REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

At the request of President Weaver, Vice President Percy presented the Report of Personnel Actions by the President of the University, and the Report of Non-Personnel Actions by Administrative Officers and of Informational Items

Upon motion by Regent Renk, seconded by Regent Sandin, it was VOTED:

1. That the actions by the President of the University since the last meeting of the Regents, relating to appointments, resignations, leaves of absence, and changes of status of faculty personnel with rank less than that of Associate Professor and other non-classified civil service personnel with salaries at the annual rate of $15,200 or less, on file with the Central Business Office, and to tuition remissions, be approved, ratified, and confirmed.
2. That the report of Non-Personnel Actions by Administrative Officers to the Board of Regents and Informational Items Reported for the Regent Record (EXHIBIT A attached) be received for the record; and that actions included in the report be approved, ratified, and confirmed.

The meeting recessed for committee meetings at 9:15 A.M.

The meeting reconvened at 10:00 A.M., with President Ziegler presiding.

President Weaver stated that the principal reason for meeting today is the matter of the 1971-72 biennial budget, and that we wish to present to the Board today the full annual operating budget for approval, conditional upon passage of the budget by the State Legislature. He stated that we are asking that our faculty salary rates for this year be approved, in order to establish the fact of our merit judgment, but that obviously the merit increases cannot be granted until the biennial budget is approved in the Legislature, and the federal freeze ended. He stated that it was his hope that the freeze limitation interpretations that will be made will permit partial or complete retroactivity. He also stated that it was important that the faculty promotions contained in the budget be approved.

Vice President Percy explained in considerable detail the "Highlights and Supporting Schedules", dated October 8, 1971 (copy on file with the papers of the meeting). He pointed out that under the details authorized in the conference committee bill, the budget would amount to $322,700,000, or an increase of $18,435,000. He pointed out that in the adjusted 1970-71 budget, we had a total of 17,252 positions authorized for the University, consisting of 7,400 academic staff, about 2,000 assistants and approximately 7,900 classified staff, and that in order to cover such things as increased supplies and expense, utility costs, increased civil service pay increases, etc., it has been necessary to actually reduce the number of positions authorized by 224, consisting of an increase of 117 in academic, a 153 decrease in assistants, and a decrease of 180 classified positions. With respect to the freeze, Vice President Percy pointed out that the President and Director McPhee had appealed to the Governor and the conference committee to retain in reserve the freeze-related funds identified by the Department of Administration, in order to cover the cost of increases that might later be permitted by the Council. He stated that the President and he would like to urge the Board to give special consideration to the matter of urging the Legislature to restore the freeze-related funds that were stripped out on the basis of some preliminary interpretation of the federal freeze in late August and early September, at which time they said that, if later rulings were made to allow relief to all or part of these faculty, ways should be found to support them.

Regent Pelisek stated that the Board is very concerned about the reaction of our faculty to the wage-price freeze, and the impact of that freeze upon our faculty and the morale of our faculty, and distributed a resolution (EXHIBIT B attached) and moved its adoption. The resolution was seconded by Regents Renk and Sandin. After a short discussion, the resolution was unanimously voted.

Vice President Percy continued his analysis of the budget document in some detail. The following resolution was moved by Regent Sandin and seconded by Regent Gelatt:

That, subject to enactment of the State Legislature's Conference Committee budget for 1971-73 in substantially its present form, the University of Wisconsin Operating Budget for the fiscal year July 1, 1971 through June 30, 1972 in an estimated amount of $322,788,873 (including the University Hospitals budget approved by the Board of Regents on May 21, 1971) and including salaries, fund allocations, second semester 1971-72 fee and tuition schedules (Schedule V)#, residence halls rates (Schedules A-4, A-5, A-6, A-7, A-8, D-4, D-5)#, departmental and division name changes, appointments, reappointments, changes of status*, leaves of absence*, resignations*, emeritus designations*, and other personnel actions* and program adjustments specified in and effected by the budget schedules presented to the Board and on file with the records of this meeting, be approved and that the University Administration be authorized to make necessary final accounting changes and such subsequent adjustments on Federal freeze-related items as may subsequently be authorized.

*These actions to be considered effective at start of fiscal or academic year as appropriate or as otherwise specified, rather than awaiting biennial budget enactment. Related salary adjustments to be accomplished as appropriate depending upon Federal freeze interpretations.

#Included in the document entitled "Proposed University of Wisconsin 1971-72 Operating Budget, Highlights and Supporting Schedules", dated October 8, 1971, a copy of which is filed with the papers of this meeting.

President Ziegler stated that he had reservations about some of the changes of status for some of the faculty and believed that Regents Nellen and Dahlstrom also probably have some reservations on these subjects.

The resolution was approved by roll call vote with Regents Fish, Gelatt, Kahl, Pelisek, Renk, Sandin, Walker, and Ziegler voting "Aye." Absent Regents Dahlstrom and Nellen.

President Ziegler presented the report of the Executive Committee.

Upon motion by Regent Renk, seconded by Regent Kahl, it was VOTED, That the resolution adopted by the Executive Committee since the September 10, 1971 regular meeting of the Board, as set forth in EXHIBIT C attached, be included in the record as an official action of the Executive Committee.

Regent Sandin presented the report of the Educational Committee.

