CONVOCAATION IS SET FOR TODAY TO HEAR CRANE

Was Given Degree By University

Dr. Charles R. Crane, former United States minister to China, will speak at an all-university convocation in Music hall auditorium at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. The subject of his address is "Conditions in Turkey and the Near East."

Dr. Crane has just returned to his country from an extensive tour of the Mohammedan countries of Turkey, Syria and the Arabian peninsula. He is familiar with political and diplomatic questions of the Near East and presents in his lecture much material different from the general propaganda concerning the Balkans and Turkey which is current in this country.

For many years Dr. Crane has traveled in eastern Europe. He is personally acquainted with the men who are the national leaders there. He was sent by the Peace conference to the Near East to survey conditions in Palestine.

The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Dr. Crane by the University of Wisconsin last June.

The committee on lectures and convocations was unable to have printed posters on the campus to announce this lecture because arrangements for the lecture were completed too late.

While in Madison, Mr. Crane will be entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Bradley, College Hills. He spoke before the Rotary club at the Park hotel yesterday, and last night Prof. and Mrs. Bradley entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Crane. Mr. Crane will also be guest of honor at the monthly dinner of a dining club to be held tomorrow at the home of Prof. and Mrs. F. L. Paxson.

BUTTON WEARERS FREE FROM DUES

Students who hold life memberships in the Wisconsin Union will be exempt from all further dues connected with the new building and organization, according to John Dollard, field representative of the Union.

When the Union building is erected, it will act as a club and gathering place for all Wisconsin men and as a center for Wisconsin activities. As a means of maintaining the building, dues will be assessed all Wisconsin men, and these dues will probably be included in the tuition fee. All students who hold life memberships in the Union will be exempt from these fees.

Many new badges continue to appear in the coat lapels and on the vests of Wisconsin men and women. "Many students still continue to call for the buttons, and many have completed their payments to the $25 mark with the result that the number of life members is becoming constantly larger," John Dollard asserted last night.

Late Registrants Must Pay $3 Fine at U. W.

"A three dollar fine and 25 cents a day until you do register" is the edict the university regents handed down today to students who make a practice of registering late.

In past years, the fine for registering late was one dollar, and this amount did not increase even though the student might not register for two weeks.

WEATHER: FAIR

Generally fair Friday and Saturday. Not much change in temperature. Highest temperature reached a 4 p. m., was 57.9 degrees while the lowest, 43.2 degrees, was registered at 6 a. m.

Kehl Float Will Bring Libel Action, Is Rumor

OFFICIAL NOTICE

The recent change in the S. G. A. ruling requiring women to be in their lodging houses at 10 o'clock—now changed to 10:30—in no way effects the 10 o'clock rule for canoeists. The latter depends upon the life-saving service and is wholly independent of S. G. A. rulings.

The siren sounds at 9:30 o'clock as a signal for all canoes to return; the boat house is closed, and the life-saving service is discontinued at 10 o'clock. All canoes are required to be in by 10 o'clock.

MASSMEETING ARGUES PLANS

Women Fail to Draw Quorum But Discuss Many Changes

To establish a minimum number of S. G. A. rules with a maximum amount of working ability behind them, was the consensus of opinion voiced in the general discussion at the second S. G. A. mass meeting in Music hall last night. Because a necessary quorum was lacking, the proposed amendment to the constitution to provide for a future secret balloting system had to be postponed for consideration at a later date.

Keystone recommendations dealing with men callers, with mid-week parties and with the riding rule were thoroughly argued for and against the suggested revisions.

That the matter of receiving men callers during the day be left to each house was approved by some who felt that each individual house had the right to deal with this situation as it saw fit.

At the present time permission to attend all mid-week parties must be secured from the dean of women. Under Keystone's proposal, the right of granting this permission would be transferred to the hands of the S. G. A. president, and she would notify the house mother of any such grant.

The majority opinion was favorable to this proposal, on the basis that the elected head of S. G. A. would be more likely to recognize a broader student view of the problem, and act accordingly, while she still maintained ample discrimination to successfully carry out the spirit of the rule.

