EVERYTHING READY

FOR JOINT DEBATE AT LIBRARY
HALL TO-MORROW NIGHT.

Members of Teams Make Statements
—Chances Considered Very Even
—Much Hinges on the Outcome.

All is now ready for the annual Joint Debate tomorrow evening. Both teams have mapped their plan of battle and confidently await the decision of the judges.

P. W. Boehm, closer on Philomathia's team, has recovered from his recent illness and will be in first class shape for the debate. The two societies have lost none of their loyalty and enthusiasm and will attend en masse to lend vociferous support to their representatives.

In the coming contest there is more at stake than the simple verdict of the judges. To a great extent the prestige of the societies depends upon the result. Hesperia is an old established society, strong in her alumni and active members. Her victory over Athenae last year has a temporary supremacy over the other hill societies.

A second successive victory in the great debating event of the year would mean much to her in prestige.

Philomathia, on the other hand, is the youngest society on the hill. She was not admitted to the debating union until 1890. Her loyal supporters point with pride to her record. Since that time twice has victory in joint debates perched upon her banner. It is the intention of the team to make this year mark the third success.

The question that is to be discussed this year is whether the adoption by the U. S. government of a general income tax would be for the best interests of the people. Several concessions are granted and there will be no chance for quibbling on minor points, but a team in order to win will have to do so by the weight of sound logical argument. The question is stated negatively, Philomathia having the affirmative which is the conservative side, popularly considering the struggle. The Hesperians defend the tax and promise a close fight as their side has been materially strengthened by the different concessions. This year an effort will be made to improve the delivery of the men. Although undoubtedly strong in argument and statistics, it is an undisputed fact that Wisconsin debate teams have always been lamentably weak on delivery.

In the personnel of the two teams there is little to choose between the different men. Both teams have been chosen upon their individual merits and all have progressed through the different stages of society development—the freshmen blowout and semi-publics, their records are given herewith.

Eugene T. Hancock of Tomah, Wis., is 25 years of age, and graduated from the High School in 1896. He taught school a year and entered the University in the fall of '97. He is taking the Science course specializing in Geology. He was on the freshman Blowout and the Semi-public two years ago.

P. W. Boehm, closer for Philomathia, was born in Prussia, Germany, and came to this country when three years of age. He lived at Wausau and entered the U. W. in '97. He was closer on the winning team at the Freshman Blowout and also in the Semi-public two years ago. He is 22 years old and is taking the Civic Historic course.

L. G. Lohr was born in Hartford, Wis., but was brought up in Milwaukee. He graduated with the first graduating class of the Milwaukee West Side High School in '98. He was closer on the winning team of the Philomathian Semi-public last year. He is 21 years of age.

Solomon Huebner is remarkable for being the youngest man who has ever been on a joint debate at this University. He is but 18 years old but has already met with much success in debating. He was closer on the Freshman Blowout team and also on last year's Semi-public of Hesperia, winning both debates. His home is in Manitowoc.

J. E. Brindley, closer for Hesperia, graduated from the Boscobel High School, and taught school for a short time before entering the University in '98. He was closer on last year's Semi-public and is taking the Civic Historic course.

A. V. Smith of Waukegan, Ill., came here in '97, entering the English course. He joined Hesperia rather late in the year, but took part in the Hesperian Freshman Blowout and was on the Semi-public two years ago. He is 22 years old.

Paul W. Boehm.—I believe the debate will be a close one for the sides are pretty evenly balanced. As Pro-

"I think we have the right side of the question for we believe in it. Our hearts will be in our debate. I am sure we have judges who are eminently fair and well qualified to decide the question. I consider our chances for victory as fair, and hope to win for Philomathia."

—C. C. Allen, '03, is confined to his room with "grip."

—Michael Olbrich, '03, is suffering with a severe attack of the grip.

—William G. Bolton, '96, of Racine is visiting at the Delta U house.

—Phi Gamma Delta will give an informal party at their house tomorrow evening.

—Evelyn Johnson of Kappa Alpha Theta spent last Sunday at her home in Winona.

—Kappa Alpha Theta gave a Christmas tree party last night which resulted in a very pleasant time all around.

—The Six O'Clock Club met last night and held a very spirited discussion upon the question of "Municipalization of Public Utilities."

—The first Student's Recital of the season was very successfully presented before a large audience at Library Hall last evening.

—Dean Birge left for Ripon this noon to attend the reception given in connection with the grand opening of the new Science Hall at Ripon college. He will return to-morrow morning.

Attend the Exhibit.

Few exhibitions of student talent have a more worthy object than the Self-government Association's entertainment this evening. The proceeds are to be devoted to the encouragement of artistic culture in the University. If there be any one phase of general culture which students should possess and in which the greater portion are deplorably lacking it is a knowledge of art.

The association has been conspicuous the past few years for its brave effort to bring the students to a more keen enjoyment of the aesthetic things of life through a higher appreciation of art. An art exhibit has been arranged each of the last two seasons and the members of the faculty and others have gone to considerable trouble to arrange and deliver lectures during the course of the exhibition. The students should appreciate these efforts for their benefit and assist as far as possible the efforts of the association.

But the association is not asking contributions. A program has been arranged equal to anything hitherto produced by University talent, and in attending the play this evening students will be repaid two fold for their support.

