REGARDING SPECIAL HONORS

RULES RECENTLY ADOPTED BY THE FACULTY.

HONORS MUST BE APPLIED FOR
IN MAY.

Will be Decided on the Second Monday in June.

At a meeting of the faculty held Dec. 3 the following rules concerning special honors were adopted:

1. Special honors will be awarded by the faculty at graduation to such students as have prepared theses of exceptional excellence to which they have devoted an amount of time above that required for graduation at least equivalent to three-fifth study for two terms.

2. Candidates for special honors must be nominated to the faculty by the professor in whose department honors are sought not later than the third Monday in May. Each nomination, together with the thesis of the nominee, shall be referred to a committee of three to be named by the president, and to consist of instructors in subjects allied to that of the thesis, excluding the instructor under whom the work was done.

3. The committees shall report to the faculty not later than the first Monday of June the names of students worthy of special honors. These reports shall be upon the table one week, and be voted on by the faculty not later than the second Monday of June.

F. G. Hubbard,
Secretary of the Faculty pro tem.

UNITARIAN GUILD.

The regular meeting of the Young People's Guild takes place next Saturday evening at 7:30 in the parlor of the Unitarian church. The following program has been prepared:

Talk on Self-Reliance—H. M. Lewis.
Paper—Dr. Van Hise.

Conversation and Study of Self-Reliance—Guild.

Social.

All are most cordially invited to attend. Please bring your books.

PRESIDENT HARPER ON FOOTBALL.

President Harper, of the University of Chicago, is decidedly in favor of football. In a recent interview he spoke as follows in regard to the game:

"I can at least say three things about football: In the first place, I believe in football as a college game most thoroughly. We must never consider the question of abolishing it. In the second place I disbelieve just as firmly in any and every kind of brutality connected with it. This brutality is unnecessary and must be eradicated. In the third place the colleges must stand for a clean football regime, clean as to professionalism and clean as to brutality and unfair play."

We must make it a game that will be respectable.

"The college has got to have games; they are as essential to university life as any other part of the university, but they must be decent and respectable in every particular, and if they are not that today they must be made so. Furthermore, a man who isn't square must be immediately dropped from the team and dismissed from the university. The University of Chicago will encourage football to the fullest extent, especially inter-collegiate football, but only with institutions in which the same high ideal is cherished."

PROPOSED CHANGES IN FOOTBALL.

The following amendments to the football rules suggested by Caspar W. Whitney in the current number of Harper's Weekly, may be of interest:

"Football needs three new rules: 1st. The ball declared down instantly a runner tackled and held; not in the present interpretation of 'held,' but to be defined as meaning when the runner's progress is stopped. It would be simple enough of application by a good referee, even in the line bucking, and would stop breaking a man in two under a struggling mass of players when the ball has been called down. It would operate for the most good, however, in tackling the runner in the open, where the present license he has of wriggling ahead after thrown gives the tackler an excuse for getting his knees into his head, and several others the opportunity of jumping on him, for fear he might gain a few inches more. Once the referee's whistle had blown, no man could fall on him without penalty. 2nd. The English rule on the attempt at free catch by the backs, which is that the opposing players may not go nearer than five yards on the attempt. The present rule is worse than the old one; a man is bowled over now invariably unless he holds up his hand, and he is not always in a position to act for the best advantage of his side. It may be argued that keeping the rushers back five yards would give the man catching too good an opportunity to run and his interference to form, but, on the other hand, it is quite as true that the successful catching of a kick should carry some advantages; it is very difficult, and a back has earned the right to try for a run—if he is clever enough. 3d. Two umpires, instead of one, authorized by the rules to disqualify instantly on the first exhibition of slugging or unnecessary roughness in tackling.

HARE AND HOUND CHASE.

A hare and hound chase started from the gymnasium at 3 p. m. today. The leaders laid out a longer course than has been run before and pains were taken to avoid crossing fields where there is snow, thus preventing any from getting their feet wet. Plenty of hot water was provided so that all could take good baths and rub-downs after the return.

—Two hundred new lockers will be placed in the locker room at the gymnasium during the vacation. They will all be furnished with combination locks.

CHANGES IN FOOTBALL.

