Athletics & Academics

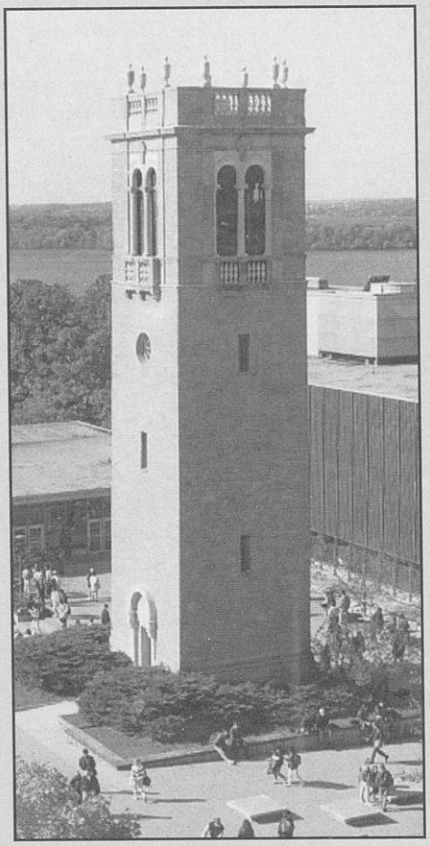
Four bowls in five years and inclusion in the AAU

Achieving national recognition in both academics and athletics is a difficult challenge for universities today. The University of Wisconsin-Madison is one of a select group of institutions that has earned praise for its work in the classroom and on the field of play.

With its inclusion in the Association of American Universities (AAU), the UW-Madison has been recognized for its solid reputation in the academic world. Indeed, only 60 schools nationally are in the AAU.

Balancing the academic requirements of an outstanding institution with the demands of collegiate athletic competition is difficult. However, the University of Wisconsin has attacked the challenge and succeeded.

Inclusion in the Association of American Universities and four bowl games in the last five years are evidence that academics and athletics do indeed mix at the UW-Madison.



EDUCATION AT THE UW-MADISON

The University of Wisconsin offers majors in 150 undergraduate, 182 master's and 125 doctoral programs. Based upon a number of studies and surveys between 1982 and 1996, the university has 68 separate academic departments rated among the top 10 in the country.

Listed below are the UW-Madison's 13 schools and colleges:

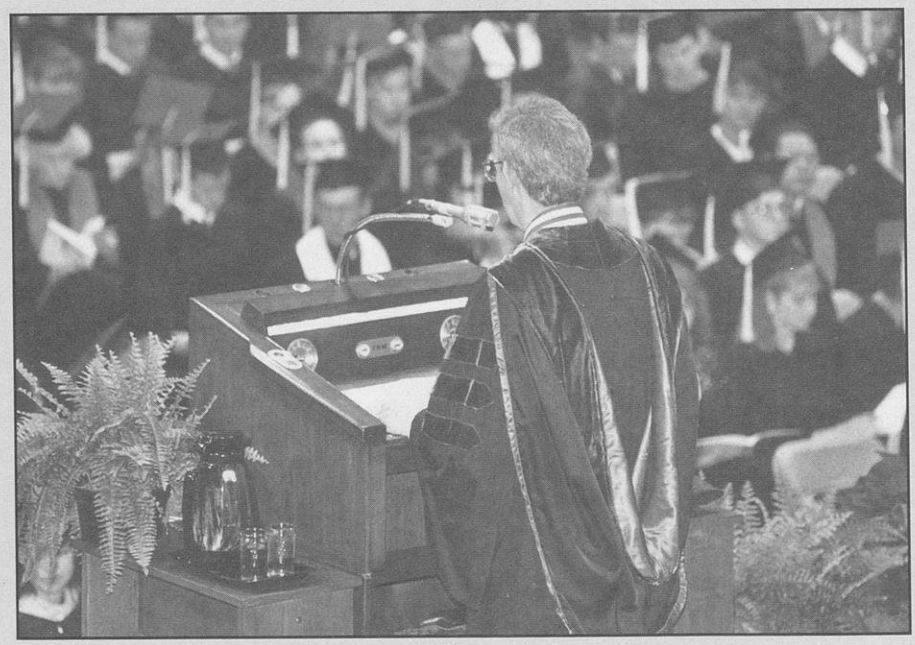
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN MADISON™



"Athletics is a connecting point among the people of Wisconsin. Win or lose, people like to talk about and reflect on sports, and they like to be a part of the excitement and camaraderie that college athletics inspires. The success of Badger athletics poses our university in the national spotlight and offers the country another window through which to view our mission," says David Ward, UW-Madison Chancellor

The UW-Madison

The University of Wisconsin, founded in 1848, is celebrating 150 years of excellence and service to the state of Wisconsin through a series of community and statewide events. UW-Madison faculty, staff, students and friends will join together with celebrants from across the state to reflect on the university's rich history and look ahead to its bright future as one of the nation's premier institutions of higher education. The signature events of the sesquicentennial are:

Statewide Commemorative Event: September 10-12, 1998

To mark the 150th anniversary of the University's charter, the governor will launch the commemorative event with the signing of a proclamation declaring the start of the sesquicentennial celebration. UW System will join UW-Madison in sponsoring the commemorative event with activities designed to celebrate the university's history and contributions.

Gala Opening Celebration: February 5-12, 1999

To commemorate the first day of classes, the opening celebration will include activities for students, faculty, staff and community members. A well-known national speaker has been invited to deliver a special keynote address at the Kohl Center. In addition, the opening celebration will feature a student event, a scholarship-fundraiser dinner, an anniversary concert and a week-long strategic planning forum.

Sesquicentennial Alumni Week: May 2-7, 1999

Starting with the International Alumni Convocation and culminating in Alumni Weekend, alumni week activities will be enhanced to include special sesquicentennial events.

UW-Madison on the Road: June, 1999

As a truly statewide event, UW-Madison faculty, staff, students and friends will literally travel to all corners of Wisconsin. UW-Madison on the Road will showcase to the residents of the state the many ways in which the university is "Your Resource for a Lifetime."

Community Open House: August 21-22, 1999

UW-Madison will throw open its doors for two days of fun, education and entertainment in August 1999. The open house will allow area community members to enjoy dozens of campus activities, from sampling a special sesqui-edition Babcock Hall ice cream flavor, to dinosaur bones, to gardens in bloom. This event has something for everyone.

"A list of first-rate academic programs at Madison would be as complete as a college catalog elsewhere. There are nearly 70 programs considered in the top 10 nationally. Some highlights include education, agriculture, communications, biological sciences and social studies. Professors at Madison are certainly among the nation's best, with Nobel laureates, National Academy of Science members and Guggenheim Fellows scattered liberally among the departments. Perhaps one of the best and most well-rounded state schools around, Madison is truly a best buy."

Homecoming Celebration: October, 1999

Grand Finale Speech: October / November, 1999

To cap off the sesquicentennial celebration, a prominent national speaker has been invited to address university and area community members.

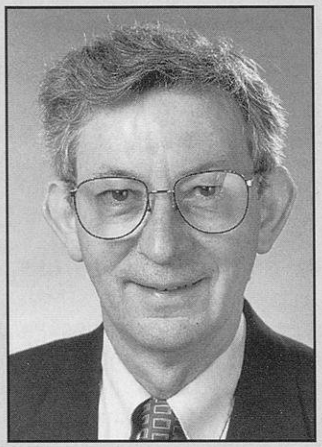
Chancellor David Ward



David Ward was named chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Madison in June 1993, becoming the 25th individual to serve as the university's chief executive. Ward had served as interim chancellor since January 1993.

Ward has provided strong leadership for efforts to improve the quality of undergraduate education. Changes inspired by Ward include: enhanced student advising, particularly for freshmen and sophomores; expanded course access; a core curriculum; and increased opportunities for undergraduates to conduct research.

The next step, says Ward, is to redefine undergraduate education, not simply through improvements of existing programs and processes, but by developing new ways for learning to occur on college campuses. To that end, he recently published a comprehensive strategic planning document, outlining priorities for the next decade as the university works toward balancing its teaching, research and outreach missions. One way the university can unify its activities, Ward says, is by emphasizing learning as a central goal.

This development of campus learning communities recently was echoed by the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Universities. In its first report, this 25-member group of university chief executives, on which Ward serves, called on public institutions to become "genuine learning communities" that are student-centered, support and inspire learners of all kinds, and sustain a healthy learning environment.

During his tenure, Ward has given new expression to The Wisconsin Idea, the venerable philosophical framework for the university's public service role. The Wisconsin Idea is embodied by a vast array of partnerships between the university and both the public and private sectors, says Ward, from economic development activity and sharing of faculty expertise, to educational collaborations with K-12 schools.

"The university's commitment to the citizens of Wisconsin is stronger than ever as we approach the 21st century," says Ward, who looks forward to marking the university's sesquicentennial in '98-99.

Ward was born in Manchester, England, and received bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Leeds. He earned a Fulbright Travel award to the United States in 1960 and received a doctorate from UW-Madison in 1963.

Ward served as chair of the geography department from 1974 to 1977 and as associate dean of the Graduate School from 1980 to 1987. He became vice chancellor for academic affairs at UW-Madison in 1989, and in 1991, he was also named provost, chief deputy to the chancellor. His UW-Madison faculty career spans more than 30 years, and he holds the Andrew Hill Clark Professorship of Geography.

As a scholar, Ward is a recognized authority in historical urban geography and has pioneered research on English and American cities during their rapid growth of the 19th and early 20th centuries. He is a past president of the Association of American Geographers. He has authored two books, edited two books and contributed many articles in leading academic journals. In recognition of his postdoctoral research, Ward was awarded the degree of Litt.D. by his undergraduate alma mater.

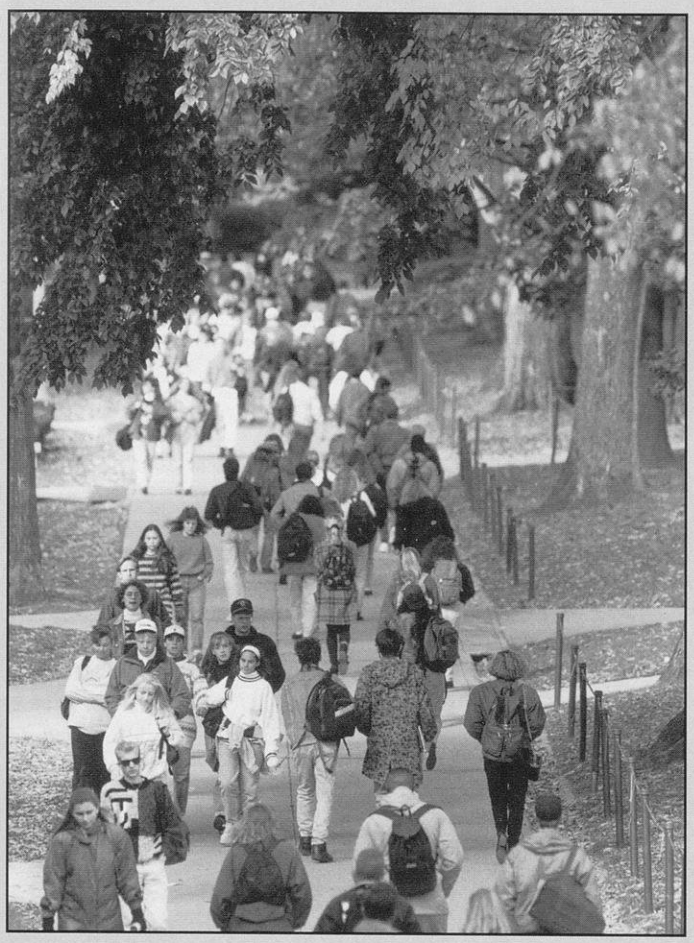
ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS FOR UW FOOTBALL

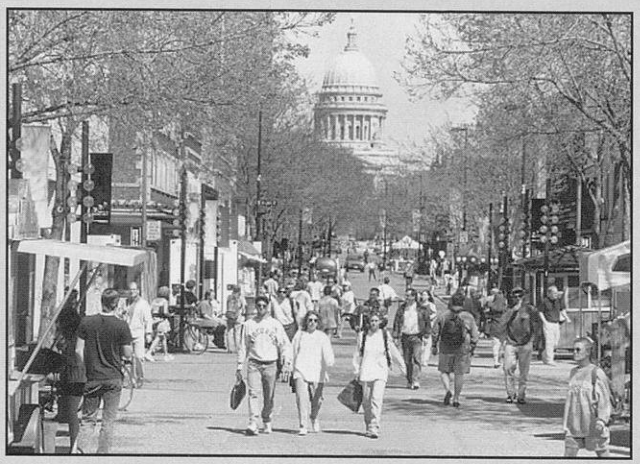
The following is a list of named scholarships that have been established to benefit the University of Wisconsin football program. These endowments, providing both full and partial scholarships, have been created by UW alumni, Badger fans and former student-athletes.

Michael & Edith Agazim Memorial Scholarship
Art Brazy Scholarship
Raymond M. and Margaret F. Davis Scholarship
Elroy Hirsch Scholarship
Lloyd Larson Scholarship
Francis A. Ogden and Mary Louis Monteith Scholarship
Kenneth M. Schricker Memorial Scholarship
Alan Ameche Scholarship
Charles H. Carpenter Scholarship
Jimmy Demetral Scholarship
John Jardine Memorial Scholarship
Robert Monteith Scholarship
Schreiner-Hoskins Scholarship
Tom Wiesner Scholarship

For information about how to create a named scholarship in men's or women's athletics or how to contribute to an established endowment, please contact Marija Neubauer or Randy Handel, directors of development for Intercollegiate Athletics at the UW Foundation at (608) 263-4545.

Campus Life





Scenic Campus

The city of Madison's lakes, rolling hills, architecture, parks and arboretum have enhanced the school's reputation as one of the nation's most picturesque campuses. A favorite gathering spot for students is the beautiful Memorial Union and its lakeside terrace (lower right photo).

Student Body

The UW's nearly 40,000 students come from every county in the state and every state in the union as well as 122 foreign countries. UW-Madison ranks fourth nationally in foreign enrollment and boasts one of the most diverse campuses in the United States.

A Capital City

Located in southern Wisconsin, Madison is home to the University and the state capital. With a population of nearly 200,000, Madison offers "big city" excitement with "small-town" charm. It is an action-oriented community that is rich in arts and entertainment.

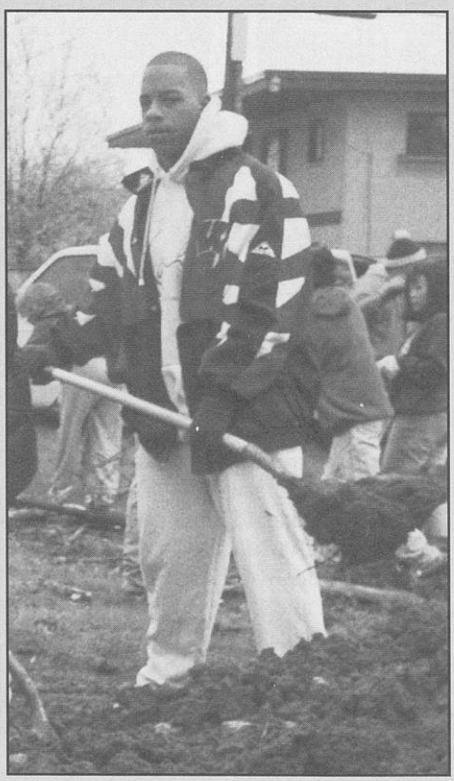
Community Outreach

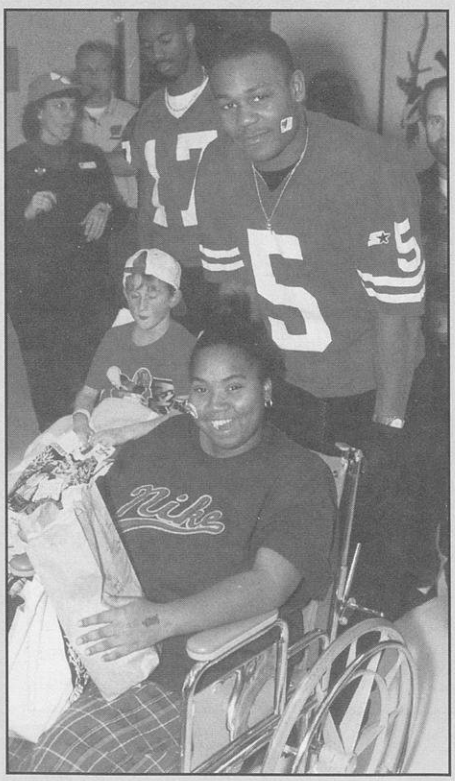
Badgers pitch in to help out Madison and its residents

The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW athletic teams and its student-athletes. In appreciation of that support, many student-athletes participate frequently in community service projects.

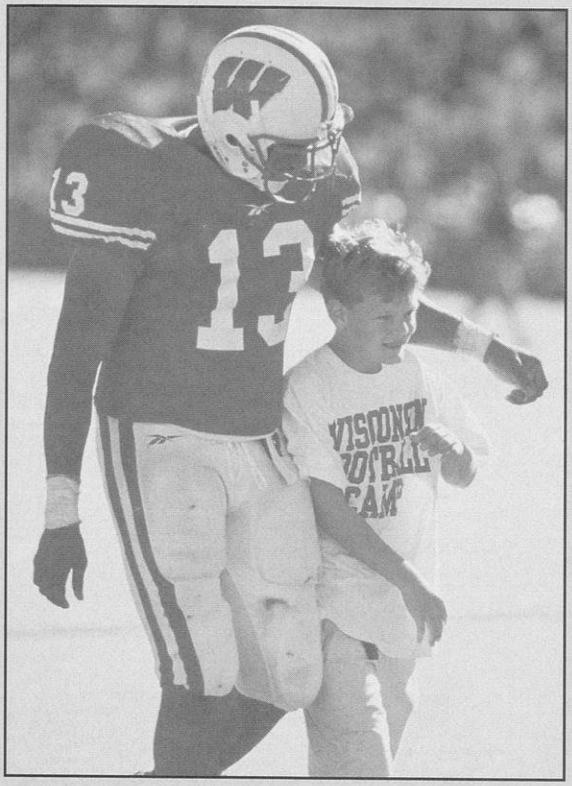
Every season, the football team works together on a community service project to give something back to the city of Madison. Among the projects that the Badgers have volunteered for recently were landscaping and cleanup days in the Eric Circle, Allied Drive and Vera Court neighborhoods. The team has also participated in several walk-a-thons for worthy causes.

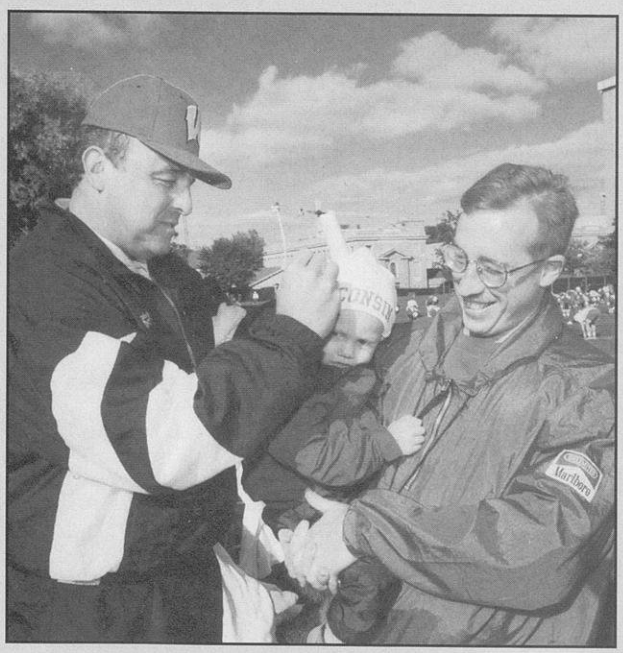
Players and coaches make appearances throughout the year at the UW Childrens' Hospital, area schools and many other charity functions and organizations.





Helping Out Others





Madison

Capital city in an energetic setting

The 390,000 residents of Dane County, 80 miles west of Milwaukee, have a vibrant economy with plentiful jobs, superb health care and a range of cultural activities usually associated with bigger cities.

Mad City, as locals call it, is also Fun City, especially if you like boats and bikes. The Mendota and Monona lakes are separated by a half-mile wide isthmus that serves as downtown Madison. Add in three other large lakes, and Dane County can satisfy any type of boating preference.

Cyclers have more than 150 miles of trails and routes to pedal. Cross country skiers glide through more than 100 miles of trails. Saturdays in the fall are reserved for rooting on UW's revered Badger football team. Another popular May through October ritual is the farmer's market. Around the corner you can catch an earful at the Madison Civic Center where the Chamber Orchestra and Madison Symphony perform, and Pulitzer prize-winning plays are staged.

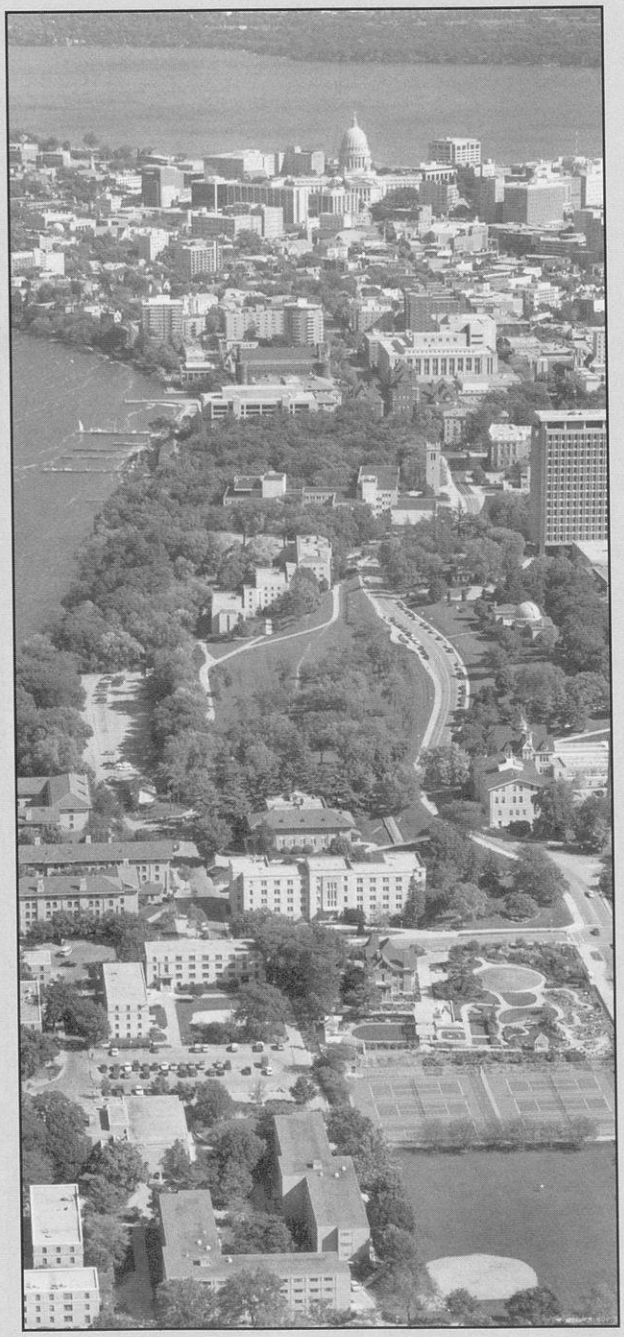
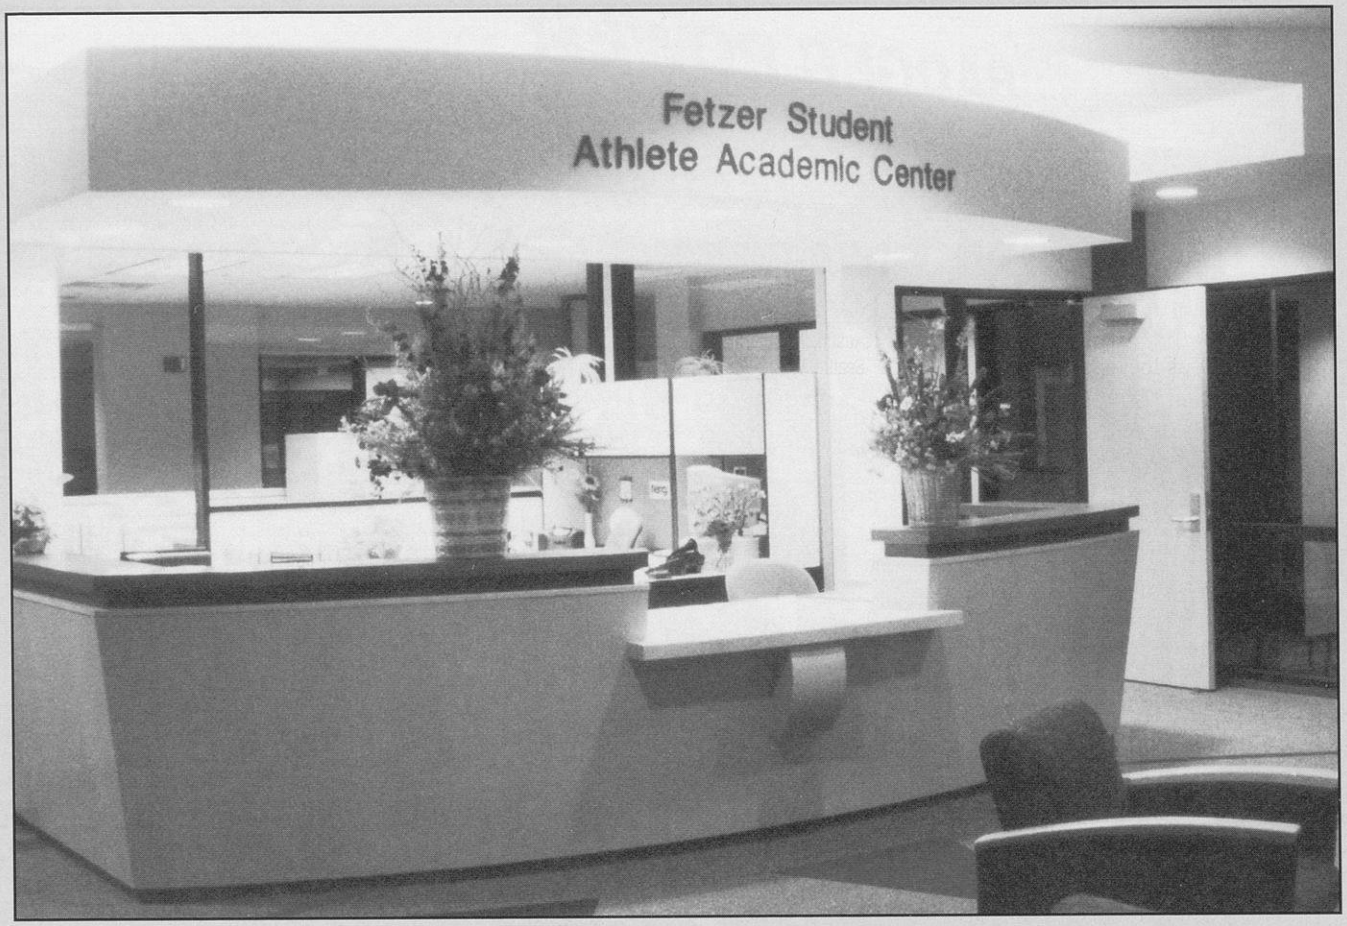
April 1995 — U.S. News & World Report ranks Madison the third-hottest city for growth.



Academic Support



Student affairs office oversees academic progress

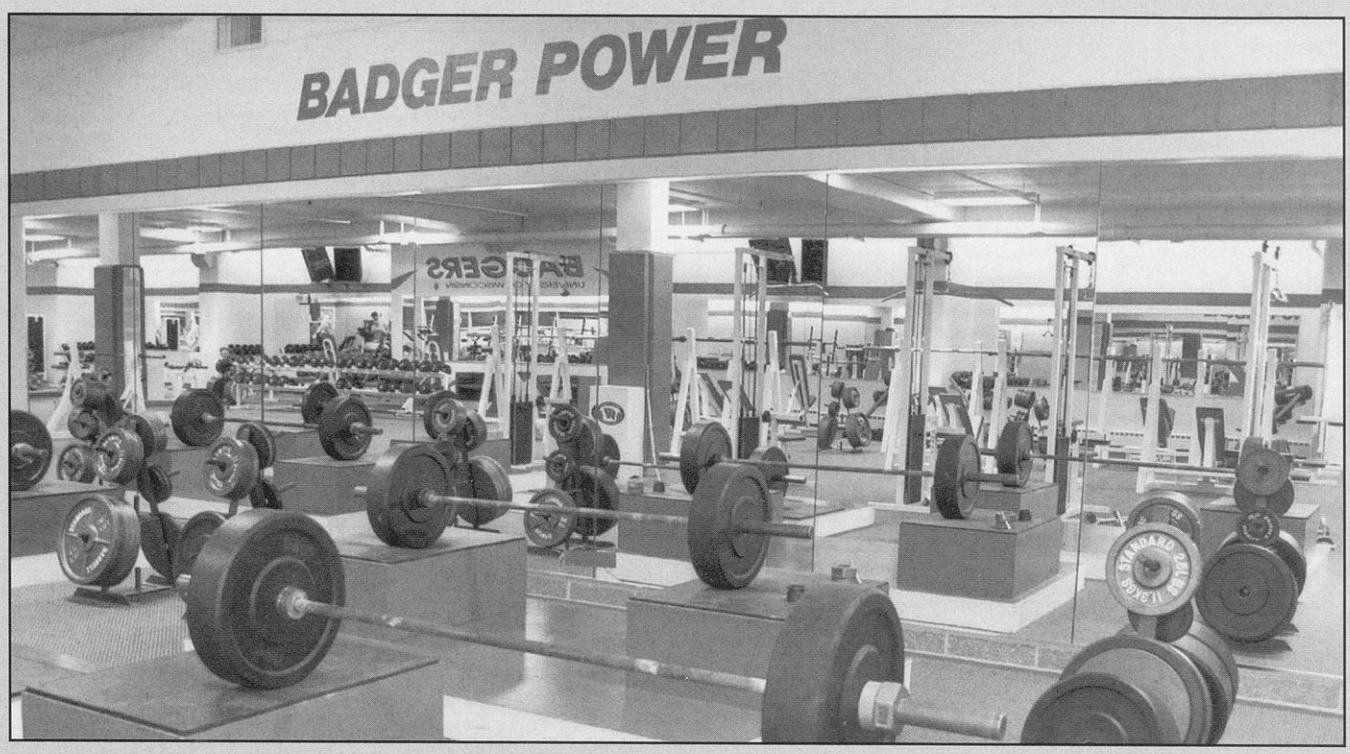
The primary objective of the academic and student affairs office is to ensure the academic success of all UW student-athletes. Counseling and advising services, plus a number of academic help programs, are offered to all student-athletes at the University.

The academic and student affairs staff assists the UW's 700 student-athletes in registration and course selection, monitoring progress toward degrees and career guidance.

Staff members work with student-athletes who desire extra academic help. The department utilizes the services of more than 100 tutors to provide one-on-one assistance or group-study help.

The department arranges for exam proctoring, offers advice on resume preparation and coordinates the grant-in-aid program. Support groups are offered to students who become medically or academically ineligible for competition.

Strength & Conditioning



Strength program builds better Badgers

The strength and conditioning program is a sophisticated blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each athlete. Throughout the year, UW athletes spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game.

During the off-season, football athletes work on strength improvement, speed, power, agility and conditioning. The in-season program is devoted to the continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

Each year when freshman players arrive, baseline measures of strength, speed, power, agility, flexibility and endurance are collected. Measures of body composition, weight and frame size are also recorded. With this information, goals are set for development and maintenance. Individual programs are established for each player.

The University also offers a sports nutrition program, which assists athletes in meeting their nutritional needs.

Free Weights

- 45,000 pounds of free weights
- 8 squat racks
- 8 bench press stations
- 8 incline press stations
- 10 flat-to-incline benches
- 4 military press stations
- 8 power clean platforms
- 6 lunge/set-up platforms

Weight Machines

- 8 pull/push down stations
- 3 complete sets of dumbbells
- 3 neck machines
- 1 arm development area
- 2 bear squat machines
- 3 leg extension machines
- 3 leg curls machines
- 1 multi-hip station
- 2 dip/leg raise stations
- 3 glute ham benches
- 1 seated calf machine
- 2 standing calf machines
- 3 stairmasters
- 3 Cybex bikes
- 8 Hammer strength machines
- 1 Nautilus assisted chin/dip
- 3 reverse hyper machines
- 4 Cybex squat press machines

Medical Support

Sports medicine staff provides total health care and support

The Wisconsin sports medicine program features top-rate facilities and the outstanding services of sports and health care professionals.

The sports medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Cybex strength-testing devices, provide dietary analyses, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

The UW is one of a handful of schools with an on-site X-ray machine, enabling physicians to quickly and thoroughly evaluate injuries.

Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A wide variety of facilities and equipment, including a rehabilitation swimming pool, Cybex equipment, the Impulse Inertial Exercise System, Stairmasters, and Fitron Bicycles, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize the loss of fitness during recuperative time.