The suggestion by Keystone that the riding rule be abolished met with the biggest diversity of opinion. The present riding rule does not permit women students to ride outside the city limits after 8:30

Walter Becomes Head of Review

Allan W. Walter '24 was elected editor of the Athletic Review for next year at a meeting of the Athletic board yesterday. He will hold the office for the remainder of this year in the place of Worth E. Shoults '23, who was called home.

The final issue of the review will be the interscholastic issue and will be out May 26. It will be the largest issue of the year and will contain the interscholastic program.

The Athletic review was founded three years ago for the purpose of furthering the interests of athletics in the university and presenting to promising high school material the progress and quality of Wisconsin athletics.

The circulation has increased to 2500 in the three years of the life of the publication.

That friends of Prof. F. W. Kehl, local dancing master, would institute some action against the engineers who perpetrated the float in the Engineer's parade last Saturday satirizing Kehl's dance hall, became known last night.

No information as to the matter would be given out by Professor Kehl last night. It was admitted however, that a letter had been sent to President Birge regarding the matter and that further action would depend upon the results of the letter.

President Birge declared at a late hour last night that he had received no communication of any kind regarding the episode. Mention was made that if nothing was done by the university authorities, the matter would be referred to an attorney.

The float in question was described by Professor Kehl last night as the most outrageous thing he has come in contact with in his 40 years of teaching dancing in Madison.

Professor Kehl declared that several parents have withdrawn their children from his classes since seeing the parade last Saturday and he asserts that his business has suffered as a result of the float.

The dancing master further declares that his hall is run personally by himself and he considers it one of the cleanest in the city. Professor Kehl is president of the National association of Dancing Masters.

EXPERIMENTS TO BE SHOWN AT FEEDERS CONVO

The results of months of experimentation with different feeds on beef cattle and swine will be at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon demonstrated at the university farm during the feeder's demonstration.

A carload of high grade 2-year-old Hereford steers and six lots of swine are to be used in the demonstration. A carcass from each class of animals will be butchered to show the quality of the different cuts.

Programs preceding the demonstration are scheduled for this evening and tomorrow morning in order to cover the field of live stock production and marketing emphasized in the demonstration.

Chas. E. Snyder, editor of the Drover's Journal, will address university students and farmers in the Agricultural auditorium this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Other speakers are E. R. McIntyre, editor of the Wisconsin Farmer and Prof. J. L. Tormy, of the Shorthorn Breeder's association.

The program for Saturday morning is, "Live Stock Marketing," by Chas. E. Snyder, 9:30 o'clock; "Losses from Tuberculosis in Market Swine," A. C. Boltz, Manager of Oscar Mayer Co.; "Carcass Demonstration," by O. Nesvig, manager, Madison Packing Co.

The afternoon program contains a demonstration of experimental cattle results at 1:30 o'clock, and demonstration and results of swine feeding trial by Prof. F. B. Morrison at 2:30 o'clock.

CONCERTS NET UNION BIG SUM

Season's Activity Has Been Profitable, Reports Show

The Union board has turned in $2000 to the Memorial Union fund and approximately $800 more will be available by the end of this semester according to a statement by the chairman of the concert series of the Union board last night.

This sum is approximately $1000 more than was turned over last year from the series of three concerts held during the winter season.

Funds from the sale of season tickets at $4 and $5 netted the board $5179.50. Ticket sale at the door of the Mischa Elman concert amounted to $1138, the Reinald Werrenrath concert $462.50 and the Pablo Casals concert $486. The total income from the three concerts was $7266.

The expenses for the concerts amounted to $4429.21 and $2000 of the net profit has been turned into the treasury of the Memorial union and the balance will be available in the near future.

Doctor Charles Mills of the music school has been assisting the board in selecting the artists and is now working with the board in planning the program for next year.

Within a few years the new auditorium in the Memorial union will be available for these concerts instead of holding them in the men's gym. The receipts from these concerts are turned over to the treasurer of the Union each spring and the profit has increased with each series of concerts.

Seniors to Hold Tryouts Today

Tryouts for the senior class play to be given in the amphitheater at commencement time, will be conducted by Miss Gertrude Johnson, coach, at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the concert room of Lathrop hall.