Mr. J. C. Thatcher, '82, who was one of the coaches of this year's Harvard team, has suggested some interesting definite changes along the lines so much discussed lately. His propositions may be summarized as follows: There should be two umpires, one to watch off-side plays and the other to attend solely to rough play; and this latter official, for big games like the Harvard-Yale and Yale-Princeton games should not be a college football player, but some gentleman of high standing, impartial and clear-headed, who has no sympathy with either of the rivals and who would promptly disqualify when there is any approach to intentional rough play.

Interference is mainly responsible for the banging and crashing in the lines, frequently exhausting many men who are in points of attack. Mass plays and many other modern movements, which put too great a premium on mere brute strength and are particularly dangerous, should be done away with. Tackling below the knee is dangerous and should not be permitted.—Harvard Daily News.

INTERCOLLEGIATE GYMNASTIC ASSOCIATION.

The preliminary steps towards forming an Intercollegiate Gymnastic association were taken at a meeting held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, Friday evening. G. H. Perkins of the University of Pennsylvania was chosen temporary chairman and A. G. Bugbee of Dartmouth, secretary. A constitution was framed and will be submitted to the consideration of the association at a regular meeting to be called in the near future by the chairman. Final organization will be effected at that meeting.

It is proposed to include in the association, Harvard, Yale, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania, Cornell, Dartmouth, Amherst, Williams, Swarthmore, Haverford, and the University of Virginia. The new league will be similar to the intercollegiate Track Athletic association, and championship contests will be held annually.—Harvard Daily News.

PORTRAIT OF PROFESSOR KNOX IS HUNG.

Ceremony of Unveiling at Rush Medical College Yesterday.

The bronze portrait of Prof. J. D. Knox was unveiled yesterday afternoon at Rush Medical college with fitting exercises. These were witnessed by the faculty, students, and many outsiders. The presentation on behalf of Mrs. Knox, the widow, was made by Dr. E. L. Holmes, president of the college, and the gift was accepted for the corporation by Prof. J. H. Edwards. Dr. Withrow then made an address. The portrait was made in Munich, Germany, under the direction of Mrs. Knox. Dr. Knox was many years professor of obstetrics.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL.

The Athletic and Military council will meet at 7 p. m. this evening in Prof. Elsom's office at the gymnasium. Prof. C. N. Gregory has recently been added to this committee.

TABLEAUX AT THE GUILD HALL.

Interesting Program at the Grace Church Bazaar.

Last evening a large number of people took supper at the guild hall served by the ladies of the Grace church guild. An entertaining program of tableaux was carried out later in the evening, including scenes from Shakespeare and other living pictures from the popular illustrated magazines. Among those who took part were the Misses Ella Gernon, Mary Vilas, Mary Fairchild, Amy Stevens, Florence Bashford, Katherine Potter, of Baraboo, Clara McConnell, Grace Nicodemus, Mamie Cholvin, Alma Taylor, Caryl Fairchild, and Messrs. Henry Vilas, R. C. Nicodemus, C. F. McClure, and A. K. Sedgwick. Mr. Marcus C. Ford's handsome Irish setter, Dixie, made a hit in the tableau, In Disgrace. Master Phil Spooner sang a pleasing solo and Mr. W. G. Sirel played a charming piano solo, both of which were deservedly heartily applauded.

The bazaar has been very successful, both from a financial standpoint and as a pleasing social affair. The new guild hall has become one of the most charming of places in which to enjoy an evening, and forms a fit setting for the many excellent entertainments for which the ladies' guild and St. Margaret's ward of Grace church have become famous.

AROUSED THEIR RISIBILITIES.

Eli Perkins on the Philosophy of Wit and Humor.

Ben Butler once said he was acquainted with the three greatest liars in the world. One, he said, was Tom Ochiltree, of Texas, and the other two were Eli Perkins. A large audience which taxed the capacious auditorium of the M. E. church last evening was impressed more than ever before of the truthfulness of Butler's remark while Perkins delivered his famous lecture on the Philosophy of Wit and Humor. The lecturer kept his auditors in convulsions of laughter most of the evening, occasionally touching a serious vein which gave an additional enjoyment to the occasion, for Perkins is a master of pathos as well as of wit and humor. He said humor is but truth deformed while wit is the child of imagination with no unnecessary connection with truth. In his own inimitable way he told a grist of jokes, anecdotes and humorous stories consuming in their recital the major portion of two hours.

