ANNUAL WISCONSIN

SALON OF ART

THE WISCONSIN SALON OF ART 1947

One function of the Wisconsin Union is the encouragement of the state's creative activity. As a reflection of this goal, The Wisconsin Salon is a unique example of an important art exhibit which is planned and executed by a volunteer student group. Under this student leadership, the Salon furnishes the people of the state an opportunity to follow the development of state artists.

The complete success of the Salon depends upon your cooperation. Give these works the consideration that they deserve. Your purchase would add to the encouragement of this program for Wisconsin Art.

JURY OF SELECTION AND AWARDS

JON CORBINO, Rockport, Massachusetts, artist

DAVID FREDENTHAL, Artist in residence in New York

WILLIAM FRIEDMAN, Asst. Director, Walker Art Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Two hundred artists submitted three hundred and thirty-one works of art in oil and tempera, watercolor, pastel, sculpture, and graphics, with a limit of two entries per person.

One hundred and eleven works were selected by the jury for exhibition in the Salon. Represented in this selection are the works of ninety-four Wisconsin artists.

The contributors who were eligible have had three years of residence in Wisconsin including the past year, or were ten year residents in Wisconsin if now living outside the state, or are students now attending Wisconsin art schools.