Upon motion by Regent Sandin, seconded by Regent Kahl, it was VOTED, That, upon recommendation of the Chancellor of the Madison Campus and of the Executive Vice President of the University, the name of the Department of Engineering Graphics, College of Engineering, University of Wisconsin-Madison, be changed to the Department of General Engineering, College of Engineering, University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Upon motion by Regent Sandin, seconded by Regent Gelatt, it was VOTED, That, upon recommendation of the Madison Campus Administration and the Central Administration, the University of Wisconsin-Madison Calendar for the year 1972-73 through 1975-76, as set forth in Madison Faculty Document 76 (EXHIBIT D attached), be approved, subject to the dates of the spring recesses being altered with the approval of the Madison Campus Administration and the Central Administration.

Regent Sandin moved, and it was seconded by Regent Gelatt, that the following resolution be approved:

That the status of Peter L. Eichman, Dean of the Medical School, Director of the Medical Center, and Professor of Neurology and Medicine, Medical School, Madison Campus, be changed to Professor of Neurology and Medicine, Medical School, Madison Campus, and Coordinator of Health Affairs (part time), Central Support Services, effective October 15, 1971, salary to be determined through normal 1971-72 budget procedures.

President Ziegler stated that a vote of thanks from the Board was due Dean Eichman for the contributions he has made to the Medical School. Vice President Percy stated that the administration is asking Dean Eichman to be available to the President on a part-time basis so that the Medical Center development can proceed on a state-wide and national basis, and that Dean Eichman had agreed graciously to do this.

The resolution was voted unanimously.

The following recommendations relating to appointments were moved by Regent Sandin, seconded by Regent Gelatt, and voted:

1. That John Wesley Clayton, Jr. be appointed Professor, Departments of Preventive Medicine, Medical School and Graduate School; Professor, Department of Veterinary Science, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences; and Director, Center for Environmental Toxicology, School of Natural Resources, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, Madison Campus, beginning November 1, 1971, at an annual salary rate of $26,000.
2. That William Lyman Caldwell be appointed Professor, Department of Radiology, Medical School, Madison Campus, beginning October 9, 1971, at an annual salary of $23,260 (plus 115% CPP).
3. That Winston J. Durant be appointed Lecturer, School of Pharmacy (25%) and Program Coordinator, University Hospitals (75%), Madison Campus, beginning October 9, 1971, at an annual salary of $20,000.
4. That Charles R. Martin be appointed Specialist in the Engineering Department, Division of Professional and Human Development, University Extension (80%), effective October 8, 1971, at an annual salary rate of $16,000.

The following recommendations with respect to leaves of absence were moved by Regent Sandin, seconded by Regent Gelatt, and voted:

1. That Loukas G. Arvanitis, Associate Professor, Department of Forestry, School of Natural Resources, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, Madison Campus, be granted leave, without pay, for the period August 1, 1971 through June 30, 1972.
2. That Rollin G. Jansky, Associate Professor, College of Science and Society (Humanities, Art), University of Wisconsin-Parkside, be granted a leave, without pay, for the 1971-72 academic year.

The changes of status, attached as EXHIBIT E, were moved by Regent Sandin, seconded by Regent Kahl, and voted unanimously.

Upon motion by Regent Sandin, seconded by Regent Gelatt, it was VOTED, That the action of the Board of Regents on September 10, 1971, approving the appointment of Balabhadra Misra as Senior Scientist, Department of Physics, College of Letters and Science, and Engineering Experiment Station, Madison Campus, beginning September 11, 1971, at an annual salary of $20,000 be rescinded because Dr. Misra did not accept the appointment.

Regent Sandin moved and Regent Gelatt seconded the following resolutions with respect to named Professorships, and they were voted:

1. That Oliver Smithies, Professor of Genetics, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, and Professor of Medical Genetics, Medical School, Madison Campus, be designated as the Leon J. Cole Professor of Genetics and Medical Genetics, effective 1971-72, salary to be determined through normal 1971-72 budget procedures.
2. That Howard M. Temin, Professor of Oncology, Medical School, Madison Campus, be designated as the WARF Professor of Cancer Research, effective 1971-72, salary to be determined through normal 1971-72 budget procedures.

Vice President Percy read a resolution passed at a meeting of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Faculty on October 7, 1971, relating to their concern over faculty promotions and related salary increments, for the record as follows:

"RESOLVED (1) That the faculty of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee call upon the Regents to act immediately on all previously recommended promotions and changes of status for University personnel in the University of Wisconsin System, and (2) that all previously recommended merit and salary increments be made effective as of September 1, 1971."

Regent Pelisek presented the report of the Business and Finance Committee, and moved approval of the following recommendation relating to Gifts, Grants, and Government Contracts. The motion was seconded by Regent Fish, and it was voted:

That, upon recommendation of the Chancellors and the Vice President for Business Affairs, the gifts and grants listed in the Statement of Gifts, Grants, and U.S. Government Contracts, presented at this meeting (copy filed with the papers of this meeting), be accepted and the appropriate officers of the University be authorized to sign the agreements; and that the Federal contracts listed therein be approved, ratified, and confirmed.