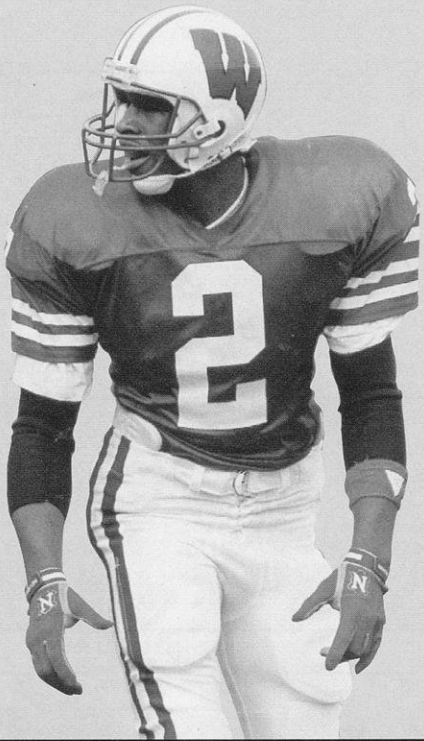
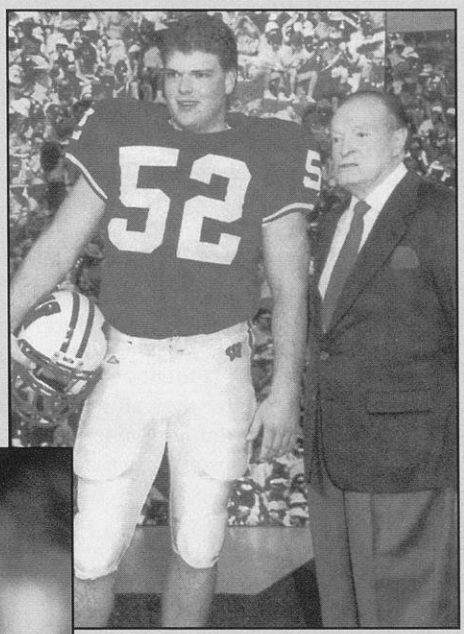
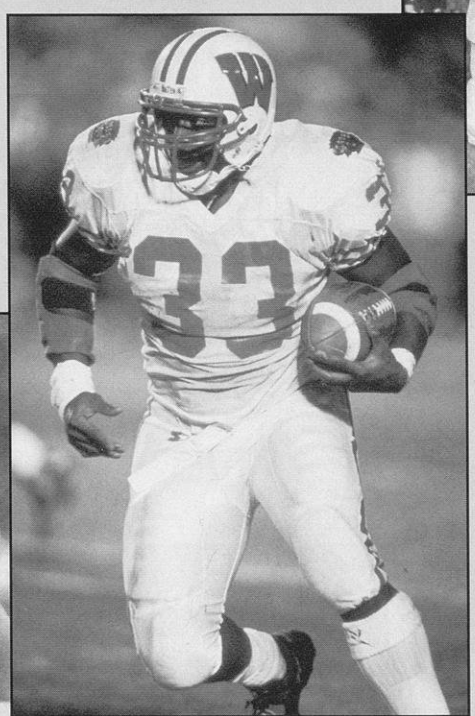
Record-setting Badgers



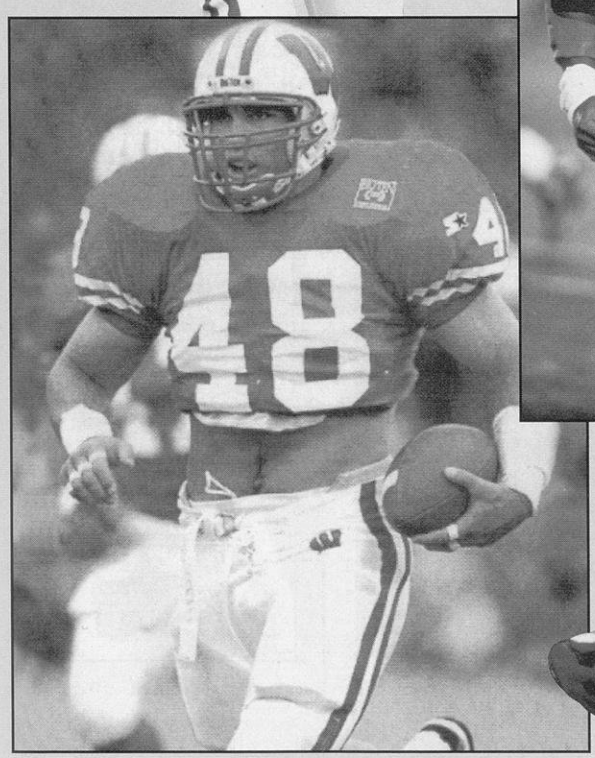
Lee DeRamus holds the season receiving yardage mark (920) at the University of Wisconsin. He signed a free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers last spring.



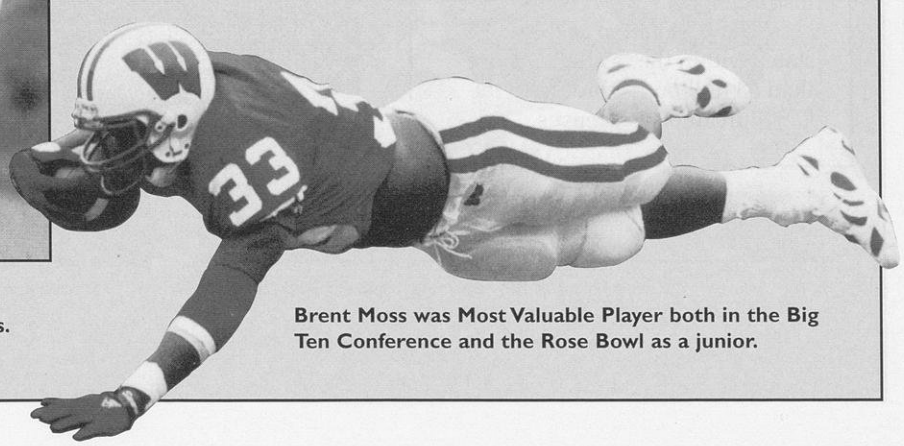
Cory Raymer, a consensus all-America center, is one of the shining examples of the excellent offensive line play during the Alvarez era. He is shown with comedian Bob Hope at an all-America television show.



Powerful Ron Dayne (left) broke five NCAA records as a freshman in '96 when he gained 2,109 yards.



Pete Monty led the Big Ten in tackles as a senior and established a Wisconsin career record with 451 stops.



Brent Moss was Most Valuable Player both in the Big Ten Conference and the Rose Bowl as a junior.

Big Ten Conference

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place with this mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness. Conference schools sponsor more than 250 athletic programs.

The Big Ten is the nation's only league whose membership is entirely comprised of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious group of academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

Facts About the Big Ten

- Big Ten schools have produced 12 Heisman Trophy winners, more than any other league, 272 consensus all-Americans and 78 GTE academic all-Americans.
- The Big Ten has led all conferences in attendance for 36 of the last 43 years. An average of 67,550 fans attended league home games in 1997.
- There are more than 3 million living alumni from Big Ten institutions.
- The population of the eight states within the Big Ten is more than 63 million, according to the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

Big Ten Bowl Arrangement

The Big Ten Conference has an affiliation with six bowl games for its member schools. The league champion plays the Pac-10 champion in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

Second-choice goes to the Florida Citrus (Orlando, Fla.), third-choice to the Outback (Tampa, Fla.), fourth-choice to the Alamo (San Antonio, Texas), fifth-choice to the Sun (El Paso, Texas) and sixth-choice to the Sunshine (Fort Lauderdale, Fla.) Bowl.

Camp Randall Stadium

Each Saturday during the fall a capacity crowd at Camp Randall Stadium becomes the sixth-largest city in the state of Wisconsin. The Badgers have sold out the facility 25 times in the last five years.

Camp Randall Stadium has been home to Badger football since 1917

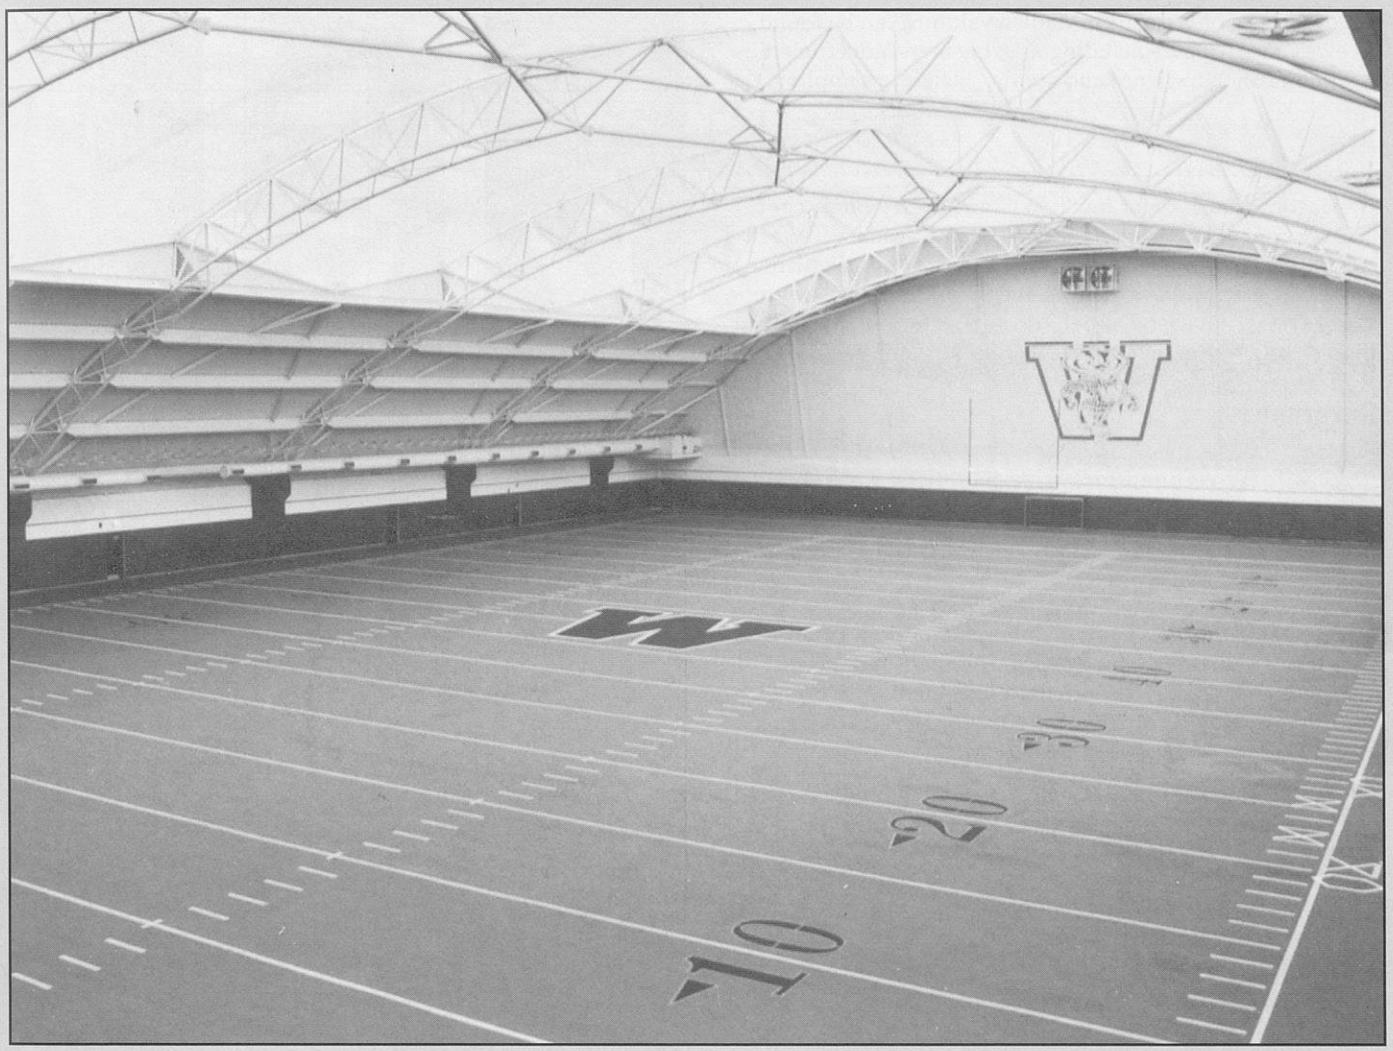
Camp Randall Stadium, built in 1917, is home for Wisconsin's football team. The 76,129-seat facility ranks among the nation's largest school-owned stadiums.

Distinguished by its impressive double-deck structure and horseshoe design, Camp Randall Stadium has been the site of 434 Wisconsin games.

Besides the field, Camp Randall houses the athletic department offices, lounges and study areas for student-athletes, as well as film, training and weight rooms and a display of football memorabilia.

The Stadium is a keystone of the athletic complex. Located on the same block on the west side of campus are the McClain Facility and the UW Field House. The new Kohl Center is several blocks east of Camp Randall.

McClain Athletic Facility



The 10-year-old Dave McClain Athletic Facility is Wisconsin's practice site during inclement weather. The Badgers' softball, track and soccer teams also use the facility on occasion.

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility is the Badgers' indoor practice site

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility, opened in 1988, is a symbol of the Athletic Department's commitment to maintaining a first-class sports program.

The 166,264-square foot facility compares favorably with the best indoor training centers in the nation. Named in honor of the late UW coach Dave McClain, the structure provides a suitable environment for practice during inclement weather.

A 76,380-square foot main floor features an artificial surface field (90 yards) with a ceiling high enough for kicking. The lower level includes locker rooms, training facilities, the Fetzer Learning Center and a spacious weight room. The second level includes a theater-style auditorium (with seating for 150), classrooms for individual position meetings and a players' lounge. The facility cost $9.5 million to build.

Walk-on Program

Walk-ons make their mark at Wisconsin

Not all high school football players earn scholarships to compete in college. That doesn't mean there isn't an opportunity for those individuals, especially at the University of Wisconsin, where walk-on athletes have a history of contribution.

Joe Panos became a walk-on success story. Panos transferred from UW-Whitewater in 1991. He changed positions at UW, earned a scholarship, became a three-year starter, captained the Rose Bowl team and now plays for the Buffalo Bills.

"Walk-ons have that extra drive because they're trying to prove something," says Coach Alvarez. "I love that spirit and determination in my players."

On Wisconsin's 1998 Outback Bowl squad, six players who started games — kicker Matt Davenport, OLB Bob Adamov, LB Donnel Thompson, FS Jason Doering, DT Eric Mahlik, and TE Eric Grams — were former walk-ons who went on to earn scholarships.

Davenport was first-team all-Big Ten in 1997 and Thompson led the club in tackles and finished fifth in the league.

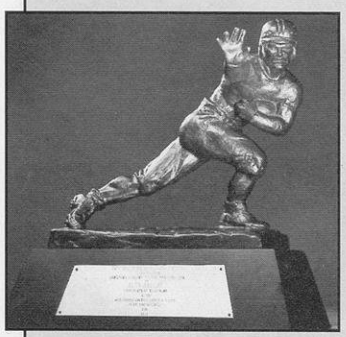
Badger Almanac

Alvarez vs. Wisconsin — Coach Barry Alvarez was a linebacker for the Nebraska teams that played Wisconsin in 1965 and 1966. In the 1966 contest, Alvarez intercepted a John Ryan pass at the Nebraska 28-yard line and returned it 25 yards. Nebraska won both games — 37-0 (in '65) and 31-3 ('66) — in which Alvarez participated.



Alan Ameche is the Badgers' only Heisman Trophy winner.

Ameche, Alan — Born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche, the future Heisman Trophy winner changed his name to Alan at age 16. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough.

Widely respected for his strength as a youth, he won the light heavyweight Golden Gloves novice championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals dropped out after learning Ameche had entered the tournament.

During his college recruitment, he was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee's Miller Brewing Co. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended Notre Dame. Under threat of boycott, Miller backed off and Ameche signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rule changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up playing 55 minutes or more in each game, prompting a nickname, "The Iron Horse."

Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

Ameche died following heart surgery in 1988 at the age of 55.

Artificial turf — The artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was first installed in 1968. Wisconsin was the second school in the nation to install Tartan Turf, which was designed by the 3M Company. The $210,000 project was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot. The initial surface turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off, so 3M sprayed the field green for the 1969 season.

Badger nickname — The team's nickname, "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the "Badger State," not because of animals in the region, but rather an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bakken, Jim — Wisconsin's special events coordinator played 17 years in the NFL for St. Louis, setting almost all of the team's placekicking records and retiring as the team's all-time leading scorer. He set NFL records in '70 converting seven of nine field goals in a 28-14 win over Pittsburgh. Bakken was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1962 draft by general manager Elroy Hirsch.

Jim Bakken

Band caps — When a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice started in the 1920s to symbolize the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Bucky Badger — Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white letter sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny,

Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal with a flying tackle. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small racoon named Regdab (badger backwards) and passed it off as a "badger in a racoon coat."

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the popular mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name apparently came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to "buck right through that line."

Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable cow. Koop argued that "kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein." Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the athletic department, Telander wore Bucky's costume at a '91 volleyball game. Telander overcame "terminal claustrophobia" in his appearance.

Bud Song — An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've Said It All," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Sandlee Publishing Corporation in 1970, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. "The crowd wanted to hear a polka," he said. "I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work."

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a TD. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud.'"

Colors — The University of Wisconsin Athletic Department's official colors are Cardinal and White. PMS 200 is the designated color of the cardinal.

Fifth Quarter — The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites, like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation activities.

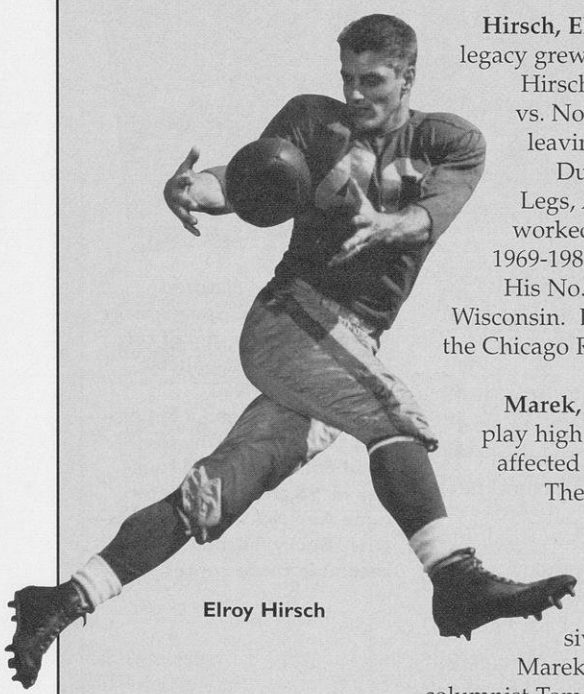
Badger Almanac

Graduating law students — At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom originated at Harvard and came to the UW-Madison in 1910.

"Hard Rocks" — The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the "Hard Rocks," led the country in total defense (154.8 per game) and was second in rushing defense (66.8). That defense allowed only 5.9 points per game and actually outscored the opponents 58-53 for the season. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to "punt on first down" so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the "Hard Rocks" scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or "meatchopper," for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors' dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.



Elroy Hirsch

Hirsch, Elroy "Crazy Legs" — Though he only played one season in Madison, Hirsch's legacy grew through 18 years as athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged "Crazy Legs" on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard touchdown run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, "His crazy legs were gyrating." After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including "Crazy Legs, All-American" in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams' front office before returning to Madison as athletic director from 1969-1987.

His No. 40, the number he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Marek, Billy — The three-time, first-team, all-Big Ten running back wasn't recruited to play high school football because he had Osgood Slaughter disease (a knee ailment that affected teenagers) and didn't play seventh and eighth grade football.

The 5-foot-8 Marek carried the ball only once as a freshman at the UW, then put together three consecutive 1,200-yard seasons. In danger of falling shy of 1,000 yards in 1974 after missing nearly three full games with injuries, Marek rushed for 704 yards in the final three games, including 304 and five touchdowns in a 49-14 rout of Minnesota. His play earned him Sports Illustrated's national offensive back of the week honors.

Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, "April Fools!" Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.

Badger Almanac

Motion "W" — When Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era in Wisconsin football. He entertained 15-20 different designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the "Motion W," which included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by all other UW sports.

Jim Mott

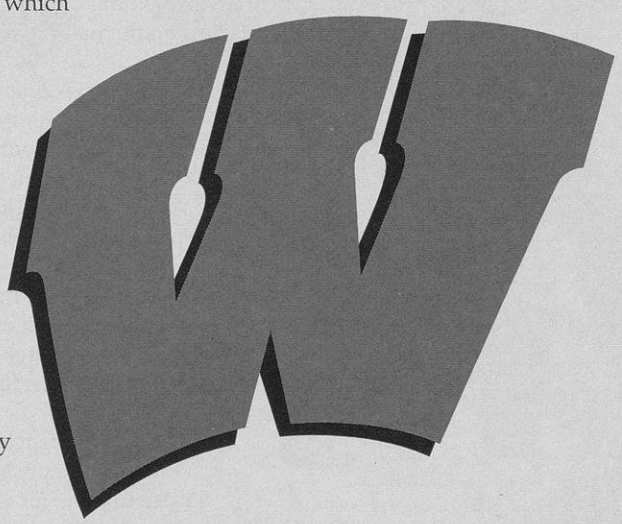
Mott, Jim — There is no greater authority on UW athletics than former Sports Information Director Jim Mott. His association with the sports information office began as a student assistant in 1953. He was named assistant SID a year later and was appointed director in 1966, a position he held until his retirement in 1990.

He is a past president of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and is a member of that organization's Hall of Fame. Mott was also inducted into the National W Club's Hall of Fame in '95.

Mott's memory is legendary among athletic department staffers. When the question of previous home night games was being tossed around the sports information office in anticipation of a 1995 contest against Colorado, Mott noted that the UW had two previous home night games in its history. Obvious was the 1986 battle with Michigan. Mott also recalled the 1896 loss to the Carlisle Indians, including the date of the game, final score, and the fact that it was played in Chicago Coliseum. Mott, a former basketball letterman at the UW, is currently writing a book on the history of Wisconsin athletics and is still a member of the school's football and basketball stat crews.

O'Dea, Pat — One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer. Known as the "Kangaroo Kicker," O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard. After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian contingent which travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he "probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France. "

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. "Probably, I was wrong," he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. "I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile."



"On, Wisconsin" — The tune was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for a $100 prize the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that

Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world. It was especially popular with military bands.

Some 2,500 schools have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. "On, Wisconsin" was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

The music was adapted by current Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. "I got a lot of flak for that," Leckrone said. "The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit."

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame,
Fight, Fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight
We'll win this game!

Paul Bunyan Axe — The most-played rivalry in Division I football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously for 89 years. The neighboring schools have met on the gridiron in 105 of the last 106 seasons (the exception was 1906). The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest for each school.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National "W" Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of Midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Slab of Bacon — The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said, "and kept it."

"Varsity" — The traditional arm-waving at the end of the song, "Varsity," was the 1934 brainstorm of band leader Ray Dvorak. He saw Pennsylvania students wave their caps after losing a game. Dvorak later instructed Wisconsin students to salute UW President Glenn Frank after each game.

Var-sity! Var-sity! U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our Alma Mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

1998 Preview

Previewing the '98 Badgers

A year of experience should aid the 1998 Wisconsin football club. Both lines return intact, while Ron Dayne eyes an all-star junior campaign.

In Barry Alvarez' football world, physical play is the recipe for on-field triumph. The ability to run the ball and stop the run are leading indicators of team success.

And success is something that Alvarez and his Badgers have become quite familiar with in the last five years.

Wisconsin has participated in four bowl games in the last five campaigns. Only 18 other schools in the nation can make that claim. Its five-year mark of 38-19-4 (.639) includes the most victories of any similar time frame in the school's modern era.

How have Alvarez and his staff accomplished this turnaround after taking the reins of a program in disarray nine years ago?

They've done it with improved recruiting, an emphasis on fundamentals and a blue-collar approach to the game.

"Historically, successful teams in the Big Ten have run the ball," said Alvarez, Wisconsin's third all-time winningest coach.

Since 1993, Wisconsin has authored a 25-4-2 record when holding its foes to fewer than 125 yards rushing. The Badgers are 21-1-1 when their ground game gets more than 250 yards.

All told, Wisconsin has won 78 percent of its games when outrushing the opponent during Alvarez' tenure. Conversely, the Badgers have won just 19 percent of their encounters when outgained on the ground.

Optimism is running high at Wisconsin this fall because the offensive and defensive lines, typically a key element for success, return every starter from '97.

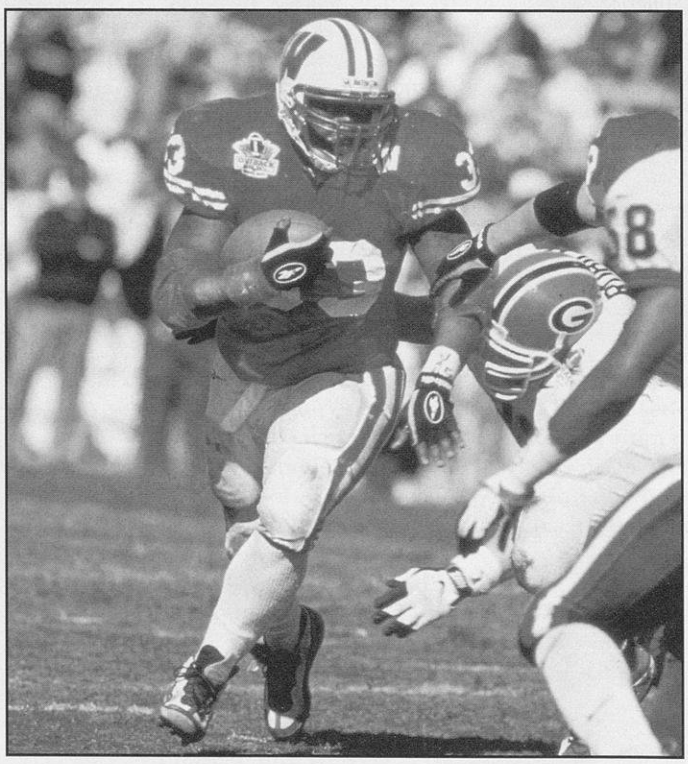
As a point of comparison, last year's Badgers had five freshmen starting among the nine down line positions on offense and defense.

A year ago, the Badgers had the youngest team in the Big Ten featuring 61 freshmen and sophomores among their 85 scholarship players.

When Alvarez opens fall camp, he will greet 53 returning lettermen. That is the highest figure in his tenure. Seventeen starters (nine on offense, eight on defense) are back for another go-around, not including all-Big Ten kicker Matt Davenport and punter Kevin Stemke.

Split end Donald Hayes and flanker Tony Simmons, who combined for 205 career catches (3,566 yards), are the lone departures from the offense's starting lineup. Each was drafted by the NFL last spring.

A position-by-position look at the offense follows.



Junior Ron Dayne needs 2,024 yards to pass Ohio State's Archie Griffin and become the Big Ten's all-time leading rusher. Dayne registered 2,109 yards as a freshman in 1996.

Tailback

The spotlight always shines on junior Ron Dayne when the talk turns to the Badger offense. The 258-pound bruiser has gained yardage at a pace that exceeds nearly every back in college history.

Despite missing 12 quarters of action due to injuries in '97, the soft-spoken Dayne made a loud statement on the field with 1,457 yards. He finished fifth nationally in rushing, broke the 200-yard barrier three times, scored 31 percent of the team's points and gained 59 percent of the squad's rushing yardage.

In only 24 games, Dayne (3,566) is already 16th in career rushing in Big Ten history and is 2,024 yards shy of overtaking Ohio State's Archie Griffin as the league's all-time top runner.

Dayne's yardage total is the second-highest (223 yards fewer than Herschel Walker) mark in NCAA history for yards gained as a freshman and sophomore. His career average per game (153.4) trails only Ed Marinaro, O.J. Simpson and Walker in NCAA history.

When Dayne needs a breather, his replacement is sophomore Eddie Faulkner. The shifty Faulkner netted 353 yards in '97 and recorded two 100-yard games. Freshman Carlos Daniels, a 235 pounder, got a lot of spring action and showed good promise.

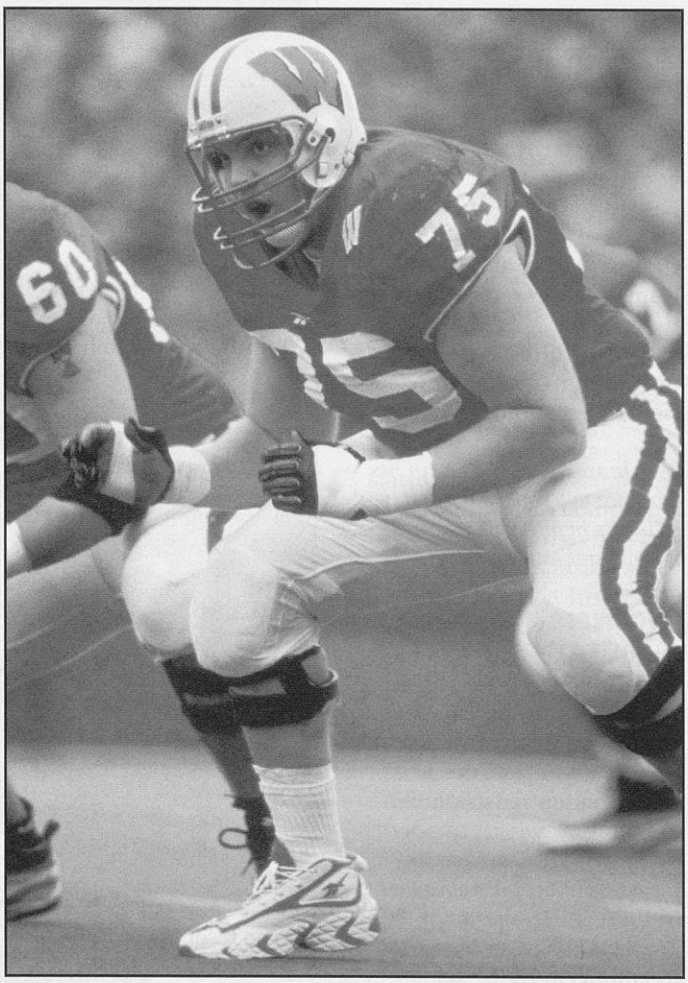
Alvarez says: "Tailback is the strongest position on our team with a bona fide all-America candidate in Ron Dayne. It's important for us to have a strong running game, and that begins with the back."

Quarterback

Senior Mike Samuel has quietly led the Badgers to 16 wins and a couple of bowl appearances in his two years as the starter. One of the toughest quarterbacks in the nation, Samuel is a multi-dimensional player with running and throwing skills.

Samuel rushed for 463 yards (not counting his lost yardage on sacks) in 1997 and scored eight rushing touchdowns, the most by a Badger QB in 40 years.

Samuel enters his final year ranked third in career completion percentage (.557), fourth in yards (3,980), fourth in completions (300), sixth in attempts (539) and tied for seventh in TDs (18) at Wisconsin.



Tackle Chris McIntosh, a 26-game starter in his varsity career, is on a pace to crush the Wisconsin career games started record.

Samuel led Wisconsin on four fourth-quarter game-winning drives in '97. A triple-option quarterback in high school, Samuel is capable of operating both the option and shotgun attacks to give the Badgers several offensive variations.

Junior Scott Kavanagh has played sparingly behind Samuel, but he is coming off a 6-9 outing (76 yards) in the Outback Bowl vs. Georgia. Kavanagh is expected to challenge Samuel in camp.

Rookie southpaw Peter Lee and incoming freshman Brooks Bollinger will also get looks.

Alvarez says: "This is a position that must improve. Samuel has done a lot of good things, but for the second year in a row, he tailed off throwing the ball at the end of the year. At times, Kavanagh has shown spurts of excellent play."

1998 Outlook

Fullback

Senior Cecil Martin is the only three-year starter on the club. Primarily a lead blocker and pass catcher, Martin has rushed for 230 yards and caught 44 passes in his career. Martin, annually the team pacesetter in community service, is a '98 captain.

Chad Kuhns, a redshirt freshmen, made an impression with a strong spring.

Alvarez says: "Martin has a chance to be one of the better fullbacks in our conference. He is a natural leader."

Receivers

Graduation hit the wide receiver corps hardest. The loss of Hayes, Simmons and Kevin Huntley creates opportunities for a number of young players.

Junior Ahmad Merritt, the team's top punt returner in 1997, is the veteran of the group. He had just three receptions in '97.

Chris Chambers and Rasheed Golden lettered as true freshmen and are in line for extended action this fall.

Chambers, who also plays basketball for the Badgers, had four of his six receptions in the Outback Bowl. Alvarez has labeled Chambers his No. 1 receiver after a 143-yard performance in the spring game.

One significant position change is the return of junior Demetrius Brown to wide receiver. Recruited as a pass catcher, Brown earned a letter on offense in 1996 but moved to safety last season. He is a big (6-foot-3) target.

Junior Willie Austin (18.5-yard average) was academically ineligible in spring but should return for fall camp.

Wide receiver is one area where there is an opportunity for a true freshman to work into the mix.

Alvarez says: "We need some young players to mature. Some guys have experience, but it's time for them to step up. They have the ability, now it's time to make some plays."

Tight End

Three-year letterman Eric Grams returns for his second year as the starter. Grams caught a career-best 13 passes in '97. Grams shared time with Ryan Sondrup last year, but recurring problems from surgery forced Sondrup to retire.

The reserves include sophomores Dague Retzlaff, John Sigmund and Mike Solwold plus freshman Mark Anelli.

Retzlaff and Sigmund caught one pass each as freshmen. Ironically, both went for TDs. Each had a good spring camp and add to the depth at tight end.

Alvarez says: "I want to see more production from this group. Grams is a steady veteran. There are a couple of young players (Retzlaff and Sigmund) with good potential."

Offensive Line

All five starters return on the offensive line after a campaign when a trio of redshirt freshmen were forced into the lineup.

Tackles Aaron Gibson and Chris McIntosh, a pair of all-America candidates in Alvarez' estimation, anchor the line. Gibson, college football's largest player, is back for his second season at right tackle. The 368-pound Gibson has dropped weight and is in the best shape of his Badger career. McIntosh, a 26-game starter, is an imposing figure at left tackle and a 1998 captain.

On the interior of the line, Casey Rabach emerged as a future star during his rookie campaign. The Wisconsin native earned freshman all-America honors last year.

The guard slots were filled admirably in 1997 by Bill Ferrario and Dave Costa, a couple of Pennsylvania linemen.

Experience in the trenches is a key, and the projected starters have a combined 82 career starts entering this season. The same quintet had only 18 starts prior to the '97 campaign.

Backups in the trenches include junior guard/tackle Pat Daley (one start in 1997) and huge sophomores Joe Gribowski (6-6, 302) and Josh Jakubowski (6-6, 315).

Alvarez says: "We have two of the better tackles (Gibson and McIntosh) in college football, both honors candidates. We should see vast improvement among the interior three with a year of starting experience. Rabach has a chance to be a special center if he keeps progressing."

Much like the offense, most (eight) of 1997's starting defensive lineup returns.

Cornerbacks Jason Suttle and LaMar Campbell, third and fifth in career passes broken up at the UW, have completed their eligibility. David Lysek, the club's second-leading tackler (124), is also gone.

