J.P. STANTON WRITES A POEM IN MEMORY OF WIFE.

Mr. J.P. Stanton has been spending several days visiting his old friends in Lake Geneva and vicinity. He believes that he has the record for County Fair attendance, having attended 63 th one this year.

He was born at Mound Prairie over in Randall Township, Kenosha Co. near Powers Lake over 81 years ago.

Since his wife's death sixteen years ago he has made his home in La Grange, Ill.

He has a poetic mind and was reciting the following to two of his friends of his younger days, when the editor found him sitting in front of Travers Hotel last week.

Though the poem might not stand the test of an examination by a Professor of Literature it has real sentiment worth placing it in this week's issue of Bay Leaves. It is dedicated to his wife who passed away several years ago.

WHEN SHE WAS HERE.

When she was here, the one I loved and lost,
Joy reigned supreme, I counted not the cost,
The house in which her presence filled, Re-echoes with her voice that's stilled.
Her sacred room, when I intrude, but greets me with its solitude.

I worshipped for her own dear sake
The homey things that she did make.
WHEN SHE WAS HERE

When she was here no favor I could ask Would seem to her in any a task,
A word, a smile, a fond caress
Would prompt me to a new success.
The flowers that she loved and reared
Have for a moment disappeared,
But to return each Spring to grace
The verdure of her resting place.
The birds will nest where oft before She watched them from her open door,
And pets will wistfully wait
Her steps at the open gate,
WHEN SHE WAS HERE.

WHEN SHE WAS HERE the magic of her hand
Was something I could never understand,
The touch that soothed my aching brow,
I'll feel no more and yet some how

There shines about me all the while The radiance of that loved one's smile.
I cannot see her, but I feel
Her queenly presence as I kneel
And thank the gracious Lord divine
For the helpmeet that was mine,
And with his aid I will try and be
The man she would want me to be
IF SHE WAS HERE.

COOLER BUT FINE FALL WEATHER.

As yet (- Wednesday) we have had no frosts and vegetation is green. Many trees have lost their leaves, many others are in Autumn colors.

Come on up next Sunday. Many make the trip weekly and get a lot of enjoyment out of the Autumn days.

THE BELFRY PLAYERS

The Annual Belfry Ball, which had to be postponed this summer because of the exceptionally large repertoire offered at the Belfry Theatre during the season, will be held at the Hotel Normandie, Wms Bay, on October 30, for the Belfry Players and their guests. Those in charge of the arrangements for the Ball are Henry Reynolds, Betty Singer, Loraine Reynolds, Virginia Rietz and Wilbur Pett. The Committee has planned a treasure hunt for the first part of the evening, to be followed by dancing in the Hotel Dining Room.

Do not forget to send your post-office address when you make any change. You will not want to miss any copies.
Do not forget the postcard.

Mrs. Helen Agnes Lenney, wife of Michael T. Lenney, Postmaster at Williams Bay, passed away at 1 p.m. October 15th at her home in Cedar Point Park after an illness of several weeks.

Relatives and friends gathered at the home just before the funeral procession to St. Benedict Catholic Church at Fontana, where Requiem Mass was conducted at 9.00 on Tuesday morning by Father McDermott of Delavan, who presided in the absence of Father Manley, who is attending the Eucharist Congress at New Orleans. The Delavan Choir and Choir Boys assisted in the service.

Burial was at All Saints Cemetery, DesPlaines, Ill. where many friends who could not attend the service here, were present.

There were many beautiful floral tributes from friends, relatives, business men of the Bay, and the members of societies.

Mrs. Helen Agnes Lenney was born on March 29, 1879 at Kendall, Monroe Co., Wis. to Mr. and Mrs. William Pollard. She was married to Michael T. Lenney, August 16, 1910 at Elgin, Ill.

Besides her husband she is survived by a foster-daughter, Mrs. Harry J. Meyer of Chicago, who was in constant attendance during her illness, also six sisters and two brothers and many nieces and nephews.

Out of town relatives and friends were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Meyer and daughter, Helen of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barrett (sister) Camp Douglass, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Walker (sister), Chicago; Mrs. Walker Hinkle (sister) Canton, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. John Elkington (sister) Adams, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Benzie (sister) Janesville, Wisconsin and family; Mrs. John Jirschele (sister) and son, Roy, Kendall, Wis.; (cont.).

