McKINLEY & ROOSEVELT

REPUBLICAN TICKET ELECTED BY LARGE MAJORITY.

Large Vote Polled at Daily Cardinal's
Mock Election—Ladies' Hall
Votes Also.

RESULT OF ELECTION.

McKinley and Roosevelt	674
Bryan and Stevenson	148
Woolley and Metcalf	22
Bryan and Roosevelt	2
Debs	2
Total	848

Not sixteen to one, but five to one is the approximate ratio of the student voters who favor McKinley to those whose convictions incline them toward the side of Bryan.

In the Daily Cardinal election which closed this noon a total of eight hundred and forty-eight votes were cast. McKinley and Roosevelt received six hundred and seventy-four votes; Bryan and Stevenson drew one hundred and forty eight; Woolley and Metcalf received twenty-two; Eugene V. Debs was given two votes, and the remarkable combination, Bryan and Roosevelt received two ballots. It therefore appears that the sentiment at this university community is overwhelmingly in favor of the Republican ticket. Of the entire vote cast, seventy-nine and six-tenths per cent. was for the party of "Prosperity and Prestige," while the allied parties in favor of the double standard and opposed to "Imperialism" attracted but seventeen per cent.

The heartiness with which the men students responded to the Cardinal's invitation to vote is very gratifying to those having the election in charge. Exceedingly few refused to fill out the ballot. The response from the members of the staff of instruction, however, was very meager, very few professors or instructors having voted. An attempt will probably be made next week to obtain an expression of the political inclinations of the members of the faculty.

Ladies, Also Vote.

Some little dissatisfaction was expressed because of the fact that the election was confined to the men of the University, and in order to give the young ladies an opportunity of expressing their preference of the presidential candidates, a straw vote was taken at Ladies' Hall. The result is shown in the following communication:

Ladies Hall, Oct. 26, 1900.

Editor of the Cardinal:

Dear Sir:—

Enclosed find straw vote for President by the young ladies at the Hall.
McKinley and Roosevelt	72
Bryan and Stevenson	12
No choice	3
Total	87

Respectfully,
Wm. Post, Janitor.

P. S.—How any man or woman that has arrived at the age of college life can have no choice in a political issue like the present is something remarkable. I did not argue the case with them that would be right in my opinion.

Votes at Yale, Cornell and Princeton.

The results in the mock presidential election conducted at Yale are as follows:

McKinley, Bryan.
Academic Department	908 70
Scientific Department	318 22
Law School	107 32
Divinity School	46 9
Medical School	39 23

Totals 1,418 156

From the above it will be seen that McKinley and Roosevelt received 89 per cent. of the votes cast.

The canvas taken at Cornell shows that of the five hundred and twenty-five New York state students who will vote in the coming election, five hundred will support McKinley and twenty-five will cast their votes for Bryan. The ratio is twenty votes for McKinley to one for Bryan, the most unequal state of affairs ever found in the University.

A vote was taken at Princeton in which Bryan received about forty votes out of a total of more than eleven hundred.

ABLE ADDRESS.

Dean Birge Talks to Good Audience at Weekly Convocation.

Acting-President Birge addressed the under-graduates today at the weekly Convocation on "Aims and Methods of Study," handling the topic in a very able and helpful manner. Owing to the timely warning of last week a larger per cent. of the student body were present. Dr. Birge announced his appreciation of the action of the students in the Carnival, and only hoped that the advent of Halloween would pass as creditably. He also expressed extreme disapproval of the "night-shirt parade" notices which, he suspects, have been posted by outsiders, as he hopes the rest have graduated from these affairs.

In his address he primarily dwelt upon the desirability of developing a mind capable of grappling the duties and problems of life. He divided the University students into two classes: those desiring a technical education and those desiring a liberal education. The aims of each are entirely different, the first being to produce a product which can serve as officers in the army of industry, while the second is to acquire an ability to perform intellectual job work—the ability to conceive of life and its problems in an intellectual manner.

