PRICE 5 CENTS

$100,000 FUNDS ARE PLEDGED TO MEMORIAL UNION

Chicago Alumni Volunteer to Raise Large Amount in Drive

Exactly $100,000 has been promised the Memorial Union fund by the Chicago Alumni association. The association expects to have subscribed this quota completely and ready to turn over to headquarters by Homecoming Day.

The campaign is now being conducted under the direction of George I. Haight of the Chicago Alumni club who will speak at the mass meeting for new students by the Memorial Union at 3:30 o'clock on October 30, in the men's gymnasium and annex.

Quota Nearly Completed

According to the plan now underway at Chicago, each active member of the club, who has subscribed, has pledged himself to bring in another subscription, either a life membership or more. The returns are coming into the club headquarters every day. Thus the quota is being completed steadily.

"It has been difficult in every way to put the drive over," Mr. Haight writes in a letter to Prof. E. S. Gardner, general campaign manager for the Memorial Union. "It is the one thing, however, that has succeeded in unifying the members of the alumni association in Chicago."

"This is what the Union has done all over the country," Professor Gardner asserted. "It has organized Wisconsin's alumni into a living, working group. We have the largest alumni body of any mid-western university, but it has never been called upon to come to the front."

Alumni Behind Drive

"I have had to begin, not by demanding subscriptions, but by creating alumni associations, and by getting the old Wisconsin spirit together once more. Now they are back of us to a man."

In Chicago, as in other centers, many alumni have been discovered of whom the existing association was unaware. Now all these men are doing their part to help us build "home for Wisconsin spirit," Gardner added.

Plan Senior Open Forum For Class Candidates

Plans for an open forum for senior class candidates were made last night at a meeting of seniors in Music hall. The candidates will address their fellow classmen on campaign issues at the meeting, the date for which will be announced later.

The meeting last night was called to order by Ralph Axley '23, Wayne Morse '23, and Leslie R. Gage '23, heads of factions opposing Rollie Williams, candidate for senior class presidency.

Upperclasswomen Will Try Out For Clef Club

Clef Club tryouts for all upperclass women will be held Thursday, November 2. The tryout may consist of a vocal or instrumental selection.

Freshmen women will compete in the early part of the second semester. All who wish to tryout are asked to call Gertrude Haase, B. 6719 for appointments.

Freshmen Are Aided By Y. M. C. A. Workers

Ten junior and sophomore members of the Y. M. C. A. have been given the names of approximately 180 freshmen on whom they were to call during the first few weeks of school.

The majority of the yearlings have been seen. The men gave the freshman a cordial welcome and saw that they were satisfied with their rooms.

Haresfoot Club Gives Up Trip to Duluth This Year

"The Haresfoot club has decided definitely against a trip to Duluth this year," Tom Treadwell '23, business manager of the club, announced yesterday.

"The railroad jump is too great, the alumni will give us no guarantee, and no theater is available at a moderate price. When Haresfoot does make an extensive trip, it will go probably south where larger towns are situated nearer to each other.

The University of Wisconsin club of Duluth has tried unsuccessfully for a number of years to import a Haresfoot production.

TITTLE SPEAKS AT Y. W. FEAST

First Year Women Elect 72 to Association Commission

Writers of books must have vision, sincerity, and beauty if they succeed in the literary world, Dr. E. F. Tittle declared at the annual banquet of the Y. W. C. A. last night in the Woman's building.

"Everyone writes his own book of life. Every day he adds a line, each week a paragraph, and every year a chapter," Dr. Tittle said.

Helen Kasbeer '23 was toastmistress. Other speakers were Mrs. M. B. Rosenberry, chairman of the advisory board, and Isabel Capps '23.

The members of freshman commission, who were elected this year by freshmen women instead of being appointed by an upper-class committee are Elizabeth Fletcher, Larch Campbell, Florence Blish, Bernice Klug, Beulah Henry, Dorothy Strauss, Margaret McGovern, Margaret Hoover, Lillian Twenhofel, Mildred Rogers, Margaret Dexter, Louise Mautz, Mary Ann Young, Eleanor Goodnight, Helen Ollis, Rena Grubbe, Grace Sherman, Dorothy Mayer, Mildred Osman, Roberta O'Dell, Mary Elizabeth Hayen, Ruth Leenhoutz, Edith Heggard, Esther Shreve, Margaret Wegener, Margaret Patch, and Beatrice Bartol.

Miss Freese is from Sioux Falls, S. D., where she was president of her sophomore class and freshmen class secretary. She was a member of the girls' basketball team, vice-president of the senior class, and president of the sophomore class. She is a pledge of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Robert Guy of Milwaukee was graduated from the Riverside high school. He was active in football and track, and was secretary of the junior class.

George Bunker, La Grange, Ill., was active in debating in high school, member of the senior class play and secretary of the Forum Literary society, and one of the assistants on the Tabulae, the school annual. He is a Sigma Chi pledge.

Prize Waltz to Feature Country Magazine Mixer

A prize waltz will be one of the leading features of the Country magazine mixer in Lathrop hall at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening. Colored light effects will be used.

Music for the mixer will be furnished by Thompson's six-piece orchestra. Cider and doughnuts will be served for refreshments.

Several faculty members have been invited to attend. Among the faculty members, who have signified their intention to attend, are Prof. and Mrs. J. A. James, and Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Sumner.

Varsity Quartet Elects Hendra to Second Tenor

The Varsity quartet announces the election of Christopher Hendra '23 to the position of second tenor. Hendra will be on trial for a few days as was Vernon Beardsley whom he supersedes. The quartet is planning a concert of 25 selections this month. They will give 50 or 60 concerts during the year.

Big Ten Athletic Mentor Will Speak at Y. M. C. A.

John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics for the Big Ten, will speak at 8 o'clock Sunday night at the Y. M. C. A. parlors. The address will be held under the auspices of the Badger club. All university men and women are invited.

Dresden Tells Math Club of Symmetrical Forms

Prof. Arnold Dresden spoke on "Symmetrical Forms" at the first regular meeting of the Mathematics club yesterday. This paper was the result of several year's investigation into the subject.

WEGNER HEADS 3D FRESHMAN TICKET

WALTER WAGNER

The third freshman class ticket for election November 3 was announced yesterday.

Walter Wegner is candidate for president; Judith Olson, vice-president; Evelyn Freese, secretary; Robert Guy, treasurer; and George Bunker, sergeant-at-arms.

Wegner was graduated from the West Division high school, Milwaukee. He was editor-in-chief in his senior year of the Daily Comet, the high school publication. In his junior year he served as one of the assistants to the prom chairman. He is a pledge of Theta Chi fraternity.

Miss Olson is a graduate of Madison high school and a pledge of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She was treasurer of the Girls' club for one year, secretary of the senior class, and a member of the annual board.

Miss Freese is from Sioux Falls, S. D., where she was president of her sophomore class and freshmen class secretary. She was a member of the girls' basketball team, vice-president of the senior class, and president of the sophomore class. She is a pledge of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Robert Guy of Milwaukee was graduated from the Riverside high school. He was active in football and track, and was secretary of the junior class.

George Bunker, La Grange, Ill., was active in debating in high school, member of the senior class play and secretary of the Forum Literary society, and one of the assistants on the Tabulae, the school annual. He is a Sigma Chi pledge.

