DEDICATION

To the men in the service—alumni, former students, and our classmates—this 1942 MELETEAN is dedicated. In ever-increasing numbers they have left their occupations and the classroom to protect and preserve those ideals for which our country stands.

Wherever they may be . . . . . we hail them.

University of
We, too, on the home front have been alert.

An accelerated program to enable students to complete their college work in shorter time, and courses to prepare them better for service, both at the front and at home, have been inaugurated. In Red Cross activities and war bond drives we have also tried to do our part.

Foreword

Decreased enrollment, departure from the campus of students to enter the service, an accelerated program have been handicaps in this eventful year of 1941-1942, but the MELETEAN has tried promptly to adjust its plans to changed conditions, and presents this volume with the hope that you will find in it an accurate and interesting story in picture and word of a busy year.

WE SALUTE YOU . . . .

Ensign Orlan Soli of River Falls, a graduate of the class of '40, is one of the former men of this college who has tasted action in our battles with the Japanese. He took part in the successful raid by our fleet against the Marshall and Gilbert Islands. It is reported that during "rest periods" he ferries bombers back to Uncle Sam's Pacific outposts from airfields in California.

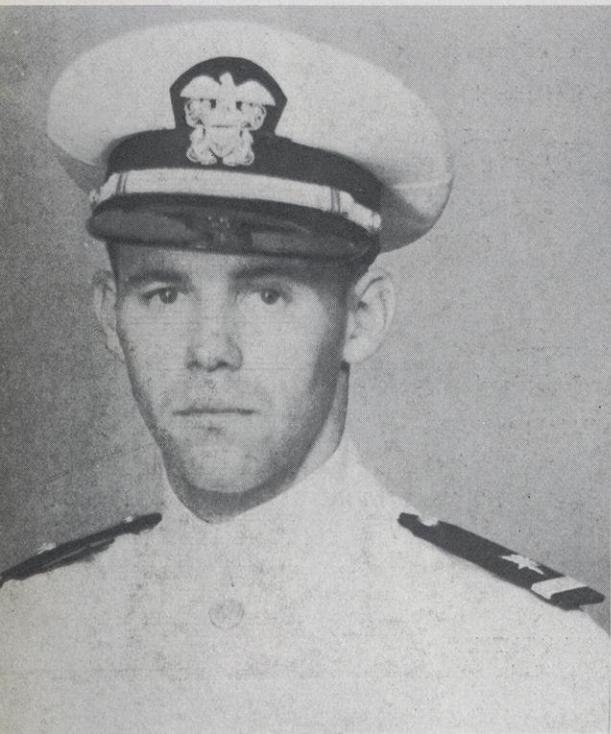

Lieutenant Bernard Stanek of Hillsboro is now operating an observation bomber off the Atlantic coast with its base at Langley Field, Virginia. Prior to this transfer he was an aviation instructor at Brooks Field, Texas.

Lieutenant Raymond Moen, graduate of the class of '39, is now located at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, after taking his preliminary training in aerial photography at Chicago. He is with the army air corps.

Private Edwin Olson, a junior last year, is now an aviation cadet at the army training base at Sheppard Field, Texas. "Eddie" comes from Chippewa Falls.

Lyman Morrow, former technical sergeant at Camp Livingston, transferred from that army base to be an aviation cadet at Decatur, Alabama. Lyman is a River Falls man, who went to camp in the fall of 1940, his senior year in college.

Fred Dubbe, popular captain of the 1940 football team, is now an aviation cadet at Corpus Christi, Texas. He expects to receive his commission soon. Dubbe is claimed by Luverne, Minnesota, as one of its favorite sons. He graduated from River Falls in the class of '41.

Radioman Third Class Elwyn Knickel of River Falls is located at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Elwyn, known to fellow students as "Sleepy," attended college here in 1940.

Lieutenant Kenneth Le Duc of Chippewa Falls attended River Falls during the school years of 1939 and 1940. At the present time he is at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. In a letter of March 17 he says: "I'm leaving for the coast soon with my commission." Ken was a gridiron star during his two years here.

Aviation Cadet Newell Olson entered the navy air corps during the first term this year. Olson's basic training was taken at Wold Chamberlain Field in Minneapolis and from there he was sent to Corpus Christi, Texas, one of the U. S. Army's newest air bases. Newell is well-known to River Falls sports addicts as a star performer on the basketball and baseball teams last year. He hails from Minneapolis.

