2001 Champions Record: 19-1

For the first time in program history, Wisconsin won back-to-back Big Ten Conference titles. The 19-1 record tied the 1997 team for best conference record in program history. Wisconsin joined Penn State and Illinois as the only schools to win outright (not shared with another school) back-to-back conference titles since 1985 when double round-robin play was initiated.

The Badgers opened the conference season with 11 straight wins including 3-0 wins over No. 10 Penn State, No. 11 Ohio State and No. 21 Minnesota. Wisconsin began the second-half of the Big Ten season with a 3-1 win at No. 10 Ohio State before falling at No. 13 Penn State in five games. The Badgers won the remaining eight league matches to clinch their fourth Big Ten title.

2000 Champions Record: 18-2

Wisconsin won its third Big Ten title in 2000 and its second outright championship. The Badgers battled Minnesota all season long for the league title with teams sharing the conference lead most of the year.

The Badgers opened the 2000 league season with a 3-0 win over defending NCAA and Big Ten champion Penn State in front of 3,549 fans in the UW Field House. Wisconsin won its next two matches by 3-0 scores before falling in five games to 19th-ranked Ohio State.

The UW won its next 11 matches including a 3-0 win at No. 5 Minnesota, a 3-1 win over No. 19 Michigan State at home, a 3-1 win over No. 7 Minnesota in the Field House and avenged its earlier

The Badgers wrapped up the Big Ten season with four straight wins and clinched a share of the title with a win at Michigan State on Nov. 25. A loss by co-leader Minnesota at Ohio State gave Wisconsin the title outright.

1997 Co-Champions Record: 19-1

Wisconsin shared the 1997 Big Ten title with Penn State as both teams finished with 19-1 records.

The Badgers opened the season with three straight wins, all over ranked teams, before travelling to State College, Pa., for their first match-up with the Nittany Lions. Penn State, which was ranked No. 1 at the time, came out on top 3-0 to take the league lead.

Wisconsin rebounded by winning its next six matches before facing Penn State at home on Halloween night. This time it was the Badgers who came out on top 3-1 in front of 6,118 fans in the UW Field House. The UW won its last nine matches of the season and clinched a share of the title with a 3-0 win over Iowa at home on Nov. 29.

1990 Champions Record: 16-2

Wisconsin won its first Big Ten title in 1990, when there were only 10 teams in the league.

The Badgers won their first four matches of the season before losing at Indiana, 0-3. Wisconsin rebounded with eight straight wins including a 3-1 victory over league-leading Purdue in the Field House. The Boilermakers returned the favor in November with a 3-1 win in West Lafayette, Ind.

The Badgers maintained a one-match lead over the Boilermakers throughout the last two weeks of the season. Wisconsin clinched the title on the road with 3-0 wins at Michigan and Michigan State in the last weekend of the conference season.

Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament

The UW has appeared in the "Big Dance" the last nine years in a row. In the last 15 years, Wisconsin has made 13 appearances in the NCAA tournament and has a record of 23-12.

The Badgers' best finish came in 2000 when they advanced to the NCAA championship for the first time in program history. Wisconsin has also made four appearances in NCAA regional finals (elite eight).

In addition to NCAA post-season play, the Badgers also won the National Invitational Volleyball Championship twice during its seven-year history. Wisconsin won the inaugural NIVC in 1989 and the final championship in 1995.

Beyond Wisconsin

Competing beyond college is the dream of many volleyball players and Wisconsin is rapidly becoming a pipeline for national teams and foreign professional leagues.

U.S. National Teams

Five Badgers have spent time training with the U.S. National team as a participant in the A-2 program or as part of the training team. The programs allow the players to travel and compete against some of the best teams in the world.

Professional Leagues

Five former Badgers have travelled overseas to continue their playing careers in Europe and Puerto Rico. Sherisa Livingston recently won the league championship with her team in Jakarta, Indonesia.

Coaching

Several former Badgers have joined the college coaching ranks after their playing careers, teaching the next group of stand-out athletes. Included in the list is: Lizzy Fitzgerald—North Carolina assistant; Arlisa Hagan—Florida assistant; Amy (Lee) Wagner—former Marquette assistant; Colleen (Neels) Bayer—UW assistant; and Liz (Tortorello) Nelson—former Loyola (Ill.) head coach.

Current UW assistant coach Colleen (Neels) Bayer was a member of the USPV league champion Minnesota Chill in 2002.

Wisconsin Field House

The first time you walk into the UW Field House during a volleyball match, you feel the excitement that is Wisconsin Volleyball. The band is playing, thousands of fans are yelling "Point Wisconsin," Bucky Badger is dancing, and the UW team is on the court winning!

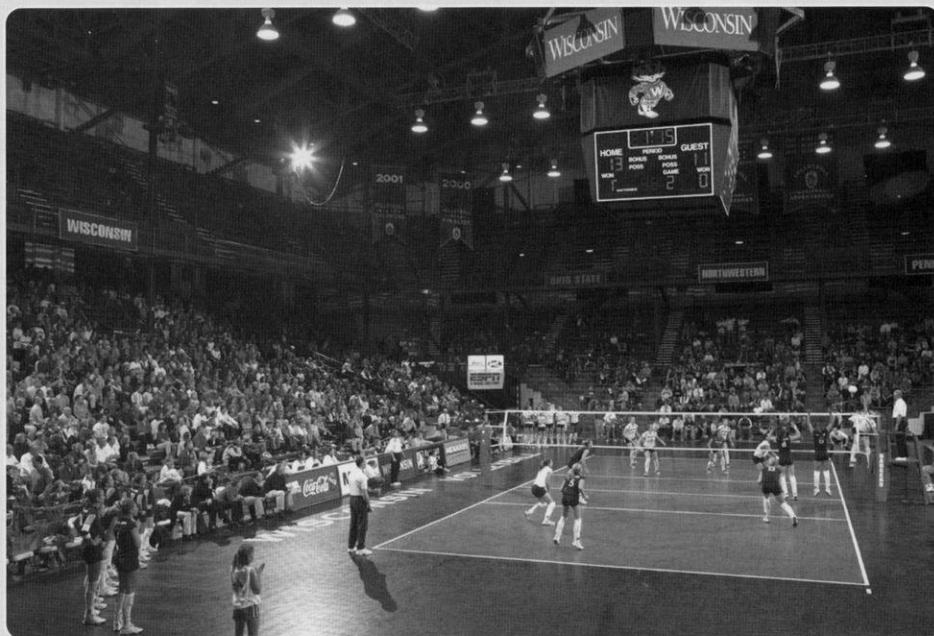

Badger fans make the UW Field House one of the loudest and most intimidating venues for opposing teams in the nation. Wisconsin consistently ranks among the top three teams in the nation in attendance and Badger fans are known for being very knowledgeable about the sport of volleyball.

Badgers' Home

Dedicated in 1930, the Field House was the home of the UW basketball team as well as the boxing and track teams for many years.

The first volleyball match played in the Field House was on Oct. 23, 1977, when the U.S. Men's National Team played Cuba. The first women's match followed soon after when Wisconsin hosted the 1977 Big Ten Conference Championship on Oct. 29.

It wasn't until 1980 that the Badgers again competed in the Field House playing host to two tournaments. Wisconsin's play in the Field House was sporadic until 1986 it became the permanent home of the volleyball team. With the construction of the Kohl Center in 1998, the volleyball team took over sole possession of the Field House in the fall, adding a Sport

Court and improving its locker room facilities.

A Tough Place to Play

Since 1990, when the Badgers won their first Big Ten Conference title and competed in their first NCAA tournament, the Field House has become one of the toughest places to play in the country.

Wisconsin has ranked among the top 10 in national attendance for the last 15 years including a second-place ranking in 2003. The Badgers also ranked third nationally in 1997, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2004. In 2003, Wisconsin set the Big Ten record for attendance for all matches and for conference-only matches. The Badgers averaged an impressive 4,294 spectators for all matches while that figure went up to 4,649 fans per match for Big Ten matches. Wisconsin has led the Big Ten in attendance eight years—1990, 1991, 1997, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004.

Volleyball Specific

Since 1998, the volleyball team has been the sole occupant of the Field House in the fall. One significant improvement is a permanent Sport Court for all home matches and practices. The Badgers have two full courts for practices and an eye-catching black and red court for home matches.

The Badgers also moved into new locker room facilities with a team lounge and study area separate from the team's home locker room. A complete renovation of the locker room area, including a photo display of Big Ten championship teams, was completed in the summer of 2003.

The renovation of Camp Randall Stadium also included improvements to the north end of the Field House including updated restrooms on the first floor as well as a new media room and locker rooms on the lower level. An All-American wall on the west side of the building features life-size photos of the Badger greats.

1993 NCAA Championship

The Field House was the site of the 1993 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship which drew then-record crowds. A total of 21,085 watched the two-day event including 11,155 for the championship match. That figure set the NCAA single-match attendance record and still ranks as the No. 5 volleyball attendance figure of all time.

The Field House was also the site of the No. 7 attendance of all time when 10,935 fans watched the Badgers defeat Illinois in the first round of the 1990 NCAA tournament.

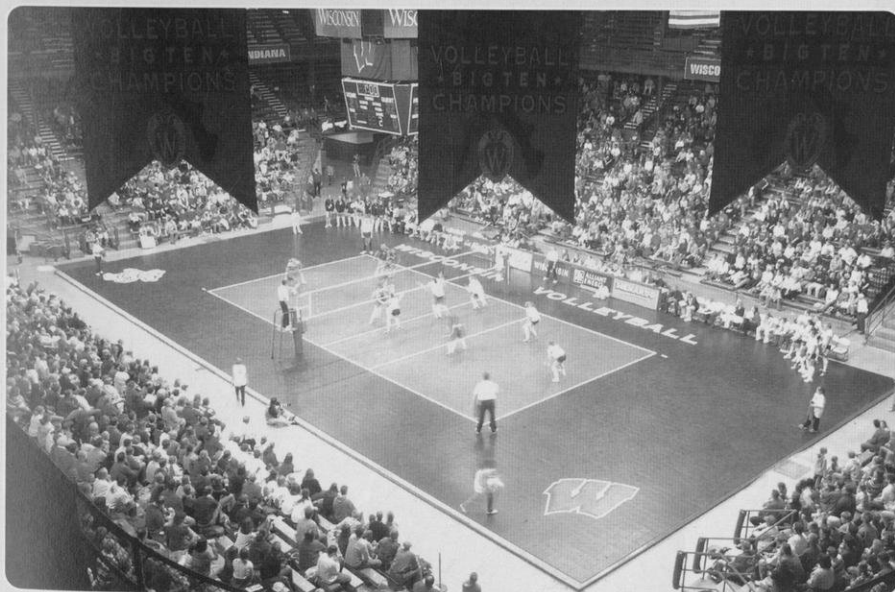

The Badgers' locker room was renovated during the summer of 2003.

Big Ten Conference record for average attendance

The Badgers' Big Ten Conference championship banners provide a backdrop for the UW Field House court.