He ably contended that the success or failure of the last-named class depended largely upon how individual students used their leisure.

Diverse aims among the students, he said, are necessary to the temperament of a great university. And quoting from President Adam's speech of last week he said a university lies in opportunity and inspiration. Further it is necessary to rise to the opportunity and to feel the inspiration.

Professor Parker announced that he and Professor Olson were arranging a new University song-book and urged that if any students wish to suggest any songs for this book they act promptly.

Mr. Poage rendered a beautiful solo which was highly appreciated and met with a hearty encore.

—Mr. Wehmhoff, '01, left yesterday with his father for a tour in the northern part of the state. He intends to spend much of the time while there in hunting.

—Mr. Ora Cahoon, '04, went to Baraboo today to spend Sunday at his home.

GRINNELL TO-MORROW

VARSITY WILL PLAY PLUCKY IOWA TEAM.

Will Try to Better Minnesota's Score—Secret Practice Yesterday—Grinnell Has Many Stars.

Secret practice was again the order of the day at Camp Randall yesterday. The work however was considerably lightened. Coach King wishing to save the men for the Minnesota game. On this account only six of the regulars were in the Varsity line-up during the scrimmage last evening. The game with Grinnell is not looked upon as being at all doubtful. The real contest will be to equal or excel the score of 26-0 which Minnesota made against the same team last Saturday. This should be done without trouble tomorrow. In case the Badgers should make more touchdowns than did the Gophers last week the result should not be considered as indicative of the respective strength of the two teams. The conditions are considerably changed from last Saturday. Then Minnesota was barely recovered from a bruising contest with Chicago the week before; weak places in the team had been discovered and were being strengthened by Coach Williams; the entire contest was more of the nature of a practice game. On the other hand Wisconsin has played but one hard game this year, viz.: Beloit. Her men are in comparatively good condition and have the benefit of an extra week of coaching. Therefore it will not be surprising if tomorrow's score will be larger than the one made by the boys of the Twin Cities.

Grinnell's Team.

The Iowa team, although light, are fast, plucky players. Although averaging nearly twenty pounds lighter than the majority of the teams of the "Big Nine," the Grinnell boys are always looked upon as a hard proposition. The line plays a hard, gingery game, while the back field is fast and sure tacklers Clark, their fullback, is looked upon as one of the best punters in the smaller colleges. Fellows at left tackle is a star. His defensive work is excellent and rarely does he allow the interference to be started for on his side of the line.

The line-up: Wisconsin—Center, Skow; guards, Lerum and Riordan; tackles, Curtis and Chamberlain; ends, Cochems and Juneau; quarterback, Bradley or Pratt; halves, Marshall, Larson; full back, Schreiber or Driver.

Grinnell—Center, Baggs; guards, Lewis, Howells; tackles, Fellows, Zeigler; ends, Deignan, Douglas; quarter, Fiske; halves, Lyman, Foster; full back, Clark.

—Prof. and Mrs. Augustus Trowbridge, 615 Lake street, gave a tea from 4 to 7 yesterday afternoon for Prof. Trowbridge's mother, Mrs. G. A. Trowbridge of New York city, who is here for a visit of ten days with her son. She is accompanied by another son, Mr. Robertson Trowbridge, who will return with her. About 75 guests were present, chiefly from the university faculty circle. Mrs. Trowbridge was assisted by Mrs. B. W. Snow, Mrs. L. W. Austin and Mrs. R. W. Wood.

"IN WISCONSIN ARE NO QUITTERS."

J. C. Persons Awarded First Prize in Football Song Competition.

The first prize of ten dollars, offered by the Athletic Association for the best football song written this year was won by J. C. Persons, '02, according to the decision of the judges—Professors F. A. Parker and J. E. Olson. The song is written to the tune of the chorus of "The Blue and the Gray."

