The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Watuhutsiyosta

Long ago they say She-makes-the-ground-good was the name of a witch. They say she would give a warning on an issue and then she really killed. They say she would ask for something and if she was not given it, then she would say in three days there will be a grave. So one time she found the house of someone she had killed and she said, "Don't you have some leggings you could spare me?"

She wasn't given them, so right away she said, "That's it. Before three days for one of you there will be a grave."

So then the man of the house was made. He prepared himself and when she went back out, he stabbed her and cut her stomach. Her intestine even came out.

But she just said, "You hurt me, but do you think I will die?"

And then she went off. So immediately he ran back and this time he cut her throat and it was just saying "Gokay, gokay, gokay" as she bled. He-washes-them was the name of the man who killed her.
