

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

The Wisconsin alumni magazine. Volume 23, Number 6 April 1922

[s.l.]: [s.n.], April 1922

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/QGZB5COYM65WR83>

Based on date of publication, this material is presumed to be in the public domain.

For information on re-use, see

<http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/Copyright>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

CONSIN
ORICAL
BRARY

F 902
U58AL

The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine

THE NEW CHIEF JUSTICE

A. J. Vinje, B. A. '84, LL. B. '87, a prominent member of the Wisconsin Alumni Association, is now Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin. (See special article by W. J. Anderson, '96, on page 195.)

DORMITORIES

*By C. B. ROGERS, '93, LL. B. '95
Former President of Alumni Association
Former Member of Board of Visitors*

April, 1922

25 cents Per Copy

Vol. 23—No. 6

$2.00 Per Year

A $1,000 Bond Provides An Estate of $4,000

DID you receive one of our folders showing how the income from a few thousand, invested in sound securities, will give you a "man-size estate" through life insurance? This plan offers the maximum of protection for you, your credit and your family.

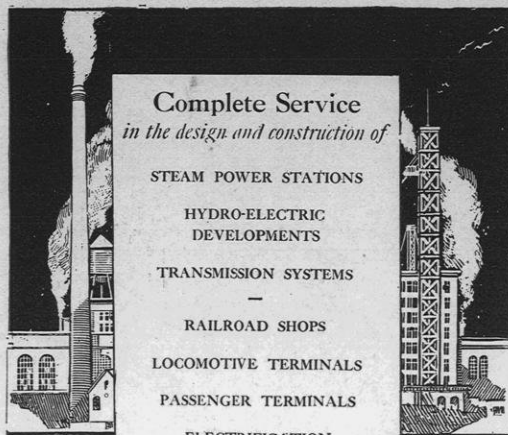

Ask us about it.

Call, phone, write.

MORRIS F. FOX & CO.

INVESTMENT SECURITIES

EAST WATER AT MASON MILWAUKEE WIS.
MADISON MONTICELLO GREEN BAY

Complete Service
in the design and construction of

- STEAM POWER STATIONS
- HYDRO-ELECTRIC DEVELOPMENTS
- TRANSMISSION SYSTEMS
-
- RAILROAD SHOPS
- LOCOMOTIVE TERMINALS
- PASSENGER TERMINALS
- ELECTRIFICATION
-
- INDUSTRIAL PLANTS OF EVERY CHARACTER

DWIGHT P. ROBINSON & COMPANY
INCORPORATED
ENGINEERS AND CONSTRUCTORS
123 EAST 46TH STREET
NEW YORK

CHICAGO    YOUNGSTOWN    DALLAS    LOS ANGELES    MONTREAL

The Haresfoot Club University of Wisconsin

presents

KITTY CORNER

a comedy with music

On Tour

April 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18,
19, 20, 21, 22

Waukesha	Racine
Oshkosh	Kenosha
Fond du Lac	Chicago
Milwaukee (two performances)
Rockford (two performances)
Madison (two performances)

The Twenty-fourth Annual Production

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Alumni Headquarters: 821 State Street, Madison
Robert S. Crawford, '03 General Secretary

ALUMNI BOARD

ISRAEL SHRIMSKI, ex'88 Pres. ROBERT McMYNN, L'94 V. Pres. HELEN B. SMITH, '19 Rec. Sec'y. CHARLES N. BROWN, L'81 Treas. MRS. T. E. BRITTINGHAM, '89	L. F. VAN HAGAN, '04 VICTOR FALK, '11 STUART W. REID, '15 F. H. CLAUSEN, '97 J. E. McCONNELL, '87
---	---

The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine

ROBERT S. CRAWFORD, EDITOR

"A Magazine Aiming to Preserve and Strengthen the Bond of Interest and Reverence of the Wisconsin Graduate for His Alma Mater."

Table of Contents for April, 1922

News and Comment.....	181
Alumni Board Meeting .....	184
Haresfoot—By Walter Schwinn, '22.....	185
Congregational Students' Association—By Rev. J. E. Sarles, '94.....	186
U. W. Clubs .....	187
Fire Under the Boilers and Full Steam Ahead—By Prof. E. H. Gardner....	188
Athletics—By W. E. Shoults, '23.....	190
1921 Directory Supplements Continued .....	191
Alumni News .....	192
Class News.....	194
Book Notes.....	204
Campus Notes.....	205

THE WISCONSIN ALUMNI MAGAZINE is published monthly during the School Year (November to August, inclusive) at the University of Wisconsin.

ALUMNI DUES—Incl. $1.25 subscription to The Alumni Magazine—$2.00 a year, "payable on or before July 1 of each year for the fiscal year beginning May 1 next preceding."

SUBSCRIPTION to the Wisconsin Alumni Magazine alone, without the privileges of membership: $2.50 a year; foreign postage 50 cents extra.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS must be reported before the 21st of the month to insure prompt delivery at the new address.

REMITTANCES should be made payable to The Wisconsin Alumni Association and may be by check, draft, express or postal money order; personal checks should be drawn "Payable in exchange." All mail should be addressed to

THE WISCONSIN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, 821 State Street, MADISON. Entered at the Post Office, Madison, Wis., as second class mail matter.

"Come home again in June!"

Alma Mater invites her sons and daughters home for Alumni Day, Tuesday, June 13, 1922

The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine

"No great university is completely national unless it draws its life blood from all parts of the Union and sends that impulse springing back through a thousand arteries to the remotest states."

Volume XXIII

Madison, Wis., April, 1922

Number 6

I WISH to endorse the editorial in the February issue of the ALUMNI MAGAZINE upon the dormitory question. It is probably a poor time to start anything along the line because we must now carry out the Memorial project first, but it may be

Dormitories that the matter of interesting private capital will be the solution of the whole matter. I have always felt that the need for dormitories at the University was greater than the need for some of the other buildings for which dormitories were shelved. That is a matter of private opinion, and I do not in any way criticize those whose opinion differed from mine at the time. It may be also that the dormitory question would to some extent solve some of the social problems with which the Board of Regents seems to be fully cognizant at the present time.

The situation is no different now from the situation when I was at the University, except that it presents problems on a larger scale, and to some extent the growth in number makes problems more acute. When I was there I was not a fraternity man.

The social life then as now was largely centered at the fraternities, and they got too much society and the rest of us not enough. I was a lover of dancing and I believe today that the faculty of meeting men and women socially, of appearing well on social occasions and of rubbing off the rough edges, which come from such occasions, are as necessary to the future success of the student as the knowledge of higher algebra and trigonometry on which the average student spends a good deal of time and forgets as soon as he is out of the University.

There was a crowd of us fellows who made our Literary Society our social club, and in that way so far as the men were concerned got our social life, made and have kept through all the years intimate friendships which then meant and still mean a great deal to us, and obtained a relaxation which enabled us to carry through our studies. We also organized a Dancing Club which met every Friday night, and the cost of orchestra and halls was then not nearly so prohibitive as it is now, and in that way also we obtained the necessary relaxation. Neither the Literary Society nor the Dancing Club were in any way supervised by the University, and as I look back upon it now I see no need of such supervision, at least at that time. Some of the friendships formed in the Dancing Club have also lasted until the present time, and are among the most pleasant recollections I have of the University.

I only write this in order that you may know I appreciate your editorial and believe you have started something which may result in something definite in the future.—CHARLES B. ROGERS.

C. B. ROGERS

OUR BIRTHDAY (Continued from March)

Greater than our disappointment that no such observance of Foundation Day was provided for students this year is our pleasure in announcing that the Committee on Public Functions has informed us that next year Foundation Day will be made the occasion of a specially fitting meeting and ceremonial for students.

Last year the student daily paper contained an editorial likening the University to a stool with three legs—students, faculty, and graduates. That analogy is certainly no more homely than the erroneous one of a professor, a log, and a student, and surely is more nearly accurate.

Affection for Alma Mater seldom dies in the spirit of a university graduate, but in many state universities faculties have too often looked upon graduates as necessary evils, and too frequently have received their suggestions with about as cordial enthusiasm as a mother-in-law accepts advice from a son-in-law on how to conduct her household.

One of the great problems of alumni organization has been to get a sufficient number of former students to co-operate in behalf of Alma Mater so as to assure representative opinions. This has finally been accomplished by most of the state university alumni associations after years of work. The immediate problem of co-operation now is to get the three parts of a university—students, faculty, and former students—working together on major undertakings. Graduates are very willing to help when they may participate under rules applicable to all three of the players and when they may have some voice in formulating and deciding upon the rules. Governing boards will not find very gratifying returns from anything in the way of "General Orders" until the organization of former students is given some equal privileges in forming such rules. In the words of the old adage, "He who pays the piper will insist upon calling the tune." With increasing alumni support of educational institutions inevitably comes increased alumni representation in the formulation of policies of control. Institutions reluctant to yield the latter have little claim of asking for the former. Where a voice in the affairs of a university is yielded willingly or given cheerfully, increasing support from graduates comes rapidly. Examples are to be found where support has been given and a voice in the affairs has had to be taken, but no case is on record where both power and support are not eventually found coexistent.

The great practical advantage of celebrating Alma Mater's birthday, while probably not as powerful as the spiritual and inspirational side of that occasion, is worthy of much more consideration than it has yet received at Wisconsin in view of the fact that such Foundation Day gatherings held generally by former students throughout the State and Nation would give Alma Mater a chance for personal audience through her faculty missionaries with her graduates.

Is Wisconsin a state, a sectional, or a national university? Enrollment statistics for last semester show that nearly 30 per cent of our students come from outside Wisconsin. Forty-seven

State, American states and twenty-four foreign countries have Sectional, students here. Illinois leads among the states with over
National? six hundred students. Of the foreign countries China stands first with sixty.

The statement at the head of the first page is quoted from Prof. A. B. Hart, who points out that, while large institutions like Wisconsin are educating an aggregate of students from outside the State, or section of location, which gives them sectional groups more numerous than the total numbers shown in smaller institutions with relatively greater percentages, the question is further complicated by the likelihood of a student finding at the same time others of like preparation from his own section, and students of different background from other sections. In other words, is the proportion of "out-of-towners" large enough to have due effect upon the tone and progress of the University?

We take pleasure in printing the following tables kindly furnished by Alice King, '18, University statistician:

Following are the figures concerning nonresident students for the current school year. There are 2140 nonresident students, or 29 per cent of the total, 7344.

No. Per cent.		No. Per cent.		No. Per cent.
Ala.....	5 0.23	Mont.....	27 1.26	Argentina---	4 0.19
Ariz.....	4 0.19	Neb.....	26 1.21	Australia---	2 0.09
Ark.....	12 0.56	Nev.....	0 0.00	Belgium-----	2 0.09
Cal.....	20 0.93	N. H.....	6 0.28	Brazil-----	1 0.05
Colo.....	19 0.89	N. J.....	21 0.98	Canada-----	12 0.56
Conn.....	5 0.23	N. M.....	4 0.19	China-----	61 2.85
Del.....	4 0.19	N. Y.....	66 3.08	Colombia-----	1 0.05
D. C.....	14 0.65	N. C.....	4 0.19	France-----	2 0.09
Fla.....	4 0.19	N. D.....	28 1.31	Guatemala---	1 0.05
Ga.....	3 0.14	Ohio-----	94 4.39	Hawaii-----	6 0.28
Idaho-----	18 0.84	Okla-----	22 1.03	Iceland-----	1 0.05
Ill.....	602 28.13	Ore.....	6 0.28	India-----	4 0.19
Ind.....	149 6.96	Penn.....	47 2.20	Italy-----	1 0.05
Iowa-----	175 8.18	R. I.....	2 0.09	Japan-----	5 0.23
Kans.....	37 1.73	S. C.....	4 0.19	Mexico-----	2 0.09
Ky.....	31 1.45	S. D.....	75 3.50	N. Zealand---	1 0.05
La.....	9 0.42	Tenn.....	15 0.70	Norway-----	13 0.61
Me.....	2 0.09	Tex.....	23 1.07	Pan. C. Z.---	1 0.05
Md.....	7 0.33	Utah-----	7 0.33	Peru-----	2 0.09
Mass.....	22 1.03	Vt.....	5 0.23	Phil. I.....	16 0.75
Mich.....	119 5.56	Va.....	11 0.51	Porto Rico---	3 0.14
Minn.....	123 5.75	Wash.....	13 0.61	Roumania---	1 0.05
Miss.....	9 0.42	W. Va.....	7 0.33	S. Africa-----	4 0.19
Mo.....	86 4.02	Wyo.....	1 0.05	Siam-----	1 0.05
				Total.....	2,140 100.00

Representation of forty-seven states and twenty-four countries at a university means opportunity for exchange of ideas and extension of acquaintanceship that are valuable assets to students. Cardinal Newman pointed out the valuable education that students unconsciously acquire one from another at a national university. That more than two thousand students come to Wisconsin from outside of the State is not alone a great tribute to our University, but a great opportunity for native sons and daughters at the University to extend their knowledge of national and world affairs.

Undoubtedly the day is passed when great state universities can maintain educational leadership and remain provincial. Indications are that, while a state university will always secure the greater percentage of its students from its state, the enrollment increases will be such as to reflect tendencies of a larger geographic section, and that national and even international ideas may be found in the personnel of the student body as well as in the faculty.

Speed the day when every man and woman who ever attended the University is enrolled as a LIFE MEMBER of the General Alumni Association, It is one very practical way of showing your faith in the University and your desire to stand behind it.

ALUMNI BOARD MEETING

A MEETING of the Alumni Board was held at Alumni Headquarters, 821 State St., Madison, at 11 a. m., March 1. This meeting was called to order by President Shrimski, ex '88. Others who answered the roll call were J. E. McConnell, '87, L. F. Van Hagan, '04, S. W. Reid, '15, and Helen B. Smith, '19, recording secretary. General Secretary R. S. Crawford, '03, read letters from Mary Clark Brittingham, '89, R. N. McMynn, '04, and F. H. Clausen, '97, explaining absences. He also mentioned that Chas. N. Brown, '81, who had planned to be present, had been called out of town, and that Dr. V. S. Falk, '11, had found it necessary to go to Chicago. He presented proxies from Dr. Falk and from Mrs. Brittingham to President Shrimski.

On invitation Professor C. I. Corp, '11, chairman of the Faculty Committee considering the change of date of Alumni Day, George Chandler, chairman of the local Reunion Committee for the class of 1917, and G. M. Sundt, president of the class of 1922, attended this meeting.

In opening this special meeting President Shrimski explained that it was called to consider two questions: First the date of Alumni Day, and second, what major features should be recommended for a program on Alumni Day. The Board expressed unanimous recommendation of Saturday for Alumni Day as soon as the faculty could so adjust the University calendar. President Shrimski reported that the Board of Visitors also recommended this change. Professor Corp then explained why the Faculty Committee thought it unwise to attempt to hold Alumni Day on Saturday this year.

In the light of Professor Corp's statement, the Alumni Board, while regretting the apparent impracticability of effecting the change for the current year, thought it best to await due consideration of this question by the faculty, and received assurance from Professor Corp that a special faculty committee would recommend such change and ask favorable action by the faculty for the calendar of next year.

