one was rent and left to die, And the oth - er floated forward all a - lone. And oh, we were sadden'd, you and I! For we felt that our youth's golden dream Might fade, and our lives be sever'd soon, As the two leaves were parted in the stream.

2. 'Tis years since we parted, you and I!
 In the sweet summer time long ago,
 And I smile as I pass the river by,
 And I gaze in the shadow depths below.
 I look on the grass and bending reeds,
 And I listen to the soothing song,
 You and I,

And I envy the calm and happy life
 Of the river, as it sings and flows along;
 For, oh, how its song brings back to me
 The shade of our youth's golden dream!
 In the days ere we parted, you and I,
 As the two leaves parted in the stream.

THEY ALL SING THE SAME SONG!

"We've found the store where buyers get the very best attention,
With great variety of goods, too numerous to mention.
So low the prices are, they beat the lowest calculation;
Which makes us as a family sing out like all creation."

And THAT is the reason we trade with