Regent Pelisek moved, and Regent Fish seconded, the following resolution relating to the use of the Samuel Basherov Bequest, and it was voted:

That, upon recommendation of the Chancellor of the Madison Campus, and of the President of the University of Wisconsin, the bequest by the late Samuel Basherov of Puerto Rico, which was accepted by the Regents on January 15, 1971, be used for the purchase of additions to the collections, and other capital resources, of the Harry Steenbock Memorial Library.

The following recommendations relating to bequests were moved by Regent Pelisek, seconded by Regent Fish, and voted:

1. That, upon recommendation of the Madison Chancellor and the Vice President for Business Affairs, the bequest of the late Cora A. Rupp, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, to the University of Wisconsin be accepted by The Regents of the University of Wisconsin in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Last Will and Testament of Cora A. Rupp, Deceased; and that the Secretary or Assistant Secretary be authorized to sign a receipt on behalf of the Regents of the University of Wisconsin for this bequest, and to do all things necessary to effect the transfer of this bequest to the University of Wisconsin.
2. That, upon recommendation of the Madison Chancellor and the Vice President for Business Affairs, the bequest of the late Mrs. Helen James Frazer, Winnetka, Illinois, to the University of Wisconsin be accepted by The Regents of the University of Wisconsin in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Last Will and Testament of Mrs. Helen James Frazer, Deceased; and that the Secretary or Assistant Secretary be authorized to sign a receipt on behalf of the Regents of the University of Wisconsin for this bequest, and to do all things necessary to effect the transfer of this bequest to the University of Wisconsin.

Regent Pelisek made the following statement: "I think it would be appropriate to indicate, since we have concluded the acceptance of gifts and grants and bequests, that some confusion may appear to exist under the provisions of Senate Bill 213, and specifically Section 20.(6) of that Bill relating to the use of unrestricted funds in the merged system. The Bill provides that any grant, contract, gift, endowment, trust or segregated fund bequeathed or assigned to individual campuses for any purpose whatsoever, shall not be commingled or reassigned. The Legislature, however, does not speak to the question of possible use by other campuses of a merged system of unrestricted funds received by the Regents of the University of Wisconsin prior to the effective date of the merger, and I think the record should clearly indicate our view of the handling of these funds, which represent substantial amounts to this institution; that is, the Knapp Fund, the Vilas Fund, etc., and I believe the administration has a specific comment they would like to make to this point."

Vice President Percy stated that he was considering introducing a recommendation to provide added protection for the unrestricted funds, but had concluded after consulting with various people, legislative reference and others, that a specific action is unnecessary, that we merely ought to have the record show that it is our interpretation of the language of Section 20.(6) of Bill 213 that the monies in that category, which is characterized presently as unrestricted, would most certainly be restricted to the use of Chapter 36 institutions, and it will be merely enough for our records to show that.

Regent Pelisek agreed that this is the view of the Business and Finance Committee, and that no action is required, but did wish the record to properly reflect the interpretation.

The resolutions relating to signing construction contracts and change orders, and authority to sign miscellaneous contracts, leases, and agreements, attached as EXHIBIT F, were moved by Regent Pelisek, seconded by Regent Sandin, and voted unanimously.

Regent Pelisek stated, for the record, that Regent Walter Renk, at the Business and Finance Committee meeting introduced the last resolution the Business and Finance Committee will ever adopt as follows:

That, upon recommendation of the Chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, and approved by the Vice President for Business Affairs, Ronald D. Brinkmann be deputized, effective October 8, 1971, as a police officer.

The above resolution was moved by Regent Pelisek, seconded by Regent Renk, and voted unanimously.

Regent Fish presented the report of the Physical Planning and Development Committee.

Upon motion by Regent Fish, seconded by Regent Walker, it was VOTED, That upon recommendation of the Chancellors of the Madison Campus and University Extension and the Associate Vice President for Facilities

Planning, the Regents approve the plans for equipping the Vilas Communication Hall on the Madison Campus and authorize the advertising for bids for this equipment at a total cost not to exceed $2.5 million, subject to enactment into law of the 1971-73 Capital Budget for the State of Wisconsin including provision for the financing of this project.

Regent Fish presented the recommendation of the Physical Planning and Development Committee relating to Land Acquisition at Green Bay, attached as EXHIBIT G. He stated that the program is in essence a reaffirmation of the recommendation that was made in 1969-71 of picking up scattered pockets of land inside the Circle Drive boundaries, along with three other specific parts, a limit of $200,000, to be purchased when available. In addition, there are two parcels, one inside the Circle Drive area, that had not been contemplated as being available at the time we previously talked about land. One is owned by the Ecumenical Center, is now available, and is certainly a high priority item. He stated the second parcel is a piece of land inside the Circle on the Bay north of the other acquisition.

The resolution was moved by Regent Fish, seconded by Regent Renk, and voted.

Regent Fish stated that the report of the Physical Planning and Development Committee relating to executing minor projects in 1971-72, which were previously approved by the Regents, had been received and accepted by the Committee. (EXHIBIT H attached.)

