INAUGURATION PLANS

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR MONDAY EVENING.

Ball at Armory in Evening—Two Military Parades—Large Crowds Anticipated.

(From the Madison Democrat.)

At the inauguration of Gov. La Follette and the other state officers next Monday there will be two parades by the military—one to the East Madison depot at 10:40 in the morning to meet Lieutenant Governor Stone, Attorney General Hicks and Insurance Commissioner Giljohann, state officers whose homes are not at the capital, and such ex-governors as may come; the other just before the noon hour to the home of Mr. La Follette for the purpose of escorting the governor-elect to the state house. The Governor's guard of Madison will be the only company participating but Lueders' band will be present, and members of the general inaugural committee will also be of the escort. Col. William Helm will be chief marshal and Major Geo. Joachim assistant.

All plans for the inauguration were perfected at a meeting of the general committee in the governor's office yesterday afternoon. No variation of importance from the program as originally skeletonized was made. Upon Mr. La Follette's arrival at the capitol, he will find the other state officers assembled in the executive office, whence they will be escorted to the assembly chamber—Gov. La Follette by Gov. Scofield, Lieutenant Gov. Stone by President E. A. Birge, Secretary of State Froehlich by Mayor Hoven, State Treasurer Davidson by A. P. Wilder, Attorney General Hicks by Burr W. Jones, State Superintendent Harvey by Prof. J. B. Parkinson, Insurance Commissioner Giljohann by J. W. Groves, Railroad Commissioner Rice by W. H. Rogers. The oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Cassoday, who will be escorted to the chamber by ex-Chief Justice W. P. Lyon, while Justice Winslow will be escorted by Breese J. Stevens, Justice Marshall by A. R. Bushnell, Justice Bardeen by A. L. Sanborn, Justice Dodge by Gen. E. E. Bryant and Judge Bunn by Col. W. F. Vilas. Ex-Gov. Peck will be escorted by L. S. Hanks, ex-Gov. W. R. Taylor by Col. A. H. Hollister and ex-Gov. Upham, if he comes, by Dr. C. A. Harper. Ex-Gov. Hoard is in Washington and has signified his inability to be present, while no response has been received from ex-Gov. Lewis of Columbus.

From 3 to 5 in the afternoon receptions will be held by each state officer in his own apartment at the capitol. Those assisting in the governor's office will be Col. A. H. Hollister, Gen. Geo. E. Bryant, Senator Geo. P. Miller, Assemblyman E. Ray Stevens and A. G. Zimmerman. Various gentlemen will also assist in the other departments.

Both at the capitol during the day and at the reception and ball in the University armory at night a great "crush" is deemed certain. The opening of the legislature but two days later, the presence of the 2,000 or more University students, the local enthusiasm for a home governor and the reduced rate of one fare for the round trip granted by the railroads are circumstances that presage a very great throng. All features of the inauguration are of course open to the public.

The evening reception will be from 8 to 10, and the state officers and their ladies will receive on a platform at the north end of the great armory auditorium. Behind them palms will prevail while over head throughout the room cardinal bunting will be festooned with interweavings of southern smilax. Hundreds of palms are to be used, Mr. Rentschler having the floral part in charge, while 2,500 yards of cardinal bunting were found necessary and purchased. Assisting at this reception will be Judge E. W. Keyes, President E. A. Birge, W. F. Vilas, A. P. Wilder, George Raymer, ex-Speaker Geo. B. Burrows, Burr W. Jones, Col. Dan B. Starkey and W. R. Bagley, as well as those who aid at the governor's afternoon reception.

There will be suitable floral decorations in the cloak rooms and dining room also. Several persons will be necessary in both check rooms.

The ball will open at 10, or as soon thereafter as possible and dancing will continue for several hours. A grand march and state set, certainly the latter, will inaugurate the dancing. Nitschke's orchestra of twenty-four pieces will furnish the music.

Supper will be served in the gun room and the general committee has arranged to have charge of it, having prepared as elaborate a menu as is possible for 50 cents a plate—the rate regarded by the committee as proper for the occasion—and having employed Jacob Van Etta to superintend this feature. Provision will be made for many hundreds, and supper be served from 10 till 2 o'clock.

The following is the menu:

Salted Almonds
Bleached Celery	Queen Olives
Escalloped Oysters	Saratoga Chips
Buttered Sandwiches
Armour's Ham Cold	Boiled Tongue

Hesperia's Song-Book.

The Hesperian society has this year made a special effort to encourage singing in the society, especially during the intermission.

To that end, a committee of the society, consisting of Schoensig, Carr, and Curtis, has been engaged in "compiling" a song-book especially for the use of Hesperia, and already the society has a very good collection of songs.