"Playing in the Field House is one of the greatest parts of Badger volleyball.

The size of our crowds and the history of the building are known nationwide.

The Field House and the fans are two of the major reasons that top recruits say they want to play for Wisconsin. They want that feeling, they want to experience of having over 4,000 fans behind them when the run on the court.

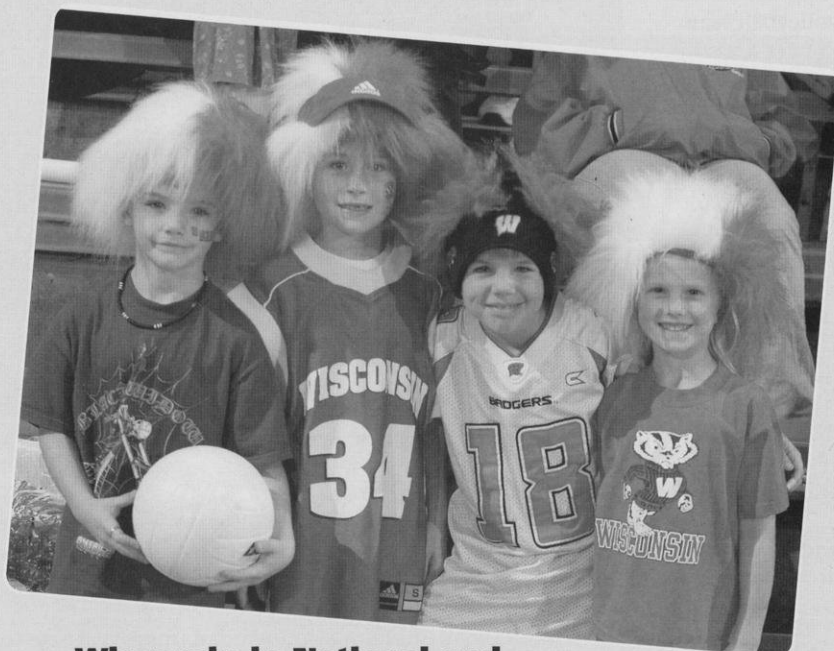

We love the Field House; it's a great place to be."

Bucky's Buddies Kids Club

Nowhere else in the nation do kids play such an important part of a college volleyball program. From giving the Badger starters a "high five" before the start of every home match, to joining in the singing of 'Varsity' after another UW win, to participating in clinics with the Wisconsin team and coaching staff, the Bucky's Buddies Kids Club is an integral part of Wisconsin Volleyball.

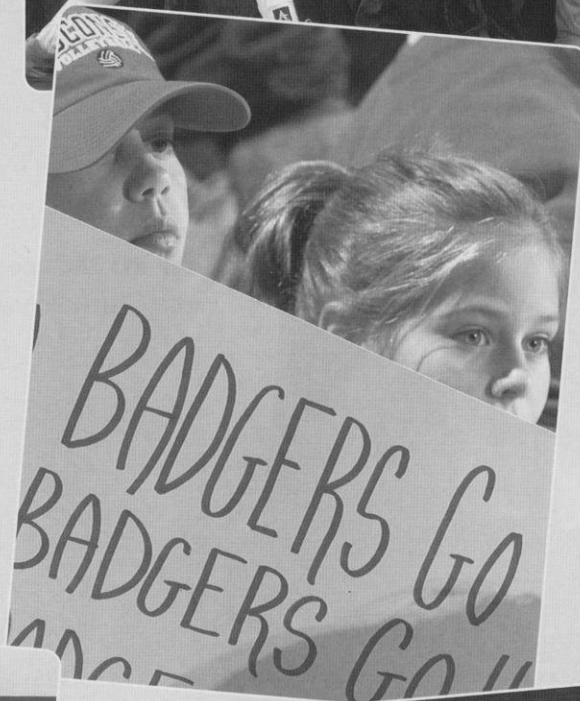

Open to boys and girls up to the eighth grade, Bucky's Buddies have a special relationship with the UW team. For a $15 membership fee, club members receive a club t-shirt, five general admission single-match tickets, skills clinic with the UW coaches and players, a quarterly newsletter and an end-of-the-season pizza party.

Steve Lowe Memorial Scholarship

When Steve Lowe unexpectedly passed away on Aug. 22, 1991, the University of Wisconsin and the Madison community lost a true friend and a winner on and off the court.

With Lowe at the helm, the Badger volleyball program burst onto the national scene. In 1989, he directed the Badgers to the inaugural National Invitational Volleyball Championship, their first post-season appearance ever.

The following year he steered Wisconsin to its first Big Ten Conference title, its first NCAA tournament appearance and first national ranking. Lowe also produced Wisconsin's first volleyball All-American with Lisa Boyd earning second-team honors.

Lowe, who had a 108-64 career record in five years at Wisconsin, earned 1990 Big Ten and AVCA Midwest Coach of the Year honors.

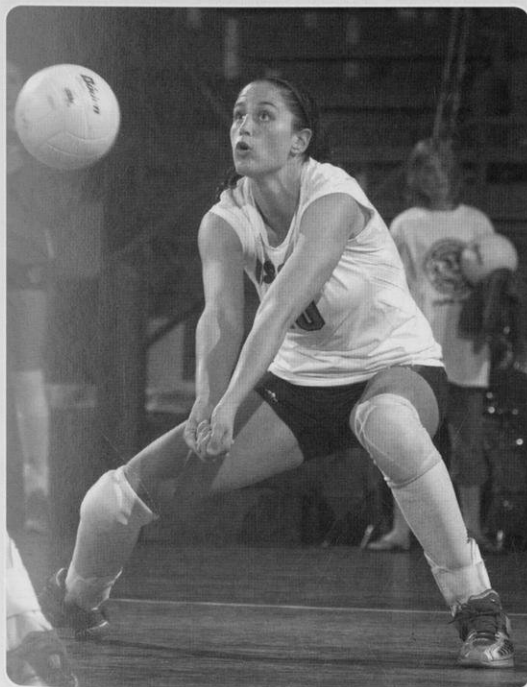

Every year Wisconsin's Big Ten home opener is designated "Steve Lowe Night" in honor of the former coach. This year's match is Friday, Sept. 23 vs. Minnesota.

In addition, a Badger volleyball player who exemplifies Steve's love of the game is named the recipient of the Steve Lowe Memorial Scholarship. This year's recipient is junior Maria Carlini.

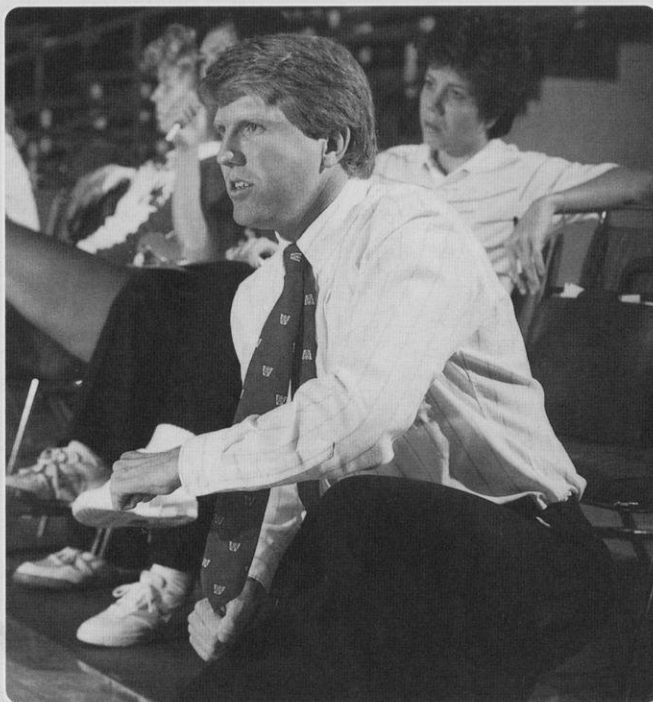

Contributions to the Steve Lowe Memorial Scholarship Fund may be made to the University of Wisconsin Foundation—Steve Lowe Scholarship Fund, 1848 University Ave., Box 8860, Madison, Wis. 53708-8860.

Wisconsin Sets Attendance Records

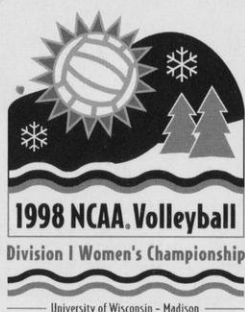

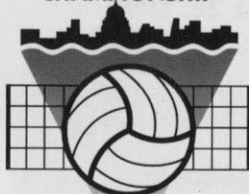

The University of Wisconsin has served as the host to the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship twice in the span of six years. Wisconsin was only the third university to play host to the championship more than once.