Aviation Cadet Gordon Barto, well known to boxing fans at River Falls, has been transferred from Pensacola to Miami, Florida. He is in the marine air corps, engaged in dive bombing work. Barto was selected as one of the top twenty-five in his squadron at Pensacola for this type of war activity. Cadet Barto hails from Hurley.

Robert Talbot, a junior from Cumberland, also became an aviation cadet at the end of the first term. Along with Olson, Dubbe, and Deetz he took the preliminary training at Wold Chamberlain and was sent to Corpus Christi. "Bob" was a cornetist par excellence in Prof. Rozehnal's orchestra and band and was a popular student on this campus.

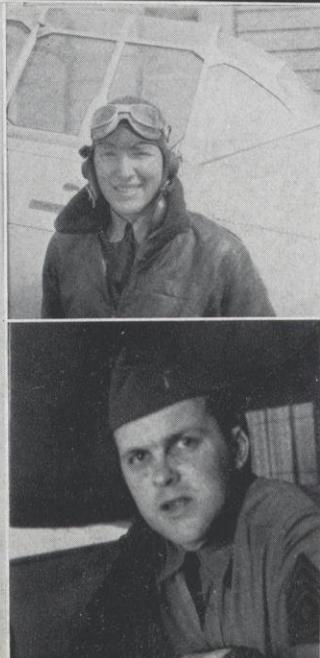

First Sergeant Allis Jerney of this city is stationed at Camp Livingston, Louisiana, in the field artillery detachment. "Bill" was a junior when he left for the army in 1940.

MEN IN THE SERVICE

Private Raymond Kulbeck of Danbury was drafted during this school year as a junior after the first term. His activities in Uncle Sam's armed forces took him to Fort Sheridan, Fort Knox, and Fort Benning, Georgia. At the latter camp he is at this time waiting to be sent "across." Kulbeck has advanced himself to supply clerk at Fort Benning.

Private John Lucente, who was inducted into the army last December, is another of Cumberland's contributions to "this man's army." John was very popular on the campus, serving in the capacity of Homecoming chairman in 1941. He is now located at Camp Grant, Illinois, in the medical training school.

Lieutenant Nevin White, now stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, left River Falls with the local national guard unit in the fall of 1940. White attended officers training school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and was transferred from there with his commission. He is another man who left a brilliant gridiron record behind him at this college.

Private Marvin Erdman of Algoma is now a clerk in the medical corps at Fort Benning, Georgia. "Bud" was drafted into the army after completing the first term this year. Latest reports are that he has sent his personal belongings home prior to being sent "across."

Private Ray Sabottka, a graduate of '41, is taking his basic training at Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland. Ray, a native of Plum City, was a four-year man in the bands and orchestra.

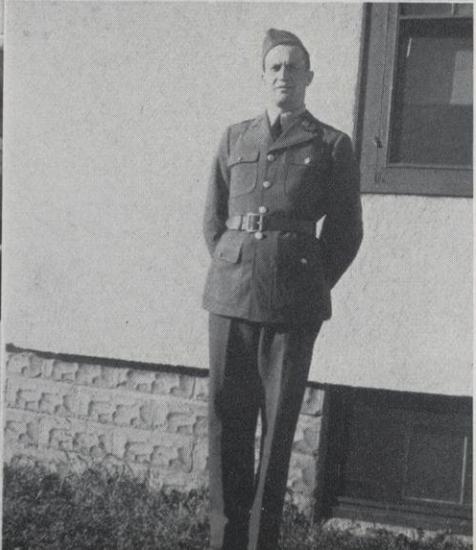

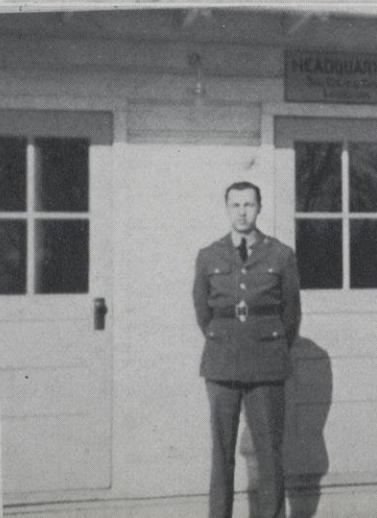

Private Emil Path, a junior last year, is in the infantry division at Camp Roberts, California.

Colonel J. D. Hill, shown leading his squad in drill exercise at Camp Livingston, was a former head of the history department at River Falls. Mr. Hill is right at home at this camp, since he is a southerner hailing from Texas.

Staff Sergeant James Linehan, another River Falls lad, left school in 1940 with the local national guard. He is now stationed at Fort Devens, Massachusetts, in the tank destroyer battalion.