All present participated in a thorough discussion as to the major features that should be included in the Alumni Day program. Mr. Chandler made a detailed report as to the possibilities of securing co-operation of various University organizations, particularly those concerned with music, dramatics, and moving pictures, in furnishing entertainment for the returning members of the Alumni Association so that these members would have an opportunity of getting, in a brief time, an abridged cross section of University life and activities. During this discussion it was pointed out that at the University of Kansas the seniors are hosts to the returning graduates at the Alumni dinner, and that at the University of Michigan the university itself serves a meal without charge to returning graduates on the noon of Alumni Day.

While it did not seem desirable to eliminate the evening Alumni dinner it was decided that there probably should not be more than three speakers, two of whom should be President Birge and Bishop Fallows, that the remainder of the entertainment be in the form of vaudeville acts, band, glee club music, dramatic sketches, moving pictures, and so forth, all of which should be presented by organizations and individuals who were known to have already successfully presented them. It was pointed out that this form of entertainment would permit the sandwiching in of brief stunts by the re-union classes. It was further agreed that the President's reception and the Alumni dance would be desirable parts of the entertainment for the same day. Members of the Board made personal suggestions, mentioning by name several outstanding speakers they thought might be available. On motion it was finally decided that Mr. Sundt, Mr. Chandler, and Professor Van Hagan serve as a special committee to work out details of a desirable program, and that after so doing they confer with Mr. Brown and Mrs. Brittingham as to how such program could best be held and carried out to fit in with the Alumni dinner, and that they inform the Chairman of the Committee on Public Functions of the time and place of general alumni activities to be held during the daytime, and that such schedule should be arranged as to provide for the Chicago-Wisconsin baseball game in the afternoon, and that efforts be made so as to arrange any dedicatory exercises or pageantry presentations that they be held either at such time in the morning as not to conflict with the General Alumni meeting, or subsequent to the ballgame in the afternoon. It was felt that such exercises should be confined to some one time and meeting place either in the morning or in the afternoon, but not both during morning and afternoon.

President Shrimski then took up the matter of membership of the class of 1922 in the General Alumni Association, pointing out the advantages of class action rather than of mere individual action on this matter. The stenographic report of this portion of the meeting follows:

Mr. Shrimski. There is another matter of the utmost importance, and that is the question of getting the class of 1922 to join the Association in a body. The class of '21 was a power in its work, and I think Ohio State had that started by having the graduating class join the Alumni Association in a body. At Princeton I understand that every man becomes a member of the Association as a matter of course.

We would like to have an expression from Mr. Sundt as to the feasibility and advisability of taking the matter up with those who are leaders of his class. Last year I think Mr. Crawford arranged a luncheon with some of the more active members of the class of '21. We met and talked the matter over and addressed the class at the close of the meeting.

The matter of the dues for the first year in the Alumni Association was added to the class assessment. We would like to have the class of '22 follow in the footsteps of '21. If '22 does it I think the Alumni Association will be made for all time. Our difficulties of membership will be solved. The ordinary Alumni Association seems to gather about 35 per cent of graduates, Wisconsin now enrolls about 50 per cent, and there is no reason why they should not have 100 per cent, and we would be very glad to have '22. We want '22, we must have '22, and we want to take it up with members of the class in any way that you wish, Mr. Sundt.

Mr. Sundt. -Mr. Crawford was telling me about the class of '21, and I am heartily in favor of joining the Alumni Association, and I feel that the rest of the class will do anything they can to foster the thing, and if in any way we can get together I will be very glad to do so. I think that I could easily enough get the representative members of the class and could have a dinner and lunch some place, and get some man to talk to us. I think it is a very good idea, and I think that every graduating member of the class should be a member of the Alumni Association.

Mr. Crawford. I shall be very glad to meet with Professor Van Hagan and Mr. Sundt at any time. The other meeting depends upon Mr. Shrimski's time and convenience.

Mr. Van Hagan. The only suggestion I have to make is that it should be at an early date, as early as possible.

Mr. Sundt. Our senior class meeting can be held at any time if we are given three or four days' notice.

Mr. Crawford. Last year, in addition to the Cardinal publicity there were mailed from this office postal cards to all members of the senior class, and we shall be glad to co-operate with you in sending the notices if you desire.

Mr. Shrimski. We appreciate your comment on this very much, Mr. Sundt, and we should like to gather in all of '22.

Mr. Sundt. Most of the men here now have a hazy idea of what the Alumni Association is. If the matter were explained to them their interest would be aroused and they would be in hearty favor of joining the Association.

The matter was finally left in the hands of Mr. Crawford, Professor Van Hagan, and Mr. Sundt to arrange preliminaries.

The meeting adjourned at 12.30 p. m.

HARESFOOT—By WALTER SCHWINN, '22.

WHEN "Kitty Corner," the twenty-fourth annual production of the Haresfoot Club, takes its yearly spring trip during April more alumni and friends of the University will have an opportunity of seeing the performance than in any previous year.

The itinerary complete includes Waukesha, at the Colonial, Wednesday, April 12; Oshkosh, at the Grand, Thursday, April 13; Fond du Lac, at the Grand, Friday, April 14; Milwaukee, matinee and evening, at the Pabst, Saturday, April 15; Racine, at the Orpheum, Monday, April 17; Kenosha, at the Rhode, Tuesday, April 18; Chicago, at the Aryan Grotto, Wednesday, April 19; Rockford, matinee and evening, at the Rockford, Thursday, April 20; and Madison, at the Parkway, Friday, April 21, and matinee and evening, Saturday, April 22.

"Kitty Corner," was written, books, lyrics, and music, by Wisconsin students and graduates. Paul Gangelin, '23, and Theodore Scholtz, graduate student, are the authors of the book; the lyrics are by Horace Carver, '21; and the music was written by Earl Carpenter, '21. Carver and Carpenter also wrote the music and lyrics for "Miss Quita," last year's production. The score contains fifteen numbers. The music has been declared even better than that of last year.

The play is a satire on "blue laws," and many complicated and humorous situations result from the attempt of Ebenezer Corner, plenipotentiary protector of Kitty Corner, to enforce these laws. Delicia Corner, his daughter, and Addison Sims offer him plenty of opportunity to use his band of constables in ferreting out the offenders.

The cast and chorus were selected from over 150 Wisconsin men who tried out for the show. The best talent in the University was selected for positions on the cast, the chorus, and the production staff. Reginald Garstang, '22, who starred in last year's show, will appear again in the role of Ebenezer Corner, the patriarch of the Junction. Hubert ("Hub") Townsend, '23, the Paprika of "Miss Quita," will again play the part of the vamp. William Purnell, '22, will play the comedy part of Belle Bellows which offers him great opportunity to put on his vaudeville stunts.

The chorus of this year's show contains eight men and eight "women," with an added male quartet. Eight of the most handsome men in the University were selected to take the female chorus parts.

Harry Spingold, western representative of the Lewis and Gordon producing company, has been secured to coach the show. He is a well-known producer of comedies and vaudeville attractions, and has put out some good shows. "Kitty Corner," he said, "will be a better show than most metropolitan productions."

CONGREGATIONAL STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

By Rev. J. E. SARLES, '94.

1. Q. Name of religious organization?
A. Congregational Students' Association.

2. Q. Special place of meeting for University students? A. University Congregational Parish House.

3. Q. Is property owned or rented by the organization? A. Owned by Wisconsin Congregational Conference.

4. Q. Amount invested in real estate, building, furniture, and fixtures? A. $12,000.

5. Q. Amount of indebtedness? A. $4,500.

6. Q. Number of paid religious workers?
A. Two.

7. Q. Name and title of such workers and annual salaries? A. Rev. J. E. Sarles, University Pastor.—Miss Lillian E. Lawson, Congregational Women's Secretary.

8. Q. Annual receipts?

q. Local contributions? a. $600 (students.)

q. Outside contributions? a. $5,600.

9. Q. Annual expenditures excluding salaries? A. $1,600.

10. Q. Number of students of this Faith in the University? A. 930.

11. Q. Number of student members of this organization and its auxiliaries? A. 930.

12. Q. Number of members of the teaching staff who are members of this organization and its auxiliaries? A. 123 in parish of Madison First Congregational Church.

13. Q. Average attendance? A. 125.

14. Q. Approximate number of years this work has been conducted? A. 15.

15. Q. How many courses in religious education does this organization offer on week days? A. One (one during year on Sundays.)

q. Average attendance? a. 175.

q. Total enrollment? a. Not taken.

16. Q. Number of calls and conferences held during the year? A. No record.

17. Q. Does this organization maintain a loan fund or scholarship? A. No.

Central in the organization, and directing the work of the Congregational Students' Association is the cabinet. Its activities are so planned as to furnish a laboratory in practical church work. Ability to meet all types of people is developed and experience gained in carrying to success various enterprises. Advantage is taken of the social approach. Besides promoting two banquets annually, attended by nearly 300, members of the cabinet assist in conducting semiweekly social evenings at the Parish House.

THE UNIVERSITY PARISH HOUSE

The Congregational Students' Association provides each year a series of lectures which have aroused great interest and have been very well received.

Great emphasis is laid on the matter of church relations. During the last three years, an average of 175 have become associate members of the Madison First Congregational Church, with which the University pastorate co-operates. Half of these have joined on invitation of their fellow students.

The University Parish House, 422 N. Murray, in the very heart of the student resident section, is the center of Congregational campus activities. It is the home of the University pastor's family and affords a home atmosphere greatly appreciated by those in school from away.

The purely pastoral side of the work, with its personal conferences which give exceptional educational opportunities, is deemed most essential and effective.

U. W. CLUBS

"Sit together, listen together, sing together, eat together, and you'll work together."

"The alumni, through their local organizations, can and should do things. The central association can not infuse life into local branches by some hypodermic method or other. Rather, it is the central organization which thrives only when alumni everywhere are alert for their opportunity for service."

AMES

By W. E. DRIPS, '20

THE Iowa State College and Ames alumni of the University of Wisconsin held their first meeting of the year on Feb. 20, when 46 members banqueted at the College Inn, celebrating Foundation Day of the University.

Dr. J. E. Brindley, '02, president of the local association, presided and introduced the speakers. Dr. Brindley also sketched briefly the early days of the University and exhibited a copy of one of the first catalogs ever published.

W. S. Chandler, '18, who is coaching basketball at Ames, spoke on the athletic prospects both at Wisconsin and at Ames, and A. H. Alexander, '14, once a member of the 1912 football team and now in the landscape architecture department at Iowa State, spoke on alumni activities.

The feature of the evening was the showing of many reels of motion pictures of Madison student parades, and many "Ahs" and "Ohs" followed the showing of familiar scenes.

The Ames Wisconsin club plans to meet regularly as it did in pre-war days, and monthly luncheons are being arranged. George Fuller, '17, was elected secretary of the local club—3-1-'22.

CHICAGO ALUMNI

By B. D. BURHOE, '13

The U. W. Club of Chicago is always particularly glad to welcome as guests and speakers men from the University staff, and on Feb. 17 turned out in larger numbers than usual to hear T. E. ("Tom") Jones, director of athletics.

Mr. Jones gave a resumé of the season in the various sports which are finished, and the dope on those which are yet to be run off. Situated as we are within easy access of the University of Chicago and Northwestern University, the interest of Wisconsin alumni here in athletics is maintained by the opportunity of seeing our own teams in action, not only in football, but in basketball, track, and baseball. Therefore we appreciate hearing directly from the department in charge of these teams at Madison.

Touching a matter of timely interest, Mr. Jones gave his ideas on the question of professionalism in collegiate athletics, ideas, which if they prevail, will prevent any taint so far as Wisconsin is concerned.

Harry Houdini was the guest at the luncheon on February 24. Mr. Houdini is the famous Escape Artist, and has appeared in his act all over the world. He told of his early days in Appleton, where he was born and raised. After giving a few of his experiences, he spoke of the work of the American Society of Magicians, of which he is president, and its work in fighting the spiritualists, particularly the fraudulent ones that prey on the public. His talk was very interesting and enjoyed by the large number that attended—3-10-'22.

CHICAGO ALUMNAE-ALUMNI

By B. D. BURHOE, '13

The joint meeting with the Alumnae on March 3 broke the 1922 record for attendance, 150 being present. Dean Goodnight, '05, was a guest and made a few remarks regarding the Union Memorial.

Frank Bacon, coauthor and star of "Lightnin'" was then given a curtain-raiser of songs and a skyrocket, after which he held the floor till long after the usual closing time. His reminiscences of his life as an actor were full of genuine humor and made this a most enjoyable meeting. "Lightnin'" was as good off-stage as on—3-10-'22.

DETROIT ALUMNAE—ALUMNI

By LUCY ROGERS, '18

February was a busy month for the U. W. Women's Club of Detroit. First and most important of all was the Wisconsin dinner on the 13th, which many members attended and of which there is an account elsewhere. Following up Professor Gardner's appeal the alumnae are working hard to secure subscriptions for the Memorial Union, and the club at its monthly meeting on the 25th voted to take out a life membership.

On the 18th several members of the club attended the Michigan-Wisconsin basketball game in Ann Arbor, which proved as exciting as could be wished. The fact that Wisconsin lost mattered little, for it was felt that the Badgers were the superior team and really deserved the game.

Plans were laid at the regular luncheon and meeting on the 25th to make the March meeting a tea instead of a luncheon and to invite not only all Wisconsin women but the wives of Wisconsin men in the city. Ruth Collins, '13, of the House of Correction, spoke on various phases of her work as educational advisor—3-6-'22.

An old-time Wisconsin thrill was awarded the loyal grads who turned out on February 13 in Detroit for a joint banquet of the men's and women's organizations and a talk by Prof. E. H. Gardner on the Memorial Union building as a "Home for Wisconsin Spirit."

Never in the history of Detroit alumni activities has there been such a gathering—with nearly 100 persons present—and it shows that Wisconsin spirit may slumber but it never dies and it is easily awakened.

Wisconsin movies, Wisconsin music, Wisconsin decorations, and a Wisconsin speaker—could any loyal son or daughter of the University wish for more? They bring back a flood of memories to every former student, whether he or she has been out for several months or several years.

The first event on the program was of course the dinner during which H. W. Drew, '09, led the cheering and singing. Then came the movies with their graphic story of student activities, a comparison of the Michigan and Wisconsin Union buildings, and the student Memorial Fund campaign.

Professor Gardner followed up the movie with a telling speech on the pre-eminence of the University and its unique and wonderful spirit—which is reflected throughout the country by its graduates—and on the need for the preservation of this spirit among an ever-increasing student body by a Union building which will serve as a common meeting place, for dining rooms and commons, student publications, alumni headquarters, and theater. The Union will embody a long-cherished dream of the late President Van Hise as a means of giving to every student a chance to form enduring friendships and the joy of intimate intercourse with fellow students.

*(Continued on next page)FIRE UNDER THE BOILERS AND FULL STEAM AHEAD

By PROFESSOR E. H. GARDNER

You fellows throughout the country who are go-getters yourselves, take a look at the record Detroit is rolling up in the campaign for the Memorial Union.

Then grit your teeth and swear that when the campaign comes to your town it will do equally well.

R. T. ("Bob") Herdegen, B. A. '05, B. S. (E. E.) '06, vice president and factory manager of the Dominion Forge and Stamping Co., Walkerville, Ont., just over the river from Detroit, is chairman of the canvassing committee, and Austin Melcher, B. S. '08, president of the Hoskins Manufacturing Co., is president of the Alumni Association. They have a crew of strong arm men who are giving the sons of Wisconsin in the City of Tin Lizzies a chance to part with their money.

