Copies of Badger Are Put on Sale

About 25 copies of the Badger, university yearbook, remain uncalled for. These will be placed on open sale in order to avail summer session students of an opportunity of securing one of the volumes. For securing copies of the Badger may be made by calling Horace B. Powell, B4300. The open sale price is $5 per copy.

No regular booth will be opened on the campus, but arrangements were made for 4,300 copies of the Badger put on sale about ten days prior to the closing of the regular school year. At the end of that time the booths were closed and the remaining copies locked up. Because of this several people who had signed for the book were unable to secure their copies.

Octopus Will Be First Humor Mag In Summer Field

Seamon and Towell Will Head
Publication; Will Credit
Contributions

A summer Octopus will be published for the first time in history of the university. This will be the only college humor magazine in the United States to be issued in the summer session.

The book will consist of 32 pages of art and humor pertinent to summer activities, which will be written by summer session students.

This year the Octopus was voted the cleanest humor publication in the United States at a national convention held in Toronto.

"We want this book to be representative of the talent which is enrolled for the summer courses, and we feel sure that those who write will appreciate an opportunity to help issue a 'knock out' book," said Cedric E. Seamon yesterday.

A new feature of the book will be that all cartoons, drawings, and editorial material will be credited to those who offer them, in a list of contributors.

The staff will be Cedric E. Seamon, Editor; Edward N. Lee, Associate Editor; Gordon Lewis, publicity; Arthur Towell, business manager; and Milo Smith, associate business manager. Other positions are yet to be filled.

French Club Holds First of Meetings

The French club held its first meeting of the summer session Thursday night in the parlors of Lathrop hall. There will be a meeting each Thursday night in the same place and there will be interesting programs each time consisting of various dramatic productions, and music games. All those who understand and speak French are cordially invited to attend.

The meeting was opened by a short but very appropriate speech of welcome to the members old and new by Mr. Zdanowicz, Chairman of the Department of Romance Languages. After that the following officers were elected: Mr. John Alexander of Greenville, Ill., President; Miss Florence Cate and Miss Harriet Koch, Vice Presidents; Miss E. Tilsdale, secretary, and Mr. John Irwin, '22, as treasurer.

Miss Erma DeJans who has attended the University this year on one of the Belgian Scholarships recently established gave a reading from "De Goupil a Margot." This was followed by the singing of several popular French songs by the entire club, games and refreshments concluding the evening.

Y. W. WILL GIVE MIXER MONDAY

The first Y. W. C. A. mixer of the summer session will be given Monday evening, July 3, in Lathrop gymnasium, from 8:30 to 11:30. The mixer is open to everyone but the number of tickets sold will be limited to 400. Boyd's first orchestra will play.

Tickets will be on sale tomorrow at the Y. W. C. A. office and the University Y. M. C. A. There will be no sale at the door Monday night.

The social hour which has been conducted every noon in the Y. W. C. A. office has proved so popular that the parlors of Lathrop will be used from now on to accommodate those attending. Janet Cummings, '24, and Ida Gilbert, '22, are in charge of the social hour.

Enrollment Reaches 4,660, Is New Record

Continued late registration has increased the enrollment last night to 4660, and Dean S. H. Goodnight's office predicts a final registration of more than 4700. This year's enrollment has already surpassed last year's by more than 100 students.

Registrants usually continue to arrive for two weeks after the official opening of the session, so the enrollment will increase slowly till that time.

LAKE STREETERS GET FIRST FROM LOWMAN'S TEAM

Session Series Opens With Snappy Play on Lower
Campus

Coach Guy S. Lowman's summer session baseball team was defeated yesterday by the Lake Street team, 4 to 1, in the first of a series of games which will be played during the summer.

The winning pitcher, Eagleburger, was consistent throughout the game, retiring Lowman's men in the pinches by the strikeout route. Gus Tebell, varsity outfielder, caught Eagleburger. Boebel started the game for Lowman's aggregation, but was relieved by Peterson. Berger caught both men.

Lowman's team was composed of men who are taking the course in Methods of Baseball coaching, and the opposing nine was made up of men living on Lake street.

Six teams have been organized for a summer session league. The games will be played on the lower campus at 6 p. m. each Tuesday and Thursday during the session.

Men from sectional groups of the states will make up four of the teams, one nine of men from Illinois, and one of Wisconsin men. These games aim to furnish entertainment for students and afford practice for the 26 men enrolled in Coach Lowman's course in baseball coaching.