The play which will be given this year is "The Road to Yesterday" and is in four acts. There are 14 characters in the play, eight men and six women. The play is a fantasy of modern life and counterpart conditions of the seventeenth century.

The tryouts for cast members to the play are limited this year to seniors. This is a new venture in class plays but will tend to make a unified class achievement, according to the manager.

The military department of the university will do exhibition work with field radio. Governor Blaine and Mayor Kittleson will speak, and the coaches and captains of university teams will be presented to the boys.

The idea of Boy's day was originated in New York two years ago. The object is to sell the city its boys. This year, 100,000 boys between the ages of 10 and 21, will march in New York. In some places, a week is given over to them. One day is given for the boy in church, another for the boy in school, etc. In Madison, all civic and business organizations are backing the movement.

The city has asked that flags be put out to meet the paraders.

TELLS OF ANCIENT

GREECE AND ROME

Prof. Ralph Van Deman Magoffin, Associate Professor of Greek and Roman history at Johns Hopkins university and president of the Archaeological Institute of America gave a lecture on Ancient Greece and Rome yesterday afternoon in Bascom hall.

He showed slides of the many excavations now being carried on in Greece and Italy. "Part of the ancient buildings on Acropolis hill at Athens will be rebuilt exactly as they stood centuries ago and partly out of the same pieces of marble which have been unearthed at the base of the building," Professor Magoffin declared.

He also told of the ancient stadium high on a mountain where the citizens of Athens sat and watched the original Olympic Games. "Part of ground is measured off to form a 100-metre and a 220 metre track. They had their 100-yard-dash stars as well as we," Professor Magoffin said.

VARSIITY BALL SQUAD LEAVES FOR MAROON GO

Captain Williams Will Not Play

Wisconsin's baseball squad will hop off at 7:30 this morning for Chicago where it will tackle the Maroon outfit this afternoon. Coach Guy S. Lowman will head the team. It was stated definitely yesterday afternoon that Captain Rollie Williams, who strained his ankle in the Northwestern college game Wednesday, would not play at Chicago and possibly not against either Michigan or Notre Dame.

Lowman's men will buck up against the Michigan crew at Ann Arbor, Saturday, and will play Notre Dame at South Bend on the return to Madison.

Of the three games to be played on the jaunt, two, Chicago and Michigan, are conference games. The Wolverine battle is expected to cause the Wisconsin team the most trouble. "Michigan's going to be an awful hard battle," Coach Lowman pointed out yesterday.

Wolverines Are Veterans

Michigan's team is practically intact from last year with the exception of the pitching staff, and the brunt of the slab work this year is being borne by Liverance, a veteran. He turned back the Ohio State team the first part of the week with three hits and defeated it 3 to 2. Fisher, who saw years of service in both the American and National leagues, is coaching the Wolverines.

Not much trouble is expected from Chicago. Northwestern university defeated the Midway men 13 to 8 a few days ago, and Iowa recently shut them out 13 to 0. Reports come from Chicago state that Coach Nels Norgren has spent much time of late to improve the weak spots, but it is hardly probable that he has polished off the rough places sufficiently to defeat Wisconsin.

Notre Dame baseball stock has slumped considerably this year, as they have been defeated by Illinois, Michigan and Butler.

Pitch Pickford and Radke

"Pickford and Radke will handle the pitching against Chicago," Coach Lowman said yesterday. The outfield will be composed of Becker, cf, Servatius, rf, and Johnson, lf. Holm will play the initial sack, Ellingson will play second base, Tebell will cover third base and Combacker at shortstop. Aschenbrenner will handle the catching job.

Bill Johnson is expected to take the mound against Michigan with Schrenk in reserve. Coach Lowman will probably give all his heavies a chance to limber up against Notre Dame. Pollock, Catcher, and Dugan, infielder, and Stevens, manager, will also accompany the team.

Illinois, under the direction of Carl Lundgren, former Chicago Cub pitcher, loomed up stronger to retain its conference championship when it defeated Purdue Wednesday 4 to 1. "Lefty" O'Connor, a newcomer, hurled nice ball for the Suckers, holding Purdue safe at all times.

