the campus for frequent visits, Union life membership is a practical and worthwhile investment.

TO THE '51 ORIENTATION STAFF

To the Cardinal:

On behalf of the entire student body of the Wisconsin Student association we would like to send our encouragement and appreciation for the work you are doing in preparation for next year's orientation program.

The importance of this job cannot be overemphasized for new students must be quickly assimilated into the body and spirit of the Wisconsin students. Adjustment for these new students at first is difficult but it can be greatly eased by a successful orientation program.

We are glad that you realize the necessity for thorough preparation now, far in advance as it is, and are confident that your enthusiasm and spirit will bring an extremely effective orientation in 1951!

Apathy? Blame It on the Girls

By CHRIS ANASTOS

JELLYFISHISM. KLOPFISM. Cardinalism. Student Boardism. Meyerism. Anastosism. Fraternityism, etc., have all been advanced as reasons for student listlessness at this old "Hill hole."

Fellas, I have a new candidate. No it isn't the fade away old soldier. Nor can we blame it on the benedictine, booze bozo.

The honorable victim, I submit, is women. The girls on this campus readily admit to all who want to listen that they have only one object in college life—to catch a fool with educated ears, in other words a man.

They will confess under the "haze" of a "shorty" that when they trap "him," they graduate. Graduation with the degree, M. R. S. is automatically summa cum laude to the unlucky souls on the side lines, who tried hard but whom paint and powder could not disguise.

THE RIGORS of the task are evident. The powder puff hag bags will do anything for that male, when they reach that withering on the vine stage of seniors.

Campus beauties have a classification all their own:

- The 1 a's (raving beauties with a ranting line) are snatched up as freshmen by the silly beaver males, after having plunked down only $75 for education and enlightenment.
- The 2 a's slip by kindergarten and first grade but if they drink hard and fast enough and can beat him at Indian wrestling, they'll get by.
- The 3 a's are the chain smokers. They've had a lot of practice at being sophisticated and can blow smoke rings. Beware—this one is desperate.
- The 4 a's have just about resigned themselves to getting an education.
- And then there are the CO's who object on moral grounds.
- The sorority girls can take it or leave it.

INTELLECTUAL CUROSITY to a woman is what her roommate will wear at the spring formal. Academic freedom is two hours sipping Fauerbach.

Interest in campus affairs begins and ends with dances, parties, and the like. What females know about anything except themselves, can flood a thimble. Even more pathetic is their unawareness and ignorance of local, state, national, and international levels. Sadie out at Unit I thinks Chiang Kai Shek is some new chop suey.

Women exhibit the heights of stupidity and by their apathy inspire like disinterest in masculine circles. The social frat males glorify woman, install her on a pedestal strewn with empty flasks, lipstick-smeared cigarette butts and stupidity.

THEN THERE ARE the women who are sincere and honest, intelligent and alert. They reject the niceties and amenities that may save them from the disgrace of non-conformity. There are all too few of them here.

Karl Meyer Writes

Responses To Jellyfish Edit Fully Exposed

IN HER PERSISTANT WAY, the editor of the Cardinal ominously ordered a full exposure of the nation-wide reaction to the Wisconsin Athenaeum editorial titled "Generation of Jellyfish," which described our college generation as a spineless one.

As the perpetrator of the article, I was happy to oblige—especially happy, since contrary to expectations there WAS a reaction, often flattering sometimes abusive, but always interesting.

The word "jellyfish" appeared to look well in headlines. The editorial was first picked up by the news agencies and articles on it appeared throughout the country.

A radio station in New York City carried an item on its 7 a. m. news broadcast (a dubious commitment) and Wisconsin papers ran an AP story with the startling revelation that the author (me) was jilted in a love affair and was bitter with the world. For full effect, the AP story should have ended with organ music and a soap jingle.

THEN CAME THE MAIL—most of it favorable. Luckily, some correspondents were foolish enough to subscribe to the magazine which costs a dollar a year (plug). Others were not so obliging.