Defensive Line

Team MVP Tom Burke is the spotlight player on defense after a season of 19 tackles for loss. The hard-charging Burke is a persistent pass rusher with exceptional quickness. Burke, a big-play performer, was second in the conference in fumbles recovered (three) last year. Burke sat out the spring season after shoulder surgery, but he will return to full health by fall camp.

Sophomore Sam Mueller, a prep quarterback, and redshirt freshman Aaron Habermann are Burke's understudies.

The end opposite Burke will be John Favret, a freshman all-American. Favret had eight sacks in his first season. Nearly 20 percent of his tackles were for negative yardage, including five tackles for loss vs. Boise State.

1998 Outlook

Junior Donny Eicher switched positions from outside linebacker and is Favret's back-up. Eicher, who has also played inside linebacker, recorded 32 tackles last fall.

The Badgers were inexperienced on the interior last year, but season-long starters Chris Janek (noseguard) and Ross Kolodziej (tackle) got a lot of action. Kolodziej worked hard to improve his speed during the off-season and may get some time at end, too.

Former walk-on Erik Mahlik, an excellent technician, is in a battle with Janek at noseguard. Mahlik started twice in '97 and made 26 stops. Senior Brandon Williams, a tackle and end during his career, provides valuable relief at both spots.

Redshirt Jeremy Dox and touted freshman George Pratt, the school's '97 defensive scout team player of the year, are young linemen with promise.

Alvarez says: "Our outside people have a chance to be outstanding. Kolodziej has the physical talents and should be much improved. The line could be a strength on our defense."

Linebackers

A number of prospective linebackers are available for use this season. Alvarez is counting on three veterans — juniors Donnel Thompson and Chris Ghidorzi and sophomore Roger Knight — to see most of the action.

Tom Burke became the first Badger defensive lineman to be named team MVP since '90.

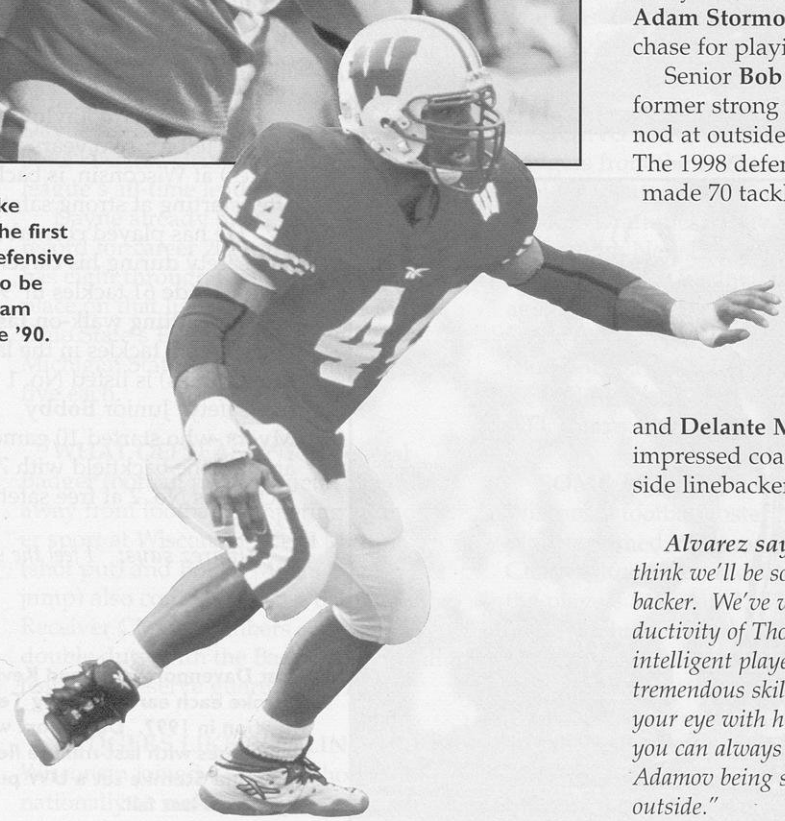
Thompson, the team's No. 1 tackler as a sophomore, finished fifth in the league for tackles (141) and started the final 12 games. He is a former walk-on from Madison who was named a team captain for 1998.

Knight, who made 14 tackles in his first season, is an athletic linebacker who's wise beyond his years. He slipped into the No. 1 spot at linebacker after an eye-popping spring.

Ghidorzi, who has starred on special teams during his career, is Thompson's back-up. Ed Hartwell, who has slid between inside and outside linebacker his first two years, and walk-on Adam Stormoen are in the chase for playing time

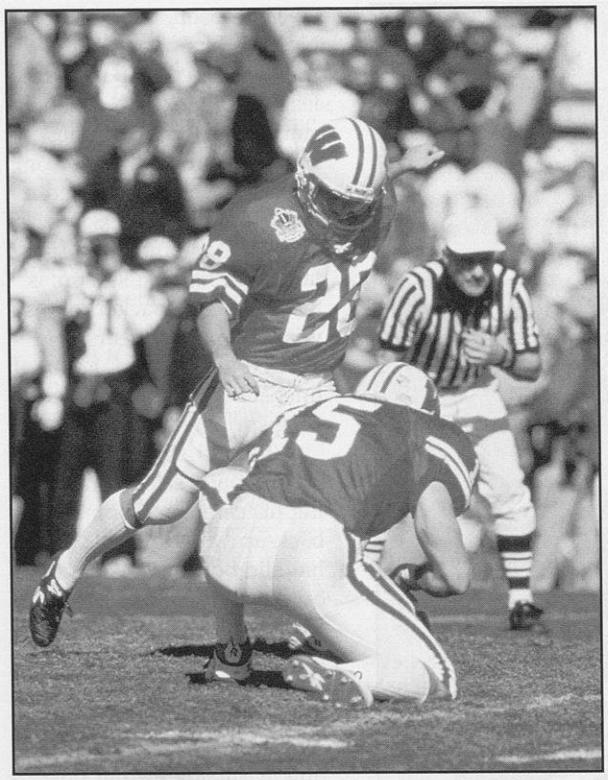
Senior Bob Adamov, a former strong safety, gets the nod at outside linebacker. The 1998 defensive captain made 70 tackles, including 10 for loss, in 1997. Redshirt freshmen Dan Lisowski and Delante McGrew have impressed coaches as outside linebacker prospects.

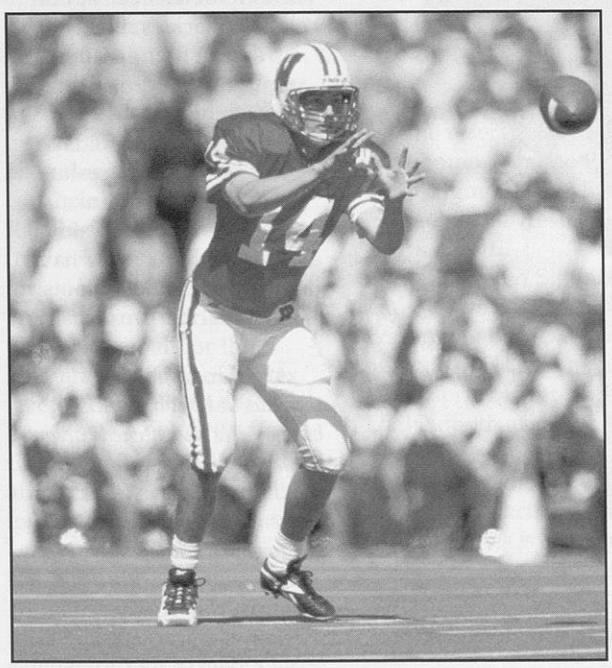
Alvarez says: "I really think we'll be solid at linebacker. We've watched the productivity of Thompson, a real intelligent player. Knight has tremendous skills and catches your eye with his play. Plus, you can always count upon Adamov being steady on the outside."



Madison native Donnel Thompson recorded 141 tackles in 1997, the fifth-most in Wisconsin history.

1998 Outlook





Matt Davenport (top) and Kevin Stemke each earned all-Big Ten mention in 1997. Davenport won two games with last-minute field goals and Stemke set a UW punting record last fall.

Defensive Backs

It will be a new look in the secondary as both cornerbacks have departed.

Two redshirt freshmen — Jamar Fletcher and Mike Echols — emerged from spring training as the starters. Fletcher eased concerns at field corner with a spring session of big plays and excellent judgment. Echols, who posted the squad's top 40-yard time in the off-season, also had an impressive spring until a hamstring injury.

The reserves at corner are sophomore Donte King, who started four times as a true freshman, and junior Onjai Bryant. Both King and Bryant have seen game action in their careers and are capable replacements.

Senior Leonard Taylor, who has started for two years (20 games) at Wisconsin, is back after starting at strong safety in '97. He has played cornerback and safety during his career. Taylor made 61 tackles in '97.

Hard-hitting walk-on Jason Doering (35 tackles in the last three games) is listed No. 1 at free safety. Junior Bobby Myers, who started 10 games and led the backfield with 70 tackles, is No. 2 at free safety.

Alvarez says: "I feel the secondary has a chance to be the most-improved element of the team. Doering, Taylor and Myers all have experience at safety. Fletcher and Echols had excellent springs and earned the cornerback slots. I think we'll show much improvement in the back end, and that's critical to having a top defense."

Specialists

A '98 team strength should be the kicking game. First-team all-league kicker Matt Davenport won two games with last-second kicks. He converted 82.4 percent of his field goals. Vitaly Pisetsky, a strong-legged placekicker, handles kickoffs.

Kevin Stemke was second-team all-Big Ten after setting a Badger season record with a 43.9-yard punting average. That average was 13th nationally. Eric Skrzypchak is the "pooch" punter.

The Schedule

The '98 slate includes four Big Ten schools — Purdue, Iowa, Michigan and Penn State — that earned bowl trips last season.

For the first time in three years, the UW will play only 11 regular-season games.

After a season-opening contest at San Diego State (third time in the last four years that the Badgers have played a non-conference game in California), Wisconsin plays three straight games in Madison.

Badger Notebook

FAMILIAR FACES — Barry Alvarez will greet 53 returning lettermen from 1997's Outback Bowl squad to camp this fall. That includes 17 starters (eight defense, nine offense). Each of those numbers are high-water marks during the Alvarez era.

Returning lettermen and starters during Alvarez' regime are: 1990 (39/16), 1991 (38/13), 1992 (50/17), 1993 (37/15), 1994 (51/15), 1995 (42/10), 1996 (41/16) and 1997 (37/12).

STILL YOUTHFUL — Wisconsin fielded the youngest team in the Big Ten last year. The breakdown that follows shows that the '98 Badgers are still a young squad. Among the team's 53 returning lettermen, 22 are sophomores, 22 are juniors and nine are seniors.

PERCENTAGES LOOK GOOD — Wisconsin returns 84.3 percent of its 1997 rushing offense, 100 percent of its passing offense and 81.4 percent of its scoring. Conversely, the Badgers must replace 74.1 percent of their receiving yardage.

OTHER SIDELINES — The cumulative 1997 record of the Badgers' 1998 opponents is 63-65 (.492). The Badgers close the season at defending co-national champ Michigan (Nov. 14) and vs. Penn State (Nov. 21). Four UW opponents — Purdue, Iowa, Michigan and Penn State — played in bowls last year.

POSITION CHANGES — Several Badgers have switched positions. They include: Marcus Carpenter (from DE to FB), Demetrius Brown (from FS to FL), Donny Eicher (from OLB to RE) and Tony Williams (SS to RB).

CLOSING IN ON #1 — Barry Alvarez enters his ninth year at Wisconsin as the school's third all-time winningest coach (49). Phil King (65), the all-time leader, coached at the turn of the century and registered a number of his victories against high schools, medical school teams and small colleges. Milt Bruhn, who posted 52 victories between 1956-66, took the Badgers to two Rose Bowls. Alvarez (eight years) also has the third-longest tenure on the gridiron sidelines in Madison, trailing only Harry Stuhldreher (13 seasons) and Bruhn (11).

THE CHASE IS ON — Ron Dayne enters his junior season needing 144 yards to pass Billy Marek and become the school's all-time rushing leader. Dayne has averaged 149 yards per game rushing in his 24-game career. Three — Dayne, Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher — of the Badgers' top four career rushers have played for Alvarez.

Dayne currently ranks 16th in career rushing in Big Ten history after his sterling freshman and sophomore seasons. No other sophomore is on the list of top 20 all-time rushers. Northwestern's Darnell Autry and Indiana's Alex Smith, in fact, are the only juniors on the list. Dayne needs 2,024 yards to pass Ohio State's Archie Griffin and become the league's all-time leader.

Dayne already owns the conference record for career 200-yard games. He has eight through two seasons. Second-place on that list are Wisconsin's Marek, Ohio State's Eddie George and Michigan State's Lorenzo White with five each.

WHAT OFFSEASON? — Several Badger football players spend their time away from football competing in another sport at Wisconsin. Cecil Martin (shot put) and Bobby Myers (high jump) also compete for the Badgers. Receiver Chris Chambers served his double duty with the Badger basketball team as a reserve guard in 1997-98.

BADGERS LIKE BOWLING — Wisconsin joined 17 other schools nationally to make at least four bowl appearances in the last five years. The Badgers played in the Rose, Hall of Fame, Copper and Outback Bowls since 1993. Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State are the other league members to accomplish that feat.

THEY'RE SOPHOMORES NOW — Three Badger rookies earned freshman all-America honors from The Sporting News in 1997. First-team selections were center Casey Rabach and defensive end John Favret. Record-breaking punter Kevin Stemke earned second-team mention.

CRAZY EIGHTS — Wisconsin has won eight games in each of the last two seasons. If the Badgers can match that win total in 1998, it would be the most victories in three consecutive seasons since Wisconsin claimed 26 wins for Coach Phil King between 1899-1901. The most victories at the UW in any three-year stretch during the modern era is 23 (set between 1992-94).

GOING TO CAMP — Seven Badgers from the 1997 team got opportunities to attend NFL camps this spring. Draft picks Tony Simmons (second round, New England) and Donald Hayes (fourth, Carolina) along with free agents LaMar Campbell (Detroit), Jason Suttle (San Diego), Carl McCullough (Buffalo), David Lysek (Tampa Bay) and Kevin Huntley (Kansas City) went to NFL camps.

SOME ARE RELATED — The 1998 Wisconsin football roster includes four players named Williams (Brandon, Charles, Roosevelt and Tony). None of the players are related. The Badgers do, however, have a brother tandem: the Thompsons (junior linebacker Donnel and freshman defensive back Bryson). Two cousins, Al and Ben Johnson, also join the fold this fall as freshmen. Additionally, DB Chris Wagner and LB Mike Schneck are the brothers of former Badgers Scott Wagner and Dan Schneck.

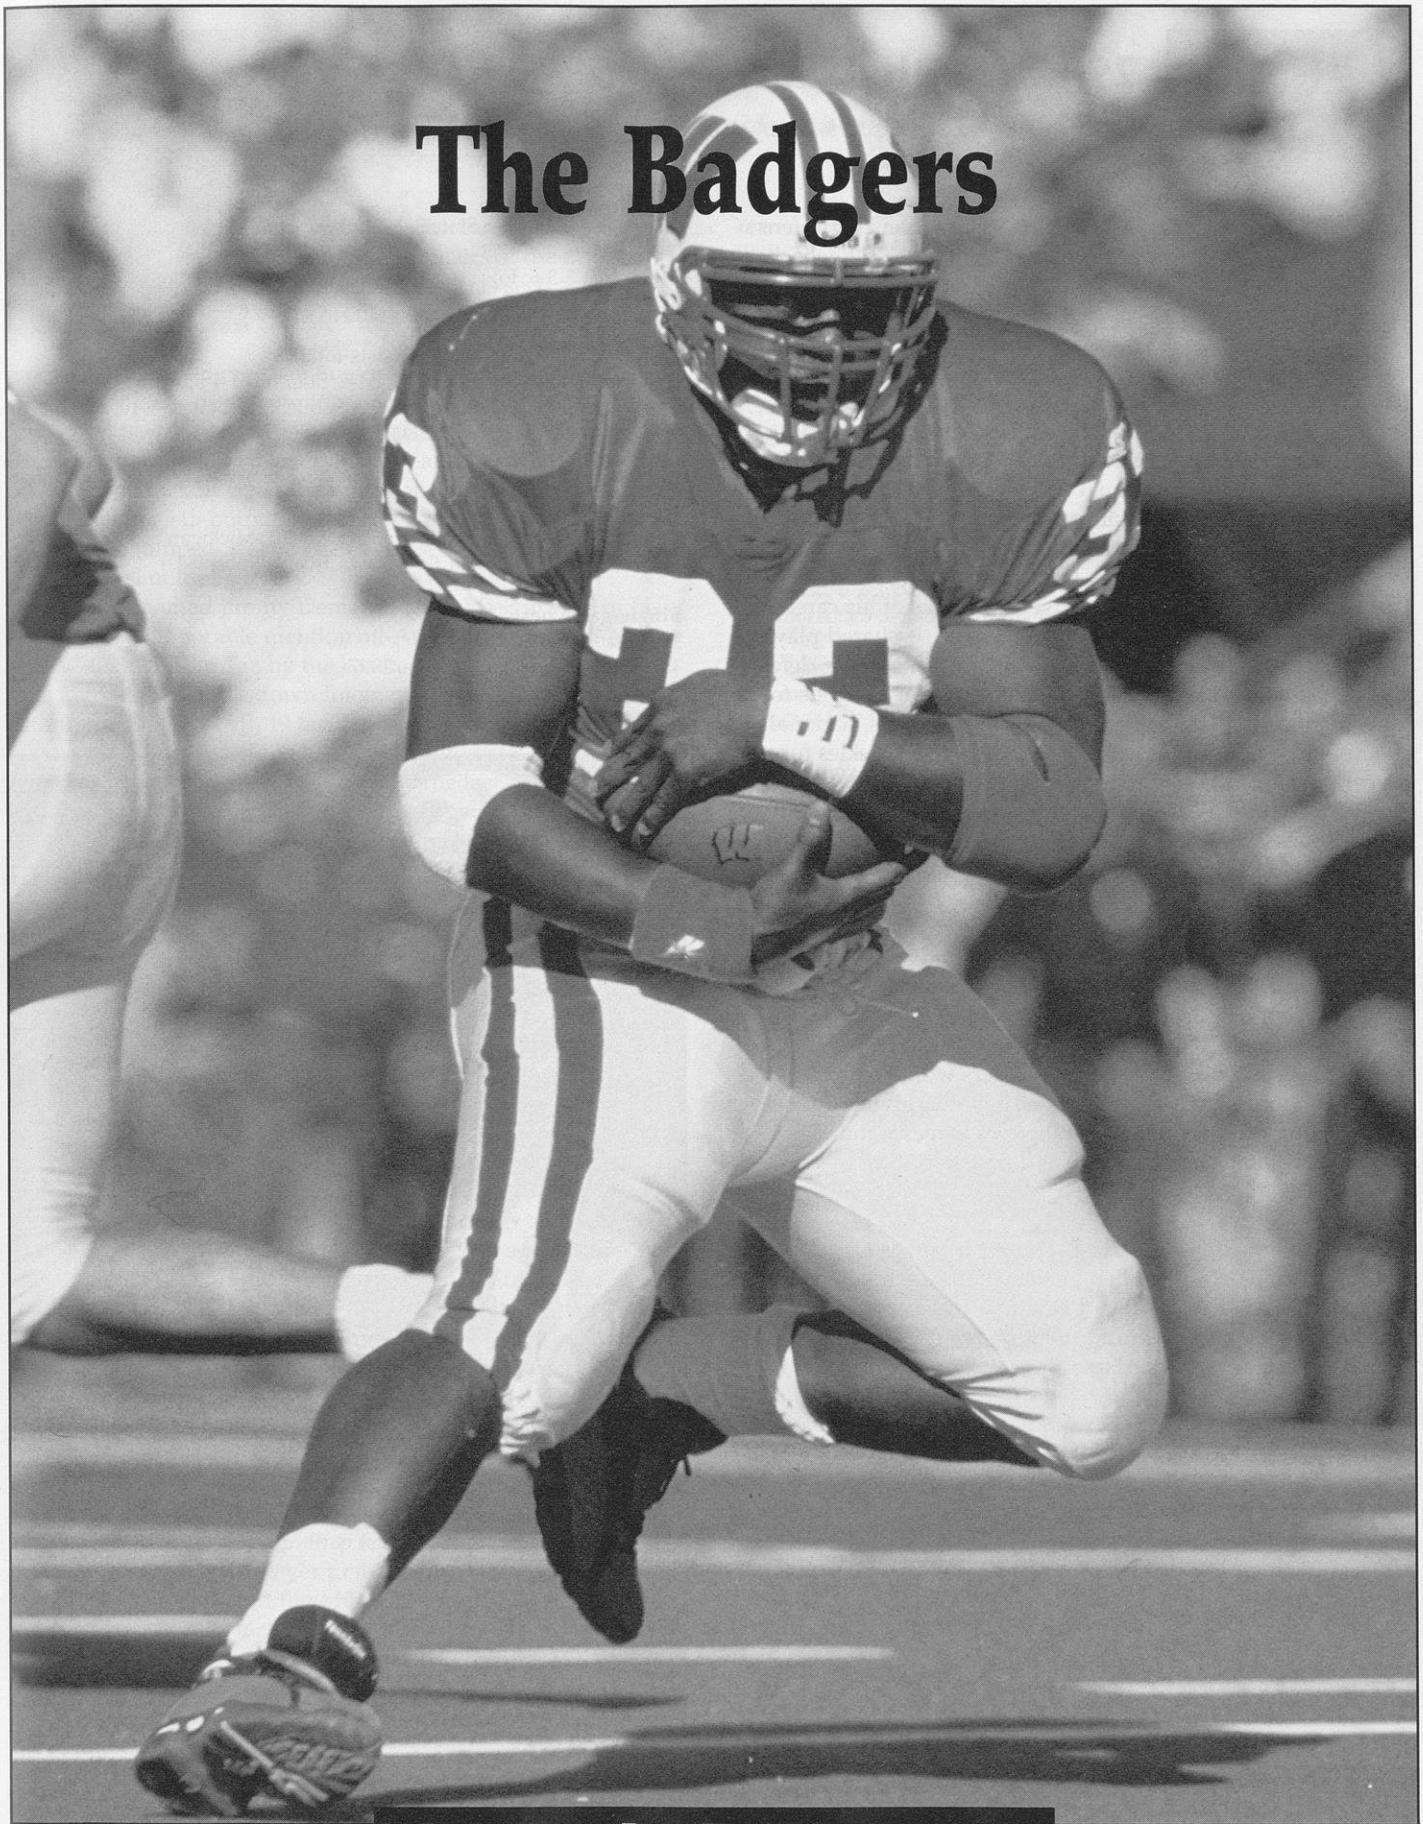
The Badgers



Ron Dayne

29 • Bob Adamov

OLB • 6-0 • 223 • Sr. • Sturgeon Bay, WI (Southern Door)

Three-year letterman on defense • has played both outside linebacker and strong safety in his career • joins Donnel Thompson as former walk-ons named 1998 team captains • the last former walk-on to earn that distinction was lineman Joe Panos (1993) • 18 career starts (two as freshman, eight as sophomore and eight as junior) • 165 career stops • needs three solos for 100 in his career • a 365-pound bench press and 460-pound squat are positional weight lifting records for the Alvarez era • excels in passing situations.

1997 — fifth on the team in tackles (70) for the second year in a row • 10 stops behind the line of scrimmage was tied for third-most on team • recorded first three sacks of his career • started eight games, including the final seven • shared playing time with Donny Eicher who has since moved to end • defensive player of the game vs. Illinois with eight tackles (one for a loss) and a forced fumble • 11 stops (nine solos) vs. national champion Michigan was his season high • three tackles for loss at Purdue and two sacks against Penn State.

1996 — fifth on the team with 77 tackles • started the final seven games (eight overall) at strong safety • shared playing time with Giscard Bernard early in the season, before Bernard suffered a season-ending injury • career-best 16 tackles (10 solos) in the win over Purdue • double-figure tackles vs. Michigan State (10) and Iowa (11) • registered a tackle for loss at UNLV and at Iowa • recovered a bad punt snap in the end zone to give the Badgers an early 7-0 lead vs. Northwestern.

1995 — made 18 tackles in reserve role at strong safety • started vs. SMU and Penn State • Badgers won both games and surrendered just 219.0 yards passing after giving up 306.5 yards through the air in the opening two games • four stops in first college game (vs. Colorado) and first start (SMU) • two PBUs vs. the Mustangs.

1994 — redshirted.

High School — all-state, MVP and captain as a senior at Southern Door • third-leading tackler (172) in school history • rushed for more than 2,800 yards with 11 interceptions • three-time all-league on defense and twice on offense • same high school as Badger recruits Al and Ben Johnson • coach was Brent Claflin.

Personal — born 9/19/75 • behavioral science and law major • parents are Tony and Sandy.

74 • Tom Burke

DE • 6-4 • 249 • Sr. • Poplar, WI (Northwestern)

All-America candidate • one of the top pass rushers in the Big Ten • 20 career starts • has seen action at end and tackle • excellent athlete for his size • four double-figure tackle games in career • more than one-quarter (25.8 percent) of his career solos have been for minus yardage • needs 17 tackles for loss as a senior to move into the school's career top five • Badgers' special teams player of the year as a freshman, he still competes on kickoff coverage unit • one of the club's strongest players with a 445-pound bench press and 620-pound squat • has vertical jumped 37.25 inches • missed spring practice because of shoulder surgery.

1997 — named Jimmy Demetral team MVP in vote of his teammates • honorable mention all-America by Football News • second-team all-Big Ten by the coaches • registered 86 tackles, tops among the team's down linemen • led club and tied for fifth in the Big Ten with 19 tackles for loss, fifth-most in school history • tied for second in the league with three fumbles recovered • at least one TFL in nine of the last 10 games • at least two tackles for loss in five different games • led the Badgers with nine sacks, tied for sixth-most in school annals • career-best four tackles for loss at Minnesota and three hits behind the line in the bowl game vs. Georgia • UW defensive player of the week against Syracuse, Minnesota, Michigan and Penn State • recorded a 15-yard sack of Syracuse all-star QB Donovan McNabb • Burke forced and recovered a fumble on that play vs. the Orangemen • sacked Iowa's Randy Reiners to force the potential game-winning FG from 43 yards (it missed) • chased down Purdue TE Jon Blackman on a 60-yard play and forced a fumble which the Badgers recovered • 10 tackles vs. San Diego State and Minnesota were season highs.

1996 — started seven games, including the last six at defensive end • started once (UNLV) at tackle • saw action in all 13 games and made 64 tackles • career-best 10 stops at Iowa and vs. Utah in the Copper Bowl (including two TFLs) • made eight tackles at Hawaii • averaged 7.8 stops in his starts • team defensive MVP vs. Northwestern (two tackles, one TFL) • blocked a field goal at Iowa.

1995 — special teams player of the year as a true freshman • reserve lineman • special teams MVP at Purdue.

High School — Gatorade's state player of the year at Northwestern • all-America by Scholastic Coach, Super Prep, Prep Football Report and USA Today • only player to make first-team all-state by AP and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel on both sides of the ball • 24 tackles for loss among his 115 stops as a senior • same school as freshman Jeff Polkoski • coach was Andy Lind.

Personal — born 10/12/76 • history major • parents are Steve and Linda.

28 • *Matt Davenport

K • 5-10 • 171 • Sr. • Mission Viejo, CA (Saddleback JC)

Legitimate candidate for all-America honors • one of the most accurate kickers in college football • has two game-winning kicks in career • current career field goal percentage (82.4 percent) is on pace to break the Wisconsin record of 76.5 set by Todd Gregoire (1984-87) • Davenport needs 13 attempts as a senior to meet the minimum of 30 attempts to qualify for that school mark • walk-on to Badger program after a baseball / football career at Saddleback (Calif.) JC • won battle for placement duties in '97 fall camp • nicknamed "Money."

1997 — first-team all-Big Ten by the coaches (Wisconsin's first all-league kicker since Rich Thompson in 1992) and second-team by the media • honorable mention all-America by Football News • semi-finalist for Lou Groza Award and finalist for Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award • won two games — Indiana (43-yard) and Northwestern (career-long 48) — with field goals with six seconds left in the game • named Big Ten special teams player of the week after each game-winning kick • joined Thompson and Gregoire as the only kickers in Wisconsin history to win at least two games with field goals in the fourth quarter • made seven consecutive kicks twice during the season • misses were his first (23 vs. Syracuse) and last attempts (40 vs. Penn State) of the regular season plus one kick at Purdue • shared (with Kevin Stemke) Badgers' special teams player of the year award • UW's special teams player of the week three times • booted two field goals in five different games • led the Big Ten in field goal percentage (.824) • that mark broke the Badger season percentage record formerly held by Gregoire (.800 in 1987) • fifth in the conference in field goals per game (1.17) • second on the team and 11th in the Big Ten in scoring (73) • a perfect 8-8 on field goals between 30-39 yards.

1996 — back-up on placements to second-team all-Big Ten choice and current New York Jet John Hall • connected on 3-3 extra points.

Before Wisconsin — played one season of junior college football at Saddleback (Calif.) JC and booted 11-15 field goals to make all-conference • credited with three tackles on special teams • all-state baseball player as a prep at Capistrano Valley • all-conference mention in football, soccer and baseball • team MVP in soccer and baseball as a senior • captained all three sports his final two seasons • won scholar-athlete award as a junior and senior • coach was Marty Martin.

Personal — born 6/8/77 • political science major • parents are Kevin and Dudley.

RB • 5-10 • 258 • Jr. • Berlin, NJ (Overbrook)

Enters his junior campaign after one of the most-productive two-year rushing periods in college football history • a leading candidate for the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award • his two-year total of 3,284 yards (bowls not included in NCAA records) is the second-most in national collegiate history • Georgia's Herschel Walker (223 yards more) is the only player in NCAA history to rush for more yardage than Dayne as a freshman and sophomore • Walker, Dayne and San Diego State's Marshall Faulk are the only players in college history to gain more than 3,000 yards in their freshman and sophomore seasons combined • Dayne reached that magical figure faster (20 games) than any player in NCAA history (Walker also took 20 games) • Dayne's average yards per game for his career (153.4 not counting bowls) is fourth-best in NCAA history • Dayne needs 144 yards to pass Billy Marek and become Wisconsin's career rushing leader • Dayne has 131 fewer carries than Marek received in his three-year career as a starter • third in career attempts (694) at Wisconsin, second in rushing touchdowns (36), first in average per carry (6.06), third in all-purpose yardage (3,816), seventh in total offense (3,566) and sixth in 100-yard games (14) • only player in Badger history (minimum of 300 attempts) to average better than six yards per attempt • currently ranks 16th (after just two years) in Big Ten Conference career rushing • of the players in the league's career top 20, only Dayne, Northwestern's Darnell Autry and Indiana's Alex Smith played fewer than four seasons • Dayne has played two, while Autry and Smith played three • Dayne needs 228 yards in 1998 to pass Autry with the highest yardage total for a three-year player in conference history • became the fifth Badger to rush for more than 3,000 career yards (making that plateau in his 17th game) • the other members of that club and the game they reached that level in their careers are Marek (27th), Brent Moss (36th), Alan Ameche (40th) and Terrell Fletcher (41st) • owns the Big Ten record for career 200-yard games (Dayne has eight in two seasons) • that is three more than Marek, Eddie George (Ohio State) and Lorenzo White (Michigan State) • owns 24 Wisconsin and five NCAA records to date • rushed for at least 100 yards in 13 of 20 career starts • gained at least 100 yards rushing in six quarters during his career • has outrushed the opposing team 11 times in 20 starts.

1998 — preseason first-team all-America by Sport, Athlon, Football News, Street & Smith's, Playboy and College Sports magazines • second-team preseason all-America choice by Bob Griese's College Football Magazine • nation's third-leading returning rusher with 1,421 yards (not including bowls) • trailed Texas' Ricky Williams (1,893) and West Virginia's Amos Zereoue (1,505).

1997 — one of the most-successful sophomore seasons in history with 1,457 yards (fifth nationally with an average of 142.0 per game) • yardage total was fourth in school annals despite missing 12 quarters (entire games vs. Boise State and Michigan, three quarters vs. Iowa and one period against San Jose State) of action • first-team all-America honors from Football News • finalist for the Doak Walker Award • consensus second-team all-Big Ten honors • set Wisconsin record for yards rushing by a sophomore (Billy Marek had 1,207 in 1973) • set a school mark for yards rushing in a quarter (170 in the opening stanza at San Jose State) • had an 80-yard TD run vs. the Spartans on his first carry • season totals of 1,457 yards, 263 attempts, 15 touchdowns all ranked fourth in Wisconsin history • those figures were compiled despite playing all season with shoulder, groin, ankle and knee ailments • named Badger offensive player of the week four times • recorded 200-yard games against San Jose State (254), Indiana (202) and Illinois (207) • made the century mark in yards gained against San

DANE COUNTY HUMANE SOCIETY

Wisconsin's most-famous "Great Dayne" lent his name and time to promote a cause for the humane treatment of animals during the 1997 football season. Dayne, in conjunction with the Dane County Humane Society, was featured in a campaign urging for the "Humane Treatment of Animals, Not Linebackers." Dayne did PSAs for radio and television and posed for billboards. The poster at the right was given out at the '97 season opener vs. Boise State. For his efforts, Dayne received the Humane Society's "You Made a Difference Award." Dayne has been an animal lover since his youth when he had a Doberman named Butch.

ONE-MAN TEAM

In 20 career starts, Ron Dayne has outgained the opposing team on the ground 11 times. Dayne has rushed for 3,219 yards since he became a starter, while the opposing team totalled 2,978 yards in those same 20 games.

Dayne has outgained the opponent by an average of 12.1 yards per game in his starts. Wisconsin's record when Dayne outrushes the opponent is 10-2. When the opposing team gains more yardage than Dayne on the ground, the Badgers' mark is 2-6.