Perseverance May Reward

Princeton's Track Hopes

Twenty-eight years trying for the inter-collegiate track and field crown have made Princeton determined to carry it off this year and experts think that the Princeton team will win the crown this season at Philadelphia, May 25 and 26.

Many Stars on Chicago Freshman Baseball Squad

The University of Chicago Frosh baseball squad believes that with the great array of talent on their team they can defeat the Varsity. Among the stars in their ranks are George and Ray Farr, Oak Park; Len Pierce, Evanston; George Shaffer, Hyde Park; "Vic" Johnson, Sneglewood; "Babe" Aleya, Pittsburg Kan., and Rock Myers.

TENNIS SEASON OPENS AGAINST IOWA TOMORROW

3 Varsity Men Will Meet Hawkeyes

After working his men for a week on the Varsity tennis courts, Coach Linden has a squad lined up which should provide ample competition for the best that Iowa can offer in the first conference meet which will be held tomorrow afternoon.

The first four men have been ranked in accordance with the showing they have made in a series of matches during the past week, and Linden feels certain that he will have the four best tennis men in school on the courts to face Iowa.

Has Experienced Men

Captain Tredwell, with two years of varsity experience behind him, ranks first on the list, and will do his best to take the place left vacant by the graduation of Swede Godfredson, premier net man of last year. Nick Aagesen, playing after a year's absence from the squad, ranks number two and will play as partner with Tredwell in the doubles matches.

Art Moulding, letter man from last year's squad will resume his old place as third man and will have as his partner George Bennett, a senior who will make his debut as a varsity player tomorrow. Bennett is a cool, heady player who would have played last year but for scholastic difficulties.

Team Well Balanced

Despite the loss of Godfredson, Linden feels that he has a team

Inter-Frat Ball Tourney Nets Three More Victories

Three games were played in the inter-fraternity baseball tourney yesterday. The results are as follows: Phi Gamma Delta 7, Phi Kappa Sigma 5; Pi Kappa Psi 7, Phi Delta Theta 6; Delta Kappa Epsilon 6, Delta Tau Delta 1. PLUMBERS COP TANK CONTEST

Commerce Men Take Second Place With Ags Third

The engineers far outclassed their opponents in the inter-college swimming meet held at the gymnasium last night, and won over the commerce men by 16 points, 31-15. The Ag school was third with 12 points, and L. and S. fourth with 6 points.

Out of eight events, the engineers took five first places, the relay, 220 yard crawl, 40 yard crawl, 100 yard crawl, and the 100 yard breast stroke. L. and S. won first in the plunges, Ag. first in the dives, and commerce first in the 100 yard back stroke.

Sterling D. Ewald and Walter J. Flueck, both engineers, were the outstanding men in the meet. The former did especially brilliant work, placing first in the 40 yard dash, and second in the 100 yard back stroke; he also swam on the winning relay team.

Summary of the meet: 100 yard back stroke: W. P. Butler, commerce, first; Ewald, engineer, second; E. F. Crawford, Ag., third. Time, 1:22 3-5.

Plunge: V. B. Short, L. and S., first; J. H. Ray, commerce, second; R. E. Straus, commerce, third. Time, 36 4-5.

220 yard: L. B. Frazier, engineer, first; S. A. McGeath, disqualified. Time, 6:42.

100 yard: Flueck, engineer, first; E. C. Snell, commerce, second; M. H. Simpkins, Ag., third. Time, 1:07 1-5.

PREDICT STIFF RACE AT DRAKE FOR TRACKMEN

Relays Draw Huge Entry List

When Wisconsin's star track men enter into competition tomorrow afternoon in the annual Drake Relays at Des Moines, Ia., they will face some of the stiffest competition of the entire season.

The Drake Relays have been becoming more and more popular each year and a record breaking entry list is predicted for the Saturday events. College and university teams from all points in the Middle West will be represented in the relay races as well as in the special events.

Coach Tom Jones left Madison for Des Moines yesterday afternoon with 12 men. Besides enough distance and middle distance men to make up three relay teams he took three men to enter a few of the events which are on the program.

