HISTORY OF WILLIAMS BAY
(INSTALMENT NO.8)

It was twenty years after the call to arms mentioned in the last instalment before any call was made for military service. True a few had met as small groups of militia, but most all the men were too busy building up the new country to spend much time thinking of wars.

On Monday, April 15, 1861, the Governor of Wisconsin, Alex. W. Randall received the following dispatch from the Secretary of War:-

TO HIS EXCELLENCY A.W. RANDALL, Governor of Wisconsin: Call made on you by tonight's mail, for one (1) regiment of militia for immediate service. SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

On the following day Gov. Randall issued the proclamation calling for volunteers which read in part: " For the first time in the history of this Federal Government, organized treason has manifested itself within several states of the Union, and armed rebels are making war against it. The proclamation of the President of the United States tells of unlawful combinations, too powerful to be suppressed in the ordinary manner and calls for military forces to suppress such combinations, and to sustain him in executing the laws. The treasures of the country must no longer be plundered; the public property must be protected from aggressive violence, that already seized must be retaken, and the laws must be executed in every State of the Union alike. All good citizens, every where, must join in making common cause against a common enemy.  I hereby invite the patriotic citizens of the State to enroll themselves into seventy -seven men each."

Within seven days thirty-six companies had tendered their services and among the first was one from Geneva, Capt. Roundy , enrolled as Co.F. 4th Wis. Inf. but afterward known as Co.F. 4th Wis. Cavalry. The companies were ordered to Madison and upon arrival found that their enlistment was for three years instead of three months. Those who wished could back down and only one man took advantage of it.

The long struggle required many more men from time to time. As nearly as possible the following is a list of those who served in the Civil War who lived before or afterward in this vicinity.

Those buried in East Delavan Cemetery are listed, with notations that connect them with present day families.

John Charles Kishner Co.F 40th Inf. father of Everet Kishner, Elkhorn Road.

George Kishner, brother of above John Charles and Uncle to Everet. Co. K. 49th Inf.

J.D.C. Gaylord, Co.K. 28th Inf. lived at S.W. corner at De Laps corners.

David Williams, East Delavan Rd.

Sam Barlow, brother -in-law of Oliver Hatch

J. H. Merwin, Co.C. 49th Inf. Uncle of Dr. B.A. Merwin, Walworth.

Truman Pierce , great-grandfather of Myrtle Pierce, bookkeeper in B.W. Christian & Co. office.

Isaac C. Howe, lived on Como Rd.

Norville Williams, Uncle of Elmer Williams and Mrs. Joshua Hackett/

Hugh Rector and his chum Truman Johns died in service. The latter would have been an uncle of Will Davis as he was a brother to his mother. (Cont. next week) alone, offers the patented system that gives you ideal air conditioned refrigeration. By another patented COOLERATOR feature, the ice cake melts from the bottom up, leaving the top almost flat. Because this bottom surface is exposed for refrigeration, you always have the same constant cold temperature in the entire food compartment, whether your ice chamber is full or nearly empty. The happy result: in hottest weather one re-icing every 4 to 7 days is enough.

UNEMPLOYMENT AND RELIEF

Appeals to the FERA at Atlantic City, N.J. by farmers at Hammondtown, N.J. for relief workers to pick the huge red raspberry crop in the vicinity, brought no recruits.

The farmers needed 2000 more pickers as the raspberries cannot be left a day too long on the vines or they will become too soft to ship. The unemployed say they can get more money on the dole. (CON'T)

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

The document through which the Thirteen Colonies of Great Britain in America announced their independence of the Mother Country. The formal declaration was preceded by resolutions in the assemblies of nearly all the colonies, declaring that independence was necessary and inevitable. On May 15, 1776, John Adams offered a resolution in the Continental Congress at Philadelphia that each state form its own independent government, and on June 7 another formal resolution was introduced by Richard Henry Lee in the epoch-making statement-"that these united colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states"; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved."

On June 11 a committee was appointed to prepare a declaration of independence, its members were Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston. They reported on June 28, and on July 1 the great debate began. Lee's resolution was carried July 2. The Declaration was adopted July 4 by the delegates of 12 colonies. The document was engrossed on a parchment in accordance with a resolution passed by Congress on July 19, and on Aug. 3 was signed by 53 members then present. It was drafted by Thomas Jefferson and but little changed from his copy. The document itself for safe-keeping to the department of state upon the organization of the National Government. A facsimile was made in 1823, by order of John Quincy Adams then Secretary of State, for the original signers and their families.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS

One of the most interesting talks ever given before the Williams Bay Garden Club was given by Mrs. Marion Stewart, Chicago to the club members and several visitors on Tuesday afternoon in the Community room.

Miss Stewart told in a very delightful and entertaining manner of the gardens she had visited in her travels in England, Scotland, Norway and Germany.

The people of these countries grow many beautiful varieties of flowers in great profusion and every home has a garden whether it belongs to the wealthy, or the humble cottage of the toiler. Color in the garden is one of the things they strive for and as far as the eye can see, flowers and shrubs of every hue are seen. Even along the railway right of way and the country roadside cultivated flowers and shrubs are seen blooming, also wild flowers grow abundantly and here many species are noticeable.