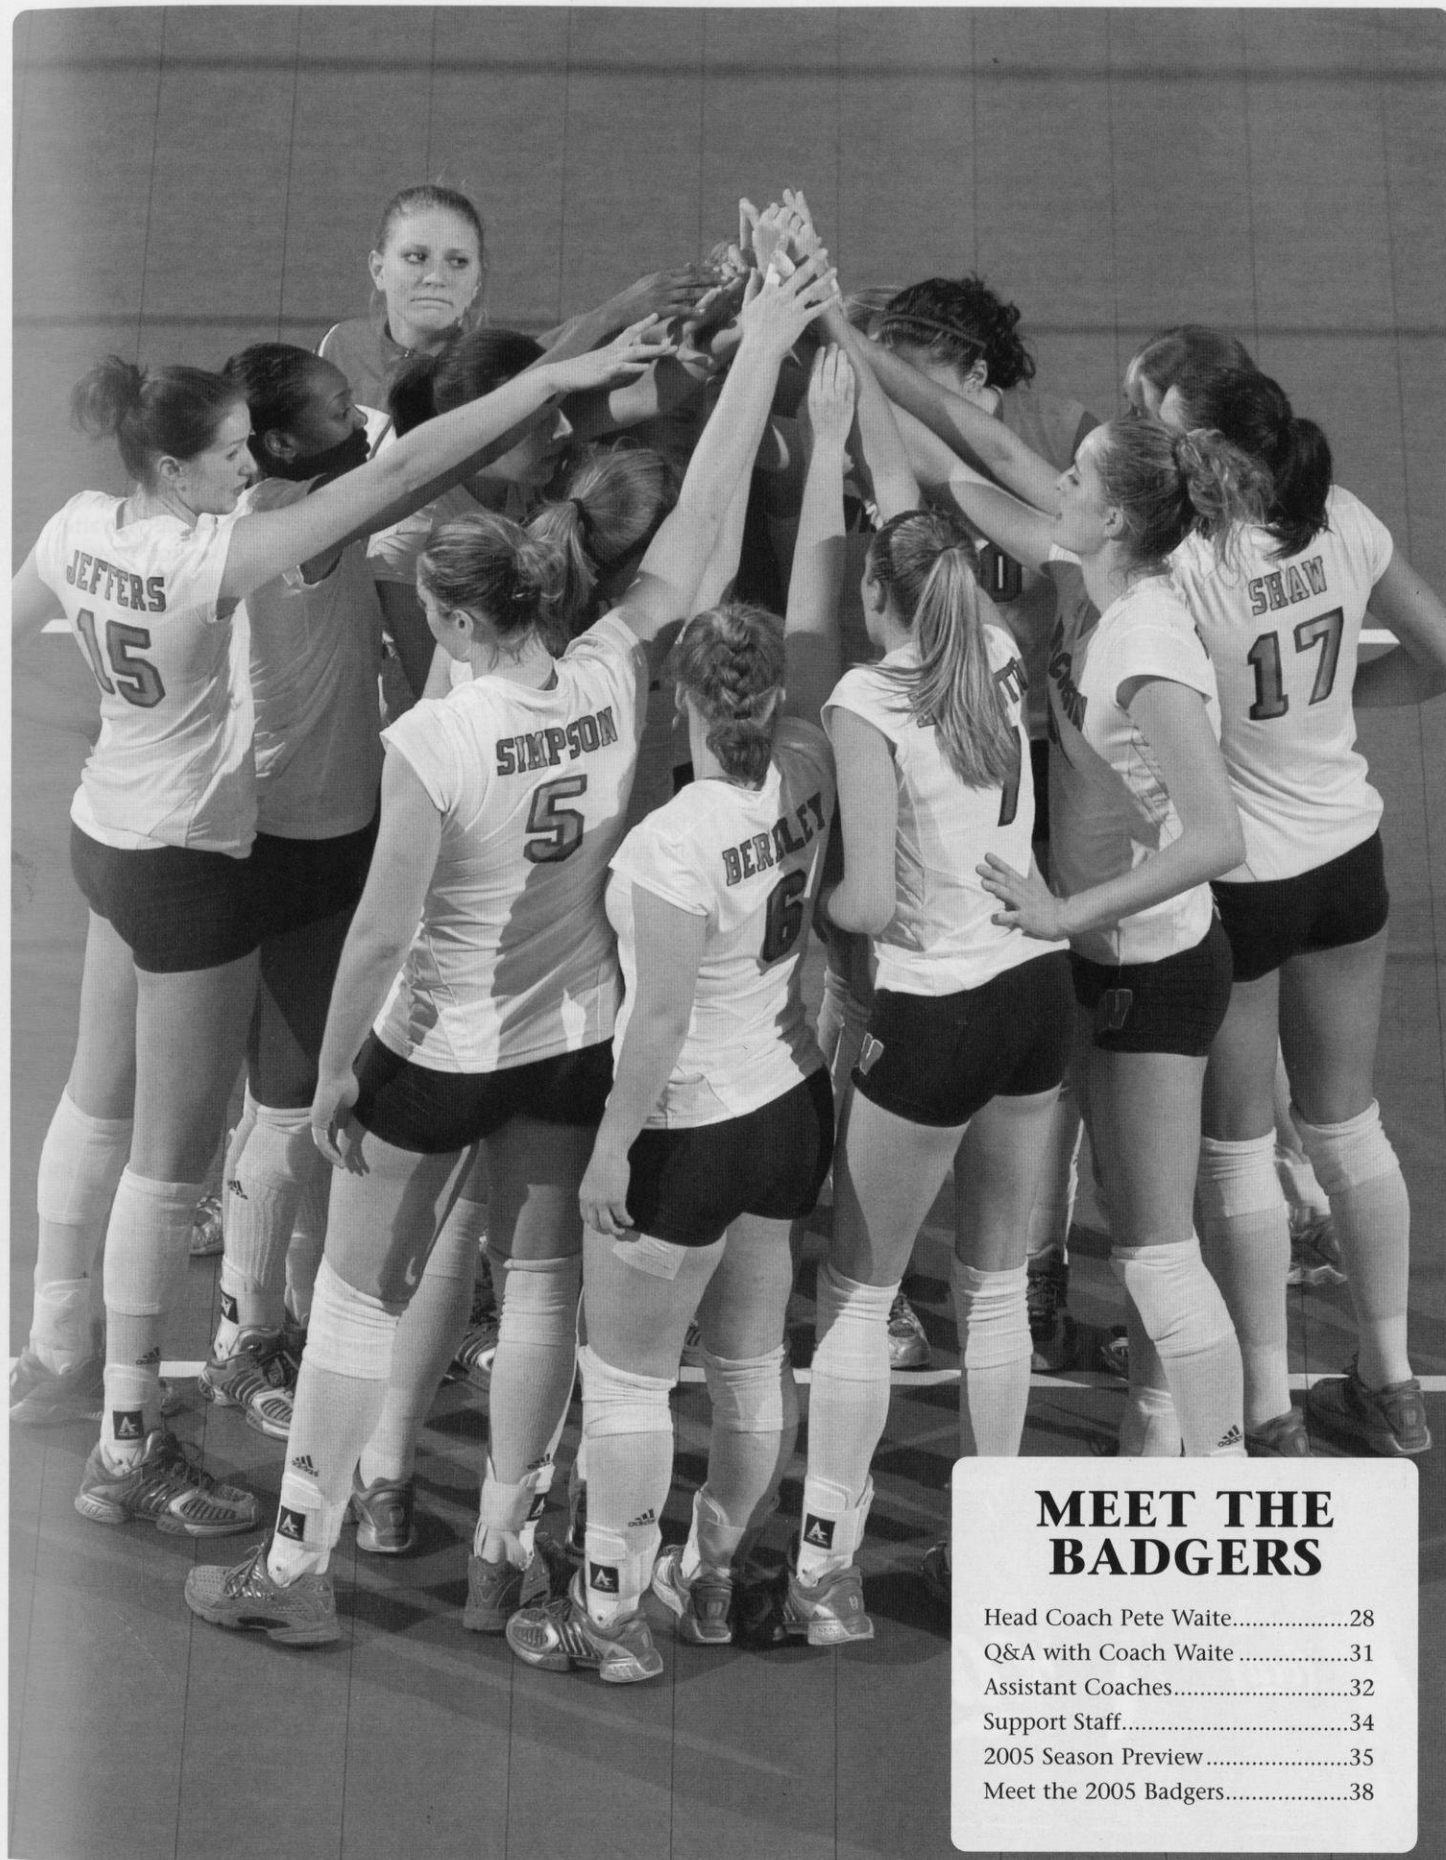

In 1998, the UW set the NCAA single-match attendance record when 13,194 spectators watched the finals of the championship. Wisconsin also set the NCAA semifinal attendance record of 12,327 bringing the two-day total to 25,521, which broke the championship record of 21,086 set in 1997 at the Spokane Arena.

Wisconsin first played host to the championship in 1993, drawing record crowds to the UW Field House. A then-record attendance of 21,085 watched the two-day event including 11,155 who watched Long Beach State defeat Penn State in the championship match. That figure still stands as the No. 5 volleyball attendance figure of all time.

Head Coach Pete Waite

A native of the Madison area, Pete Waite is happy to be home and the Badgers are happy he returned. Ever since he became the UW's head coach, Wisconsin has reached a new level of success.

In his six years at the UW, the Badgers are an impressive 152-46 (.768) with six 20-plus win seasons. Waite, 45, won his 400th collegiate match in 2004 and upped his career record to 418-148 in 17 years, ranking 14th among active Division I head coaches with a .739 winning percentage.

With six straight NCAA tournament appearances, Waite has done what no other UW coach could accomplish. The Badgers advanced to the 2000 NCAA championship match, ending the year ranked second nationally. In 2004, Wisconsin advanced to the regional final, finishing among the top eight teams in the country. The UW advanced to the regional semifinals in 2001 and to second-round action in 1999, 2002 and 2003.

On the Big Ten Conference level, Wisconsin won league titles in 2000 and 2001 with identical 19-1 records. In 1999 and 2002, the Badgers finished second in the conference. The UW has never placed lower than fourth in the league during Waite's tenure.

Waite has also been honored by his colleagues by being named the Big Ten and AVCA Midwest Regional Coach of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

At Wisconsin, Waite has coached six All-Americans, 11 AVCA All-Region first-team selections, two Big Ten players of the year, and 12 first-team All-Big Ten honorees. He has also coached one Big Ten Freshman of the Year and six members of the Big Ten All-Freshman team.

Waite came to Wisconsin from Northern Illinois University where he was the winningest volleyball coach in program history. He had an 11-year record of 266-102 (.723 winning percentage) including nine 20-plus win seasons. The Huskies were 81-19 (.810) in his last three years including three consecutive NCAA tournament bids.

NIU appeared in four NCAA tournaments under Waite, advancing to the second round three times including in 1997 when it lost to national runner-up Penn State. The Huskies also appeared in the National Invitational Volleyball Championship in 1991, '92, and '94, and declined an invitation to the NIVC in 1995.

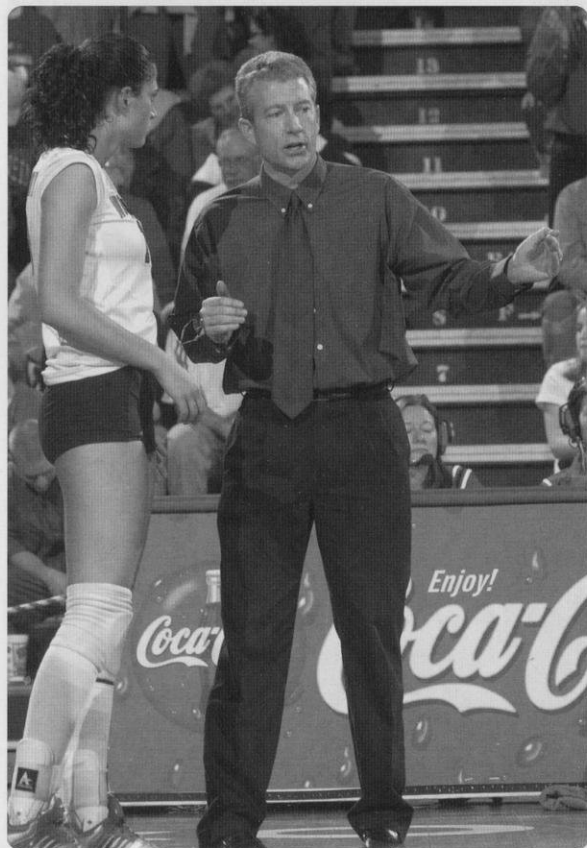

Northern Illinois won eight regular-season conference titles and six conference tournaments under Waite. Three times he was named the conference coach of the year. Individually, Waite coached four AVCA all-region players, four conference players of the year, 14 first-team all-conference honorees, one conference newcomer of the year and four members of the conference all-newcomer team.

Prior to being named the head coach at Northern Illinois, Waite spent two years as an assistant coach at Illinois State. In 1984 and 1985, he was the head coach at Moraine Valley Community College in Palos Hills, Ill., leading the Cyclones to the 1985 North Central Community College Conference championship. Waite was named the conference coach of the year in 1985.