COACH RICHARDS WRITES ARTICLE FOR U. W. REVIEW

A discussion of the 1922 football team by Coach John Richards will be one of the leading articles in the first issue of the Wisconsin Athletic Review, which will be placed on sale at Camp Randall tomorrow afternoon.

This is the second article ever signed for publication by Coach Richards, and it will contain an expert's opinion of the eleven which will face Indiana in its initial Big Ten battle tomorrow. The first article ever written for publication by Coach Richards appeared in the Athletic Review last year.

Among the other articles to appear in the first issue of the magazine this year are discussions on football training by George Berg, and on cross country, by Meade Burke. A summary and review of collegiate sports and athletic activities will also be included in this edition.

The Wisconsin Athletic Review is the first magazine of its type to be published, and since its advent as a literary publication other universities have followed Wisconsin's idea for popularizing athletics.

WEATHER: FAIR

Fair weather is predicted for today and tomorrow for Madison and vicinity. Warmer weather is expected Saturday.

Yellow Tassel to Hold Informal Tea Today

Yellow Tassel will hold its first informal tea of the year for the junior women in Lathrop parlors from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon.

This is the first of a series now being planned for the coming year to keep the class spirit unified. Lois Jacobs, Janice Boardman, Hilda Schultz, and Laura White will furnish the entertainment.

"We want all of the junior women to get acquainted with the other women in their class and to work up a real class enthusiasm which will help us to succeed," many things which the class has to Marion Metcalf president, declared, declared last night.

BADGER PRICES RISE TOMORROW

Official Subscription Campaign Will Come to End Tonight

"More than 3,000 Badgers should be sold by the end of the regular campaign if the present indications continue," Howard Lyman '24, business manager of the 1924 Badger, said last night.

The official campaign ends tonight when all of the teams will turn in their total subscriptions and the awards for the highest totals will be announced.

Prices Rise After Today

Today is the last day when Badgers may be obtained at the regular rock bottom prices. Tomorrow the prices go up from $4 to $4.50 for the cash payments, and from $4.50 to $5 for the part paid subscriptions and the out-of-town orders.

Approximately 25 solicitors will sell Badgers at the advanced rates in an attempt to bring the total to the 5,000 mark. This advance in price is made to cover the additional expenses of the prolonged campaign and of the commissions for the solicitors.

Senior Summaries Must Be In

"Subscriptions enough to bring up the number to the 5,000 mark will have to be obtained through additional canvassing, out of town sales, and town sales," Lyman declared.

The office will be open this evening to receive the last of the subscriptions at the lower rates.

Only 10 days are left for the seniors to turn in their summaries. They have been coming in at the rate of 30 or 40 a day. Only half of the number are registered to date. These summaries will not be accepted after November.

Three Seniors Announce Candidacies For Senate

Peter R. Moeller, Herbert D. Hentzer, and K. F. Karel announced their candidacies for senior member of the Student senate yesterday.

Moeller is business manager of the Commerce magazine, treasurer of the Advertising club, member of the Commerce Advisory commission and the Commerce club. He is a member of the Campus Religious council, the student cabinet of the Luther Memorial church, the American Legion, and Alpha Pi Delta.

Hentzer has participated in forensics for three years. He took part in the frosh declamatory contest, the sophomore semi-public debate, and the Agric-Hesperia joint debate. He won his class insignia in tennis and track and was a member of the Varsity tennis team last year. During his second and third years, he worked on the editorial staff of Wisconsin Engineer.

Karel is a member of Hesperia Literary society, and participated in the freshmen declamatory contest, the sophomore semi-public debates and was also a member of the Varsity team which met Michigan last year. He will participate in the joint debate this year. Karel was transportation chairman for the 1923 Prom. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

CAPT. WILLIAMS TO LEAD BATTLE UPON HOOSIERS

Indiana University Has Heavy Line to Combat Badgers

Ready for its first football battle with Wisconsin in 12 years, the Indiana university squad will arrive in Madison this morning. Approximately 25 men comprise the outfit.

After looking over the battle scene early today, the Hoosiers will engage in their final light practice at Camp Randall in the afternoon. Capt. Henney and his eleven are in the best of condition for their second Conference game.

Shortly after Indiana concludes its drill, Coach John R. Richards will direct his men in their tapering-off drill at Randall. Richards has stressed line work in practices this week and upon the Badger forward wall will fall the brunt of Saturday's work.

Indiana's line outweighs the Wisconsin wall, but the Richardsmen are expected to make up in speed what they may lack in weight.

Williams Leads Team

The strongest Wisconsin backfield that has entered a game this season will be ready to start against the Hoosiers. Capt. Rollie Williams leads his team into action for the first time. The doughty left half was withheld from the Carleton and South Dakota games because Richards feared injuries might disable him for the Big Ten season.

"Gibby" Gibson has been in the right half position during signal drills, and it is likely that he will start against Indiana. "Shorty" Barr is slated to call signals with Merrill Taft handling the punting and driving into the opposing line from fullback.

Indiana Line Is Heavy

Just who will compose the Varsity line cannot be known definitely until the Badgers race on Camp Randall for their warming-up practice shortly before 2 o'clock Saturday.

Indiana will throw its entire force into the game against Wisconsin. Capt. Hanney and Wientzman are billed to work at the wings. France and Springer are at the tackles, and Cox and Butler flank center Lohrie. The Indiana line is reputed to be one of the heaviest in the Conference.

In the backfield, Wilkens will call the signals with Thomas and Raymond at the halves and Tripp working at fullback.

Coach Richards again devoted most of the practice to strengthening his Varsity line yesterday. Unless the wall shows more offensive and defensive power, Wisconsin will be hard taxed to win against Pat Herron's eleven.

Rely on "Shorty" Barr

Because the line has failed to offer protection for the backs, ball carriers have been unable to get away and the running attack has failed partially.

If Williams and his cohorts cannot run the Hoosier flanks, "Shorty" Barr will have to call his trusty right arm into action and fling a few forward passes.

A large ticket sale for the Indiana contest means that the new stands at Randall will be well filled for Wisconsin's initial bow into 1922 Conference football.

Blue tickets call for possessors to sit in the west stand and white tickets are for the east side. The entrance for these sections will be at the north end of the new stand.

Frat Pledges at Chicago Will Wear Green Caps

More than 200 University of Chicago freshmen who were admitted to fraternities Wednesday will don green caps and wear them until the Wisconsin game, November 25, when a formal burning ceremony will do away with the distinguishing headgear.

Co-ed Chauffeur, One Of 300, Sounds Horn On Financial Road To Diploma

"Honk! Honk!" It's the claxon of Miss Chauffeur who is driving her way successfully over the highway of financial demands to Sheepskinville. Out after a diploma, she is determined to steer straight for it.

This is only a single illustration among the 35 per cent of Wisconsin co-eds who are earning money to support themselves at the university.

The official women's employment registration bureau is in charge of Miss Elizabeth D. Young, mistress of Barnard hall. More than 300 applications have been filled by her since the opening week of school.

Demands are chiefly for work of secretarial nature or domestic service requiring steady part time employment. A great increase is being made in the number of girls who desire to devote their leisure profitably to the care of children.