Were about ninety men to canvass and one-third of these covered. Detroit has turned in $3,000. Expect to produce $50 to $75 a man. Herdegen's partner was chairman for the Harvard Emergency Campaign in the state of Michigan, which had contributions as high as $25,000 from one individual. Nevertheless, "Bob" says Detroit is going to do better than that for old Wisconsin.

If you want to know how the girls are doing, read the article in this issue from Lucy Rogers, '18, secretary of the Women's U. W. Club in Detroit.

There aren't many old timers in Detroit. The chief of them, Dr. Shurley, '94—we should say Lt. Col. Shurley, in charge of the largest hospital the world has ever seen, ten thousand beds at Villette, France—showed his spirit by joining the Five Hundred Club, and some of the youngsters aren't far behind him.

Looks like something was happening in Detroit; Chicago, Milwaukee, New York, Washington, and way stations please copy.

Professor Gardner's message fired the heart of everyone present, and the remainder of the evening was devoted to a discussion of what the Detroit alumni could do. Among those who spoke in the interests of putting the campaign across were R. T. Herdegen, '05, E. J. Stephenson, '04, Magdalen Casey Cronin, '18, G. D. Bailey, '12, F. A. DeBoos, '09, and A. G. Melcher, '08.

R. G. Lester, '16, secretary of the men's organization, made an appeal for dues and correct addresses of members, following which the gathering adjourned with the singing of the "Varsity Toast."

Members of the alumni committee in charge of the Detroit campaign include Eugene Stephenson, '04, R. T. Herdegen, '05, G. D. Bailey, '12, Sidney Gilbreath, '18, Walter Erdman, '14, Willard Sanders, H. W. Drew, '09, F. A. DeBoos, '09, A. G. Melcher, '08, Harriet Hutson Crocker, '08, Helen Carlson, '20, Alva Melaas Gulian, '08, Isabella Gamble Winchester, '15, Alice Quade, '21, and Lucy Rogers, '18.

Every effort is being made to raise the quota expected of Detroit, and the campaigners are meeting with a fine response. As this goes to press returns cannot be announced.—3—6—'22.

LA CROSSE

By ANNA MASHEK, '04

The Wisconsin Club of La Crosse observed Foundation Day this year with an evening of merrymaking and inspiration beginning with a dinner and closing with an address on "Christian Citizenship" by Judge M. B. Rosenberry of the State Supreme Court. The speaker transported his listeners into their college days and charged them once more with a dynamic idealism and a keener sense of their responsibility and debt to the state and to humanity.

The meeting was presided over by President Andrew Lees, '95. Bart McCormick, '04, was the leader of the noise makers, who covered several of the sedate alumni with confusion when they became the butt of the jokes of Bart and his band. Thaddeus Brindley, '06, incurred the everlasting enmity of the members of the Club by preventing his father Judge John Brindley, '74, from entertaining them with reminiscences of his days at the University. To appease their wrath "Andy" called on Jesse Higbee, '05, to speak on "Reflections," in which talk the gentleman recited the misdemeanors of University days committed by several members of the club. "Joe" Liskovec, '21, made a plea for a larger number of subscribers to the ALUMNI MAGAZINE. The club elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Catherine Hayes, '08, vice president, Harry Spence, '98, secretary-treasurer, Martha Skaar, '18, and members of the executive committee, Bessie Hutchinson, '09, and Andrew Lees, '95.—3—4—'22.

LA FAYETTE

By GRACE WALTERS

The U. W. Club of La Fayette entertained at a dinner at the Lake Hotel, Sunday evening, Feb. 26, in honor of Prof. E. A. Ross, who lectured here on "The Truth About Russia" at the First Methodist Church. About forty members attended the dinner, and they enjoyed an informal talk by Professor Ross on University news. The club enjoys meeting together about four of five times during the year. The officers are: Prof. L. D. Rowell, '01, president, and Grace Walters, secretary.—3—1—'22.

After reading this see back cover page

ORGANIZED Alumni work to be of permanent value must be assured of continued and adequate support. The usual way of providing for this endowment is by the sale of LIFE MEMBERSHIPS for a definite sum, paid at one time or in instalments which will net the Association what the endowment would if paid at once. Experience has shown that it is wise to have this sum large enough so as to provide for furnishing the Alumni publication free to Life members.

—Hand Book of Alumni Work.

See outside back cover page of this MAGAZINE

ALL SPORTS THRIVE AT WISCONSIN

By W. E. SHOULTS, '23

DURING the past month Badger teams have been battling to uphold Wisconsin's prestige in several lines of sport.

Basketball has of course been the major sport activity of the month, and while the team is not a championship one this year, all indications point to a tie with Michigan for the runner-up position. The worst that can happen to us is a third place tie with the Illini, and to land there we would have to lose to the Maroons in the final game.

While our team has not been entirely consistent this season, it has shown flashes of the most brilliant work, and there is no doubt but had Purdue played a schedule as hard as that of either Michigan or Wisconsin, there might be a different story to tell right now. Warren ("Cop") Taylor, '22, stands second in the Conference in scoring, and has played a remarkable game all year, being the only member of the team who could do anything consistently in the line of scoring. In Rollie Williams, '23, and Gus Tebell, '23, Wisconsin had as fine a pair of guards as there was in the Conference. Rollie has sparkled in every game the Badgers have played with his inimitable dribbling and pivoting, while Gus has instilled that fighting spirit into the team that has made them scrap for every point. Capt. Caesar, '22, Gage, '23, Gibson, '24, and Irish, '24, have all done good work, and Jack Williams, '24, has been a help since his return in February. While disappointed at not winning the championship, we have every reason to be proud of our 1922 team.

Joe Steinauer's swimmers have captured dual meets from Illinois, Chicago, and Minnesota, and bid fair to win from Northwestern in their only remaining meet before the Conference at Chicago. Joe has developed a very strong team that is lacking in only one event, the plunge. Johnny Bennett, '24, in his first year of Conference Competition, is the sensation of the season. He has broken several Conference records in the dual meets and looks like the man to succeed Capt. Blinks of Chicago as the best individual swimmer in the Middle West. Capt. Collins, '22, is also doing the best work of his career now in the fancy diving and breast stroke.

Wrestling has taken a new lease on life and under the able tutelage of Coach George Hitchcock is developing into something worthwhile and gaining rapidly in popularity. While the team this year is not a very strong one, Capt. Peterman, '22, heads a list of creditable performers which should provide the necessary nucleus for a strong outfit next year.

Our gymnasts have been hard hit by eligibility difficulties, but they are overcoming obstacles in true Wisconsin fashion, and Coach Schlatter, '15 has a squad of men in action who are capable of making the best of them step out to win. In the only Conference Meet to date we were nosed out by Chicago, the Conference champs, in the last event. The Conference Gymnastic and Wrestling Meet was held at Madison this year on March 17-18.

The track team has been holding forth daily in the Annex and just to watch those boys go is a treat for any real Badger fan. Mr. Jones has developed another of his famous track teams, and there are many keen observers who think it will come through a winner at the Big Ten Meet. Capt. Al Knollin, '24, Dale Merrick, '23, champion pole vaulter, and several other veterans are good for sure points in their events, while Stolley, '22, Johnson, '23, Ramsay, '23, and many others are expected to come through with wins this year. One cloud hangs over any discussion of track prospects though, and that is the unfortunate accident that befell George Finkle '23, the stellar distance man, who broke his leg in the first indoor meet with Notre Dame.

PETERMAN

WILLIAMS

BENNETT

Back us up for a successful Spring Season. Boost for Wisconsin always.

1921 Directory Supplement—Cont.

- Gutenkunst, Charles Jr., B.A. (C.C.) 3100 Grand Ave., Milwaukee.
- Gutenkunst, Eleanor Marie, B.A. 3100 Grand Ave., Milwaukee.
- Hadfield, Anna Helen, B.A. 212 W. Mifflin, Madison.
- Hadley, Gladys Richey, B.A. Bacteriologist, State Bd. of Health, City Hall, Superior.
- Hagen, Berger A., B.S. (M.E.) Stoughton.
- Halsor, Josephine M., B.A. Mountain.
- Hamblen, Jennings Bryan, B.S. (Ch.E.) Chem. Engr. 801 Hudson, Hoboken, N. J.
- Hamerski, John Anton, B.S.A. Salesman. 682 56th Ave., West Allis.
- Hammond, Harriet Elizabeth, B.A. 723 First Ave., Antigo.
- Hancock, Madelaine Prudence, B.A. Grand Beach, Mich.
- Hanks, Julia J., B.A. 515 N. Henry, Madison.
- Hanousek, John Joseph, B.S.A. Antigo.
- Hantzsch, Ralph Eugene, B.S. (E.E.) With West. Elec. Co. N. Y. C.
- Hardell, Robert Edwin, B.S.A. Scientific asst. Bur. of A. Hus., Dept. of Agr. Washington, D. C.
- Harrison, Kathleen, B.A. 310 W. Washington Ave., Madison.
- Hart, Mae Evelyn, B.A. Waunakee.
- Hatfield, Hazel May, B.A. 112 S. Hancock, Madison.
- Hauck, Rachel, B.A. Teacher. Sheboygan.
- Hausmann, Eleanor H., B.A. 420 W. Mifflin, Madison.
- Hawkins, Andrew B., B.S. (M.E.) Mech. engr. Flintkote Co., Chicago Hts., Ill.
- Hayes, Frank Severance, B.S. (M.E.) 1820 Hammond Ave., Superior.
- Head, Garold William, B.S.A. Student. 1218 W. Johnson, Madison.
- Head, Guerdon Herbert, B.S. (Ch.E.) Student. 625 N. Frances, Madison.
- Helgren, Fred Joseph, B.S.A. Teacher. Florence.
- Henkel, Albert John, Ph.B. (Nor.C.) Portage.
- Herreid, Myron Tilman, B.S. (Ch.C.) Asst. U. W.
- Hertzberg, Oscar Edward, B.A.
- Hertzler, Mrs. Joyce O. (Filtzer, Flora M.) B.A. 1019 W. Johnson, Madison.
- Hess, Ardis Marie, B.S. (Med.Sc.) Mauston.
- Hinkley, Elroy Hall, B.S. (C.E.) Engr. Wis. Highway Comm., Superior.
- Hinman, Dorothy, B.A. Teacher. Kingston, Ill.
- Hirsheimer, Earl Spencer, B.A. (C.C.) 52 Kirkland, Cambridge, Mass.
- Hoard, Marjorie Jean, B.A. Teacher. Wis. H. S., Madison.
- Hoard, William Dempster Jr., B.S.A. Fort Atkinson.
- Hoff, Mrs. M. J. (Williams, Dorothy). B.A. 687-48th, Milwaukee.
- Hoffman, Jennie L., B.A. (C.C.) Teacher. Webster.
- Hofsoos, Emil, B.A. (C.C.) Commercial Research Dept. Washburn Crosby Co. Minneapolis, Minn.
- Hollatz, Clarence Alexander, B.A. (C.C.) 218 N. Frances, Madison.
- Holmes, Paul Allen, B.A. (C.J.) Milton.
- Holt, Norman Herbert, B.A. (C.C.) Accountant. A. T. & T. Co. Chicago, Ill.
- Hooper, Dorothy June, B.A. 521 5th Ave. S. E., Aberdeen, S. D.
- Hopkins, Viola Elizabeth, Ph.B. (Nor.C.) Teacher. 2011 Monroe, Madison.
- Hubbard, Lucille Marie, B.A. De Soto.
- Huffman, Edna Louise, B.S. (H.Ec.) Teacher. Kewaunee.
- Hughes, William Arthur, B.S. (Man. Arts.C.) Teacher. Carrollville.
- Humel, Lars Kjar, B.S. (Min.E.)
- Hunt, Lydia Elizabeth, B.A. Student. 415 S. Mills, Madison.
- Hunt, Rhea, B.A. Barronette.
- Huston, Elizabeth, B.A. Teacher. 223 E. Ct., Paris, Ill.
- Ihlen, Alf, B.S. (M.E.) Strommen, Norway.
- Ingli, Irene Gwendolen, B.A. Teacher. Shawano.
- Ingram, Walter Julius, B.A. Salesman. 1701 McCormick Bldg., Chicago, Ill.
- Irish, Esther June, B.A. Teacher. Fenimore.
- Irish, Frederick Walker, B.S. (Pharm.) Druggist. 401 E. Grand Ave., Beloit.
- Iverson, Agnes Mathilde, B.A. Stoughton.
- Jacka, Warren Stanway, B.S.A. Grad. student U. W. 1039 University Ave.
- Jackson, Morris Dunn, B.S. (E.E.) Penny, Davis, Marvin & Edmonds law firm, N. Y.
- James, Burton Egbert, B.S. (M.E.) Engr. Westinghouse Elec. Mfg. Co., E. Pittsburg, Pa.
- Jenison, Frances Ernestine, B.A. Teacher. Okmulgee, Okl.
- Jerg, Vera Luella, B.A. (C.C.) Pawnee, Ill.
- Johnson, Elmer Dewey, B.S. (E.E.) Cadet engr. Westinghouse Elec. Mfg. Co., 821 Franklin Ave., Wilkinsburg, Pa.
- Johnson, Harvey Chester, B.S. (Med.Sc.) Student. U. of Ill. Medical School, Chicago.

(To be continued)

ALUMNI NEWS

Alumni please keep in touch with the MAGAZINE and with your Class Secretary

ENGAGEMENTS

- 1916 Miss Eleanor Cromwell, New York, to Dr. F. A. Chandler.
 1921 Polly Voorhees to Ralph Bing, a cadet at West Point.
 1921 Emma Mueller, Madison, to George Schubring.
 1921 Ruth McClelland to Karl Zander.
 ex '22

PEARL STEWART

- ex '22 Pearl Stewart, Baltimore, Md., to J. C. Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe is associated with the Burlington Railway Co., Chicago.
 1923 Miss Edith Euppiger, Highland, Ill., to Ralph Greenman, Aberdeen, S. D. ex '23 Miss Carolyn Johnson, Oak Park, Ill., to William Hobbins, Madison.
 1924 Georgia Fess, Madison, to Warren Carter, Burlington. The wedding will take place in June.
 1922
 ex '24 Dorothy Scheibel, Madison, to Maj. H. P. Milligan, senior instructor of infantry tactics at the University.

MARRIAGES

- 1901 Miss Emma Mattek, Neva, to John Hanoousek, Antigo, Feb. 28.
 ex '11 Miss Myrtle Congdon to Harold Meyers, Feb. 25. Mr. Meyers is president of the Meyers Tire and Accessory Co., Madison.
 1911 Effie Paine to W. H. Ringe, Feb. 28. They reside at 512 Highland Ave., San Mateo, Cal.
 1912 Miss Mary Miller, Mentor, Ohio, to Rowland Davis, Feb. 22. They reside at 16800 Endora Rd., Cleveland, Ohio.
 1913 Helen Chafin, to James Desmond, both of Mukwonago, Feb. 11.
 1909
 1915 Helen Welter to W. W. Wallwork, Dec. 15. They reside at 901 4th St., Moorhead, Minn.
 1915 Anne Larson to J. F. Machotka, Dec. 25, 1921. They reside at Hradec Kralove, Czechoslovakia.

