Elected

Lester L. Kissel '25 was elected president of the Union board for next year at a meeting of that body last night in the Union building.

He will assume the direction of affairs of the board immediately and will make appointments and arrangements for next year's plans before the close of the present term.

Flickinger '26, treasurer; and John M. Souerby '26 custodian of the Union building.

A pamphlet explaining the various activities of the board will be published during the summer for distribution among freshmen at registration and for mailing purposes to interest new students. The pamphlet will contain a history of the board's activity since its founding and a summary of the probable functions for next year.

Plan Freshman Smoker

Plans for next year's activities will be taken up at the final meeting of the year next Tuesday. At that time preliminary arrangements for the quadrennial University exposition will be discussed and also the concert series for next fall. ## WOODBURY GIVES TALK ON EMERSON

Personal Friend of Emerson, Thoreau, Alcott Tells of Characters

"The most revolutionary, ethical force ever let on these shores—that was Emerson." This was the statement of Charles G. Woodbury, personal friend of Emerson, Thoreau, Alcott and other writers of that time in his address on "Emerson and His Friends" yesterday in Bascom hall. "When we met him we felt that in this busy and material world, we were in the presence of a man of all ages, like whom there have been only eight or ten since the beginning of time."

Mr. Woodbury tried to give a more personal and actual picture of Emerson than is generally held. "He was a gentleman of the old school, noble, composed, self-reliant combining electric originality with Yankee common sense, genial, gentle, a mild mannered old youth."

"Emerson never had a real boyhood," Mr. Woodbury said, "but he had eternal youthfulness. He reversed the ordinary process and while others grew older, he grew more youthful with increasing years."

Mr. Woodbury gave many personal reminiscences of Emerson as he knew him and spoke also of his friend Thoreau, "the keenest observer of nature that ever lived. He lived according to the theories that Emerson suggested and as a result the woods, the fields and the flowers were as an almanac to him," he declared.

New Pledging Plan Made By Skull and Crescent Society

At a recent meeting of Skull and Crescent, sophomore interfraternity society, it was voted unanimously to delay pledging into the organization until the end of the first semester.

The action came as the result of agitation on the part of campus leaders to do away with the evils which they declare result from pledging the first thing in the fall.

Inner Gate, a similar organization, has not as yet voted in favor of the new plan.

"Under the old plan of pledging, men are pledged hurriedly in the fall before it is known if they are the kind who will stay in school and not drop out their first year," Russell Coleman '26 president of Skull and Crescent said. "In the hurried competition with Inner Gate to pledge men first mistakes are often made. Under the new system, the societies would have a whole semester in which to judge and pick the best men."

"Skull and Crescent hopes that Inner Gate will join in the scheme which cannot succeed unless both organizations co-operate on the project," Coleman said.

SWINGOUT PLANS ARE COMPLETED

To Announce Mortar Board
Elections When Classes Assemble

Elections to Mortar board will be announced at the senior swingout to be held at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow evening on the upper campus when women of all classes assemble to pay tribute to the graduating class.

In announcing the basis on which election to mortar board is made, Margaret Callen '24, president of Mortar Board said. "In electing women to mortar board, three points are equally stressed. These are character or personality, scholarship, and service. The scholarship standard is 85, and in the elections this year it has not been lowered in a single case."

The definite line of march for the procession of the classes was announced yesterday by Clara Hertzberg '25, co-chairman of the senior swingout.

The juniors will start the procession when, dressed in white, they come from behind Bascom hall bearing the daisy chain. They will come in two lines, one on either side of the green and will walk as far as the knoll on the lower part of the upper campus. Here they will turn to face each other holding the daisy chain and forming an aisle through which the other classes will walk.

When this procession has finished the seniors, lead on one side by Dean Nardin coming from North hall, and on the other by Margaret Callen, president of Mortar Board coming from South hall, will go through the arch on either side of the campus, then turn and walk down the hill until they come to the lower arch, where they will turn and face each other and go by fours through the aisle made by the daisy chain.

When the march of the classes has been completed, the members of all the classes lead by the Glee club, will join in the singing of the general class song, a farewell to the seniors, which has been composed by Esther Fifield '25. Following this, the Maypole dance, in which 16 sophomore women will take part, will be given under the direction of Ruth Klinger '25.

STOLEN'S DECISION TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW

Judge O. A. Stolen will give his decision on the charges of manslaughter against Patrick Powers, policeman who shot and killed Peter M. Posepny '25 on the night of May 12, when the court meets tomorrow morning. The case has been under advisement since May 23, when the preliminary hearing was held by the court.

During the war in 1918, Professor and Mrs. Slaughter were members of the Italian commission of the American Red Cross, serving in Italy, and he had the commission as major.

He was born at Brooklyn, Indiana, October 3, 1860. He received degrees from Berlin and Munich after graduating from DePaul university, and later receiving a fellowship from Johns Hopkins university.

ANNOUNCE VARSITY NIGHT PROGRAM

Each Class to Have a Corner of Campus For Bonfire Ceremony

As part of the program for Varsity night, next Friday, each member of the four classes will assemble, for the bonfire ceremony in the corner of the lower campus marked for his class, according to Fred Gustorff '25, Interscholastic chairman.

"Instead of burning the freshman caps, let them be kept as relics of days to be remembered," Virginia Sinclair, president of the freshman class said last night.

"When the fire is to be lighted, Walter A. Frautschi, president of the senior class will escort Miss Sinclair to the center of the lower campus, and the great mound of material will be lighted by the freshman class president," Gustorff said last night. The fire is to be roped off to prevent injury during the snake dance which begins as soon as it is blazing.

The program for Varsity night is as follows:

6:45—Award of W's, award of basketball charms and announcement of the winner of the conference medal, on Lincoln terrace.

7:30—Interfraternity sing, announcement of winners, and welcome of freshmen by Walter A. Frautschi, president of the senior class, on Lincoln terrace.

8:30—Assembling of the classes on the lower campus, lighting of the bonfire, snake dance by the freshmen, and singing of Varsity.