Waite spent one year as the director and coach of the Chicago Power Volleyball Club in Orland Park, Ill., and two years as a coach with the 2nd City Volleyball Club in Chicago. He started his coaching career in 1981 at Muncie (Ind.) Northside High School and spent the next year as a junior varsity coach at his alma mater, Monona Grove (Wis.) High School. Waite also coached one year at Bremen High School in Midlothian, Ill.

Waite played volleyball and graduated from Monona Grove High School. He played volleyball at Ball State University in Muncie, Ind., from 1977-81 with a team that consistently ranked in the top 10 nationally. The 1979 Cardinal squad finished fourth in the NCAA tournament after winning the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association title with a perfect 14-0 record. Waite received All-MIVA honors his junior and senior years, and was named team co-captain and co-MVP in 1980. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Ball State in 1981.

Waite and his wife, Carrie, have two sons, Ryan, 21, who is a senior at the UW, and Eric, 18, who is a senior at James Madison Memorial High School.

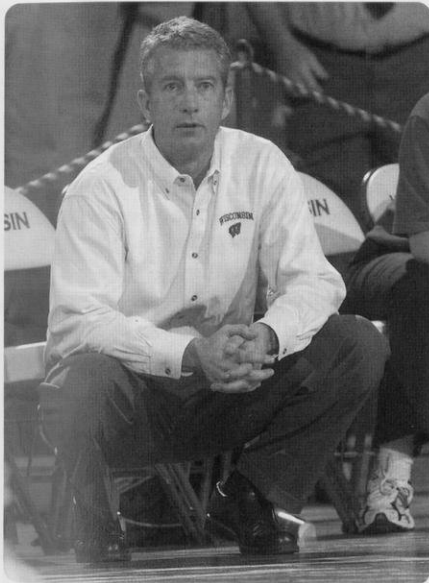

Waite, shown here with junior Maria Carlini, has led the Badgers to six NCAA tournament appearances and two Big Ten Conference titles in his six years at Wisconsin.

The Waite family—Pete, Ryan, Eric and Carrie (holding Jersey)—on the shores of Lake Mendota in Madison.

"I've found that what I really enjoy is the building process. That's what coaching is about, putting the pieces together while having a vision for a great final result. This team came together last season with a nucleus of young players. They have the right mix of positive personalities, work ethic, and athleticism to make some noise this year."

Coach Pete Waite

Waite has coached six All-Americans, 11 AVCA All-Region honorees and 12 first-team All-Big Ten players in his six years at Wisconsin.

Waite, shown here being interviewed by Heather Cox of ESPN, was named the Big Ten and AVCA Mideast Regional Coach of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

Q&A with Coach Waite

Why should a student-athlete choose to attend the University of Wisconsin?

I've seen a lot of other schools and I think Wisconsin ranks among the best in the nation. Besides having some of the best academic programs, it has one of the most beautiful campuses anywhere. Along with that, we have a very loyal and large fan base that makes the Field House a fantastic place to play. Our program can offer a great education, a beautiful city, a well-balanced social life, and fans that many other schools wish they had. It has the whole package!

What kind of student-athletes are you recruiting to the University of Wisconsin?

We are going after players who are high achievers both on the court and in the classroom. We want players who are driven to succeed and who know that hard work pays off. People who want to be well-rounded academically, athletically and socially.

How would you describe your coaching style?

I'm a teacher; it's always been a part of me even before I became a coach. I'm firm and fair, not a yeller. I expect a lot of my players while at the same time, I work hard to help them enjoy their time at the UW. It's a game; it should be fun. I offer them a lot of variety in practices so that time flies by. I want players to love the game, play from their hearts, and dare to dream. When they do that, the wins come.

You have almost 20 years of coaching experience. What have you learned in your years of coaching that you bring to the UW program?

I've been a college coach for over 18 years, and was a full-time club coach for three years before that. I've learned that patience pays off. I enjoy seeing a player learn a new skill just as much as I enjoy the championships. I bring the philosophy that building a quality program means taking care of the players, not taking short cuts and leaving players in your wake.

I know that developing winners is not just about me. There has to be a great staff and we have that. The players need to believe, trust, and try. I'm here to guide them and give them the freedom to blossom when they're ready to grow.

What strengths does your coaching staff bring to the UW program and its athletes?

Rod brings a wealth of experience from the national team having been a player and a coach. He has a great talent for analyzing skills and improving technique. On top of that, I've never seen a person with more energy and love for the game.

Colleen brings the knowledge of having been a Badger volleyball player. She has walked this campus, played in front of these fans, and set for a team that went from fifth to first in the Big Ten. She has won a Big Ten championship and she wants to help this program win it again.

Dave is a real bonus for us. He is a great trainer in the gym and he's coached teams at the highest level.

I think we have some great variety and experience on our staff. Everyone's goal is for our players to make phenomenal improvements in their game and win championships.

What goals have you set for the Wisconsin program and each individual player?

Some goals we set are private, between the players and the staff. That's important in order to keep everyone focused on the task. In general, we ask each player to leave her comfort zone and grow as a person and as a member of the team. We will always aim to be the top team in the Big Ten along with being one of the top teams in the country. Our ultimate goal is to win a national championship and annually be considered one of the premier programs in the country.

The Big Ten Conference is one of the toughest leagues in the nation for women's volleyball. What does it take for student-athletes to compete on the Big Ten level?

Players have to battle and fight to stay on top. That's what makes it great. You have no choice but to play your best because there are so many good players and teams. Those are the players we want to become Badgers; those who love a challenge and are ready to fight. To be the best, you have to play the best.

Wisconsin has appeared in the NCAA tournament six straight years. How does the UW continue to be among the top teams in the nation?

It's the combination of bringing in the right players and teaching them to play great as a team. Great players don't guarantee great results. Coaching and creating team chemistry give players the chance to reach their true potential. Badger players and coaches work hard to improve every day and that hard work has paid off over the years.

Wisconsin continually rates among the top teams in the nation for attendance. To what do you attribute this?

We have a great venue to play in and the perfect city to live in. Madison has three television stations, two newspapers and several radio stations that do a great job covering our team. Fans in Madison know our players and they consistently come out in big numbers to support them. The Field House is one of the most electric places to play in the nation and once someone comes to watch, they keep coming back and bringing friends!

What does the city of Madison offer student-athletes that can't be found anywhere else?

I would have to say the lakes and State Street. I don't know of any other campus that has their student union, dorms and library right on a beautiful lake. Only one block away from the lake is State Street where students can find a wide variety of shops and restaurants.

Our players work hard in the classroom and on the court. Madison lets them enjoy their free time and it really helps them re-energize. Madison is an exciting city next to a great campus.

What do you enjoy most about coaching at the University of Wisconsin?

The players, the staff, the support, the Field House, the Band, Bucky, the huge fan turnout, all the other great sports and coaches, the lakes, State Street, the Capital, the zoo, the Big Ten, my family nearby . . . You name it, I love this place!

Assistant Coaches

Colleen Bayer

Colleen (Neels) Bayer, a former two-time All-Big Ten Conference setter for the Badgers, is in her first year as an assistant coach at Wisconsin.

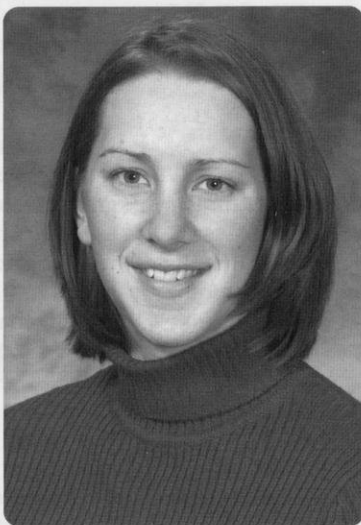

Bayer, 28, was a four-year letterwinner with the Badgers from 1995-98. She played her first two seasons as a defensive specialist and back-up setter. Bayer took over the starting setter job as a junior and senior, earning All-Big Ten honors in 1997 and 1998. She was also a two-time AVCA All-District 2 selection and was named to the 1997 and 1998 NCAA Regional All-Tournament teams, leading the Badgers to top-eight finishes. Bayer was the Badgers' team captain in 1998 and also earned two Academic All-Big Ten honors. With Bayer setting, Wisconsin won the 1997 Big Ten Championship and finished second in 1998.

Following her collegiate career, Bayer played with the United States Professional Volleyball league. She was a member of the USPV Dream Team in 1999-2000. Bayer played professionally with USC-Muenster in Muenster, Germany, in 2000 before returning to play one year with the Minnesota Chill of the USPV. She served as the captain of the Chill, which won the 2002 USPV league title.

Bayer served as an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Sting Volleyball Club in 1996 and with the Wisconsin Select Volleyball Club in 1997. In 2000, Bayer worked as an assistant coach with the 16-1 team of the Sports Performance Volleyball Club. Her team finished ninth in the country and won the AAU National Championship.

Bayer served as the head freshman coach and varsity assistant coach at St. Charles (Ill.) East High School in 2001, aiding the varsity squad to the Illinois state championship. Since 2002, she worked at the Great Lakes Center in Aurora, Ill., as a sales assistant and office manager.

Rod Wilde, an NCAA champion as both a player and coach, is in his fifth season as an assistant coach at Wisconsin.

Wilde, 48, was an alternate for the United States volleyball team that won a gold medal at the 1984 Olympics. He broke his leg in match against Russia just six weeks before the games. A member of the U.S. National Team from 1982-84 and again from 1989-91, Wilde also served as an assistant coach with the U.S.

men's national team from 1993-2000. He was selected as an assistant coach to both the 1996 and 2000 Olympic teams. He also aided the U.S. to a bronze medal at the 1994 World Championships. In 1999, Wilde was the head coach of the U.S. Pan-American team.

The former manager of the High Performance Programs with U.S.A. Volleyball (USAV), Wilde oversaw all aspects of the USAV programs for high school athletes including the Junior and Youth National teams. In 2004, Wilde was recognized by USA Volleyball with a George J. Fisher Leader in Volleyball Award.

Wilde was a three-time All-American at Pepperdine University, setting the Waves to the 1978 NCAA Championship. He returned to Pepperdine as the men's head coach from 1985-87 leading the Waves to the 1986 NCAA Championship. Wilde also served as the head men's coach at UC San Diego from 1991-93 and as the head women's coach at Drake University from 1984-85.

An active player, Wilde was named the most valuable player of the Men's Masters 45-and-Over Division of the 2005 USA Open Championships.

Wilde is a 1980 graduate of Pepperdine University with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and a minor in physical education. He is a native of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and his wife, Kris (Hey), is a native of Milwaukee. She was an all-state volleyball and basketball player at Wauwatosa East High School and led the Red Raiders to the Wisconsin state high school titles in both volleyball and basketball in 1980.