Corporal Dale Gordon of River Falls is in the field artillery at Camp Livingston. He too was a member of the national guard unit of the city of River Falls.

Private Eugene Kay of River Falls and a member of the national guard, abandoned his books in favor of a gun in 1940. He is now with the 121st field artillery at Camp Livingston. "Gene" was a member of the varsity basketball team in 1939 and 1940.

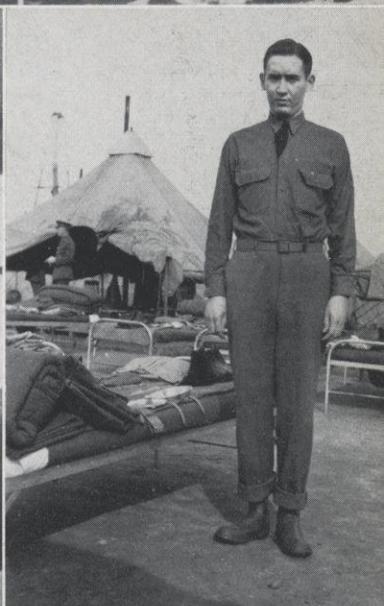

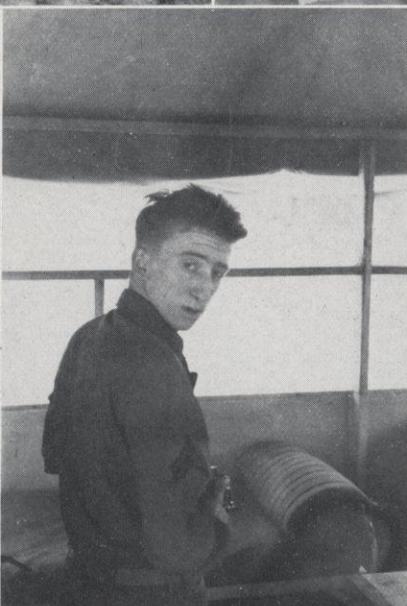

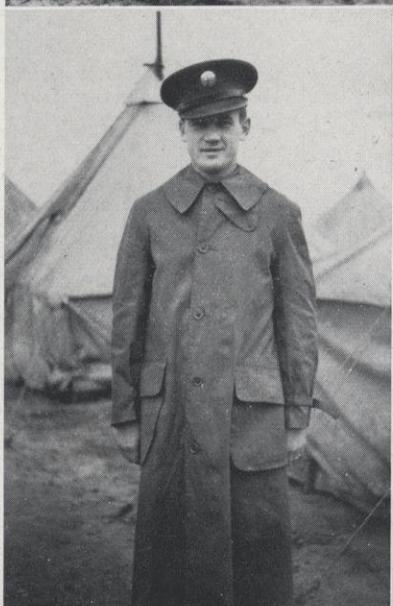

Sergeant Gordon Jackman, another of the local national guard unit, left this school as a junior. He is now at Camp Livingston, Louisiana. Gordon achieved prominence here as a debater.

Four men in this photo, taken at Camp Livingston, Louisiana, are former students of this college, Leo Knoblauch, Eugene Kay, Gordon Jackman, and Howard Junkman. Junkman is now back in school completing his work toward a bachelor's degree, having been given an honorable discharge from the army. Knoblauch left this institution as a sophomore in 1940 when the national guard went to camp.

Private first class Harold Larson of River Falls left school as a sophomore in 1940 when the national guard units of this territory migrated to Camp Beauregard, Louisiana. He is now in the field artillery detachment at Camp Livingston.

Aviation Cadet Jack Miller, freshman class president last year, was a student in aviation with the army air corps at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, and was recently transferred to Long Beach, California. Jack is a native of Ellsworth.

Former students and graduates of River Falls are now stationed at army and navy bases all over the world. Here is a brief account of some of them who are serving overseas and at home in our fight against the totalitarian aggressors. The MELETEAN staff was unable to procure pictures of these men, or information concerning many others.

Lieutenant Gerald Quandt of River Falls is now in Australia, piloting a pursuit plane, helping in the United Nations' efforts to hold the "down-under" continent.

Private Raymond Gilles of Plum City, a graduate of 1939, was with the marines at Wake Island, when they so stubbornly held out against the yellow horde of Nippon. His exact fate is unknown, but presumably he was taken prisoner.