Regent Fish reported that the original budget for occupancy of the Residence Halls for 1971-72 was a level of 6,300 spaces. By latest count, we have 6,269 in regular assignment, and 211 under temporary assignments, which are being transferred to permanent assignment as openings occur. He stated that the net increase in revenue attributable to this increased occupancy amounts to $562,000. He continued that, in order to comply with the President's wage freeze order, each contract for occupancy is being provided a rebate of $9.32, which amounts to a total of $58,000. He continued that the new food program seems to be working quite well, and that there has been a reduction in personnel in certain areas from the original budget reduction program. Additional housefellow have been added which will provide a ratio of approximately 53 residents per housefellow, which is a slight improvement over the 1969-71 ratio. He also stated that currently we have 25 Madison area Technical College students in the Residence Halls.

Vice President Percy stated that the Faculty Tenure Criteria Committee is working on its first charge, which is a review of tenure criteria, to develop a report by the November meeting before the new Board.

Regent Pelisek introduced the following proposal relating to the modification of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee student court constitution:

RESOLVED, that Section 3.1 of the Student Court Constitution, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, shall be amended to read as follows:

3.1. The Court shall consist of a panel of nine (9) Justices, six (6) of whom shall be full-time undergraduate students; and who shall serve throughout their enrollment at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, except that any Justice may be removed for cause shown in a hearing before the Student Senate by the three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Student Senate.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that Section 3.31(d) of the Student Court Constitution of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee shall be amended to read as follows:

3.31(d) Be a full-time student at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee for at least one (1) semester and/or have a second semester freshman standing,

He stated that the Regents had passed this constitution after substantial review approximately a year ago. In the interim, the Court has functioned very well, but with the growing number of graduate students at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, the court justices felt that there was discrimination because we were limiting eligibility on the court to undergraduates.

The above resolution was moved by Regent Pelisek, seconded by Regent Gelatt, and voted unanimously.

Regent Gelatt made the following statement: "I don't want to in any way preempt what the President of the University is going to say, but this is a historic occasion. This Board of Regents will be going out of existence in its present form very soon, after having been in existence in this form since 1939. I don't want to reminisce, but I do want to touch briefly on what I think are some of the traditions and ideals of this Board, which I want to remind ourselves to carry forward to our new activities and our new responsibilities. This Board of Regents has been a unified Board, its actions have been taken as a Board, no individual Regent has ever tried to speak for the Board. When the officers of the Board speak, they speak on behalf of the Board, and after actions by the Board. I think this Board has been very meticulous in following that tradition, and I think it is a very wise one.

"For at least the last 20 years, this has been an open Board. Regent Wilbur Renk, in the early 1950's, moved this Board to open session on almost all matters prior to state legal requirements. This Board was one of the first to follow that requirement and rule, and I think it is a very judicious one to continue to follow in all of our activities. We are dealing with public business, and even though we sometimes dislike to show our ignorance and errors publicly, I think it is essential that we follow that tradition and that ideal.

This has been, at least it has had the ideal of being, a policy-making Board. We don't always reach that ideal, but I think that more often than not this Board has attempted to deal with issues at the policy level. I think this is essential. It will be even more essential in dealing with the larger problems that the new Board will be faced with. As every member of this Board who has ever commented on it, it is a dedicated Board. The rewards which each member of this Board receives are those of the fellowship of other members who are dedicated, as he is, to the interests of the people of the State of Wisconsin. It is dedicated, I believe, to the improvement of the young people, and to the advancement of knowledge, and I think, if we carry those ideals and traditions forward to our new responsibilities, the people of the State will continue to consider Regents as one of the offices which bear a great deal of respect, and a great deal of honor, and which we are all privileged to serve as."

The remarks of President John C. Weaver to the Board are attached as EXHIBIT I.

President Ziegler made the following statement: "I think I speak for all members of this Board when we offer our thanks for those wise words of confidence and also for your thanks and for the kind words of assurance that we have done a good job, us and our predecessors. This has been a creative Board, it has developed wise policies which will aid those of us in the challenging years ahead. I don't think that any rank with the wisdom that we demonstrated in selecting you to head this University of Wisconsin. I have expressed that feeling before, and I know that the full Board is behind me when I say that, and we certainly wish you God speed and good luck in your new role."

The meeting recessed into Executive Session at 12:09 P.M.

The Regents arose from Executive Session at 1:13 P.M., and announced that the following resolution had been approved:

That, upon advice of counsel, fees in the amount of $767, representing the difference between resident and non-resident tuition for the February 1971 semester, be refunded to James B. Williams Jr., in exchange for dismissal of his pending action in the Circuit Court of Dane County, on the merits, with prejudice, and without costs or attorney fees.

Agencies will list all minor projects already approved from 1971-73 minor projects funds along with the dollar level approved as the first quarter of the fiscal year list. Further, all agencies will, in May of 1971, present the priority list of minor projects for fiscal year 1972-73 broken down on a quarterly basis, using the remainder of their minor projects funds as provided in the approved 1971-73 budget. The funding level to be used by each agency in developing priorities for the biennium is based on the Assembly version and Conference Committee recommendation of funding, as follows:

		Guide to Use for First Yr.
University of Wisconsin	$5,767,600	$2,883,800

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin in its 1971-73 budget recommendation provided a minimum adequate faculty compensation program, which program was subsequently reduced by the Legislature, and

WHEREAS, the Joint Conference Committee on the Budget, at a point in time when rulings and interpretations as to applicability of the Federal wage-price freeze were not yet issued, deleted from the University's budget authorization amounts equal to the estimated savings in faculty compensation arising from such freeze, and