Karen Milborn

Karen Milborn is in her second season the director of volleyball operations. She is responsible for arranging team travel, overseeing the budget, supervising public service activities, coordinating summer camps, training tables and scheduling of day-to-day activities of the program. Milborn serves as a liaison with the athletic department support units, including facilities and events, athletic communications, marketing, compliance, academics, the ticket office, alumni and the National W Club. She also serves as an advisor to the Wisconsin Power Volleyball Club and coaches the 16-1 girls team.

Milborn came to Wisconsin after serving as the club director and facility manager at Club Fusion-Crystal Lake in northeastern Illinois for one year. As facility manager, she served as the site coordinator for a number of junior volleyball tournaments including entries and registration. Milborn was also the club's director responsible for hiring coaches. In addition, she started a six-team volleyball club to compete on the regional level.

Milborn was the head volleyball coach at Chassell Township High School in Michigan, earning 2002 conference co-coach of the year honors.

A four-year letterwinner in volleyball at Michigan Tech University from 1998-2001, Milborn set career and season records for digs for the Huskies. She was a three-time second-team all-conference selection and earned academic all-conference honors three seasons. Milborn was named a team co-captain as a junior and was the team most valuable player as a sophomore. Following the completion of her eligibility, Milborn served as a student assistant coach with the Huskies in 2002.

Milborn earned a bachelor's degree in biomedical engineering from Michigan Tech in 2002. During her academic career, she spent a semester studying abroad in Perth, Australia.

Dave Bayer

Dave Bayer is in his first season as a volunteer assistant coach at Wisconsin. He joins his wife, Colleen, on the Badger staff.

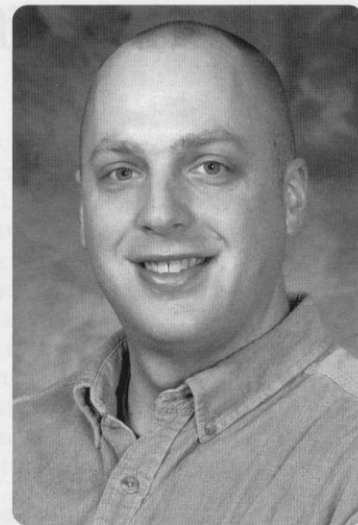

Since 1995, Bayer, 34, served as the 16-1 head coach and 18-1 assistant coach with the Sports Performance Volleyball Club in northeastern Illinois. He also served as the club director and head coach of the boys' club program for the past three years. His boys' teams won either gold or silver medals at the USA Junior Championships all three years while his 16-1 girls team placed as high as fifth at the junior championships.

In addition to his coaching duties, Bayer also served as the store manager of The Volleyshop at the Great Lakes Center in Aurora, Ill.

Prior to joining Sports Performance, where he coached current Badger Taylor Reineke and former Badger Erin Byrd, Bayer served as a head coach with the Milwaukee Sting Volleyball Club from 1995-97. His teams, which featured former Badgers Jamie Gardner, Jenny Maastricht and Sara Urbanek, placed third and fifth at the USA Junior Championships. Bayer was also the camp and facility director at The Epicenter, a volleyball complex in Waukesha, Wis.

A native of Racine, Wis., Bayer was a four-year volleyball letterwinner at Ball State University, serving as a team co-captain during his senior season. During his college career, Bayer also coached former Badgers Marisa Mackey and Keylee Wright with the Munciana Volleyball Club in Muncie, Ind.

The best is yet to come for Badgers

With the way the Wisconsin volleyball team ended the 2004 season, the best may be yet to come for the Badgers.

Wisconsin shocked the volleyball community last season as it tied for fifth in the NCAA tournament. The Badgers upset second-ranked and undefeated Hawai'i in the regional semifinals before losing to eventual national champion Stanford in the regional final. All this from a team that had not been ranked in the coaches' top 25 poll for most of the season.

Thanks to its late-season run, Wisconsin ended the year ranked 14th in the USA Today/CSTV Top 25 Coaches Poll. With five starters plus their libero returning, the Badgers are ready for even more success in 2005.

Shaw, Meierotto Lead Team

Leading the Badgers will be 2004 honorable mention All-American Sheila Shaw. In 2004, the 6-1 middle blocker led the Big Ten Conference with 1.36 blocks per game. She also led the UW with 3.81 kills per game, which ranked eighth in the league. Shaw was a unanimous All-Big Ten selection and earned AVCA All-Mideast Region honors.

Shaw and senior Aubrey Meierotto will serve as Badger co-captains in 2004. Meierotto is a two-year starter as a left-side hitter and ranked third on the team last season with 2.83 kills per game. The 6-1 Meierotto is also one of the best servers on the team, leading the Badgers with 0.28 aces per game last season, and one of the best blockers, averaging 0.77 blocks per game including 13 block solos.

Six Starters Return

Along with Shaw and Meierotto, other returning starters including junior Maria Carlini and sophomores Taylor Reineke, Jackie Simpson and Jocelyn Wack.

As a sophomore, Carlini started 17 matches on the left-side after playing much of her freshman season at middle blocker. The 6-2 Carlini led the team with eight double-doubles and averaged 2.75 kills and 2.42 digs per game. She was named the Big Ten Player of the Week on Nov. 22 after leading Wisconsin to wins over Michigan and Michigan State.

Simpson was named to the 2004 Big Ten All-Freshman team, ranking fifth in the league with 13.01 assists per game.

The 6-0 setter started 26 matches, becoming the first UW freshman since 1993 to earn a consistent starting role.

Reineke, a 6-3 middle blocker, started 28 matches, ranking second on the team with 1.25 blocks per game. She added 1.63 kills per game while hitting a team best .317.

As a freshman libero, Wack set the UW season record for digs and ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 4.93 digs per game. She played in all 32 matches as libero and earned NCAA Region All-Tournament honors after recording a career-high 35 digs against Hawai'i.

With the return of most of its starting lineup, Wisconsin also returns most of its statistical offense and defense. The Badgers return 81 percent of their blocking (304 of 375.5 blocks), 78 percent of their defense (1,434 of 1,843 digs), 73.5 percent of their serving (86 of 117 aces) and 70 percent of their offense (1,317 of 1,890 kills) as well as both of their setters.

Reserves Play Key Roles

In addition to its starters, the UW also returns several key players off the bench.

Amy Bladow played in 22 matches at middle blocker, averaging 1.17 kills and 1.00 blocks per game. Bladow could see playing time on the right side as well this season.

As freshmen, Megan Mills and Amanda Berkley both saw action as defensive specialists. Mills played in 23 matches, averaging 1.12 digs per game while Berkley played in 16 matches and averaged 0.88 digs per game.

Katie Lorenzen earned a starting role at setter for four matches in the middle of the 2004 season. She averaged 11.44 assists per game, including a career-high 61 assists in a win over Illinois.

In 2004, four of the Badgers' underclassmen started at least 60 percent of the matches played while eight saw playing time.

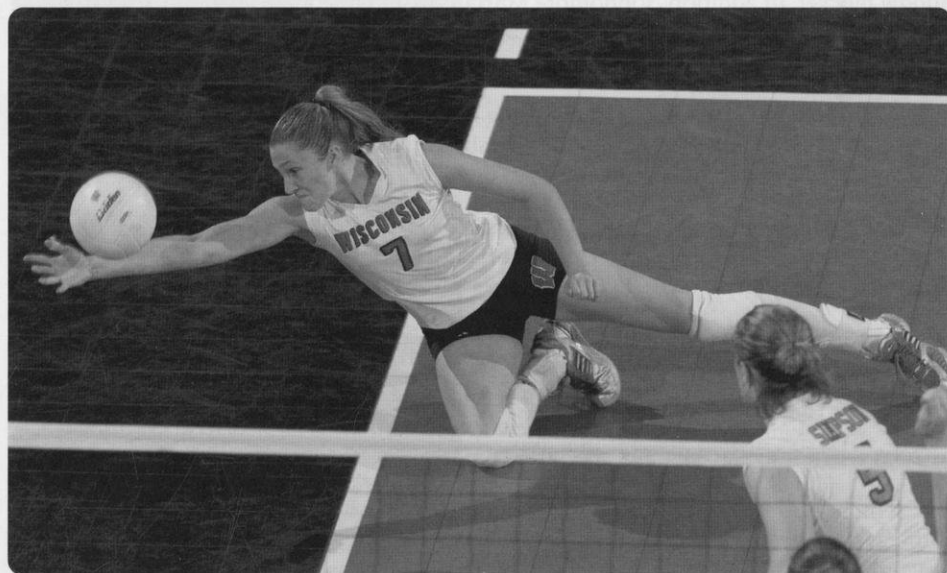

Freshmen Add Depth, Height

Wisconsin also adds three talented newcomers to the team in 2005—middle blockers Katherine Dykstra and Morgan Salow, as well as defensive specialist Faye McCormack.

Dykstra was a member of the 2004 USA Volleyball Junior National A2 team. A relative newcomer to the game of volleyball, the 6-3 Dykstra has one of the most impressive leaps in the game with the ability to touch 10-7.

Salow, who is 6-4, will be one of the tallest players ever at the UW. She is a three-time all-state selection from Manchester, Iowa. Salow was ranked No. 24 in PrepVolleyball.com's Senior Aces.

McCormack was a 2003 AAU All-American, playing with Sports Performance Volleyball Club. A quick and agile player, the 5-6 McCormack could see immediate playing time in the back row.

Senior Aubrey Meierotto will serve as one of the Badgers' co-captains in 2005. She ranked third on the team last season with 2.83 kills per game and led the UW with 0.28 service aces per game.

2005 Notes

◆ Coach Pete Waite is on track to win his 100th Big Ten Conference match in 2005. The UW head coach is 93-27 in league play over his six years at Wisconsin. Waite earned his 400th career win in 2004 when the Badgers swept Virginia, 3-0, on Sept. 17.

◆ In 2005, Wisconsin will play nine teams that competed in the 2004 NCAA Tournament including six teams that were ranked in the final USA Today/CSTV Top 25 poll. Among Big Ten Conference teams, seven competed in post-season play while five were ranked or received votes in the final poll.

◆ Senior Sheila Shaw returns to lead the Badgers after earning honorable mention All-America honors in 2004. The 6-1 middle blocker was a unanimous pick to the 2004 All-Big Ten team and also earned AVCA All-Mideast Regional honors. Other returning award winners include sophomore Jackie Simpson, who was named to the 2004 Big Ten All-Freshman team, and sophomore Jocelyn Wack, who was named to the NCAA Region All-Tournament team. Senior Aubrey Meierotto returns with four all-tournament honors on her list of awards while junior Maria Carlini earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors in 2004.

◆ Wisconsin will put its tallest team ever on the court in 2005 with an average height of 6-0. The Badgers feature 11 of 15 players at six feet or over including freshman Morgan Salow, who at 6-4 ties former Badger Kelly Kennedy as the tallest player ever at the UW. Without the four defensive players, who only play in the back row, the UW's front-row height goes up to nearly 6-2.