LORETTA PETERSON BECOMES BRIDE OF HAROLD BERNARD HOPE IN BEAUTIFUL CHURCH SETTING

The Gospel Tabernacle was the scene of a very pretty fall wedding on Friday evening, October 14, at 8 o'clock, when Loretta Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.T.
Peterson, became the bride of Harold Bernard Hope, son of Mrs.
Katherine Hope, Chicago.

Preceding the marriage ceremony Miss Beth Kinney, Chicago, sang
"O, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly", accompanied by Madeline Holm, who played the Prelude to Opera Lohengrin as the members of the wedding party took their places before the altar.

FATHER ESCORTS BRIDE

To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, the bride entered the sanctuary escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage at the altar, which was banked with palms, ferns, pink and yellow gladiolas and baskets of yellow baby chrysanthemums. The Rev. Robert K. Kinney read the ceremony in the presence of about one hundred fifty relatives and friends.

The bride was charming in a princess style gown of white satin with train. Her finger-tip veil edged with satin ribbon, fell from a halo cap embroidered in beads.
She carried an arm bouquet of white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Ardis Peterson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a turquoise blue satin gown with slippers to match and carried a corsage bouquet of yellow baby chrysanthemums. Miss Olive Palm and Miss Dorothy Hedstrom, Chicago, were bridesmaids, wearing rust color satin gowns with matching slippers.
They carried corsage bouquets of pink and white baby chrysanthemums.

Arnold Hope, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Clifford Johnson and Carl Jacobson of Chicago.

ATTEND WALWORTH COUNTY CLUB INSTITUTE AT LAKE GENEVA

LORETTA PETERSON BECOMES BRIDE OF HAROLD BERNARD HOPE (Con't)

A group of women from Wms Bay attended the Walworth County Club Institute at the High School auditorium on Tuesday. The program given by District and County officers of the Federated Wisconsin Womens Clubs was most interesting, especially so was the talk given by Mrs. I.B. Davies of Delavan, past president of the District Federated Clubs, on "Our Industrial Problems". A little of the information given by her - one-half of the men and women employed in industries today that did not exist 46 years ago.

In 1929 there were more people per 1000 capita employed than ever before employed at any one period in this country.

An International Survey shows that an estimated average of $8000 must be invested in machinery and other equipment in industry today to create one job for one person, either man or woman. 3% of all payrolls in industry goes for unemployment reserve.

One fourth of all Social Security cards in America are today issued to women employed between the ages of 20 and 34 years of age. This does not include government employees, domestic and teachers. Social Security fund is paid 1% by the employer and 1% by the employee. Industry is so taxed and regulated today that there is little profit to be made and stockholders have to be almost left out entirely. The power to tax also becomes the power to destroy.

The first Club Institute in the District was organized in Walworth County in 1931 by Mrs. I.B. Davies, Delavan, who was District chairman of Federated Clubs. This was the 8th Club Institute to be held in Walworth County.

Woman's Clubs come into being because women today have more leisure time than before. A club to be well organized must have a definite program of objectives and well financed. There are Study, Social and Civic clubs in most all communities. Join your local club because it expresses group activity in your community.

in the church parlors, after which a wedding dinner was served to one hundred seven guests. A large white wedding cake was the center piece on the bridal table with white tapers at the ends, mixed bouquets decorated the center of the other tables. The dinner was held at Rose Lane Hotel.

The young couple received many very beautiful wedding gifts.

TO LIVE IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Hope is a graduate of the Williams Bay High School, Class of 1934, and has lived in Wms Bay all her life. Mr. Hope is employed in the offices of the Commonwealth Edison Co., Chicago. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hope will reside in Chicago.

Out of town guests were from Chicago: Mrs. Katherine Hope, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hope, brother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphsen, sister of the groom, Mrs. Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Graneth, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Peterson, Mr. Clifford Johnson, Miss Eleanor Ross, Miss Esther Frick, Mrs. E. Ihle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rierson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Eglund, Mr. and Mrs. C. ## LEVI ZEIGLER LEITER

(This is the fourth of a series of articles about the First Families on Lake Geneva).

Mr. Levi Z. Leiter rated Who's Who in America and in the 1904 volume we find the following: (*)

Born in Leitersburg, Washington Co. Md. 1834; educated there, then he clerked in a Country General Store until 1853; employed in store of Peter Murray at Springfield, O. 1854; first entered employment of Messrs. Downs and VanWyck; employe and later partner Cooley, Wadsworth & Co. dry goods, Chicago until Jan. 1, 1865 when he and Marshall Field who had entered at same time as he and by their excellent services had acquired large interests, sold them to John V. Farwell and then bought a controlling interest in the dry goods business of Potter Palmer. The Firm became Field, Leiter and Co. until 1881 when he sold his interest and retired.