Plans for the Interfraternity sing are well under way, and 16 fraternities have signed up for participation in the sing, according to Ralph Smith '25, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Auto Accident on Langdon Street Injures Students

As the result of a collision between a Ford roadster and a Ford touring car at the corner of North Henry and Langdon streets, Edna Walter '25, in the school of journalism, was cut about the head and had several front teeth knocked out, and Grover Bruns '27, Course in Commerce received severe scalp wounds, according to information received from the infirmary last night. It was not known whether or not Bruns had received internal injuries.

The accident happened as the two Fords were passing each other. The front wheel of the roadster caught between the body and the rear wheel of the touring car. The roadster minus the front wheel was swung in towards the curb where it came to a stop with its occupant unharmed.

The clinging front and rear wheels acted as a pivot and the touring car was swung directly across Langdon street. When it reached this position, the rate at which it had been travelling was sufficient to roll it over, one turn and a half.

CADETS TO MARCH ON MEMORIAL DAY

Program Will Start at 11
O'Clock on Lincoln Terrace

The Memorial day program which is to be held on the upper campus at the foot of Lincoln's statue will begin at 11 o'clock Friday morning upon the assemblage of the parade and the war veterans who will be guests of honor for the occasion. The exercises will be conducted by Jesse L. Meyers, and Commander Lucius T. Fairchild Post, G. A. R.

The cadet corps will assemble on the lower campus at 8:30 o'clock for the president's review, at which time commissions and awards for the individual and company company competitions will be given. The cadet officers for next year will be announced at the same time.

Following the review, the corps will march to Wisconsin avenue where the parade will form. Together with the national guard, the G. A. R. post, the Spanish war veterans, the American legion, and other societies, the corps will march around the square, up Wisconsin avenue, and down Langdon street to Lincoln terrace.

The program will begin with the invocation by Rev. H. C. Hengel. Following the invocation an address on behalf of the city will be given by Michael B. Olbrich, introduced by President Birge, followed by an address on behalf of university, given by Brigadier-General Amos A. Fries, U. S. A., introduced by Major J. H. Mathews, O. R. C.

SEATS FOR DANCE DRAMA AVAILABLE

Are on Sale at University
Pharmacy and at the
S. G. A. Office

A number of rush seats will be placed on sale at the open air theater for the Dance drama, announced Dorothy Dodge '24, who is handling ticket sales. Seats will be sold at 75 cents and reserved seats at a $1 each. Reserved tickets are on sale now at the University pharmacy and the S. G. A. office.

Settings for the production in the open air theater are now being arranged by Margaret D'Houbler, director of creative dancing, and Janet Cumming '24, assistant director. Plans include backgrounds which will merely suggest the theme of each number. A piece of silver cloth will represent the queen's mirror to be used for the drama "Fantastique." The last number concerns the story of a hunchback's hopeless love for a young Spanish princess. All the action will be interpreted through dancing.

"I am the Cat" is a special dance arranged for this year's drama. It is a part of the nursery rhyme dances which are being staged again this year at the request of those who attended the Dance drama last year. Captain Bing and his pirate gang will be an entirely new number. "Jolly Peter" will be a solo dance of a less serious type, "Harlequinade" "Old King Cole," Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy, Father Goose and "Little Miss Moffett" will be made into dances and have been planned by the directors as a contrast to the "Song of the Volga Boatmen," "Tarentella," "Arachne," and the climatic tragedy of "Fantastique."

ATHLETICS IN THE
COLLEGIATE WORLDBADGER NINE TRAINS
FOR DECIDING GAME
WITH WOLVERINES

Wisconsin, Second in Conference, Must Beat Michigan to Win Title

Wisconsin's baseball team, after defeating Northwestern Saturday and losing to Notre Dame Monday, returned yesterday and put in a hard afternoon of practice in preparation for the big game with Michigan this week-end.

Coach Lowman put the men through a hard fielding and batting practice, and after that the nine engaged the Frosh in a short game which the varsity easily won. With only three games left on the schedule, the coach is working the team hard in order that they win these final games.

One of the reasons why the game was lost to the Irish was because the Badger men failed to hit in the pinches. In several instances, there were men on the bags, but the batter who was up could not connect safely. The team garnered eight hits but they were not bunched in any one frame.

The infield was also weak at times, and five errors were chalked up against the Cardinals at Notre Dame. The weakest spot is undoubtedly at first, both Steen and Freshwanger playing very erratic games.

"I think we can beat Michigan," said Coach Lowman yesterday, "but we will have to play real ball. If we do, the championship is ours."

Michigan is not leading the conference with seven wins and two defeats. Wisconsin was tied with them until yesterday, when the Wolverines beat Iowa 5 to 1 and took the lead. They have one game left to play, which is with Wisconsin. The Badgers still have two, one with the Wolverines and one with the Gophers. If they win both of them, they have first place cinched.

Ohio, the other contender, has also two games left to play, both with Chicago. The Maroons have as yet not won a game, and the Buckeyes should have no trouble in beating them. But even if they win will only have a percentage of .750. If the Cardinal team wins both of their games, they will have a percentage of .800, which would give them the lead.

Christianson, Wisconsin's hurling ace, will probably occupy the mound against Michigan Saturday, while Luther will probably pitch Friday against the Michigan Aggies. Johnson may also get a chance, but he has not been able to get started this year as in former years. In the Notre Dame game, the first five men who faced him hit safely.

This is the first time in many years that Wisconsin has had a team that has a chance to cop conference honors, and the coach would like to see a big crowd out for the two games to be played here next week.

TAGS TO ADVERTISE

WOMEN'S FIELD DAY

Green tags, yellow tags, purple tags and blue ones for the "On Wisconsin Women's" Field day will blossom out on the hill on Thursday morning when pep chairmen from the four classes distribute them to the passing classes.

So when you're hurrying up to an eight o'clock don't refuse to take a tag—they're free—there's a reason—you're supposed to put them on and wear them out to women's field day on Saturday.

Pep chairmen in charge of the distribution of these tags are Marian Rhode '27, Myrtle Oetting '26, Rhode Koch '25 and Jean Marquis '24. These chairmen will be assisted by members of their respective classes.