◆ Wisconsin was the talk of the volleyball community in 2004 as it tied for fifth in the NCAA tournament. The Badgers, who had not been ranked in the coaches poll for most of the season, ended the season ranked 14th in the USA Today/CSTV Top 25 Coaches poll and 14th in the NCAA RPI.

◆ Wisconsin played some of its best defense at the end of the season. In its four NCAA matches, the Badgers averaged 17.71 digs and 4.36 blocks per game compared to 16.03 digs and 3.27 blocks per game overall. Individually, Jocelyn Wack led the team with 5.57 digs per game and Sheila Shaw averaged 1.93 blocks per game in tournament play.

◆ Freshmen and sophomores played a key role in Wisconsin's NCAA run last season with five underclassmen seeing significant playing time. Three rookies earned starting roles in 2004—Jocelyn Wack at libero, Jackie Simpson at setter, and Taylor Reineke at middle blocker. In addition, sophomore Maria Carlini ended last season in a starting role at outside hitter. Defensive specialist Megan Mills also earned playing time as a freshman in 2004.

◆ Libero Jocelyn Wack looks to continue her streak of 31 straight matches in which she has recorded double-figure digs. As a freshman, Wack set the UW season record for digs, totalling 567 digs (4.93/game).

◆ Jackie Simpson recorded over 1,000 assists in 2004, becoming the first UW freshman since Laura Abbinante in 1993 to accomplish that feat. She ranked fifth in the Big Ten and 29th nationally with 13.01 assists per game.

◆ For the past five years, Wisconsin has ranked among the top three teams in the nation for attendance. The UW's goal for 2005 is to move up to second nationally.

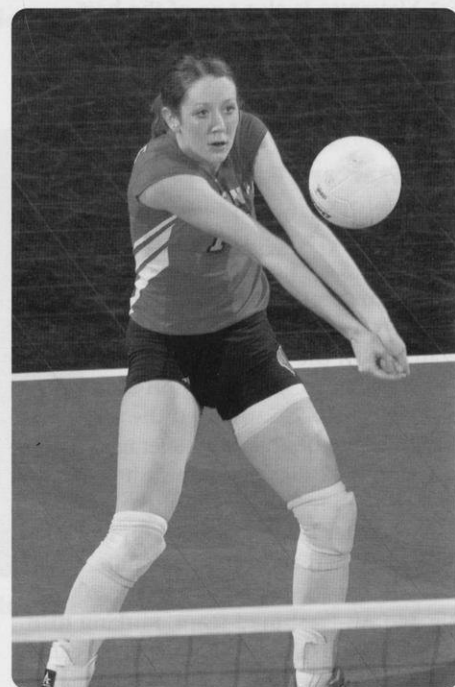

In 2004, the Badgers averaged 4,079 spectators per match, only 265 fans per match behind second-place Nebraska (4,344 per match). Wisconsin ranked second nationally in 2003 when it averaged 4,294 spectators per match.

◆ Seniors Aubrey Meierotto and Sheila Shaw have been selected as the Badgers' team co-captains for 2005. Meierotto also served as a co-captain in 2004 while Shaw will serve in that capacity for the first time this season. Shaw is a three-year starter at middle blocker while Meierotto, a fifth-year senior, is a two-year starter at outside hitter.

Top: Sheila Shaw returns as the Big Ten's leading blocker, averaging 1.36 blocks per game as a junior. She also led the Badgers with 3.81 kills per game.

Bottom: Jocelyn Wack set the UW season record for digs as a freshman in 2004. She looks to continue her streak of 31 straight matches with double-figure digs in 2005.

Coach Waite on the 2005 Season

How would you describe the 2005 Wisconsin volleyball team?

Exciting. We have the type of players who have the athletic ability, personalities, and attitudes that are exciting to watch. They enjoy being with each other, which makes for good team chemistry. They love playing volleyball and that makes it exciting for the fans.

The 2005 Badger team is the tallest in program history. How will this change your style of play?

It will make us more versatile in the front row. We have a number of players who are comfortable on the right, left, and middle spots. I think that will cause problems for teams defending us and it will give us a chance to use different blocking schemes. We're known for being a good blocking team, so being taller should help even more.

Despite the fact that you lost only two seniors to graduation, your team is still pretty young with two seniors and three juniors on your 15-player roster. How will this change your approach to the season?

Being young doesn't change our approach at all. The whole team has had a chance to mature and they'll be a lot more confident when they walk in the gym this year. They did well last season for being such a young team, but I know that they are eager to get on the court to show people how much they've improved.

Your team advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA tournament last year including a win over second-ranked and undefeated Hawai'i. Can your team reach that level or further this season?

We started slow last season because we had so many new players in the lineup. Once we got rolling we had a good second half of Big Ten play and a good run in the NCAA tournament.

As a group they gained a lot of great experience last year and we'll be starting this season at a higher level. I think we can reach that level again and we'll be working hard to go even farther. We'll have to get more road wins in Big Ten play and that will help us out when we get to the NCAA tournament.

Will the team's style of play be different this season? What should fans look for when watching the team this fall? Our style of play will be much the same, but we've emphasized defense, passing and serving in spring training. Improving our ball control will make a big difference in the outcome of our matches this year. The players know that our focus is ball control and I think the fans will notice the difference from last season.

What did the team work on the most during the 2005 spring season?

It was mostly about ball control. The other thing we were able to do was work Audra Jeffers into the line-up. Last spring, we got a good sense of what she's capable of and how she'll contribute. We'll know more once preseason is underway, but we know improving our ball control will be the players' main goal.

Maria Carlini returns as a starter at outside hitter for the Badgers. The 6-2 junior led the UW with eight double-doubles in 2004.

Talk about the freshman class. What are their strengths? How do you expect them to fit in with the team?

We're excited about this group of freshmen. They fill some of the needs we have as a team.

Faye McCormack brings that defense we've been talking about. She has great speed and she's coming from an excellent club program. She'll vie for that defensive specialist spot where we'll be looking for the most consistent and dynamic defender to play that role.

Morgan Salow stands 6-4 with good foot speed and versatility. She has played all of the front row positions and is mobile enough to play in the back row, too. Morgan could come off the bench and help us out in a variety of spots.

Katherine Dykstra is 6-3 and brings the biggest jump to our program since Sherisa Livingston. She has touched 10-7 with an approach and she has a huge block. It will be interesting to see her as she starts training with the team because we think she has incredible potential.

All three freshmen have great attitudes and I know they'll fit in well with our current group.

Your 2005 schedule features nine teams that competed in the 2004 NCAA Tournament including six teams ranked in the final AVCA Top 25 poll. How tough will this schedule be?

It will definitely be a tough schedule, even if you don't include the Big Ten portion. Our non-conference schedule has a good variety of teams and there should be some great matches. Missouri and UCLA will be the highest level teams, but a number of the others were NCAA tournament teams or had over 20 wins last season. Our first three weekends will be good to get us ready for Big Ten play.

The Big Ten Conference had seven teams compete in the 2004 NCAA Tournament. What does this say about the strength of the league?

That says a lot about the respect this league has earned. We know that we have tough matches every night in the Big Ten, and it really prepares us to do well in the NCAA Tournament. There are a lot of great coaches and players in our conference and that makes it exciting for the fans to come out and watch.

First started volleyball: in 7th grade

Most memorable match: Beating Hawai'i to make it to the Elite Eight. It was the most suspenseful match I've ever played in.

Is there anything significant about your uniform number? It was my club volleyball number when I was 16. My 16's year in club was the year I really improved. After that, the number stuck with me.

My favorite thing about Wisconsin Volleyball is: everything! I love the fans, the team and the electric atmosphere in the Field House.

Before each match, I: relax, look over the scouting reports, and listen to music

In off-season training, I worked on: getting stronger

This past summer, I: took a summer class, played a lot of beach volleyball and worked volleyball camps

The best thing about Madison is: the lakes. They're so beautiful and they set the mood.

Advice I would give to a young player: work hard, always strive to do your best and never give up. Do extra if you need to but hard work never fails.

Fantasy job: photographer for National Geographic

Greatest invention of the last 100 years: air conditioning

One thing I absolutely have to do before I turn 30: go sky diving

Badgers Tie for Fifth in NCAA Tournament

◆ Wisconsin was the talk of the volleyball community as it advanced to the Elite Eight level of the NCAA tournament. The Badgers, who had not been ranked in the coaches poll for most of the season, ended the year ranked 14th in the USA Today/CSTV Top 25 Coaches poll and 14th in the NCAA RPI with a 22-10 record. It was the ninth straight year that the Badgers ended the season ranked among the top 25 teams in the nation.

◆ For the second year in a row, Wisconsin placed fourth in the Big Ten Conference standings at 13-7. In coach Pete Waite's six years at Wisconsin, the Badgers have never finished lower than fourth in the league standings and have also appeared in six NCAA tournaments.

◆ For the 11th consecutive year, the Badgers won 20-or-more matches in a season. It was the 12th consecutive winning season for the UW and the 23rd winning season in the 31-year history of the program.

◆ Wisconsin played some of its best defense at the end of the season. In its four NCAA matches, the Badgers averaged 17.71 digs and 4.36 blocks per game compared to 16.03 digs and 3.27 blocks per game overall. Individually, freshman Jocelyn Wack led the team with 5.57 digs per game while junior Sheila Shaw averaged 1.93 blocks per game in tournament play.

Wisconsin celebrates its NCAA Regional semifinal win over undefeated and No. 2-ranked Hawai'i with the singing of "Varsity".

◆ Freshman Jocelyn Wack set the UW season record in digs, overall and in Big Ten matches this year. The 5-11 libero totalled 567 digs (4.93/game) on the season which broke Sue Wohlford's mark of 560 digs (4.52/game) set in 1990 (prior to the libero). Wack also had 374 digs (5.19/game) in conference matches, which bested the previous season best of 336 (4.94/game) set by Wohlford in 1990.

◆ Opponents had a hard time stopping the Badgers' offensive attack due to their balance. Wisconsin had four starters who averaged over 2.7 kills per game. Junior Sheila Shaw led the team and ranked eighth in the Big Ten with 3.81 kills per game. Senior Jill Odenthal added 3.06 kills per game. A duo of left-side hitters—Aubrey Meierotto and Maria Carlini—also put up some big numbers adding 2.83 and 2.75 kills per game, respectively.

◆ In all 32 matches that Wisconsin played last season, eight underclassmen saw playing time and four started 60 percent of the matches.

Freshman Jocelyn Wack started all 32 matches at libero. Freshmen Jackie Simpson and Taylor Reineke both started 28 matches at setter and middle blocker, respectively. Other freshmen who saw playing time were defensive specialists Megan Mills in 24 matches and Amanda Berkley in 16 matches.

Sophomore starters were outside hitter Maria Carlini in 19 matches, middle blocker Amy Bladow in four matches and setter Katie Lorenzen in four matches.

The Badgers had more service errors than aces in 28 of 32 matches including double-figure service errors in 11 matches. Opponents had more service aces than the Badgers in 18 matches.