WHEREAS, President Weaver's efforts to assure treatment for our faculty on an equitable basis with that afforded faculty at other educational institutions have brought recent rulings of the Federal Council on Cost of Living and the Office of Emergency Preparedness which appear to presently authorize compensation increases in the areas of fringe benefits, faculty promotions, women's equity adjustments and pre-freeze period merit increments and which may subsequently authorize other adjustments, and

WHEREAS, necessary funding to provide for any such adjustments is dependent upon passage of the biennial budget and a restorative supplement thereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin strongly urges the Governor and the Legislature to undertake every effort to restore those funds for faculty compensation which the Conference Committee on the Budget deleted from the University's budget based upon the estimates of potential savings due to the Federal wage-price freeze which have now been determined to be proper under such freeze, so that the faculty of our public university systems may be compensated equitably with faculty of other institutions throughout the nation and in accord with Federal and State interpretations on applicability of the freeze.

STATUS OF THE ACADEMIC CALENDAR

A Report by the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Subsequent to the passage of the calendar proposals by the Faculty Senate, the administration took two separate actions. First, we asked for and received Regent approval to move to the transitional calendar for the 1971-72 academic year. Our second action was to review the long range calendar proposals to make certain that any administrative difficulties could be resolved. Our major effort in this review was a questionnaire sent to Deans, Directors, and Department Chairmen, a copy of which is attached.

A review of the responses indicated that 55 departments were substantially in favor of the proposed revision of the calendar; 12 departments were essentially neutral; 17 departments were opposed. No responses were received from 29 departments. (In addition, many of the departments in the Medical School did not respond.)

The factor most frequently mentioned in favor of the change is the anticipated academic benefit of completing the first semester prior to the Christmas recess. The single most commonly voiced objection to the new calendar concerned the conflicts it will create with professional meetings. While important, this objection did not appear sufficient to outweigh the considerable support for the pre-Christmas finish.

Therefore, on the basis of the original vote of the Faculty Senate (YES 97; NO 67) and the favorable comments from most of the departments that responded, we have forwarded the proposed calendar to the Regents for their consideration at the October 8 meeting.

The calendar for 1972/3, 1973/4, 1974/5 and 1975/6 is attached. It is basically the same as that approved by the Senate on January 11, 1971, except for the following:

1. The fall registration periods were originally specified as four days. On advice of the Registrar, and in view of our experience with a four-day registration period in September 1971, the registration period has been extended to five days.
2. The start of the summer session, as originally approved, was left to be determined administratively. From the comments received from the departmental reviews, and on the advice of the Director of the Summer Sessions, the later of the two alternate starting dates was selected in each case.
3. Substantial concern has been expressed regarding the need to keep our options open on the spring recess. For example, it would be possible to avoid a "lame duck" session in the spring by decoupling the spring recess from the Easter holiday, if necessary. Further, coordinating our spring recess with that of the Madison Public School system seems to be important to many faculty members, therefore the spring recess dates listed in the attached schedule should be considered tentative.

TO: Deans, Directors and Department Chairmen

SUBJECT: Calendar Revision, 1972-73

Dear Colleagues:

In connection with our administrative review of the Faculty Senate action approving a revised academic calendar for 1972 and beyond, several potential problem areas arise which need to be clarified and resolved. Since most of them relate to college and departmental practices with which you are most familiar, I raise them in this memorandum and ask your assistance in providing input for our consideration.

1. Will advancing the registration period to the range of August 20-25 pose any difficulties for:
 - a. graduate entrance examinations
 - b. orientation periods of new faculty and teaching assistants
 - c. professional conferences for faculty and staff
 - d. other situations which may leave you with insufficient faculty for academic advising and assignment committees?
2. By advancing the beginning of instruction period to eliminate the "lame duck" session following the Christmas Recess, a similar situation is created in some years following the Spring Recess. In your view, is there a qualitative instructional difference between these situations?
3. Will the move to an earlier summer period have any appreciable effect on
 - a. departmental or college summer programs, including the Summer Session proper, field courses or student summer co-op experiences?
 - b. obligations of present faculty under summer grant programs and projects? off-campus teaching?

Deans, Directors and Department Chairmen
June 1, 1971

4. Our previous calendars provided a minimum of 45 Monday, Wednesday, Friday (MWF) instructional periods each semester. During the first four years under the proposed calendar, there will be less than 45 MWF instructional periods in all but one semester. Will the two or three day reduction in instructional periods seriously affect the scope, content, or quality of your courses?

These few considerations may suggest other questions to you. In your response, I would appreciate your apprising me of both advantages and disadvantages of the proposed calendar as it relates to your programs. I would also appreciate receiving an overall evaluation of the proposed calendar revision.

I would like the departmental responses to be returned through the respective Deans in order to reach this office by June 22, 1971.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Irving Shain

- A. Land needed to carry out 1971-73 campus road construction projects already recommended by the Regents in the 1971-73 budget request. (The design of these projects to be reviewed by the campus and Central Administration to achieve the minimum land use consistent with development of an efficient road system.)
- B. Advanced land acquisition for long-range campus development, including in 1971-73 a request for $200,000 for advanced land acquisition for long-range campus development including purchase of those parcels that are offered for sale within the areas designated 1, 2, 3, and 4.
- C. That the Regents reaffirm the long-range campus master plan, but before authorizing further advanced acquisition of lands lying within that plan, further study be undertaken of the future need of these additional lands for University-related purposes.