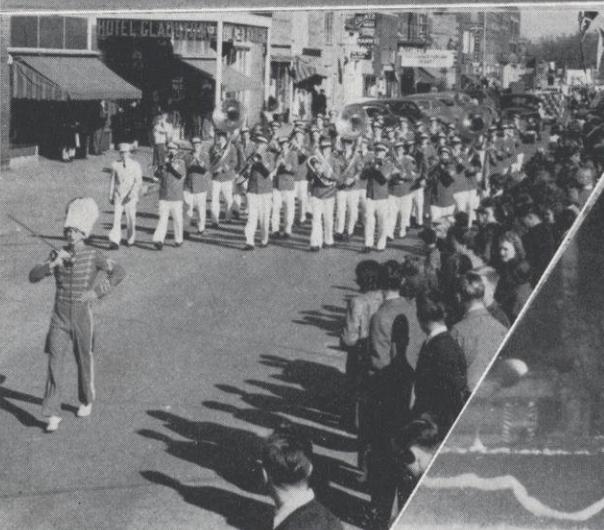

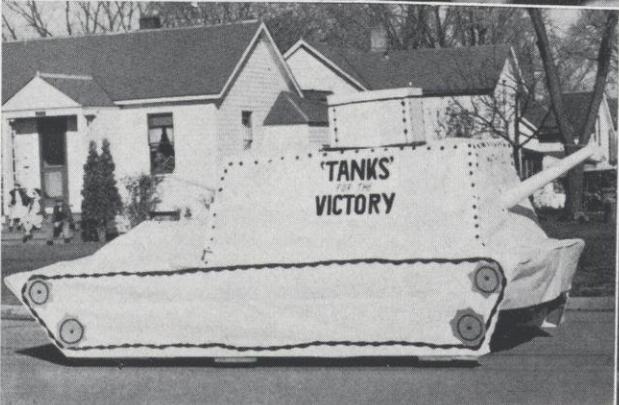

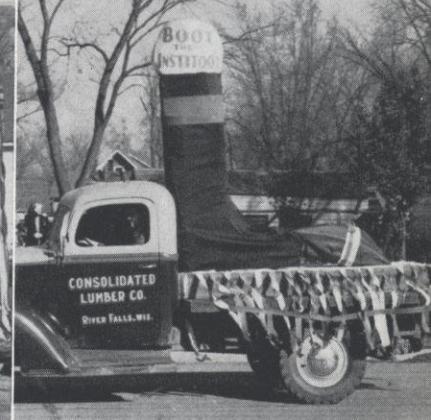

First Lieutenant Philip Loofbourrow is in the 32nd pursuit squadron stationed at Reykjavik, Iceland.

In Hawaii are three former students, Norman Dilly, James Ness, a graduate of the class of 1941, and Sergeant Ray Brandon. The last two men are at Schofield Barracks. Dilly is a gob on the U. S. S. Antares which was in Pearl Harbor at the time of the Jap stab-in-the-back, December 7.

Three brothers from Woodville, the Hermanson boys, all graduates with honors from this institution, hold high positions in the United States Army. Lieutenant Leonard Hermanson is with the electronics training group at London, England. Ensign Marcus Hermanson is now at Tongue Point, Oregon. Recently he was at the Kodiak Islands of Alaska plotting sights for landing fields. Private Reuben Hermanson is now studying meteorology at Chicago. He is a graduate of '41.

Deserving of honorable mention is Colonel Kenneth White, former senator of this district and a graduate of River Falls in 1916. He took part in World War I and was one of the first commanders of the River Falls national guard detachment. In that capacity he was succeeded by Hill and Williams. Colonel White is stationed at Camp Livingston, Louisiana.

THE "R" CLUB

Burton Boettcher ..... President      Stanley Peloquin ..... Vice-President
 Thomas Kliszcz ..... Secretary-Treasurer

The "R" club is an organization for men who have won major or minor awards in competitive sports. The members, through many hours of hard work in practice and play, uphold the sport ideals and traditions of RFSTC. They never willfully act in such a way as to reflect discredit on any team of which they are a member and supporter. This spirit was particularly displayed this year despite the great handicap the teams confronted because of the loss of men to the armed forces of this country. The outstanding achievement of the year was the making of a plaque in honor of the men from the club in the armed services who are graduates or undergraduates of this school. This plaque will give the names of the men and the branch of service in which they are serving their country. The club provided the recreation room with additional trophies of championship teams and pictures of the teams.