- 1917 Miss Mae Grandon, Michigan '14, to Lyle Wilcox, June 29. Mr. Wilcox is secretary-treasurer, Twin City Produce Co., Sterling, Ill.
 1918 Margery Peck, Clinton, Ia., to W. B. Rehnquist, Milwaukee.
 1919 Clara Williams, Whitewater, to Lyman Mather, Nov. 12, 1921.
 1919 Lucile Born to J. L. Carballo, instructor in Spanish at Toledo U., Jan. 28.
 1919 Alice Hoffman to Victor Axtell. They reside in Madison.
 1923
 1920 Miss Ethel Davis to Richard Herxfeld, both of Milwaukee, Feb. 22.
 1921 Leona Yerly, La Crosse, to Robert Farnum, Nov. 12, 1921.
 ex '22 Ruth Schoelkopf, Madison, to Carson Peacock, Feb. 28. They reside at Fennimore, where Mr. Peacock is manager of the ice cream department of the Peacock Creameries.
 ex '23
 1924 Catharine Regula, Madison, to George Schindler, Ashland, March 21.
 ex '21

RTHS

- 1904 To Mr. and Mrs. Louis Musil, a son, Robert Henry, Feb. 27.
 1905 To Mr. and Mrs. David Bogue (Margaret Lyle), Portage, a son, George Douglas, Jan. 6.
 1906 To Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bewick, 1927 W. Lawn Ave., Madison, a daughter, Feb. 18.
 1906 To Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Andrews (Jeanette St. Sure), Linden Hills, Minn., a daughter, Catherine Jeanne, Jan. 26.
 1909 To Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Witte, Madison, a daughter, Margaret, Feb. 26.
 1909 To Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Birge (Irene Walsh), a daughter, Carolyn Elizabeth, Jan. 6.
 1911
 1909 To Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Piffner, Stevens Point, a son, Thomas Raymond, Nov. 10.
 1909 To Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Reynolds (Ethel Clough), 1202 Sherman Ave., Madison, a daughter, Feb. 19.
 1907
 1910 To Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilce, a son, John Woodworth Jr., Dec. 30.
 ex '10 To Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Prowell (Elizabeth Payton), Wenatchee, Wash., a daughter, Stella-Janne, Feb. 15.
 1911 To Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Frey (Cynthia Probert), 130 Lathrop St., Madison, a son, Feb. 21.
 1911 To Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Taylor, Pender, Neb., a son, Dec. 2.
 1911 To Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kemp, 4345 Tireman Ave., Detroit, Mich., a daughter, Margaret Syneva, Feb. 26.
 1912 To Mr. and Mrs. John Jamieson, (Marion Brown), Poynette, a daughter, Feb. 10.
 1916
 1913 To Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Morgan, a son, Richard Kellogg, Feb. 22.
 1913 To Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wolcott (Sidney Oehler), Chinese Government Salt Revenue, Changsha, Hunan Province, China, a daughter, Mary, Dec. 8.
 1914 To Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Runge, Baraboo, a daughter, Frieda, Jan. 8.
 1914 To Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hanson, Home Acres, Madison, a daughter, Barbara Mae, Feb. 27.
 1915 To Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Martin (Helen Schram), Fond du Lac, a daughter, Margaret Helen, Jan. 19.
 1916 To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webster, Hudson, a daughter, Helen Elizabeth, Jan. 28.
 1917 To Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Monser, Wenona, Ill., a son, John Thompson, Jan. 7.

- 1917 To Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Alexander (Evelyn Dickens), 1118 Van Buren St., Madison, a son, March 7.
- 1918 To Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Whittet, a son.
- 1918 To Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Belden, Washington, D. C., a son, Feb. 27.
- 1919 To Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Weed (Florence Collins), a daughter, Elizabeth Jean, Nov. 9, 1921.
- 1919 To Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Haake (Alma ex '19 Gross), a daughter, Virginia Barbara, Feb. 28.
- ex '20 To Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Miller, 226 Orchard St., Madison, a daughter, Feb. 19,

DEATHS

M. A. LEAHY, '61, passed away at the home of his son, E. F. Leahy, 1037 S. Cuyler Ave., Oak Park, Ill., on Apr. 23, 1921.

EDWIN COLE MASON, ex '65, well-known resident of Madison, died suddenly March 8, at the Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago. His death came as a shock to his friends and family. Mr. Mason was born in Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1845. During his youth he studied under, the well known educator, John McMynn. He continued his education at the University and has lived in Madison since his college days. Mr. Mason was a member of the First Congregational Church, University Club, Library Board, and Madison Literary Club. He was a man of literary tastes and scientific interests.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, Att'y Vroman Mason, '95 and Prof. Max Mason, '98 and two brothers, Judge H. F. Mason, '81, Topeka Kansas, and G. H. Mason of Madison.

"The alumni will miss at future re-unions the pleasant face of EDWIN C. MASON, ex '65, father of Vroman Mason, '95, of Madison, and Prof. Max Mason, '98, of the University. Mr. Mason lived in Madison for forty years or more at the corner of Langdon and Frances Streets—the heart of student activities, and was well known to thousands of students. For more than fifty years he was identified with the business interests of Madison, starting as a messenger in the First National Bank. Later he was engaged in different mercantile enterprises, and at his death he was the president and active head of the Wisconsin Audit Company. He was interested in literature and the sciences, especially astronomy, and in all things calculated to further the interests of the community and the Nation. He was a genial and kindly gentleman, a faithful friend and a good neighbor."—C. N. B. '81.

When ROBERT GEORGE SIEBECKER, '78, LL.B. '80, LL. D. '22, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, died at the family home in Madison on the morning of Feb. 12, 1922, there passed a distinguished member of the Alumni Association of the University of Wisconsin, and one whose achievements since his graduation have added luster to the fair name of his Alma Mater. Only a month before his death the University conferred upon Justice Siebecker the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. No one who knew Justice Siebecker's deep affection for his Alma Mater will doubt that so signal an honor from it would command his deepest appreciation and gratitude.

Robert G. Siebecker was a native of Wisconsin. He was born almost within sight of the dome of the State Capitol in a small German community in Sauk County on Oct. 17, 1854. When he was but 18 he came to Madison with a clearly defined purpose to secure an education. His equipment was meager, being that which the country school of his day could supply. After two years in a preparatory school he entered the University to be graduated a few years hence with honors, first from the College of Letters and Science, and later from the Law School. He was one of the few earlier students of the University to be elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He began the practice of law in Madison, and, excepting only occasional recreational trips away, here he remained until his death. He was but 36, and at the time filling the office of city attorney, when he was appointed judge of the ninth judicial circuit to fill a vacancy. Fourteen years from that time, almost to a day, he took his place on the Supreme Bench of his State, having been elected to the position the preceding April. Thus, for nearly half of his life, Justice Siebecker filled judicial positions.

Within forty miles of the obscure farm neighborhood where he was born, and in our very presence, so to speak, Robert G. Siebecker worked out his successful career. He was not a man of brilliant parts, nor was he ambitious for public attention, but he was deeply earnest in desiring to make the most of his life. Step by step this poorly equipped boy of 18 advanced until at the age of 68 he was chief justice of the Supreme Court of his native state, and the recipient of the highest honors a great university, his Alma Mater, could bestow. His is a short and simple story, but a very inspiring one. The history of Wisconsin bears the record of no career among those of the State's notables, more typically American than that of Robert G. Siebecker.

Justice Siebecker had a genius for friendships. The restraints which a judicial position is supposed to place on friendliness did not affect him, though no one was more scrupulous than he not to offend against the decorum of the judicial office. His modesty and his unobtrusive way of doing kindly things were part of the charm of his character. "Beyond his distinction as a lawyer and a jurist," said one writing of him, "stands his relationship as a man and a friend. His persistent kindness and courtesy, his keen sense of justice, his tolerance and consideration for all with whom he had dealings gave him a warm place in the hearts of his friends. He was in all his relations the modest, kindly man, deeply appreciative at all times of any courtesy shown him, and always ready to do a kindness if there were the opportunity."

Of Justice Siebecker's work on the bench, the high esteem in which he was held by the bar of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, when circuit judge, and the esteem and confidence of the bar of the entire State, which he won by his record on the Supreme Bench, are conspicuous tributes both to his character as a man and to his work as a jurist. Twenty-odd volumes of the Supreme Court Reports contain his opinions written while a member of that court. Justice Siebecker possessed the judicial temperament which does not imply any lack of that spirit of loyalty which makes the partisan. He was judicial because of his impelling sense of fairness and justice which always controlled him.

Justice Siebecker came upon the Supreme Bench in a somewhat critical period. The creation of new boards and commissions with larger powers presented new and perplexing problems to the court. In the opinions written by him, wherein the powers and purposes of the newly created legislative agents came up for consideration, and in the support he gave invariably to the court's interpretation of those new powers we find a clear understanding of the changing needs of the times. To Justice Siebecker and his associates of the Supreme Court we owe it that Wisconsin, earlier than any other state, placed itself unequivocally in line with forward-looking policies. Only the Supreme Court's wise support of the new powers delegated by the Legislature to its selected agents, and its clear defining of the range and limitations of those powers made the Tax, Railroad, and Industrial Commissions the effective instruments they have proved to be in meeting the social and economic needs of the times. When a history of the social and economic development of Wisconsin is written twenty-five years hence full credit will be given to the important part played by the Supreme Court in the years from 1905 to 1920.

Justice Siebecker's death at a time when his powers were in their prime is a distinct loss to the State which he served with such faithfulness and affection.—W. J. ANDERSON, '9C.

FRANK W. HOLT, '85, died June 22, 1921, at the Garfield Hospital, Washington, D. C. Mr.

Holt was principal examiner of the U. S. Patent Office.

HENRY E. FITCH, '91, well-known attorney of Nekoosa, died March 8 of pneumonia. Mrs. Fitch and an infant son died in 1911; a daughter, Josephine, died on Feb. 11. Mr. Fitch is survived by two daughters. The body was brought to Madison, where Mr. Fitch spent his early boyhood and student days, for burial.

ANNABELLE BECKLER CHAMBERLAIN, ex '04, principal of the Hawthorne school for the past 14 years, died Feb. 18 at her home, 2303 E. Washington Ave., Madison. Mrs. Chamberlain was born at Waterford, Me., Feb. 28, 1866. In 1889 she married Dr. A. J. Chamberlain of Sparta, who died 27 years ago. Mrs. Chamberlain is survived by two daughters, a sister, and two brothers. Burial was at Madison.

EDWIN F. CURTIS, '10, died Feb. 27 at Arkansas City, Kans. Mr. Curtis was born in Madison 34 years ago. About eight years ago he married Miss Ann Bowden of Madison. For the past year he has been manager of a public utility at Arkansas City. He leaves, besides his wife and one son, his parents, a brother, Frederick, ex '18, of Milwaukee, and a sister, Mildred Curtis Murphy, '07, of Aurora, Minn.

The body of Lieut. WALTER MURPHY, '14, who died in military service in France, Oct. 13, 1918, was interred at Elkhorn with military honors on Feb. 1. Rev. H. C. Hengell, rector of St. Paul's University Chapel at Madison, officiated.

Lieutenant Murphy was born in Elkhorn, April 2, 1892. After leaving the University he taught in the St. Thomas College at St. Paul, Minn., going from there into the employ of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., first at Akron, Ohio, and then at Detroit, Mich. At the outbreak of the war Mr. Murphy was sent to the second officers' training camp at Ft. Sheridan. Shortly after receiving his commission he was sent to France where he entered the British school of bayonet work. On finishing his course there he served as instructor for three months. In July, 1918, he was sent to the front; during the battle of Champaign he was attached to the French second army. Shortly after this he was taken ill and died in the Vitry la Francois hospital.

JOHN F. WEINBERGER, '15, died Feb. 11 of acute peritonitis. For some years he has been prominently connected with the Shortridge High School, Indianapolis, Ind. In addition to serving as head of the Commercial department, he was business manager of the Shortridge daily paper and the printing shop, business manager of the school lunch room, and of the funds of all organizations connected with the school. He was treasurer of the Shortridge Relief Ass'n, and a member of the Masonic order.

RUTH STROMME WOLFERS, ex '19, died suddenly at Los Angeles, Calif., March 7. Mrs. Wolfers was 23 years of age. Besides her husband, Robert Wolfers, '18, she is survived by two daughters, her mother, a brother Olaf '07, and four sisters.

JENNIE ANGER, ex '25, committed suicide at her home at Oshkosh. It is believed that Miss Anger's mind was unbalanced at the result of an illness contracted while she was a student at the University. She was a victim of the scarlet fever epidemic of February, 1921, and she never fully recovered.

CLASS NEWS

1860

Sec'y—J. B. PARKINSON, Madison,
516 Wisconsin Ave.

W. P. POWERS resides at 511 S. Hoover St., Los Angeles, Cal.

1867

Sec'y—ANNIE GORHAM MARSTON,
Madison, 210 Spooner St.

Reune in June!

1872

Sec'y—H. W. HOYT, Pasadena, Cal.,
965 New York Ave.

Reune in June!

H. W. HOYT has established his winter home at 965 New York Ave., Pasadena, Cal.—D. T. NEWTON resides at Bridge-water, S. D.

1874

Sec'y—A. D. CONOVER, Madison,
421 N. Murray St.

An In Memoriam of the late Alfred Bright, for many years general counsel of the Minneapolis, St. Paul, and Sault Ste. Marie R. R. Co., and whose death we noted in the February MAGAZINE, has been presented to President Birge. The sketch, which was prepared for memorial services conducted by the Minneapolis Bar Ass'n Feb. 4, was published by three of his associates, two of whom are alumni: J. L. Erdall, '87, G. A. Kingsley, '95, and J. E. Palmer. After designating Mr. Bright as a man of principle rather than of precedent the memorial concludes: "A somewhat abrupt manner and a vigorous and emphatic personality concealed the many kindnesses which were uniformly extended to those coming into his life. It was said at the death of a great philanthropist, that if everyone to whom he had shown a kindness were to drop but one blossom on his grave, it would be hidden beneath a mantle of flowers; and so in the hearts of his many friends, Mr. Bright's multiplied kindnesses and unselfish service will cover and beautify all the labors of his long and active life."

1875

Sec'y—CLARA MOORE HARPER, Madison,
227 Langdon St.

J. E. WILDISH has law offices at 301 Caswell Blk., Milwaukee.

1877

Sec'y—HOWARD MORRIS, Los Angeles, Cal.,
Los Angeles Athletic Club.

Reune in June!

1879

Sec'y—J. B. SIMPSON, Shullsburg

An earthenware vessel, obtained in 1876 from one of a series of Indian mounds formerly located on land owned by C. C. Remington of Baraboo, and one of the most notable single additions made to the archeological collection in recent years, has been presented to the State Historical Society by J. M. OLIN, in remembrance of his wife, Helen Remington Olin.

1880

Sec'y—ANNIE DINSDALE SWENSON,
Madison, 530 N. Pinckney St.

1881

Sec'y—F. S. WHITE, Chicago, Ill.,
5308 Hyde Park Blvd.

C. H. KERR, book publisher, may be addressed at 341 E. Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.

1882

Sec'y—L. R. HEAD, Madison,
416 Wisconsin Ave.

Reune in June!