Max Lerner, who needs no introduction, wrote a complimentary note, declaring: "That's a good editorial and badly needed. I think the scolding of your generation should come from you rather than from ours."

An official in the office of education of the federal security agency in Washington wrote:

"Your editorial is so true and so well phrased, I congratulate you most earnestly. I wish you could have a student assembly in Wisconsin devoted to spreading your ideas among the whole student body."

A less ambitious and more critical letter was received from the chairman of the Iowa-Nebraska region of the National Student association. He observed:

"The immediate reaction of most of the people that I have shown it to here was 'by God, he hit the nail right on the head.' However, I have had some people point out, and rightly I think, that the whole social background of this generation of students has been ignored by the article. They also say that the student is not a species by himself and therefore not to be criticized for exhibiting some of the characteristics of the society from which he has come."

A student at Central State Teachers college in Stevens Point wrote that the editorial "seems equally true up here" and asked for 800 reprint copies. Other letters, with a harsher judgment, appeared in the Cardinal.

MORE IMPORTANT THAN the letters was the reaction of the college press. Over a dozen papers reprinted the editorial and even more commented on it. In general, the comment was favorable.

The Technician, publication of the North Carolina State college, observed of the editorial:

"Perhaps we are just exhibiting the common symptoms of the Great Plague... the terrible disease which results in our acceptance of dogma because we dare not think for ourselves... This is a universal disease; our failure as students is not in having caught it, but in not sooner recognizing its appearance."

A sharp dissent was recorded by the editorialist for The Daily Orange of Syracuse. "Wisconsin may be having its troubles," said the Orange, but "universal condemnation of the student... is too large a pill to swallow. The student has a little human dignity in his old frame yet."

But Kansas University Daily was vehemently in agreement with the 'jellyfish' editorial. Concluded the paper:

"Our generation just doesn't care. In fact, we doubt if half the students at K.U. will read this editorial. Half of the half that do, won't finish it, and half of that half will forget it before the sun rises again. And the few who remember? They were already aware of the situation."

Which is about as good a place as any to conclude this summary.

ON THE SOAPBOX space is reserved for readers who feel the urge to write a column themselves once in a while. Contributions are invited and the only limitations are that copy should be typewritten and kept under 400 words.

So They Tell Me

By BUD LEA

Assistant Sports Editor

DOWN TO THE WIRE Hopes are higher than Uncle Walt on Saturday night as the Greek and Boystown sportsmen turn into the homestretch to tally precious points that will decide the 1951 winner of the Badger Bowl and the Supremacy Cup. With the heat on and spring intramural sports reaching a climax, these amateur (?) athletics have less than two weeks to cash in on the big prize.

The Badger Bowl is a traveling trophy awarded to the fraternity that has aggregated the highest total points in intramural sports for the entire school year. Fifty points are given to any team that enters a sport, 20 points for division play, and 80 points for first place in the final league standings. The dorm Supremacy Cup award operates on this same plan.

ADDED ZEST The traveling trophies were first awarded in 1928 when George Little, then director of athletics, promoted the idea to foster more interest in intramural sports. Neither trophy belonged to the IM department, but was donated by Madison businessmen. Sigma Chi won the Bowl in 1946, but it was stolen from their house by some unknown loser. A new one was donated by a downtown jeweler.

That first year, 1928, Theta Chi won the Bowl trophy with 997 points. The men's Hall race started in 1929 and Botkin captured the Supremacy Cup with 676 points. Throughout Langdon street battles, Delta Upsilon has been the most consistent Bowl winner with five times including the last four years. Botkin and Ochsner have been key holders in the Supremacy Cup each taking it five times.

	Botkin	400	1950	Delta Upsilon	813

MACK COURT AND ALLPHA DELTS LEAD With football, basketball, bowling, and volleyball results tabulated, Mack court seems to be heading for its first Supremacy Cup crown with 340 points. Not too far behind is Baumann with 420. Jones back has 310, LaFollette, 300; and Bierman, 260. However, softball play, a very deciding factor, is not completed.