Gymnast, Dancer, Feature Orph Bill; It's Good In Spots

By M. S. C. and E. A. P.
"Good in spots" was the verdict of Orpheum-goers last night after having seen this week-end bill.

For a gymnastic opener, the first act received an unusual amount of applause. The music by the men's quartette and Dainty June's company was of classical selection—a relief after hearing so much from the "jazzists."

Adair and Adair
The usual gymnasts turned out to be unusual horizontal bar artists. Instead of a display of over-developed muscle, we saw a fine demonstration of co-ordination. The clown who supplied the humorous element was just as adept as his partner. We recommend this act to Miss H'Doubler's classes.

Georgia Howard
The miniature dancing violinist was immense. Her eyes were big too. She accompanied her dancing cleverly with the violin.

Dunlay and Merrill
"Much Ado About Nothing" is quite correct.

Dainty June and Her Company
A shepherd's horn, harp, tambourine, castanets and accordions, played by skillful musicians, combined to make this the hit of the week-end bill. Unique settings and costumes, reminiscent of old Napoli added to the charm and general effect of this act. Each member of the company was starred with a solo part. The interpretation of the Sextette from Lucia was very well done and received much applause.

"I am urging heartily the promotion of work in this field," Miss Young asserted. "The care of children, working and playing with them, is certainly the finest laboratory a girl may desire to teach her the straightforward psychology of the child. In addition to offering a great diversion from the monotony of the text book grind, it gives her information which will be always invaluable to her, whether she chooses matrimony, education, or any field as a vocation."

At the University of Chicago two co-eds have opened up a shoe shine parlor for women, and are making a paying proposition of it. Wisconsin has no official polishers, as yet, but it has its share of manicurists, of 10-in-1 aluminum agents, of cateresses, of feminine photographers, of needle experts, and of perambulator wheelers.

standard set by the preceding company. It was a quartette of good voice. A bit different from the usual run of things was the repartee and directions set to music.

Athletic Girls

A black and white setting disguised this act which was announced as "Athletic." Rather than bored by gymnastic stunts we were amused by Crystal Bennett and her tumbling, boxing, and wrestling matches. The gentle dispositions of the fair performers handicaps their act somewhat.

MUSICAL REVERIE IS ORPHEUM HEADLINE

Another vaudeville bill as pleasing and entertaining as the first half came to the Orpheum Thursday for the week-end. Heading affairs is "The Carnival of Venice", a ven-

Willie Dunlap and Bessie Merrill are a team of artists who have at many productions. Their offering is clean, with songs and patter that is right up to the minute. When you witness the performance of Georgia Howard you will see a fascinatingly pretty Miss playing the violin divinely, and at the same time performing a most graceful dance Adair and Adair, bar artists, and Crystal Bennett and her company of Athletic Girls are also a part of the new bill.

Elaborate plans are being made by the management of the Orpheum theatre to celebrate the Orpheum

Circuit's Third of a Century anniversary, which will be held for one week starting Sunday. Two bills of exceptional entertaining qualities have been booked for the local vaudeville theatre, and if the advance sale at the box office continues as in the past few days, the theatre will be taxed to its capacity at every performance during Anniversary Week.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

RAMSAY HEADS BADGERS IN RUN AGAINST

Cross Country Team Rests today Before Meet Saturday

After training strenuously during the week, the Varsity cross country team is today taking a rest before the struggle with Michigan harriers at 11:15 o'clock tomorrow morning. The start and finish will be on the lower campus in front of the gymnasium.

The Badgers will compete against the Wolverines under the leadership of a new captain, Wayne Ramsay, "W" winner in both cross country and track. Finkle, former captain, resigned because of inability to take active part in the sport this season.

Finkle, winner of the conference hill dale race last year, broke his leg in a track meet in Notre Dame last spring. Captain Ramsay, however, is a veteran at the running game, and although not in tiptop shape at present, he will make a worthy leader for the squad.

Michigan Lineup Strong

In addition to Captain Ramsay, the nine other men to whom the Cardinal uniforms have been issued are Wade, Tschudy, Moorhead, Schneider, Valley, Perry, Rossmeisel, Link, and Bergstresser. Chase and Piper will be used in case any of these men are not in condition.

Only the best five of the 10 men entered will count for places.

The Michigan entries for the meet have not been received yet by Coach Mead Burke. The opponents are known to have a good team. Last year the Maize and Blue team, composed of Bowen, Arndt, Whittemore, Penberthy and Chute finished fifth in the conference cross country meet.

Bowen and Arndt the two best men of Michigan's 1921 squad, returned this year. Bowen, now captain, placed seventh in the conference last year, and Arndt came in twenty-third. Reinke and Davis are two new men reputed to be good. Michigan will enter seven men.

New Runners of Promise

The Badgers this year have felt the loss of the unbeatable Finkle, but have been strengthened by several new runners of promise. Tschudy, winner of the Varsity time trials on October 7 and 14 is a candidate on the squad.

Valley and Perry are two other youngsters who have worried the veterans. Ramsay, Wade, Schneider, and Moorhead are the outstanding veteran stars.

To predict safely the winner of Saturday's contest is impossible. It is a case of two strong teams meeting, and both determined to win, particularly because the event will be their first dual clash in the sport. Training and endurance will decide the results of a hard fought race.

CRIMSON-CENTER GAME FEATURES IN SPORT WORLD

Saturday's Match Will Be Held Between Two Undefeated Teams

One of the features of the 1922 eastern football schedule will be held when the Center gridiron warriors travel to the Harvard stadium to do battle with the Crimson elevens.

It was not until three years ago that Center had gathered prestige and fame enough to warrant a game with a school such as Harvard. In the season of 1920, however, Center was able finally to schedule a game with the Crimson and Blue. A score of 31 to 14 resulted in favor of Harvard.

Last year, however, the southern lads showed their metal by defeating Harvard 6 to 0. So far this year both teams have played their schedules with an unbroken line of victories. Led by Capt. Roberts, Center trounced the University of Mississippi to the tune of 55 to 0. Last Saturday it annexed a 10 to 6

PROFESSOR PYRE REPRESENTS U. W. AT OHIO EVENT

Chairman of Athletic Council Will Attend Dedication of New Stadium

Prof. J. F. A. Pyre, chairman of the Athletic council, will leave for Chicago at 1:30 o'clock today for Columbus, Ohio, where he will represent Wisconsin officially in the dedicating of the Ohio State stadium tomorrow.

In view of 45,000 Ohio and Michigan spectators, huge pennants of Western conference schools will be raised on 33 flag poles a top the 100-foot wall of the stadium shortly before the game starts. Professor Pyre personally will raise the Wisconsin banner.

Professor Pyre is making the trip in his capacity of Wisconsin faculty representative and secretary of the Western Intercollegiate conference as well as chairman of the Athletic council. He will return to Madison Sunday.

STIFF WORKOUT GIVEN MAROONS

Stagg Turns His Attention to Battle With the Tigers

(Special to The Cardinal)

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 19.—With the Princeton game only two weeks ahead, Stagg's Maroons are undergoing a grilling period of practice with hopes of repeating last year's victory over the Tigers.