PLAY "CANDIDA" NEXT THURSDAY

"Candida," a brilliant comedy by George Bernard Shaw, will be presented next Thursday evening in the Open Air theatre behind Bascom hall, by the Shakespeare Players company of New York. Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" will be given the following night, and Saturday afternoon's entertainment will be another Shakespearean comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew." The series is to close Saturday evening with a group of four one-act plays.

"Candida," which has been characterized as a "pleasant play" is the story of a struggle between the husband of Candida, James Morell, and Eugene Marchbanks, a clever youth whom Candida has befriended out of pity for his physical weakness. Marchbanks throughout is attempting to undermine Morell's faith in his wife in whom Morell has utmost confidence when the play begins. Morell is a forceful, kindly character who has the sympathy of the audience with him.

Candida's true nature is revealed in her unflinching solicitude for her husband, but the schemes of the wily Marchbanks bring about situations which keep the interest of the audience at a high pitch. Comic characters, clever lines and unexpected situations which are the creation of Shaw at his best make the play well rounded and interesting presentation.

TO HOLD FIRST CAMPUS MIXER AT 8 TONIGHT

Dean Goodnight Has Charge of Informal Social Gathering

WILL GROUP BY STATES

The first of a series of informal social gatherings for summer session students will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the grove between Lathrop hall and the Law building. Arrangements are in charge of Dean S. H. Goodnight, assisted by Prof. E. B. Gordon, Prof. P. W. Dykema and Dr. J. C. Elsom.

Prof. E. B. Gordon's class in Festivals and Pageants will place cards on the various trees. There will be one card for each state. Students will gather by the card for their respective state.

Games at Lathrop.

At 9 o'clock there will be community singing in Lathrop gymnasium led by Prof. P. W. Dykema. This will be followed by plays and games under the general direction of Dr. J. C. Elsom. There will be no dancing.

These mixers are open to all summer session students. They offer an opportunity for those from distant state to meet and get acquainted with students from their own or neighboring states. They allow also for the formation of state group organizations.

Prof. E. B. Gordon says, "People have found that one of the most delightful phases of a summer here is the sight-seeing trips possible because of the charming surroundings about Madison. The natural group for such trips is the group from one state. For many years such organizations here have planned affairs of their own. These mixers foster such ideas. They also look forward to the final all-university summer session picnic to be held the evening of July 28, when each state group will be called upon to give a 'stunt'."

SCHOLARSHIPS IN FRANCE WARDED TO TWO WOMEN

Heyltje Stewart and Lillian Wengler Chose by Committee

Miss Heyltje Stewart, home economics, and Miss Lillian M. Wengler, sophomore in the College of Letters and Science, were awarded scholarships to study in France next year, according to an announcement made yesterday by the Franco-American Exchange committee of scholarships and fellowships.

Miss Wengler, Madison, is majoring in French, and has had leading roles in plays presented by the French club at regular sessions. Miss Stewart, Philadelphia, Pa., will major in French upon her return to Wisconsin.

Forty students in American colleges and high schools in various parts of the country will be distributed among more than a dozen French universities and colleges. Lycee scholarships at Paris, Versailles, Caen, Beauvais, and Saumur were in the group awarded these Wisconsin students.

These elected to the 50 scholarships offered to French students by American universities and colleges are expected to arrive in September. The Association of American colleges instituted the exchange in 1918.

"MY DEAR that girl is choking right now!"

"AND MY DEAR she can't swim a stroke!"

AND TWO husky Sig Chis were off in a cloud of spray.

"HELL-UP, HELL-UP," mumbled the choked, forgetting to stand while addressing an audience. She straightens out her limbs and lo and behold the devouring element reaches but to her dainty shoulders.

And she didn't get a darn man.

SUMMER PHENOMONON

Tender the voice in the class of Prof. Smith—Why Professor, you haven't talked on me yet.

Heard this after we had crawled under the desk to avoid this favor.

These here Dartmouth boys seem to be moving a dastardly time acclaiming themselves to our Tom Collins, with their more or less Canadian taste.

BEG YOUR PARDON

We omitted from our first list of returning prodigals the following:

Art Laun (back from Holywood)
Mars Madsen (back for an education).

Red Deef and Swede Maroney (to build a house).

And Marj Boesch (back from the corn belt).

Also Will Bloecher did not go north so he is still a close second.

WARNING

To the alleged serenaders who have been driving mosquitoes onto the Pi Phi porch, evenings of late—The water heater has been repaired.