Spetz Enters Dashes

Captain Spetz will run in the dash events, and Newell will run in the high and low hurdles. Donohue will work in the high jump and if he keeps the form he has shown during outdoor practice he should place high. Donohue is one of the three Wisconsin men who all clear the bar easily at 6 feet one inch.

Of the nine runners who made the trip, several will have to run in two races in order to complete the three teams which were entered in relay events. Jones has entered a four-mile, a two-mile and a one-mile team in the relays.

By virtue of its strong showing at Kansas last week, when it took third place, the Badger two mile team is hoped to come in near the head of the procession at Des Moines. The Badgers led the field in the Kansas Relays until the last lap when they lost out to Nebraska and Minnesota. The same team composed of Johnson, Hilberts, Val-lery and Ramsay will run tomorrow.

CHINESE WILL HOLD "NIGHT"

Plays, Pageants, Music, and Features Are to Be Presented

Chinese music, drama, fencing, a lantern show, a pageant and recitations will be features of the "Chinese Night," which the Chinese students at the university will give Saturday evening in the concert room, Lathrop hall.

For weeks the Chinese students have been making preparations for the event and the result of their efforts will be a treat for those who attend, according to the managers of the affair.

More than 500 invitations have been mailed for the event and it is expected that at least 400 will attend.

Each of the 50 Chinese students here is entitled to five invitations which he can send to his friends, the remaining 250 invitations being reserved for prominent citizens of the city who have shown interest in the Chinese students. The latter group of guests were selected after considerations by a committee on invitations chosen for the purpose.

The chief event of the evening's program is entitled "Kung Chang Chi" or "Empty City Strategem," the Chinese drama, a historical play based on a famous incident in history which happened about 223 A. D. The play will give a fair idea of what Chinese drama is like, for it will be given as it is presented in China.

In addition to the old Chinese drama, which resembles roughly the western opera, there will be a modern Chinese play given in English. This play is the work of an amateur, written by an engineering student at Purdue.

NOTED GERMAN PROF LEAVES

Dr. Sommerfeld Sails For Germany After Series of Lectures

Dr. Arnold Sommerfeld, professor of mathematical physics at the University of Munchen, who gave the advanced courses here last semester in the department of physics, has recently sailed from New York to return to Germany.

"When leaving Madison, Prof. Sommerfeld had before him an extensive program of lecturing and expert advisory work that was to take him as far as the Pacific coast, and upon his return to the east, was to include a prolonged stay in Washington in the official capacity of 'consulting physicist' in the Bureau of Standards," said Prof. A. R. Hohlfeld.

During the semester, while lecturing at the university, Prof. Sommerfeld used week-ends for visiting the Universities of Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois and Northwestern, speaking thirteen times at these four institutions. "A general lecture of more popular character was also given before 'Deutsche Literarische Gesellschaft' of Milwaukee. In Milwaukee Prof. Sommerfeld spoke in German, whereas practically all of his other lectures and addresses were given in English," Prof. Hohlfeld stated.

During February and March, after his departure from Madison, the German scientist filled engagements at the University of Kansas, the Institute of Technology at Pasadena, Cal. (speaking there 11 times), the University of California (10 times), Colorado College, the A. and M. College at Ames, Iowa (3), Washington, D. C. (speaking 10 times at different institutions) the General Electric Co. at Schenectady, N. Y. (2), Harvard university (4), Cornell university (2), Columbia university, and the Western Electric Co. of New York.

"Considering the railway travel involved in this program and a considerable amount of sight-seeing, social obligations, and personal conferences with American scientists, this program of 46 lectures in two months represents a strenuous performance, even according to American standards," declared Prof. Hohlfeld.

This professorship was established from private donations of Wisconsin citizens in memory of Carl Schurz, the German-American scholar and statesman who had once been a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin and who, after a life of conspicuous service as United States senator, cabinet member, and American ambassador abroad, had died in 1906. The first incumbent of the chair, which normally calls for a semester's service every other year, was Prof. Kuehnemann, representing German literature in 1912. His successor was Prof. Moritz Bonn who lectured in economics in 1915. Since then the chair had necessarily to be left vacant until the appointment of Prof. Sommerfeld for the first semester of 1922-23.