◆ The Badgers made five television appearances last season including their sixth consecutive annual appearance on ESPN2. The Badgers also appeared on FoxSports Net three times and CSTV once.

◆ Wisconsin ended the season ranked third in the national attendance with 4,079 spectators per match. Wisconsin also led the Big Ten in attendance for the fifth straight year and the eighth year overall.

The Badgers' season average of 4,079 fans per match ranked second on the UW's season record list. Wisconsin had a record 4,294 spectators per match in 2003.

◆ Wisconsin ranked among the top 40 teams in the nation in four statistical categories in 2004. The Badgers ranked 10th in blocks per game (3.27), 22nd in assists per game (15.27), 27th in kills per game (16.43) and 38th in hitting percentage (.255).

Individually, Jackie Simpson ranked 29th in assists per game (13.01) and Jocelyn Wack was 50th in digs per game (4.93).

Waite also celebrated his 45th birthday on Oct. 3 as his Badgers downed 19th-ranked Illinois 30-28, 25-30, 30-24, 30-22. It was also assistant coach Christy Johnson's 31st birthday.

Prior to 1977, all UW home matches, in all capitals, were played in the Natatorium. From 1977-86, matches played in the Field House are designated with a ^. Since 1986, all matches have been played in the Field House with the exception of the 1998 Wisconsin Classic, which was played in the Kohl Center.

Big Ten Conference

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within the mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness. Big Ten universities provide in excess of $82 million in athletic scholarship aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women. In 2004-05, the Big Ten distributed over $116 million in revenues to its 11 member institutions. Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams.

The award program recognizes all-around achievement in athletics based on excellence during postseason and conference competition, in the classroom relative to the overall undergraduate student-body, in gender equity, and efficient financial operations.
- ◆ since 1992, have created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams.
- ◆ had more than 8,400 student-athletes playing on over 270 teams in 2003-04. Those student-athletes received in excess of $82 million in financial aid.

WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

The Memorial Union Terrace on the shores of Lake Mendota is a popular gathering spot for UW students

A World-Class University

The University of Wisconsin is a world-class university, nationally and internationally recognized for its academic excellence, incredible students, inspiring faculty, exceptional value, and an amazing campus and community.

The UW was founded in 1848 with the first class of 17 students enrolling on Feb. 5, 1849. Today, Wisconsin ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,169 students.

On a single campus, students can find a complete spectrum of liberal arts studies, professional programs and student activities. As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, Wisconsin maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned Wisconsin a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

The flagship school of the state system, UW-Madison offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, Wisconsin sits along the shore of beautiful Lake Mendota. The city of Madison and the University were designed to be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of academic and political life at Wisconsin.

Growing with the times to meet changing needs in education and research has kept the university great. With an eye to the future, the university continues to change, guaranteeing a community and environment where true learning can take place.

Student life at Wisconsin is more than books, term papers and exams. Some of the most important lessons learned at Wisconsin occur far from any lecture hall or lab.

UW-Madison is a community that embraces diversity—both in the people who live, learn and work here and in the experiences that enrich life in the classroom and beyond. Our students come from every state in the nation and some 120 countries, bringing an abundant mix of life experiences and cultures. The campus provides services and student life programs designed to meet a broad range of student needs and concerns.

More than 700 student organizations, extensive recreational programs, modern fitness facilities, performing arts groups, Big Ten athletics, and ongoing cultural, social, and political events will provide you with hundreds of ways to get involved and challenge yourself. Whatever your interests, you can connect with others who share your enthusiasm.

The hub of student life on campus is the Memorial Union. With good food, live music, freshly made Babcock ice cream, movies and study lounges, you can eat well, be entertained, enjoy a good book or good company. The Union welcomes more than 15,000 students through its doors each day. It's no wonder the Union is considered the "living room of campus."

"The primary purpose of the University of Wisconsin-Madison is to provide a learning environment in which faculty, staff, and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom and values that will help ensure the survival of this and future generations and improve the quality of life for all."

DID YOU KNOW?

Wisconsin is the only university in the nation with two student newspapers.

A Beautiful Campus

The University of Wisconsin campus rolls for 933 acres along the shores of Lake Mendota, encompassing wooded hills, friendly shores, and the streets of downtown Madison.

Relax on the Memorial Union terrace with sailboats, canoes, sailboards, and kayaks in the background. The Lakeshore Path is a pedestrian and bicycle-only trail that runs from the Union to Picnic Point, a peninsula that juts out into Lake Mendota. Along the way are numerous beaches or spots to stop and enjoy the beautiful lake views.

Spend an hour alone with your thoughts walking the trails of the UW Arboretum, a 1,262-acre nature preserve right in the middle of the city. Or visit Wisconsin's majestic State Capitol building only minutes away from campus.

And if ever you find yourself with a free afternoon, you may wish to enjoy lunch or a latté with friends at one of the many restaurants lining State Street in the heart of downtown Madison.

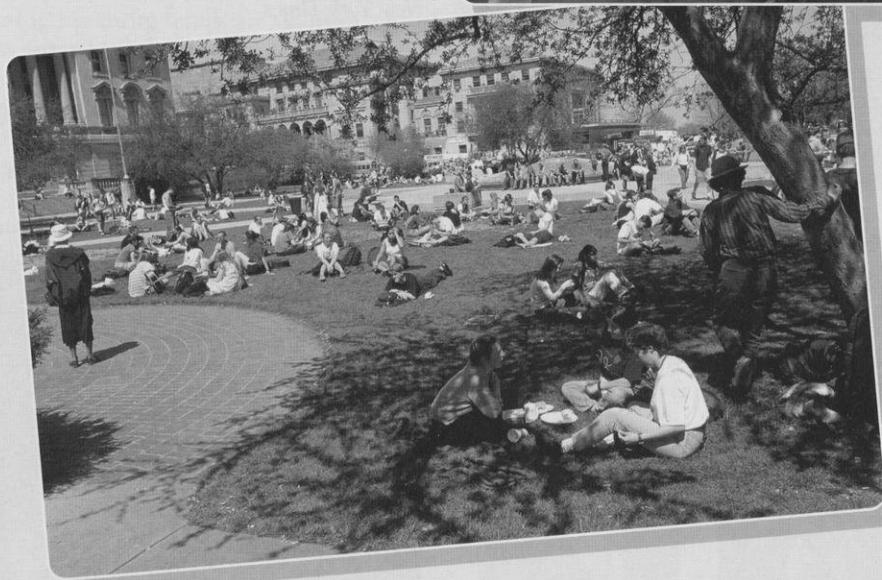

OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

- More than 700 student organizations
- More than 500 performing arts events each year
- Campus has 325 acres of natural areas for teaching, research and public enjoyment plus the 1,262-acre arboretum

University & Athletic Administration

Chancellor John D. Wiley

Chancellor John D. Wiley has worked to amplify the Wisconsin Idea and build on the research and teaching strengths that have made the University of Wisconsin so rich in accomplishment and tradition.

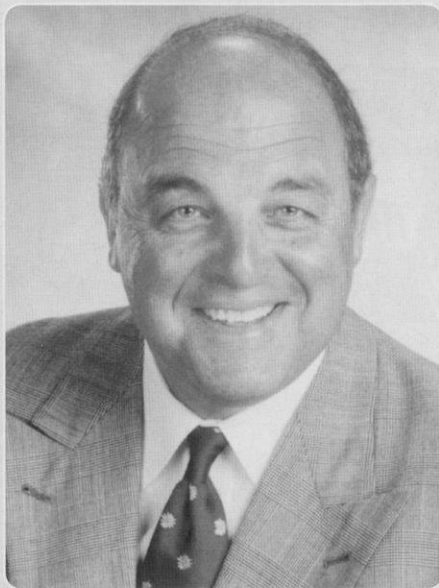

Since being named as the UW-Madison's 27th chancellor on Jan. 1, 2001, Wiley has aimed to enhance the university's role in creating a new, more viable economic future for Wisconsin while opening avenues to innovation and learning.

Wiley has presided over unprecedented growth on the west side of campus, which is being transformed into one of the nation's great health-sciences centers.

He also has mapped an east side redevelopment that will create a vibrant arts-and-humanities district to anchor the lower State Street area.

The chancellor has been a leader in efforts to expand on-campus student housing to meet demand, stem high-risk drinking and integrate athletics into the mainstream of university life. Wiley has reached out to the private sector by creating the Office of Corporate Relations to serve the increasing needs of the business community and help to build a more prosperous Wisconsin economy.

Wiley received his bachelor's degree in physics from Indiana University in 1964; attended graduate school at UW-Madison as an NSF Fellow and received master's and doctoral degrees in physics in 1965 and 1968, respectively.

Athletic Director Barry Alvarez

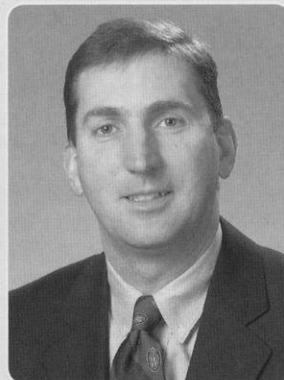

Barry Alvarez is in his second year as the only person among Bowl Championship Series schools serving in the dual role of Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach. The Badger football coach since 1990, he is in his second campaign as athletic director.

Alvarez has been at the forefront of the revival of the Badger athletic program during his entire tenure in Madison. He has guided Wisconsin to three Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles (including back-to-back in 1998-99) en route to becoming the winningest football coach in school history (108-70-4 record).

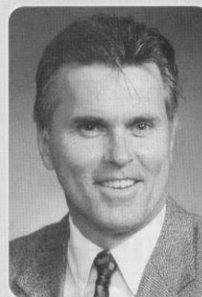

His 7-3 (.700) record in bowl games with the Badgers is among the best in college football history. The 1993 national coach of the year, he is a two-time (1993 and 1998) Big Ten coach of the year and was a finalist for ESPN's coach of the decade (1990s) honor.

Alvarez is a 1969 graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he played linebacker and went on to earn his master's degree. He received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater in 2003.

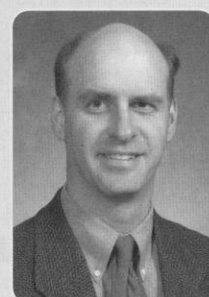

Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of three grown children: daughters Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy (Mrs. Mike Delzer); and son Chad (wife Stephanie). Barry and Cindy are grandparents to Joe and Jake Ferguson, and Grace and Jackson Delzer.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

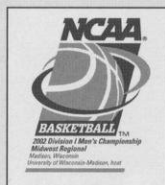

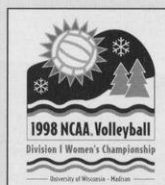

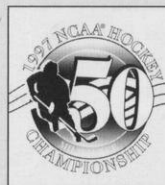

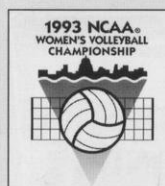

Since 1993, the UW has hosted five NCAA championships and an NCAA men's basketball regional. Wisconsin will add another national championship when hockey returns to the Badger state in 2006. Madison will also be the site of a hockey regional in 2008.

