RATHSKELLER PROJECT UNDER WAY

Work was begun May 21 on an extensive remodeling project in the Rathskeller servery and food preparation area. Construction is expected to last through the summer, with completion sometime in early fall.

In the meantime, Lakefront Cafeteria will be open longer hours, and the Terrace Bratstand will operate as usual. There will be a salad bar set up in the Rathskeller dining room, and the Stiftskeller Bar will continue to slake summer thirsts as always. (See accompanying story for hours.)

The remodeling incorporates a number of changes in the existing Rathskeller food line. Here's the nickel tour: The entry way from the hall will be in the same place, but wider. The trays, which will be smaller, will be dispensed from a rack between the two turnstiles. The line, from south to north, will consist of an eight-foot cold table with shelves above for such foods as salads and desserts; a self-serve sandwich case; a soup station featuring the soup of the day, chili, a new beer cheese soup in winter, and cold soups in summer; an open grill area with an expanded menu; an ethnic food station which will begin by offering Mexican items; and finally, the main beverage station. Perpendicular to the line at the north end of the room there will be a deli-case and build-your-own sandwich operation, featuring a variety of vegetarian foods and take-out items.

The check-outs will be located in the same place as at present, and the third register, currently mounted on a cart, will be given a rolling cash island like the existing one. Condiment tables will be located in the dining room at either side of the check out. The southwest corner of the servery will house an auxiliary beverage station. A re-entry passage from the dining area will open at that point.

That's about it, except the access from the dining room to the servery will still close with a folding partition.

Oh . . . if you've been worried through this whole article about the Rathskeller's entertainment line-up for the summer, have no fear. Directorate will be programming the usual excellent films and music on the Terrace and in the Rath.

OTHER FOOD UNITS MAKE UP FOR CLOSED RATHSKELLER SERVICE

With the Rathskeller food service line closed for the summer for remodeling, other food service units will be open to make up for the closed Rath.

The Lakefront Cafeteria will serve many of the displaced Rathskeller patrons. It will be open not only weekdays but also Saturdays and Sundays this summer. Hours are: Breakfast, 7 a.m. - 10:30 a.m., Monday - Friday, 8 a.m. - 10:30 a.m., Saturday; Sunday Brunch, 9 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.; Lunch, 11 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Monday - Saturday; Dinner, 5 - 6:30 p.m., Monday - Friday. On Monday through Saturday from 1:30 - 4:30 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 4:30 - 6:30 p.m. the Cafeteria will serve hot and cold sandwiches, salads and desserts.

The Terrace Bratstand will be open on Monday - Friday from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and on Friday from 4 to 6 p.m. during TGIF.

A special build-your-own salad bar will be available in the Rathskeller dining room during the 8-week summer session from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

For sandwiches, snacks and beverages the Deli/Sweetshop will be serving from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday - Friday and Saturday, and Sunday from noon to 9 p.m. The Stiftskeller Bar will be open from 11 a.m. - 9:45 p.m. Monday - Thursday, 11 a.m. - 10:45 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and noon - 9:45 p.m. on Sunday.

REMODELING ETC...

Several other remodeling projects will take place this summer in the Memorial Union. Additional phases of the continuing effort to upgrade the building in terms of fire codes are planned.

These include a handicapped lift to Great Hall, a crossover passage to the Craftshop from the Great Hall floor, and fire door requirements. The crossover will also make the Craftshop handicapped accessible since a lift from the Great Hall floor to the passageway is included.

The other changes involve mostly fire-doors, which will be installed at the entrance to the main lounge, and at the Great Hall entrances. Glass stairway enclosures will be put up between the first and second floors in the central part of the building. These projects are the final phase of the fire-code updating program which began in the early 1970s.

DON'T BE DISCOURAGED... YOU CAN STILL GET TO US

It isn't as hard as it appears to get to the Memorial Union this summer. Although both Langdon Street and University Avenue are under construction, Gorham, Gilman, Johnson and University Avenue west of Park Street are open.

The Langdon Street project which has closed the four blocks from Wisconsin Avenue to Lake Street does not include the block from Lake to Park streets, keeping the Memorial Union accessible. The University Avenue project has not closed the street to traffic.