A draft-ridden Falcon eleven lifted the lid off the 1941 football season on September 25 by dealing out a 7-3 beating to the Winona Teachers under the lights at the Minnesota city. The game was marred by frequent fumbles on the part of both teams and a general raggedness in play characteristic of early season form. Winona drew first blood as they executed a beautiful dropkick from the 35-yard line in the waning minutes of the first half. River Falls put over the winning tally in the third quarter by means of a sustained drive. A 30-yard pass from Trecker to Schmidt put the ball on the 2-yard line from where Boettcher plunged over on the first try.

Trecker and Boettcher were the spearheads of the initial victory of the season, while the whole team showed pleasing spirit and courage for such an inexperienced aggregation, several of the starting Falcons having no previous college experience.

River Falls made its first home appearance on October 4 in a conference game against the highly touted La Crosse Indians, and once again the Falcons covered themselves with glory before going down to defeat by the score of 7-6. The highlight of the game came in the first quarter when "Doc" Schmidt, aggressive Falcon left end, stole the ball out of the arms of the astonished La Crosse fullback, Wilhelm, and streaked 35 yards down the sidelines to score. The attempt at conversion failed.

The 6-0 score remained until midway through the final period when the La Crosse guns began to explode and the Falcons' lack of reserves began to have a telling effect. A 64-yard drive was culminated with Wilhelm going across from the one-foot line with the tying counter. Lupie, La Crosse right end, then gave the Indians the winning point as he coolly converted the extra point.

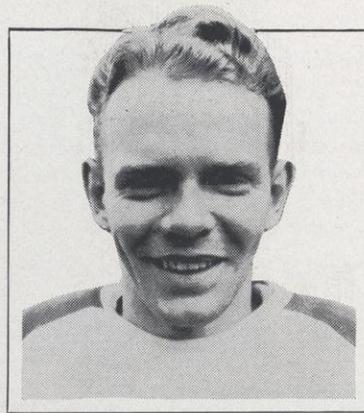

Schmidt, Schulenberg, Lanners and Trecker gained the distinction of playing the entire 60 minutes for the second game in a row. Rasmussen also showed up well in the line despite a painful leg injury incurred in the Winona game a week previous.

First down honors also went to La Crosse, garnering 13 to 4 for the Falcons.

A week later on October 11 River Falls once more put pre-game predictions to scorn by holding a supposedly far superior Gustavus Adolphus team to a 13-13 tie in a thrilling contest at Ramer Field.

The Falcons started off in a manner that led the crowd to believe the boys from St. Peter, Minnesota, were going to be completely "snowed under." Joe Ott scored the first Falls touchdown on a nifty 8-yard sweep around right end. Not content with a 6-0 lead, the local eleven roared back and scored once more after a long march. With the ball on the 27-yard line, Trecker hurled a pass into the end zone that deflected off the arms of Schmidt into the hands of the alert Babbitt. Schmidt converted and the score became 13-0.

Immediately afterwards the Minnesota lads decided it was their turn to put on an offensive show and slipped over two touchdowns against the tiring Falcon squad, Coach Ronning's boys scoring their final tally in the closing minutes of the game, and thankful to go home with the resulting deadlock. Gustavus slightly outgained River Falls from the field, 222 yards to 196.

The scrapping Falcons continued their amazing play and in a night game on October 17 they subjected Superior to a 20-0 licking on the Yellowjackets' home field. The decisive Falls victory was the worst defeat Superior had suffered for many years in conference play.

The Lowerymen began the scoring in the second quarter with an effective mixture of running and pass plays. Trecker raced to the 2-yard line after being on the receiving end of a tricky shovel pass, and from here Burton Boettcher lugged the pigskin over for the first score. The Falcons, however, refused to let up on their red-hot play at this point and put the game on ice by shoving over two more touchdowns. A rifle pass from Joe Ott to Schmidt in the end zone registered the second touchdown and Schmidt's conversion made it 13-0. With a thirteen point deficit against them, the Superior boys took to the air in a desperate attempt to score, but their efforts backfired when Trecker plucked one of their passes out of the air and set the stage for the final Falcon score. Bob Mraz, substitute Falls fullback, galloped over from the 6-yard line and Schmidt's place kick made the final score 20-0.

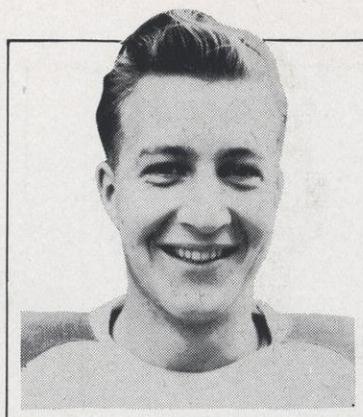

This game perhaps marked the high-water point in the Falcons play as every player that got into the game turned in a brilliant performance. The line play from end to end was a thorn in the side of the Yellowjackets all evening and the Falcon backs simply packed too much speed and shiftiness for their foes to cope with.