The Badgers played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey championship in 1993 and 1997. The 1993 event sold out in three months, the fastest sell-out in NCAA hockey history.

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament came to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers played host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

Wisconsin Traditions

SCHOOL SONGS

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time.
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame.
Fight fellows, Fight! Fight! Fight!
We'll win this game!

Var-sity! Var-sity!
U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our alma mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

Badger Nickname

The nickname "Badgers" was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin, which was dubbed the "Badger State." The name didn't come from the animals in the region, but rather from an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like Badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

In 1949, a student wore a badger outfit with a papier-mâché head at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot's name—Buckingham U. Badger.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've said it all," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. The song has become legendary at the UW because of its polka-like rhythm.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as it plays traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song.

On, Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

Hall of Fame

The UW Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1991 to recognize and honor former student-athletes and staff for their exemplary athletic achievement and contributions to the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department.

Badgers in the Community

The Madison community is extremely supportive of the University of Wisconsin athletic teams and its many student-athletes. In return for that support, many student-athletes and staff members take time out of their busy schedules to show their appreciation and involvement in the city of Madison and Dane County through their community service efforts.

Volunteering allows student-athletes to have a positive and meaningful impact on the Madison community. Whether it is building home with Habitat for Humanity, visiting sick children at local hospitals, being a mentor as part of Big Brothers, Big Sisters or reading to grade school children with the Bookin' it with Bucky, UW student-athletes make a difference.

Student-athletes are encouraged to assist with community service projects all year long. The student-athlete in each sport who donates the most hours to community service during the year is recognized with the community service award.

The athletic department also donates a number of tickets and memorabilia to local charities for fund-raising purposes.

Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center has been helping Wisconsin student-athletes to achieve their academic goals since 1997.

The 15,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility serves the needs of all student-athletes. The center features an open area with carrels that can accommodate up to 30 students. There are eight study rooms of different shapes and sizes, including a 55-seat auditorium. A state-of-the-art computer lab, under coordinator Jim Eisenmann, is networked to allow access to email, the library system's electronic catalog and the web while the entire center is wired with voice/data jacks and power ports.

Associate Athletic Director David Harris supervises a staff of five advisors, four learning specialists, a life skills coordinator and a tutor coordinator who conduct the academic services offered to the more than 700 student-athletes. The advising staff of Tom Browne, Chris Butler, Jerry Darda, Mary Weaver-Klees and Alan Zussman as well as tutorial coordinator Jill Hadfield work along with learning specialists Doug Tiedt (assistant director), Dan Ott, Toni O'Keefe and Nancy Gatyas to render quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assist coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience. The staff, including program assistant Nancy Kreklow, has a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments. Study groups, tutors and a variety of academic and career planning are available throughout the year.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and learning specialists whose offices are located in the center. Sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the student-athlete. Athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The staff takes a personal approach to each student-athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways on the national, conference and university level. The annual Student-Athlete Academic banquet recognizes student-athletes off the field of play.

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Services Center, a state-of-the-art facility located in the lower level of the McClain Center, opened in 1997. The $2.1 million center is one of the best in the nation and includes eight study rooms, a computer room, and a 55-seat auditorium.

Sports Medicine

The sports medicine staff provides all University of Wisconsin student-athletes with high quality health care.

Wisconsin's Sports Medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

The sports medicine staff consists of team physicians, dentists, athletic trainers, and a full-time nutritionist. The day-to-day care, prevention, and treatment of injuries to Badger athletes is supervised by a staff of 12 full-time and two graduate assistant National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certified and State of Wisconsin licensed athletic trainers.

Under the direction of head athletic trainer Dennis Helwig, the Sports Medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Full-time athletic trainers Karen Bloch, Beth Cranley, Chuck Hart, Andy Hrodey, Laura King, Mike Moll, Clark Pearson, Henry Perez-Guerra, Kristen Walker, and Ian Wood as well as graduate assistant trainers Holli Schaible and Nicole Gehrich utilize functional measures, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve flexibility.

Full-time nutritionist Jeremy Isensee provides dietary analysis and supervises training table meals to enhance the performance of the student-athletes.

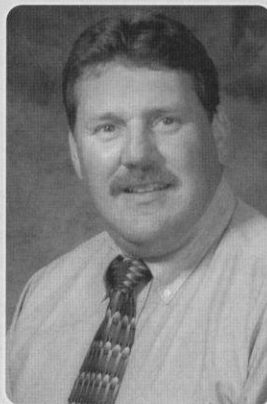

The Sports Medicine facility in the McClain Center features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane-rehabilitation pool and an on-site x-ray facility. Considered one of the nation's finest, the McClain Sports Medicine Center offers an environment conducive to expedient care and a healthy return to competition.

Should an injury occur, athletes are seen immediately by team physicians affiliated with the world-renowned UW Hospital and Clinics. Medical director Dr. Ben Graf, an orthopedic surgeon, is responsible for all services provided to student-athletes. Orthopedic care is also provided by team physician Dr. John Orwin and Dr. Lee Kaplan. General medical care is directed by the head of primary care, Dr. Greg Landry, and he is joined by Dr. David Berhardt, and Dr. Kathleen Carr.

In addition to the headquarters in the McClain Athletic Facility, auxiliary athletic training rooms are located in Camp Randall Stadium, Natatorium, UW Field House, and the Kohl Center. All training areas are equipped with the finest therapeutic modalities and rehabilitative apparatus.

The Wisconsin Sports Medicine facility features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane rehabilitation pool (bottom), and an on-site x-ray facility in the McClain Center.

Mission Statement

Strength & Conditioning

The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a key component in all of the Badger teams' success on the playing field. The program's goal is to increase the overall performance of each student-athlete, prevent injuries and help athletes reach their potential.

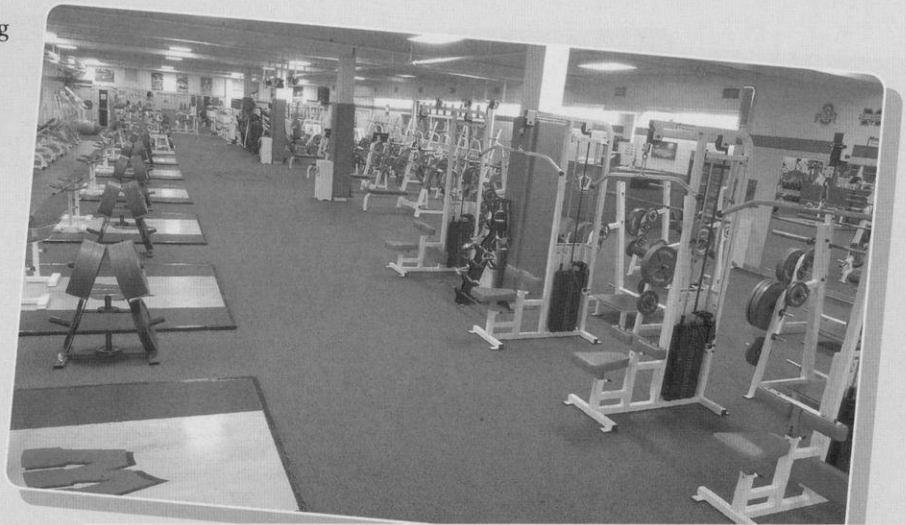

Strength and conditioning coordinator John Dettmann along with assistants Brian Bott, Ben Herbert, Scott Hettenbach, Bryan Miller, Mike Potenza and Greg Young work with the UW coaches to develop training programs to enhance each athlete's performance.

Badger athletes work on their strength programs in weight rooms in the McClain Center, Kohl Center and Camp Randall Stadium.

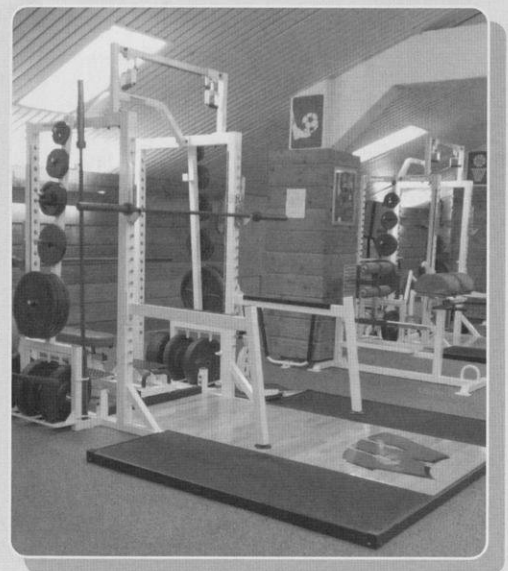

The McClain Center weight room is the largest of the facilities and features more than 45,000 pounds of free weights and more than 50 weight machines. The room has seven squat racks, eight bench press stations, eight flat-to-incline benches, six Olympic lift platforms and numerous other free weight stations.

The Kohl Center weight room is equipped with five custom-built free weight power platforms and 4,000 pounds of free weights. The room has nine pieces of cardiovascular equipment and three Vertimax jump trainers.

The Badger Den has five power stations with each station consisting of a platform for Olympic style lifting as well as a squat rack, bench press, incline bench press, pull-up station and a dip station. There are three lat-pull machines and seated row machines, a complete set of dumbbells and a complete set of plyometric boxes.

Wisconsin student-athletes benefit from seven full-time strength and conditioning coaches as well as three weight rooms in the McClain Center (top), Kohl Center (middle) and Camp Randall Stadium (right).

"The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival and set up specific training regimens to help athletes reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the athletic field as possible."

John Dettmann, Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Madison: A Great College Town

Welcome to Madison! You will discover the best of all worlds in Wisconsin's vibrant capital city: natural beauty and outdoor recreation, stimulating cultural offerings, distinctive restaurants and shops, and a spirit of fun.

Madison is consistently ranked by national publications and their readers as one of the best places to live, work and play. As host to a wealth of cultural offerings, intellectual pursuits and recreational opportunities, Wisconsin's capital rivals the urban sophistication of larger metropolitan areas, while maintaining the ease, convenience and friendliness of a smaller community.

Built on an isthmus between lakes Monona and Mendota, Madison is also renowned for its beautiful four-season scenery. A total of five area lakes, over 200 parks and endless miles of paved trails provide an abundance of year-round outdoor activities, from hiking, biking, swimming and sailing to cross-country skiing, ice skating and ice fishing.

Throughout the year, the area welcomes a multitude of exciting annual events like February's Kites on Ice, where kites and kite enthusiasts from around the world converge to fly their brilliant kites upon one of the city's frozen lakes; April's Wisconsin Film Festival, featuring more than 100 experimental and independent films; the Dane County Farmers' Market attracting 18,000 visitors to the Capitol Square to partake in one of the finest farmers' markets in the country; and September's Ironman Wisconsin Triathlon, a grueling and inspiring race held in the Madison area.

Whatever your preference for relaxation or recreation, you'll find plenty to do in Madison.
