

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Atú·nyote.

[s.l.]: [s.n.], 1970/1979

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/4QMPPGVELZJO38H>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

A-8

Eagle

Back when there was fighting, it was just about '61 when it began until '65 when it was over. During that time those eagles were flying where the Oneidas were and it sure was terrible while they fought that this eagle was flying there. After a great while the fighting ended and scattered here and there he had a few feathers left where they had missed him during the fight.

Then I don't know who but someone brought him to Madison where he stands tall.

Before they got the news that they were going to leave, those who were going off to fight met together and just then he is flying above to warn that there is fighting. And they say they always noticed through the smoke that he reappeared and came out of the smoke. That is how they say that he lost feathers. This is the way they tell it – those who had gone off to fight.