There are 4660 summer students registered.

Eliminating the three good looking ones, the four who drink, the five who dance, and those who drink malteds at the Pharmacy, there are just 4636 to attend the mixers.

C. C. Smith At Head Of Big Utility Deal

Wisconsin Securities Co. Takes Over Menominee And Marinette Co.

MILWAUKEE — Clement C. Smith, president of the Wisconsin Securities company which is the largest Wisconsin owned public utility holding company, today announced the purchase of the Menominee and Marinette Light and Traction company, now supplying the Twin Cities with electric light, power, gas and street railway service.

This deal is said to be of great significance and tremendous benefit to the northeast section of Wisconsin, that the taking over of the Menominee and Marinette properties by the securities company, means the linking together of the electric light and power supply of about fifteen cities, thus providing an abundance of reserve power for the large manufacturing establishments.

Improvements contemplated by Mr. Smith will further expand the operations of industries and are expected to result in the establishment of new manufacturing institutions.

Coming on the heels of the announcement of purchase of the properties of the Eastern Wisconsin Electric companies in Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and Sheboygan by the Middle West Utilities company, the new acquisition is said to be in line with the recommendation of Herbert Hoover, secretary of committee, who is urging interconnection of existing power systems and their reinforcement with larger centralized production units all over the U. S. with the view of eliminating waste in industry and the stabilization of manufacturing itself.

"The newly acquired property will be operated in connection with the Wisconsin Public Service company, Calumet Service company and Sheboygan Gas Light company, also owned by the Wisconsin Securities company," said Mr. Smith. "These companies operate in Brown, Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Kewaunee, Door, Calumet and Oconto counties, chiefly in Green Bay, Marinette, Menominee, De Pere, Manitowoc, Two Rivers, Chilton, Sturgeon Bay, Kewaunee, Algoma, Denmark, Luxemburg, Brillion, Wrightstown, New Holstein, Pound and Coleman, furnishing electric power to a majority of these cities and gas, electric light and electric railway service to several. The Sheboygan Gas Light company furnishes gas to the city of Sheboygan, at which place the electric and railway utilities are owned by the Middle West Utilities company. The Wisconsin Public Service company furnishes gas and electric railway service to De Pere Electric Service being furnished by a local company.

"Marinette and Menominee will be connected with the cities mentioned through a high tension power line of the Wisconsin Public Service company thus tying together the water power plants at High Falls, Johnson Falls and Menominee with the steam plants at Manitowoc, Green Bay and Menominee. This interconnection will necessitate the construction of a twenty mile high tension transmission line from Pound to Marinette. Work on this project will be started in the immediate future."

Gov. Morgan Calls Out Guards in Strike

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—Two companies of the National Guard were sent into the Cabin Creek and Paint Creek districts early today to break up an incipient march against mines on Cabin Creek which have been operating on an open shop basis. The troops were mobilized and dispatched on order of Gov. Morgan after he received reports that bodies of men were gathering on Paint Creek and marching toward Dry Branch, Cabin Creek.

Mayor Oles, Youngstown Mayor, Says He Has Enough of Politics

YOUNGSTOWN—George L. Oles elected mayor of Youngstown on an independent ticket last fall, after a sensational campaign, today resigned from office after six months of administration.

A statement given out by Oles said: "My head is full of public troubles and of praise, enough to last me the rest of my life. No matter what I do, I make enemies."

He attacked business men who signed petitions to retain "at war-time wages," 25 policemen whom he discharged.

A petition asking for Oles' removal as mayor was filed with Gov. Davis a few days ago. The mayor was charged with incompetency and accepting graft.

Men of History Lauded By Leake

That fully one-half of the greatest men of history were produced in a single century and in a region no larger than the state of Rhode Island was the interesting fact brought out by Dr. C. D. Leake, Assistant Professor of Physiology, in the last of his series of four lectures on the History of Science in the auditorium of the Science hall Thursday.

"The Influence of Abstract Thought: Greek Philosophers," was the subject of the lecture in which Dr. Leake thus emphasized the tremendous intellectual activity of the Greeks of the 6th century B. C. and its effect upon the development of science. The causes for the great contribution of this age to civilization he traced in the history of early Greece, the geographical and climatic environment, the custom, social life, composite origin, and economic relations of the people, all of which served to make possible absolute intellectual freedom and fostered the growth of the true scientific spirit.