He then gave his attention to buying and improving business properties in Chicago.

He was temperate in all his habits, prided himself on his strong physique and had great application and endurance.

During his active business career he was an indomitable worker and required a lot from his employees but was liberal with them if they were workers.

He stated at his retirement that he wished to devote more of his time to his family, to travel and to his choice library, which was one of the best private collections in the United States).

Mr. Leiter was a descendant of well-to-do Calvinistic Dutch parents and took an active part in aiding the American Sunday School Union. For many years he was a director of the Chicago Relief and Aid Society. He was the first president of the Commercial Club, member of the Iroquois, Chicago, Calumet, the Union, Washington Park and the Union League Clubs.

He was active in the Chicago Historical Society, president of the Chicago Art Institute in 1835, succeeding George Armour who was the first executive.

His holdings in real-estate and stocks was very large at one time but large losses came in his later years in trying to save the family name by helping to make good his son's losses on the Board of Trade. It was characteristic of the man.

In 1866 he was married to Mary Theresa Carver. He had four children, Joseph, Nancy, Marguerite (Daisy) and Mary Victoria. (More about them in a later article).

The property now subdivided into Lake Geneva Manor was the Leiter home on the lake. The enormous house was considered at the time it was built in 1879 as one of the finest in the state.

There were large stables and many carriages in those days. The barns were up near the highway and the slope had gardens and vineyards which were cultivated under the direction of James Burke.

Many men in Lake Geneva worked at one time or another for Mr. Leiter. He paid above the regular wage of $1.25 per day but insisted that every one work.

Mr. Leiter loved his home and liked to have friends visit but often embarrassed his daughters who married high into society by insisting upon tucking his napkin under his chin.

He believed in Lake Geneva lake property and bought large tracts between it and Como and at the upper end. What is now Big Foot Country Club and Country Club Estates were once his property. There were the Leiter Trout Ponds.

Death came to Mr. Leiter in 1904.

Other articles about Chicago men who made Lake Geneva their playground will appear in future issues. (*) Other information added.

L.A. RASMUSSEN, VILLAGE BLACK-SMITH BUILDS HOSE CART.

The Delavan Lake Fire Department had an old rural fire truck which had seen better days and needed a hose cart. The officers told their story to Louis who can fix anything. Result: Yesterday they came after the hose cart. He had lengthened the chassis 9 feet and placed fasteners for carrying 145 feet of ladders.

It is an attractive job and will be a big help in the work of fighting fires needing ladders. The truck will be stationed at Lake Lawn Hotel.

As a part of Fire Prevention week the Lake Geneva Fire Department made a call at the public school and at the alarm the pupils marched out. The three buildings were emptied in three minutes in perfect order. Twenty-seven of the members made an investigation of the building, which rates very high. Copies of Fire Prevention booklet were given to the pupils.

It is a good thing for our neighbors by dealers that the automobile manufacturers are getting busy. It is really a problem to get the cars sold.

Indications are that there will be a lot of new cars on the road around here this Winter. The models are so changed that the man who wants the latest must buy a new one. His last years model will be decidedly noticeable.

Better drop around and look at the new Buicks, Oldsmobiles and Chevrolets, which are now on exhibition.

Stop in at Lake Geneva Auto Station and see the 1910 Buick, what a car it was then. The car belongs to Wm. M. Spencer and his boys had a great time running it on their estate last Summer. It runs as good as ever.

MISS CALVERT GAVE INTERESTING STORY OF HER TRAVELS.

Miss Calvert showed her interest in church work by the trend of her talk last Sunday evening at the Williams Bay Congregational Church. She visited scores of cathedrals in England, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, France, Germany, Italy, etc.

That wasn't all she saw as she is a keen observer of folk as well.

She went to an Astronomical Convention in Sweden, that was the excuse she said she had for making the trip.

She exhibited a large number of postcard and other pictures mounted on card board in the order of her seeing the places shown.

Every possible courtesy was extended to their party. They were especially attentive in Germany where she visited Munich.

It was difficult to cover so many interesting trips in so limited time. She may tell more later.