Although next week's game with Purdue promises to be an interesting one, the Maroon exponents are turning their attention to the forthcoming contest in which Chicago hopes to supplement Iowa's success in humbling a Big Three team.

"Stone Wall" Fails

Last Saturday's game with Northwestern, however, shows that the Staggmen have a long way to go before they can accomplish this purpose. Dope experts who predicted a "stone wall" line were astonished when the Purple's weak offense made a series of considerable gains through the Maroon forwards.

With the return of Capt. Harold Lewis to his old position at tackle, the line should be strengthened materially.

With the exception of a quarter back, Stagg has a strong backfield. Johnny Thomas and Bill Zorn are ripping up the line for constant gains.

Byler is Strong Player

Byler played in the last few minutes of the Northwestern game and gave a brilliant exhibition of open field running. He will be used probably in the remaining contest and may be counted upon to make consistent gains.

Although Zorn's punting has improved, the lack of a man who can boot the oval with consistency and accuracy offers a problem that as yet remains unsolved.

victory against Virginia Polytechnic.

Harvard two weeks ago defeated Holy Cross 20 to 0 on a mud covered field and in a drizzling rain. Last Saturday she took Bowdoin into camp 15 to 0.

The Crimson aggregation is strong on plunges and line plays, but experiences some difficulty in gaining ground via the aerial route. Center's team is playing good all-round football, but it must be admitted that it has been favored so far by the breaks of the games.

In its first performance against Mississippi, a Center backfield man broke away for an 80 yard run. Against Virginia Polytechnic Center was saved when the Virginians were penalized 15 yards after they had carried the ball down to the four yard line.

Next Saturday is the date of a big event in the annals of both the schools. All football fans are awaiting anxiously the outcome of the game.

The Alumni Association of the University of Michigan has installed an electric football score board, known as a grid graph, to show the plays of the games held away from home.

HOOSIER "MUTT AND JEFF" HAVE THEIR UPS AND DOWNS AS WELL

INDIANA TEAM TO COME HERE

"The long and short of it" might be a good name for this pair if they go into vaudeville.

The two men are members of the Indiana university football squad. Temp Jeffries stands 6 feet 3 inches in his barefeet and he is one of the men who can grab forward passes while opponents stand by helplessly. Warren Rommes, 5 feet 5 inches, plays quarterback on Pat Herron's Hoosier eleven.

In this picture, Rommes is asking Jeffries how "the weather is up there."

Chicago Tank Squad Now Termed Best in History

(Special to Daily Cardinal)

CHICAGO, Ill., October 19.—"The best swimming team in the history of the university." That is the prediction of Coach Ferguson and Captain Churchman of the Chicago tank squad this year.

Four expert swimmers from last year's freshmans squad are now working with the Varsity team, together with nine men back from last year's team. One of these four new additions to the team, John Moore, is rated by many fans as the best swimmer in the Big Ten this year. He holds four amateur records at the present time; the 50 yard indoor free style, the 220 yard indoor and outdoor free style and the 440 yard indoor free style. Men back from last year's squad include Bauer, Malcolm, Lauter, Thompson, Clark, Bradt, Bass and Mayfield.

Captain Churchman at the present time is on the varsity football squad and will not report for swimming until the end of the grid season.

Announcement has been made of members of the editorial staff on the Ohio State Lantern, daily publication for Ohio State university. The junior staff consisting of 10 news editors and 10 assistants, is to work under the supervision of the senior staff of four editors.

The Alumni Association of the University of Michigan has installed an electric football score board, known as a grid graph, to show the plays of the games held away from home.

"From the McGill paper comes the claim that Dr. Naismith, graduate of that school, invented the game as a result of a deliberate attempt for weeks to evolve a game suitable for men to play indoors.

"It is said that he took Rugby as a basis, eliminating the features which make it extremely rough.

YOST IRONS OUT BAD DEFECTS IN WOLVERINE LINE

Michigan-Ohio Game Will Be Played Before Record Crowd

(Special to The Cardinal)

ANN ARBOR, Mich. Oct. 19.—Michigan's showing at Vanderbilt was far from satisfying to Coach Yost. The veteran mentor has kept his men busy behind closed gates all week drilling hard to remedy the defects apparent in the Michigan play last Saturday.

Michigan will be put to the crucial test this Saturday when the Wolverines clash with Ohio State at Columbus on the occasion of the dedication of the new Ohio State stadium.

The game has attracted wide publicity and it will be the first contest in the conference to be played before a crowd of over 60,000 persons. Upon the outcome of this battle rests Michigan's chances in the Big Ten. As a result, 16,000 Wolverine rooters will accompany the squad to the camp of the Wilemen to see the battle with the Scarlet and Gray.

Forward Wall is Weak

Coach Yost and the Wolverine coaching staff have been concentrating their efforts upon the problem of strengthening the forward wall before the Big Ten contests, for it is no secret that the performance of the line at Vanderbilt was a disappointment.

Defensively, Michigan played a sterling game and met thrust for thrust, but on the offense the Wolverine forward wall was weak.

This fact may be explained partially by the absence of Johns. It seems certain that Yost must bolster up the line if Michigan is to be a contender.

The backfield, composed of Utteritz, Kipke, Steger, Cappon, Roby and Dunleavy, seems to be the equal of any in the conference unless the forward wall plays a stronger game, however, these men cannot perform as they should.

Seat Sales Are Heavy

At Vanderbilt, Michigan gained more ground than its opponents although the final punch to put the ball over was lacking when the line failed to open up holes.

Applications for seats to the Illinois and Wisconsin games, the only home contests at Ann Arbor, have been coming in fast. A capacity crowd is assured for both games. Michigan scouts who have seen these elevens in action bring back reports that they will be tough foes, and Yost will begin pointing his men for these games immediately after the Ohio battle.

SIXTY TRY OUT FOR MAT TEAM

Five Veterans in Last Year's Team Will Assist Chances

"Wonderful things can be expected from the wrestling team this year," Coach George D. Hitchcock declared yesterday. "Usually I have 15 or 20 men working out by December 1. Already I have some 60 men in daily practice."

In addition to the five veterans from last winter's strong team, and the 20 or more men who have had previous coaching, the coach is greatly pleased with a number of dark horses who are making good showings for places on the team.

Capt. E. H. Templin, in the 158 pound class, is one of the leading members. Holmes, Heuer, Gregor, and Hembre are other first class contenders for positions.

American College Claims Inventor of Basketball

Commenting on the rival claims of the University of McGill in Montreal, and of Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, relative to the origin and originators of basketball, the Purdue Exponent says:

Rival claims as originator of basketball were put forth sometime ago by McGill university and Mount Union college.

"Mount Union points with pride to a tablet in their gymnasium with an inscription to the effect that the first basketball game was played there in 1892. The Dynamo, student publication says, We know of no college in the United States which can establish the claim that basketball was played previous to this date.

"From the McGill paper comes the claim that Dr. Naismith, graduate of that school, invented the game as a result of a deliberate attempt for weeks to evolve a game suitable for men to play indoors.

"It is said that he took Rugby as a basis, eliminating the features which make it extremely rough.

CREW PRACTICE IS RETARDED BY ROUGH WEATHER

Last Year's Freshman Eight Offers Some Good Material

In spite of the fact that weather conditions this fall are not of the best, Coach "Dad" Vail is working with his crew men to keep them in condition and to give them work preliminary to the more strenuous spring practices.