F. W. Westfall and Francis Stormer, youths who confessed last week to taking two cars without the consent of the owners, were placed on probation to T. C. Purcell, county probation officer, by Judge O. A. Stolen in superior court late Monday.

Versus

There's no need feeling bad about the defeat we took from Notre Dame. The Irishmen shut out Illinois to the tune of 7 to 0.

BUT Michigan routed Iowa's nine Monday and landed at the top. Wisconsin tangles with the Wolverines Saturday, and it will be a case of come or bust for the Badgers.

FURTHERMORE

The nine, returned but yesterday from its Northwestern-Notre Dame jaunt, hops off Thursday for an engagement with the Michigan Aggies on the following day. The farmers are out for blood and hope to even up the 21 to 7 drubbing handed them by Coach Ryan's grid-ders last fall.

At last, at last! A coy little contributor eased into our sanctum yesterday afternoon and left the following jewels on our littered desk. He earnestly requested that we keep his name a secret, but he sports a Ford Coupe, is terribly handsome, goes with a red headed girl, and sometimes coaches boxing, so write your own ticket.

SAYS HE

Anyone who does not want to take the final exams may relieve himself of that task by asking Joe Steinhauer, the shriek of the baths, why he is no longer going to referee boxing bouts at Janesville.

AND

Marty Below and Gus Tuckerman, the erstwhiles, were lately in our midst. Tuck left Monday evening for New York, where he has accepted a position as general manager of the Eastern district of the Standard Oil Co. Horse collar!

* * *

Capt. Below will leave shortly for Chicago, where he has accepted a position as embryonic vice-president of the Edison Commonwealth Co. Horse shoe!

HE ALSO CLAIMS THAT

Wisconsin's elusive but willing coeds have a baseball team that is anxious to cross bats with Coach Lowman's pennant chasers.

CREW TO LEAVE
SATURDAY FOR POUGHKEEPSIE

Coach "Dad" Vail Anxious to Get to Hudson For Final Training

In spite of rough water and a brisk on shore wind the first and second varsity and three freshman crews spent more than an hour on Mendota yesterday. Just four more days remain for the varsity to row on Lake Mendota before it leaves for Poughkeepsie and the big regatta.

Bad weather has hindered the crew seriously, making it necessary to roll the scull to Monona several times during the past week. "Dad" Vail, is consequently anxious to get on to Poughkeepsie, where he can be sure of smooth water and fair weather on the Hudson.

The second crew has been getting as much rowing in as possible in preparatin for its race with one of the St. John crews Saturday. Little is known of the strength of the St. John's eight and the outcome of the race is not to be predicted.

Intercollege competition among the freshman crews seems to have dwindled down to a fight between the Engineers, L. and S. and Commerce. These crews will race Saturday to determine the cupremacy of the three.

All men on the Varsity and Frosh track squads and in the track classes are asked to be at the gym at 4 o'clock this afternoon ready to jump into their clothes for the track picture which is to be taken. It is desired that all men be on hand so as to make the picture fully representative of this year's cinder squad.

CEDAR RAPIDS TEAM
WINS MICHIGAN MEET

Captain Cuhel and the pace setting Tigers from Cedar Rapids again annexed a victory when they won the Michigan Interscholastic track meet from a large field of competitors.

With only four men the Tigers garnered 18 points, enough for them to walk off with first place. Captain Cuhel won the 220 low hurdles, and placed second in the high sticks. Leo Loftus, midget dash man, won the 440, and the Cedar Rapids half-mile relay team romped in to victory in that event.

The next event for the Tiger fliers is the Stag National Interscholastic track meet at Chicago. The dope sheet has the Iowa boys lined up to place well up among the leaders at this prep classic.

PLAYERS WANTED FOR
INTERCLASS TENNIS

Another call has been issued for candidates to compete in an all-university inter-class tennis tournament. Any man in the university is eligible to play, and competition in both singles and doubles is encouraged.

Coach Maisely is greatly interested in making tennis one of the popular sports at Wisconsin, and it only remains for the devotees of the game to give him their support.

The winners and runners-up in the tournament are to be considered in line for numerals. Matches will be called for the earlier part of next week, and as many entries as possible are desired to insure the utmost success. Entries may be made in Joe Steinhauer's gym office with the regular tennis registrar from 8 to 9, 12 to 1:20, and 3:30 to 6. These entries should be in before the end of the week.

AND TENNIS MEET

Wernecke and Tuhtar Complete Details, With Event Three Days Away

With the thirtieth annual Inter-scholastic day, which will have the state high school track meet and the tennis tournament as the main events of the program, only three days away, final details are being arranged by Chairmen Orin S. Wernecke '26 and Eugene W. Tuhtar '25, who are in charge of the athletic events.

The number of high school men who will compete in both the track meet and the tennis tournament has reached 470.

Mineral Point and Mondovi high schools have entered the class B track meet, increasing the total of entries to 23, while Eau Claire will participate in the class A division, making a total of 19 schools in this class.

Although many high school rooters from the three Madison high schools and the seven Milwaukee high schools are expected to attend the meet, officials have declared that unless university students show more interest in the affair it may be taken from Madison.

"The case is almost the same as that of the high school basketball tournament," declared one of the officials of the meet at the gymnasium yesterday afternoon. "The board of control has investigated the attendance and has found that little interest is shown on the part of university students."

"Unless a larger crowd of people come to the meet on Saturday, it may not be held here again. I cannot see why students will not attend a meet of this nature, because it is one of the few chances that they have to show visiting high school athletes the true meaning of Wisconsin spirit."

KICK OVER DOPE IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

All dope was upset in the women's tennis tournament yesterday when Robye Nichols '25, defeated Marion Streng and Esther Fifield in the women's singles, thus winning the junior class championship.

In the seniors Helen Moore defeated Elizabeth Gissal, Florened Blackmoor '26 defeated Helen Cooper '26, and Connett '27 defeated Camp '27, thus winning their class championships.

Interclass semifinals, both singles and doubles, will be played off this afternoon at 3:30. Finals will be played on Field Day, May 31. Varsity Team will also be announced at this time.