135 Local Rail Men To Strike

Orders Received Here By Shopmen; Stop Work
At 10 Tomorrow

Upwards of 135 Madison men, employes of the Northwestern and the Milwaukee railroads here, will be out of work tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, unless some unforeseen action is taken by the U. S. Railway Labor board late this afternoon, or by union officials in Chicago.

This information was given out authoritatively here today. Upwards of 75 shopmen, including boiler-makers, machinists, etc., employed at the Milwaukee road roundhouse here, have received word from their union officials to lay down their tools at 10 Saturday morning, according to officials here today.

At the Northwestern road roundhouse about 60 shopmen are employed who have received the word from Chicago.

The orders received here were signed by J. Franklin, general chairman of the shopmen's union, in Chicago.

F. J. Zoelle, local passenger agent of the Northwestern road, declared today that he expected advice from railroad officials in Chicago by noon tomorrow at the latest.

"We all know that the matter is being withheld until it can be determined whether or not it can be settled without a strike," said Mr. Zoelle. "We expect to hear definitely tomorrow noon."

Whether any other classes of men have been ordered to stop work, is not known. Car repair men, also are said to be included in the strike order received here.

Extension Courses Help to Teachers Getting Sciences

Because of the change in requirements for the state teacher's license for those who are not graduates of a college or normal school, the Extension division has arranged correspondence courses in education which are accepted by the state department of public instruction, to aid the candidates in meeting the new requirements, for the first state license, renewal of state license, and life certificate.

Applicants for licenses who come under the recent ruling of the state department of education, may present as educational credits the subjects listed as follows: general psychology, mental development, educational psychology, principles of secondary education, any various departmental course, such as the teaching of German, English, algebra, geometry, and trigonometry.

"The license will not be renewed unless the candidate presents evidence of three additional credits in education, and three more for a life certificate," according to John Callahan, state superintendent.

LONDON — Winston Spencer Churchill, Colonial Secretary, said in the House of Commons today that so far as disorders in parts of Ireland outside Dublin were concerned he was informed that the Free State troops in most cases had obtained control of the situation today particularly in Drogheda.

SUMMER BASEBALL

The interest shown at the baseball game on the lower campus last evening indicates that here is a way to furnish sport to many more players of the game as well as to numerous fans who now find that they have plenty of time to watch the sport.

The six teams that are at present formed are scarcely enough to provide for many games. More teams should be developed from some of the more outstanding baseball material on the campus. The fraternity teams that were entered in the inter-fraternity conference could furnish many players to an independent league. During last summer two or more of the fraternities combined the remnants of their nines and thus put out a team that furnished stiff competition to any teams they met. A few campus clubs found enough players to form very effective teams.

It would be well if some such measure as this was instituted this summer. There are at present too few activities, too few interests for the summer students. Wisconsin has a well-defined duty to not only furnish qualified instruction to its summer students, but also to see that clean and wholesome entertainment is provided for their enjoyment. A lawn fete and so-called mixer once a week is scarcely filling this need. The youth of today enjoy sports and deserve it mixed in with the lighter pageantry of the present summer school type of entertainment. Dancing at mixers has been abolished. There remains little else but baseball to act as some means of relieving the monotony.

Then the more baseball games that can be arranged the better.

Hunt up the baseball equipment, organize a nine and either join the summer baseball league or else start another and independent league. It will be splendid exercise for the players and will provide the badly needed entertainment for the many fans that are present this summer.

YOUTH AND SERENADES

Youth must be served! It has problems and pleasures peculiarly its own. Perhaps they are little understood by the older and saner generation but youth has a fine and careless disregard for many of the conventions and limitations that an older society deems wholly essential.

Consider the Langdon street serenades. There is youth operating in a harmless and even pleasant manner to relieve an excess of feeling, to entertain whoever may care to listen, but most especially and effectively the particular objects of the musical bombardment.

Such serenades as the Latin quarter has recently been privileged to hear have had all the attributes that cause them to be universally welcomed. The music has been well chosen and well rendered. The crowd has been appreciative and encored them many times. But the serenaders have realized when it was time to stop. They chose to entertain for a few minutes and then to leave the vicinity so that neighbors could sleep or study as they might care to do.

There is an old adage that satiety must precede repulsion. If the serenaders had played until the neighborhood was tired of hearing them would not be as welcome again. Instead of being a welcome diversion they would have been an annoyance.

So that youth, in the person of these serenaders, has demonstrated that it may be reasonable as well as impulsive, considerate as well as joyous.