Led by their devastating freshman fullback, Storti, Stout Institute put a damper on the October 25 Falcon Homecoming celebration by grinding out a 21-6 decision at Ramer Field. The first quarter saw the fighting local eleven battle on even terms with the much larger invaders. Stout began the scoring in the second quarter by means of a sustained ground attack, featuring the pile-driving Storti who, though hit many times, always refused to be brought down. The Stout ace carried the ball over from the 5-yard line for the first counter and the place kick by Andrews made the score 7-0.

The Falcons then took over after receiving Stout's kickoff and marched to a touchdown, aided largely by Trecker's sparkling play. Trecker's passing and Boettcher's plunging brought the ball to the 5-yard line where Trecker knifed over from the 5-yard line as Rasmussen and Schulenberg had opened a fine gap in Stout's fast charging forward wall. Schmidt's attempt at conversion failed and the half-time score stood at 7-6.

Harold Schmidt

Damon Schulenberg

The second half found Stout leading the way. The Falcons twice stopped Blue Devil advances to the Fall's five and one yard lines, but a Stout pass finally found its mark. Coach Johnson's squad made another counter in the final quarter as the huge weight advantage the Falcons had to give up in the line had a telling effect. Stout's sure-footed Andrews once more added the extra point with his accurate toe, establishing the final score of 21-6.

On the following Saturday the Falcons found more opposition than they anticipated from the Zornmen of Eau Claire and had to be content with a scoreless deadlock in a tussle played at Eau Claire's Carson Field.

Time and time again during the first half River Falls drove down within the shadow of their foe's goal posts only to be repulsed by the determined defense of the underdogs. Likewise during the second half the Falcons outplayed Eau Claire, but found it impossible to push a winning tally into the end zone, and the game ended with the Falls having the ball within their opponent's 10-yard line.

It was a great defensive game for the boys from Eau Claire and they deserve a great deal of credit for playing such a high spirited game as they did, as they had lost all of their encounters prior to this contest.

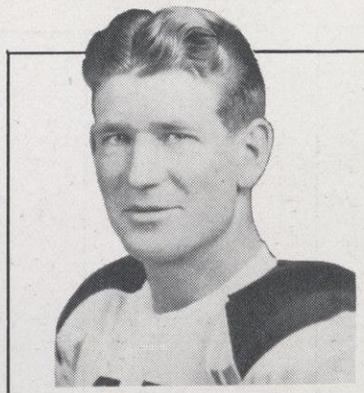

Boettcher played his usual outstanding game as fullback for the Falcons and his effective line plunging accounted for much of the large amount of yardage piled up by River Falls.

River Falls closed the season in a rather dismal way on November 8 at Ramer Field when they were the victims of a 23-7 shellacking administered by St. John's University of Collegeville, Minnesota. Coach Joe Benda's boys scored their first touchdown before the Falcons realized what was happening. Shortly after the kickoff Winkler, St. John's left end, recovered a blocked kick on the River Falls' 28; on three plays the Johnnies lugger the ball to the 18-yard line from where Shanahan, opposing left halfback, scampered around right end to score. The try for the extra point was good.

Shortly after this Coach Lowery's men began their longest march of the afternoon via the air waves and tied the score. Kelly pulled in a long pass from O. Boettcher to start the Falcons underway on their drive, and a few plays later he snared an aerial thrown by Trecker which brought the ball deep into St. John's territory. Trecker then scored on a well executed shovel pass from O. Boettcher. "Doc" Schmidt kicked the extra point and the half-time score then became 7-7.

St. John's numerically superior aggregation came back with an unusually speedy attack in the second half and by means of sustained drives scored two more touchdowns and a fine 22-yard field goal. The Falcons were unable to cope with the pony backs of the invaders who constantly ripped off large gains that set up the scores.

The game was the swan song for Peterson, Schmidt, Schulenberg, Trecker, B. Boettcher and Kelly of the Falcons, all of whom gave outstanding performances in their final debut. Kelly especially came in for noteworthy praise with his fine work at end, for he had seen little collegiate competition prior to this game.

Emmett Kelly

A terror to opposing linemen at all times was the terrific plunging of Burton Boettcher, star Falcon fullback. "Big Boettch" came to River Falls as a sophomore after spending his initial collegiate year at Eau Claire and immediately stepped into a varsity position. Testimony to Boettcher's skilled play is shown by the fact that he was selected to an all-conference position in 1940 and 1941. He scored seven touchdowns in 1940 and was co-captain of the 1941 eleven.