At a meeting of the management last evening teams were announced as Freshmen, Connett, Robinson and Drake; Sophomores, Blackmoor, Cooper and Bown; Juniors, Nichols, Streng and Fifield; Seniors, Moore Gissal and Jacobs.

ATHENAE WINS ANNUAL FORENSIC TROPHY CUP

Athenae Literary society was announced last night as the winner of the annual Forensic trophy, a silver cup which will be presented by the Forensic board next fall. Max Cizon '25, George J. Fiedler '24, and Carl Ludwig '26 composed the committee which made the decision. Athenae, Hesperia, Philomathia, Agricultural, Castalia and Pythia literary societies competed for the prize. The award was made on the basis of attendance at the meetings of the societies, the winning of the joint debates, N. O. L. tryouts, sophomore semi-public debates, freshman declamatory contests and the number of representatives in the intercollegiate debates.

RUN SPECIAL BOAT

MOSES STEPHEN SLAUGHTER

For 30 years one of the most magnetic, most genial and sympathetic professors on the campus has been Professor Moses Stephen Slaughter. He has embodied both the letter and the spirit of humane studies, standing for the purest scholarship and the most intimate understanding of students of every class and type. He has never refused the combat in behalf of his beliefs and his standards. At to-day's Memorial Service his personality will be reviewed by President Birge, with whom he maintained a life long contest of ideals, by Professor Showerman, his former student, and by Sterling Tracy, one of those whose spiritual guide he was. The memory of such a service is one that all students should carry away with them.

AN ATTEMPTED RENAISSANCE

A step was taken toward bettering interfraternity relationships and making more of hitherto non-essential campus organizations when one of the sophomore interfraternity societies decided to carry on its rushing and pledging at the close of the freshman's first semester instead of at the outset. Formerly both societies have been pledging just as soon after regular fraternity rushing was completed as possible. As a result, the freshmen had no idea whatsoever of what they were pledging themselves to. Gradually both organizations became mere farces, with practically no excuse for their existence save a very perfunctory social one.

When it came to the point that some of the fraternities were anxious to withdraw their membership because the societies amounted to so little but were afraid to do so because of the fear of obtaining the reputation of trying to "high-hat" the rest of the organizations, the situation became serious. In a number of instances fraternities chose their freshmen for these two societies by placing the names of the first year men in a hat and drawing to see which freshmen would have to belong. Would have to belong mind you; membership became a matter of compulsion.

As has been the case with early pledging, the membership in the two societies was usually depleted by the end of the first semester because the freshmen dropped out of school. With late pledging, however, this danger will be avoided. The original members will more probably remain in the organization at least through their sophomore year when they become "inactive." Late pledging will make it possible to fill the ranks with those men who also have shown themselves to be the leaders during their stay on the campus.

It may be argued that any fraternity organization is conducive to better feeling among fraternities just as a single fraternity convention helps each chapter if the time is spent by the brothers in doing nothing but getting acquainted by drinking themselves under the table or playing cards. But such is not entirely the case; interfraternity societies can amount to much more than that.

It would be well for the other society to follow the example of the first and decide to pledge their freshmen at the end of the second semester instead of at the outset of the first. Perhaps then the societies, which have great possibilities for performing a much needed function on the campus—of helping to settle interfraternity matters since the interfraternity council has died and of making for better spirit among the various fraternities—perhaps then the societies will amount to something, as they certainly have not in the immediate past.

VIRGINIBUS PUERISQUE

It appears from the looks of the society page in The Cardinal each day that the regulation which provides that the university drive and other local "lovers' haunts" should be patrolled has been discarded, and that if it has not, the sentries have been winking at the goings on and more power to 'em. For, as is fitting in the spring, the society page has been crowded with engagement and wedding announcements. A week ago yesterday there were as many as seven announcements; yesterday there were three and more promised for this week.

They're falling thick and fast, but don't shout, boys, the poor devils are dying. Now that last sentence should have been omitted, shouldn't it? But then, let it stand and proceed to a serious question in regard to this sudden matrimonial craving.

You have heard it brough up before, many, many times; usually by opponents to co-educational institutions and the so-called stronger sex; namely, that girls go to co-educational institutions for the purpose of finding a spouse. The conclusion which might be drawn from the evidences on the society page might bear out this opinion. At any rate, it does show that the girls find their future mates. But it does not mean that they come here to search for them; if it did, it might also mean that the men also come here with the same end in mind.

Find some girl whom you know to be honest with herself, who will not be hypocritical and who you can be sure will tell you the truth of the matter. Then ask her how many of her feminine acquaintances really come here simply for the purpose of finding a husband. She will tell you that there are mighty few who had such a purpose at the back of their minds when they decided to come to Wisconsin.

That all girls go to co-educational institutions with matrimony in view is one of the many criticisms brought against such institutions which are altogether unfounded, undesired and silly.

There are 12 more studying days before examinations commence.

Other Editors Say—

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Professor Turner was in the history department here before he went to Harvard. He will come to Madison within the next few weeks to make his permanent home here.

PROFESSOR TURNER

Like examinations the undergraduate usually takes his professors as inevitable, and the consciousness that they are devoting the best of their years to the service of youth is but rarely gained. When a professor has been connected with the University for over fourteen years, however, when he has made a host of friends and admirers among his students, the knowledge of his intention to retire from the staff becomes as a sharp reminder of all that he has done for the College and its members. And since Professor Turner has carved for himself an enviable niche in the hall of America's great historians Harvard's loss is realized by scholars and men of learning everywhere.

To those who have even barely begun the study of American history the value of Professor Turner's contribution to American scholarship needs no comment. "The Rise of the New West" focussed attention on a dominant factor in the development of the United States which had theretofore been largely neglected by historians. A grasping of the full significance of the frontier in American history, its far-reaching economic effects, its faculty of molding national character, its persistent influence in politics, is an achievement of which any scholar may justly feel proud.

After his many and successful years of research and service to the University Professor Turner can not be begrudged a well-earned holiday. And while his loss is severe, the hope arises that it will not be complete. Professor Turner is leaving Harvard, but one hopes, not the field of American history which he has cultivated so brilliantly.—Harvard Crimson.