Alpha Delta Phi, with 463 points, holds a scanty lead over second place Beta Theta Pi with 459. Phi Epsilon Kappa is right behind with 458. Kappa Sigma next, 443; and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fifth with 415. When golf, tennis, and softball returns are in, a reshuffle of the top five is expected.

It is interesting to note that of the 4500 men participating in intramural sports, the larger percentage are in independent leagues where no trophy is given.

Wisconsin's Undefeated Frosh Crew Races Chicago Club Here Saturday

By DON ROSE

Wisconsin's undefeated frosh crew meets the Lincoln Park boat club of Chicago Saturday morning in a one mile race on Lake Mendota.

The finish is directly behind the Armory. At 10 a. m. the varsity and jayvee will race over the same course.

Neither Frosh Coach Dick Tipple or Head Coach Norm Sonju know much about the Chicago crew this year, but the freshmen are picked to win.

Colds have kept the varsity and jayvee crews from rowing at top efficiency this week. Del Barrett and Jim Schmidt, varsity mainstays, are rowing, although they both have colds.

Jack Slick, jayvee bowman, has had an infected tooth and wasn't out for practice last night.

Ohio State Leads Big Ten Hitters

Ohio State's Buckeyes, leading the conference with a 6-0 record, has a team hitting average of .316, conference statistics revealed yesterday.

The average is compiled through May 12.

Third baseman Bob Montebello is hitting at a sensational pace of .458.

The mark is considered one of the top in the history of the Big Ten, officials said.

Other OSU hitters are: Howard Moran .444; Jack Gannon, .400; Bert Gutzwiller, .346; Jack Jones, .316; Stewart Hein and Dave Leonard .308.

Vilas, Mack Gilman, Ochsner Score IM Wins

By AL DeCESARO

Vilas assured itself of at least a tie for first place by defeating Bierman, 13-9 in yesterday afternoon's intramural games. John Waldron hit a home run in the first inning with two men on base for Vilas. Dick Otto and Paul Brogan each hit a home run in the fifth inning for the losers.

Jim Barron's line drive homer with two men on base helped Mack Court in its 6-3 win over Chamberlin court. Jones court scored an easy victory over Swenson Court by a 10-4 score. Walter Schellpfeffer hit a long triple with the bases loaded to lead the team to victory.

In the most one sided score of the day, Gilman court defeated Conover court 22-8. Douglas Brown clouted a home run with two teammates on base for Gilman. Bob Piehl added another home run to the Gilman barrage of hits in the second inning.

Ochsner pitcher Al Petri had a home run and a single beside pitching a good game, as Ochsner breezed by Richardson 13-7.

Gavin turned back Bashford in an easy win, 15-2. Three hit pitching by George Spoentgen, of Gavin kept the Bashford team from scoring more than the two runs they did. Harold Baar sparked the Gavin team at bat by hitting a line drive single which scored the first two runs of an eight run second inning rally.

Frankenburger outslugged High house, 13-11. A long homer by Clayton Taves and good clutch hitting by Hyde Murray and John Leman-czyk supplied the scoring punch for Frankenburger. Judd Heckler came up with several good defensive plays and was Frankenburger's outstanding defense man. Al Logan's triple with the bases loaded was the only long blow for High house.

Netters Battle Gophers Today

By BILL HENTZEN

Coach Al Hildebrandt expects his tennis team to win its first dual meet with a Big Ten team today against Minnesota. The match, last home meet for the Cards before the conference matches next week, will be played on the varsity courts starting at 1 p. m.

Last year the Badgers beat the Gophers, 7-2. This season Wisconsin lost to Iowa, 5-4, and Minnesota lost to Iowa, 8-1.