WISCONSIN'S GREAT DAYNE

79 • Aaron Gibson

OL • 6-7 • 368 • Sr. • Indianapolis, IN (Decatur Central)

Being touted as an all-America candidate this season • made the Outland Trophy preseason checklist as chosen by the Football Writers Association • featured in an ESPN Magazine photo spread in the summer of '98 • named to first-team preseason all-America teams by Playboy, Bob Griese's College Football, Football News, College Sports and Sport • holds Badger weight room records for squat (745 pounds) and hang clean (410) • owns UW positional marks for bench press (475) and vertical jump (31.5 inches) • largest player in Wisconsin history • biggest player in NCAA Division I-A this year (Louisiana Tech's Chris Crudup, who was 6-foot-10 and 390 pounds, used up his eligibility in 1997) • an incredible athlete, he can do the splits • has played tight end, tackle and fullback in Wisconsin career • body measurements include 47 1/2-inch waist, 33 1/2-inch thigh, 20 1/2-inch neck and 87-inch reach • his helmet is the largest ever made by Riddell • 18 career starts over two seasons • starter on both the 1996 Copper and 1998 Outback Bowl squads • liked to swim as a youth • enjoys fishing (teammate Donny Eicher introduced Gibson to it) and writing poetry in his spare time.

1997 — honorable mention all-America laurels from Football News • all-league accolades (honorable mention) by the coaches and media • featured in a New York Times magazine article on the evolution of the offensive lineman from the 1920s to the present • Gibson represented the "lineman of the future" in the story • ABC News' 20/20 came to Madison to interview Gibson for a feature on large linemen • started every game (10 at right tackle and three at tight end in "jumbo" formation) • played his two best games against No. 14 Iowa and top-rated Michigan • named Wisconsin's offensive player of the game in the win over the Hawkeyes.

1995 — did not participate.

High School — all-America honors by USA Today, Prep Football Report, Super Prep and Bigger, Stronger, Faster magazine at Decatur Central • first-team all-state and member of Bloomington Herald-Times "Top 33" team • recovered eight fumbles and broke up 11 passes in his career • lettered three times in football and four times in track • coach was Mike Gillin.

75 • Chris McIntosh

OL • 6-7 • 310 • Jr. • Pewaukee, WI (High School)

On pace to start more games in his career than any previous Badger • a string of 26 consecutive starts over two years (including two bowls, the Kickoff Classic and a "12th game" at Hawaii) • one of the nation's premier tackles • joins Donnel Thompson as a 1998 captain in his junior year • holds Badger weight room records for a left tackle in the bench press (480 pounds), squat (600), hang clean (345) and 40-yard dash (5.26) • two-year stalwart at left tackle, protecting QB Mike Samuel's backside • Wisconsin has averaged 221.4 yards rushing per game during his career • the UW has registered 20 individual 100-yard rushing performances during his career • sat out nearly two years (injured early in prep senior year and a redshirt campaign) before starting his college career in '96.

1997 — made both the media and coaches all-Big Ten squads (honorable mention) • durable and dependable blocker • served as mentor of the 1997 offensive line which featured three redshirt freshmen • at the time, McIntosh was a 20-year-old sophomore • won Badger offensive player of the game honors in the Kickoff Classic against Syracuse, a rare feat for an offensive lineman • only two linemen — Tampa Bay's Jerry Wunsch and the New York Giants' Derek Engler — were team offensive Players of the Week in 1996 • top blocker on a line which helped the Badgers rank 25th nationally in rushing.

1996 — season-long starter (13 games) at left tackle • academic all-Big Ten selection in first year of eligibility • nominated for Big Ten Freshman of the Year • redshirt freshman was the only non-fifth-year senior starter on the offensive line • Badgers allowed just 19 sacks in 13 games, and McIntosh was responsible for protecting the QB's blind side • Wisconsin led the Big Ten in rushing and McIntosh helped create holes for Ron Dayne's 2,109-yard season • member of the only line in college football which had five 300-pound starters.

1995 — redshirted • spent all season as a second-team tackle although he never played.

High School — a top 100 prospect by Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report at Pewaukee • No. 1 player in state according to Lemming's 1994 preseason checklist • missed his senior season after a knee injury in the opening game • two-year team captain • lettered in football, wrestling and track • all-conference honors in all three sports as a sophomore • WIAA state heavyweight wrestling champ • honor roll • coach was Mike Ryback.

Personal — born 2/20/77 • agricultural business management major • parents are Mike and Julie.

10 • Mike Samuel

QB • 6-3 • 215 • Sr. • Philadelphia, PA (Penn Charter)

Two-year starter at QB has led the Badgers to a 16-10 record and berths in the Copper and Outback Bowls • joined Darrell Bevell as the only quarterbacks in Wisconsin history to lead the Badgers to a pair of bowls • one of the strongest QBs in Wisconsin history • holds positional weight room records in the bench (355 pounds), squat (410), hang clean (305), 40-yard dash (4.80 seconds) and pro agility drill (4.35) • the second-winningest (16-10 as starter) QB in schools annals • trails Bevell (27-15-4) in total wins as a starter • fourth in career passing yardage (3,980), third in completion percentage (.557), tied for seventh in TD passes (18), tied for third in 200-yard passing games (five) and third in total offense (4,359) at Wisconsin • one of just two returning "primary" starters at QB (Indiana's Jay Rodgers is the other) in the Big Ten.

1997 — engineered game-winning drives late in the fourth quarter against Boise State, Indiana, Northwestern and Minnesota • Badger offensive P.O.W. three times in '97 • season totals of 141 completions (eighth in Wisconsin history), 254 attempts (tied for seventh), 1,896 yards passing (sixth) and 2,138 yards of total offense (tied for fifth) • tied a school record by accounting for five touchdowns (three rushing, two passing) at San Jose State • registered three single-game pass efficiency ratings over 200 • top game was perhaps a 16-25 outing for 271 yards at Northwestern • drove the Badgers 66 yards in the final 1:10 to set up a game-winning field goal • ran and passed for 28 yards during that last-chance drive at Northwestern • threw for 176 yards on only six completions (29.8 average) at San Jose State • efficiency rating of 282.0 was a career-best but did not qualify for the school record because he had only nine attempts • helped engineer successful two-minute drives on five consecutive opportunities in games against Indiana, Northwestern and Illinois • recorded three games with more than 200 yards passing in the month of October • completed 63.3 percent of his throws for 808 yards (202.0 average) in those four games against Northwestern, Illinois, Purdue and Minnesota • eight rushing TDs were the most by a Badger quarterback since Dale Hackbart in 1958 • fifth in the conference in total offense • second-best running QB (Purdue's Billy Dicken had 308 yards) in the Big Ten • rushed for 243 net yards, the most by a Badger quarterback since Lionell Crawford (390) in 1989 • chased down Iowa's Matt Bowen on a 56-yard interception return to keep the Hawkeyes out of the end zone in a 13-10 win • a 92.3 completion percent mark (12-13) vs. San Diego State was No. 2 in school history • career-best 72 yards rushing vs. Illinois • 12-yard TD run on third-down and-seven with 0:49 left won the Boise State game.

1996 — started all 13 games in sophomore campaign and guided the Badgers to Copper Bowl win over Utah • 148 completions (seventh in UW history) in 254 attempts (tied

A CONVERSATION WITH BOB ADAMOV

How have you adjusted to playing both safety and linebacker at Wisconsin?

"It was a good switch because I was too big to be a strong safety. I am a little better at run defense, but my experience in the secondary has really helped me on pass defense now."

What have been the biggest moments in your career at Wisconsin?

"When we opened the season with Colorado (1995), and I got to play the whole second half at safety. I was finally out on the field and that was a huge moment. As a team, the biggest thrill was beating Iowa (in 1997). We were the first Badger team in a long time to beat them, and that took a lot of pressure off when we won."

What do you expect from the defense this season?

"The sky's the limit. We have our whole defensive front back, along with some great linebackers and our young defensive backs looked good during the spring. They made a lot of plays during spring practice."

Describe the transition from walk-on to team captain.

"You need a lot of self-confidence. I just told myself that I could play at this level. You do what the coaches ask and take care of your business. You help in the community to set a good example. I didn't look at myself as a walk-on. I just waited for my chance. Coach Alvarez gives everybody an opportunity, and I just made the most of it."

Describe how you felt being named captain for the 1998 season?

"I don't think you ever expect to be named captain. You just go out there and represent your teammates as well as you can. I came to this program as a walk-on and things just continue to get better for me as a Badger. It is a really special honor, something I never dreamt would even be a possibility during my career. I hope to be a good leader for this team."

What are your plans for the future?

"I just want to be successful. I am looking into attending law school. There are a lot of options out there for me and I am not settling on anything. The opportunities I have are really exciting."

A CONVERSATION WITH DONNEL THOMPSON

What is it going to be like to play college football with your brother?

"We have always played together ever since we were little kids. I was in fifth grade and he was in third grade and we played together. I didn't put any pressure on him to attend the UW, but now that he is here I am really happy."

Comment on your father's decision to retire from coaching so that he can watch his sons play football at the UW.

"He has worked so hard to get both of us in school and now we both have scholarships at the University. Now, he gets a chance to sit back and enjoy all of his hard work. Last year, he might get back late from a game in Illinois and then we would have an early game the next day, so it was tough on him. This year, he can get up, tailgate and just enjoy it a little more."

How do you go from a vendor in Camp Randall Stadium as a youth to a starting linebacker in the same stadium?

"I have always been a pretty competitive person. When I sold cokes, I was always competitive and wanted to sell the most drinks. Actually, I never paid that much attention to the game because I was trying to make money. Coach (Barry) Alvarez and Coach (John) Palermo came to my school and gave me a chance to go out for the team. So far, it has gone well."

What kind of presence does your father have on game day?

"I can always see him in the stands. If I make a play, I can look up and see him standing and shouting. If I miss a tackle, I know I will hear about it after the game."

What was it like to be a walk-on and what mentality did you take to the field?

"You have to put your ego aside. You are way down there on the bottom when you start out. You have to come to practice, fly around and show that you can play football just like everybody else. The coaching staff gave me the same opportunity as everybody else and I took advantage of that. I really tried to play hard, always be enthusiastic and bring those things to the defense. If you can find your little niche, whether it is special teams or whatever, just contribute."

How do you juggle the academics along with the time consumed by athletics?

"Obviously, school has to be on top. I have a little notebook and I write down everything I have to do in a day. I make sure I check everything off. But that is what you have to do to be successful."

What is one fact that you would like people to know about you?

"That I am a student first, both in the classroom and on the field. I am always watching game film and studying. I am always really proud when I get good grades. My greatest accomplishment in college was getting a 3.0 during my first year. That was a big deal to me. I didn't even get a 3.0 grade-point in high school and then to achieve it at the University was great. I really worked hard to reach that goal."

A CONVERSATION WITH ERIC GRAMS

How do you deal with the frustrations of being of a walk-on?

"I simply wanted to learn and absorb as many things as possible. I had (Michael) Roan and (Matt) Nyquist in front of me when I first came, and they were two great guys to learn from. It was a little frustrating because you want to get on the field as soon as possible."

How do you use your experiences to help the younger guys at your position?

"I know how it was when I was younger, so I try to lead as much as possible. When they do something right, I congratulate them. At this point, they need all the praise they can get. When they do something wrong, I try to correct it so they don't make the same mistake twice."

What reality lessons did you learn during your early career?

"During my early years, I went against (all-Big Ten end) Tarek Saleh in practice. You develop mental toughness quickly when you go against him. The last couple of years I have practiced against (Tom) Burke, (John) Favret and (Ross) Kolodziej. As far as I am concerned, going against those three in practice is as tough as any of our opponents during the season."

How do you see the tight end position as an element of the offense?

"We are run blockers first and you need to be able to handle that assignment. But we need to get better in the passing game. We had fewer than 20 catches as a group last year, so we have to elevate our play. We have to get better at reading coverages and getting open to help the passing game."

What is it like to play for the state school as a Wisconsin native?

"It's awesome. I don't know how some guys can leave home. It is so nice to go home and talk to everybody about Badger football. Everyone is so supportive and cheering you on. Then, to run out on the turf at Camp Randall in front of 70,000 fans from your home state ... it's a sensation that's tough to describe."

How did you prepare mentally to join the football squad as a walk-on?

"I brought a little extra drive to prove that I could come in and earn a scholarship. I wanted to make a statement and get noticed. I just tried to take a determined approach."

What advice would you give to a high school player that is in a similar situation (not receiving a scholarship offer) that you faced in high school?

"My advice is to chase your dreams. At Wisconsin, Coach Alvarez and the staff give equal shots to everybody. It doesn't matter who you are. If you can play, you're going to be on the field."

A CONVERSATION WITH MATT DAVENPORT

Do you miss your playing days as a shortstop in junior college?

"The one thing I miss is the athleticism of the position (at shortstop). Kicking takes a lot out of you mentally but you can't be as much of an athlete as if you were at another position. When I played shortstop, I always loved to make diving plays and stuff like that. It was fun for me because I could impact the game more as an athlete."

How do you deal with the stereotype of kickers being "non-athletes"?

"Sometimes it is hard. All the kickers at Wisconsin played different positions in high school. People think I grew up just kicking the football all my life. Growing up, I was a center-forward in soccer, a shortstop in baseball, and a wide receiver and defensive back in football. I also like to play pick-up basketball. I think my teammates see that I am not just a guy who has a leg and swings it like a robot. I just try to show my athleticism in other ways."

How do you deal with the pressure of kicking a game-winning field goal?

"I think I am very laid-back person. I have always been able to not fully realize the importance of a situation and break it down to a simple form. I tell myself to 'just kick the ball.' When I say it like that, I may as well be at practice instead of in front of 80,000 fans. I have full confidence in my holder and snapper so all I really have to do is kick the ball. I deal with the situation by not acknowledging that there is one."

How has your soccer experience translated to your football success?

"Soccer was really my sport growing up beginning when I was five years old. I went to Europe in eighth grade with an all-star team. We went to England and Denmark and that is how I first got started in sports. I really had an offensive mentality on the field. When I got the ball, I wanted to score. Now, I have the same mentality on the football field. I like to be in the role of scorer."

How have you dealt with the change in weather from California to Wisconsin?

"It has been tough, especially with the winters. The winters alone can make you California-crazy. You just have to block it out like other distractions. I think the year of backing up John Hall helped me realize the things I needed to do for success. No matter what the weather, it still just comes down to kicking the ball through the goalposts."

A CONVERSATION WITH CECIL MARTIN

Is there a specific aspect of your community work that you enjoy the most?

"I really enjoy working with kids. I have also done projects with the homeless, and that is very satisfying. Things like that bring you back down to Earth and make you appreciate the blessings you have."

What motivates you to give back to the community as often as you do?

"In high school, I felt that no matter how rough things might be going for me that I still had a lot to give to others. When I got to Wisconsin, the coaches gave us the opportunity to get involved in the community and I was interested in doing that. As time wore on, I got involved more and more. The satisfaction for me is that what goes around, comes around. There have been so many people — role models and mentors in my life — that have been there for me. I just want to extend similar efforts back to other people who might be less fortunate."

You did an internship at a local TV station a couple of summers ago. Is that a career that you're interested in?

"I am really interested in broadcast journalism. I got an opportunity to work at a station and saw how things worked and how things got done. I realized that it was something that I wanted to do. I am also interested in business and media studies."

How does it feel to block for a running back like Ron Dayne?

"You have a person behind you in Ron who can make things happen if you make something happen. I count on the offensive linemen to do their job so I can do mine and eventually Ron can do his thing. It's good to know that he can make something happen if you do your job. As an offensive unit, we know we have somebody back there who can make a difference and we take great pride in that."

A CONVERSATION WITH JOHN FAVRET

Being considered an undersized lineman, how do you approach the game against larger opposition?

"I just try to get off the ball quickly and use great technique. If you have good technique, it doesn't really matter what size you are. If you play hard and never stop your motor, you can make up for a lack of size. I just try to play hard, never stop and have great technique."

Is there anybody in the NFL who you can identify with your style of play?

"Just the guys who go out and play hard every down. A guy like Chris Spielman is a little undersized, but he plays hard. Guys like that make up for size by playing hard every down and being smart."

How have you developed your technique since you have been at Wisconsin?

"When I first came here, Coach (John) Palermo was a perfectionist and really got me in that mode of thinking. He told me to have great technique, and I took that to heart. I also watched Tarek Saleh when I was a redshirt freshman. I just took the simple things from him like stance and how to approach a game. I think I learned the most from those two individuals."

How did your redshirt year help you develop as a player and as a student?

"I came to Madison the summer before my freshman year, and I thought I was a big guy coming out of high school. Then I saw Jerry Wunsch and realized that I would have to bump heads with him. He beat me up pretty good in practice, but I learned a lot. The year allowed me to get used to college life, and I was able to work on my studies. Those things have really played out well for me in the long run."

How have you dealt with the success of your freshman season?

"I really didn't think about it as a big deal. I had worked hard and was prepared. It was a huge thrill getting the chance to play. Once we snapped the ball, my football instincts took over. I was fortunate to make some plays early in my freshman season, and I am ready to build on it this year."

What are you goals for this season?

"Every game, I want to have perfect technique. I want to go out and make big plays and have fun. I am working on my pass rush, and I am also looking to be more of a vocal leader. The key is to never be satisfied with what you did in the past. I must enter this season as though I'm back at square one. I had some success last year and I want to build on it."

A CONVERSATION WITH CHRIS MCINTOSH

Considering the youth of last year's offensive line, how will an added year of experience aid this year's development?

"The experience will undoubtedly be a positive for us as a unit. Last year, we were all relatively young, so we learned by just playing. We all have another year of experience under our belt, and we're not that young anymore. We need to come out and progress as an offensive line. If we do that, we will be successful in our goals."

You missed almost two years of football between a high school injury and a redshirt season as a freshman. How did that affect you?

"It was a hard time for me. It seemed like I hadn't played football forever because I only played three games as a high school senior. I came to Madison and it seemed like there was potential to play, and I just tried to do my best. I knew that if I worked hard and kept my focus, everything would work out eventually."

Describe the injury that sidelined you for most of that senior year in high school.

"I got my leg buckled from the outside during the third game of the season. I tore my ACL (anterior cruciate ligament) and MCL (medial collateral ligament). I ended up having complications with the surgery and it got infected. It was a tough recovery, but I learned alot about myself during that process."

Have you thought about the possibility of blocking for a Heisman Trophy winner?

"We just want Ron (Dayne) to do as good as he can. I can't say we really talk about it as a group. We just want to do well as an offensive line and get back to running the ball like this program is known for. We weren't very happy with how we ended last season in the running game."

What's the toughest part of being a student-athlete at the University of Wisconsin?

"Balancing your time between school and football. The tutors help out a lot and the study table program is great. The Fetzer Learning Center makes a lot of things convenient for us. It's hard to go study when you come home after practice and you're beaten up, but you have to grind at it. Getting an education is why we're at this institution."

What do you do with your spare time?

"I do a lot of hunting and fishing, when I get a chance. I have missed the last three years of hunting due to football but if I could just spend my time any way I wanted, I would probably fish."

A CONVERSATION WITH KEVIN STEMKE

Describe your success as a true freshman on the Wisconsin football team.

"It was fun. I came in here with a lot of hype and a lot of pressure, but I thought I handled it well. There were some things I was disappointed with during the season but overall I was pretty happy. I accomplished my distance and net punting goals. I think I need a little work on hang time but that will come with leg strength and more flexibility."

With all of your experiences with sports in high school, how did you decide on punting the football?

"I started achieving more success in kicking so that's where my interest was. It put my coach in a tough spot. He didn't want to play me at quarterback because if I got hurt, it would jeopardize my future (in kicking). But I went ahead and played quarterback in my first game as a senior. By halftime, I had separated my shoulder. Since then, I haven't played quarterback."

What other sports did you play in high school and which one would you play now instead of football?

"I played soccer for about 10 years. I never played in high school because football and soccer season were at the same time. I experimented with tennis and I played basketball recreationally. I couldn't skate real well but I tried to play hockey. I usually just fell on the ice. If I had to play another sport, it would have to be soccer. I had some success in it."

How did the soccer experience help you on the football field with kicking?

"With punting, not at all. As far as placekicking, soccer is part of the reason why placekicking comes easy to me. Some people can't judge how far away to be from the ball (in football). When you play soccer, there isn't time to take your steps back and judge where to be. It's instinctive and that carries over to football. When you're kicking, you already know where to plant and where to be."

How tough is it to be a kicker in the climate of Wisconsin?

"I suppose when you grow up here, and live here and experience the winter all the time, it does not bother me much. The biggest thing is to stay loose on the sidelines. If you just stand around, you're going to tense up. If you have to go in and kick and haven't stayed loose, it can be tough. The ball is usually harder but you get used to it over time."

A CONVERSATION WITH JASON DOERING

Describe your last three games of the '97 season and the success you had.

"Well, I really didn't expect to play in the Michigan game. Every week, I had prepared myself to be ready, but I hadn't seen much playing time up to that point. Then, they told me I was going in and I just had fun. I started the next two games and it was a great experience. I prepared to play every weekend and it finally paid off. I knew I was young and would get my chance eventually."

What other options did you have coming out of high school to continue your sports career?

"I was going to play baseball at a junior college. I miss baseball sometimes and wish I could play it here. I played centerfield and some of the mentality from playing that position applies to free safety. When the ball goes up, you go get it."

What was your decision-making process in choosing to attend Wisconsin?

"I knew a bunch of the guys on the team from some all-star games, and they wanted me to come to Madison. I wasn't sure what I was going to do and then one of the coaches called and said they wanted me to walk-on. The next day I called and said I would come. I came in with the mind-set that I was part of the team and one day I would play."

Do you regret passing up the opportunity to play baseball competitively?

"Sometimes I miss it. I have a friend who is playing at Indiana State, and we were going to play together. I wish I could have my shot at playing baseball because I think I could have done well at it. But my decision to come to Wisconsin has been a very good one and has definitely been the right choice for me."

What goals does the defense have for the upcoming season?

"Ultimately, we want to be the best defense we can be. We are looking to achieve some respect for the secondary. We are going to be as physical as we can. If we play physical and fly to the ball, the respect will come to the defense as well as our entire football team."

A CONVERSATION WITH MIKE SAMUEL

There has been much attention to improving the passing game in 1998. How did spring practice help that cause.

"Personally, I took more time to concentrate on technique and also watched more film. I tried to pay more attention to details and solidify the timing of certain routes."

What goals have you set for the offense for the upcoming season?

"We have a great offensive system, and we need to be consistent within that framework. If I can be patient in the passing game and make the throws, we can be successful. The receivers are playmakers, and of course, it's a great bonus to have Ron (Dayne) in the backfield. That takes a lot of pressure off of the rest of us. The offensive line is a year older, and hopefully I can bring some added consistency to the passing attack. I know we have a chance to put together a successful season and reach our goals, but that's the challenge of athletics."

How has it affected you to have some many young receivers?

"I have taken extra time to work with each of them individually and relay how important it will be us to be on the same page. Timing is everything in the passing game and we continue to fine tune in that area."

What is your greatest individual achievement on the field as a Badger?

"I tend to focus on things in terms of team success. Within those parameters, I'd say the Boise State and Northwestern wins in 1997 would rank up there. The Iowa game was also huge for the school. The defense came out and did a great job, and I was the seniors could be a part of that victory."

A CONVERSATION WITH AARON GIBSON

How does it feel to be a preseason all-American heading into the season?

"It is a great honor and I really appreciate it. Right now, though, I am looking forward to the season and being the best player possible. I am not looking past the season, but I want to focus on getting better each week and helping us win games."

What does the offensive line have to do to be successful in 1998?

"Basically, we just have to stay together, work hard and believe in each other. It is important to come together as a unit and support each other. We just have to make sure that we have our steps down and that we know what the other linemen are doing. In addition, we are coming together as a team and that is the most important thing."

Much has been made of your size. Is that something you have to deal with as a person away from the field?

"It is just something that I deal with every day. My size is a part of me. It is not going away and there is nothing I can do about. I know that I am never going to be normal-sized and that is not a problem. I try not to make an issue of it."

Is it important to have your play on the field overshadow your size?

"That is the most important thing to me. I'm always going to be known for my size, but I would much rather people remember me for my play on the field. I want people to know that I am a good player and an athlete. I'm not just big. You need to have some kind of athletic ability to play football. That's what I would like people to understand."

Describe your amazing flexibility, especially the ability to do the splits?

"It is just something that I have had all my life. Sometimes I do the splits for fun because it amazes people. When I was young, I always cramped up at swimming meets, and that is kind of how it started. Stretching has always been something that I've done."

What do you look for from your younger brother (13-year-old, 300-pound Adam) in the future?

"I'll support him in whatever he does. If he wants to play the violin, I will support him with that. And definitely, I will help him if he decides to play football. I will be behind him 100 percent. Hopefully, he will become the next biggest player in college football because he is definitely much bigger than I was at his age. Whatever he wants to do, I will be behind him."

How did it feel to be labeled the "Lineman of the Future" by ABC's program "20/20"?

"It was a great tribute. It made me feel good that people were thinking I might be the prototypical lineman of the future. Hopefully, it won't be just because of my size but what I do out on the football field."

In the decade of the 1990s, the Wisconsin football program has been elevated from laughing stock to a perennial bowl participant. Energetic ninth-year head coach Barry Alvarez is the person credited with overseeing that resurrection.

Alvarez, who turned 51 two days prior to the Badgers' Outback Bowl game last January (Wisconsin's fourth bowl in the last five seasons), has raised spirits and expectations for a once-moribund gridiron program.

Taking the reins of a team which produced just six winning seasons in 26 years prior to his arrival, Alvarez has authored a resume which suggests he is the best coach in Wisconsin history.

• Wisconsin has claimed four bowl wins in 109 years of competition. Alvarez coached three of them.

• The Badgers have qualified to play in nine bowl games. Alvarez has guided the Badgers to four of them.

• Wisconsin has produced 10 winning campaigns in the last 34 years. Alvarez was on the sidelines for four of them.

Alvarez, who enjoyed immense success as a player at Nebraska and as an assistant coach at Iowa and Notre Dame prior to his appointment in Madison, has turned the football fortunes around at a school that won just nine times in the four years before his arrival.

Alvarez' clubs in the last five years have generated more wins, interest, fan support, TV exposure and honors than any prior era of Badger football.

He was named head football coach on Jan. 2, 1990, just after Notre Dame (where Alvarez was assistant head coach) defeated Colorado in the Orange Bowl to win the national championship.

Once he settled into his new situation, Alvarez realized ...

• there was fan apathy as the school was coming off its lowest attendance average in 45 years.

• there was a losing attitude since the Badgers had finished no better than eighth place in the Big Ten in the previous five years.

• there was a lack of resources as the school faced the elimination of sports to save money and pay the bills.

The pressure was on the football program to prosper and replenish the department's financial ledgers.

His goals were to spark interest for his program, build recruiting relationships around the nation and pursue success one step at a time. In other words, Alvarez had a plan.

Through it all, he preached togetherness, toughness, discipline, focus and a no-nonsense approach to winning.

Badger Success

The result has been a consistently successful program which has brought joy to supporters, notoriety to the school and prestige and revenue to an athletic department which sorely needed both.

Alvarez' record at Wisconsin is 49-41-4 (.543). That win total is the third-most in school annals, trailing Phil King (65) and Milt Bruhn (52).

During his tenure, Alvarez reversed the fortunes of a program that had hit rock bottom. After a 1-10 rookie season, Alvarez guided the UW to a Big Ten co-championship and Rose Bowl triumph in his fourth year.

Only two coaches in Big Ten history — Alvarez and Ohio State's Wes Fesler (1947-49) — took last-place programs their first year and turned them into eventual league champs.

Head Coach Barry Alvarez

Besides the obvious on-field improvement, home crowds have increased by more than 36,000 per game since his arrival. The Badgers have ranked in the top 10 nationally for attendance the last five seasons and have played in front of 25 more-than-capacity crowds in the last 28 games at Camp Randall Stadium.

College Resume

Alvarez was appointed to his position one day after his 42nd birthday. "My old coach, Bob Devaney, told me that I should set a goal for myself to take a head coaching job by the time I was 42," Alvarez said. "I missed it by one day."

For three years, Alvarez was an assistant for Lou Holtz at Notre Dame. He served as linebackers coach in 1987, was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1988 and to assistant head coach in 1989.

Notre Dame finished 17th, first and second in the final Associated Press poll the three seasons Alvarez was there. The Irish won an incredible 23 consecutive games in 1988 and 1989.

The 1988 Irish team won the national championship with a 12-0 record. As coordinator, Alvarez' defense ranked third nationally in scoring, 10th against the run and 13th in total defense.

Notre Dame was 12-1 in 1989 and the nation's No. 1 team for 11 weeks. Alvarez' defense keyed a 21-6 Orange Bowl victory over top-ranked Colorado.

Alvarez coached all-America linebackers Michael Stonebreaker (a consensus pick), Ned Bolcar, Cedric Figaro and Wes Pritchett at ND.

As an Iowa assistant, he coached linebackers from 1979-86. The Hawkeyes went to bowl games the last six years, after 17 seasons without a winning season.

Alvarez coached five first-team all-Big Ten linebackers at Iowa, where his prize pupil was two-time consensus all-American Larry Station. An academic all-American as well, Station set the Hawkeyes' career tackle record.

Prior to the UI, he coached at Mason City (Iowa) High School from 1976-78, compiling a 21-9 mark. He won a 4A state title in 1978, when he was league and district Coach of the Year.

His first head coaching job was at Lexington (Neb.) High School from 1974-75. He compiled a 16-4 ledger and was the Nebraska prep Coach of the Year in 1974.

Barry got his coaching start in 1971 as an assistant at Lincoln (Neb.) Northeast High School. The squad won a state title in 1972.

Personal Information

A three-year letterman as a Nebraska linebacker, Alvarez was the top tackler among linebackers (112) for the 1967 Cornhuskers. That club led the nation in total (157.6 yards) and passing defense (90.1), was third nationally vs. the run (67.5) and created a school-record 40 turnovers. Nebraska led the Big Eight in total defense all three of Alvarez' varsity years on the way to compiling a 25-7 record and gaining berths in the Orange and Sugar Bowls. He also played in the Blue-Gray game and Senior Bowls.

Alvarez earned his B.S. degree in '69 and an M.A. degree from Nebraska in '71.

Barry and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy (Mrs. Mike Delzer); a son, Chad; and a grandson, Joe Ferguson. Alvarez was born Dec. 30, 1946, in Burgettstown, Pa.

Alvarez' yearly season recaps on p. 100

Head Coach Barry Alvarez

A Rosy Season

The '93 Badgers will be remembered as the squad that established new standards. The winningest team in school history ...

- was co-champ of the Big Ten and won its first Rose Bowl.
- finished fifth (coaches) and sixth (media) in the final polls.
- posted the NCAA's largest attendance increase.
- improved its record by 5.5 games from '92, the largest gain in UW history (5-6 in 1992 to 10-1-1 in 1993).

For those achievements, Alvarez was named national Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association, the Bobby Dodd Foundation, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and College Sports magazine.

Alvarez also became the first Wisconsin coach to earn the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year Award. He got 94 percent of the first-place votes.

The team was led by Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP Brent Moss, who set a school-record with 1,637 rushing yards. Darrell Bevell set a Wisconsin standard with 2,390 yards passing and his top target, Lee DeRamus, bettered the school's season receiving record (920 yards).

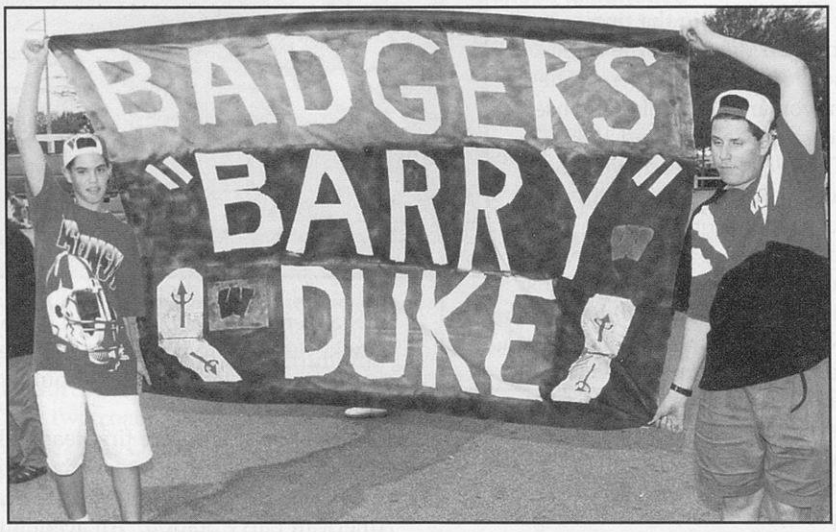
The season was also noteworthy because of the Badgers' Rose Bowl-berth clinching victory over Michigan State in a game that was played in Tokyo. It is the only game in Big Ten history to be played outside of the United States.

Hall of Fame Campaign

The '94 club had to deal with increased expectations, a difficult road schedule and an unusual number of injuries to key players. Through it all, the Badgers met every challenge head on.

For the second year in a row, the Badgers finished strong, including the school's first win at Michigan since '62, a bowl-clinching victory over Illinois and the 34-20 win over Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

The Badgers smashed all previous school attendance records, earned seven TV appearances and had seven NFL draft picks.