PANTS

Pants are made for men and not for women. Women are made for men and not for pants. When a man pants for a woman and a woman pants for a man, they are a pair of pants. Such pants don't last long. If you want to make the pants last, make the coat first. Pants are like molasses,—they are thinner in summer and thicker in winter. There has been much discussion as to whether pants are singular or plural. Personally it seems to us that when men wear pants it is plural, but when they don't wear pants it is singular. If a man goes on a tear it is all right but if the pants go on a tear it is all wrong.

American Woman is Eligible For A. A. U. W. Head

The office of international president of the Association of University Women is open for an American candidate through the request of England, France, and other members of the association Mrs. Willard G. Bleyer who was a delegate from the local branch to the national convention at Washington, D. C. last week, reported at their luncheon Saturday. Miss Virginia Gildersleeve of Barnard college will probably be the candidate, Mrs. Bleyer believes, Wisconsin with its eighteen branches has more branches of the association than any other state. In all the United States there are 277 branches with 18,393 members. ## VOTE FELLOWSHIPS IN SOCIAL SCIENCE

Eight Instructors to Receive Funds to Carry on Research

Eight fellowships, totalling $25,000 a year, and enabling eight young instructors to devote their time to research in social scientific fields, and still receive the same salary that they would have earned at their positions, were voted at the recent meeting in Chicago of the Social Science Research Council, according to Prof. Arnold Bennett Hall of the department of political science who has just returned from the council's meeting.

Professor Hall was made chairman of the committee to formulate plans for these fellowships. Professor J. R. Commons of Wisconsin, Professor Ogburn of Columbia, and Professor Day of Michigan, are the other members.

"The purpose of these fellowships is to enable young instructors who have real ability in research to lay aside their duties for whatever time may be necessary to complete the projects in which they are engaged. The council will be able to pay the instructor whatever salary he would be receiving in the institution with which he is connected, with an additional allowance for any special expenses involved in the investigation. The eight fellowships are to be divided among political science, sociology, economics and statistics. The appointments will be made by the Social Science Research Council," explained Professor Hall.

Professor Hall was very enthusiastic at the success with which the council is meeting. While it was organized only a short time ago, it has already received something over $50,000 with which to further the special projects of research that the council has approved.

The nature of the undertakings that are being conducted under the direction and approval of the council is illustrated by the specific appropriations granted at this meeting. $15,500 was granted to the National Bureau of Economic Research to finance investigation being conducted by that body under direction of Dr. Mitchell on the relation of migration to the labor supply. $25,000 was appropriated for the use of a committee created by the council that is to devote itself to a "thorough scientific and objective investigation of the instrumentalities involved in the world wide gathering and dissemination of current news and opinion of international concern, and of the underlying related problems of the formation, expression and significance of attitudes on international affairs."

"This will undoubtedly be the most exhaustive and scientific investigation of its kind ever undertaken, and the present plans contemplate at least a two years' study and ultimate appropriation of $170,000 for its support," said Professor Hall.

Professor Bleyer of the course in journalism is one of the members of the committees selected by the council.

Polygon Society Donates $40 to Memorial Union

The Polygon engineering society, composed of two members from each of the student branches of the national engineering societies, donated $40 to the Memorial Union yesterday noon, at their final meeting of the year in the Engineering building.

About $60 remaining in the treasury will be kept by the society as working capital for next year. Polygon is in charge of all the activities of the Engineering college.

LAFAYETTE CLOCK PUT IN MUSEUM

Is Over Eight Feet High and Organ-pipe Attachment
Plays Several Airs

One of the most interesting of the exhibits in the museum is the La Fayette clock, the largest grandfather clock in Wisconsin, which is a few inches over eight feet high. This clock has a wooden dial and the face is carved and painted with floral and hunting scenes. It was made in Neustadt, Germany, about 1770 by Johann Schoepperle, a famous clock-maker. This clock, has a musical organ-pipe attachment and plays several airs.

It was brought to Boston before the American Revolution and stood in a house on Beacon Street. During LaFayette's second visit to America he was entertained at this home, and the clock played for him. Afterwards it was bought by George W. Lyon, of the Lyon and Healy musical firm, and brought to Wisconsin by one of the members of that family.

A new series of posters of the London underground railways is being displayed in the corridor of the State Historical museum. These advertising posters are perhaps the finest in the country for artistic quality, according to Mr. R. A. Brown.

Dr. John Edward Ochsner of Chicago, a noted surgeon, has presented 18 etchings to the University of Wisconsin which are on display in the auditorium of the State Museum. Dr. Ochsner is one of the most distinguished of Wisconsin alumni.

A collection of material from the cliff dwellings in the southwestern part of the country, especially New Mexico and Arizona, has been presented to the State Historical Museum by Senator W. A. Titus of Fond du Lac, a member of the University Board of Visitors. This remarkable collection of cliff material is being exhibited in North hall.

—De Longe Studio A sandwich man, or boy, will parade the field at the interscholastic meet announcing the presence of a booth and food. In his hand he will carry one of the tempting sandwiches to be sold.

The booth, beside the field house, is to be attractive. From one wall will frown the terrible blue dragon, vomiting forth a fiery 24. Opposite him will hang the gaudy yellow tassel of the junior women. The menacing red gauntlet will point across at a demure green button, and the cardinal will wave supreme.

The arrangement for the field sale is in charge of Marion Bigelow '27, Lorraine Maytum '26, Harriet Graham '26, Helen Mueller '27, Halycon Lallier '26, and Marian Hanna '26.

Says Dairying Now Helps Raise State Out of Depression

from the depths of "depression," helping to lift the entire state. "Today we see the dairy industry Dean H. W. Russel said recently in reviewing the position of Wisconsin as a dairy state.

"By marketing crops through livestock, this state has carried on during periods of hard times. The diversified system of our farming has become the ideal of many states less fortunately situated," according to Dean Russell.

The development of the dairy industry has been due to a great extent to the climatic conditions and location, according to Russell. The great number of lakes and rivers causes a cooler summer temperature which improves the keeping quality of the milk.