The book is of the size of the ordinary note book paper, with removable sheets. The copy is typewritten and from this duplicates are made. The aim has been to include in the book only such songs as are actually sung in the society, and the collection now has something like twenty songs. However, the books being made up of removable leaves, new songs will be constantly added, and it is believed an excellent collection of songs can thus be made.

No Overcoats, Therefore no Turn-Out.

The University regiment, which has been thinking of parading as escort to the new governor on inauguration day, has been reluctantly compelled to forego the pleasure on account of the inclement season. The regiment, unlike the National Guard, is not provided with uniform overcoats, and cannot take part in the exercises without possible serious results from exposure to the cold. The general sentiment of officers and men is one of sincere regret that they cannot do themselves the honor of escorting their distinguished alumnus.

FACULTY REORGANIZED

PLANS MADE TO FACILITATE WORK.

A General Faculty and a Faculty for Each College—The Plan in Detail.

No formal change has been made in the organization of the Faculty for many years. Its general constitution has not been changed since the establishment of the Law School. The organization has been that of a General Faculty, whose voting members include all of the professors and assistant professors except those of the College of Law which has had a distinct and separate organization. This arrangement was entirely appropriate so long as the College of Law had its rooms in the city, but has become increasingly inappropriate since the removal of this College to its quarters on the campus. As the various colleges included in the General Faculty have developed, those matters which especially concern the students in these colleges have been partially assigned to committees of the class officers in the College of Letters and Science, Engineering, and Agriculture. For some time plans have been under consideration for a new organization of the Faculty, so that its constitution might better conform to the conditions brought about by the growth and development of the University. Such a plan was proposed to the Regents by President Adams during the past college year. This plan has been considered by the Faculty and Regents during the current semester and was put into operation at the opening of the year 1901. The essential features of the plan are:

1. The establishment of a University Faculty, whose voting members are the professors, associate professors, and assistant professors in all colleges of the University and which shall have charge of all matters of University importance.
2. The organization of separate Faculties for each college, which shall have charge of matters which belong exclusively to that department of the University.

Among the matters committed to the General Faculty are such subjects as the vacations, the requirements for admission, honorary degrees, the control of the library, the Commencement exercises, the government of athletics, and questions of serious discipline. The Faculties of the several colleges will control the rules and methods for the admission, advancement, dismissal for defective scholarship, and the graduation of students. They will make recommendations for the degrees in courses and will make recommendations to the University Faculty regarding the requirements for admission, courses of study, and similar questions.

This reorganization has been adopted for the remainder of the current year as a tentative measure. It is expected that it will require some time to work out the details of the distribution of functions between the University Faculty and the Faculties of the several colleges. It seemed better, therefore, both to Regents and Faculty, to organize under this plan as a temporary arrangement for the remainder of the year, so that changes in the details might be worked out by experience and incorporated into the final plan of organization.

MORE ROOM NEEDED.

Agricultural College Crowded in All Departments.

The students who take the short course in agriculture are busy making preparation for the stock judging contest which will be held Saturday, Jan. 19. This contest is an annual event in which the second year students compete for two medals, gold and silver, which are given by Mayor M. J. Hoven. The students always enter keenly into this competition and are very anxious to take a high standing. The class spends ten hours a week for nine weeks in drilling for this work. The contest lasts for one day, and consists in judging cattle, sheep and swine. The contest will be superintended by some of the most competent judges of the state.

The College has recently secured one of the best imported Percheron stallions in the state. The use of this horse is donated for the students by H. A. Briggs, of Prairie View Percheron Farm, Elkhorn, Wis. The horse was imported by Mr. Briggs from France last October.

The Animal Husbandry department secured at Chisago an imported Shropshire ewe which has an unbeaten record in England and America. She was imported by Dr. Davidson, of Millbrook, N. Y., at the cost of $300. The ewe was practically donated to the University by Dr. Davidson.

The employees in the Animal Husbandry department presented Professor and Mrs. Carlisle with a silver tea set Christmas eve. The presentation was made by Frank Kleinheinz and James Hutton who expressed the appreciation of the employees for Professor Carlisle's work among them.

In ten days the college will secure the celebrated Clydesdale stallion "Cloth of Gold," owned by Alex. Galbreath, of Janesville. It will be used by the students in judging. It is considered by the owner one of the greatest horses of the century.

The enrollment in the short course this year is 296 a larger number than last year. The faculty are experiencing a good deal of difficulty in accommodating all the students. The classes have been divided and the professors are doing double work. In the lecture room there is not enough seating capacity and the students are obliged to be perched on the window sills and other inconvenient places.

The alumni of the Short Course meets the 24th and 25th of this month at Madison. Prominent speakers are expected. Ex-Gov. Hoard and Supt. Harvey have both signified their intentions to attend.

Skating Club.