Head Coach Barry Alvarez

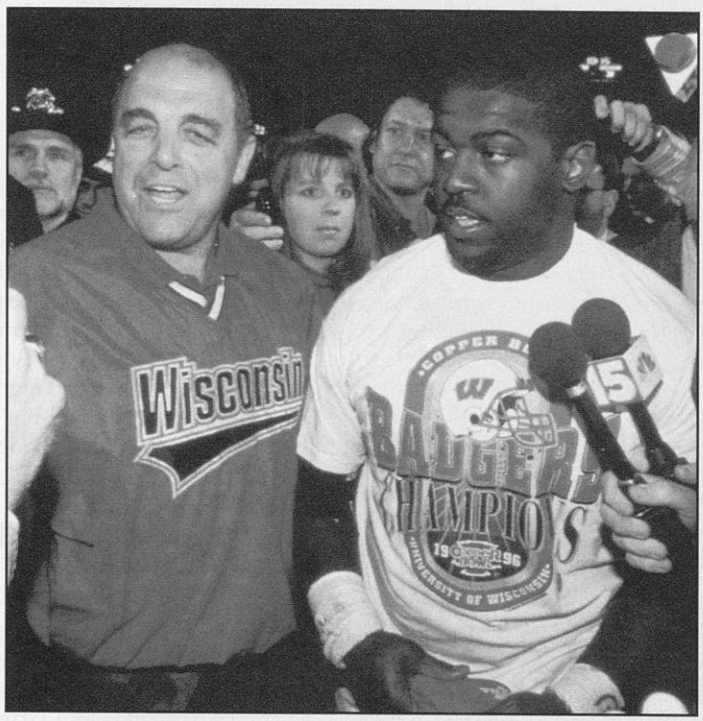
A Copper Championship

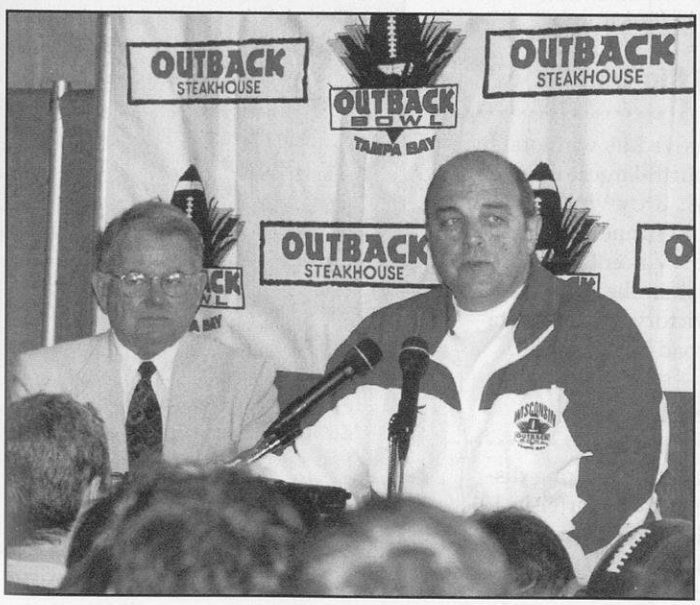
Wisconsin's 1996 team closed quickly winning four times in the final five weeks to secure a bid to play in the Copper Bowl. The Badgers smashed Utah 38-10 to win their third bowl game in four seasons. Only six other schools — Tennessee, Colorado, Penn State, Alabama, Nebraska and Florida State — could make that claim.

The '96 Badgers became just the fourth team in the last 50 years at the school to win at least eight games, registering an 8-5 mark. Fans continued to support Alvarez' club in near-record numbers. Wisconsin placed 10th nationally in average home attendance.

Tarek Saleh and Jerry Wunsch earned all-America honors after successful senior campaigns. Pete Monty led the Big Ten in tackles and became the school's career leader with 451.

Ron Dayne (pictured at right with Alvarez), a true freshman, broke nearly every rushing mark in UW history, became just the 12th collegian to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and was MVP of the Copper Bowl with 246 yards.





Another Visit to Tampa

The Badgers won eight of their opening 10 games and were selected to play Georgia in the Outback Bowl. A 33-6 loss to the Bulldogs ended a second consecutive 8-5 campaign.

Wisconsin won six straight games after a season-opening loss to Syracuse in the Kickoff Classic, equalling the longest stretch of victories in the modern era at the UW. Included in that streak was the 500th win in school annals, a 56-10 triumph at San Jose State.

The Badgers became the second team in league history to record three one-point victories in a season. First-team all-Big Ten kicker Matt Davenport booted two game-winning kicks. Ron Dayne earned first-team all-America honors after a 1,457-yard season, despite missing 12 quarters of action. He registered three games over 200 yards rushing.

Head Coach Barry Alvarez

Alvarez, Year-by-year

1997: 8-5 (5-3 Big Ten)

A six-game winning streak catapulted the Badgers to a second consecutive eight-win season and berth in the Outback Bowl vs. Georiga. The Badgers joined the '37 Michigan team as the only ones in league history to win three one-point decisions. Ron Dayne earned first-team all-America honors and Matt Davenport won two games with last-second field goals.

1996: 8-5 (3-5 Big Ten)

The Badgers opened quickly with a 3-0 non-league slate before losing four games (three by a combined total of 10 points) to highly ranked foes. The UW closed 4-1 and then ended the year with a 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl. Ron Dayne set an NCAA freshman rushing record with 2,109 yards.

1995: 4-5-2 (3-4-1 Big Ten)

With the most inexperienced squad in the Big Ten and facing the nation's most difficult schedule (according to the Seattle Times), the Badgers posted a 4-5-2 campaign. Darrell Bevell broke nearly every passing record at the UW. The 17-9 upset at Penn State broke the NCAA's longest win streak (20).

1994: 8-3-1 (5-2-1 Big Ten)

Wisconsin won its second straight January bowl game by defeating Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. The regular season featured a win at Michigan for the first time since 1962 and a school-record 632-yard total offensive output vs. Indiana. Center Cory Raymer was a consensus all-American. Seven players were drafted by the NFL.

1993: 10-1-1 (6-1-1 Big Ten)

The winningest team in UW history was Big Ten co-champ, beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl and was ranked as high as fifth (coaches) in the final polls. The UW had the NCAA's largest attendance increase, and its .875 winning percentage was the best by a Big Ten team since '79. A school-record eight players were named first-team all-Big Ten. Tailback Brent Moss was the Badgers' first Big Ten MVP since 1962.

1992: 5-6 (3-5 Big Ten)

The UW was 5-6 and climbed in the Big Ten standings for the third season in a row. The Badgers upset 12th-ranked Ohio State, the first win over a nationally rated foe in eight years. Wisconsin received votes in the national polls for the first time in Alvarez' career and ended the year one victory short of a post-season bowl bid. Three of the losses were by a total of four points.

1991: 5-6 (2-6 Big Ten)

Wisconsin improved its win total by four games, the fourth-largest improvement in the NCAA. Troy Vincent was an all-American and runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award. Vincent was the seventh overall pick in the NFL draft by the Dolphins. A victory at Minnesota broke a 23-game road losing streak.

1990: 1-10 (0-8 Big Ten)

Wisconsin was within striking distance entering the fourth quarter in 10 games, although its only victory was over Ball State. Wisconsin had the third-best attendance gain nationally.

WISCONSIN'S BEST?

Barry Alvarez has coached the Badgers to four seasons of at least eight victories since 1993. Wisconsin had just two eight-win campaigns in the modern era prior to his arrival.

Alvarez needs one victory to join Milt Bruhn as the only coaches in the modern era to record at least 50 victories as Wisconsin head coaches.

The charts below (based upon the modern era only) show that Alvarez ranks as one of the top coaches in UW history.

What Others Say About Barry

Brad Nessler, ABC Sports

"What Barry has done is put Wisconsin on the 'big-time' college football map. With his arrival in Madison, there came a new found sense of pride in UW football. His hard work in recruiting, promotion and on-field coaching, coupled with his charisma, has lifted Badger football to a new level."

Mike Holmgren, Packers' Coach

"Barry has done a tremendous job in bringing Wisconsin's football program back into national prominence. He has brought excitement to the whole state and the belief that the Rose Bowl could become a reality. Barry has been highly successful his whole career."

Lou Holtz, Former Notre Dame Coach

"Barry is one of the more memorable people I've ever worked with. His ability to relate to people and generate enthusiasm are qualities you cannot learn. He is an excellent coach, great representative of the University and a good family man."

Dave Wannstedt, Bears' Coach

"Barry is a great coach and an inspiring leader who is truly committed to winning and doing what is best for his kids. Barry gets the most out of his players, and his teams are always well prepared."

Head Coach Barry Alvarez

Questions & Answers from Barry Alvarez

Q: What was your vision for the Badger program when you took the job nearly a decade ago?

A: "I wanted to be competitive on a yearly basis and go to bowls. I wanted to have a solid football program, and we're close to that although you're never completely satisfied. We have some more work to do."

Q: How important is it to be the "state" school and how does it benefit the program?

A: "We represent the state when we play. Fans focus on us in this state. One of my old coaching friends told me the best thing is to be coach at 'The University of ... ' rather than a directional school."

Q: What do you personally enjoy about Madison?

A: "I love the vitality of a college campus. I like the activities that a school and city of this size can offer. As someone who is active and likes to be involved, Madison offers a great number of alternatives. It is also a terrific place to raise a family. I've had two kids attend the UW and their experiences at the school were also wonderful."

Q: What is your proudest accomplishment as coach at the University?

A: "I think you have to go back to January of 1994. Considering where the program came from and to see 70,000 people in red at the Rose Bowl was awesome. The statewide pride was something I am probably most proud of."

Q: Is it harder to climb the mountain or stay at the top?

A: "Particularly in this day and age, it is more difficult to get to the top. Not many have been able to win the league. Both are extremely tough tasks but I feel getting there for the first time is toughest."

Q: What do you enjoy most about coaching?

A: "Dealing with the players and being around young people. Seeing the development of young men on and off the field. Bringing in people from diverse backgrounds, molding them into a unit, having success and enjoying that success together is gratifying."

Q: What point in your life did you decide you wanted to be a football coach?

A: "I have always loved all athletics. Baseball was my first love. I started out as a business major in college, but after a year, realized the happiest people are those who pursue their passions. When I was a kid growing up, there was a reconditioning plant where they brought in sporting goods (helmets and pads). My friend and I would go down there and look at all the helmets. We would design uniforms. Another friend had access to Steeler tickets so I was fortunate to see pro training camps as a junior high school kid. I went to Pitt Panther and West Virginia games. I was exposed to a lot of sports as a youngster. I always thought it was exciting to be around sports."

Q: What keeps your fire burning to be a coach?

A: "I love to compete. When you're a competitor you look forward to matching wits with the guys on the other sidelines. I find it very invigorating to mold a unit and going to battle. I like to answer problems. As a manager of people, you have to be a problem solver."

Q: Who were influences on your life as a youngster who was hooked on sports?

A: "My midget league football coach, John Marcouchie, was one of the better coaches I've ever been around. As far as teaching fundamentals and how you act and carry yourself on the field, John was top-notch. My high school coach, Pat McGraw, lived across the street from me and really helped my development. I was his bat boy for the high school baseball team. He was a tough Irishman who influenced me a great deal."

Q: You played a lot of sports as a kid. Who was your favorite sports hero?

A: "Easy, Roberto Clemente. He was the best. Clemente was the most exciting performer I'd ever seen. Plus, I was into baseball at that point in my life. I played every position on the field and really enjoyed it."

1994	Wisconsin	Rose Bowl
1984	Illinois	Rose Bowl
1982	Illinois	Liberty Bowl

Brad Childress, offensive coordinator at Wisconsin since '92, is the man responsible for directing the two most-potent offenses in school history. Childress' Wisconsin units have enjoyed success both on the ground and through the air.

Wisconsin has led the Big Ten in rushing twice for Chilcress, and the '95 Badgers averaged a school-record 221.7 yards through the air.

During his tenure, Childress has coached the Badgers' season leaders in rushing (Ron Dayne), passing (Darrell Bevell), receiving (Lee DeRamus) and scoring (Dayne).

Childress came to Wisconsin in 1991 as running backs coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator in charge of QBs his second season.

Childress' best offense was the '93 club, which set a Wisconsin record by averaging 455.2 total yards per game, then the fourth-highest mark in Big Ten history. That club ranked first in the league in rushing (8th nationally) and total offense (12th), second in scoring (25th) and fourth in passing. The Badgers established a Big Ten Conference mark for pass completion percentage in a season (.675).

Prior to joining the UW staff, Childress was wide receivers coach at Utah (1990) and offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona (1986-89). Greg Wyatt, his NAU signal caller, became one of the first collegiate players to pass for more than 10,000 career yards.

Childress coached quarterbacks and helped with the computerized scouting department of the Indianapolis Colts in 1985 after a seven-year stint (1978-84) at Illinois. He was a full-time assistant with the running backs and wide receivers his final five campaigns in Champaign after two years as a graduate assistant.

The 1978 graduate of Eastern Illinois was born June 27, 1956, in Aurora, Ill.

Brad and his wife, Dru-Ann, have three sons (Andrew, Christopher and Kyle) and a daughter (Cara).

Kevin Cosgrove, the fourth-year defensive coordinator, is the only remaining member of Barry Alvarez' original staff at the UW. Cosgrove joined the Badger staff as linebackers coach in 1990 and added coordinator duties prior to '95.

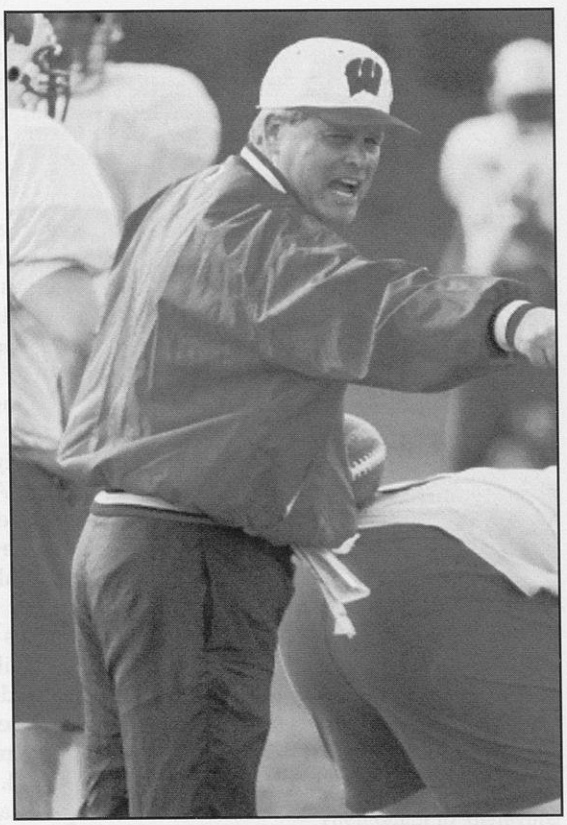
Prior to joining Alvarez' staff, Cosgrove was an assistant coach in charge of linebackers at Illinois for eight seasons (1980-87).

Cosgrove served as defensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State in 1988. He also worked for Coach Earle Bruce as a defensive assistant in 1989 at Colorado State.

His defenses have been characterized as strong against the run and are known for excellent linebacker play. A Cosgrove linebacker has been the Badgers' leading tackler seven times in eight seasons, including 1996 Big Ten leader Pete Monty.

Two of his linebackers — Aaron Norvell (1992) and Donnel Thompson (1997) — that led the team in tackles were former walk-ons. In fact, Norvell (148) and Thompson (141) registered the top two tackle seasons for a former walk-on in Badger history.

One of the midwest's top recruiters, Cosgrove signed Jeff George, Moe Gardner and Darrick Brownlow at Illinois. George was the NFL's No. 1 draft pick in 1990, Gardner was a two-time consensus all-American and Brownlow was Big Ten Defensive MVP.



His Wisconson recruits include Terrell Fletcher (Chargers), Lamark Shackerford (two-time all-Big Ten), Monty (career tackle leader and currently a member of the Giants) and Aaron Gibson (a 1998 preseason-all-American).

Cosgrove played college football at UW-Oshkosh where he graduated from in 1979.

1984	Wisconsin	Independence Bowl

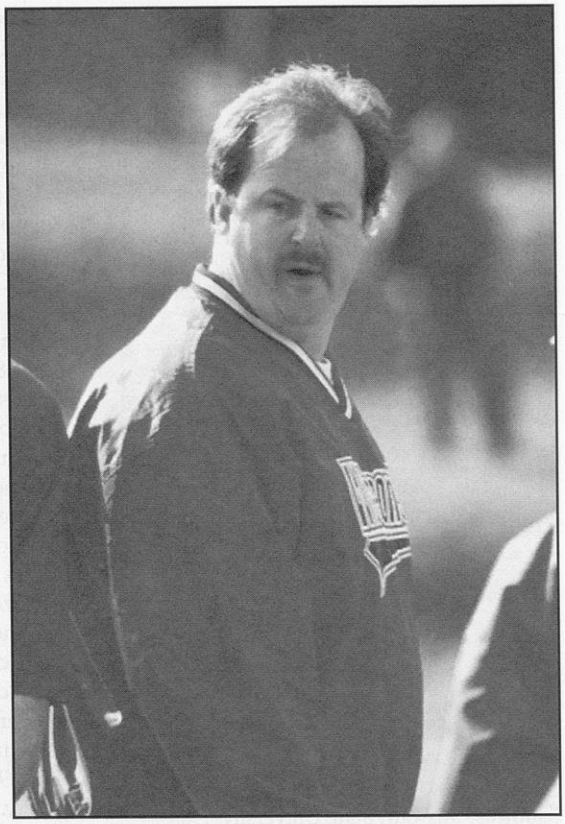
Tim Davis, a former graduate and volunteer assistant at Wisconsin, begins his second year in charge of tight ends.

Davis had been a staff member at Utah the prior seven years, including the last three in charge of tight ends and tackles. The Utes played in four bowl games during his tenure, including a 1996 match-up with the Badgers in the Copper Bowl.

Inheriting a porous offensive line at Utah in 1990, Davis quickly developed it into one of the WAC's top front lines. A number of Davis' former players made all-league squads and several were drafted by the NFL.

His line in 1993 protected QB Mike McCoy, who finished second nationally in total offense. The 1996 blockers surrendered just 11 sacks, a Utah record. The Utes' running game also made a resurgence while Davis was there. Jamal Anderson and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala are two of the backs that reaped the benefits of the line play coached by Davis.

Prior to his hiring at Utah, Davis was offensive line coach at Idaho (1989), offensive coordinator at Walla Walla CC (1988), assistant coach at Arizona (1987) and a graduate / volunteer assistant at Wisconsin (1983-86). Walla Walla earned a Centennial Bowl berth during his tenure, and the 1984 Badgers played in the Independence Bowl.



Davis began his playing career at Chabot College, where he lettered for two years before transferring to Utah. He was the Utes' Most Inspirational Player in 1980 and played professionally with the CFL's Hamilton Tigers (1981) and the USFL's Los Angeles Express (1983).

The 1982 graduate of Utah and his wife, Janice, have a son (Nick).

1987	Virginia	All-American Bowl
1986	Virginia Tech	Peach Bowl

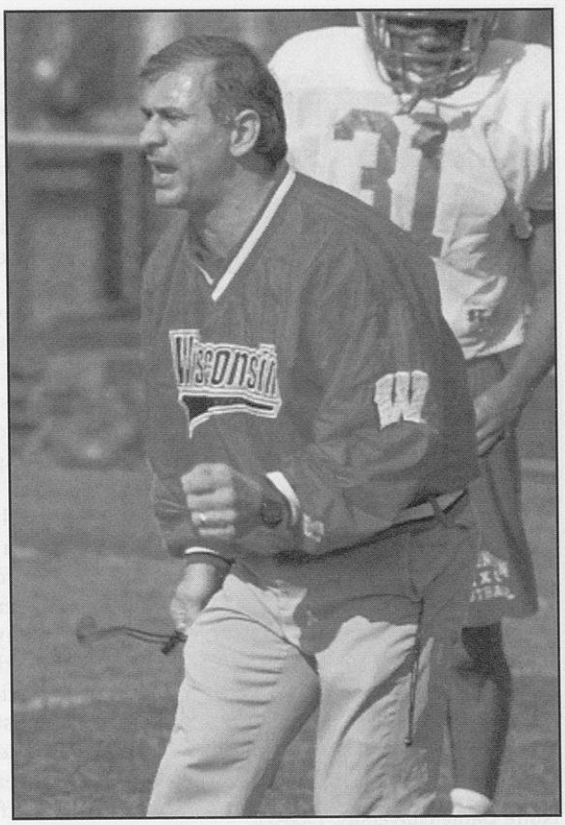
Phil Elmassian, a defensive coordinator at three previous schools, embarks on his second season as secondary coach for the Badgers.

Elmassian has served on coaching staffs that have participated in bowl games 10 of the last 13 years.

He came to Madison after one year (1996) as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Boston College. Prior to that, Elmassian coached defensive backs for Washington's 1995 Pac-10 runners-up. Among his players was Lawyer Milloy, a first-team all-American and runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award.

Elmassian worked with DBs and the punt return for two years (1991-92) at Syracuse. The Orangemen went to two bowls and his 1992 secondary led the nation with 27 interceptions.

He helped revitalize football fortunes at Virginia Tech during two separate tenures. He was defensive coordinator for Frank Beamer (1993-94) and worked as secondary coach for Bill Dooley (1985-86) at Tech. The Hokies are still running the defensive scheme that Elmassian introduced as coordinator. Virginia Tech played in three bowls during his two stints with the Hokies. The '86 Tech squad was the first in school history to win 10 games. The Hokies' 1994 total defense ranked in the nation's top 20.



Between assignments at Virginia Tech, Elmassian coached linebackers at Virginia (1987-90). The Cavaliers appeared in three bowls.

His Big Ten experience includes one year (1984) as secondary coach for Lou Holtz at Minnesota. He also served as secondary coach at East Carolina (1983), defensive coordinator and head track coach at Ferrum College (1979-82) and offensive backfield coach at both Richmond (1976-78) and William & Mary (1974-75).

Elmassian is a graduate of William & Mary (1974). His wife's name is Diane.

1992	Notre Dame	Sugar Bowl
1991	Notre Dame	Orange Bowl
1990	Notre Dame	Orange Bowl
1989	Notre Dame	Fiesta Bowl

Jay Hayes enters his fourth campaign as an assistant coach at Wisconsin with responsibilities for the outside linebackers and special teams. Hayes' appointment in 1994 reunited him with Coach Barry Alvarez. Hayes worked previously with Alvarez while both were at Notre Dame.

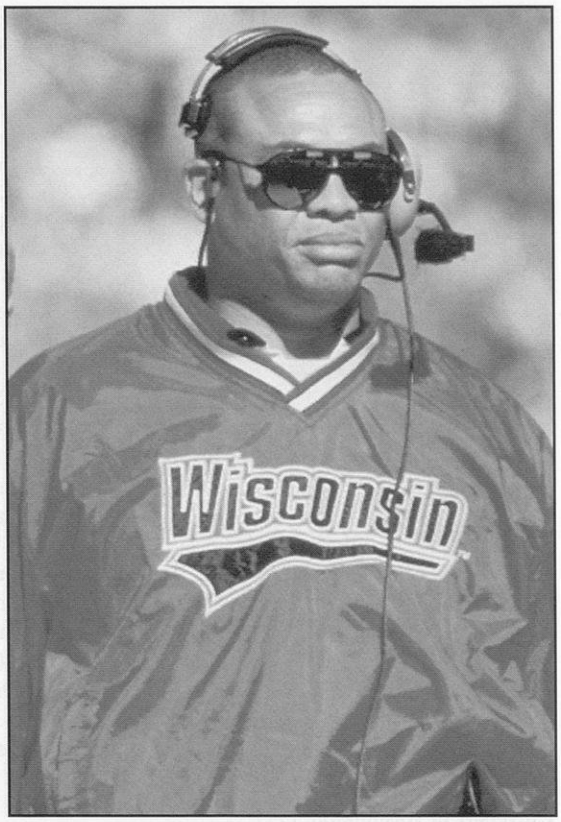
Hayes' special teams made dramatic improvement in '97. Matt Davenport won two games with last-second field goals on the way to first-team all-league honors, and freshman Kevin Stemke broke the school's season punting record with a 43.9 norm.

Two of the longest plays in Badger history were authored by Hayes' 1995 special teams. John Hall connected on a 60-yard field goal, the fourth-longest in NCAA history without the use of a tee, and Aaron Stecker registered a 100-yard kickoff return at Minnesota.

Prior to the UW, Hayes worked three years at Cal, overseeing outside linebackers in 1992-93 before adding special teams duties in 1994.

As a member of the Fighting Irish coaching staff, Hayes helped Notre Dame to a 41-7 record and New Year's Day bowls each season. Hayes was a graduate assistant on the '88 national championship team before a promotion to full-time status (OLBs and special teams) from 1989-91.

Hayes was a two-time (1980-81) first-team all-league pick at Idaho. He received his B.S. degree in history from Idaho in 1984. Hayes played professionally in both the NFL and USFL from 1982-86.



Hayes is the older brother of NFL veteran Jon Hayes, who was recruited by Alvarez at Iowa. Jon Hayes was a TE with the Chiefs for 10 years before joining the Steelers in 1994. Jon played in the 1996 Super Bowl.

Jay and his wife, Suzanne, have two sons (Jesse and Miles) and a daughter (Jazmin).

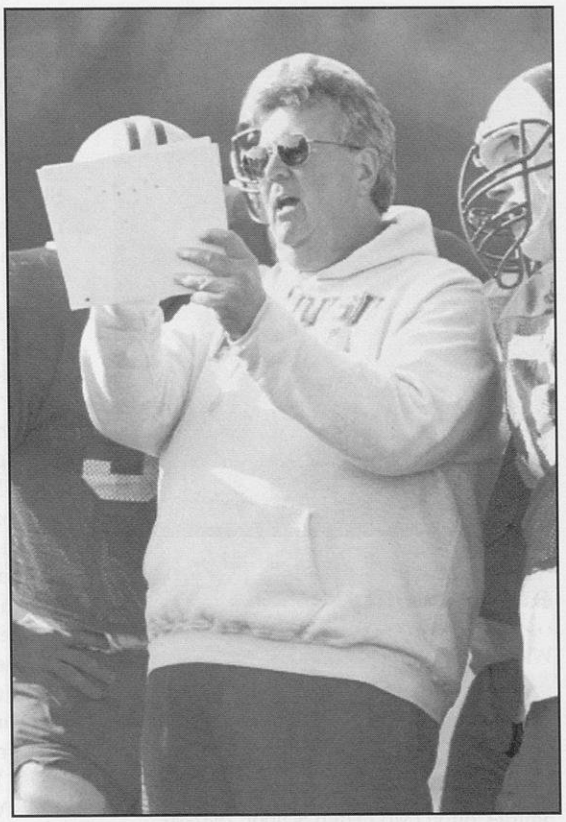
Jim Hueber, who has worked with one of college football's top rushing offenses, starts his seventh season at Wisconsin and his fourth campaign in charge of the offensive line. Hueber coached running backs for three years before switching to the line in 1995.

With a veteran line in 1996, which included seven fifth-year seniors, Hueber's blockers paved the way for Ron Dayne's record-breaking season. The tailback rambled for 2,109 yards as the Badgers led the Big Ten and finished 12th nationally in rushing.

During Hueber's tenure in Madison, the Badgers have led the Big Ten in rushing twice and finished second once. In the two seasons prior to Hueber's arrival, Wisconsin averaged fewer than 100 yards on the ground.

As running backs coach from 1992-94, Hueber worked with Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher, the school's third- and fourth-best career rushers. The Moss-Fletcher duo combined for 2,633 yards in the Rose Bowl championship season, then the eighth-highest total for a backfield tandem in NCAA history.

Hueber came to Wisconsin after an eight-year stint at Minnesota, where he was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and an assistant coach (line and backs). Eight of his Gopher linemen were drafted by the NFL.



Hueber's lengthy resume before Minnesota includes offensive coaching positions at Memphis State (1983), Temple (1981-82), Wichita State (1979-80), Dodge City Community College (1975-78) and Cincinnati (1974). He was recruiting coordinator at Temple, Wichita State and Dodge City.

Career Postseason

1998	Wisconsin	Outback Bowl
1996	Wisconsin	Copper Bowl

Henry Mason enters his fourth season at Wisconsin in charge of wide receivers.

During his UW tenure, Mason aided the development of Donald Hayes and Tony Simmons, two of the top pass catchers in school history.

Hayes (106) and Simmons (99) concluded their careers ranked fifth and seventh in career catches at Wisconsin. Simmons ended his Wisconsin career second in yards (1,991), first in TDs (23) and first in average per catch (20.1).

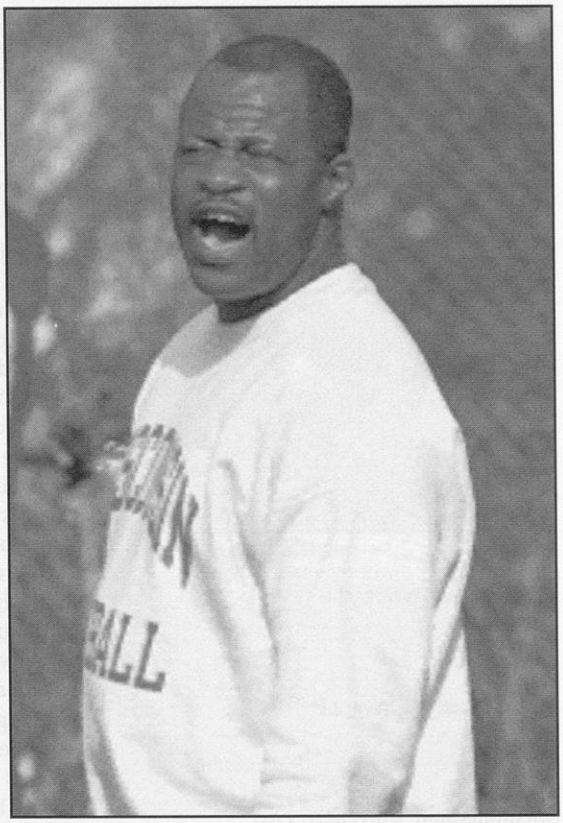
In Mason's first season at Wisconsin, the Badgers established a school record for average passing yards per game. Michael London, who had 10 catches entering that '95 season, led the club with 41 grabs.

Prior to his appointment at Wisconsin, Mason handled wide receivers and kick returners at Western Michigan (1991-94). WMU led the Mid-American Conference in passing three of his four seasons.

The Broncos had more than 2,700 yards passing his final season. Three of his receivers had at least 40 receptions, including Andre Wallace, who caught 68 passes for 758 yards in 1994.

Mason was head coach at Smith-Cotton High School in Sedalia, Mo., for six years. Mason's mark at Smith-Cotton was 31-31, and his 1988 club became the first team at the school in 13 years to post a winning record and make the playoffs. Mason was also offensive coordinator at Smith-Cotton for three seasons (1982-84).

Mason was an assistant at Baker University (1981) in Baldwin, Kan. after beginning his career as an assistant at Lexington (Mo.) High School. He worked with running backs and defensive backs on clubs that posted a 21-0-1 record and won a state title.



The 1979 graduate of Central Missouri State earned all-America mention in football and baseball. Mason was drafted by the Baltimore Colts, where he played one season (1978). He also played one year (1979) with St. Louis. His wife's name is Debbie.

1986	Minnesota	Liberty Bowl
1985	Minnesota	Independence Bowl

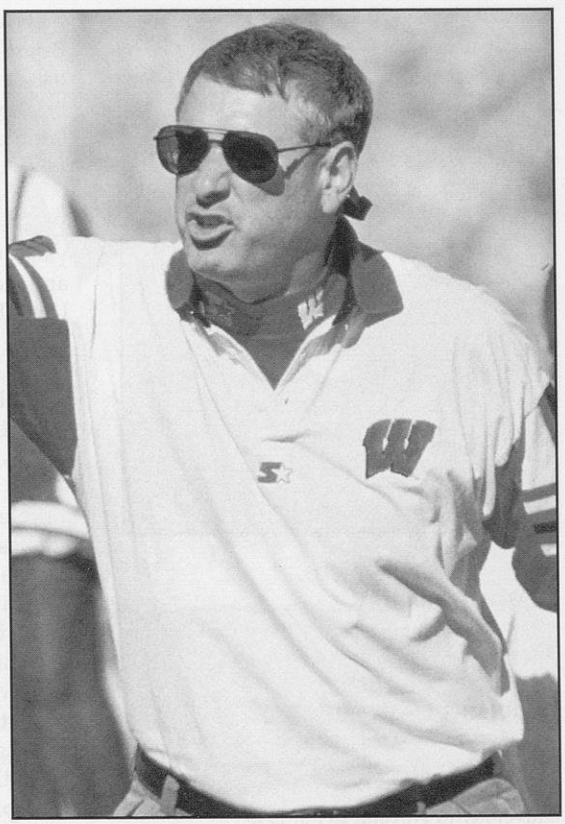
John Palermo returns for his eighth year at Wisconsin and his fourth season in charge of the defensive line. Palermo handled outside linebackers for four years (1991-94) before moving to the defensive line prior to the '95 campaign.

Palermo, the Badgers' assistant head coach, holds a number of administrative duties for the football program and coordinates the Badgers' in-state recruiting efforts. Wisconsin's in-state haul in 1998 (12 recruits) was the largest of the Alvarez era.

Palermo has coached several honored players at Wisconsin. Tarek Saleh was a two-time first-team all-Big Ten pick, Bryan Jurewicz broke a school mark for passes tipped by a lineman (nine) and Tom Burke recorded a team-leading 19 tackles for loss last fall.

Three of Palermo's former players — Saleh (Carolina), Chad Cascadden (New York Jets) and Jason Maniecki (Tampa Bay) — were on NFL rosters in 1997.

Before joining Alvarez' staff at the UW, Palermo was head coach for one year (1990) at Austin Peay. In two seasons (1988-89) at Notre Dame, Palermo and Alvarez designed the Irish defense, which ranked 13th and 14th nationally in total defense. The Irish won the national title in 1988 and registered a 24-1 record over two years.



Palermo worked from 1984-87 at Minnesota, helping the Gophers to a pair of bowls. He was also an assistant coach at Appalachian State (1983), Memphis State (1980-82) and Austin Peay (1979).

Palermo graduated from Florida State in 1974 where he lettered at tight end.

1996	Wisconsin	Copper Bowl
1994	UNLV	Las Vegas Bowl
1990	Notre Dame	Orange Bowl
1989	Notre Dame	Fiesta Bowl

Fourth-year assistant coach Brian White has quickly established himself as one of the brightest coaches and most enthusiastic recruiters in college football.

As running backs coach, White has tutored three 1,000-yard rushers (Ron Dayne twice and Carl McCullough) at the UW. The Badgers led the Big Ten in rushing in 1996 as Dayne broke Herschel Walker's national freshman rushing mark by more than 300 yards.

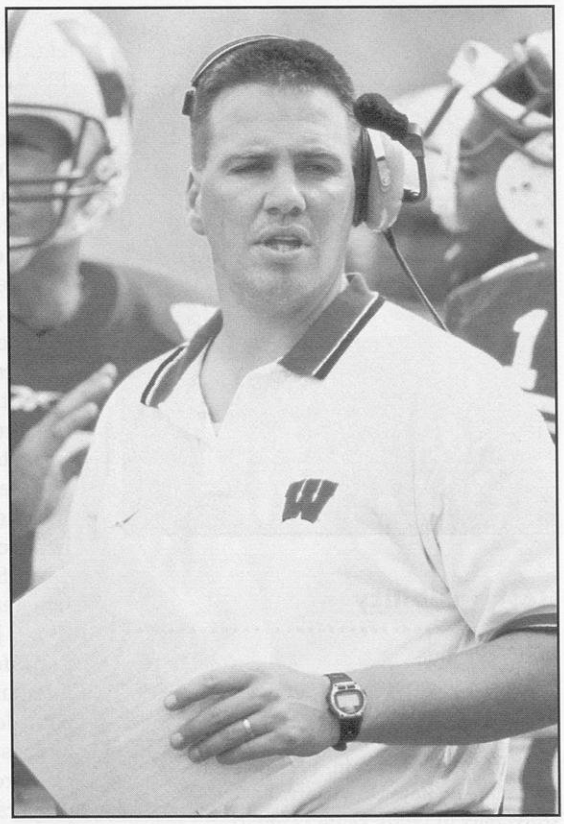
Besides his on-field skills, White has built a reputation as a tireless and effective recruiter. He has opened recruiting doors for the Badgers in California with five signees from the West Coast in the last two years.