The big man for the Gophers this year is Dick Means, who played No. 1 singles last year, and will continue in that spot this season. He lost to Warren Mueller of Wisconsin in singles last year, but played on the No. 1 doubles team that beat the Card duo of Mueller and Jim Deloye.

Wisconsin's lineup will be the same as in the last few matches.

SINGLES: Jim Deloye, No. 1; Ken Ohm, No. 2; Don Negendank, No. 3; Bill Rudelius, No. 4; Bob Reagan, No. 5; Bill Grunow, No. 6.

Badger Coaches Announce Two Platoons; Game Starts at 3:15

With the final all-out scrimmage one day away, the four Badger coaches yesterday afternoon released the line-ups for the Cardinal vs. White game Saturday afternoon.

End coach Paul Shaw and head scout Fred Marsh are the Cardinal coaches, while backfield coach Bob Odell and line coach Milt Bruhn handle the White squad.

The game will start at 3:15 p. m. in Camp Randall stadium. Tickets for the game may be purchased at the stadium ticket office.

Coupon book holders may buy tickets for 50 cents.

Captains for the game were announced earlier by Coach Ivy Williams. Fullback Rollie Strehlow and end Hal Faverty will co-captain the White eleven and halfback Eddie Withers and quarterback Johnny Conover will lead the Cardinal-clad team.

Ronnie Unke Hurls Opener

Cards In Poor Shape For Iowa

Sophomore Ronnie Unke, winner in his last two starts, will go after his third straight conference win this afternoon at 3:30 when the Badgers meet Iowa at Iowa City.

Unke has posted impressive shut-out victories over Illinois, 2-0 and Northwestern, 5-0. He will probably be opposed by Glenn Drahn, veteran Hawk hurler.

Wisconsin, as a result of injuries and sickness, may not be in top physical condition for the first Iowa game. Ronnie Barbian, Card first baseman who has started to hold his own, tore a shoulder muscle in Wednesday's workout and may not see any action.

Barbian complained that he had trouble throwing and swinging. Al Suter will replace Barbian at first, should the Milwaukee hander be benched.

Harvey Kuenn will start at short stop but will not be in top condition. Kuenn who was sidelined in the Monday Camp McCoy game was discharged from the Student Infirmary Thursday afternoon.

Kuenn had been troubled with a heavy cold and is still in weak condition. Capt. Shelly Fink who filled in for Kuenn at short on Monday will be back at his old post, second base.

The remainder of the Badger lineup will be the same. Tom Cooper, in a mild hitting slump will be behind the plate. Mel Gaestel will handle third base.

The outfield trio will be Paul Furseth in left, Jim Van Dien in center, and either Don Kenefick or Bob Van Eerden in right.

Coach Art Mansfield said that he will use left hander Vern Andrews in the Saturday game. Andrews who hasn't been very effective in his past two conference starts will be out to prove himself.

One amendment calls for a $3,900,000 appropriation for buildings. Buildings for the new college would be built on the Milwaukee State Teachers college campus, and the Milwaukee extension buildings would then be used for night school classes.

Another amendment would place the president of the Lake Shore college directly under the control of university president E. B. Fred.

The finance committee did however approve a substitute amendment introduced by Sen. George Meyer, (R., Milwaukee), one of the authors of original Lake Shore college bill.

The substitute provides for construction of a new library, training school and enlarged extension building at the present Milwaukee Teachers college.

EVER HOLD HANDS LIKE THESE?

They're not soft and warm, these hands. They're hard and cold — and mechanical. They work at the Oak Ridge atomic energy plant, preparing radioactive isotopes for shipment to Bell Telephone Laboratories and to other research centers.

These isotopes — which serve as tracers — are used by Bell scientists to study the materials that go into the telephone system. Our research men, working with Geiger counters, are able to detect wear in relay contacts, impurities in metals, the penetration of preservatives in wood.

This new research tool helps us to learn more in less time, helps us to make telephone equipment even more rugged and dependable. That's especially important right now when the Nation relies on the telephone to help get things done.