L. de R. Ludlow, '04, was awarded second prize,—his song is written to the chorus of "The Tale of the Kangaroo." Thirteen songs of varied merit were submitted to the judges. The judges explain the position they took in rendering their decision in the following communication:

Editor Cardinal:—

In making up our opinion of the songs submitted, we have supposed that they are to be sung by large bodies of students, and that solo effects are not desirable. The music designated has been considered as carefully as the words.

In our judgment first place should be given to the song entitled "In Wisconsin are no Quitters" to the tune of the chorus of "The Blue and the Gray;" second place to the tune of the chorus of "The Tale of the Kangaroo." Other songs seem to us to possess merit but with defects which in our opinion, would mar their effectiveness.

Respectfully,

F. A. Parker,
J. E. Olson.

Following are the songs awarded first and second prizes respectively:

"In Wisconsin are no Quitters."
(Tune: Chorus of "The Blue and the Gray").

Yell, and cheer them on to vict'ry,
While the game they play,
"In Wisconsin are no quitters"
Let them hear the rooters say,
'Mid the strains of good old "Hot Time,"

We will win the day
On the field down at Chicago
Stagg will "bite the clay." Oh——
(Repeat fortissimo).

Tune—Chorus to "The Tale of the Kangaroo."

You're up against Wisconsin,
Perhaps you think you're it.
We'll show you what we're made of;
We'll surely make a hit.

Oh! U—rah—rah, Wisconsin!
Oh! U—rah—rah, we'll win!
We'll show you what we're made of;
You can't have a look-in!

Other songs recommended by the judges are as follows:

"Oh, Watch the Badgers Play!"
Air—"Soldiers in the Park."
Where are players that are half so grand?

U-rah-rah, rah rah, U-rah-rah, rah rah,
U-rah-rah, rah rah rah!
As the kickers from the Badger land?
U-rah-rah, rah rah, U-rah-rah, rah rah,
U-rah-rah, rah rah rah!

Watch and see them as they sprint along—
U-rah-rah, rah rah, U-rah-rah, rah rah,
U-rah-rah, rah rah rah!

You can hear the rooters cheer,
For the team they hold so dear,
And you know they're always winning,
when you hear the good old song.

U-rah-rah, U-rah-rah, U-rah-rah!
Chorus:

Oh, watch the Badgers play!
Oh, see them charge the line!

Reporters Chosen.

The first selection of Cardinal reporters has been made and is published in to-day's issue. These men have been chosen on the basis of work done up-to-date and in the selection faithfulness in proof-reading and similar duties have been considered as well as merit in composition. This does not by any means indicate that the opportunity for such work is closed but merely that the first draft from the candidates has been made. The Cardinal still has a reserve list and new men should not refrain from trying for positions. Any man who reports for work and proves his capacity will be placed on the staff upon an equal basis with all other men.

It is hoped that more men will turn out and compete for places. The experience and money prizes should be sufficient inducements to draw out a large number of competitors.

Grinnell To-morrow.

Grinnell will give the Varsity a stiff game to-morrow and will furnish one of the best of the home contests. Not only will it be a fine exhibition of football but in consideration of Minnesota's showing against the same team it will be of the greatest interest in furnishing some criterion by which to anticipate the work of the team next week. The Iowans have a good team, which has shown good form this season the nature of a practice game. The secret practice of the last week should result in some interesting developments to-morrow and no one can afford to miss a game of such interest.

Reporters Appointed.

The following men have been elected by the Cardinal Association to report for the Daily Cardinal:

Osmund M. Jorstad, '03; Willis E. Brindley, '03; Andrew W. Hopkins, '03; Henry Beeson, '04; Ervin J. Beule, '04; Ernest Landt, '04; George L. Gust, '02; and W. C. Reineking, '04. Fourteen men have been trying for reportorial positions. A reserve list will be kept and new appointments made from time to time.

Local and Personal.

—H. W. Young, '02, left to-day to spend a few days at his home in Prairie du Sac.

—W. S. Kies, who is speaking under the direction of the state republican ticket, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Fond du Lac county where he speaks this week.