REMARKS TO THE BOARD OF REGENTS

John C. Weaver
October 8, 1971

Mr. President -
Mrs. Sandin -
Gentlemen -

The last meeting of this Board is near its end. Clearly it is an historic moment for the University you have well served. I would ask your indulgence that we not let its final moments melt away without having given some recognition to their passing.

In this hour you stand at the summit of an institutional divide -- a divide formed by the conclusion of one era, the anticipation of another. Behind you, if you will but look back over your collective shoulders, stretch long vistas of well, if not easily, explored territory. Travel though these lands was not accomplished without pain, sacrifice, and frustration; through routes were not always quickly found. Before you stand the hazy, unexplored reaches of the unknown -- a terra incognita where trails are yet to be blazed, and into which you, as experienced pathfinders, must now step with confident and perceptive tread.

No one, however willing or dedicated, faces the unknown without some measure of uneasiness -- without anxieties and apprehensions. You could hardly be expected to be devoid of such feelings for you have had genuine concern for the welfare and future of this University of Wisconsin for which you have worked hard and for which you carry such loyal affection.

Surely, in facing the new day, you can take reassurance from your certain knowledge that a great University is a tough and resilient organism -- one that has grown great for the very reason that it has demonstrated its ability to adapt, evolve and maintain vitality and utility through all manner of change in the environmental circumstances that surround it. Consider, for example, that there is no government, not even any governmental system, in existence today that is within a handfull of centuries of being as old as are such centers of higher learning as those at Bologna, Paris or Oxford. These universities have survived wars, revolutions, religious controversies, plagues, riots and political disfavor. Yet, they were great centers of teaching and scholarship in the Twelfth Century; they are great centers of learning today.

Your University has never before feared change; it need not fear it now. Indeed, if it is to attain its rightful destiny -- if it is in fact to validate its greatness -- it must always be ready to meet the demands of change with well-considered change.

There is reassurance to be found too in the fact that the simple passage of a legislative act will not -- could not -- change the fundamental character of either the University of Wisconsin or the Wisconsin State Universities overnight. All human institutions, perhaps rather particularly colleges and universities, change slowly. Admittedly, this feature of institutions is often frustrating in the extreme. At the same time, and to the good fortune of the stability of mankind, this is almost certainly a desirable circumstance. New members come to boards of regents, new administrators and staff members are appointed, new students come and go, and each seems determined to be an architect of change. Over the decades changes do come, but they do come slowly, and therein lies one of the basic strengths of our colleges and universities.

The institutional characteristic of resistance to change is real, and in its way gives protection to the foundations of our nation and our civilization. And in the end, gradual institutional change is sustained only so long as it is soundly conceived, effectively and deliberately managed, and, above all, responsive to that which is rational and right.

Only history can assess the wisdom of the merger legislation, but history must carry no doubt about the resolve for success of those who are to assume the burden and challenge of its study and implementation. The welfare of the 135,000 students of today, and of the uncounted thousands of young people standing in the wings of tomorrow, is reason enough that our institutions of public higher education must not be allowed to fall short of their several and collective goals of achievement.

In behalf of the people of Wisconsin, the Legislature has decreed that the organization and management of its universities shall be of revised design. New ways must now be sought that will function in the public interest -- function not only to preserve the best in all of our institutions, but function as well to permit the attainment of appropriate new levels of accomplishment. The importance of the goals to be pursued, clearly commands the best that those to be involved in the enterprise can give.

It is a matter of rather singular coincidence that the journey that has brought you ten of this governing board to this place and time, was launched officially by a first meeting of the Regents of the University of Wisconsin exactly 123 years ago yesterday, on October 7, 1848. The work of that Board was aided by John Hiram Lathrop, a recruit from the Presidency of the University of Missouri. And thus does an era come full cycle.

Through these nearly one and a quarter centuries that have slipped into history: better than a baker's dozen of presidents, mostly bearded, have come and gone; the Board itself (also mostly bearded!) has been reshaped or completely reconstituted at least eight times; colleges and whole campuses have been formed and reformed, added and subtracted. But with it all, and in whatever form, the Board of Regents has given guidance and protection to the growth of an institution which has gained a level of distinction your predecessors of more than twelve decades ago could hardly have foreseen in their fondest dreams.

In tarrying these moments over our departure from this meeting, one finds himself reflecting on the identity of those lights -- those guideposts -- that have through fair weather and storm kept this institution on its steady course. There must, in truth, be many, even some, perhaps, that none of us would have the present perception or perspective to define. Those we can see could be variously grouped, interpreted and described. From among the host of lessons learned and the myriad of traditions preserved, I have the temerity to endorse four navigational aids as ones that would serve you reliably and well in the uncharted but reef-strewn seas into which your new ship will soon be sailing.

