ANNOUNCEMENT

OF THE

THE HARESFOOT

DRAMATIC

CLUB PLAY

Friday, February 27

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
MADISON, WIS.

1903

"To hold, as 'i were, the mirror up to nature"

THE HARESFOOT DRAMATIC CLUB begs to announce that it will present its annual play at the Fuller Opera House, Friday evening, February 27, 1903.

This will be the fifth annual play presented by the club, and the production chosen is "My Friend From India," by H. Du Souchet, a three-act farcical comedy, full of effective climaxes, which has had a wide success, especially as a college play. "My Friend From India" demands a large number of costume effects and special features, outside of the heavy royalty which the club pays for the rights of producing it. It is full of most laughably, humorous situations.

The cast has been chosen from among the University students who have proved themselves possessed of the best talent for dramatic work, and the club is confident that the presentation will deserve and receive the generous patronage which has attended the past efforts of the club. Prof. J. F. A. Pyre again has the direction of the play in his charge.

No pains or time have been spared to make this production of "My Friend From India" the dramatic success of the year.

The sale of reserved seats will take place Thursday, February 26th, at 2 P. M., at the Fuller Opera House.