Of Ten Women in Law, Two Elected to Order of Coif

The first women ever elected to the Order of the Coif, an honorary legal order, were Miriam Frye '24, and Beatrice Walker '24. They were initiated into the order last week with six senior men.

The name Order of the Coif is taken from that of an ancient English order composed of Sergeants of Law representing the highest rank in the legal profession, and from which the judges were once chosen. The Wisconsin chapter of the Order of the Coif originated seventeen years ago, its membership being based on meritorious work. Until this year no women were elected.

The women elected to the order are two out of the ten women now in the Law school. The others are Irene Higgins '26, Cecilia Doyle '25, Cornelia Heise '24, Gene Thompson '27, Elizabeth Brandeis, grad., Helen Conway '25, Cecilia Skrentny, special student and Adeline Meyer '26.

Including the number this year, there have only been forty women in the Law school since 1895.

Student Paper at Texas Has Speed, Extras, Accuracy

That the staff of the Daily Texan, student newspaper published on the campus of the University of Texas, works with the speed and precision of regular newspapers is shown in the extras which they put out when news breaks.

Four extras were put out by the staff during the session of 1923-24. The first gave all the details of the great Stadium drive, the second was issued when Oscar Eckhardt, star football player was declared ineligible, and two were put out when the head of the university was selected.

Thirty minutes after the board of Regents offered the presidency of the university to Governor Pat Neff on May 16, resulting in the immediate resignation of two regents, the Daily Texan extras were being distributed to students at the Texas-A and M baseball game. One hour later when Neff telegraphed his refusal and Dean Guy Stanton Ford of the University of Minnesota was offered the position the Daily Texan printed a second extra which was distributed on the campus and the streets of Austin one hour ahead of an extra put out by the Austin paper.

RULES ROADHOUSES NOT DANCE HALLS

That roadhouses are excluded from the recent law passed prohibiting public dance halls in Dane county was the decision passed down by Judge A. C. Hoppmann yesterday. Frank Seymour, proprietor of the Coca Cola Inn at Interlake was arrested for permitting dancing in his establishment. However since the only music was a mechanical piano, and the only dancers his guests, it was decided that his road house or any other road house could not be a public dance hall.

Venetian Night to Be Swan Song
of 1924 Society

One of the most brilliant society seasons at the university is at an end. From now on the co-eds must be in by 10:30 o'clock on week nights and at 11 o'clock on Friday and Saturday nights. A university ruling which has been in effect for several years requires the last week end before final examinations be free from all social functions, and last week end was the final nights for affairs.

As a fitting climax to the year's events, Venetian night this coming week will be the swan song of the 1923-24 season. Lake Mendota will be made over into a street in Venice, and firework displays will be set off from boats in the middle of the lake.

The 1925 Junior promenade was the outstanding feature of the past social year. Chapmans Drake hotel orchestra played, and the colorful light effects, produced by lighting arrangements, made an imitation snow fall in the dome of the capitol building. Although the attendance, approximately 1,700, was slightly smaller than last year's prom, the arrangements were carried off better than at any other promenade.

Next in importance was the Military ball with its two orchestras, and silver sabres for favors. Many of the fraternities and sororities enlivened their formal and informal parties with novel decoration schemes. Dashing pirates from the old Spanish Main bestowed an atmosphere of the buccaneer days in the Latin quarter. Persians, Hawaiians, and cabarets were made from the various parties.

Glimpses of Persia, Hawaii and of cabarets were found in the various houses as the winter social program progressed. A new member of the campus social world was the Southern club, composed of students from Dixieland, which gave a Mardie Gras and an informal party during the year.

Summer Social Service Work is Offered to Men

That university men may do settlement work in the Bowery of New York city is the opportunity offered by the Intercollegiate branch of the City of New York Y. M. C. A., said Frederick Wolf, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday.

The term for the social service work is from June 30 to August 15. The association will pay the room and board expenses incurred in the actual fulfillment of duties after arriving in New York city.

"The nature of the work is living and working for seven of the hottest weeks of the summer in a congested portion of the East Side. Churches, settlement houses, and Y. M. C. A.'s have combined in offering this opportunity," said Mr. Wolf.

Interested men should see Mr. Wolf for application blanks.

OVERSUBSCRIBE FUND
FOR MICHIGAN A. A. U. W.

The fund solicited from the Madison branch of the A. A. U. W. to be used for the national headquarters in Washington was oversubscribed, it was reported at a luncheon given at the College club Saturday at which 200 college women were present. The amount contributed totalled $2700.

A memorial resolution for Mrs. E. N. Warner whose death occurred Friday and who was formerly an officer of the club was passed at the meeting which followed.

Dean F. Louise Nardin addressed the members on the significance of the pre-school age and the educational work which the various branches of the club are carrying on. Mrs. W. G. Bleyer reported on the Washington conference.

FRIES TO TALK ON TAMING OF GASES

Chief of Chemical Warfare Department to Speak Here Today

The story of how the destructive gases of modern warfare are being tamed to serve the country in time of peace is the substance of a talk entitled "The Ugly Duckling of Chemistry," at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, by Brigadier-General Amos A. Fries, chief of the chemical warfare service, United States army, under the auspices of the Wisconsin section of the American Chemical society, in the auditorium of the Chemistry building. This talk is open to the public.

It is expected that General Fries will bring for exhibition some recent official films of the chemical warfare service in action, illustrating the use of chlorine gas in bronchial infections. General Fries has won the Distinguished Service medal of this country, as well as the cross of commander of the French Legion of Honor, and a British decoration, the cross of Saint Michael and Saint George.

Following the talk, he will speak at a banquet to be given by the Madison chapter, Reserve Officers association of the United States at the Capitol cafe, as a farewell to Major C. S. Buck, in charge of the organized reserves of this district, and Captain J. H. Comstock and Lieutenant E. M. Sutherland of the university R. O. T. C., who have been ordered to duty elsewhere.