White coached at UNLV in 1994 with Jeff Horton, one of the nation's top teachers of the passing game. The Rebels captured the Big West Conference championship and won the Las Vegas Bowl.

As the UNLV passing game coordinator in '94, White worked with Randy Gatewood (92 catches as a senior). He set NCAA records with 23 receptions for 363 yards against Idaho. White had also worked previously (1990-92) at UNLV, where he coached runners.

Between assignments at UNLV, White was an assistant to Horton at Nevada-Reno in 1993. As coordinator of the pass offense, he helped Chris Vargas lead the nation in total offense and Bryan Reeves rank second nationally in receiving (92 catches). Reno led the nation in total offense (589.0).

White also spent two years (1988-89) at Notre Dame as a graduate assistant. He worked with the running backs, including pro players Ricky Watters, Tony Brooks, Mark Green, Anthony Johnson and Rodney Culver. His first coaching job was at Fordham, where he tutored runners (1986-87).



White was a quarterback at Harvard, where he was second-team all-Ivy League and finished his career as the school's second all-time leading passer.

White has a B.A. in history from Harvard (1986), an M.A. from Fordham (1988) and an MBA from Notre Dame (1990). He and his wife, Sally, have a daughter (Cassity).

Bernie Wyatt is in his second year as Director of Football Operations and on-campus recruiting coordinator for the Badgers after a highly successful coaching career.

Wyatt, who joined Barry Alvarez' original staff as recruiting coordinator, coached tight ends from 1992-96 before moving into his current post.

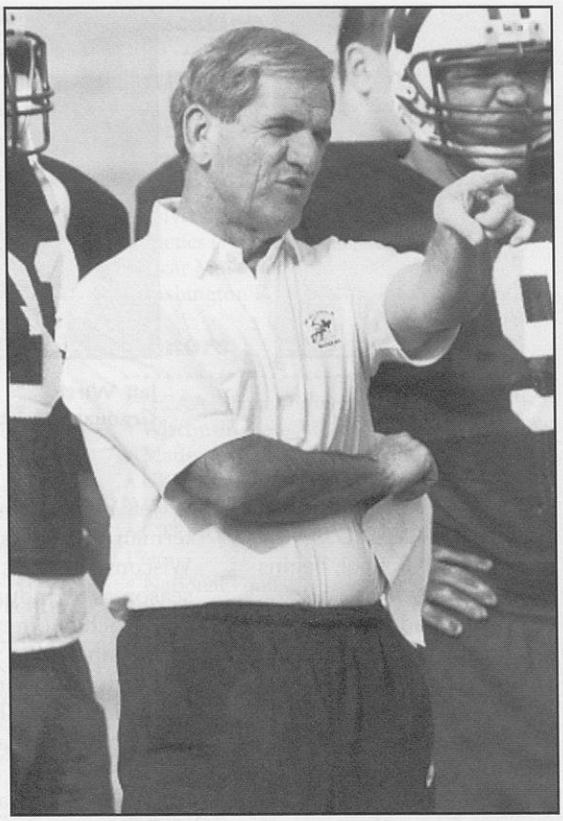
One of the nation's most respected East Coast recruiters, Wyatt brought a number of outstanding preps to Madison. Among them are tailback sensation Ron Dayne, Lee DeRamus (the school's second all-time leading receiver), Baltimore Raven starting safety Donny Brady and 1995 co-MVP Eric Unverzagt.

As tight ends coach, Wyatt worked with four-time all-Big Ten choice Michael Roan. Under Wyatt's guidance, Roan had 92 career receptions (sixth-most in school history). Roan plays for the Tennessee Oilers.

Wyatt also tutored Matt Nyquist, who set a UW single-game record with 13 catches vs. Iowa in 1995.

Wyatt, who has 22 years of experience coaching in the Big Ten, worked 16 seasons at Iowa before rejoining Alvarez in Madison. The duo was on Hayden Fry's staff at Iowa.

Wyatt was the Hawkeyes' first full-time recruiting coordinator (1979). He worked with Hawkeye OLBs and coached several of his own recruits. Most notable was Andre Tippett, a perennial NFL All-Pro with the Patriots. Wyatt signed many NFL players at Iowa, including Tippett, Bob Kratch, Ronnie and Kevin Harmon, Mike Devlin, Quinn Early, Devon Mitchell and Owen Gill.



Before joining the Iowa staff, Wyatt was a high school coach at Iowa City (Iowa) Regina and Lindenhurst (N.Y.) high schools.

The former high school all-American at Amityville (N.Y.) High School broke many of Hall of Famer Jim Brown's prep records. He was inducted into the Suffolk County Hall of Fame in 1995.

He and his wife, Barb, have two grown sons (Brad and Barry).

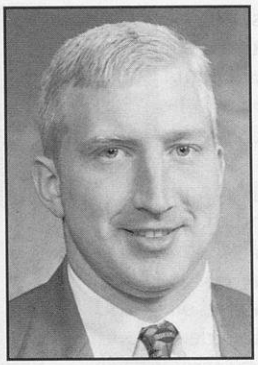
Matt Sheldon
Graduate Assistant

Matt Sheldon, a former high school star at D.C. Everest High School, begins his second season as a defensive graduate assistant.

Sheldon, a running back as a prep, helped his school become just the second in state history to earn a national ranking from USA Today. Sheldon played strong safety at the University of Minnesota.

He came to Madison after helping the New Orleans Saints with computer game analysis, video and other quality-control needs.

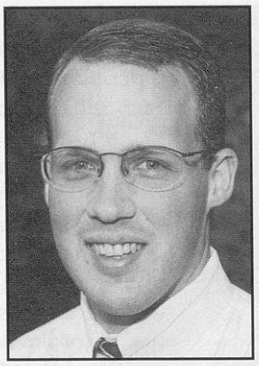


Jeff Wirth
Graduate Assistant

Jeff Wirth, a four-year letterman at fullback at Wisconsin, begins his second season as a graduate assistant coach of offense for his alma mater.

Wirth, a former walk-on, lettered from 1990-93 as a back-up fullback and special teams performer. He was named Special Teams Player of the Year on the Badgers' Rose Bowl team of 1993.

Wirth, who finished his career with 34 tackles, was an all-league football and track performer as a prep at D.C. Everest High School.



Gary King
Administrative Assistant

Gary King begins his second season as an administrative assistant in the Badger football office with responsibilities centered on organizing many of the team's off-the-field activities.

King handles camps, away-game travel, scheduling, the football budget, and coordinating the team managerial staff.

The 1993 graduate of the UW-Madison worked three years (1990-92) as a football manager and two years (1993-94) as a program assistant for the Badgers.

King graduated with academic honors (J.D. degree) at the William Mitchell College of Law in 1997. He earned a Dreves Scholarship (1997), served a two-year term with the Law Review and did independent research for Harmon, Ltd., while at William Mitchell.

King graduated from Stevens Point (Wis.) High School in 1988 before attending the UW-Madison.

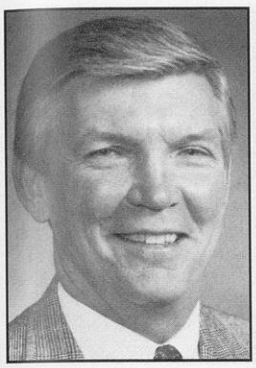
Pat Richter



Director of Athletics Pat Richter, the former Badger all-America gridiron star, three-sport letterman and successful business executive, is the person in charge of one of the NCAA's most thriving athletic departments.

As Director of Athletics, he is responsible for 22 sports, nearly 700 student-athletes and more than 160 employees. During his administration, the dean of Big Ten directors of athletics ...

- inherited a division that was $2.1 million in debt in 1990 and eliminated the red ink on the ledgers in less than four years.
- watched the football, basketball and hockey squads set season attendance marks during his administration.
- oversaw plans for significant facility improvements, most notably the construction of the 17,142-seat Kohl Center.

On the field of play, the Badgers have been highly successful during Richter's administration. The football squad has enjoyed unparalleled success during the Barry Alvarez era. Both the men's and women's basketball clubs, under the direction of Dick Bennett and Jane Albright-Dieterle, have made post-season play.

The varsity sports teams have continued the long-standing excellence that Badger fans have come to expect. Wisconsin has claimed two — hockey (1989-90) and men's soccer (1995) — NCAA titles during his tenure.

Perhaps Richter's most satisfying season as Director was 1993-94 when his alma mater won the Rose Bowl and qualified for its first NCAA men's basketball tourney in 47 seasons.

As a player, he earned all-America (1961-62) and academic all-America (1962) honors as an end.

In the first ever college football game between No. 1 and No. 2-ranked teams, Richter and his Badger teammates dropped a 42-37 decision to USC in one of the greatest Rose Bowls ever. He led Wisconsin to the 1963 Rose Bowl and set a game-record with 11 receptions.

Richter led the Big Ten in receiving twice and his name is still prevalent in the Badger record books. As a senior, Richter won Wisconsin's 1963 Big Ten Medal of Honor.

Richter was recognized for his college gridiron exploits in 1997 with his induction into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

He also earned all-league honors in baseball and led UW in hits, homers and RBI three times. The 6-foot-5 center received his scholarship for basketball.

Pat was a first-round draft pick of the Washington Redskins and played from 1963-71. Richter earned his B.S. degree from the UW-Madison in landscape architecture (1964).

Upon retirement from the NFL, he returned to Wisconsin to earn his law degree (1971). After working at a Madison law firm, he joined Oscar Mayer Corporation and was vice president of personnel when he left to join the University of Wisconsin.

Richter was honored with an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for post-college achievements in 1988. He is a member of the Wisconsin State Athletic and Madison Sports Halls of Fame and the NFL Player and Alumni Associations. Pat was enshrined in the UW Athletic and Rose Bowl Halls of Fame in '91 and '94, respectively. In 1995, he became the second Badger to gain induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame. The Sales & Marketing Executives of Madison named Richter their "Executive of the Year" in 1997.

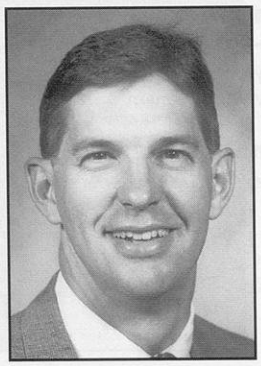
Associate Athletic Directors



Al Fish
Administrative Officer

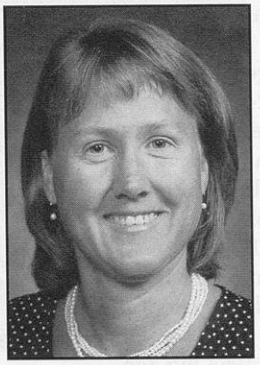
Al Fish, Administrative Officer for the department of athletics since 1989, oversees several internal units, the University Ridge Golf Course and the Badgers' football and crew squads.

Fish oversees facility development, event management, maintenance, technical services (computers and video departments) and the equipment room.

Fish, who came to the Department after three years (1987-89) as the Director of Policy and Budget for the DHSS, spent the last two years coordinating construction of the $76.4 million Kohl Center and serving as its interim General Manager.

He worked previously as a liaison for Gov. Tony Earl to the State Assembly, a budget analyst for the State Budget Office and a program evaluator for the Legislative Audit Bureau.

The 1973 graduate of Luther College is married to Susan Goodwin. They have three children: Cassie, Molly and Nick.



Cheryl Marra
Sports Administrator

Cheryl Marra begins her ninth year as an Associate Athletics Director / Sports Administrator at Wisconsin in charge of volleyball, basketball, swimming and golf.

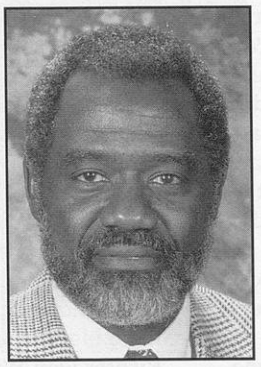
She is the Badgers' Senior Women's Administrator and also oversees the strength and conditioning program and coordinates the sport booster clubs.

Marra came to Wisconsin after serving as the women's athletic director at Denison from 1983-90. She was an assistant professor (seven years) as well as head soccer (11 years) and track (nine) coach at Denison.

Marra serves on the NCAA subcommittee for post-graduate scholarships. She has chaired the NCAA women's soccer committee, and the NCAA committee on women's athletics.

A 1977 graduate of Slippery Rock State, Marra received her M.A. from Ohio State in 1983.

Marra and her husband, Jerry, have three children: Kelly, Kenny and Peter.



Mike Moss
Sports Administrator

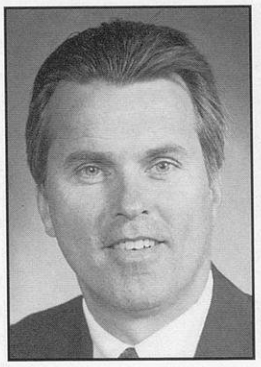
Mike Moss starts his third year at the UW as an Associate Athletics Director / Sports Administrator. He oversees the hockey, track, cross country, softball and wrestling programs.

Moss is also responsible for the academic affairs and sports medicine units and chairs the department's wellness program. Moss came to Wisconsin after serving as Director of Sports Operations for the Atlanta Olympic Games. He was chief administrator for six sports at the Games.

Prior to that stint with the Olympic organizing committee, Moss was an associate athletic director at Cal. He was in charge of the business office operation for the Bears until 1986 when he was named Associate A.D. for student services.

Moss, a 1961 graduate of Ohio, received his M.A. from California State Hayward. He is also a retired lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

His wife's name is Betty Gordon.



Vince Sweeney
External Relations Director

Vince Sweeney, in his eighth year at UW-Madison, begins his fourth season as an Associate A.D. in charge of external relations.

He oversees marketing and promotions, sports information, spirit squads, special events and fundraising. Sweeney is also a liaison with the W Club, Alumni Association and Foundation.

Sweeney serves on the Board of the National Association of Collegiate Marketers and Greater Madison Convention & Visitors Bureau. He is a member of the NCAA's subcommittee on basketball marketing and is a contributor to Collegiate Sports Marketing.

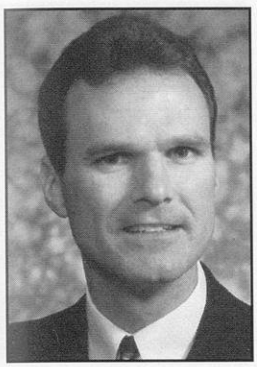
Sweeney was named 1994 "Marketer of the Year" by the Madison Chapter of the American Marketing Assoc.

Prior to joining the UW, Sweeney worked 13 years in sports journalism where he earned several awards.

The Madison native graduated from the UW in 1978 with a B.A. in journalism.

He and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters.

Department Staff



Tim Bald
Director of Compliance

Tim Bald, the Compliance Coordinator for athletics at Iowa State the past four years, is in his first year at the University of Wisconsin as Director of Compliance.

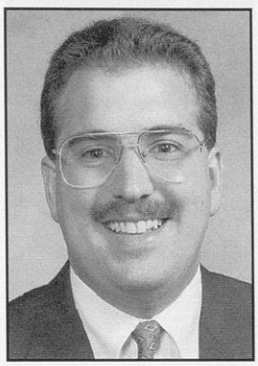
Bald worked with and oversaw all areas of NCAA compliance for the Cyclone athletic department, including student-athlete recruiting, eligibility certification, financial aid and athletic participation.

Bald is a member of the National Association of Compliance Coordinators and has participated in several NCAA Regional Seminars.

He also served ISU as Football Program Coordinator from 1986-94, serving as an administrative assistant to the head coach.

A 1980 graduate of Loras College, he added an M.S. in sports management from Western Illinois in 1985.

The 40-year-old Bald and his wife, Dana, have two children, Samuel and Matthew.



John Chadima
Director of Facilities & Events

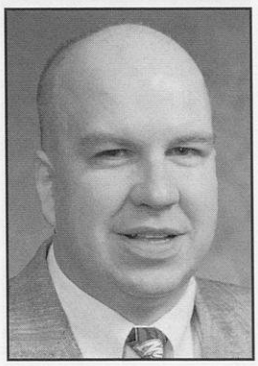
John Chadima, formerly the Director of Football Operations at the UW, begins his second year as Director of Facilities and Events for the division.

He works primarily with capital improvements, facility operations and event management.

One of the original members of Barry Alvarez' staff at the UW, Chadima was responsible for coordinating all off-the-field activities (budget, team travel, camp, summer job program and scheduling) for the gridiron squad from 1990-96.

Prior to Wisconsin, he was a football manager at Iowa from 1983-87. Chadima was a graduate assistant in administration at Iowa (1987-89).

The 1988 graduate of Iowa earned a B.S. degree in athletic administration. The 33-year-old native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is single.



Terry Cooksey
Director of Ticket Operations

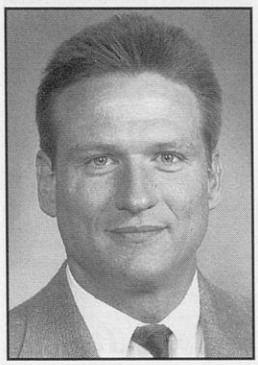
Terry Cooksey, an assistant ticket director for the athletics department since 1996, is in his first year as Director of Ticket Operations.

At the UW-Madison, Cooksey has worked in a supervisory capacity over a 40-person staff of full-time and part-time employees in the athletic ticket office as well as serving as the department's administrator of the Ticketmaster and Paciolan Systems computerized ticketing software.

Cooksey came to the UW after working seven years at Ticketmaster (1990-96). He also worked previously at Miami, Fla. ('87-88), the Metropolitan Collegiate Athletic Conference ('86-87), the Miami Dolphins ('85-86) and Florida State ('83-85) in the areas of marketing, tickets and promotions.

He is a graduate of Florida State (B.S., 1985) and St. Thomas, Fla. (M.S., 1986).

He and his wife, Beth, have two children (Matt and Lauren).



John Dettmann
Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

John Dettmann is in his seventh year as Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Department of Athletics, a role in which he oversees conditioning programs and facilities for all Badger athletic teams.

Prior to the UW, he worked in administration at the Houston (1984-86) and Ft. Lauderdale (1988-89) YMCAs. Between those assignments, he was employed at the Enron Corporation.

He earned his B.S. degree in corporate fitness from UW-Oshkosh.

Dettmann was an honorable mention all-American, team MVP and Athlete of the Year as a senior wide receiver at UW-Oshkosh. He was inducted into that institution's Athletic Hall of Fame in '93.

Dettmann is single and lives in Madison.

Terry Gawlik
Assistant Athletic Director

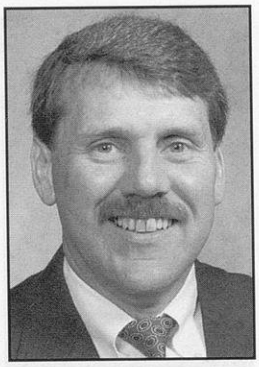
Terry Gawlik, a former head coach in several women's sports at three schools in Texas, is in her first year as an Assistant AD at the UW-Madison.

Gawlik will assist the department in supervising the day-to-day operations of the soccer and tennis teams as well as coordinating tournament events and handling special projects.

Prior to her promotion, Gawlik was an event coordinator for the Department of Athletics from 1994-97. She also worked as an assistant director in the UW-Madison Recreation Department for three years.

Gawlik coached a number of sports at Austin College (1992-94), St. Mary's University (1985-92) and the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor (1981-85). She won coach-of-the-year honors in both basketball and volleyball during her career.

She has a B.S. degree from Southwestern University and an M.E. from Southwest Texas State.



Dennis Helwig
Head Athletic Trainer

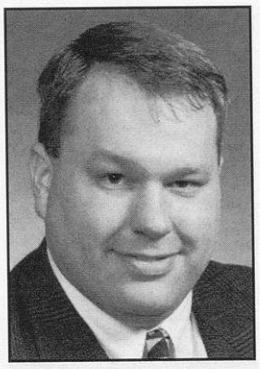
Dennis Helwig is in his 23rd year at the University of Wisconsin and his 14th season as head football trainer. Helwig also supervises the Sports Medicine Program for the institution.

Helwig was the Badgers' hockey trainer for 10 seasons, earning four NCAA championship rings, before becoming the division's head athletic trainer in 1984.

He is president of the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association. Helwig also worked at the 1984 Winter Olympics and the 1987 World University Summer Games.

A 1974 graduate of the UW in physical education and dance, he was an assistant trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles (1975) before returning to Madison.

Helwig and his wife, Jan, have a son, Chris. Jan is also an athletic trainer for the Department of Athletics.



John Kvatek
Video Coordinator

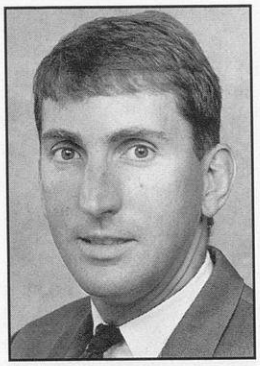
John Kvatek begins his 11th year as a Video Coordinator for a Div. I-A Athletic Department and his fourth campaign in charge of those duties at the UW.

He came to Wisconsin to help develop and implement the nation's first video network for sports applications.

Kvatek worked previously at Virginia Tech, where he served as athletics videography director in 1993-94. Kvatek produced the "Virginia Tech Basketball" TV show and established a department-wide video support system.

He also served as football video coordinator for five years (1988-92) at Miami (Ohio).

Kvatek, a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association, graduated from Miami with a B.S. degree in mass communications in '95. John and his wife, Michelle, have a son (Conor).



Jamie Pollard
Chief Financial Officer

Jamie Pollard, an Associate Director of Athletics for Administration at Maryland since 1994, is the Badgers' first-year Chief Financial Officer.

He will oversee the ticket office, personnel and serve as summer camp coordinator as well as running the business office. Pollard is also a member of the department's management team.

At Maryland, Pollard was responsible for the department's financial management and also oversaw several departments and sports.

Pollard also was an Associate A.D. for Business at St. Louis University (1989-94) and a staff accountant for Arthur Andersen (1987-89).

The graduate of UW-Oshkosh (B.S., 1987) is a member of the College Athletic Business Managers Association (CABMA).

At UW-Oshkosh, Pollard was the 1987 NCAA Div. III national champion in the 5,000 meters.

Jamie and his wife, Ellen, have one child (Thomas).

Jim Roberts
Technical Systems Director

Jim Roberts is in his 12th year working at the UW and his fourth as Director of Technical Systems (overseeing the department's computer and video needs).

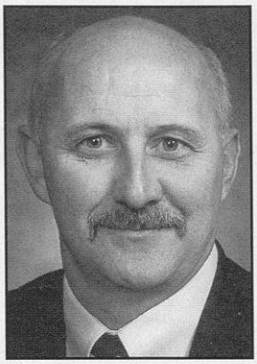
Additionally, Roberts and his staff launched the department's website which has averaged more than a million hits each month in the last year.

Roberts came to the UW-Madison from Tulsa, where he was the school's equipment manager and director of athletic dorms.

A graduate of North Dakota State, Roberts served that school as equipment manager for all athletic teams, the recreation department and the P.E. office.

Roberts was named Manager of the Year by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association in 1985. He is a past chairman of the certification committee for AEMA.

Roberts is single.



Terry Schlatter
Athletic Equipment Supervisor

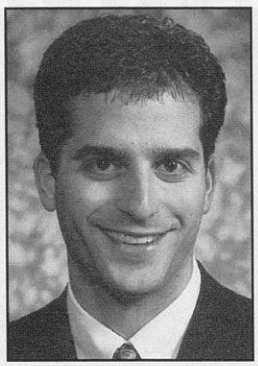
Terry Schlatter is in his second season as the Athletic Equipment Supervisor for the Badgers.

The current president of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, Schlatter worked at Purdue in the same role for 12 years (1985-96) before coming to Madison.

He was AEMA's 1994 Equipment Manager of the Year and has won district honors from the organization twice. Schlatter is a member of the editorial board of Athletic Management magazine and is a former consultant on the Schutt Athletic Advisory Board. Schlatter also works each year at the NFL combine.

Schlatter, a Purdue graduate, was the Boilermakers' 1978 baseball MVP and was an all-league third baseman.

He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters (Rachel and Renee).



Mike Unitan
Director of Marketing & Promotions

Mike Unitan is in his third year as the Athletic Department's Director of Marketing and Promotions.

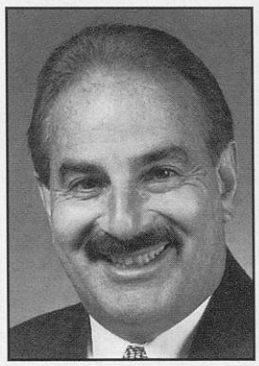
Unitan and his staff coordinate the marketing efforts for all of the department's athletic programs.

He manages a variety of department activities, including ticket sales campaigns, corporate sponsorships, game promotions and advertising.

Recently, he and his staff have taken on additional duties associated with the marketing efforts of the Kohl Center.

Unitan has been a marketing staff member since 1991, when he first worked as an unpaid student intern. Before being promoted to Director in 1995, he spent three years as an assistant in the marketing office.

Unitan graduated from the UW-Madison in 1992 with a B.S. degree in economics.



Alan Zussman
Academic Affairs Director

As Director of the Academic Affairs Office, Alan Zussman oversees a staff of 11 full-time employees who have academic support responsibilities for 625 students. He has worked in the department since 1976.

Zussman oversaw a facility move for his office to the multi-million dollar Fetzer Academic Learning Center in 1997.

He previously worked as an Assistant to the Dean of the College of Letters and Science.

A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, he served for three years as an officer and member of its executive board.

Zussman earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the UW in communication arts and has completed coursework for his doctorate in educational administration.

He also provides color commentary on WHA telecasts of Badger men's basketball.

Season Review

1997 Recap

Wisconsin won eight of its opening 10 games on the way to its second straight 8-5 campaign. A 5-3 Big Ten slate was good for a fifth-place finish. Wisconsin's Outback Bowl contest vs. Georgia was its third Jan. 1 bowl game in five seasons.

The Badgers won six straight games after a season-opening defeat to Syracuse in the Kickoff Classic, equalling the longest stretch of triumphs in the modern era at the school. The '51 and '93 Badgers also won six consecutive games.

The 1997 squad achieved a number of statistical levels that rank among the best in Wisconsin history.

• The Badgers won at least eight games for the fourth time in the last five seasons. Prior to that stretch, the last Wisconsin team to record eight wins was the 1962 club. The only other time Wisconsin won at least eight games four times in a five-year period was at the turn of the century (1897-1901) when the Badgers defeated a collection of colleges, local high schools, alumni teams and medical school squads.

• This year's team became just the fourth in school annals to win its opening three league tilts. The 1977, 1981 and 1993 teams also started 3-0 in league play.

• The Badgers recorded five Big Ten triumphs, which produced a winning record in league play for the third time in Alvarez' tenure.

WHERE THEY WERE

It took Barry Alvarez four years to get his program turned around. After completing a 1-10 rookie season, Alvarez led the Badgers to the Rose Bowl in 1993. His last five clubs have won 38 of 61 games (.656). Prior to the turnaround season ('93), it took Wisconsin 111 games to win 38 contests (1983-92).

Years	Games	W	L	T	Pct.	Bowls
1993-97	61	38	19	4	.656	4
1983-92	111	38	72	1	.347	1

• Wisconsin had a winning record on the road (3-2) for only the fifth time in the last 36 years.

• The Badgers recorded a 5-1 mark in Camp Randall Stadium, their most home triumphs since 1992.

Watching the Polls

The Badgers ended the season with enough votes to rank 35th in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls. Wisconsin began the season 24th according to both polls. Each of the four times that the Badgers entered the nation's top 25, they lost the following week. The Badgers played five teams ranked nationally, including their final four outings. Wisconsin's only victory over a ranked team was a 13-10 decision over Iowa, which broke an 18-game winless streak (0-17-1) vs. the Hawkeyes.

Helping Others

Several players were cited for contributions they made to the community.

Cecil Martin was named to the American Football Coaches Association inaugural "Good Works" Team for his work with the University of Wisconsin Children's Hospital and Clinics and the Southside Community Center.

Ron Dayne was named a USA Today Positive Performer (Sept. 15) and also received the Dane County Humane Society's "You Made a Difference" award. Dayne did a promotional campaign that featured TV and radio public service announcements, a poster and billboards that urged for the "Humane Treatment of Animals, Not Linebackers."

All-Americans

Ron Dayne headed the list of Badgers that received all-America honors in '97. He was a first-team choice by the Football News. Tom Burke, Matt Davenport, Aaron Gibson and Kevin Stemke received honorable mention kudos from Football News. Casey Rabach and John Favret were first-team freshmen all-Americans by The Sporting News. Stemke received second-team honors from TSN.

Classroom Stars

Ten Badgers, the most of the Alvarez era, earned academic all-Big Ten mention in 1997. The list was led by senior QB Ben McCormick, who also earned a $5,000 post-graduate scholarship from the National Association for Collegiate Directors of Athletics for the UW's participation in the Kickoff Classic.

The other classroom all-league picks were LB Mark Davis (behavioral science & law), LB Chris Ghidorzi (letters & science), NG Chris Janek (kinesiology), E Sam Mueller (mechanical engineering), OL Chris Paulik (mechanical engineering), OL Rob Roell (finance, investment & banking), P Eric Skrzypchak (letters & science), TE Ryan Sondrup (business) and LB Donnel Thompson (letters & science).

All-Big Ten Badgers

Nine Badgers earned all-Big Ten mention in '97, led by first-team (coaches) kicker Matt Davenport. The junior received second-team honors from the media. Ron Dayne earned consensus second-team honors. Tom Burke was second-team by the coaches (honorable mention by media) and Kevin Stemke was second-team by the media (honorable mention by coaches).

Wisconsin's other honorable mention choices included Aaron Gibson (both), Chris McIntosh (both), John Favret (media), David Lysek (media) and Donnel Thompson (media).

Tough Slate

The Badgers faced five nationally ranked teams — Syracuse (#17), Iowa (#14), Michigan (#1), Penn State (#6) and Georgia (#12) — in 1997. That ties for the most games in one year against nationally rated foes in Badger history. Georgia was the fourth ranked team in a row that the UW played, a first in school annals.

Travel Party

It was a coast-to-coast campaign for the Badgers in 1997. Opening the season in New Jersey at the Kickoff Classic, the Badgers also participated on the west coast with a Sept. 13 contest at San Jose State.

The Badgers hadn't played in New Jersey since a 1981 appearance in the Garden State Bowl vs. Tennessee. The game vs. SJSU was the UW's first in California since meeting Stanford in 1995.

1,000 on the Ground

Wisconsin has produced a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the last five seasons. That had happened just once previously in school annals when Rufus Ferguson (twice) and Billy Marek (three times) gained more than 1,000 yards on the ground between 1971-75.

The unusual part of the current streak is that four different Badgers — Brent Moss (1993), Terrell Fletcher (1994), Carl McCullough (1995) and Ron Dayne (1996-97) — joined that club.

Extended Seasons

Four Wisconsin seniors — Tony Simmons, LaMar Campbell, Donald Hayes and David Lysek — participated in post-season games. Simmons and Hayes competed in the East-West Shrine Game. Simmons also participated in the Senior Bowl, while Hayes, Lysek and Campbell attended the Hula Bowl.

One-point Wonders

Wisconsin recorded three one-point victories in 1997. In their 109-year history, the Badgers had never previously accomplished that feat. In fact, only one school in league history (Michigan in '37) had recorded three wins by one point in a season.

The Badgers had played three one-point games in a season only once previously, recording a 1-2 mark in 1992. Wisconsin won a pair of one-point games in 1950 (Northwestern 14-13 and Illinois 7-6). The Badgers' all-time record in one-point decisions is 20-14.

Vet Receivers Star

Donald Hayes and Tony Simmons became the fourth set of pass catchers in UW history to record more than 500 yards receiving in the same campaign.

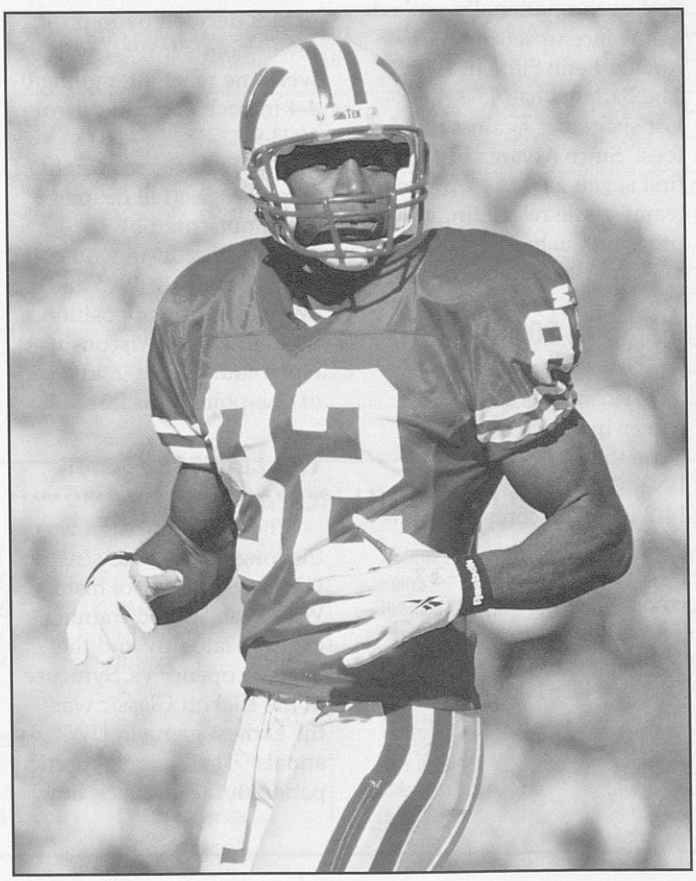
Hayes and Simmons rank fifth and seventh in career receptions at Wisconsin with 106 and 99, respectively. Only five players in Badger history made at least 100 catches in a career, and none were teammates. Simmons is second at the UW in career yards (1,991) and Hayes is No. 5 (1,575). Simmons is first in school annals with 23 touchdown catches and a 20.1-yard average per catch.