Unusually rough water this fall makes it impossible for the eight to be on the lake regularly. Two crews, however, work out on the lake whenever weather permits. Many of the men upon whom Vail depends to build his crew will not report until after the Christmas holidays.

In addition to the men from the regular team last year there are several promising powers from last year's freshman crew. Teckemeyer, stroke on the yearling team last year, will report probably after the football season is over. Smedal and Robinson are other men in whom Vail places his hopes.

ODDS AND EVENS

IN certain courses on the hill the registration is excessively large. So large, in fact, that the largest rooms on the campus are needed for the lectures.

At the regular lectures the students enrolled in the course suffer little inconvenience which might be attributed rightfully to large enrollment.

During examinations, however, these students suffer not only inconvenience but even unfairness.

The classes are too large to permit the alternate seating arrangement. Students sit in adjoining seats, which arrangement may be or may not be tempting to those who seek or need aid in examinations.

The instructors in certain of these large courses feel that they have solved the question of temptation. Their method is to make out two sets of questions, one for those sitting in odd numbered seats and the other for those sitting in even numbered seats.

In this theoretically admirable way, it is provided that students sitting next to each other will have entirely different sets of questions. And presumably it is fair to all for the temptation to be dishonest has been minimized at least.

One fact, however, either has been forgotten or else ignored. It is an impossibility for any instructor or group of instructors to make out two sets of questions of equal worth and fairness.

Either one set or the other will be easier. One set is certain to include more difficult questions and every student is sure that the set he did not write is the easier set.

It is just a matter of luck whether a student gets the one set or the other.

Examinations at best contain a large element of luck. That element should be reduced to its minimum. Luck and success are often used interchangeably. But not always rightly so. Often success may be attributed to luck, but luck does not always lead to success.

The student who is naturally lucky may have a distinct advantage in the odds and evens type of examinations. He will be happy about it, of course. It may lead him to depend more upon his luck than upon study.

The other student, the one who feels that he is unlucky enough always to get the harder set, is apt to become discouraged and even antagonistic to the course and to the instructors.

The system works for no apparent good which could not be secured in better ways. If the rooms are too crowded at examination times, there are doubtless other rooms on the campus which might accommodate part of the class on that day.

Some of the larger courses are doing just that. One class of these admits that it does not feel that the two set examinations are fair. Students in this class are sent to other rooms for their examination in order to avoid an unfair policy.

This example might well be followed in other large courses.

VARSITY

THE singing of Varsity is a privilege that is accorded only to Wisconsin students and alumni. It is a privilege to be taken not lightly.

It is difficult to imagine any Wisconsin student who fails to welcome every opportunity of singing the Varsity Toast, especially when the student body and alumni unite as in one voice.

The song is traditional; it is Wisconsin's own. It is impressive to see thousands of loyal Badgers standing with heads uncovered, faces lifted, in the attitude of respect and reverence that the words and tune invoke.

United singing of this song should precede and end every Varsity function.

As Varsity was being sung after the game last Saturday, many people were leaving the stands and the gridiron.

It is distinctly unpleasant to believe that any student would neglect the opportunity to pay homage to his school or any alumnus to insult his alma mater.

Far easier is it to believe that the people leaving the stands were neither students nor alumni. And we do so believe. We have enough faith in the students and in the alumni to be sure that they would not leave while Varsity is being sung. The Indiana game tomorrow will prove that this faith is justified.

If students do their full duty, they will not only join in the toast but also will prevent others who may not be students from leaving the stands until the last measure is sung.

HAIL THE HARRIER!

WISCONSIN'S cross country team runs its initial race on Saturday against Michigan. It is one of only two events in which the Badgers may be seen at home this fall.

To many, cross country implies an exhilarating jog along the lake shore, a pleasant trip across distant fields, inaccessible to possible spectators. It is none of that.

Forty-six men run daily from September 15 to December 1 over a rough, stony, five mile course in rain, and snow,—sometimes sunshine. The strictest training is imperative. Of 46 men 10 will enter the Michigan race. Of 46 men only one or two will win W's. And all this the men willingly go through for the satisfaction of rounding the corner at Science hall to see an uncrossed finish line. They deserve to find at that finish line a crowd applauding effort well spent.

Ours is not a cry of "Lo! the poor athlete." It is a call for attention to successful effort inadequately rewarded. The end the runner fights for—crossing the finish line first—is accomplished; Wisconsin wins cross country meets. But the winner does not get his deserts; groups, not crowds, await him at the tape line.

The importance of cross country training hardly can be over-emphasized. Cross country makes winning track teams; it makes track men who break records.

The four men composing the famous Illinois team which broke the world's four mile relay record last year are all cross country runners. Rathbun, Ames star who battled with Finkle of Wisconsin for first place in the Conference cross country meet last year, has shattered the Conference two mile record. Sweitzer of Minnesota, who won both the mile and half mile races against Wisconsin last spring, is a veteran in cross country work.

Three potential Wisconsin distance stars, Tschudy, Valley and Perry, have been brought to light through this fall's cross country tryouts. As an adjunct to the major sport of track in producing winning teams, cross country is indispensable.

We repeat, Wisconsin wins cross country meets. Last year the team whitewashed Chicago, easily beat Minnesota and won third place in the Conference meet. Finkle won the Conference meet from a field of 100 entries, the best in the Middle West. He was one of few who received a special invitation to the Penn relays. A parallel fame in football would be nationally broadcasted.

Wisconsin has established for herself a reputable fame in cross country annals. At 11:15 o'clock Saturday she will have the opportunity to bolster that fame. A cheering crowd at the finish line will make victory complete.

The Royal Purple orchestra of Northwestern university claims the distinction of being the first college orchestra to broadcast music by radio. Many commendations were received on the quality of music.

Student workmen, a total of 4,000 of them, fell to with a will last Saturday in order to properly beautify the University of Kansas grounds. All men received a free meal at noon.

The purchase of new uniforms for members of the University of Michigan band is assured. The board of control of athletics recently voted the sum of $1,500 to be used for this purpose.

TODAY IS FRIDAY!!

OH YES, Now we remember that we have a lecture in American History.

THESE memory courses sure are the berries.

For instance if you want to remember something just think of some common connotation of the word you want to remember.

For instance:

* * *

"I've got to spend a dollar for some paint!!"

ON FIRST appearance this little statement seems to bear no weight whatsoever. But if you stop to analyze it you will see that it means "I have a date with a co-ed."

JUST note the connotation.

Paint—Co-ed.

See how easy it is. "I've got to spend a dollar for some paint"—"I've got a date with a Co-ed."

You see having a date with a Co-ed is such a common thing that one is very apt to forget all about it, but how many times do you spend a dollar for paint? You see that is so very infrequent that it will be much easier to remember.

* * *

The whole system is very simple and almost everybody ought to be able to figure out new ones for themselves.

LITTLE DIGNITY CHASERS
Six-foot seven and dancing with four-foot six.

WE have just discovered some interesting facts about bees.

IT'S the Queen bee that does all the stinging.

THE KING bee doesn't sting at all!!!

GOD SAVE THE KING!!!