The rock gardens and pools are very large, well designed and planted.

Mrs. G. Van Biesbroeck, Mrs. Storrs Barrett and Mrs. Beauvais are members of the committee appointed to confer with the Committee of the Village Board regarding the dedication of Edwin Brant Frost Park, in July.

On August the 6th the Club will go to Grass Lake to view the lotus beds and enjoy the day picnicing.

THE W.C.T.U. WILL MEET

on next Wednesday July 10th at the home of Mrs. C.J. Balfe on Geneva St. at 2:30. Mrs. Jessie Ginewald of Sugar Creek will be the speaker. All members are asked to be present to hear the message.

 Elkhorn, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hornigold of Wisconsin Rapids and young son, Richard, are visiting in the Alfred Piehl home this week.

On the evenings of July 5 and 6, and Saturday afternoon, July 6,
 the people of the Geneva Lake region will have the pleasure of seeing the famous Jitney Players in "The Streets of New York", and
 "She Stoops to Conquer".

The performances will be given under the auspices of the Belfry Theatre Players, and promise to be some of the most delightful evenings of the summer.

During the Middle Ages it was the Strolling Players who kept the drama alive, and for twelve years their modern descendants, the Jitney Players have been bringing the best of the drama to the people of America. Though they travel by motor and are modern to their finger tips, there will always remain about them some of the aura of romance that shrouded their ancestors. Perhaps it is this inheritance from another age which makes them able, as one modern reviewer put it, "To take the dry bones of forgotten plays and clothe them in flesh and blood".

For more than half a century,
 "The Streets of New York", slept on the shelves of old libraries until the Jitney Players revived it and made of it one of their outstanding successes. A melodrama of the Victorian era with a pure young heroine and the blackest of black villains, "the Streets of New York" nevertheless contains much that is pertinent to our own time. The Jitney Players produce the play in the manner of its era and though our grandfathers may have wept over the trials of the fine young Lucy, we shall be more apt to smile. Incidentally, on Friday and Saturday nights, this part will be played by Miss Ethel Barrymore Colt, the daughter of the first lady of the American Theatre, who is following in her distinguished mother's footsteps.

Tickets may be had at Hotton & Sons Real Estate office and from other members of Belfry Players.

The Board was concerned over a letter stating that the Water extension was being held up because of some things not yet completed with which was required by the Government. LAKE GENEVA IMPROVEMENTS COMPLETED

The wide paved streets with the new street lights are now ready in Lake Geneva and it is a much needed improvement and well worth the inconveniences it has caused to the residents and tourists.

For several weeks those traveling on Routes 12, 36 and 50 have been forced to make detours. Now the numbered routes are back to their normal highways.

Those who first laid out Lake Geneva city were far sighted in making the wide streets on Main and Broad. The new street lights make both these streets very attractive.

The merchants have spoken in appreciation of the loyalty of their customers during the time the new improvements were made. Now everyone is ready for a big summer. The Riviera on the lake, under the management of Jack Yohé has been made beautiful. The best of orchestras will play throughout the summer.

On July 4,5,6, and 7 the Lake Geneva Gardeners and Foremen's Association will hold a carnival in their buidling on Broad St. For several weeks the Lake Geneva stores have been giving "bucks" with sales and these are to be used in purchasing merchandise at the carnival.

PLEASURE BOUND

25 ocean liners left New York Harbor on last Friday carrying 15,000 tourists who will "sightsee" and enjoy their vacations in European countries. Another lot of tourists are leaving New York this week bound for visits to their native lands. Strangers had to be assigned to cabins to share together as the reservations for the capacity of the liners were all reserved.

WATER EXTENSION CONFERENCE

As requested by the Village Board at its meeting last Monday, the Village President, Clerk, Attorney and Engineer went to Milwaukee on Wednesday July 3, and had a Conference with the P.W.A. engineering and legal departments regarding the status of the Water Works Extension in Williams Bay. Glen S. Reid of Cedar Point Park accompanied the committee.

The PWA officers assured the committee that with a few minor matters cleared up, the bonds could be printed and advertised for sale and the job put up for bids. There seemed to be no real reason for any further delay. It was the hope of all at the conference that dirt would fly right after Labor Day, if not before.

WHY NOT KEEP THE CASH AT HOME?
(Author unknown)

The old home town has changed a lot
Since I was just A lad,
For in those days home-owned stores
Were all we ever had.
I remember how the boss would come
And meet us at the door,
And he always made us feel at home
When we were in the store

And when some roads were needed and Some other work was done
The owners of our local stores were always called upon
When other things were needed to make a better town
They always gladly did their share,
They never turned it down.

And now and then t'would happen
Folks would need a little stuff
To keep them through the Winter
When times were kind of tough;
But it didn't seem to matter, for
The man who woned the store
Would give those folks some credit
And deliver to their door