Perkins' personal appearance is in harmony with his humor. He has unusually large ears, an enormous mouth, long slim arms and big hands, all of which he uses to much advantage during his talk.

MATHEMATICAL CLUB.

The club meets tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in room 21 Science hall. Program:

A paper on the Life of Sir Wm. Rowan Hamilton by P. E. Doudna.
"Some New Plane and Spherical Triangles," by Dr. Van Vleck.

The members of last year's baseball team will meet in the gymnasium tomorrow at 5 p. m. to elect a captain for this year's nine.

again be turned to intercollegiate debates and oratorical contests.The University Press club will hold its last meeting of the term on Wednesday evening next. All those intending to join can take this opportunity to do so.The spirit with which the cross country runs are being carried out, is commendable. These runs are excellent training and are open to all the students.It has been noticed recently that it has become a habit of the young ladies to almost blockade their stairway in University hall. This is the case on every floor of the building and is now almost impossible to pass without great delay in going and coming from classes. It is apparently due almost wholly to thoughtlessness on their part. This is a small matter it may seem to many, and hence has a bright side, that it can easily be remedied. If a custom was once established of always keeping to the right in both ascending and descending the stairs a clear way would be open to all. The various landings are not intended for reception rooms; there is place enough for this purpose in the rotunda. The trouble is seldom experienced by gentlemen students for the simple reason that they maintain this habit of always keeping to the right.

WESTERN FOOTBALL RECORDS.

A comparison of the games played by the three leading western colleges is interesting. Wisconsin has won every game and has not been scored against. Minnesota has been scored on twice and beaten once.Michigan has lost one game and tied once (with an academy team) and has been scored against in every game played save two, those with Adrian and Albion. They have been shut out once. Most of their games have been with small colleges or academies and where they did meet a school anywhere near their own size, as Oberlin, Chicago and Cornell, the result was not so one-sided.

The records are as follows:

UNIVERSITIES OF THE WORLD.

The "Minera," or international university calendar for 1894-95 has just appeared. Each year it gains in proportion and scope. Vol. I (1891-92) contained 359 pp. with reports from 147 universities; Vol. II (1892-93) had 827
pp. and reports from 170 schools and universities; Vol. III (1893-94) had 861
pp. and reports from 240 schools and universities; and now Vol. IV with 929 pp., includes 286 schools and universities. The book has already asserted its place as one of the most accurate and valuable of our annuals.The American universities are ranked numerically as follows: Harvard, Michigan, Yale, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Cornell. Harvard is ranked tenth in the world.

COLLEGE NEWS.

The Christmas trip of the Columbia College Musical society will extend through Washington, Wilmington, Lakewood and Philadelphia.

S. M. Sayford, the leader of the "Amherst Student Movement," is making a tour of western colleges.

Williams, quarter back on the University of Pennsylvania football team, has been elected captain for next year.

The candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor of Massachusetts, who were elected at the recent election, are both Harvard graduates.

The sophomore class of Columbia College will produce a three-act farce-comedy entitled, "Our Boys Up to Date," at the Berkeley Lyceum, on December 17 and 18, to pay off the debt incurred by the '97 crew last year.

The Harvard Varsity crew candidates have been in training in the gymnasium for several weeks. In Mr. Lathrop's opinion they have been working too hard and so have been laid off for two weeks.

The Columbia trustees have decided that the first buildings erected on their new campus shall be the library, the buildings for the school of arts, natural sciences, engineering, chemistry and metallurgy, and the triple building for the gymnasium, theater and dining hall.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mrs. Deborah Jones, aged 118, has a daughter 84 years old living with her in the family homestead in Toronto.

Mrs. M. L. Harrison, of San Francisco, has the unique honor of being the only woman manager of the woman's department of a large insurance company in the country.

Mayor Strong, of New York, has selected John E. Hedges as his private secretary. Mr. Hedges is a Princeton graduate, a lawyer and a pronounced and prominent republican. He is only 32 years old.

Cricket is a favorite game in India, particularly in the hilly district, where the army officers go to cool off. In a recent match Lord Wenlock and Lord Harris, the governors general of Bombay and Madras, played in the same eleven.