In years gone by they danced with grace,

The stately minuet.

They tripped the light fantastic toe,

With everyone they met.

But nowadays you dance with "Grace"

To music soft and low.

My gosh! Just think how the times have changed,

Since 20 years ago!

And when you took your lady home,

You left her at the door,

You tipped your hat, and said "goodnight"

"Tain't that way any more!!"

Nowadays a parting kiss,

Is all in vogue, you know!

My Gosh! Just think how the times have changed.

Since 20 years ago!!

We think they didn't have much fun.

These "dukes" in days gone by.

But just the same they had their sport.

The country wasn't dry!!

You could get yourself a quart of "hootch"

For a dollar a half a throw!

My Gosh! Just think how the times have changed,

Since twenty years ago!!

WHAT IS WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

Imagine, if you can, this picture. A young man and his very favorite lady friend have just returned from the movies, or something, and he is standing on the porch chatting with her. At least he seems to be chatting, but it's so dark you can never be sure what they were doing.

Just then the bell on Music hall strikes 10 o'clock and as the young man is about to leave he walks up to the aforesaid young lady and shakes her hand.

FAMOUS WORDS OF FAMOUS WOMEN

Hey, cut it out. You ain't no sheil!

"Social reform is the greatest need of colleges," said "Dad" Eliot in his first of a series of meetings at Iowa State.

LIT SOCIETIES HOLD TRYOUTS

Varied Programs Are Planned
For Week-end Meetings

Literary societies are planning varied programs and events for the week-end. Tryouts will be held by both men's and women's societies in order to complete the membership for the year.

Philomathia, meeting at 220 Bascom hall, will engage in a parliamentary drill and will be addressed by John Sanborn, attorney of Madison, and an alumnus of the university, on the subject of forensics.

Initiation Speeches

Initiation speeches are to be delivered by George McKinnis '26, Lloyd Saddler '26, and Hampton K. Snell '25. After the open meeting, an election of officers will be held.

Athena will occupy its time at 401 Bascom hall with short tryout speeches for the Athena-Agricultural Literary society joint debate sometime in December. The subject is "Resolved, that the courts of the United States be deprived of the right to issue injunctions in labor disputes."

Hesperia will be entertained by a travlogue at 451 Bascom hall. The remainder of the program has not been announced.

That a system of cooperative marketing of all farm products replace the present method, is the subject of debate at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Agricultural Literary society in Agricultural hall.

Prof. W. A. Sumner will act as critic and judge of the debate.

The choice of a subject for debate against the Athena Literary society will be discussed at the business meeting.

Castalia and Pythia

The regular tryouts for Castalia Literary society will be held at 7 o'clock tonight in the concert room of Lathrop hall. They will be continued at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. All second semester freshmen and upperclassmen are eligible. Membership is limited to 60 women. Twenty vacancies exist in the society at present. Catherine Brady '23, and Anita Jones '23, are in charge of the tryouts.

Pythia will hold a regular closed meeting at 7 o'clock tonight. Tryouts are to be held this afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock and from 7 to 8 o'clock. Students desiring to try out must register with Catherine Bigham '25, on next Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in Lathrop hall. Membership is limited to 50 girls.

A limit of three minutes is placed on tryout selections in both societies. Any literary or musical selection will be accepted. Pythia further requires that a short talk be given in addition to a musical number.

Waukesha Principal Wants Dance Ordinance

A copy of the dance hall ordinance recently passed by the city council regulating dances in the city is asked for in a communication from G. O. Banting, superintendent of schools at Waukesha. A copy of the ordinance was sent by Harry Buser, city clerk, today.

ORPHEUM READY FOR GREAT WEEK

Final plans for the Orpheum theater's Third Of a Century Week anniversary were completed today by the management of the local branch of the Orpheum circuit. Beginning Sunday afternoon and lasting throughout the week, Madison theater-goers will be offered two of the best programs contracted by the Orpheum in some time.

Manager John Scharnberg has spent much time endeavoring to book two excellent bills for the coming week in order that Madison public might celebrate the anniversary week in appropriate manner.

Mayor I. M. Kittelson has issued an official proclamation endorsing the Orpheum theater's entertainment. Other prominent officials in larger cities throughout the country are endorsing the Orpheum circuit. Indications are that Anniversary Week will be one of the most successful since the circuit started in San Francisco in this same month in 1889 when Mr. Martin Fech opened the first doors of an Orpheum Theatre.

In the Orpheum circuit today there are 50 magnificent theaters valued at over $40,000,000, most of which are the outright property of the circuit.

Punkin' Holler Meeting
To Be Held November 24
The "Punkin' Holler" meeting which was scheduled for tonight will be held November 24. This annual event will take place in the auditorium of Agriculture hall.

LLOYD GEORGE QUILTS CABINET

Unionists Split Coalition; To Appeal to Country As Conservatives

LONDON—The resignation of Premier Lloyd George was officially announced this evening.

COALITION SPLITS.

LONDON—The Lloyd George coalition received its death blow at the hands of the conservative party, when the conservative members of commons and government ministers at their meeting in the Carlton Club today voted 186 to 87 to appeal to the country as the Conservative party. This creates a situation of the greatest political confusion uncertainty the country has known for years.

The life of the new conservative ministry will probably be brief, and a general election is expected to follow swiftly.

The party lines which the elections will be fought present a profound puzzle. One suggestion is that Lloyd George may form a center party in which he could count upon Austen Chamberlain and Lord Birkenhead and perhaps Lord Balfour, the three cabinet members whose adherence to him has been repudiated by today's conference.

Premier To Fight

This new party, it is suggested, would probably command the support of a goodly proportion of the conservatives who stood by the coalition and also the coalition liberals. This formation might put the labor party in the position of the chief opposition party.

The possibility that Lloyd George will try to return to the leadership of the liberals is not to be overlooked either.

Mr. Bonar Law's friends question whether his health will permit him to take office even for a short time. Lord Derby seems the most probable alternative selection for Premier, although it is suggested that Lord Curzon, who gained greatly in prestige by his work in the recent Near East negotiations and is believed to be a lukewarm coalitionist might be summoned to form a government. Today's vote, it is forecast will be proclaimed as a great victory by the "die-hards" group of conservatives in parliament who for several months past have been advocating the withdrawal of the party from the coalition and its resumption of its normal party organization.

To Push Erin Pact

If the Conservatives control the next parliament they may be depended upon, it is considered, to carry out the treaty made with Ireland. That this would be done was stated by the Marquis of Salisbury in his speech last Monday. The general results of today's collapse of the coalition promises to be after a period of upheaval the length of which is difficult to predict, the reversion of Great Britain to the traditional system of government on strict party lines.

Announcement of the vote of the Conservatives was preceded by reports from the Carlton Club that Chamberlain's statement had failed to satisfy the meeting and that Andrew Bonar Law had spoken in favor of maintaining the independence of the Conservative party.

Will Fight For Draper History

That Wisconsin's Historical society will fight for the possession of the Draper collection, consisting of manuscripts on characters in early western United States history was made known today at the annual meeting of the society at the state library here. The Tennessee society is asking their return claiming that Dr. Draper had no right to will them to another society.