—The Y. M. C. A. has received diagrams of the Yale-Bowdoin and the Yale-Wesleyan foot-ball games. These diagrams are published by the Y. M. C. A. at Yale. They may be seen in the reading room at the Y. M. C. A. House.

FAVORS RAISING PRICE.

Student Communicates Relative to Proposed Advance in Badger.

To the Editor:

The sentiment expressed by the members of the 1902 Badger Board that they ought to raise the standard of the University Annual is a move in the right direction. If the Board thinks that it is absolutely necessary to raise the price of the Badger to raise the standard, then I think it would be a proper move. It may be interesting to some to know how the Badger compares in price to the other University annuals. The Illio, published by Illinois, a book of 320 pages, sold for $1.50; the Cap and Gown, of the University of Chicago, 320 pages, also sold for $1.50. Last year's Badger had 400 pages and sold for only $1.00. The actual cost of each Badger last year was about $2.00, and the Board had no margin left with which they could add any extra touches which they desired. If it is the intention of this year's Board to raise the standard of the 1902 Badger by inserting features which cannot be used unless the Board has more money, it certainly would be a desirable move to raise the price of the Badger perhaps only fifty cents per volume as that would give a margin with which the Board might add innovations or might spend in getting better cuts than have been used in the previous Badgers.

Student.

Prof. O'Shea Granted Absence.

Professor M. V. O'Shea has been granted leave of absence by the Regents of the University to visit some of the eastern universities and to accept quite a number of invitations for addresses before conventions, societies, and educational institutions in eastern cities. He left Madison Thursday night for Iowa, where he will deliver a couple of addresses before going East. Mrs. O'Shea will accompany him on a part of his trip.

Registry by Students.

Students who intend to vote in Madison at the coming election and who have not already registered must do so on next Tuesday, October 30. In order not to keep students from registrations on that day notary publics will be stationed to-morrow morning at various places in the University quarters, and students can swear in affidavits with them, which will be taken care of by the local committees and thus spare all further trouble to student voters.

Lake Geneva Conference.

For the past two years the University Y. M. C. A. has had the largest representation from any one Association at the Summer Conference held at the Y. M. C. A. Camp at Lake Geneva. Next Sunday afternoon the men who attended the conference last June will tell of the work of the conference along various lines.

All men of the University are invited.

A great many students are finding that a typewriter is almost a necessity. When we remember that one can get through with from three to ten times as much work on a typewriter as with a pen it does not seem strange that they are coming into almost universal use.

THE HOOSIER POET.

Will Appear at Fuller Opera House
 Tomorrow Night.

One of the most fashionable and cultured audiences that ever gathered in Boston assembled in Tremont Temple last year. As undergoing the strain which he never seems to out-grow; but when he was brought forward and introduced by Julia Ward Howe, author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," there was an outburst of enthusiasm rarely witnessed in any city. The scene was an inspiring one as he assisted the aged poetess to the platform with all the tenderness and devotion of a son. When he recited his latest poem there was a perfect storm of applause, such as only a patriotic impulse awakens. The breathless and rapt attention of that vast audience while the poet rendered his lines was unparalleled in any dramatic production. The poet lost himself completely as painters and great musicians do—abandoned his own personality in that of the poet, simple and yet masterful, without the least suspicion of elocutionary rant. Even those who had read and re-read "That Old Sweetheart of Mine" hung on the sweet and tender climax as much as when they first saw the lines. With few gestures he has the full sway of the magnetic powers of his personality. There is a relationship firmly established between the poet and the hearer that is as sacred and strong as any tie of friendship.

Met the "Boys."

Dear Father:—After bucking hard all the week I took a constitutional around the park up town and met several of the boys at the One Minute Coffee House. One fellow ordered "Adam and Eve on a raft" and a cup of fierce coffee. We all followed suit. It proved to be poached eggs on toast and the best Mocha and Java. Send me that V which ma is saving—that "calf money."