A unique view of the Memorial Union Terrace — scene of much of the Union's summer entertainment. One of the most popular places to watch people, be seen and eat a brat in Madison, the Terrace is also the scene of weekly TGIFs, Cool Jazz, Mornings with Mozart, Open Mikes, free Lakeside films and weekly folk music programs. At the end of the summer, July 28 and 29, a student art fair, "Affair on the Terrace," will be held. Featuring student-made work, the fair will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days.

CONCERT SERIES TICKETS

Tickets for the 1984-85 Concert Series are going very quickly and it is suggested that you get your order in now if you haven't already sent it in. The Travel Adventure Film Series is virtually sold out as of this writing.

OASIS PROGRAMS ARE OPEN TO MEMBERS

Non-student members of the Wisconsin Union have been inquiring about their eligibility to attend the OASIS (Older Than Average Students Interested in Socializing) programs at the Unions. Kathy Teggatz, chair of the group, says "yes" and points out that many former students who found the OASIS oasis while they were "older than average students" have bought Union life memberships in order to continue attending the programs. OASIS specializes in brown bag lunches, TGIFs, dances, Sunday brunches and pot-luck suppers for their group. Call Kathy at 263-2432 for more information.

TRUSTEES SPRING FOR ART

The trustees of the Memorial Union Building Association annually give a sum of money for the purchase of works of art for the permanent collection of the Wisconsin Union. This year the committee selected a work entitled "Country Road" by Gibson Byrd, an oil on linen painting.

SEVENTEEN ARE AWARDED HONORS FOR UNION WORK

It was award time this spring at the Wisconsin Union and sixteen students and one former staff member were honored.

Mollie Buckley, former Membership director and Theater publicist, shared the Porter Butts Creative Arts Award with Katie Ripple, student chair during the past year of the Theater Arts area on the Union Directorate. The award was set up in 1968 upon the retirement of former Union Director Porter Butts and is given for artistic contributions to the Union.

The Henry B. Herman award, which recognizes community service and innovative programming, was shared by Michael Fasulo, 1983 summer programmer and 1983-84 chair of the Union South Social committee, and Lisa Ferin, a member of the Theater Arts committee.

The ACU-I College Bowl awards, which recognize ability to balance academic and volunteer work were given to two students. They were Jeff Van Fleet, a coordinator for the Union Directorate Travel Committee, and Beth Lerner, former president of the Union Directorate and 1984 coordinator of the Women's Film Series.

Eleven students received Union Trustee Leadership awards, which are given to Union Directorate officers, chairs and committee members who have demonstrated leadership through dependability, dedication, creativity and resourcefulness. Recipients were: Amy Truby; Susan Vande Hei; Rhonda Bell; Karen Johnson; Joseph Rodriguez; Peggy Panosh; Marnie Pope; Lori Nevins; Stacy Heal; David Chalfant; and John Buford.

The Trustee awards are given by the Memorial Union Building Association, the Union's fund-raising group.

NEW LOGO SYMBOLIZES TOTAL UNION ORGANIZATION

A new Wisconsin Union logo will start appearing on the scene this fall. Designed by Union Graphics Coordinator Ken Sullivan, the logo will symbolize the whole Union organization including all of its many segments.

Until now the two buildings, the various units and programming areas all had their own logos. But there was no over-all symbol that meant "The Wisconsin Union." Now there will be and the fall publications and promotional pieces will carry the new logo. Look for some changes in design in the Quarterly as we strive to incorporate the logo in this publication as well.

MINI COURSES ENLIVEN AND ENRICH YOUR SUMMER

The summer Mini Course brochure, which is now available, makes it very clear that summer won't be dull for Mini Course enrollees. New classes have been added in almost every area and you can learn everything from "Wild Edible Foods" to "Wang Word Processing."

Here's a partial list of other new courses — "Country Accents: Flowers and Accessories," "Photo Critique," "Jewelry Design and Construction," "Thai Summer Barbecues," "Complete Cake Decorating," "How to Combat Burn-out," "Sell Yourself Successfully," "Skills for Effective Parenting," "Hot Air Ballooning," "Rock Climbing," and "Horseback Riding."

Registrations for these short, non-credit courses is taking place now and continues through Friday, June 21. Classes will be held June 25 through August 1. For information phone 262-3156 or 262-5771. If you have not received the Mini Course brochure and would like to be put on their mailing list, please call one of the above numbers and request one.