FRANK HOWE resides at 827 7th St., S. E., Minneapolis, Minn.—A letter from Coach Richards, '96, who is traveling in the Orient, tells of a chance meeting in Egypt with Dr. H. H. POWERS, president, Bureau of University Travel. "He," the letter says, "being a Wisconsin grad, wanted news of Wisconsin. He is an able fellow and a writer of no mean ability and a great admirer of President Birge. He told me that he credited Birge with all that he had accomplished. He was a student of biology under him."

1884

Sec'y—MARY HOWE SHELTON, Rhinelanders.

Prof. JULIUS OLSON gave the principal address at the Lincoln memorial celebration held in the capitol in February under the auspices of the G. A. R. and other patriotic societies.

1887

Sec'y—KATHARINE ALLEN, Madison,
228 Langdon St.

Reune in June!

Thus far two circular letters have been transmitted to the former members of the class. Up to the present time a sufficiently large number of favorable responses have been received to ensure a most successful and enjoyable Reunion. A considerable number of the members of the class will be accompanied by wives or husbands, as the case may be, and, in quite a number of instances, by children. The committee in charge of the Reunion desire it to be understood that any person who was at any time a member of the Class of '87, in any department—whether a graduate of that class or not—is cordially invited and urged to be present at the approaching Reunion. The committee will give more complete information in the May issue of the MAGAZINE.—T. A. POLLEYS, Chairman.

1889

Sec'y—ERNEST WARNER, Madison,
109 W. Main St.

J. H. FEENEY, Madison attorney, is a candidate for senior judge of the superior court.—Friends of C. H. CROWNHART, revisor of statutes, are busy arousing sentiment for his appointment as judge of the supreme court, to succeed the late Justice Siebecker, '78.

1890

Sec'y—W. N. PARKER, Madison, 1908 Jefferson St.

D. E. KISER, Eau Claire, spoke at the thirty-second annual convention of the Wis. Retail Lumbermen's Ass'n in Milwaukee in February.

1892

Sec'y—MARILLA ANDREWS BUCH-
WALTER, Springfield, O.,
805 E. High St.

Reune in June!

Fortunately for '92 many of the members reside in Madsion, and they will probably volunteer to arrange plans for the reunion. To mention a

THE NEW CHIEF JUSTICE

By W. J. ANDERSON, '96

Aad John Vinje, who succeeds Robert G. Siebecker, '78, as chief justice of the supreme court of the state is a member of the Wisconsin Alumni Association. Justice Vinje graduated from the College of Letters and Science in 1884 and from the Law School in 1887. During his years here as a student he worked first as assistant to the law librarian and later as an assistant to the reporter of the supreme court. He practiced law in the city of Superior for several years after his graduation, and in August, 1895 was appointed circuit judge to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Judge R. D. Marshall, LL.D. '05, to the supreme bench. He was appointed Supreme Court Justice in 1910 to fill a vacancy and has been elected twice since.

Justice Vinje is a native of Norway, where he was born in 1857; he came to this country with his parents when a boy of twelve. His career, like that of his immediate predecessor, illustrates in a striking manner the opportunities which this country offer to young men who have earnestness and the will to make themselves of service to their fellows.

Justice Vinje is a man of scholarly tastes and a deep appreciation of the responsibilities of his high office. He is fully equipped by learning and temperament to maintain the traditions of the great court over which he presides.

few of them—Dr. Homer Sylvester, Prof. J. F. A. Pyre, George Landgraf, State administrator of the soldier bonus, and Congressman John Nelson. Within a short drive are J. T. Hooper, superintendent of the Wisconsin School for the blind and Postmaster J. J. Cunningham of Janesville. Because in the past the reunion affairs have been attended to by class residents we look to them for the gracious hospitality enjoyed upon the 10th and 20th. One member suggests the reservation of a room at Lathrop Hall for the lunch hour on Alumni Day as the opening of the program. Write to them your wishes and promise to be present.—

MARILLA ANDREWS BUCHWALTER.

LAW '92

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that all of the boys are called to Madison for our 30th anniversary reunion on Tuesday, June 13. Shall we get together for a 1 o'clock luncheon in the Grill Room at the Madison Club on that day? Let every fellow that sees this notice send in his reservation to

ERNEST N. WARNER,

President, 109 W. Main St., Madison

The March issue of Asia contains one of a series of articles upon problems of the Far East by Dr. P. S. REINSCH, former minister to China. In describing a conversation with the governor of Shansi, Dr. Reinsch says: "I learned much about provincial administration and about the governor's development works. My knowledge of the commonwealth service in Wisconsin stood me in good stead here as wherever Chinese were thoughtful of progress. I spoke to the governor concerning agricultural experiment stations, farmers' institutes, forestry, and university extension. The governor was interested in these American experiments. He said: 'Commonwealth—that is a good idea. We cannot be happy alone. The government must work for all.'"

1893

Sec'y—LILLIAN HEALD KAHLBERG,
Madison, 234 Lathrop St.

H. E. PAGE, of the firm of Vose & Page, Chicago, Ill., has offices at 1347 Marquette Bldg.—Judge E. RAY STEVENS, of the circuit bench, has been mentioned as a probable candidate to succeed the late Justice R. G. Siebecker, '78.

1894

Sec'y—H. L. EKERN, Chicago, Ill.,
208 So. LaSalle St.

Friends of Judge LUECK have mentioned him as the successor to the late Judge Siebecker, '78, on the supreme bench.—H. L. EKERN is a candidate for attorney general on the La Follette-Blaine ticket.

1895

Sec'y—ANNA GRIFFITHS, Madison,
927 Lake Ct.

F. D. REED resides at 620 S. Ingersoll St., Madison.—Marie POMEROY Grove, with her daughter, is attending the Midland Bible Institute, Kansas City, Mo.—Prof. L. S. SMITH and family have moved to 34 Virginia Terrace.

1896

Sec'y—G. F. THOMPSON, Chicago, Ill.,
4100 W. Madison St.

J. T. DROUGHT was a speaker at the thirty-second annual convention of the Wisconsin Retail Lumbermen's Ass'n held in Milwaukee in February.—W. J. ANDERSON, assisted by his son, W. A. Anderson, is director of the Bureau of Official Information, a weekly bulletin, issued each Monday, containing a digest of all decisions, orders, rulings, findings, and opinions of all State administrative departments, boards, and commissions for the preceding seven days, together with notices of all hearings for the succeeding six days, applications for changes in rates by railroads and utilities, and approvals or rejections of the same—in short an authoritative epitome of the official functioning of the State for the week. Professional and business interests throughout the State are also taking advantage of this service.—C. W. HART, who is in the ranching and petroleum refining business, lives at Hedgesville, Mont.—

W. J. ANDERSON

Coach John RICHARDS, who is traveling in Europe and the Orient, writes that he finds the Egyptian university a school for the perpetuation of superstitions and the country running under the slogan: "Egypt for the Egyptians," which he interprets as "Egypt for the Turks." "The Egyptians are the poorest race, in all that goes to make up racial worthiness, that I've ever come in contact with," he writes. "The oriental slant on things is new to me and I can't get a place to hang my sympathy or appreciation upon." Coach Richards' trip includes Palestine, Constantinople, Italy, Switzerland, etc.

1897

Sec'y—NELLIE NASH SCOTT, Madison,
627 Mendota Ct.

Reune in June!

R. F. Schuchardt, 72 W. Adams St., Chicago, Ill., is chairman of the class reunion committee, with full authority to name the other members of the committee and to appoint sub-committees.

That the expense of running the university is not the cause of heavy taxation, as many people throughout the State believe, was pointed out by J. B. BORDEN, secretary of the Board of Public Affairs, in a talk on "State Finance" at a March meeting of the Mining Club.

1898

Sec'y—J. P. RIORDAN, Mayville

Harry CRANDALL, may be addressed at the McGeoch Bldg., Milwaukee.

1899

Sec'y—MINNIE WESTOVER CHASE,
Madison, 1050 Woodrow St.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva EIGHMY (Estella STARKS, '05), reside at 1012 E. Gorham St., Madison. Sara HEIMDAL Van Dusen has resigned as head of the department of Correspondence Study at Minnesota and is on an extended trip to California.—Harry VON TROTT is a real estate salesman at Mountain.—Albert DENU of Rapids City, S. D., visited in Madison in March.

1900

Sec'y—J. N. KOFFEND, Jr., Appleton,
864 Prospect St.

Frances SLATTER resides at 1133 Divisadero St., Fresno, Cal.—J. G. OSBORNE is treasurer of the Lakeside Malleable Castings Co., Racine.—Dr. Gustav RUEDIGER, clinical pathologist, has offices at 607 Citizen's Bank Bldg., Pasadena, Cal.—C. T. JACKSON, Madison author and adventurer, did not find the treasure of Jean LaFitte in the bayous of Louisiana, but out of his trip he wrote a short story that has been awarded first prize by the O'Henry memorial commission as one of the best short stories of the past year.—S. A. OSCAR has been re-elected president of the General

Ins. Co., Madison.—O. A. STOLEN, Madison attorney, recently gave an address at the Deansville school house before a meeting of the Deansville Social Center.—"Cremona Transformations" was the subject on which Dr. Florence ALLEN, of the Mathematics department, talked to the Graduate Mathematics Club recently. Dr. Allen explained various phases of this comparatively unknown subject and presented her own investigation.—F. M. EMERSON is president of the Shorewood School Board. Shorewood is adding an eight-room addition to one of its schools and proposes building a new high school on a thirteen-acre tract of land.

1901

Sec'y—CLARA STILLMAN HARTMAN,
Milwaukee, 4001 Highland Blvd.

Preston KETCHUM, Milwaukee, State checker champion, won 44 out of 51 chess games from Racine and Kenosha players recently.—R. N. NELSON, Madison, former district attorney, is president of the newly organized Committee of One Hundred for law enforcement.—The Golden Rule Magazine for January publishes under the caption of "M. W. McArdle, Philosopher-Executive" the story of the vice president and general manager of the Chicago Flexible Shaft Co. Mr. McArdle's rise is an inspiring example of what "persistency, personality, and ability can achieve in this country of opportunity."

1902

Sec'y—LELIA BASCOM, Madison,
419 Sterling Pl.

Reune in June!

One of these days you are going to get a letter—that is if Mike Olbrich gets enough expense money together to finance such an investment. When you get it, step out of the rut for a few minutes and answer it. Governor Nestos is going to leave in the middle of a campaign to be with us in Madison in June—surely you won't need to sacrifice as much to be at the picnic campfire. Of course if you are incarcerated you are excused, but if you fail to come or write a letter we of the committee shall take it for granted you are incarcerated and so report to those present.

R. K. COE, Chairman, Reunion Publicity Committee.

Frank SWOBODA is general manager of the Wis. Cheese Producers Federation.—Paul FOSTER, secretary of the Racine Y. M. C. A., addressed the Badger Club in February on "The Fellowship of Service."—F. C. STIELER resides at 325 W. 100th St., N. Y. C.

1903

Sec'y—W. H. HEIN, St. Louis, Mo.
788 Euclid Ave.

"I am glad to have an ALUMNI MAGAZINE that keeps me in touch with the growth of the University. 'The Course in Humanities,' outlined by Professor Fish is full of promise. The 'Campus Notes' I read with keen interest," writes Anna MASHEK, vice principal of the La Crosse H. S.

C. F. BOWEN may be addressed at room 405, 18 Broadway, N. Y. C.—Adolph PFUND, secretary Nat'l Retail Lumbermen's Ass'n, spoke at the thirty-second annual convention of the Wisconsin branch in Milwaukee in February.—Mary JENKINS Espey, Shanghai, China, is in America for the year 1922. Her present address is 1520 W. 12th St., Des Moines, Ia.

1904

Sec'y—FLORENCE MOFFAT BENNET,
Madison,
322 S. Hamilton St.

Clara LAUDERDALE resides at 334 W. Doran St., Glendale, Cal.—Norma HALBACH teaches in the Oakville, Wash., H. S.—Prof. L. F. VAN HAGAN represented The Wisconsin Engineer at a meeting of engineering college magazine publishers held at Ann Arbor, Mich., in February.—M. W. TORKELESON is assistant to Chief Engineer A. R. Hirst of the Wisconsin highway department.

ALMA MATER

By LINDA RIDER

God had loveliness to spare,
And here He built for our delight
Silken-swing of full-sapped boughs
By Mendota's waters bright.
Here sunset boats go up and down,
Couriers to the friendly town,
And waves, with far-exulting chant
By night in molten silver slant.

When the lake and the wood were made,
The Artist laughed His work to see;
For He knew that Man would here
To His secret find the key.
And as the ages onward rolled,
That the world might here behold,
Wisconsin's Sons upreared a dome
Where Learning fair has found a home.

Ivy grows upon the stones.
The gracious elms in regal arch
Stretch down from the Open Door
Thrilling with the vibrant march
Of thronging footsteps, manly, strong,
Rejoicing as they sweep along.
The green expanse of goodly Hill
Sways unto the Lincoln will.

Yet not alone these three we love—
This lake, this campus and this dome—
None of these our safeguard is,
None of these our beacon home.
But ever, Oh Wisconsin dear,
'Tis thy Spirit we revere.
And that shall ever unto thee
Bind us close in fealty.

1905

Sec'y—LILLIAN TAYLOR, Madison,
352 W. Wilson St.

H. E. WHELOCK resides at 938 Riverside Drive, South Bend, Ind.—Percy SAWYER resides at 485 Sunset Rd., Winnetka, Ill.—"The Servant in the House," presented by the Madison High School students under the direction of Cornelia COOPER Saturday evening, March 4, was repeated the following afternoon upon recommendation of the Madison pastors; a third performance was given on March 16.

1906

Sec'y—L. W. BRIDGMAN, Madison, 1910 Kendall Ave.

J. W. REID is chief engineer of the Robins Conveying Belt Co., 2600 Park Row Bldg., N. Y. C.—Conrad HOFFMAN is executive secretary of the European Student Relief of the World's Student Christian Federation; he resides at 10 Chemin Sauttes, Geneva, Switzerland.—Ada AMES teaches in the Fargo, N. D., H. S.—G. F. RISLEY is State agent for the Gt. Amer. Ins. Co., Rochester Dept., with offices at 617 First Wis. Nat'l Bank, Milwaukee.—Mildred GAPEN Bowen gave an informal talk on "Notes on Art and Famous Artists Now in Advertising" at the Chicago College Club recently.—W. J. MEAD, who spent four months in Manchuria as geologist for the Manchurian railway, spoke at the St. Francis clubhouse recently on his experiences in Japan and Manchuria—E. A. TROWBRIDGE, professor of animal husbandry at Missouri, addressed the Saddle and Sirloin Club in the auditorium of Agricultural Hall in March.—W. A. VAN HOOK resides at 1901 D. St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

1907

Sec'y—RALPH GUGLER, Milwaukee,
694 Broadway.

Reune in June!

Louis Reinhard, 709 Hackett Ave., Milwaukee, of the Reunion Committee, desires the addresses of the following: Naojiro INOUE; Kujoro ISHIZAWA; Wm. B. WALKER; J. G. VAN ZANDT.—W. B. MILLER resides at 239 S. Atlantic Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.—Harry GLICKSMAN is assistant dean, College of L. & S.—L. E. WARD may be addressed at 157 W. Park Drive, Midland, Mich.—May HOLMES Richardson may be addressed at 4 Mill St., Evansville.—W. A. VOLKMAN's business address is First Nat'l Bank, Minneapolis, Minn.—W. F. TESCHAN, Milwaukee manufacturer, resides at 1170 Lake Drive.

