SPEARS WELCOME

Banquet

April 27, 1932

University Gymnasium
MADISON, WISCONSIN

Welcome, Doc!

I am very glad to welcome Dr. Spears as a member of the Wisconsin coaching staff. I learned to respect his ability while following the teams he coached at Minnesota. I regard him as one of the most resourceful and colorful men coaching football.

His presence on the local campus should revive enthusiasm in the game and bring the boys of Wisconsin to the state university, which will strengthen all of our athletic teams.

T. E. JONES.

I trust that Dr. Spears' arrival marks the beginning of another era of successful intercollegiate athletics at Wisconsin. To this end, I pledge the Doctor my earnest support.

WALTER E. MEANWELL.

I wish to take this opportunity of welcoming Dr. Clarence Spears to the University of Wisconsin. I scouted his teams for four years while he was connected with the University of Minnesota, and learned to respect his ability as a coach and developer of high class football teams. We predict great things for the future, and shall be pleased to give our heartiest cooperation and support to Dr. Spears in every way.

G. S. LOWMAN.

I wish to offer my congratulations to the University of Wisconsin upon obtaining the services of Dr. Spears. His ability as a football coach is without question, and I am certain that his genial personality will make for cooperation and a general spirit of camaraderie within the department which will not only make for success in football but also in every other sport.

We welcome you and offer you our wholehearted cooperation.

GEORGE W. MURPHY.