Prof. Sommerfeld was born in Aoenigsberg, East Prussia, in 1868, and took his degree of Ph. D. at the university there in 1891. After previous appointments in the University of Gottingen, the Mining Academy at Clausthal, and the Theological College at Aachen, he accepted in 1906, the position which he holds at present, a professorship of theoretical physics at the University of Munchen. "Among his numerous publications dealing partly with theoretical and partly with technical problems, the best known is his fundamental work on 'Atomic Structure and Spectral Analysis.'"

Most of the literary society representatives have already been chosen, and will compete in the final contests. Those defeated in society tryouts are eligible to try out again in the open event. All freshmen, both men and women, are eligible to compete.

The judges of the various contests will be members of the University speech department. Prof. O'Neill requests that all those intending to enter the event sign in his office on the second floor of Bascom hall.

PLAN RAIL SHOP HERE

Call Conference to Remove Baraboo Roundhouse to Madison

The reported removal of the machine shops of the Northwestern railroad at Baraboo and Elroy to Madison took on added significance yesterday with the rushing to completion of plans for the erection here of a 30-stall roundhouse, a modern machine and repair shop, car foreman's shops and a railroad ice house, at a total cost approximating $500,000.

While no locations have been determined, according to F. J. Zoelle, general passenger agent here, it is believed that 60 acres of land owned by the company near Monona Yards will be used for this purpose.

A conference of city officers and local railroad officials may be held sometime next week, when administrators of the road and engineers who are planning the extensions here arrive from Chicago. Local railway officials called upon Mayor I. M. Kittleson today to make arrangements for the meeting of the two groups.

City Engineer E. E. Park, Water Supt. L. A. Smith and Mayor Kittleson will probably meet with the railway men.

Parkway Has Good Film in Love Picture

"LOVE IN THE DARK"

A Metro Picture
Featuring Viola Dana
Presented at the Parkway
By CHATTY

The title is a misnomer; but it is attractive bait for a good picture,—good because it is soothing, not too subtle, and doesn't make you think too hard.

Viola is a will o' the wisp—an Irish one at that. This time she's an orphan whose destiny leads her to a crook family, with a wonderful baby. Babies are her self-confessed specialty, and when the cops get after the crook and his wife, she takes the youngster and leads the world in the battle between them.

The story is the usual and customary Dana type, and there is nothing new or disturbing. It makes you laugh, and once or twice even want to cry a little, but you don't. And there's a thrilling robbery which really isn't a robbery—you have to see the picture and get the Dana philosophy which permits of such a paradox.

But there's a wonderful baby with a vocabulary that would make Ring Lardner blush with the pangs of provincialism. He's the best argument for seeing the picture, and that you ought to do, because it's good.

And there's the style show, of course, we don't know much about such things, but the lady who was with us is looking over our shoulder as we write and says you simply must see the yellow crepe and organdy creation. We humbly deliver the message.

Mrs. Montgomery to Talk at Chadbourne This Noon

Mrs. Montgomery is editor of the magazine, "Missions," and was moderator at the Northern Baptist convention, being the only woman to hold this position.

Castalia Will Substitute Dancing For Business

AS YOU WERE

Richard Barthelmess, playing in "The Bright Shawl", is being presented at the Strand theater this week and not at the Parkway, as was stated in yesterday's issue.

"Nice People" Closes at Orpheum Tomorrow

The opening play presented by The Dorothy La Vern Stock company at the Orpheum this week closes with the two performances tomorrow. There is a delightful irony to "Nice People," in fact it may be classed as a satirical comedy because it pokes fun at certain phases of our society system as it exists today. But "Nice People" furnishes an evening of clean, unusual enjoyment and as such stands head and shoulders above some of the recent comedies.

"TURN TO THE RIGHT" Next week.

"Turn to The Right" the famous fun classic which comes to the Orpheum all next week starting Sunday matinee presented by the Dorothy La Vern Stock company is the kind of play that warms the hearts of the most hardened amusement seeker. It tells a quaint and amusing story of the effort to "go straight" of a young man who has just finished a term in Sing Sing prison, and who returns to his home in a little New England village just in time to save the old homestead from being sold for debt.