1908

Sec'y—F. H. ELWELL, Madison,
2025 Chadbourne Ave.

Homer BENTON, Appleton, is secretary of the Northern Paper Mills, Green Bay.—Leal BOORMAN Denniston resides at 67 Frederick Ave., N. Y. C.—W. C. BUELOW, of the Wisconsin highway department, formerly in charge of day labor work, has been made bridge engineer.—Dr. J. L. COULTER is the new president of the N. D. Agricultural College.

1909

Sec'y—CORNELIA ANDERSON LINDSTROM, Madison,
Chadbourne and Lathrop St.

E. E. WITTE, Madison, secretary of the Industrial Commission, has accepted the position of director of the Legislative Reference Library.—Elva CARADINE resides at 340 N. Adams St., Los Angeles, Cal.—N. A. ANDERSON is district representative U. Ex. Div., with offices at the Library Bldg., Eau Claire.—John GLAETTLI, Jr., is superintendent of construction for J. R. and E. J. Law, Madison architects.—W. G. WEBER may be reached at Box 73, Inspiration, Ariz.—A fund of information useful to women voters is contained in the Progressive Primer, written by Irma HOCHSTEIN of the Legislative Reference Library, published by the Wis. Women's Progressive Ass'n.—Virginia WATTAWA is a teacher in the new million dollar high school at West Allis.—W. C. MUEHLSTEIN, of the State Industrial Commission, is chairman of the special building code committee of Madison.

1910

Sec'y—W. J. MEUER, Madison,
113 N. Butler St.

H. E. PULVER is assistant professor of civil and structural engineering in the Extension Division.—Herbert COLEMAN is instructor in the Oil City H. S., Pa.—Hiram GINGRICH is an engineer with the Riter-Conley Co., Emsworth, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Marian WHIDDEN resides at 1327 N. Nevada Ave., Colorado Springs, Colo.—Allen WEST lives in Norton, Mass.—Beulah SMITH may be reached at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 57, Knoxville, Ia.—Amy BOSSON Young resides at 1708 Humboldt Ave., S. Minneapolis, Minn.

1911

Sec'y—E. D. STEINHAGEN, Milwaukee,
721 51st St.

"Kindly accept my check for dues," writes Anga BJORNSON, 4146 Terrace St., Oakland, Cal. "Best wishes for an increased enrollment."

Otto BRADLEY is executive secretary, Centralized Budget of Philanthropies, Milwaukee.—Hester JACOBS, who teaches in Madison, resides at 303 Lathrop St.—Dr. G. E. BRERETON resides at 2632 Live Oak St., Dallas, Tex.—Alvin SCHWARTING writes: "Please change my address to 775 17th St., Milwaukee. That's where my wife lives since I'm married."—J. B. McNULTY is engaged in co-operative extension work as county agent with headquarters at Lewiston, Minn.—Florence GOSSELIN is supervisor of music at Neenah.—B. D. LEITH, professor of agronomy, after 10 years of continuous breeding, selection, and testing, has developed a new variety of oats which are large-kerneled, early maturing, and give a high yield.—President C. I. Corp addressed the annual convention of the Engineering Society of Wisconsin recently, on the wide field of action for engineers.—Helen WOLF, social service worker, lives at Twin Birch Farm, Mt. Vernon, Wash.

1912

Sec'y—H. J. WIEDENBECK, Chicago, Ill.,
21 S. Karlov Ave.

Reune in June!

HAROLD SCHERER, realtor, 1136 Granville Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Will be at the 1912 Class Reunion in June to 'whoop' her up." her up." Stuart BLYTHE resides at 2517 Hekamore Ave., Bala, Pa.—H. J. WIEDENBECK resides at 3501 Franklin Blvd., Chicago, Ill.—Mabel SWERIG may be addressed at 74 Bank St., N. Y. C.—W. E. LEONARD is instructor of economics at Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash.—Mabel GRATZ Glaetli resides at 221 S. Mills St., Madison.—Attractive sketches and keen criticisms of musical activities in La Crosse are frequently appearing from the facile pen of Margaret JOSTEN.—HARRY GEISLER, general manager of the General Agency Ins. Co., Madison, is quoted in the State Journal of Feb. 19 as a booster for the Boy Scout movement.—Fred ZIMMERMAN, Milwaukee, is a candidate for secretary of state on the La Follette-Blaine ticket.

1913

Sec'y—RAY SWEETMAN, Nanking, China,
Care Y. M. C. A.

M. F. RATHER resides at 2028 E. 22nd St., Cleveland, O.—Lucy RAYNE may be addressed at 1108 Grant St., Madison.—E. H. MADISON is assistant valuation engineer, Non-Metal Section, Natural Resources Div., Income Tax Unit, Washington, D. C.—E. D. REYNOLDS may be addressed in care of the Harvard Club, 27 W. 44th St., N. Y. C.—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. GARLAND (Temperance KNIGHT, '16) reside at Santa Cruz, Cal., R. 2, Box 552.—Byron TACK is chief engineer with the By-Products Coke Corp., Chicago, Ill.—Dr. D. H. NICKSON resides at 5609 16th St., N. E., Seattle, Wash.

1914

Sec'y—NORMAN BASSETT, Madison,
Care, Madison Democrat.

Samuel HICKOX, 227 Scotch Plains Ave., Westfield, N. J., writes: "We are always glad to get the WISCONSIN ALUMNI MAGAZINE. Even the kiddies (two and four years old) thoroughly enjoy it. They begin with the covers and in a very few days finish the rest."

E. A. DETTMAN is a C. P. A. at 807 College Ave., Appleton.—R. P. BUTLER is a poultryman at R. F. D. 1, Belmar, N. J.—Florence McMILLAN Weideman resides at 107 S. 3rd St., E., Ft. Atkinson.—Hedwig SCHUMANN may be addressed at Box 494, Lancaster.—G. B. SIPPEL has changed his address to 757 Purcell Ave., Cincinnati, O.—P. F. GRAF is county agricultural agent at Lancaster.—J. A. CUMMINS, bond salesman, may be addressed at 2410 Forest Drive, Des Moines, Ia.—T. N. WYNNE resides at 41 Street and Riverside Drive, Indianapolis, Ind.—A. H. ALEXANDER may be addressed at Box 105, Wellesley, Mass.—Emma FISK is an assistant in botany at the University.—N. M. ISABELLA resides at 608 S. Ingersoll St., Madison.—Arthur CONSOER is vice president and manager of the Consoer Engineering Co., Inc., River Forest, Ill.

1915

Sec'y—N. P. BIART, Madison,
1123 Elizabeth St.

E. F. BUELOW, lawyer, has offices at 309-14 Badger Bldg., Racine.—D. O. STEWART may be addressed at 5881a Washington Ave., St. Louis, Mo.—C. J. BROWN is attending the Naval Medical School, Washington, D. C.—G. D. TALBOT resides at Chardon, O.—Dr. Sylvia STUESSY may be reached at Michigan State Hospital, Kalamazoo, Mich.—J. A. WILLIAMSON may be addressed at 743 Brompton Ave., Chicago, Ill.—A. R. ALBERT is instructing and doing agricultural research at the University.—Reva BRISTOL resides at 27 E. Pearl St., Torrington, Conn.—Katherine Turville Toole, wife of Eben TOOLE, died recently at her home in Hyattsville, Md.—Harry GRINDE, who is in New York for the winter in the moving picture business, gives for his permanent address the University Club of Los Angeles, Cal.—F. E. SCHLATTER, assistant professor of physical education, is deputy commissioner of boy scouts in District 1, Madison.—James DANILSON is an apple grower at Manson, Wash.—After two and one-half years of service in France and Germany J. W. BOLLENBECK has been granted a three months' leave of absence to return to the U. S. via the Orient and will reach San Francisco about May 15. On his arrival he will have completed a trip around the world.

1916

Sec'y—Jessie BOSSHARD MAURER,
Madison, 1212 W. Johnson St.

T. E. BENNETT writes: "Please find enclosed a postal money order for my dues. I am getting the ALUMNI MAGAZINE regularly every month and it proves so interesting that I am constantly looking forward for the next issue. Keep on with the good work."

Howard HABERLA, attorney with offices at 720 Brumder Bldg., Milwaukee, is a candidate for the office of justice of the peace for the city of Milwaukee.—F. E. DOWNS is a physician at Mercy Hospital, Toledo, O.—Prof. W. H. DAVIS is a plant pathologist at Amherst, Mass.—D. N. CARLSON, sales engineer, may be reached at 481 51st St., Milwaukee.—A. G. CANAR resides at 2735 W. 32nd Ave., Denver, Colo.—Ethel BECHTEL requests that her MAGAZINE be sent to Cavalier, N. D.—Charlotte BODMAN Neal resides at 5019 Izard St., Omaha, Nebr.—Dr. W. W. FISKE, children's specialist, may be addressed at 38 W. 48th St., N. Y. C.—Genevieve DEMING is in the advertising department of R. H. Macy & Co., N. Y. C.—Dorothy DEXTER Johnson resides at 113 Farwell Ave., Milwaukee.—Paul DEVERTER resides at 103 E. Chestnut St., Crawfordsville, Ind.—Margaret WILSON is an osteopathic physician with offices at 218 Hyde Park Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.—Albert WEIMAR is a dairy manufacturing specialist, in the research laboratory of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. He lives at Grove City, Pa.—Alice PECK resides at Gunnison, Colo.

1917

Sec'y—H. A. ZISCHKE, Evanston, Ill.
827 Ridge Ave.

DONT MISS
YOUR FIRST
LIGHT O'CLOCK SINCE
SEVENTEEN
BACK TO MADISON IN JUNE

P.M.C.

"I intend to be back for the '17 class reunion. I enjoy reading the ALUMNI MAGAZINE," writes Lyle WILCOX, sec'y-treasurer and manager of the Twin City Produce Co., Sterling, Ill.

Gordon JOHNSON is a mechanical engineer with the Western Elec. Co., N. Y. C.

—C. L. NORDMEYER resides at 4139 Lafayette Ave., St. Louis, Mo.—Rosa BRIGGS resides at 216 N. 33rd St., Philadelphia, Pa.—Florence RAY is an instructor in home economics at the University.—W. B. TISDALE, plant pathologist, may be addressed at the Agr. Exp. Sta., Gainesville, Fla.—Claribel ORTON is instructor in English, Braintree H. S., Boston, Mass.—J. P. PEDERSON, graduate student, resides at 615 Lake St.—Lester HESSE has changed his address to 6114½ Winthrop Ave., Chicago, Ill.—Bradford HAMILTON is in the accounting department of the A. T. & T. Co., 195 Broadway, N. Y.—May WESTCOTT Hayes resides at 205 St. Martin's Rd., Guilford, Baltimore, Md.—Irene MORRIS may be addressed at the Glockner Sanatorium, Colorado Springs, Colo.—Harry RIMSNI-DER lives at 727 55th St., Milwaukee.—C. J. WESTGATE may be reached at 4333 West End Ave., Chicago, Ill.—Hymen ROSENBLATT is assistant general manager of the Gen. Sales Agency, 90 West St., N. Y. C.—Eleanor RAMSAY Conlin resides at 306 15th St., Milwaukee.—May HEISKELL is a Y. W. C. A. secretary, Piedras 384,

Buenos Aires, Argentina, S. A.—Oliver SCHUNK lives at Menomonee Falls.—G. A. BAUMAN lives at 610 W. 163rd St., N. Y. C.—Mattie ELLIS, teacher of history and dean of women, resides at Daniel Buck Hall, Mankato, Minn.—D. W. SMITH, chemist and bacteriologist, resides at 1126 S. 35th Ave., Omaha, Nebr.—Mary HENRY, who expects to take her master's degree in May at Berkeley, has been elected to Mu Theta Epsilon, a national honorary society for women interested in mathematics.—C. M. JANSKY, assistant professor of electrical engineering at Minnesota, took part in a radio-telephony conference in Washington in February.—A. KLETZIEN is with the Wis. Tax Comm., Madison.—E. A. GREUMKE resides at 831 Morrison St., Appleton.—E. A. BEHNISCH resides at 2217 Corry St., Madison.—Sylvia WEDEL, teacher, resides at 340 Embarcadero Rd., Palo Alto, Cal.—Genevieve NAGLER Dellinger, may be addressed at Box 473, Presscott, Ariz.—Lois CLARK George resides at College Hills, Madison.—May GUNDERSON, County Farm Bureau, Council Bluffs, Ia., writes: "I am planning to be back in June."—

Protest

Since the University of Wisconsin was my first (and only) love, I beg leave to say a word in protest of the decision banning Scott Nearing and other liberals from university platforms, a decision contrary to the best interests of the student body.

President Birge must be highly commended for his close personal contact not only with the students, but with their parents; but his duty to the students comes first and is greater than his duty to the parents. His statement in the ALUMNI MAGAZINE for January four times refers to the students as "children" and one time as "boys and girls"—which is a fundamental and harmful misconception.

Of course, in the Barrie or Peter Pan sense, they are and always will be children. The biologist will tell you, however, even if the modern economist endeavors to pass it over, that students of college age are young men and women, and the mere fact that they have postponed entry into combats of actual life cannot by any possibility overcome the natural fact. They have only postponed that entry into the lists: they have not, save for the few determined scholars, undertaken to lay it aside forever.

It wasn't as children that the students went to war, and it certainly wasn't as children that those who returned to Madison completed their interrupted courses. It isn't as children that they are now considering the arduous work of nation-wide and world-wide reconstruction; neither is it as children that those students who cannot afford a college education nevertheless undergo painful sacrifices to struggle through the four years.

The idea of preparing "children" in accordance with the best views of the parents has a sentimental value; but after all, these same parents did not make such-a-much of a success in running this world. In fact, they missed the mark by several million miles. The world belongs to this generation, and its hard work belongs to this generation. The intellectual curiosity of the students who will be graduating presently should be encouraged, not suppressed. The fact is, it can't be suppressed, and the University authorities may soon find that if they do not allow several leading liberals the privilege of addressing students each school year, facilities will be found for such meetings in Madison, but outside college jurisdiction, where more speakers, and more extremists, will be heard than the students intended to invite in the first place. Which will no doubt be a more nearly accurate picture of world conditions than the faculty has bargained for.

Respectfully,
HYMEN ROSENBLATT, '17.

Hanna FELSHER, 4861 N. Hermitage Ave., Urbana, Ill., has recently joined the Alumni Ass'n.

Undelivered mail addressed to the following members of the Alumni Ass'n has been returned to headquarters: DENFELD, GEORGE A.; HAGOPIAN, BEDROS; LANZ, ARTHUR; MOSER, CLARA P.; PATTERSON, LOUISE; REICHERT, DR. JOHN L.; STEPHEN, DR. CARL T.

N. B.—See special 1917 Supplement.

1918

Sec'y—HOWARD HANCOCK, Oshkosh, State Normal.

Elsie HOWELL, principal of the Ft. Klamath, Ore., H. S., writes: "I surely do appreciate the MAGAZINE away off up here in the hills forty miles from cultivation. The articles reflect the old Wisconsin spirit and are a constant inspiration."