Dr. Joseph Schafer, secretary, in his annual report today stated that $36,000 has been donated during the past year for repair work. He reported the binding program far in arrears.

A new Mills fund, the income from which is to pay for the publishing of the society's magazine, was announced, as was the receipt of the manuscripts of Bishop Samuel Fallows. Col. J. A. Watrous and Col. William F. Vilas.

HOSPITAL SUES FOR $500,000

Claim Judge Marshall Bequeathed Half Million to Institution

The Wisconsin Methodist Hospital and Home association, which conducts the Methodist hospital here, today filed in the Chippewa county court a claim for $500,000 against the estate of the late Justice R. D. Marshall of the supreme court.

The claim is based upon a written agreement, which, it is said, was signed by Judge Marshall on May 8, a few days before his death, in which it is alleged he gave $500,000 to aid in the erection of a new Methodist hospital. The gift was made, it is said, upon the condition that the hospital association should construct and equip a modern hospital at Madison within three years, the institution to be known as the "Marshall Memorial Methodist Hospital."

The date for the hearing of the claim, which was filed by Gilbert, Ela and Heilman, will be set by the judge of the county court of Chippewa county.

The gift was made on condition that the hospital association should pay to Judge Marshall and to his wife, Mary, an annuity equal to five percent of the total amount. As he died before the gift could be consummated, according to attorneys, it can only be carried out by the filing of a claim against his estate.

The estate is now being probated in the Chippewa court.

Wilson May Be Robbed of Vote in New Jersey

TRENTON, N. J. — Decision by the Mercer county board of elections to enforce the New Jersey election law of 1920 which provides that a voter must cast his ballot in the district in which he actually resides and not elsewhere probably will deprive former President Wilson of his voting privilege in New Jersey this year.

Mr. Wilson formerly lived in Princeton which is a part of Mercer county and voted in the college town while he was president. He cannot vote of the District of Columbia, where he now lives and the ruling made yesterday bars him from voting here.

U. S. AID TO LIBERIA FEARED BY SPAIN

Certain political thinkers in Spain believe they see a menace to Spain in the United States' latest loan of $4,000,000 to Liberia. Liberia is a negro republic, founded by this country for former slaves and for as many American colored people as cared to return to Africa.

The United States has always kept a watchful eye over Liberia. Spain sees in this only an American attempt to gain a foothold in Africa.

The Spaniards are particularly disturbed over the effect of an Americanized Liberia on their island of Fernando Poo, 1,200 miles away. Liberia will soon be so well off, they say, that all her labor will stay at home, and then the Spanish investments on Fernando Poo will fail for lack of workmen.

BANK BANDIT IS SENTENCED

Says He Won't Be There Longer Than Three Months

Tony Caronna, found guilty by a jury in Superior court last night of taking part in the robbery of the Randall State bank on March 10, was sentenced to 25 years in the state penitentiary at Waupun by Judge A. C. Hoppmann this afternoon.

Heavily manacled and with extra precautions taken to forestall an attempted escape, the convicted bank bandit was taken to Waupun this afternoon by Sheriff William H. McCormick and Deputy Henry Ireland.

Friends of Caronna are being watched as a result of a declaration, which he is said to have made as he left the courtroom.

Caronna sobbed audibly as he was helped into the automobile of Sheriff McCormick and whisked out of the city. The gates of the prison will close behind him early this evening.

"They gave me 25 years, but I won't be there more than three months," he whispered to three former companions as he was being led from the room by Sheriff McCormick, it is said.

As the sentence was pronounced, Caronna, who had maintained a stoical demeanor during the trial, wheeled, put his arm to his face and stepped toward the rear of the courtroom. Court officials sprang to their feet, but Caronna turned again at the call of Judge A. C. Hoppmann.

As Judge Hoppmann uttered the words that will put her brother behind prison bars for a quarter of a century, Lena Caronna, 15, wept unrestrained, but other relatives restrained their emotions.

With a sob in his voice, he said:

"All right, Judge, I'm satisfied."

"I want to make this case an example," declared Judge Hoppmann. "Bank robbers will shut Dane county as a poor place to operate hereafter."

According to the sentence, Caronna will spend one day every year—the anniversary of the day of the robbery—in solitary confinement in the prison.

The Caronna sentence is one of the most severe ever imposed by a court here.

Dist. Atty. T. G. Lewis, who prosecuted Caronna, had demanded a sentence of not less than 20 years.

"The robbery of the Randall State bank was one of the most boldly executed crimes committed in the state," he said.

A sentence of five years was asked by Atty. Fred Wylie, who defended Caronna. He pleaded for a light sentence on the ground that he was 20 years old, and that he had been known as a law-abiding young man up to a year ago.

Twenty-six bank robbers, burglars and embezzlers who victimized Wisconsin institutions have been sentenced in the past year, according to E. R. Cunningham, investigator for the Wisconsin Bankers' association. The sentences totalled 415 years. The total amount taken was $22,000.

Found guilty of taking part in the robbery of the Randall State bank on March 10, Tony Caronna, 20, may be sentenced by Judge A. C. Hoppmann of superior court today.

Trial of Dominick Justo, 17, charged with aiding Caronna in the daring daylight robbery, will not be begun until the January term of court. His trial was postponed because of the fact that jurors on the present panel have heard the testimony which convicted Caronna.

Badger Boys are Men Day Before They Become 21

A boy becomes a man under the Wisconsin election laws the day before his twenty-first birthday, the attorney general's office ruled today in an unofficial opinion.

The ruling held that all 20-year-old legal "infants" in the state who have a birthday on November 8, are entitled to vote November 7 as full-fledged men.

This decision is reached because of the generally accepted legal principle that in law days cannot be divided into fractions. It held that the boy just about to become twenty-one really reached that age on the day preceding his birthday.

1921 Auto Business Shows 30 Percent Drop

WASHINGTON—Declines in output, value and employment of automobile production in 1921 as compared with 1919 were shown in census reports made public today by the department of commerce. The total value of products in 1921 not including figures from establishments engaged chiefly in making bodies, parts and accessories for automobiles, was 30.2 per cent less than in 1919 while the number and value of completed machines turned out dropped 15.1 per cent and 23.4 per cent respectively.

The number of persons engaged decreased 32.1 per cent, from 242,922 in 1919 to 164,999 in 1921.

VETS DEMAND SAWYER QUIT

Minnesota Commander Charges Surgeon is "Unfit"

NEW ORLEANS—A resolution demanding the removal of Brig. Gen. Charles E. Sawyer, as co-ordinator of federal hospitalization board was presented the American Legion convention by Department Commander Barren of Minnesota, for "utter unfitness." The attack was inspired by the report of Rice Means, of Colorado, of the National Rehabilitation committee which accepted "the pledge of cooperation" given by Gen. Sawyer.

Declaring that "an armistice had been signed" and that "it's time to stop fighting" Adolphus Graupner, of California spoke against Mr. Barren's resolution.

"Not a damn cent has been spent in Minnesota," King said, "although statement after statement has been made that the money has been allocated. As for me if I am the only man to voice antagonism to Gen. Sawyer I'll voice it." "I can tell you of buddies dying on the steps of hospitals in Minnesota, waiting to get in," Adjutant King continued. "I hope, I pray, this amendment may be adopted."