(1) First, and I believe foremost, among the threads of substance which you would wish to draw from the Wisconsin past as an essential ingredient in the weaving of the institutional fabric of the future, is unassailable, untrammelled responsible intellectual freedom. The Board of this University has over the decades established a world-renowned fame for its insight and its courage in fostering and guarding the figures of true freedom in teaching, learning, and scholarly inquiry. Your widely quoted faith in this prerequisite foundation of university greatness is cast in bronze and bolted to the stone of Bascom Hall. It is the Regents who reiterated that principle in two stirring resolutions of more recent dates, renewing the pledge to maintain in this University "those conditions which are indispensable for the flowering of the human mind."

This guardianship you and your predecessors have exercised over the controversial, the often noisy and unpopular ferment, the unusual, the strange, the too frequently misunderstood cauldron of creativity, has not always been politic or easy, nonetheless, over the years, the lines the Regents have so fortunately been willing to defend, have held. The defenses have on occasion been severely bent, but seldom broken. The University of Wisconsin has, some would say, as often been known for her turmoil as for her accomplishment, but there is basic wisdom in John Kenneth Galbraith's observation that: "Good universities have always been places of contention and dispute. Bad universities", he said, "are as silent and tranquil as the desert."

In the months and years ahead, you will surely want to carry high and well fueled the torch of freedom which the 123 year-old traditions of this institution have placed in your hands. As you well know, not all of the winds that would extinguish freedom's flame, and that you would want to guard against, blow inward from outside the University circle. Regretably, there are those within the academic household in these days who do not believe in the inviolate power of reason and rational discussion. They resort rather to uncompromising demand and formalized adversary relationships. I would urge that with such actions, professionalism dies and true academic freedom with it.

You will want, as you have, to cherish diversity and to protect those particular virtues of freedom which insure a uniqueness for each unit within a system. The freedom for individuality is a very special freedom on which morale, self-identity, pride and ultimate achievement are, in this very human world, based. The only prescriptions for institutional uniformity that would be worthy of your support, apart from what are really the mechanics of life, would be a common allegiance to excellence, service and the habits of courtesy, which are in the final analysis the indispensable hallmarks of genuine intellectual freedom.

(2) A second beacon of light emanating from Wisconsin that has brightened the litany of American higher education, and which I would hope you would carry comfortably forward into your new responsibilities, has to do with the long record of confidence on the part of this Board of governance in the administrative and faculty officers it has employed to serve it. By example of what I mean, I find the following sentences in a letter addressed recently to me by your President Emeritus, E. B. Fred:

"As I look back over the years I had the privilege of serving as President of the University of Wisconsin, I find my thoughts vivid with memories of the many wonderful associations I had with members of the Board of Regents.... I was most fortunate in having a Board of Regents which gave loyal support to the recommendations of the University administration. In situations where there were differing points of view or disagreement, these differences were resolved in a manner beneficial to the University.... Without that loyal support, the University administration could accomplish little."

Conceding the fact that E. B. Fred is a remarkable man and one who in a most compelling way attracts confidence from those around him, nonetheless, his relationship with his Board members was more in the Wisconsin way of life than any contrary condition. As a personal aside, may I say that I have found it so!

A Milwaukee Journal editorial once referred to the relationship between the Regents and University staff here, as "a mark of the Regents confidence in the professionals they employ." That statement went on to observe that this institution "has not only survived under its system of operation; it has developed into one of the world's great universities."

I cite these things because I would hope that you could now accept the need, in the new era you are about to enter, to further enlarge your traditions of trust in your professionals. With the vastly expanded size of the system over which you will now have to preside, you will, in reality, have little choice but to back more positions on the basis of faith and fewer on the grounds of intimate understanding. You will of necessity have to cope with your responsibilities from a position farther back from the front line, lest the trees overwhelm you and the forest fails to come into focused view.

Consider for a moment the dimensions of your new responsibilities as compared with the present size of the University which you have sometimes found overwhelming enough. The number of faculty members for whom you will now assume responsibility jumps from 4,265 to 8,365; you will have almost 25,000 employees; there will be more than 133,000 students, compared with your present 69,000; alumni advice will come from 269,000 degree holders in contrast to your present 170,000.

A few other indications of the expanding scope of your charge include: degree-granting campuses increasing from four to 13; two-year campuses going from the present 10 to 14; the operating budget will rise from the $322 million we submitted to you today, to nearly half a billion dollars. The insured value of the University plant will almost double from $500 million to $900 million, with the increase of buildings from 1,300 to more than 1,500 and the acreage for campuses, farms, arboretums, and other holdings from the present 11,000 acres to more than 14,000.

This handful of facts clearly indicates the immensity of the challenge which awaits you. There is no escaping the fact that the Board will find it necessary to expand its traditional delegation of responsibility for governance to administrators and faculty. No longer will the Regents have time, as once was true in your past, to have a special Regent committee consider the purchase of window shades for the Armory.

One Regent recalled not long ago that he had spent "the better part of a day in a Regent meeting discussing why the College of Agriculture bought a bull in Illinois, when obviously it could have bought a finer bull in Wisconsin. Believe me," he said, "that was a real bull session!"

You will I know be seeking to find new and increasingly effective ways to hear from campus administrators, faculty and students. As John Bascom said, "the success of those who rule, lies in freely availing themselves of the skill of others." With 25,000 employees and 133,000 students you will have enormous resources at your command!