Another big gap that will be hard to fill next year is the position vacated by the graduation of Harold Schmidt. "Doc" provided many a thrill for the fans with his excellent pass catching and his ability to smash aside the interference and nail the ball carrier. Perhaps one of his greatest feats came in the La Crosse game this year when he stole the ball out of the arms of an opposing back and raced down the sidelines for a touchdown. "Doc" showed his versatility this year when he kicked the points after touchdowns and even played in the offensive back-field on kick-offs. He is a three-letter man in football and was chosen on the all-conference second team in 1940 and 1941.

In the opinion of Coach Lowery, there was not a better guard in the conference this year than Damon Schulenberg, one of the several Falcon athletes that have matriculated here from Wells, Minnesota. Despite his lack of size, "Schule" was playing football every minute he was on the field and he usually spent most of the afternoon in the opposition's back-field. He is also a three letter winner and was given a berth on the all-conference first team.

To Emmett Kelly, reserve Falcon end for several seasons, went the thrill of playing an outstanding game in his last collegiate appearance—the contest with St. Johns. In this game Kelly made several beautiful pass catches, one of which led to the only River Falls score of the afternoon. In addition Emmett proved to be a fine defensive player at all times. He was the recipient of one letter.

Still another big loss by graduation from this year's football team is that of co-captain Bill Trecker. Bill came to River Falls after spending a year on the regular freshmen team at Northwestern University. Triple-threat Bill was a thorn in the side of Falcon opponents for three years, his accurate passing, slippery running and fine kicking setting the stage for many a Falcon score. The pass combination of Trecker to Schmidt was a thing especially feared by all River Falls rivals. Bill was an all-conference man in 1941.

With only four lettermen returning, the prospects for a successful quintet for the 1941-42 season were not bright. As in football, Coach Lowery found his array of basketball talent depleted by the armed forces. However, Falcon hopes received a still more stinging blow when Ken Rasmussen, stellar center, failed to return to school after the Christmas holidays.

Some of the gloom over the Falcon camp was lifted when the Falls cagers began the season in a very auspicious manner with a 67-56 victory over a husky Macalester five on the local court. The Falcons appeared to be in midseason form as they caged forty-two per cent of their shots. A total of twelve Falcons saw action in the game. These included Peloquin, Rasmussen, Schmidt, and Henry, major letter winners, Noyes and Deiss, minor letter winners, and Paulson, Poppy, Lundmark, O. Boettcher, and Morrow, newcomers to the varsity squad. Ken Rasmussen proved that he was destined to be one of the finest performers on the Northwest hardcourts by pacing the Falcon attack with nineteen points.

River Falls journeyed to Northfield, Minnesota, for the second contest of the season to meet the St. Olaf Lions and came home on the short end of a 48-22 score. The Oles, one of the pre-season favorites in the Minnesota conference, boasted an experienced outfit and had little trouble with the Falcons. The Falls' shooting form was in sharp contrast to the Macalester opener as they connected only eight times on seventy field shots. Ken Rasmussen paced the losers' attack with 8 points, followed by Henry and Deiss with four each.

St. Thomas was the second Minnesota foe to defeat the Falcons in a week, as Ray Zukaitis sparked the Tommies to a 52-29 victory in a game played in St. Paul. The Fallsmen once more found it difficult to gain an effective scoring punch despite the fact that Coach Lowery used his entire traveling squad of fourteen men in an effort to find the most effective five-man combination. Peloquin continued his fine play and led the local scoring with seven points.

Our bucketeers once more took it on the chin from the rampaging St. Olaf quintet when the invaders defeated the Lowerymen 41-29 in a return engagement in the local gym. The Falcons kept on fairly even terms with the foe during the first half, as the score at the intermission read 21-15 in favor of the Oles. However, during the second half the set plays of the Norsemen began to click and with the aid of several pass interceptions they stepped out into a commanding lead. Farness, Ole forward, proved to be especially troublesome to the Falcons as he led the scoring by garnering 11 points.

Led by their sharpshooting guard, Lund, Eau Claire turned back the attempt of the Falls to win their initial conference game when they eked out a 39-37 victory in a pre-holiday game. The score was deadlocked several times throughout the game, with Eau Claire holding a 20-17 advantage at half-time; however, the Falcons came back with a rush and grabbed a 22-20 lead. From here on the game was nip and tuck all the way. The Falcons' bid for a victory received a blow when Rasmussen went out on fouls in the late stage of the second half. In his last game as a Falcon, Ken led the local scoring with 11 points and his effective one-hand shots from the side of the court were instrumental in breaking up the invaders' zone defense.