ENJOYING MADISON

Among the much cherished and always greatly lauded possessions of every university is its campus. Each vies with the other to make it the most beautiful in the country, and a loyal student at any institution will not be stinting in his efforts to prove just how this is so.

Wisconsin's campus has always been recognized and admitted to be in the top rank of those which most severely compete for honors. But it is not alone Wisconsin's campus which has won for itself a place in the list of America's beauty spots. Madison, a state pivotal station, is surrounded by an expanse of country that has been most richly endowed with all the gifts of Nature.

The daily walk affords continual enjoyment. Short tramps or longer hikes open new vistas. Canoe trips bring in the added pleasures. Auto trips and tours permit one to truly partake of those original beauties and those that the hand of man has had a part in shaping.

It is not the fortune of everyone to own a car. Neither is it within the power of all to pay a driver for his services in addition to rental charges. The freedom of driving where one wills, the independence that comes with going or coming when one pleases—these things make trips ideal. Madison residents and students in the university are fortunate in having such a service at their demand.

THE TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

The traffic situation in Bascom hall is far from satisfactory. More than that it is working for confusion and tardiness in attendance.

With such a large enrollment it is only reasonable to expect such confusion during the first few days of the summer term. But the rules for traffic guidance are simple and few. It would seem that they could be learned and obeyed without the usual delay of two or three weeks.

The university has no desire to post needless rules. It desires only that a maximum amount of traffic be handled with a minimum amount of confusion and delay. To that end the present regulations have been prescribed.

During the regular year there are 7500 students in the university, while this summer there are over 4500 students largely meeting in but a few buildings. In the summer term the classes are held, for the most part, in the morning only. This means that more students enter and leave Bascom hall in the morning during the summer school than during the regular term. Traffic regulations which are necessary during the rest of the year are an absolute essential under summer school conditions.

And yet the regulations are being violated and ignored. A psychologist would probably tell us that this is the result of the inherent desire of every normal American to be "different;" to avoid all rules and prescribed actions of authority that tend to restrict or govern.

The explanation of the psychologist might be interesting but it fails to remove the evil. Halls will still be congested, classes forced to start late or else to be interrupted by students who would not wend their way through the crowded corridors and stairways.

The conditions must be remedied. Rules for traffic in Bascom are reasonable. They should be heeded and respected. The greater good for the greater number demands it.

STEAMER TOWS DISABLED OCEAN SHIP 2,000 MILES

American S. S. Ala, towing the disabled Eastern Dawn in North Atlantic, photographed from a passing ship.

The towing feat of Capt. H. H. Boye and the crew of the American S. S. Ala is the talk of shipping circles. Finding the S. S. Eastern Star disabled, 700 miles off the Irish coast, Boye towed the ship for twelve days and delivered it safely in Baltimore harbor. It was a 2,000-mile tow. During the trip the ships were buffeted by storms repeatedly, but the line held and port was reached at last. The crew of the Ala are hoping for a salvage reward.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — Dispatches to the state department today from Consul Shaw at Tampico indicated that the 85 employees of the British owned La Corona Oil Co., including the half dozen Americans held yesterday for ransom by outlaws, had been released. The message was very brief and not clear and the department telegraphed immediately for an explanation.

The consul said merely that the 85 persons referred to in his report yesterday of the new bandit raid were "not now held". It was not stated whether the bandits had withdrawn from the property at the Pecera camp of the oil company or whether any payment had been made.

PHILADELPHIA—One bandit is believed to have been killed and two runners of the Textile National bank, and a policeman, were slightly injured in a pistol fight today in which eight men tried to hold up the runners in the northeastern part of the city.

Six Million Is Limit Set For Highways

Legislative Committee To Distribute Federal Aid Fund, Belief

The distribution of $6,000,000 of federal aid money for use in building Wisconsin roads during the next four years will probably be made by a committee of the 1921 legislature because of a provision in the federal act limiting the amount of highways that may be improved by the funds, it was learned today.

Under the federal aid statute, the roads that may be improved are limited to 7 per cent of the total mileage of the state. This amounts to approximately 5,500 miles in Wisconsin, according to M. J. Thorkelson, assistant chief engineer of the highway department, while the state trunk highway system total 7,500 miles.

There are said to be 4,500 miles of the state trunk highway which should without question receive federal aid, leaving an additional 1,000 miles to be selected for improvement with federal money. It is in determining what part of the remaining 3,000 miles should have the use of this federal aid that the legislature will be asked to take part.