Two New York crooks, a safe-blower and a pick pocket, old pals of the young man, arrive in the village, meet the simple, kind hearted little gray-haired mother of their pal, and stick to the finish in the battle against the village skinflint.

"I'd go to hell for that old lady" remarks the roughneck safe blower—and around this sentiment hinges the entire story of the play, a masterful influence of a sweet, old country mother and three youngsters who have steadily been jogging the wrong trail. The safe-blower and the pick pocket flim flam the skinflint—and in other astonishing and ridiculous ways save the day for Mother Bascom, until the three young men, through the organization of a syndicate to sell mother's peach jam, find the straight and honest trail to riches and happiness.

LIBRARY SCHOOL WILL HOLD MAY DAY EVENT

The annual May Day festival of the Wisconsin Dairy school will be given tomorrow morning. Dr. John Walker Powell, head of the Milwaukee division of the university extension department and extension lecturer for Browning, will deliver an address, "The Browning Lover," at 10 o'clock in the Library school lecture room on the second floor of the Madison Free Library.

During the morning the Library School rooms will be open to the public. In addition to an exhibit of rare first editions of Browning with complete sets of his works and illustrated display of posters made by the Library School students will be shown.

An informal reception will follow the lecture.

S. G. A. GIVES SECOND PARTY

Hare and Hound Chase Will Be Conducted By
District 3

A regular hare and hound chase is to be held this Saturday at 3 o'clock by District number 3 of the S. G. A. district system, under the direction of Lorraine Moody '25. This is the second S. G. A. district party that has been held here, both having been for District 3. The great success of the first party, "Raggedy Anne," which was held March 10 lead the committee in charge to plan another party to bring all of the girls of that district together again in an informal way.

The party will meet at Lathrop at 3 o'clock and the hares will start out promptly. The hounds will leave shortly afterwards in hot pursuit. The charge for this party is 25 cents.

District 3 is one of the 12 S. G. A. districts under the system which has been used this year for the first time. The section includes W. Johnson, Orchard, W. Washington, Mound, N. and S. Mills, and Dayton streets.

"We hope to have the hare and hound chase bring all of the women in that district together, and form many acquaintances among people who live near each other," said Lorraine Moody in speaking of it.

Announcements are being sent to all of the organized houses in that district by the committee in charge.

o'clock without being accompanied by a chaperon.

Those in favor of this recommendation argued that since the rule was not working out in practice, it was far better to cross it off the books.

To abolish the rule would be to lower the standards of Wisconsin women in the eyes of the public, constituted the strongest argument of the opposition to doing away with the rule.

The consideration of the secret balloting amendment to the constitution probably will be transferred either to the district system or to some other way and means of incorporation.

this year which will compare favorably with the one which went through a highly successful season last year. The team is well balanced and will win its matches through the best work of four men rather than from the spectacular work of any individual.

If Wisconsin can win from Iowa, one of the greatest milestones toward conference success will be passed. After an absence of several years from Conference competition, Iowa will break into the limelight with a strong team this year.

Ted Swenson and Hector Jansse, two of Iowa's premier tennis men, will be with the squad which will represent the Hawkeyes here tomorrow. Both men have gone through the Iowa State tourney in highly creditable manner and they will attempt to continue their success against the Badgers.

After a series of time trials and workouts, the milers were finally chosen shortly before the squad left for Iowa. Schneider, Rossmeissel, Bergstresser and Sherman will comprise the four mile team.

The mile team will be composed of men from the other teams. Tom Carter won a fast time trial last Tuesday in the quarter mile and his presence at Des Moines will strengthen the mile team considerably.

Following is a complete list of the men who made the trip: Captain Spetz, Donohue, Newell, Carter, Hilberts, Vallely, Johnson, Ramsay, Schneider, Rossmeissel, Bergstresser and Sherman.

Robert L. Benbow '24, Aberdeen, So. Dakota, was elected captain of the Varsity wrestling team for next year to succeed Edward Templin, at a dinner given for the squad by Coach George Hitchcock at the King Joy Loo restaurant last night.