A roll call on the resolution demanding the removal of Sawyer was ordered after three states—Illinois, Minnesota and Alabama, had demanded it. The votes of several states follows: Illinois 58, no; Michigan 28, no; Wisconsin 30, yes.

General J. J. Pershing, commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary forces, again this morning acknowledged the tribute of the forces he led in France, when he appeared as the day's chief speaker.

Thwaite Asks Pine Lining For New Well

The strata of Potsdam sand stone which carries the stream of water used by the city was struck at a depth of 240 feet Tuesday. R. G. Thwaite, state geologist, upon inspection Tuesday recommended that a pipe lining be run into the hole to a depth of 250 feet. L. A. Smith superintendent of the water department stated today that the 12 inch pipe would be inserted in the hole on Thursday.

Plans For Removal of Poles Ready

Specifications for the removal of the ties, rails, and poles of the Wisconsin Interurban system on E. Washington ave. have been completed by the city engineering department. Advertising for bids will be sent out today by Harry Buser, city clerk. The work will be done this fall, weather permitting.

Physical Eds. Will Leave Beds Sunday Morn To Plant W. A. A. Hike Posts

The call of crisp, sizzling bacon and eggs sunny-side-up will lure sleepy W. A. A. members out of comfortable beds Sunday morning, and then in rank and file formation past Bascom hall, along the drive, over the rustic bridge out to the tent colony.

Heading the honor squad will be the first of the official W. A. A. hike sign posts. These new sign posts are to be placed at the official ends of the regular W. A. A. hikes, both to settle disputes and to call attention to the hiking activities of the university women.

Inauguration of Post

Formal inauguration of this sign post will be carried elaborately. The honor squad will do original formations, and the motley crew remaining at hear-a-pin-drop-silence while Marjorie Severance, master of ceremonies, lowers the post into its final resting hole.

All members are to meet at 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning in Lathrop hall. The march will begin promptly at 9 o'clock. The cooks are to go out first in order that breakfast will be waiting when the hikers arrives.

Members should sign up in Lathrop before 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

The honor squad is to be under the direction of Betty Thorkelson '23 and Frances Warren '24. Practice will be held Saturday morning at Lathrop at 11 o'clock in the Concert room.

Honor Squad Members

The honor squad is composed of Signe Adolphson '24, Dorothy Alshuler '24, Beth Bigelow '24, Phyllis Bott '23, Vera Carlisle '23, Marie Carpenter '24, Marie Damez '24, Mary Devine '25, Agnes Ellerstad '25, Margaret Fathauer '24, Yvette Goldberg '24, Frances Hellebrandt '24, Genevieve Hicks '24, Alice Johnson '24, La Von '24, Clara Klosterman '24, Elizabeth Knott '25, Martha Kohl '24, Elaine Mabley '24, Janet Marshall '24, Lina Norman '25, Edith Oldenburg '24, Cleo Parsley '23, Helen Robinson '25, Thelma Roach '24, Bernice Scott '24, Ruth Staudemeyer '24, Emma Stevning '23, Marion Streng '25, Betty Thorkelson '23, Lucile Uhl '24, and Frances Warren '24.

MEDIC SCHOOL STUDENTS, 162

Fall Enrollment Shows Neither An Increase or a Decrease

No increase or decrease has been made in the number of students in the Medical school since last year, Dean Bardeen declared yesterday. This year 162 students are enrolled, which is exactly the same number as registered in the school last year.

"We are not anxious for an increase in the number taking the course, for our capacity is limited," Dr. Bardeen said.

Few changes have been made in the Medical school. There are several new instructors, but none of professional rank."

Rendezvous Tea Room is Conducted By Co-eds

The Rendezvous tea room on Monroe street is now being used as a practice class by the institutional management course of the department of halls and commons. The department, feeling the need of a tea room in which students could practice culinary art, took over the management of the establishment.

All of the food which is used in the tearoom is prepared at the central kitchen in Chadbourn hall.

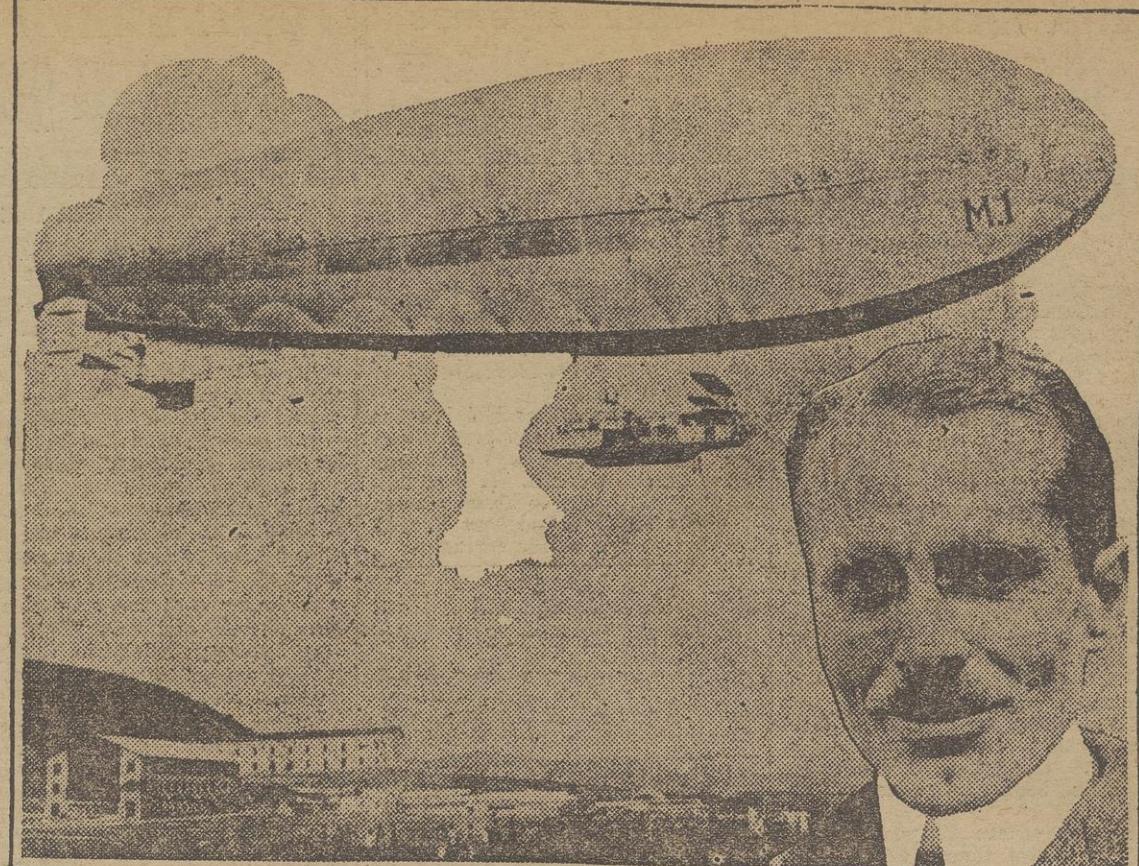

A year ago the Rendezvous was purchased from Miss Myra Emery, a graduate of the physical education department, who first conceived the idea of opening such a shop in the vicinity of Wingra park.
