NOTE: This is a copy of Rose's original tape, made in the Spring of 1965, of the playing of Ole Lear. Ole was a Norwegian friend of Walter Levine who had worked with him on the docks in Superior.

1. A German piece which Ole learned as a POW in WWII.
2. Ditto.
3. Another German song, "Eine Kleine . . ."
4. "Old Norway."
5. "Viking Schottische."
6. "Ole's Tune," a polka.
7. "A Stranger in My Home." This sounds like a C&W tune. According to Rose Swanson, Ole "used to sing it to his wife all the time to tease her."
8. "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere."