Toting it 50 Times

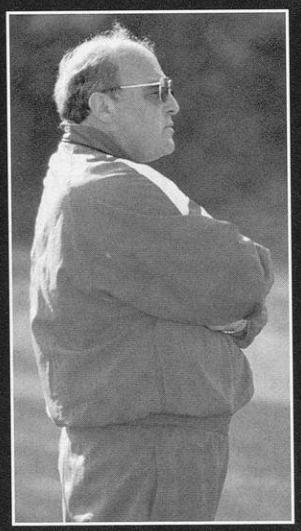
The Badgers' offense is most-effective if it can run the ball at least 50 times during a game. Wisconsin has registered 50 or more carries in 28 games during the Alvarez era. The Badgers have a 26-2 record in those contests. The losses were a 13-12 decision to Illinois in 1992 (50-for-185) and a 35-10 defeat at Penn State (55-for-171) in '97.

"No Vacancy"

As usual, Camp Randall Stadium, the 12th-largest college-owned facility in the nation, was a packed house in '97 when the UW played.



Tony Simmons (82) participated in both the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Games to conclude the '97 season.



Badgers Enjoy Going Bowling

Wisconsin is one of 18 schools in Division I-A football, which has played in at least four bowls since 1993. The Badgers defeated UCLA in the '94 Rose Bowl; beat Duke in the '95 Hall of Fame Bowl; routed Utah in the '96 Copper Bowl; and lost to Georgia in the '98 Outback Bowl. Barry Alvarez has a career mark of 3-1 in bowls.

WISCONSIN IN THE LAST FIVE YEARS

In the last five years, Wisconsin has won 65.6 percent of its overall games. The Badgers' 38 wins are the most in any five-year period in the modern era at the UW. Wisconsin ranks fourth among Big Ten schools for wins and bowl games since '93.

School	Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.	Bowls
Penn State	51	10	0	.836	5
Ohio State	51	11	1	.817	5
Michigan	45	16	0	.738	5
WISCONSIN	38	19	4	.656	4

Indiana	21	35	0	.375	1
Illinois	19	36	1	.348	1
Minnesota	17	39	0	.304	0

Wisconsin averaged 77,880 fans at its home games. The Badgers have ranked among the nation's top 15 for attendance the last four seasons.

The '97 average was third-best in school history, surpassed only by 1995 (78,222) and 1996 (77,949).

Wisconsin's last two home games drew the third- and fourth-largest gatherings in stadium history. A total of 79,864 witnessed the upset win over Iowa on Nov. 8 and a gathering of 79,806 watched the Nov. 15 contest vs. No. 1 Michigan.

The Badgers have played in front of home sellouts in 27 of the last 31 games. Wisconsin has had crowds of better than 70,000 in its last 28 games in Madison.

Upset a Ranked Foe

The Badgers defeated No. 14 Iowa, 13-10, to break an 18-game winless streak against the Hawkeyes. Besides breaking that skein, the victory was Wisconsin's first over a nationally ranked team since upsetting sixth-ranked Penn State in 1995. The Badgers had lost their last six games against rated foes. Since Alvarez lost his first seven games vs. ranked teams while rebuilding the program, he has posted an 8-8-1 mark vs. rated foes.

Magic at 20?

Wisconsin is 32-4-2 in games in which it scores more than 20 points since 1993. The mark slips to 6-14-2 when it scores 20 points or fewer.

The Badgers are 27-2-2 when surrendering fewer than 20 points in a game in the last five seasons. The record is just 11-16-2 when allowing 20 or more points.

Finding a Way

Wisconsin's 4-0 mark in games decided by four or fewer points in 1997 was welcome relief after going 0-4-4 in such encounters from 1993-96.

The Badgers won eight of 13 games last fall despite being outscored by 15 points. Wisconsin won eight of 13 contests in 1996 and outpointed the opposition by 134 points. Wisconsin had a four-, three- and a trio of one-point wins last fall.

The Longest Season

The 1997 campaign was the longest calendar season (156 days) in school history. Wisconsin started training camp in late July and the Aug. 24 opener vs. Syracuse in the Kickoff Classic was the earliest game in UW annals. The Badgers' participation in the Outback Bowl meant a Jan. 1 finale. That is tied for the second-latest game the Badgers have participated in. The only later contest was the Jan. 2, 1995, appearance in the Hall of Fame Bowl vs. Duke.

500th Win

The Badgers' 56-10 victory at San Jose State was the 500th triumph in Wisconsin gridiron history. The Badgers own a 506-419-53 (.544) mark in 109 seasons.

Better Range Finder

The Badgers converted on just 14-31 (.452) field goals between 30-49 yards from 1994-96. Many scoring opportunities were lost with missed field goal attempts. Junior Matt Davenport made the mid-range field goal one of the team's strongest areas. He hit 13-15 (.867) from that range in '97.

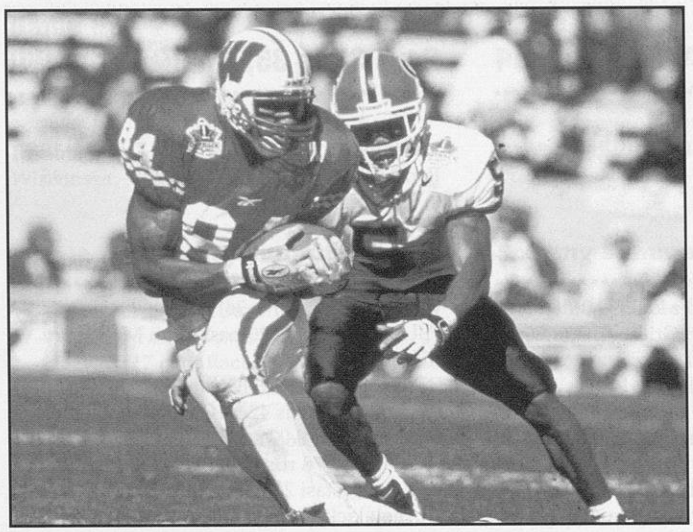
Outback Bowl



TAMPA — Georgia unleashed a lethal passing game and tailback Robert Edwards tallied three times as the Bulldogs defeated Wisconsin, 33-6, in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Quarterback Mike Bobo, who connected on an incredible 26-28 passes for 235 yards, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Georgia completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Wisconsin defense.

The Bulldogs' balanced offense, which registered 207 yards on the ground to complement Bobo, got a boost from the speedy Edwards (22 carries, 110 yards, three touchdowns).

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and ran seven times for eight yards.

Wisconsin couldn't slow down the potent Bulldog attack, although end Tom Burke was credited with three tackles for loss.

The Badger offense, which hoped to overpower the smaller but quicker Bulldogs, could not get on track.

Wisconsin gained just 95 total yards on its opening eight drives. The UW's lone scoring drive was an 80-yard, fourth-quarter effort that ended with Scott Kavanagh's 12-yard TD toss to tight end Dague Retzlaff.

Ron Dayne, the nation's No. 4 rusher, returned to action healthy for the first time in a month. He was held in check with 36 net yards on 14 carries.

"I don't think we played our best game," Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

Big Ten Champions

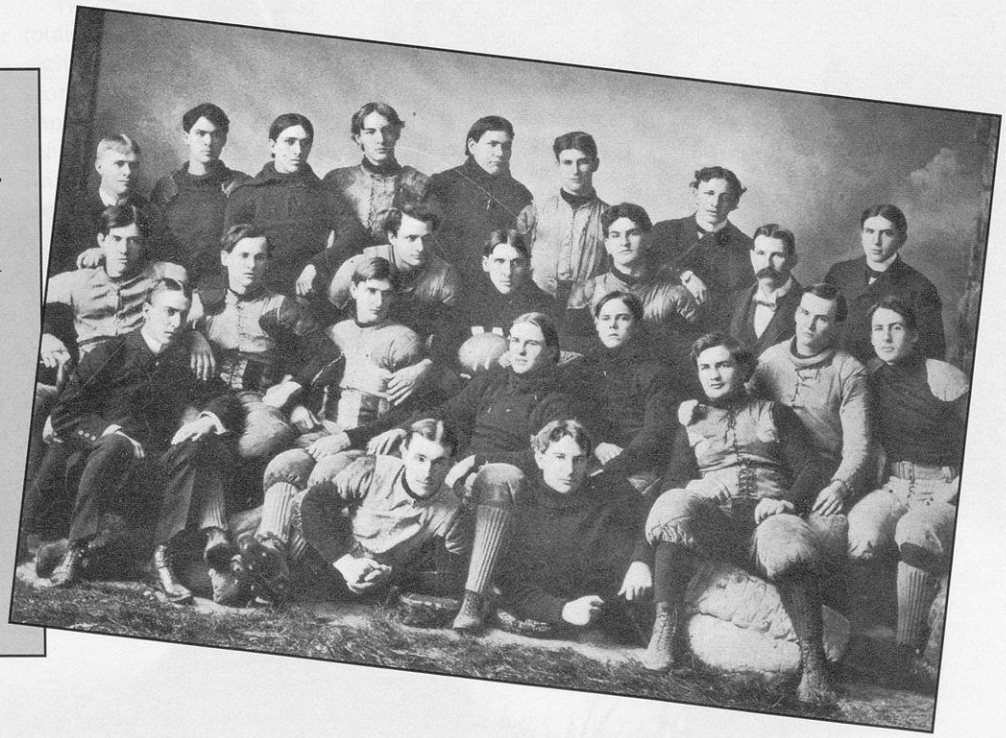
Coach Phil King

After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference title. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of its seven victories. The season-ending loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history. It was played indoors at the Chicago Coliseum.



1897 BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

Coach Phil King

Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals to lead the club. It was the second of four league titles for Coach Phil King.

Wisconsin's Big Ten Champions

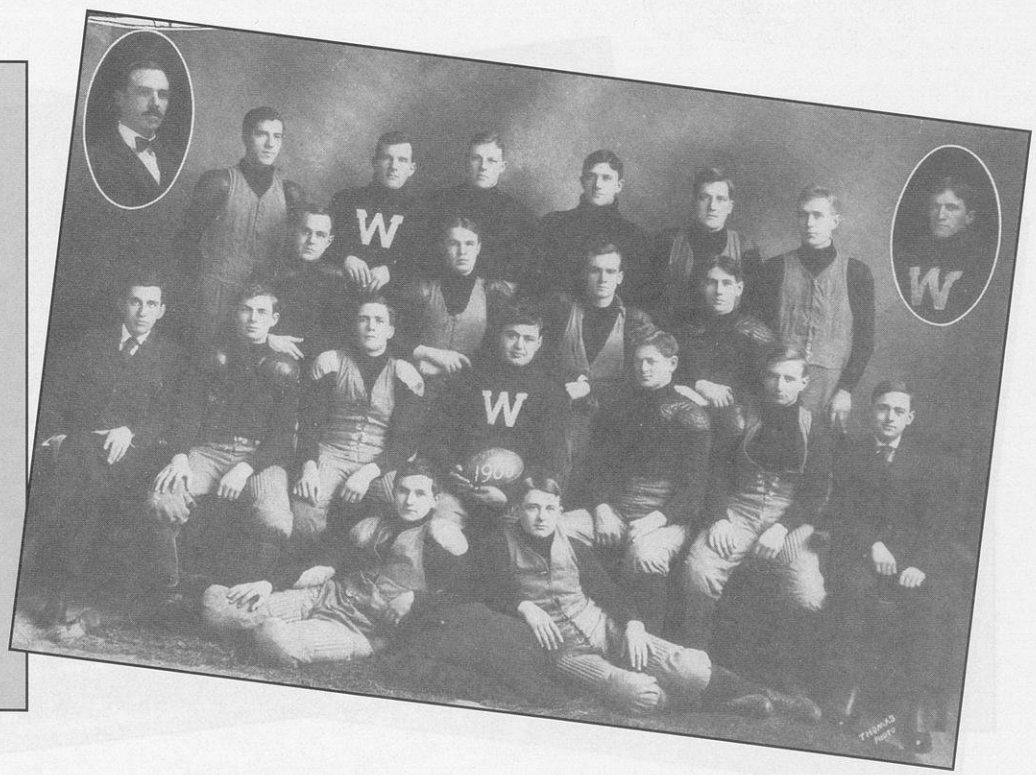
Coach Phil King

Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts to claim a share of the Big Ten title. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and conference wins over Chicago and Minnesota.



1906 BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

Coach Phil King

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement that limited the number of games, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Center Ewald Stiehm, Wisconsin's first all-league performer, helped the Badgers to a 5-0 slate. Coach C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.

Wisconsin's Big Ten Champions

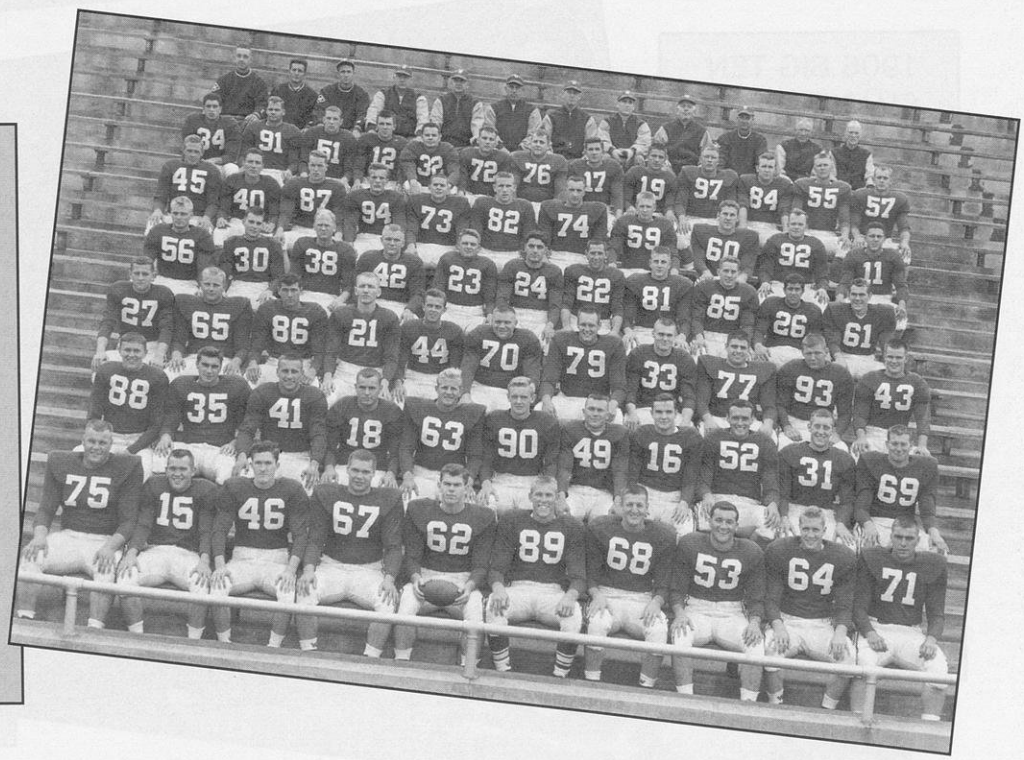
Coach William Juneau

The Badgers ended their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. Led by consensus all-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the all-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed only 29 points all year.



1952 BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

Coach Ivy Williamson

Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. It is the only time in school history that the Badgers were ranked first. Wisconsin lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by UPI and 11th by Associated Press.

Wisconsin's Big Ten Champions

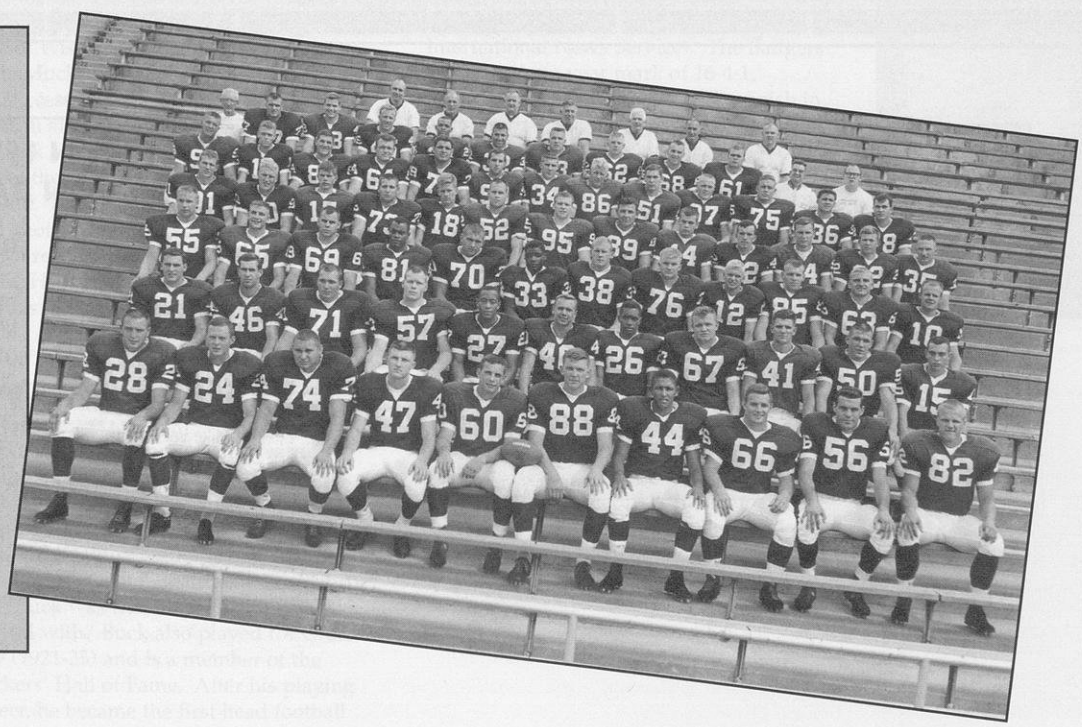
Coach Milt Bruhn

Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin recovered from an early deficit and beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart and all-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by Associated Press and United Press International.



1962 BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

Coach Milt Bruhn

Opening the season with a 69-13 rout of New Mexico State, the Badgers rolled to an 8-1 record and the Big Ten title. Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign ranked second in both the AP and UPI polls. Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as the UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth quarter rally. Pat Richter was a consensus all-American after catching 49 passes.

Wisconsin's Big Ten Champions

Coach Barry Alvarez

The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 31 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club became the winningest in school history and boasted eight first-team all-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl Most Valuable Player Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked fifth and sixth by the coaches (CNN/USA Today) and media (Associated Press), respectively.

First-team all-Americans

Robert Butler

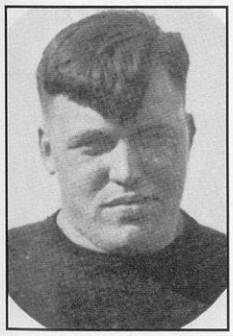
Robert Butler (1912)

A member of Wisconsin's last undefeated team in 1912, "Butts" Butler was the school's first consensus all-American. He was a Collier's all-American in 1912 (first-team) and 1913 (second-team). In the 1912 season finale against Minnesota, he and his 10 teammates played the entire game in a 14-0 victory. Butler played pro ball for the Canton Bulldogs and was a teammate of the legendary Jim Thorpe.

Ray Keeler

Ray Keeler (1913)

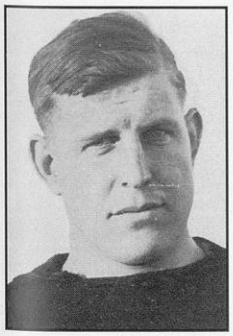
Consensus all-America lineman Ray "Tubby" Keeler was a three-time letterman in football and track at the UW. Despite a 185-pound frame, he earned all-America recognition as a junior from the International News Service / Frank Menke. He captained the 1914 squad and served on the Athletic Board (1914-15). Keeler went on to coach the UW-La Crosse football team from 1917-29.



Arlie Mucks

Arlie Mucks (1914)

One of Wisconsin's truly great athletes, Arlie Mucks was probably best known for his success as a discus thrower. The 1914 football all-American (as selected by INS / Frank Menke) placed second in the discus in the 1912 Olympics as a high school athlete. He was undefeated in the discus and shot put as a collegian and set a then-world record discus mark of 155-2 in 1916. He is the only person to win national titles in two events three straight years.



Howard Buck

Howard Buck (1915)

A consensus all-American, Howard "Cub" Buck was labeled by many as the best lineman of his era. He also played "roving center" on defense and was credited with making half of his team's tackles. Former Canton teammate Jim Thorpe said Buck was the finest lineman he ever played with. Buck also played for Green Bay (1921-25) and is a member of the Packers' Hall of Fame. After his playing career, he became the first head football coach at Miami (Fla.) in 1926.

Paul Meyers (1919)

End Paul Meyers earned first-team all-America honors from Walter Eckersall as a senior. Meyers was an all-Big Ten choice in both 1916 and 1919. The three-year letterman, who played for three different coaches, was Badger team captain and a third-team all-America choice by Eckersall in 1916.

Charles Carpenter (1919)

The two-time all-America center made Walter Eckersall's honor squads in both 1916 (third-team) and 1919 (first-team). Carpenter, the first all-America center at the UW, captained the 1919 squad. He was the recipient of Wisconsin's Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1919. The Madison native later served as president of the University's Athletic Board.

George Bunge (1920)

Center George Bunge earned all-America honors in 1920 (first-team by Consolidated Press) and 1921 (third-team by the International News Service). The Badgers posted a three-year mark of 16-4-1, including a second-place Big Ten finish in 1920, during his career.

Frank Weston (1920)

One of the truly great multi-sport athletes of his era, Frank "Red" Weston also carried his talents beyond the sports arena. He was a member of the UW Medical School faculty for more than 40 years. Weston served as senior class president in 1921. On the gridiron, he was captain of the 1920 team and was named all-America by four organizations. He was a member of the school's Athletic Board and has been enshrined into the Madison Sports and Wisconsin Athletic Department Halls of Fame.

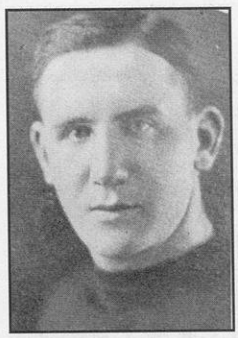
First-team all-Americans



Ralph Scott

Ralph Scott (1920)

An all-conference and Colliers' all-America tackle in 1920, Ralph Scott was noted for his outstanding blocking ability on offense. The giant 210 pounder also played tackle on defense for the '20 Badgers who were 6-1 and finished second in the Western Conference.

Marty Below

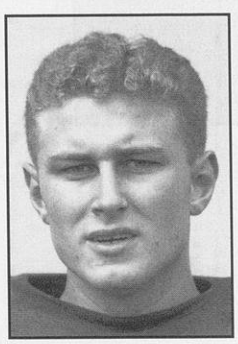
Marty Below (1923)

A transfer from UW-Oshkosh, Marty Below played tackle for the Badgers and was a first-team all-American by INS, Athletic World and Walter Eckersall in 1923. Inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1988, he was praised by Red Grange who once said, "Marty was the greatest lineman I ever played against." At UW-Oshkosh, Below was a four-sport star after serving in the Marines during World War I.

Milo Lubratovich

Milo Lubratovich (1930)

A tackle, who broke his leg against Alabama as a sophomore, Milo Lubratovich rebounded two years later to become a consensus all-American and play in the East-West Game. Lubratovich received all-America mention from 10 different publications, including first-team honors from NEA, UP, Hearst and Central Press. He also played professional baseball in the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization for five years (1931-35).



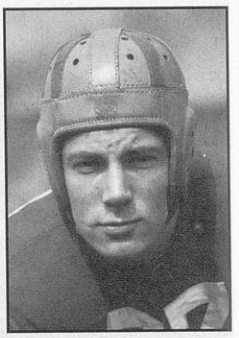
Howard Weiss

Howard Weiss (1938)

After converting from halfback to fullback three games into his sophomore year, Howard Weiss went on to earn Big Ten MVP and all-America honors in 1938. He was a first-team choice by INS and was a second-team pick by four organizations. He is perhaps best remembered for his 41-yard touchdown run through the entire Northwestern defense in a 1938 upset win at Evanston. Elected class president, Weiss was sixth in the 1938 Heisman Trophy balloting and later played two years with the Detroit Lions.

Dave Schreiner (1941-42)

Wisconsin's first two-time first-team all-American, Dave Schreiner was considered one of the finest ends to ever play college football. Schreiner, a first-team all-American by 14 different outlets in his career, was a two-time AP all-America choice. He was named conference MVP in 1942, the year he caught three touchdown passes in one quarter against Marquette. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions. Schreiner died in World War II in 1945.



Dave Schreiner

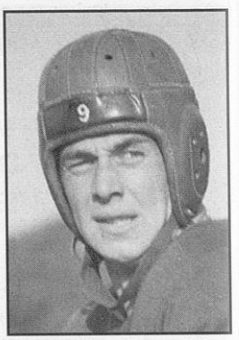
Pat Harder (1942)

All-American Marlin "Pat" Harder was one of Wisconsin's greatest fullbacks. Despite a college career that was cut short by his enlistment with the Marines, Harder led the 1942 club to an 8-1-1 record. Also a kicker, he led the league in scoring twice. He was named MVP of the 1943 College All-Star Game. The second pick in the 1943 NFL draft, Harder led the NFL in scoring three years.

Pat Harder

Earl Girard (1944)

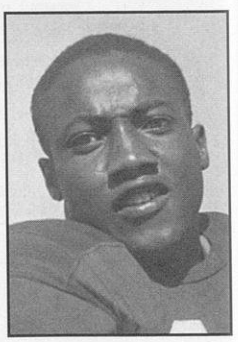
Earl "Jug" Girard played two seasons at the UW and earned all-America recognition from Look magazine as a 17-year-old freshman. Regarded as a "triple-threat" quarterback, he was proficient at running, passing and punting. Girard was drafted by the U.S. Army after his freshman season and returned to school in 1947. He set the school record for most punt return yards in a game (158) vs. Iowa in 1947. Girard was a first-round draft pick by the Packers.



Earl Girard

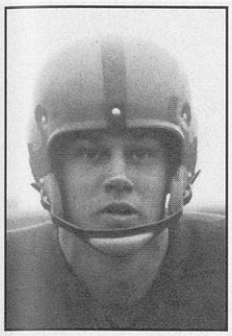
Ed Withers (1950)

Ed Withers, a prep star at Central HS in Madison, came to the UW after serving a year in the Army. The aggressive defender had eight career interceptions and probably would have had more if opposing QBs had not thrown away from him. Withers' three interceptions (103 return yards) helped lead Wisconsin to a 14-0 victory over Iowa in his all-America year. The school's first black all-American, Withers was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 1951.



Ed Withers

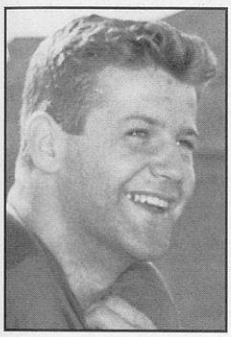
First-team all-Americans



Hal Faverty

Hal Faverty (1951)

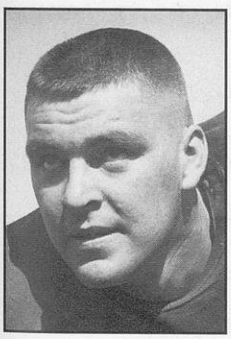
Like so many other Wisconsin athletes during his era, Hal Faverty sandwiched his playing days around service in the Armed Forces. As a 25-year-old senior, he was one of the most experienced players on the 1951 squad. Faverty was named a first-team all-American by the International News Service. He was a linebacker on the "Hard Rocks" defense, which allowed a school-record 5.9 points per game.



Pat O'Donahue

Pat O'Donahue (1951)

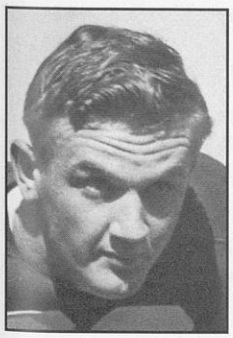
A senior on the 1951 team that went 7-1-1 and finished eighth in the AP poll, Pat O'Donahue was a fixture on Wisconsin's top-ranked defense. He was a quiet player who led by example. A penetrator on the line, O'Donahue played on the 1949-51 teams and was named all-America by AP, NEA and Look. He played with the 49ers and Packers and was inducted into the UW Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.



Dave Suminski

Dave Suminski (1952)

Dave Suminski earned first-team all-American honors from the Associated Press in his first year as an offensive tackle. An anchor on Wisconsin's 1953 Rose Bowl defensive unit, he started the previous two seasons on offense. In his last college game, the Badger defense held USC to just 48 yards rushing. Suminski was taken by the Redskins in the 1953 NFL draft and later played with the Chicago Cardinals and the CFL's Hamilton Tiger Cats.



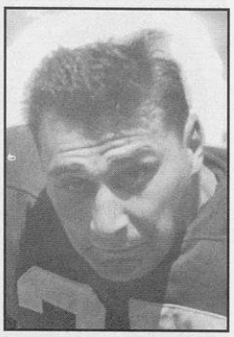
Don Voss

Don Voss (1952)

Don Voss was one of the top ends in Wisconsin history, even though his football career was ended by a knee injury suffered in the Rose Bowl his sophomore year. As a rookie, he was named to the AP freshman all-America team and was a member of Wisconsin's "Hard Rocks," the best defensive unit in the country. A year later he helped get the Badgers to Pasadena and their first-ever bowl game and was named to Look magazine's all-America squad.

Alan Ameche (1953-54)

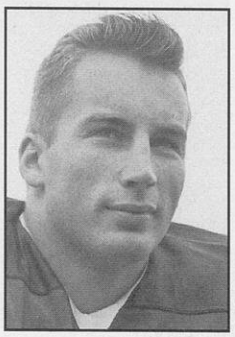
The school's most famous player, Alan "The Horse" Ameche, was a three-year first-team all-American. The '54 Heisman Trophy winner set numerous records as a fullback, including the NCAA mark for career rushing yardage. A two-time academic all-American, he was voted Wisconsin's all-time greatest player in 1969. Ameche, who led his alma mater to the 1953 Rose Bowl, has his jersey #35 retired by the school.



Alan Ameche

Dan Lanphear (1959)

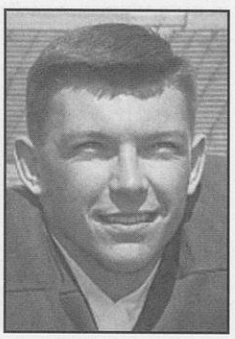
Madison native Dan Lanphear rebounded from an injury-plagued junior season to gain all-America honors from six organizations his final year. His best game on the gridiron may have been in a 12-3 win over Ohio State in 1959. In that contest, Lanphear recovered a fumble, blocked a punt for a safety and knocked two Buckeye running backs out of the game with strong hits. He played for the AFL's Houston Oilers and was a member of their championship teams in 1960 and 1961.



Dan Lanphear

Pat Richter (1961-62)

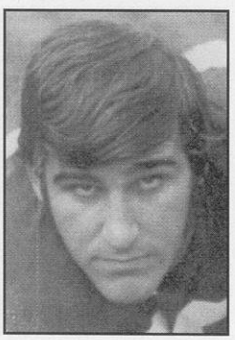
Pat Richter was a two-time all-America end, earning consensus honors in 1962. He set Rose Bowl records in 1963 with 11 catches for 163 yards, marks that stood for 31 years. A first-round draft choice of the Redskins, Richter played for eight seasons. He is a member of Wisconsin's all-time team, won an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1988 and was elected to the College Hall of Fame in 1996. Richter was named the school's Director of Athletics in 1989 and still holds that post.



Pat Richter

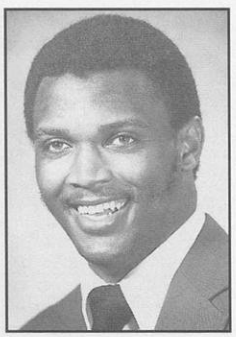
Dennis Lick (1974-75)

One of the UW's most punishing offensive linemen, Dennis Lick earned consensus all-America status in '75 despite missing the last three games due to injury. Lick also received first-team honors in 1974 from Football News. He blocked for Billy Marek, UW's all-time leading rusher. He was selected in the first round of the 1976 NFL draft by the Bears and played until his retirement in 1981.



Dennis Lick

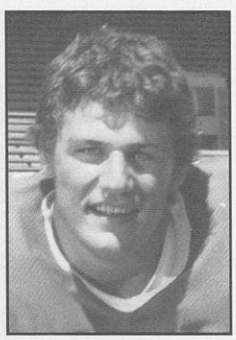
First-team all-Americans



Ray Snell

Ray Snell (1979)

Baltimore native Ray Snell was a first-team all-America pick by The Sporting News as an offensive guard in 1979. Known for his speed and agility, the 295-pound lineman blocked for Ira Matthews and Dave Mohapp at Wisconsin. Snell was the 22nd pick overall (by Tampa Bay) in the first round of the 1980 NFL draft.



Tim Krumrie

Tim Krumrie (1981)

An all-Big Ten pick at noseguard his last three seasons, Tim Krumrie earned consensus all-America recognition his junior year. He is second on Wisconsin's career tackles list with 444, more than 100 stops ahead of the closest defensive lineman. Krumrie was a member of UW's 1981 Garden State Bowl team and earned 1982 Independence Bowl Defensive MVP honors. A 10th-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals, he enjoyed a lengthy NFL career and played in Super Bowl XXIII.

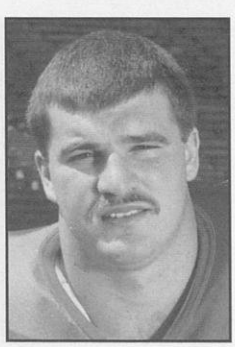
A speedy defensive back, Richard Johnson was named to all-America lists in 1985 by the Football Writers' Association (first-team) and The Sporting News (second). He also holds the UW career mark for blocked kicks (nine). Johnson was named Sports Illustrated's national defensive player of the week after Wisconsin's 35-34 victory at Missouri in 1984. He blocked two kicks, intercepted a pass and recovered a blocked punt for a TD.