Freshman Dec. Preliminary.

The second series of preliminary trials for the Freshman Dec. came off yesterday afternoon. Those having dramatic selections contested. The following is the list of those who qualified for the finals, together with their selections: Edgar J. MacEachron, "The Debating Society;" Marie Miller, "Losca;" Charlotte L. Wasson, "The Little Minister;" Mary E. Owen, "Aunt Meliny on Boys."

There is one place still to fill, two students tying at fifth place.

Phil King Leaves for East.

Manager Phil King leaves tonight for the East where he will spend his Christmas vacation. While visiting in Chicago, New York, Washington and Philadelphia, he will incidentally call on alumni of the University in the East with a view of starting an Eastern crew fund. It is the opinion of the students that since Easterns get the benefit of the crews developed on Mendota waters, that the alumni will be willing to help in a financial way.

Handball Tournament.

Curtis and Mabbett succeeded in winning three out of five games yesterday from Gust and Angell. Today Smith and Taylor played Curtis and Mabbett.

—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Co-operative Association, held last evening, Herman A. Symthe was elected to succeed T. S. Morris, resigned, as manager of the business of the association. Mr. Symthe is well fitted to undertake the management of this growing business. He has acted as assistant to Mr. Morris for more than a year.

—Phil King received today a telegram from Reno Hutchinson, of the University of California, asking for two foot ball games with our team, one to be played Christmas at San Francisco and the other at Los Angeles New Year's day. Expenses and one-half the gate receipts were guaranteed. The proposition was of course refused.

Prof. Jastrow is going to Baltimore to the meeting of the American Psychological Ass'n. of which he is the president. He will also go to Philadelphia and New York.

Prof. Harper will go to South Pines, S. C. to spend Christmas with his wife.

Instructor Timberlake will attend the Western Society of Naturalists at the Hull Biological Laboratories. He will give a paper on "Spore Formation in Hydrodictyon."

Prof. Van Hise is going to Missouri for the U. S. Geological survey to go over the work done upon the lead and zinc deposits of that area. This work has been done by Mr. H. T. Bain. After that he will begin lectures at the University of Chicago, where he is now non-resident professor.

Prof. Slichter, O'Shea, Bull, Snow and Tressle will attend the Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters, and the State Teachers Ass'n. in Milwaukee. Prof. Slichter will preside at the session of the Academy. Prof. O'Shea will preside over the department of child study in the Teachers Ass'n.

Prof. Hubbard, Wood and C. T. King will spend their Christmas at home.

Prof. Slaughter will remain at home part of the time and will probably attend the American Philological Ass'n. in Philadelphia.

Dr. Elson has received an invitation to attend the Society of College Gymnasium Directors which meets at Columbia University, N. Y. on the 27, 28, and 29.

Many of the professors of the economic and history departments will attend the meeting of the American Historical Ass'n. and the American Economic Ass'n. in Detroit. Prof. Ely is president of the American Economic Ass'n. and will give an address on "Competition; its Nature, its Permanency and its Beneficence." In the session of the American Historical Ass'n. Prof. Reinsch will speak on "British and French Experiments with Representative Government in the West Indies." Prof. Scott will discuss "The Study of Economic Geography." He will afterwards attend the Teacher's Ass'n. in Milwaukee.

garding the outcome of the debate I am unable to express an opinion as neither side claims to have the question cinched. The question is a live one and one which cannot help interesting anyone at all interested in the questions of the day. I thoroughly believe in our side of the question,
not, as some do, because it is the conservative side but because I believe it to be the right side. We hope that Philomathia may add one more to the long list of victories so ably won
in the past."

Ashbel V. Smith—"I think the jury is eminently fair and that all are highly capable men. I wouldn't express any opinion as to who will win;
we will do our very best—win or lose."

L. George Lohr—"We have a very fair jury and the side which wins will certainly be the better team. If the other side wins, we will be glad to extend them our hearty congratulations. I think the outlook for a Philomathian victory is bright."

John Brindley—"As far as the jury is concerned we all believe that it is absolutely fair. The question is one of the most profitable of the day because questions of taxation are everywhere demanding the attention of the people. I would not express any definite opinion as to the outcome of the debate as that is always very uncertain. We have labored long and faithfully, and while the issue is doubtful we are thoroughly convinced of the justice of our side and hope to win."

Solomon Huebner—"I am not certain concerning the outcome of this debate but I feel that our chances are fair. The question is a good one, is strong both pro and con, and will undoubtedly be the subject of a close debate. We have worked hard and faithfully, believe fully in our side of the question and propose to do our level best to win victory for Hesperia.
The jury is certainly a fair one and eminently capable of rendering a correct decision. I feel that whichever side gains the decision will merit
it."

DON'T GO DOWN TOWN.

For your shoes and repair work.
Joseph Dunkel at 604 University ave.
can give you as good satisfaction for less money on patent leathers and shoes of all sorts. Repairing a specialty.

Most people think that any old place is good enough for a bicycle through the winter, so they dump it in the basement where it is damp, or into the coal shed where it is almost obliterated with coal dust, etc. Of course they don't think of the consequences until spring, then Oh! My!
they wish they had taken it to Wm. J.
Park Co., 113 State St., successors to the Madison Cycle Co., and had it cleaned and stored properly for the winter for $1.50, and saved $5.00.