(3) Third among the great traditions of this Board which surely you would want to project strongly into your new relationships, is your long-standing and willing readiness vigorously to interpret the goals and financial needs of the University to the people of the commonwealth. All public agencies, including the University, begin with the public's permission, and can only proceed with the public's approval. Merger is, at least in part, an outgrowth of public demand for greater accountability on the part of public higher education. As merger is accomplished, that demand will become highly expectant. More than ever, persuasive representation in the arena of public opinion will be needed to assure that an informed public will correctly measure the values of its educational resources. The Regents, as representatives of the public who have a special understanding of the University and its needs, will be well advised to build new and firmer bridges of faith with the citizens and with their representatives in the Legislature.

The historic willingness of the Board of Regents to fight for financial support for the University has been crucial to the institution's attainment of peaks of excellence. In times of national economic disarray as well as in periods of state financial strain, the Regents have been forceful advocates of needed levels of funding. This leadership will be most urgently needed in the critical years ahead.

The number of great universities in America is not large -- probably more than ten, almost certainly less than twenty. Wisconsin is one of them. Its stature among the educational institutions of the world is especially remarkable in that this state is neither populous nor wealthy. Wisconsin is only average among the fifty states in natural resources, annual income and numbers of people. Your University ranks among the best in the nation, not because Wisconsin could afford it, but because its people wanted it badly enough to make the sacrifices necessary to sustain it.

I would remind you of the public opinion poll you sponsored this past spring. In my view, the most significant single revelation of that interesting survey was the response to the question: Does the state provide larger financial support to its University than it should? Against a backdrop of the fiscal pressures of an economic recession, a climate of public disenchantment with higher education generally, and a widespread loss of confidence in this University in particular as an aftermath of dissonant irresponsibility, tear gas clouds, and even the violently destructive roar of bombs, still, 83% of all Wisconsin citizens answered: "No, we do not spend more than we should on our University."

Such an attitude is nothing short of absolutely remarkable. It is an act of faith. It is an attitude that must be preserved and justified. In that urgent service, you, of the public, who will represent the future of higher education to the public, have a vital and traditional role to carry forward.

(4) Let me enumerate a fourth and final University of Wisconsin tradition that might well add light to your course through the uncharted passageways ahead. Undergirding the long-standing public support of this University -- the seed around which the pearl has formed -- has been its land-grant derived, indissolubly united, symbiotic, triple missions of discovering knowledge through research, sharing knowledge through effective teaching, and, as public service, applying knowledge to the everyday problems of people where they live.

Over the decades, you Regents have carried an uncommon sensitivity to your understanding of the true meaning and potential of a "community of scholars." You and your predecessors have recognized that research life on the cutting edge of discovery brings vitality to teaching and relevance to public service. There has been stout defense for the fact that both research and public service are, alongside instruction, in themselves and for themselves, primary objectives of the University. Firmly traditional Regent support for the land-grant way of life has laid sound foundations for one of the leading graduate schools in the world, where not only is research pursued, but where in its presence new generations of investigative scholars are readied for the future. Research and service, you have perceptively understood, have also strengthened professional schools, as well as undergraduate learning.

In these days, I need hardly remind you that research as a University mission has not always been understood and accepted by the public. Indeed, sixty years ago a bill of particulars which became the subject of a legislative investigation of the University, included the allegation that: "under the cloak of research, faculty members (were) shirking classroom work and devoting (too) much time in other pursuits."

But the public judgment then sustained the multiple purposes of a great public university, and with your eyes set firmly on the guideposts you have long followed, you can have confidence that in the days ahead the commonwealth will sustain it once again. As in 1914, it will be seen that "the long list of useful, highly competent and brilliant men and women (the University) has given to the state and to the world will stand as a splendid record when much of the present criticism of the University has been forgotten."

I have little doubt but what your many constituencies, present and future, would (and probably will) wish to nominate many other items of particular concern that they would have you bolster from your heritage, or carve from your days to come. But I am content to rest my case, feeling that the particular will be well tended if the broad foundations are solidly in place. I would assert that with such corner stones as true intellectual freedom, a governance with faith in its professionals, citizen champions of the educational cause, and the land-grant traditions of public higher education, the future that you will so strongly influence should, indeed, find fair sailing.

It goes on ten months, 281 days by exact count, since I, with the honor of your election, assumed the role of 15th President at this distinguished University. In the Wisconsin tradition they have been eventful days of onrushing tumult, yet they have been days of heart-warming personal reward as well.

I am constrained to observe that our present situation must be virtually unique in the annals of higher education. Many a board finds itself at various times and for various reasons disposing of presidents. But just name me the other instance of a President out-lasting his Board! So here I drift, cut loose, without anchor, oars or any rules of the road -- the only head of a University in existence with no governing board to his name.

As you might imagine, there is much that I could want to say to you, the Regents who brought me home to alma mater. In fear of falling in disarray among expressions of the maudlin and the trite, I have mustered (though not without some effort!) the wisdom to restrain myself. Nonetheless, I do thank you -- thank you most sincerely for the uncompromised and understanding support you, both individually and collectively, have given me at every step of this short way. No President could have asked for better, nor have been more grateful.

APPENDIX

The minutes for the October 8, 1971 meeting of the Regents of the University of Wisconsin represent the final meeting of that organization.