F. O. KEYES is athletic director at Platteville Normal.—Edwin MOFFATT resides at 458 Bradford Ave., Milwaukee.—J. C. WATSON lives at 202 W. Norris St., Ironwood, Mich.—Marion DAWSON will reside at Charles City, Iowa, until June.—Glen HALIK may be addressed at the Evanston Y. M. C. A.—W. S. GILBREATH, Jr., is in the bond department of the Security Street Co., Detroit, Mich.—Marvin GOUL is an accountant with the U. S. Aluminum Co., New Kensington, Pa.—Hyman LIPSCHUTZ is a clerk in the U. S. Bank, N. Y. C.—

Claire SCHNEIDER is manager of the Capital City Culvert Co., Madison.—Khoren HUSSISSIAN resides at 1915 Regent St., Madison.—Stanley BELDEN is secretary to Congressman Cooper, Washington, D. C., and is taking law at George Washington U.—A. J. BRANN, agricultural agent for Oneida County, resides at Rhinelander.—Marion NEPRUD, student secretary of Luther Memorial Church, attended the executive meeting of the State Luther League Ass'n in Milwaukee in February.—William Ross, tenor soloist of Grace Church choir, Madison, took the part of Nanki-Poo, the leading role in "The Mikado," at the Parkway, Feb. 25.—Ramon COFFMAN recently gave a series of lectures to the Milwaukee school children on "The History of the Human Race." These lectures have appeared in the children's department of the Milwaukee Journal, of which department Mr. COFFMAN is editor.—OTTO URECH resides at 709 27th St., Milwaukee.—W. M. KELLEY is a physical director at Atascadero, Cal.—Elinore SCHWEIZER is studying voice and attending Columbia U.

1919

Sec'y—VELMA REID, Hurley.

J. PERLMAN is an assistant in economics at the University.—Arthur SNYDER resides at 862 Union St., Schenectady, N. Y.—Clifford IVES has started the Ives Engineering Service, 1261 Monadnock Blk., Chicago, Ill.—N. E. STABO resides at 87 28th St., Elmhurst, L. I., N. Y.—Dorothy AYERS London, district home demonstration agent for N. Dak., resides at 415 8th St. S., Moorhead, Minn.—Dorothy Dr

DEAR CLASSMATE:

Do you know that your WISCONSIN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION leads among those of the state universities?

Do you know that a number of classes boast a larger proportion of membership than does 1917—two classes, 1891, and 1921, claim 100% membership?

Do you know that the Association has been a large factor for the success of the Memorial Building and Athletic Field prospects—to name only two instances? Think what these things mean to you as a Wisconsin graduate.

The class of 1917 should be 100% in the Association. I urge you to give your support to the present campaign for 10,000 members by signing below. (You can mail this to Marguerite Jenison, 412 Lincoln Hall, Urbana, Ill., or to Alumni Headquarters, 821 State St., Madison, Wis.)

Earnestly,

H. A. ZISCHKE, 1917 Class President.

P. S. THE ALUMNI MAGAZINE comes each month with your membership. You will find it in itself worth more than the $2 charged for annual dues.

CUT ALONG THIS LINE

CUT ALONG THIS LINE

TREASURER, WISCONSIN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION,
821 STATE ST., MADISON, WIS.

Enclosed find check for $2 for which please enrol me as a member of the General Alumni Association for one year.

Name.....

Address.....

N. B. This issue is sent to all members of the class to promote the class reunion and in the hope that any who have not joined the Alumni Association will do so. "DO IT NOW."

MOND is interne at the Children's Hospital, San Francisco, Cal.—Chauncey PELLOW, law school student, resides at 19 Mendota Ct., Madison.—S. L. SPENGLER is a lawyer at Menasha.—F. W. IRISH, pharmacist, resides at 510 Greenleaf St., Evanston, Ill.—Gloria COOPER is studying for her M. A. degree in chemistry at Columbia.—Howard EATON, just returned from a year in Germany, France, and England, in the Capital Times of Feb. 14 gives some impressions of general conditions abroad.—Jennette DUNWIDDIE resides at Delavan.

1920

Sec'y—PHYLLIS B. HAMILTON, Racine, Care, Hartmann Trunk Co.

Ruth SAYRE, 50 S. 7th Ave., La Grange, Ill., writes: "I don't want to miss a single issue of the ALUMNI MAGAZINE."

Leatha HARTUNG resides at 1120 College Ave., Racine.—Eleanore BOGAN teaches science and home economics at the Liggett School, Detroit, Mich.—Gertrude WEBER teaches in the Keokuk, Iowa, H. S.—Laurretta NICHOLS is fine arts teacher at the Summit School, St. Paul, Minn.—C. F. SLOAN is an instructor in engineering at the University.—Ruth WOLFE is an assistant in the University Library.—James PAYTON, bandsman, resides at 2002 Chamberlin Ave., Madison.—Lillian BISSELL is teaching Romance Languages in the U. of Tulsa, Okla.—Marion JAMES resides at 306 S. Minnesota Ave., Sioux Falls, S. D.—Harold BRAUN has changed his address to 188 34th St., Milwaukee.—R. R. KNOERR is in the Physics department, Drexel Inst., Philadelphia, Pa.—G. E. VAN HAGEN's business address is 411 Railway Exchange Bldg., Chicago, Ill.—Reimar FRANK is with the Milwaukee Rolling Mill Co.—Freeda COUTON Corcoran lives at Forsyth, Mont.—Josephine HINTGEN is director of vocational guidance and attendance supervisor in the public schools of La Crosse.—Fire recently destroyed about $3,000 worth of property on "Sunny Slope Chicken Farm," Route 5, Madison, owned by Howard KING. Mr. King expects to be back in business in the fall.—Lawrence BRODY, executive secretary to Governor Blaine, will enter the practice of law with Att'y F. H. Hartwell, '99, La Crosse, under the firm name of Hartwell and Brody.—G. R. SHAW is a chemist with the Nat'l Lamp Works of the Gen. Elec. Co., Cleveland, O.—Sanford SMITH may be reached at 195 Broadway, N. Y. C., care T. & T. Co., Commercial Survey Dept.—Lucille OLSEN, who teaches in St. Joseph, Mo., resides at 1302 Sylvan St.—Stella PATTON resides at 14 S. Fairchild St., Madison.—Verna CARLEY teaches English in the Neenah H. S.

1921

Sec'y—MARY PARKINSON, Milwaukee, 236 Oneida St.

W. B. FLOREA, who is affiliated with the Mountain Valley Water Co., N. Y. C., writes: "Undoubtedly you have begun a campaign to secure as many members as possible from this year's graduating class. My wish is that you may be even more successful than you were in last year's class, although the idea of a one hundred per cent membership, which the Class of '21 introduced, can hardly be bettered."

Dorothy CARLOCK is athletic director of the Schuster Dept. Stores, Milwaukee.—Dr. and Mrs. Clifton CORBETT (Vira WINCHELL, '20) reside at 105 Spooner St., Madison.—Alina LINDEGREN is a post graduate student and an assistant in history at the University.—E. D. McCOLLUM is assistant instructor in chemistry at the University.—Thelma JOHNSON is an assistant in the University Registrar's office.—Myron HERREID is assistant in chemistry at the University.—T. W. LELAND resides at 119 N. Bassett St., Madison.—H. K. PESTALOZZI is an assistant in chemistry at the University.—Mabel GREGG is an assistant in zoology at the University.—Carl KOHLHOFF teaches in the Antigo H. S.—W. L. KICKHOEFER, graduate student at Harvard, resides at 60 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge, Mass.—Sada BUCKMASTER is spending several months traveling in California.—Margaret DOERR resides at 4119 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa.—Leonore WEBER is administrative dietitian at University Hospital, Iowa City, Iowa.—L. H. HORWITZ lives at 736 S. Ashland Blvd., Chicago, Ill.—Morris JACKSON is with the Penny, Davis, Marvin & Edmonds law firm, N. Y.—Arnold VOBACH is employed with the Sinclair Refining Co., 433 N. Y. Ave., Whiting, Ind.—L. G. CORR is a student at the Harvard Grad. Business School.—V. A. TIEDJENS is an assistant in agronomy at the University.—Mary BAUSCH is an instructor in German at the University.—J. K. POTTER is an accountant with the Wis. Tel. Co., Milwaukee.—David McLENEGAN is an instructor in mathematics at the University.—Esther ROBERTSON, who is teaching in Milwaukee, lives at 595 Wahl Ave.—Frederick MADISON, student, lives at 131 Langdon St., Madison.—Wan CHIAO spoke on "China and the Disarmament Conference" at an open meeting of the Social Science Club recently.—W. K. SCHAAB is in the sales department of The Double Fabric Tire Co., Auburn, Ind.—E. J. KNAPP, graduate student, resides at 301 N. Lake St., Madison.—Frances KUPPERMAN is a psychiatric worker residing at 529 W. 138th St., N. Y. C.—G. H. FLATZ is a medical student at Pennsylvania.

For 1921 Directory see page 191

BOOK NOTES

The American Home Diet (Frederick C. Mathews Co., Detroit, Mich., $3.65) by E. V. McCollum, professor of chemical hygiene, School of Hygiene and Health, Johns Hopkins, and his associate, Nina Simmonds, '15, instructor in hygiene, is an answer to the ever-present question, What shall we have for dinner? In simple language that a housewife untrained in the science of dietetics can read with enjoyment and understanding, it gives correct information regarding the diet which will maintain the growth of the younger members and preserve the vigor of the whole family.

Part one discusses the relation of the diet to health; the relation of faulty nutrition to early loss of youth; the dietary properties of the more important American food-stuffs; dangerous foods and the care of food in the home; special considerations to be observed in the feeding of young children.

Part two lists 365 daily menus planned to meet the needs of a family with an average budget, and which comply with the requirements of modern scientific research in the field of nutrition. Although the book is not advertised as a cookbook, a few choice recipes are included.

The University of Wisconsin—Summer Session

June 26 to August 4 (Law School June 19 to August 25)

One Fee, $22 for All Courses (Except Law $35)

Courses in all Colleges, leading to the Bachelor's and Higher Degrees and providing opportunity for professional advancement.

For: University, College and Normal School Instructors, High School Teachers, Supervisors, Principals, Superintendents, men and women in Professional Life, College Graduates and Undergraduates, High School Graduates. Special work this year for Grade School Teachers and Supervisors, and for Teachers of Commercial Subjects.

RESEARCH FACILITIES

LAKESIDE ADVANTAGES

For further information address

DIRECTOR, SUMMER SESSION,
Madison, Wis.

ALUMNI PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

A Reliable Guide to and for Wisconsin Graduates

LAWYERS

- California—WILLIAM F. ADAMS, '00, L'03, 1109 Title Ins. Bldg., Los Angeles.
- Colorado—CYRUS M. DOLPH, '96, 311 Bennett Bldg., Colorado Springs.
JOHN H. GABRIEL, '87, L'89, 712-13 Kirtledge Bldg., Denver.
- Illinois—FRED D. SILBER, '94, (McGOORTY, SILBER, ISAACS, & WOLEY) Corporation and Commercial Practice, 614 Home Ins. Bldg., Chicago.
GEORGE I. HAIGHT, '99, W. H. HAIGHT '03, (HAIGHT, ADCOCK, HAIGHT & HARRIS) General and Patent Law, 625-31 The Rookery, Chicago.
GLEN E. SMITH, '09, L'13, (SHERIDAN, SHERIDAN & SMITH) Counsellors at Law, Patent Causes, Marquette Bldg., Chicago.
- Indiana—ELMER L. GOLDSMITH, E '15, (LOCKWOOD & LOCKWOOD) Patent and Trademark Law, Fletcher Trust Bldg., Indianapolis.
- Minnesota—EUGENE C. NOYES, '98, 822 Security Bldg., Minneapolis.
CLARK R. FLETCHER, '11, (ALLEN & FLETCHER) 936 Andrus Bldg., Minneapolis.
- Montana—THOMAS J. MATHEWS, '92, Roundup.
- North Dakota—G. S. WOOLEGDE, '04, (GREENLEAF & WOOLEGDE) Minot.
- Ohio—JOE G. FOGG, '04, (CALFEE & FOGG) 1608-10 Williamson Bldg., Cleveland.
- Oregon—CONRAD P. OLSON, '09, 529 Chamber of Comm., Portland.
- Washington—ARTHUR REMINGTON, '87, 1012-1014 Rust Bldg., Tacoma.
- Wisconsin—EDWARD H. RYAN, 77, Phoebus Blk., Janesville.
E. J. B. SCHUBRING, '01, First Centra Bldg., Madison.
M. B. OLBRICH, '04, HAROLD P. JANISCH, '15, TIMOTHY BROWN, '11, LEE L. SIEBECKER, '15, (AYLWARD & OLBRICH) Madison.
LEON P. LAMFROM, '05, 1010 Majestic Bldg., Milwaukee.
RICHARD B. RUNKE, '00, Stange Bldg., Merrill.
R. G. HARVEY, '03, (THOMPSON & HARVEY) Osgood Bldg., Racine.
J. W. COLLINS, '97, W. B. COLLINS, '01, L'09, (COLLINS & COLLINS) York Bldg., Sheboygan.
- CONS. AGRI. ENGINEER AND ARCHITECT
Ohio—FREDERICK W. IVES, '09, 57 Brighton Rd., Columbus.

CAMPUS NOTES

The concert given at the gymnasium Feb. 16 by Pablo Casals, noted Spanish cellist, was sent to many states by wireless telephone. Letters of thanks were received from Texas, Alabama, West Virginia, Nebraska, and New York.

Dr. A. S. ALEXANDER

Prof. C. R. Fish spoke on "Abraham Lincoln" before the Badger Club on Feb. 12.

Dr. A. S. Alexander gave his lecture on "Scotland" before the members of the Saddle and Siroloin Club in February.

Delegates to the national Y. W. C. A. convention at Hot Springs, Ark., April 20-26, are: Auta Lyman, '22; Gladys Haskins, '22; Ima

Winchell, '22; Isabel Capps, '23; Merle Shaw, '23; Doris Smith, '23; Marion Metcalf, '24; Katherine O'Shea, '24; and Dorothy John, '25.

The controversy between the editorial and business staffs of the Daily Cardinal and the Board of Control was settled by an agreement, the terms of which are that in the interests of harmony on the staff, Adrian Scolten, '23, and the three members of the Board who were appointed but not elected, resign, unless re-elected at the wish of the student body, and that the Board agree to present certain by-laws to the student body in the form of a referendum, these by-laws to stipulate precisely the duties and powers of the Cardinal Board of Control, the managing editor, business manager, and set forth certain qualifications for same.

The All-University Religious Conference, March 10-12, was launched with a banquet on the evening of March 2. President Birge, in his address characterized religion as the way of life rather than a set of philosophical tenets. Dr. C. W. Gilkey, pastor of Hyde Park Baptist Church, Chicago, Ill., the speaker of the Conference, emphasized the parables of The Good Samaritan, the mustard seed, and the leaven in their application to modern life.

Waupun prisoners are studying college courses by correspondence.

With 6,938 students enrolled on the third day of the second semester, the last half-year was begun with 254 more students than were enrolled at the same time last year.

The 800 post graduates enrolled at the University this semester are an increase of 120 over the enrollment of last semester.