Corl Says S. G. A. Board Should Be More Prominent

That S. G. A. board should occupy a more prominent place in student activities and that members of board should be the leaders and responsible girls in every house was the opinion expressed by Alice Corl, president of S. G. A., in urging every member of board to attend the last meeting of S. G. A. board which will be held in Lathrop hall tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

The plans for next year's new board will be discussed in this last meeting. An effort will be made to change the character of the board so that it holds a position of real importance in student life declared the president.

Vespers, swingout, memorial day services, Venetian night and parties for the coming year are to be discussed in the meeting. The plans for re-organization will be of interest to all old members. Everyone is urged to be out for this last meeting.

URGES HIGHER GRADE HERDS FOR PROFITS

"To be profitable today every dairy herd must be above the average," said K. O. Hatch of the College of Agriculture in urging all Wisconsin farmers to have fewer and better cows for successful dairying. In these days it will pay the farmer to figure his costs declared Professor Hatch. "Even though prices of dairy products may be on a bigger level than those of any other farm products no farmer can make money on the average cow."

"Index" Sent By Extension Division to High Schools

An "index to opportunities," which points out the seven "ifs" which confront every senior in the high schools of Wisconsin is being sent by the Extension division to high school students who will graduate in June.

The seven "ifs" divide all high school seniors into the following groups: if they are to enter a university or college this fall; if they expect to enter a normal school; if they expect to enter a normal school later; if they expect to enter a teacher's training school; if they expect to enter any vocation or business; if they desire instruction in domestic art or science.

The particular service which the university extension division can render to each of these classes is shown in the directory. One of the most important services is to give correspondence work in English and mathematics required for successful entrance to the university.

Prof. Hibbard attributes high prices to the high cost of labor and said, "The prices of household furnishings, lumber and many other things the farmer needs are 75 percent higher now than before the war, while the farmer is receiving pre-war prices in most cases for his products."

Members of the University Girls' Glee club entertained with special numbers. Dr. Charles N. Mills led the singers.

Fundamentalist Leader Attacks Modern Baptists

MILWAUKEE—Attacking modernism in the Baptist church as the offspring of German militarism and rationalism, and denouncing the modernists as materialists who seek to destroy the fundamentals of religious faith, the Rev. The Bible union, known as the "insurgent conservatives" within the Baptist ranks, are prepared to carry their battle against modernism on to the floor of the main Northern Baptist convention, which opens on Wednesday, and Dr. Straton's speech struck the keynote of the minority faction.

Wisconsin Leads Rest of Nation in Cabbage Exports

Wisconsin ranked second among the states of the nation in the shipment of cabbage during the past season, records compiled by the state department of markets reveal. The Badger state shipped 5,962 car loads of cabbage, the report shows, which was exceeded only by New York.

The state's shipments for the year showed an increase of nearly 100 cars over the previous season, when 5,875 cars were shipped. An increased acreage of both cabbage and onions is predicted for the coming season. Onion shipments last fall totaled 272 cars.

The heaviest shipments were made from the southern section which includes Racine, Kenosha and Milwaukee counties. From this district there were shipped about 3,750 cars, most the balance of the states shipments coming from the northern district comprised of Outagamie and Brown counties. Leading shipping towns in the southern district were Sturtevant, 770 cars; Racine, 526 cars; Somers, 463 cars; Franksville, 384 cars and Kenosha, 336 cars.

Submit Plans For Sewage Disposal Plant to Board

The jury drawn to hear the condemnation proceedings involving the McCauley farm, site of the new sewage disposal plant, visited the land Tuesday morning and the suit was scheduled to begin in circuit court Tuesday afternoon.

The action, in which the city of Madison is the defendant and Geneva S. McCauley is the plaintiff, involves the purchase price of the 200 acres of the tract required by the city. An appraisal committee placed the value of the land at $15,000 but the city contends that the land is not worth that much.

City Atty. Roman A. Heilman represents the city and Buell and Lucas, and Olin, Butler, Thomas, Stebbins and Stroud represent the plaintiff.

The jury consists of John Auby, Edon Onsrud, O. J. Colney, William Seaman, A. R. Nelson, M. E. Brinkhoff, Ernest Marquardt, Ben Cadwick, Mrs. Jacob Lingard, E. R. Cullen and N. H. Bruce.

Outcast Greeted By Capacity Hall at St. Raphael's

A capacity audience greeted the production of "The Outcast", a four act dramatic production given under the auspices of the St. Raphael's church societies at Father Petit auditorium Monday night. Richard Krantz plays the leading role and also directs the play.

The play will be repeated Tuesday night.

Miss Barnadine Flynn, playing the leading feminine role opposite Mr. Krantz, scored a triumph in her portrayal of the heroine. She carried the audience with her noise and

Street Railway Reported Seeking For Higher Fare

It was rumored on Tuesday that the Madison Railways Co. will seek an increase in its rate of fares to secure enough money to meet the cost of the proposed paving and extension program which is being worked out by a special committee representing the city, the traction company and the state railroad commission.

A meeting of this committee was held in the railroad commission offices Monday afternoon, but no agreement concerning the scope of the program was reached.

While Dudley Montgomery, vice president of the street car company, on Tuesday denied that the company was seeking an increase in fares, the rumor still persists. It is known, also, that the question of the cost and means of payment were discussed at Monday's session. Figures submitted by the commission were considered.

"The company is not considering an increase in fares at present," Mr. Montgomery declared.

It is understood that if the increase is asked, the additional burden will be placed upon the occasional rider.

Norris Bill Wins in Senate While Ford is Downed

WASHINGTON—The Norris bill for government operation of Muscle Shoals was reported yesterday by the senate agriculture committee by a vote of 11 to 4.

A motion to report the Ford bill was defeated 11 to 5.

Favorable action was taken on the Norris bill when it was offered as a substitute for the Ford proposal.

Sen. Harrison, Dem., Miss., champion of the Ford proposal, declared after the executive session that the committee's action meant that a vote could be taken in the senate on both the Ford and Norris bills.

At the request of Chairman Norris, a sub-committee was appointed to draw up amendments to the Norris bill desired by its author.

charming naturalness. Herman Wirka plays the "heavy" part of the the play with great excellence as did Walter Buellesbach in the role of the lover.