Paul Gruber

Paul Gruber (1987)

Tackle Paul Gruber left the UW as one of the school's prized linemen. A player with tremendous size, strength and speed, he was regarded by some as the top college lineman in '87. He was a first-team all-American by The Sporting News as a senior. Gruber moved to the pro ranks in 1988 with Tampa Bay. Gruber earned All-Pro honors several times with the Bucs and at one time played six consecutive seasons without missing an offensive snap.

Troy Vincent (1991)

After playing just one year of high school football, Troy Vincent blossomed into one of the country's best cornerbacks and punt returners. A 1991 all-America selection, Vincent was honored as Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Year. He was runner-up for the 1991 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top DB. He was taken by the Miami Dolphins as the seventh overall choice in the 1992 draft.

Cory Raymer (1994)

The most celebrated player of the Barry Alvarez era, center Cory Raymer was Wisconsin's first consensus all-America pick in 13 years. He was a four-year starter who allowed just one-half of a sack in his last three seasons. Raymer played a large role in increasing the team's rushing average from 94 to 244 yards per game during his career. Raymer, a two-time first-team all-league choice, was a second-round draft pick by the Redskins.

Tarek Saleh (1996)

A two-time consensus first-team all-Big Ten selection, Tarek Saleh earned all-America honors from Football News in 1996. Saleh paced the Big Ten in quarterback sacks twice. A 240-pound defensive end, Saleh concluded his career as the school's record holder in tackles for loss and sacks. Saleh was named Copper Bowl defensive MVP in his final game with the Badgers.

Ron Dayne (1997)

Ron Dayne, the most-productive freshman runner in NCAA history (2,109 yards) actually earned his first-team all-America honor from the Football News after his 1,457-yard sophomore campaign. Dayne was fifth nationally in rushing (142.1) and broke the Big Ten record with his eighth career 200-yard game during the '97 campaign. He broke a Badger record by gaining 170 yards in the first quarter at San Jose State on the way to a 254-yard afternoon against the Spartans.

WISCONSIN'S RETIRED NUMBERS

#35 Alan "The Horse" Ameche

Alan Ameche was one of the greatest backs in UW history. The 1954 Heisman Trophy winner was a three-time all-American and ended his career as the NCAA's career rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl, where he rushed for 133 yards. The five-time Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

#40 Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch

Although he played football only one season at Wisconsin, Elroy Hirsch is one of the most beloved figures in Badger sports history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He also starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams before returning to Wisconsin as Director of Athletics from 1969-87.

#80 Dave Schreiner

Dave Schreiner, the two-time all-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and W Club Halls of Fame. He was voted to the UW's all-time team in 1969.

#83 Allan Shafer

The memory of former QB Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football injury.

Bowl Games

Rose Bowl — January 1, 1953 — at Pasadena, Calif.

PASADENA, Calif. — Southern Cal scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan 2-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club was the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game.

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl victory over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a 4-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close the first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl with a defensive average of barely 10 points allowed per game for the regular season.

Bowl Games

Rose Bowl — January 1, 1963 — at Pasadena, Calif.

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to Southern Cal. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the huge Badger comeback.

USC raced to a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of touchdown passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14.

Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (4-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad center snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both Wisconsin and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a 3-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost.

Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

Bowl Games

Independence Bowl — December 11, 1982 — at Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero.

Wright, the game offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game Defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (.372) and 14 penalties.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line.

Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a 3-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers also threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

Bowl Games

Rose Bowl — January 1, 1994 — at Pasadena, Calif.

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home-field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second-and-eight from the UCLA 21-yard line, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first score.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third period. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as Wisconsin won its third game in a row to close the season 8-3-1.

Bowl Games

Copper Bowl — December 27, 1996 — at Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by halftime as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. The Badgers' secondary picked off four Mike Fouts' passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest running backs, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl championship in four seasons.

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's opening 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

A 12-yard pass from back-up quarterback Scott Kavanagh to tight end Dague Retzlaff was the Badgers' lone tally.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ballcarrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-game record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and rushed seven times (for eight yards).

"I don't think we played our best game," Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION HALL OF FAME

Dave Schreiner (elected in 1955)

The two-time all-America end was the Western Conference's MVP after the '42 season. Schreiner has his No. 80 jersey retired by Wisconsin.

Pat O'Dea (elected in 1962)

"The Kangaroo Kicker," as he was called, was a two-time all-America fullback and punter between 1896-99. He was also a two-time team captain.

Robert Butler (elected in 1972)

"Butts" Butler was a three-year letterman at tackle and won all-league (1912-13) and all-America (1913) laurels. He played pro ball for Canton.

Alan Ameche (elected in 1975)

The 1954 Heisman Trophy winner was a multi-year all-American in the classroom and on the field. His jersey No. 35 is retired at the University.

Marty Below (elected in 1988)

The rugged right tackle earned all-America praise as a senior. "Below was the greatest lineman I ever played against," said fellow Hall of Famer Red Grange.

Pat Harder (elected in 1993)

Pat Harder, an all-America fullback, was the league's scoring and rushing champion in 1941. Harder was a three-time NFL scoring champ, too.

Pat Richter (elected in 1996)

UW Director of Athletics Pat Richter was a two-time all-America end and led the nation in receiving as a junior. He is also a member of the CoSIDA Academic all-America Hall of Fame.

BRAINS & BRAWN

Badger Don Davey, now a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars, is the only four-time Academic All-American in NCAA university-division history. A mechanical engineering major, Davey left the UW with a number of QB sack records. He was a third-round NFL draft pick of the Packers before being traded to Jacksonville prior to the 1995 season.

GTE spokesperson Dick Enberg came to Madison to help honor Davey at a banquet following the 1990 season.

GTE Academic All-America All-Time Team

Four former Badger football greats were named to GTE's All-Time Academic All-America team at the College Sports Information Directors' of America convention last July.

Fullback Alan Ameche was a first-team choice and center Ken Bowman, defensive lineman Don Davey and defensive back Dale Hackbart were named to the second team.

All four Badgers are former academic all-Americans. Davey is the only four-time academic all-America pick in university-division history.

GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame

Two former Badger gridiron greats (Alan Ameche and Pat Richter) have been inducted into the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

To gain admittance to the Hall, student-athletes must be former academic all-Americans who have distinguished themselves off the playing field after graduation.

Ameche, who played professionally after graduation, retired in Philadelphia after his career and became one of the city's philanthropic leaders. Richter also played pro football before returning to the UW to earn his law degree. He worked at a Madison law firm and at Oscar Mayer before his appointment as Director of Athletics.

Kangaroo Kicker

The first time Pat O'Dea kicked a football on the Wisconsin campus, the reaction of spectators was so violent that he thought he had committed a public offense.

O'Dea was a football star shining 50 years too soon. He had everything which goes to make up a modern athletic idol — personal charm, magnificent appearance and supreme skill. Playing football as he did for the UW from 1896-99, his name would be on the lips of every sports enthusiast.

Just imagine a player today drop-kicking four field goals in one game, or getting credit for 14 field goals in a season or sending punts down field 80 to 100 yards or booting field goals from 65 yards out.

Patrick John O'Dea was born in Melbourne, Australia, and was an athletic luminary at Victoria High School and Krew College in his native city.

Pat's older brother, Andy, came to the United States early in the '1890s. Andy, a famous oarsman, football player and boxer in his youth, turned to coaching rowing soon after he reached the states. He came to Wisconsin as varsity crew coach in 1895, and he probably was the most surprised man in the world when, one sunny afternoon, his younger brother Pat showed up on his boat deck.

Pat took whatever work he could find that spring and in September enrolled in the pre-legal course at Wisconsin. One day when football practice was going on in front of the Old Red Armory, the ball bounded over to Pat. To return the ball, Pat simply reverted to form and booted the pigskin the length of the field.

O'DEA HIGHLIGHTS

Punting
- Averaged 50 yards punting for career
- 110-yard punt vs. Minnesota, 1897
- 100-yard punt vs. Yale, 1899

Drop Kicking
- Field goals, career — 31
- Field goals, season — 13 in 1899
- Field goals, game — 3 vs. Lawrence, 1899
- 65-yard FG vs. Northwestern, 1898
- 60-yard FG vs. Minnesota, 1899

Place Kicking
- 57-yard FG vs. Illinois, 1899

Rushing
- 100-yard TD run vs. Beloit, 1899

Pat O'Dea

Coaches, players and sideliners erupted with a concerted shout and converged on Pat who feared he had committed an offense by touching the ball. But the rush toward Pat was to recruit him, so he agreed to join the team the following day and "try and learn something about the crazy American version of this game."

Often Pat would open scoring with a drop kick (five points) and Wisconsin would follow that up with TDs against a demoralized opponent still dazed from seeing the ball soar through the goal posts from mid-field.

O'Dea was a greyhound type of athlete. His legs were abnormally long and highly developed. He had real speed and covered 100 yards in 10 seconds.

He was used as a high hurdler in track and once ran a dead heat for first place in the Big Ten finals within one-fifth of a second off the then world's record.

O'Dea's punting style was peculiarly his own. As he swung his right foot into the ball, he lifted himself completely into the air, his left foot lifting 6-8 inches off the ground. Although the spiral kick was new to him when he started in American football, he mastered it but always reverted to his Australian style of "end-over-end" kicking during games.

He got his punts off very fast and often electrified crowds by dodging tacklers on the run and kicking the ball 60 yards. Rarely was he called upon to make short kicks and that's why so few of them appear in the record books.

1954 Heisman Trophy Winner

Alan Ameche, the bruising fullback from Kenosha, Wis., is the only Badger to win the Heisman Trophy, given to college football's top player.

In his trophy-winning season, Ameche collected 1,068 total points to outdistance Oklahoma linebacker / center Kent Burris (838) and Ohio State halfback Howard Cassady (810). Ameche received 214 first-place votes and won the east and midwest voting precincts.

Ameche, a two-time, first-team all-American, won the trophy in 1954 after rushing for 641 yards and nine touchdowns.

Additionally, he made first-team all-America squads by the Football Writers' Association, Look, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Paramount News, All-Academic, Athletic Publications, Catholic Weekly and UNICO (National Italian Association). He was also named United Press National Back-of-the-Year as a senior.

The Big Ten's leading rusher twice in his career, Ameche brought much distinction and honor to the UW. He was an academic all-American twice. Ameche also became the first Badger to earn membership in the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. He was inducted in 1992.

Nicknamed "The Horse," Ameche left Wisconsin as the NCAA's career rushing leader. His 3,345 yards are currently fifth in Wisconsin history. Ameche led the Badgers to a 26-8-3 record during his career and a berth in the 1953 Rose Bowl.

WISCONSIN'S TOP 10 HEISMAN FINISHERS

UW vs. Heisman Winners

Jay Berwanger '35

When the University of Chicago was part of the Big Ten, Jay Berwanger was often thought of as a one-man team. Although Berwanger did score all of the Maroons' points vs. the Badgers in 1935, his third quarter fumble almost let Wisconsin pull out a win. Berwanger rushed 12 times for 115 yards in Chicago's 13-7 win.

Nile Kinnick '39

Iowa's Nile Kinnick was known more as a runner than a passer; but not against the Badgers in 1939. Wisconsin held the heralded Hawkeye to 12 yards on 11 carries, but the savvy Kinnick completed 7-14 passes for 126 yards to key Iowa's 19-13 win. The UW led in the fourth period before faltering.

Bruce Smith '41

Bruce Smith led the national champion Minnesota football team to an easy 41-6 win in the 1941 season finale vs. the Badgers. Smith rushed for 90 yards on 11 carries as the Gophers outrushed the Badgers 252-127.

Angelo Bertelli '43

No. 1 Notre Dame backed up its ranking when its rushing game exploded in a 50-0 win over Wisconsin. Heisman winner Angelo Bertelli scored one of the seven Notre Dame touchdowns. The Irish outgained Wisconsin 396-44 in total yards buoyed by the skills of Bertelli.

Les Horvath '44

In a battle of nationally ranked teams, No. 8 Ohio State got 177 total yards from its Heisman winner (Les Horvath) to pull out a 20-7 win over the 19th-ranked Badgers. Horvath rushed for 130 yards and completed 4-7 passes for 47 yards. The multi-talented Horvath played quarterback and halfback and also saw time in the OSU secondary.

Vic Janowicz '50

The 15th-ranked Badgers traveled to Ohio Stadium and nearly upset Heisman winner Vic Janowicz and the second-ranked Buckeyes. Janowicz rushed for 105 yards on 21 carries. He scored one touchdown and also handled placekicking and punting chores. Ohio State held on for a 19-14 win.

Howard Cassady '55

Wisconsin held Ohio State's Heisman winner, Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, in check with 17 carries for 100 yards and no TDs. The Badgers led into the fourth quarter before Ohio State scored two late TDs for the come-from-behind 26-16 win.

John Huarte '64

Notre Dame QB John Huarte, the 1964 Heisman winner, completed 15-24 passes for 270 yards and two TDs in the Irish's 31-7 win. Huarte helped ND gain a 419-183 yard edge in total offense. Wisconsin suffered three turnovers which hurt its cause.

Mike Garrett '65

USC got a good effort from Heisman winner Mike Garrett in the Trojans' 26-6 win. Garrett gained 154 yards (24 carries) and ran for two touchdowns, one a 61-yard blast. USC outrushed the Badgers 300-11.

Steve Owens '69

Oklahoma's Steve Owens scored three TDs to help the sixth-ranked Sooners beat Wisconsin in the 1969 season opener. Owens registered 189 yards rushing on 40 carries in the Sooners' 48-21 triumph. Badger Alan Thompson (220 yards) outrushed Owens. Thompson's total set an NCAA record for yards gained in a college debut.

Archie Griffin '74

Junior Archie Griffin, who won the first of his two Heisman Trophies in 1974, keyed Ohio State's 52-7 rout of the Badgers. Griffin rushed for 112 yards (18 attempts) and one touchdown. The Buckeyes pulled away in the second half, capitalizing on four Wisconsin interceptions.

Archie Griffin '75

For the third year in a row, Ohio State was ranked No. 1 in the nation when it played Wisconsin. Heisman winner Archie Griffin gained 107 yards (15 attempts) in the Buckeyes' 56-0 victory. He scored his only TD on a 10-yard run.

Rashaan Salaam '94

In a nationally televised night game between two of college football's top-10 ranked teams, Colorado got four rushing TDs from tailback Rashaan Salaam in the Buffaloes' 55-17 win. Salaam gained only 85 yards on 26 carries (3.3 average), but he tallied four TDs on short bursts.

Eddie George '95

Eddie George scored three TDs and totalled 145 yards rushing to lead Ohio State's second-half comeback in a 27-16 decision over Wisconsin in 1995. Two of the George tallies came on one-yard runs, while the other was a 51-yarder that sealed the win with 6:33 left.

Charles Woodson '97

Cornerback Charles Woodson unveiled another skill with a 28-yard pass to QB Brian Griese in the Wolverines' 26-16 win. Woodson was credited with one assisted tackle, one interception (hail mary at the end of the half), but he surrendered a TD catch to Tony Simmons. Woodson also caught two passes (24 yards) and returned one punt for no gain.

1,000-yard Rushers

Wisconsin became the first Big Ten team and second school in NCAA history (Nebraska is the other) to have four different players gain 1,000 yards rushing in as many seasons. Brent Moss (junior), Terrell Fletcher (senior), Carl McCullough (sophomore) and Ron Dayne (freshman) accomplished the feat from 1993-96. Dayne, of course, extended the string of 1,000-yard runners to five consecutive seasons with a 1,457-yard campaign as a sophomore in 1997.

Gridiron History

1890 — First win, a 106-0 shutout over UW-Whitewater. Wisconsin plays Minnesota for the first time. Except for 1906, the Badgers and Gophers have played every year since. It is the longest running series in Division I-A.

1895 — Wisconsin plays a vital role in the organization of the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives, which eventually becomes the Big Ten.

1896 — Wisconsin claims first outright Big Ten title with a 7-1-1 record for Coach Phil King.

1897 — Phil King produces second straight Big Ten title and outscores opponents 210-14 in 9-1 campaign.

1901 — First undefeated team (9-0) in UW history. Coach Phil King wins third conference title. Eight shutouts highlight the season as UW has 317-5 scoring margin.

1902 — Lost 6-0 to Michigan, breaking a 17-game Badger winning streak.

1906 — C.P. Hutchins coaches the UW to 5-0 record and the Big Ten title.

1912 — Last undefeated team (7-0) wins the school's fifth Big Ten title for first-year coach William Juneau. Nine Badgers named to Walter Eckersall's all-Western team.

1942 — UW is named mythical national champion by the Helms Foundation after 8-1-1 season. A stunning 6-0 loss to Iowa prevents the Badgers from earning a conference championship.

1951 — The "Hard Rocks" team leads the nation in total defense and sets five Big Ten records in a 7-1-1 season. The UW defense outscores the opponents' offense 58-53.

1952 — Wisconsin voted to represent Big Ten in '53 Rose Bowl after tying Purdue for the conference title. USC scores a third-period TD for a 7-0 Rose Bowl victory.

1953 — Badgers upset No. 1-ranked Illinois 34-7 in Madison.

1954 — Alan Ameche wins the Heisman Trophy, given to the nation's top collegiate player.

1959 — UW rallies to defeat Minnesota 11-7 and earn second Rose Bowl berth. Badgers lose to Washington 44-8 at Pasadena.

1962 — The No. 2-ranked Badgers make second Rose Bowl appearance in three years. The foe is top-rated USC. Badgers' 23-point fourth quarter rally falls short in 42-37 Rose Bowl loss. Ron Vander Kelen is named Big Ten MVP, and UW leads the nation in total offense.

1974 — Billy Marek scores five TDs and rushes for 304 yards as Badgers defeat Minnesota 49-14.

1981 — Matt VandenBoom intercepts three passes to spark Badgers' 21-14 victory over No. 1-ranked Michigan. Wisconsin earns trip to Garden State Bowl, but falls to Tennessee 28-21.

1982 — John Williams tallies the only score in a 6-0 win at Ohio State, the Badgers' first triumph in Columbus since 1918. Badgers win their first bowl game, a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

1983 — Al Toon sets Big Ten record with 252 yards receiving in a 42-38 victory at Purdue.

1984 — Fourth consecutive seven-win season ends with 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

1990 — Don Davey becomes the first four-time first-team academic all-American in NCAA university-division history.

1991 — Troy Vincent is runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award and is the seventh overall pick by Miami.

1993 — The UW shares the Big Ten title and defeats UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl to finish sixth in the AP poll. Brent Moss is the Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP. Eight Badgers are named first-team all-conference, and three earn second-team all-America honors.

1994 — The Badgers claim their second straight bowl victory, a 34-20 win over Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Terrell Fletcher is game MVP with 241 yards rushing. Cory Raymer is a consensus all-American, and the NFL drafts seven Badgers.

1996 — Wisconsin wins five of its final six games, including a 38-10 Copper Bowl triumph over Utah. Ron Dayne breaks five NCAA records in a 2,109-yard season. That total is the highest in Big Ten history and betters the NCAA all-time freshman mark by more than 300 yards.

1997 — The Badgers record their second eight-win season in a row and play Georgia in the Outback Bowl. Wisconsin becomes just the second team in Big Ten history to record three one-point victories in a season.

Pre-Modern Era Records

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recognizes official football statistics and records beginning with the 1946 season. The NCAA does not recognize marks set prior to the "modern era." Many great performances were turned in by Badgers prior to the 1946 season. Following are some of the individual efforts by Wisconsin players, prior to the 1946 season, which would rank on the school's all-time lists.

All-time Scores

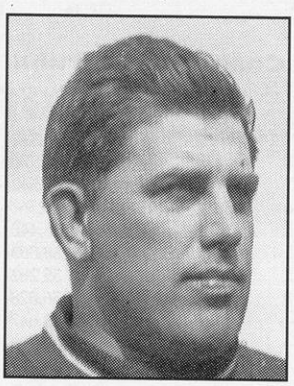
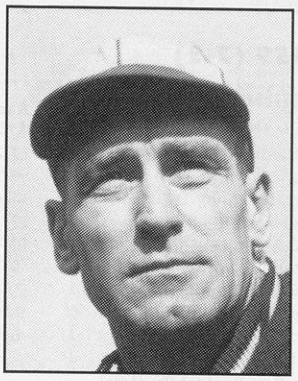
We're No. 1

The Badgers have been ranked as the nation's No. 1 squad just once in their history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth.





Milt Bruhn (left) took Wisconsin to a pair of Rose Bowls and Ivy Williamson led the '42 team to the Helms Foundation National Championship.

Traveling with the Badgers

Coach Barry Alvarez and his Wisconsin teams have had a chance to play games in all parts of the nation as well as the only Big Ten game in history played outside of the U.S.

Badgers and Gophers meet for the 108th time in 1998

There is more at stake than just a win or loss on the team record when Wisconsin and Minnesota face each other on the gridiron. The most-played rivalry in NCAA Division I-A football (107 meetings, including every year consecutively since 1907) is also a battle for possession of Paul Bunyan's Axe. The winner of the game each fall gets to keep the Axe on its campus.

"The records can be thrown away when these two rivals meet on the football field," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "It didn't take very long for me to understand the importance of this game and the great history associated with it."

The Badgers have taken three straight from their border rivals. One of the last Gopher victories ('93) was the Badgers' only loss in a 10-1-1- season. "The loss to the Gophers in '93 might have cost us a national championship," Alvarez said.

"There are a lot of folks who have personal attachments to this matchup," Alvarez said. "The game is a critical one each season for our players and supporters."

Series Notes

The Badgers' dramatic 13-10 upset of 14th-ranked Iowa broke an 18-game (17-0-1) Hawkeye unbeaten streak vs. UW ... Wisconsin trails in the series 35-36-2 ... the Badgers last won two in a row over Iowa in 1973-74 ... Wisconsin's last victory in Kinnick Stadium was a 28-15 decision in '74 ... the '97 win over Iowa let Alvarez become the first former Hayden Fry assistant to beat his former boss ... Alvarez coached linebackers at Iowa from 1979-86 ... Alvarez is 1-5 vs. the Hawkeyes.

Series Notes

The most-played rivalry in Division I-A (107 meetings) is between UW and Minnesota ... the schools play for possession of the Paul Bunyan Axe ... the axe has been on UW's campus since 1995 by virtue of three straight wins ... since 1982, each team has played eight games in Madison and Minneapolis ... the schools split those eight games at both sites ... assistants John Palermo and Jim Hueber are former Minnesota assistant coaches ... Alvarez is 5-3 lifetime vs. the Golden Gophers as a head coach.

Credentials

Press box — Requests for credentials to cover Wisconsin football should be sent on company letterhead to: Steve Malchow, Director of Sports Information, University of Wisconsin, 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711. The fax number is (608) 262-8184. Requests should be received at least 10 days in advance of the game.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at Lot 18 (southeast corner of the Stadium across the street from the fire station).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) television and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications and newspapers filing for the following day's publication; 3) television and radio stations covering for nightly news; 4) newspapers designated by the visiting sports information director; and 5) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA.

Photographers — Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and TV reporters / camera operators on assignment. You must display both a credential and an armband prominently to be on the field level. Your game credential alone will not give you access to the sidelines. Armbands can be picked up in the Reinke Room of the Field House. Media members cannot work between the 25-yard lines.

Parking — A very limited number of parking passes are available for working media. Make your request to the SID office.

Game-day Services

Media services — Facilities for the press are located on the fourth level of the press box. Flipcards, notes and programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A full stat packet will be available after the game.

Fax service — Final game statistics are entered immediately after the game on the Big Ten's Fax-On-Demand service. If you do not wish to use the Fax-On-Demand service, statistical packets will be faxed to your outlet for $10 (payable at the game).

Interviews — With approximately four minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Associate Sports Information Director Justin Doherty. Barry Alvarez meets the media in the McClain Lounge (first floor). Requested players are available in the weight room (lower level of the McClain Facility). The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

Phones — Several courtesy phone lines on level four of the press box are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Media requiring their own phones should call Wisconsin Bell (800/447-7738) to order lines.

Interview Requests

Practices — All Wisconsin practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed to the media. Interviews are conducted according to the following guidelines.

Head Coach — Barry Alvarez holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 1 p.m. in the "W" Club Room at Camp Randall Stadium. A transcript of Alvarez' comments is available on the Fax-on-Demand system (cell #3201). Alvarez is available for interviews after practice Tuesday through Friday. He will do interviews after Friday walk-throughs on the road. Call the Wisconsin SID office if you wish to visit with Alvarez at a walk-through.

Additionally, Alvarez is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference. This session is for media use only. Call the SID Office if you need the phone number for this session.

Players — Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.). Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Associate SID Justin Doherty (608/262-1811) by noon of the day the player is requested for a phone interview. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Wisconsin Sports Information Staff.

Fax-on-Demand Codes

The Big Ten and its member schools provide 24-hour access to the latest press releases, statistics and notes on Big Ten sports. To gain access to this system, media members should simply call the Fax-On-Demand phone number (800-300-2050) and supply their personal identification number (PIN) to gain access. A PIN is any 10-digit number, but it is suggested to use your fax number for easy recall. If you have questions about obtaining a PIN, call Pivotal Communications at 770-399-0096.

Requested information will be faxed back immediately after the request is placed. Because of this technology, Wisconsin does not mail its media releases.

Media Relations Staff

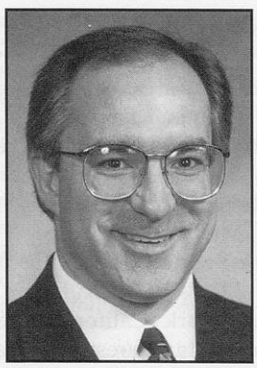
Steve Malchow
Director of Sports Information

Steve Malchow is in his ninth season as Director of Sports Information at the UW. He is in charge of publicity for all 11 Badger men's sports programs.

Malchow worked from 1979-89 at the University of Iowa as a student, graduate and full-time assistant in the Sports Information Office before accepting his post at the UW-Madison.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), which has honored more than 40 of his press guides for excellence. His 1985 football and basketball books were rated first and second in the nation, respectively.

The 1983 graduate of Iowa earned degrees in marketing, journalism and management sciences. A native of Sioux City, Iowa, Steve is single and resides in Madison.



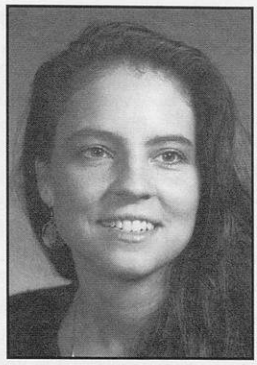
Justin Doherty
Associate Director of Sports Information

Justin Doherty begins his fourth year as an Associate SID at Wisconsin after two-and-a-half years as the SID at North Dakota.

Doherty coordinates media relations for men's basketball and assists with football. He is editor of the football and basketball game programs and oversees publicity for golf, tennis and swimming.

At UND he directed publicity efforts for a 15-sport athletics program. He was also the assistant SID at Northern Michigan (1990-92) and sports editor at the Marshall (Mich.) Chronicle after earning his B.A. in journalism from Michigan State. He was a student assistant in the MSU sports information office from 1984-89.

A native of Southfield, Mich., Justin and his wife, Martha, have a daughter (Erin).



Julie Kluge
Assistant Director of Sports Information

Julie Kluge is in her ninth campaign as a full-time member of the UW Sports Information staff. She has worked for the UW Athletic Department since 1984.

Kluge directs publicity for the Badgers' nationally recognized hockey, cross country and track teams. The 1988 UW-Madison graduate has B.S. degrees in zoology and secondary education.

Kluge is editor of both the Wisconsin hockey media guide and game program. Her 1994-95 and 1996-97 hockey media guides were named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA.

She was an assistant director in the publicity office of the WCHA (1989) and works annually for the NCAA at its national hockey championship.

A native of Benton, Wis., Julie is single and lives in Madison.

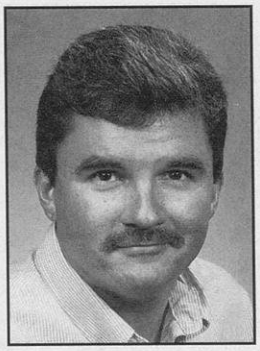
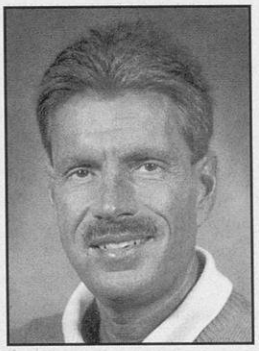
Radio Coverage



Matt Lepay



Mike Lucas

For the fifth year in a row, exclusive radio coverage of Badger football can be heard on the 43-station Wisconsin Radio Network. The Athletic Department and Learfield Communications entered into an agreement for radio broadcast rights for Wisconsin football and basketball prior to the 1994 season.

WIBA (1310 AM) and WOLX (94.9 FM) are the rights holders in the Madison market, and WTMJ (620 AM) carries the games in Milwaukee.

Entering his fifth season handling play-by-play duties is Matt Lepay. He has called Badger basketball the past 10 seasons. A 1984 graduate of Ohio State, Lepay was Sports Director at WTSO in Madison before joining WIBA in 1994. He previously served as Sports Director at WNCI in Columbus, and prior to that worked at stations in Athens and Piqua, Ohio.

Joining Lepay on the broadcast is Mike Lucas, long-time sports columnist at the Capital Times. Lucas, who worked on the broadcast team for Wisconsin's delay TV package before assuming color commentary duties on the radio, also provides daily sports commentaries on WIBA.

LISTENING TO BADGER FOOTBALL

Wisconsin football games can be heard anywhere in the world via Learfield Communications and AudioNet on the world wide web. The AudioNet connection is available through the football section of the Athletic Department's website at ...

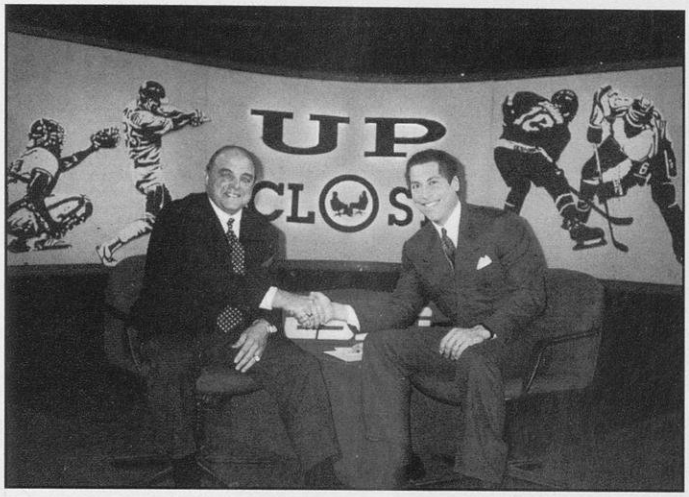
Television Coverage



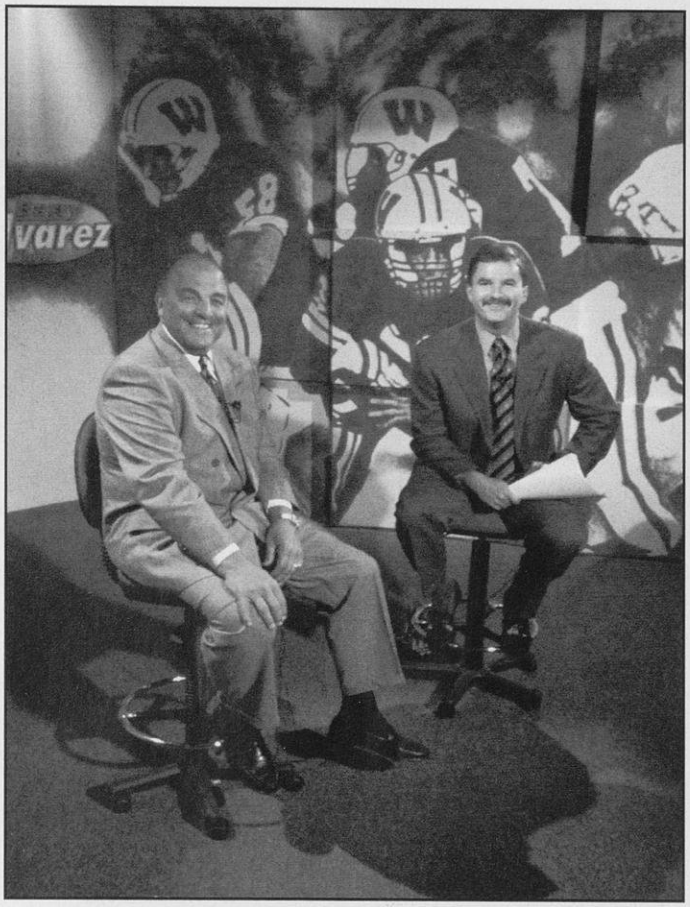
Barry Alvarez appeared on ESPN's "Up Close" show with host Roy Firestone after the Badgers' Rose Bowl championship season.

The resurgence of Wisconsin football has dramatically increased live TV exposure for the Badgers.

Most Wisconsin games will be selected for live television coverage again this fall, but those schedules are not released until 1-2 weeks prior to each game.

For the 23rd consecutive season, Badger home football games will be televised on a delayed basis by Wisconsin Public Television. Veteran broadcaster Van Stoutt of WIBA Radio is the play-by-play announcer.

Broadcast across the state educational network, Badger football replays air every Saturday at 10:30 p.m. The network includes WHA-Madison, WPNE-Green Bay, WLEF-Park Falls, WHWC-Menomonie, WHLA-La Crosse, WHRM-Wausau and WMVT-Milwaukee.



Coach Barry Alvarez with Matt Lepay, the Badgers' play-by-play announcer. Lepay also hosts the weekly Barry Alvarez TV Show each Sunday throughout the season.

The Barry Alvarez TV Show

The "Barry Alvarez Show," produced by WISC-TV in Madison, is a 30-minute program of highlights, interviews and features on Badger football. Seven stations — WISC-Madison (11 a.m.), WISN-Milwaukee (11 a.m.), WSAW-Wausau (11 a.m.), WFRV-Green Bay (11 a.m.), WXOW-La Crosse (11:00 p.m.), WQOW-Eau Claire (11:00 p.m.) and WJMN-Marquette, Mich. (11 a.m.) — show the program each Sunday throughout the season.