Dr. Theodar Svedberg, of the University of Upsala, Sweden, has been appointed research professor of colloid chemistry for the second semester and summer session.

Religious groups in fraternities and men's rooming houses have been organized, with Dr. Sherman Wallace, pastor of the Madison Baptist Church, as coach for the leaders. Some of the topics for discussion are: "The Place of Religion in Education"; "Religion in Business"; "Religion in International Affairs"; "How to Select One's Life Work."

Miss Ethel Scully, treasurer of Morris F. Fox & Co., talked to the class in Investments recently on the problems of a bond house and the particular problems that the college graduate will meet in the business world.

"Quien es?" by Clara Ruedebusch, '22; "Sera Malata?" by Margaret Sickles, '23, and George Reed, '24; "Los Primos Americanos" by Nadia Levitin, '22; and "La Pregunta Diaria," by Elizabeth Low, '23, were presented at the meeting of the Spanish Club, March 2. "Memoria Traidora," by Herman Hoffman, '23, was presented in February. The prize play picked from these and others given on March 21 will be put on at the annual Spanish Play night in April.

Summer Session attendance was surpassed last year by only two institutions in the country, Columbia, and Chicago. Every state in the Union and 15 foreign countries were represented.

Two plays, "Op O' Me Thumb" and "Overtone," were presented in Lathrop Hall concert room, March 2, by the American Ass'n of University Women. The proceeds were applied to the scholarship fund.

That China is locally the most democratic of all countries, that it is laying the foundation for the best form of republic, and that the China and Far East questions were not entirely settled by the Washington conference, were points brought out by Prof. P. S. Reinsch, '92, former U. S. Ambassador to China, in an address in Music Hall, Feb. 27, on "The Washington Conference and the Far East."

Lucine Finch, noted interpreter of negro stories which she learned from her old Southern Mammy and other negro servants, gave a reading at Bascom Hall on March 2.

That amusements are financially beyond the majority of students and that measures are being taken to remedy the situation, were statements of Dean Nardin at the convention of deans held in Chicago last week. The widening of types of week-end amusements at Wisconsin to include glee club and dramatic entertainments, discussion groups, and the Sunday night Badger club was discussed.

"Apple Tree Growing," the subject of Prof. H. L. Roberts' talk to the Grafters' Club on March 1, pointed out that trees suffer just as much from overcultivation as from undercultivation.

The open forum movement is growing in favor with students, among whom there is a reaction against overorganization and extracurricula activities, declared Sterling Tracy, '22, in his talk on "Campus Problems" before the St. Francis Society, Sunday evening, Feb. 26.

The W. C. R. N. S., a wireless exchange between the colleges of the Big Ten, formed last May, has chosen Wisconsin as the central station and all news sent out is received and broadcasted by the local chief operator, M. P. Hanson.

Dean H. S. Richards attended the conference of the American Bar Ass'n in Washington, D. C., the latter part of February. A standardization of law school requirements was the chief business of the conference.

Homecoming activities netted a profit of $767 for the intramural fund. The report of the chairman recommends that hereafter the features between halves be reduced or eliminated as not compatible with the dignity of the occasion; and that the carnival on the night preceding the game be made a Homecoming institution.

Mu Alpha, honorary musical sorority, announces the election of Mildred Sheerer, '25, Carmalita Lewis, '24, Esther Vance, '22, Jean Kilgour, '23, Erma Duncan, '24, Hilda Schulz, '25, Margaret Moore, '24, Helen Wheeler, '24, Charlotte Belscamper, '23, Louise Madden, '25, and Minnie Beattie, '24.

The Charity Ball mixer, held in Lathrop Hall, Feb. 24, netted the Wisconsin State Conference of Social Work about $200. "McDougall's Alley," the Dolphin Club swimmers, and "the best dancers on the campus," were features of the program.

The programs of all literary societies are interspersing the regular debates of the evening with short talks and discussions.

The proportional representation system of election is a system that truly represents, and an adoption of this system would solve the greater political evils, said W. J. Millard, field secretary of the Proportional Representation league in his talk on "The P. R. Plan" at Music Hall Feb. 27.

The Girls' Glee Club scored a great success in its first concert of the year, held March 4 in Music Hall.

The Women Transfers, an informal social organization which welcomes girls from other states, dines at Lathrop Hall the first Tuesday in every month.

A Rocky Mountain Club, the charter membership of which numbers about 35, has been organized on the campus.

"Railroad Jack," memory expert and curbstone philosopher, has willed his body to the Medical School.

Graduate students are promised more space than usual in the Badger this year.

"Punkin' Holler," a program representing typical community characters was staged in the agricultural auditorium, Feb. 17.

"Kitty Corner" has been selected as the name of the twenty-fourth annual Haresfoot production instead of "Jerusalem Junction," the title originally chosen.

"Free discussion is essential to education and certainly to democracy, but free discussion has as hard a time of it in some of our supposedly democratic state universities as in any privately endowed institution. The University of Wisconsin once had a fine reputation for liberalism, but 'other times, other manners.'"—The Nation.

Enthusiasm for the Memorial Union Drive is reported by Dean S. H. Goodnight, '05, who has toured cities in Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin in the interest of the fund. At Sioux City, Ia., 40 pledges totaled $2,250; at Duluth over 90 pledges aggregated $8,000; Hibbing added $2,000, and Superior pledged $8,000.

Wisconsin ski jumpers, competing in the first meet of the year on their home slide, defeated Minnesota's five best frozen slide artists on the Muir Knoll slide, Feb. 18. The final scores were: W.: 664½; M.: 533½.

The rifle team of the cadet corps has issued 180 challenges for matches during the next two months. Every college and university with a distinguished college rating has been invited to compete in a dual match.

Mary Joyce Powelankey gave a recital of Jewish songs in Music Hall, Mar. 9.

University teachers can expect no increase of salary within the next three years, according to a statement from the registrar's office.

Rembrandt pictures in photographic reproduction and twelve posters issued by the railways of France are on exhibit at the Museum.

A prize oration contest, open to Jewish students, the subject matter to be anything of Jewish interest, is being held in twenty-five colleges and universities of the country.

Dr. E. A. Ross of the Sociology department, will travel to Mexico this summer in an effort to determine whether or not the peon, the real laboring man of Mexico, has benefited from the revolution that for ten years has kept that country in a state of turmoil.

Mr. Candee, general engineer of the Westinghouse Mfg. Co., spoke on electric welding before the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in the Engineering auditorium in March.

The Little International Live Stock Show, March 4, was attended by over two thousand spectators and netted the sum of $450, which will be used to finance the student stock judging teams that compete with other colleges at the national live stock shows every year. Harold Wicker, '24, furnished the excitement of the evening when he tried to ride an unbroken broncho and was dismounted twice. A grand parade of University herds and flocks, demonstration horse riding, triple bar jumping, an inter-sorority riding contest, a mounted wrestling match between the Madison guard and University cadets, a dairy maid contest, and special feature acts by the different organizations contributed to a program that will undoubtedly become an annual affair.

A defense of the 20th century literary critic, who has been denounced as thoroughly incapable of appreciation of Shakespeare's works by many modern skeptics, has been written by Prof. Karl Young, head of the English department, in the March North American Review.

The Military Ball, to be held in the Capitol, April 7, will be led by Cadet Col. Evrard Caluwaert, '22, and his partner, Helen Stilwill, '23.

Elizabeth Kelley, formerly associate professor of H. E., who left the University in 1917 to join Hoover's staff, recently arrived from Constantinople, where she is engaged in Near East relief work to plead for help for the Armenians.

The pre-Military Ball was held March 17 in the gymnasium. Military uniforms were not a prerequisite and the dance was informal.

Walton Pyre, '99, dramatic revelator, read "Francesca da Rimini," by George Boker, in Music Hall, Feb. 16. The demand in this country for a "happy ending" has left few American plays with logical conclusions, he told his audience.

The ninth annual Vocational Conference opened with an all-University convocation on Feb. 16, at which W. D. Scott, president of Northwestern, spoke. Other speakers of the conference were Helen Bennett, head of the Women's Collegiate Bureau of Occupation, Chicago; Eliza Butler, national personnel secretary of the Y. W. C. A.; Mable Little, director of halls and commons; and Ruby Black, department of Journalism. Round table discussions were led by Professors V. A. C. Henmon, A. L. Haake, '14, and J. R. Commons. Mrs. Clara Baker Flett, '84, is vocational adviser of women at Wisconsin.

S. G. A. has adopted a new set of by-laws; members of Keystone will take the place of the former council.

Co-eds should be permitted to solicit for campus publications, the interfraternity council declared, in an attempt to modify the rule against this practice.

An Anti-Effeminacy Club, similar to those organized at Northwestern and Columbia by "young men fearing the degenerating influence of effeminacy" has been scoffed at at Wisconsin, according to the Cardinal of Feb. 15.

Engineering appointments approved at the January meeting of the Regents are: Anthony Pesch, fellow in C. E.; R. A. Rose of Lynn, Mass., instructor in steam and gas engineering; Chester Hunziger, '22, student assistant in machine design.

L. & S. appointments approved at the January meeting of the Regents are: Mary Bausch, part-time instructor in German; Frieda Meyer, '22, student assistant in German; Jean Cline, Hallie Farmer, C. H. Laub, Alma Lindegren, Carl Lemm-Marugg, and John Rydjord, '22, assistants in history; Donald Piatt, instructor in philosophy; Wilfred Payne, '22, and Theodore Scholtz, assistants in philosophy; Florence Lampert, '22, and Olive Mitchell, '23, assistants in public school music; Jane Peterson, instructor in music; A. W. Froehle, assistant in chemistry.

Lecturers in the Medical School for the second semester are: Doctors H. P. Greeley, Homer Carter, '13; Joseph Dean, R. H. Jackson, and T. W. Tormey, '99. Associates in surgery: Doctors James Dean, '11; J. A. Jackson, and A. R. Tormey, '14. Laboratory assistant in the infirmary and hospital: Ernestine Kandel. Technical assistant in radiology: Avid Lindberg.

Fees for the Summer Session have been increased by the Regents to $22, including the $2 infirmary fee, the vote standing: ayes, Regents Buckstaff, Eimon, Faast, Horlick, Kohler, and Seaman; noes, Callahan, Hammond, Jones, Kronshage, Mahoney, and Waters.

"10,000 Members by June"

Wisconsin Alumni Association

FLOWERS

RENTSCHLER FLORAL CO.
Store 226 State St. Phone B. 179

Mail and telephone orders receive very best attention.

PHOTOART FINISHING

SPECIAL MAIL SERVICE—We bring Photoart developing and printing to your door. It costs no more than does the ordinary kind.

Stick a 1c stamp on your next exposed roll and drop it in the nearest mail box.

THE PHOTOART HOUSE,
WM. J. MEUER, '10, Pres. Madison, Wis.

Governor Blaine addressed a recent Fellowship meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on "How We Can Serve the State."

"Natural emotions of fear, love, anger, and hate must be given an outlet," said Smiley Blanton, professor of speech hygiene, in a talk to the Madison Girl Reserves recently. "Women find this safety valve in crying; men in swearing. Swearing is more a form of bad manners than a lack of morality."

The Du Pont chemical scholarship is being continued for the year 1922-23.

"Self-government by the students of the University is doomed to die if the present rotten system of campus politics continues to make men and women shift their votes to combinations electing a certain group of candidates who are bound to favor the groups electing them," said Dr. E. W. Blakeman, '11, pastor of the University Methodist Church, in a recent sermon.

Henri Chamard, French visiting professor at Columbia, spoke in room 165 on "Moliere and High Comedy" on Jan. 18.

"The Glee Club's trip was a complete success both artistically and financially," said Prof. E. E. Swinney, director of the club, in speaking of the two-day tour to Rockford and Chicago, Ill.

The settlement of $350 made by two Phi Delta Thetas to Magnus Swenson, '80, for the theft of two spruce trees which were used for decorations at a Christmas party has been turned over by Mr. Swenson to start a fund to protect the natural beauties of Madison.

That the Mosaic laws regulating living were the first hygienic laws the world ever knew and that they formed the basis for the laws of all other modern peoples, was brought out by Prof. Louis Kahlenberg, '92, in an address given before the Menorah society in Lathrop parlors recently.

Agricultural problems were discussed by National farm leaders at the Farmers' and Home-Makers' week, Jan. 30-Feb. 4, to celebrate fifty years of dairy progress in Wisconsin.

A. B. Hall, professor of political science, spoke before the lawyers' club in Milwaukee, Jan. 14, on "The American Theory of Constitutional Restraints."

Hesperia debated recently on the ratification of the Four Power Pacific treaty by the U. S. Senate; the decision was against ratification.

"The Making of a Political Program" was discussed by Dr. Horace Ellis of the National Republican committee in the Biology auditorium on Jan. 10.

"The political struggles of today, the economic bankruptcy of Europe, and the era of irascibility, which have thrown the world in a turmoil, are reasons why men and women should go into foreign missionary work," said David Owen, secretary of the student volunteer movement for foreign missions, at a recent meeting of the Badger Club.

Miniature replicas of the 1923 Badger, fashioned in imitation leather in dark brown and gold, were given as souvenir programs at the Badger dance in the Elizabethan room of the Park Hotel, Jan. 13.

New courses given the second semester include: "Capitalism and Socialism" by Prof. J. R. Commons; a course in urban land economics, by Prof. R. T. Ely; "Banking Systems," by Prof. J. G. McKay; "International Economic Policies," by Prof. W. H. Kiekhofer; a labor course, "Technique of Field Investigation," by D. D. Lescohier; a course in railway finance by Prof. S. L. Miller. Prof. G. H. Stuart has planned "France and the Diplomacy of the War" in the department of Political Science.

"Rules are not capsules offered by the faculty for students to swallow," declared Ellen Correll, '22, president of S. G. A., at a meeting of the University League at Lathrop Hall. "They are the wishes of the majority made known by student questionnaires. Helen Kasbeer, '23, Wisconsin's representative at the coming international conference in China, spoke on "What the University Y. W. C. A. Has to Offer;" Martha Whitlock '22, told of the success of the new co-operative house; Mabel Winter, '22, spoke on the activities of the W. A. A.; and Dorothy Dwight, '22, explained the part dramatics is playing in developing the artistic and the cultural side of student life.

A special exhibit of pictures illustrating the progress of the state landmarks movement in Wisconsin is installed in the museum.

The Prom edition of the Cardinal was published again this year by Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic fraternity; the edition was run off on Prom night and delivered to boxes at the Capitol.

Urging students to back the drive for John Childs, '11, in China, President Birge said: "It is a Christian enterprise—a large, constructive program of genuine social service, inspired by and based upon Christian ideals."

Dr. William McPherson, Ohio State U., spoke on "Italian Contributions to Chemical Science" before the Wisconsin section of the American Chemical Society in, the chemistry auditorium Jan. 19.

Henry Southwick, president of the Emerson school of oratory, Boston, delighted his audience with the presentation of "Othello" at Bascom Hall recently. "King Lear," "Hamlet," "Macbeth," and "Othello" are the greatest of Shakespeare's plays," he said, "and 'Othello' is the greatest tragedy of them all."

In place of a regular debate, Philomathia held a mock trial at the last meeting of the semester. The case had to do with the alleged injury to the fifty-first joint of the Athenae rooster, resulting from a clipping of the rooster's tail.