Others in the cast who acquitted themselves with great distinction were John Bourke as the colonel; Miss Jane Ahern as the wife of the colonel; Helen Brown, a faithful Irish servant, and John Rupp as the New York detective.

The Knights of Columbus quartette, Richard Krantz, Mary Flynn, Mary Brader and Miss O'Neal furnished the music between acts.

SAYS PLAY TO BE STATE'S INDUSTRY

Means Preservation of Outdoor Assets and Replenishing of Forests

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Wisconsin's coming great industry is that of recreation, was the assertion made by Burt Williams, former collector of internal revenue for Wisconsin, of Milwaukee, before the annual meeting of Lions' clubs here Tuesday.

The fulfillment of this ideal, Mr. Williams said, depended upon the broadest vision among the people of the state—a vision like that of the pioneers, W. D. Hoard, Professors Henry and Babcock, who, he said, 25 or 35 years ago laid the foundation for the richness now claimed by the state.

This vision, to be acquired, according to Mr. Williams, means the preserving of Wisconsin's outdoor assets, especially in the replenishing of state forests; the preservation of shore line lakes in natural beauty and the maintenance of property rights of the public in them; the reclamation of the shoreline of Lake Michigan from Kenosha to Sturgeon Bay for the purpose of a public road or drive and the stopping of the pollution of streams. Fish must be restocked in the lakes and rivers and the heritage of Wisconsin may endure to the benefit of posterity, he added.

Believe Baraboo Roundhouse, Shops Will Never Reopen

BARABOO—No indication as to whether the Northwestern road shops and roundhouse will ever be re-opened here is given by officials here. Work will cease here at midnight Saturday night. The switch engine will be kept here, and a mechanic and perhaps two laborers will be retained to do light repair work. The heavier work will be done at Madison.

CHICAGO—The shops at Baraboo are the only ones which the Northwestern road will close, according to Frank Walters, general manager.

"That is a small affair which we have not depended on extensively for some years," he said.

"We are planning on a reduction in forces as our rolling stock is in good condition. This is naturally a period of light business, owing to the fact that the farmers at this time of the year are in the field preparing their crops rather than shipping them."

In Winona and Chicago many of the shop men are working five and a half days a week.

John Scott, secretary of the railway employees department of the A. F. and L. said that thousands of shopmen are on the street as a result of the slump in business.

GERMANY IS AGAIN MINUS CHANCELLOR

Resignation of Marx Throws Republic Into Temporary Crisis

BERLIN—Germany yesterday was in the throes of another governmental crisis through the resignation last night of the Marx-Stressmann cabinet. President Ebert was expected to consult the various party leaders as soon as the Reichstag reconvened, with a view to solution of the difficulty.

Chancellor Marx is continuing to conduct business at the president's request, and it is understood that the whole affair may result merely in a realignment of the ministry, with Marx still in power.

The president, in conformity with parliamentary usage, is expected to summon Dr. Herzt, National leader, and ask him to attempt formation of a government. The Nationalists however, are believed to have eliminated themselves from serious consideration through their advocacy for the chancellor's post of admiral Von Tirpitz, notorious advocate of "ruthless" submarine warfare and their refusal to accept the Dawes reparation report without reservations.

The government's resignation resulted from a breakdown of the long drawn-out attempts to construct a straight bourgeois coalition which could work with the Reichstag as composed on the basis of the recent election.

STATE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY MAY 29

Blaine Proclaims Wisconsin Day in Memory of En- trance in Union

Wisconsin day, Thursday, May 29, was proclaimed by Gov. John J. Blaine. The day marks the 76th anniversary of the admission of Wisconsin to the union. General observance of the day in the schools and colleges of the state is requested by the governor.

The proclamation in part: "May 29 next, is the 76th anniversary of the admission of our state into the union; it is entirely fitting that attention should be called to the work of the men and women of the past who laid the foundations for this great democracy of ours and to the material development of our commonwealth.

"We are all proud of our state and of her achievements, her resources and her ideals. To maintain the proud position Wisconsin holds among here sister states, it is well that we should contemplate the possibilities for the future.

"It would be highly fitting for the press of the state to review the development of this commonwealth, and to stimulate greater pride in our state and greater prospects for her future it would be proper that special consideration be given to this anniversary by our schools, colleges and civic organizations."

OCONTO—The town of How, Oconto county, has adopted an ordinance prohibiting all Sunday dances. Other townships are expected to take similar action.

"Only five boats are left out of the 329, carrying 10,000 men that were used in the whaling trade at the peak of the New Bedford whaling season," Charles J. ## Launch Move For Richmond Area to — Be Used For Park

Steps preliminary to the formation of a parks foundation for the South Side were taken Monday night at a meeting at the South Side Commu- nity church. The meeting was called to discuss the possibilities of obtain- ing lands which can be converted into a park or parks.

On motion of the Rev. E. D. Upson pastor of the Community church, Harlie G. Waterman, president of the South Side Men's club appointed a committee of five which is to in- vestigate the matter of securing the Richmond tract and the southern shore of Lake Monona for park pur- poses. The committee also will find out upon what terms the land can be purchased and the probable cost. The land is between Lakeside street and the lake from Park street to within a block of the railroad tracks.

It was explained at the meeting that most of the land along the lake shore, between the end of Britting- ham drive and the intersection of Oregon and Lakeside sts., is owned by the T. C. Richmond estate. A. W. Dibble told members present at the meeting Monday night that this land could be bought for a reasonable fig- ure and that the estate would make the terms of payment agreeable.

At 5:30 o'clock there will be a bicycle race from the library on State street, going down to Henry street and over on to Langdon and back to Park street and then down to the water front on Lake street.

On the night of the event the 9:30 o'clock curfew will not be blown until Venetian night is offici- ally over. From the time that the whistle blows people will have half an hour to get off the lake and still keep within the university re- gulations for that night.

"The dean of men and women will see that this rule is enforced and the usual penalties will occur if it is not obeyed," Gustorf said last night.

There will be a band concert from 7 to 7:45 o'clock while the people are collecting for the events on the lake front. Fifteen floats have been entered in the parade this year, more than at any other Venetian night in the past.