There has been a great deal of interest shown in the skating club which was organized some time ago. Papers have been circulated among the students and between fifty and seventy-five have already pledged themselves to do all in their power to further the interest in skating in the University. No definite plans have yet been made as to the place which will be used permanently by the club.

—Mu chapter of Delta Delta Delta gave an informal dancing party at Kehl's hall Friday evening that was a thoroughly enjoyable event. About twenty couples participated. The chaperones were Mrs. D. B. Frankenburger and Mrs. J. B. Parkinson. Prof. Nitschke furnished the music.

COMMUNICATION.

Regarding Wearing of the "W." The matter of wearing of the letter W. on caps has caused much discussion among the students of the University, especially among those who are entitled to wear the letter. The matter was discussed in a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Athletic Association, and it was agreed that a communication should be published in the Cardinal with the object in view of settling certain matters which now seem to be in dispute.

The whole matter can be settled in a few words, to wit, that only those students who have been granted the official letter by a vote of the Board of Directors are allowed to wear the letter on a cap, sweater or elsewhere.

There is a provision in the by-laws of the constitution of the Athletic Association, which provides that there shall be what is known as the team cap. But that no person shall be allowed to wear this cap unless he has made one of the Varsity teams or won points at the inter-collegiate meet. This rule seems to me to do away with the right of every candidate for an athletic team to wear the official letter on his cap or even to wear what is known as a team cap. And it would be well for the captains and coaches of our future teams, to adhere strictly to this rule; for it is a fact that on account of its indiscriminate wearing many athletes in the University care little or nothing for the letter, the possession of which should be something to be proud of.

The fewer letters given out, the greater their value and the greater the effort on the part of an athlete to get one.

In this connection a few words may not be out of place regarding the wearing of class caps, which appeared on the campus last spring, innumerable and grotesque to a greater or less degree.

Those whose design contains the letter "W." in any form, while not a violation of the letter of the law are a violation of its spirit, and every sensible and right minded student who cares anything for the future of athletics in the University should do everything, honorable and reasonable, to stamp out a silly fad which cheapens the official letter, thereby destroying one of the principle things an athlete should strive for.

Athenae.

The meeting last evening was very largely attended and two rousing political debates were given, the last contest being especially good. The first question concerned the shipping bill now pending in congress—the subsidy bill as it is commonly called. Those urging its enactment were Graham, Barnard, Thiede, Swaboda, Neilson and McCutney. They were opposed by Davis, McGillivray, Arnold, Davidson, Gust, Bredsteen and Buchholz. The jury for the evening consisted of Sergeant, Mowry, Knoff, Morgan and Hotchkiss. The decision was in favor of the negative.

The second debate was upon the question of applying proportional representation to congressional elections. Those favoring such a move were Olbrich, Shields, Schrockley, Woledge Rounds and Janes. Against them were arranged Nelson, Moe, Liver, E. Beule, Barney and Meyer. The question was fiercely debated throughout on both sides but resulted in a victory for the negative. A committee of three—Mowry, O'Meara and Sergeant—were appointed by the president to challenge Hesperia to the next annual Joint Debate.

The closers for the Freshman Blow-out are Marquisee Arnold, Trump and Blackman. The questions are not yet decided.

Philomathia.

Last evening when the Philomathia meeting was called to order two members of the alumni were present, Mr. Persons and Mr. Ela both making speeches before the program was carried out.

The first question for debate was Resolved, "That Representation in the Southern States should be proportional to the popular vote." The affirmative was upheld by Stover, Gregory, Smith and Harvey. The negative by Stevens, Gabel and Metzler. The decision was in favor of the affirmative. After a short recess a declamation was given by Mr. Primakow, followed by the second debate. The question debated was, Resolved: "That the Grout Bill should become a law." Affirmative, Johnson, Hook, Richardson, Schuette, Stover and Maurer. Negative, White, Wolfensen, Harney, Brennan and Plumb. The judges, Hunt, Hale and Minahan, decided in favor of the negative. At the close of the meeting Mr. Edgren and Mr. Compton gave short speeches.

Hesperia.

Hesperia held a rousing meeting last night. Only one debate took place, after which the meeting resolved itself into an after-celebration of the recent joint debate victory, and general good cheer and jollity prevailed. Singing, speech-making, and cheering for the joint debate team, occupied the time.

Among the alumni present, who spoke were District Attorney Anderson of Madison, William B. Clark, and Raymond B. Pease of the class of 1900, and L. A. Anderson, of the class of '99. In the course of the singing Mr. Pease treated the society to a vocal solo.

The debate of the evening was on the exclusion of national politics from municipal affairs. Mr. Hasse appeared as leader in support of the proposition and Mr. Oftlie in opposition. The debate was an exceptionally good one.

A rising vote of thanks was given by the society to its joint debate team, Mr. Smith, Mr. Huebner, and Mr. Brindley, for the manner in which they championed the cause of Hesperia.