LaCrosse was the first team after the holidays to dampen the bid of the Falcons to get into the win column once more as they smashed out a 56-32 victory on the Indians' court. The Mississippi Citians took an early lead and never relinquished it. The half-time score read 27-19. Peloquin and Baird were the high scorers for the Falls; Lupie and Wulk for LaCrosse.

Don LaBlanc put on a one-man show as Superior tripped the Falcons in the next conference game by a 62-50 count. The Lowery aggregation, however, made a struggle of it all the way and left the floor at the half, trailing by only one point, 31-30. However, the loss of "Doc" Schmidt in the second half was disastrous to the Falls defense and allowed LaBlanc to go on a scoring rampage once more. He collected 12 field goals for his evening's work. Peloquin and Schmidt perhaps played the best ball of their careers for the Falcons, collecting 14 and 11 points respectively and playing outstanding defensive games as well.

Outscoring the whole Falcon team, Harlan Hesselman led the Champion Stout Blue Devils to a 47-28 victory over the Lowerymen on the Stout floor. The Blue Devils got the jump at the start of the game and set a pace that brushed the Falls off their feet, leading 28-7 at the half. River Falls came back to outscore their foes in the second half, but could not overcome the huge lead built up by the champs. Hesselman dropped 29 points by virtue of 10 field goals and nine gift shots. "Doc" Schmidt led the Falcon scoring by caging three field goals.

River Falls once more turned thumbs down to the temptations of Dame Victory and went down to defeat at the hands of Eau Claire, 46-38, in a hotly contested struggle. Before the final whistle blew, six Falcons had been sent to the showers with four personal fouls, a good explanation for any defeat. Eau Claire built up a 24-14 lead at half-time after the Falcons had led in the early stages of the game. Accuracy from the free throw line enabled the foe to retain their margin in the second half. Schmidt led the Falls scoring with 12 points. Lehmen flipped in 18 counters for Eau Claire.

Turning once more to a Minnesota opponent, the Lowerymen found a vastly improved Macalester aggregation too tough to defeat a second time, and as a result received a 68-49 shellacking on the Mac home floor. Paced by Rollie DeLapp, the St. Paul boys romped to a 45-13 lead at the midway period and coasted home the rest of the game on the basis of that margin. DeLapp rang up 24 points for Macalester, while Lundmark led the scoring for the Falls.

In the last non-conference game of the season St. Thomas invaded the local court and inflicted a 54-42 defeat upon the Falcons. Once more the first-half jinx proved fatal to River Falls' chances when the Tommies ran up a 30-12 lead in the first 20 minutes. In the second half splurge the Falcons out-scored their opponents, 30-24. Faxvog and Peloquin led the scoring of each team with 11 points apiece.

The Lowerymen next traveled up to Superior and took a 56-35 beating for their efforts. The Falcons defense was unable to cope with LaBlanc, star Yellowjacket center, who hit from all angles and garnered 31 points. The boys of Ted Whereat went immediately into the lead and held a safe margin throughout. No player of the Red and White was outstanding in scoring during this one-sided contest.

Unable to erase a 10-point LaCrosse half-time lead, the Falcons fell victims to the Indians for the second time by a score of 48-39. The second half was played on exceedingly even terms after LaCrosse had grabbed a 25-15 lead at half-time. The Lowerymen gave an exceptionally good account of themselves throughout the game and gave a possible hint of what might happen in the last game of the season against Stout.

In the last encounter of the season, River Falls astonished the basketball fans of the Northwest by turning back the Champion Stout Blue Devils, 49-46, on the local floor. The large crowd of Stout and Falcon fans were treated to an exceptionally fine brand of basketball, and the game was a thriller from whistle to whistle. The highly touted Blue Devils led, 24-22, at half-time, but the Falcons made good use of a fast break and always kept within easy striking distance of their foes. During the second half, Coach Johnson's boys found the inspiring play of the Falcons too much to cope with, and the Falcons went into a 47-42 lead with two minutes of play remaining. However, Hesselman and company thereupon added a brace of field goals to bring the score 47-46, but George Noyes then clinched the game by scoring on a shot from under the bucket. The game was the finale for Noyes, Peloquin, and Schmidt, all of whom played brilliant roles in the extremely satisfying win. Sophomore Harrison Henry came through with the brilliant play he had potentially shown in every game and led the Falcon scoring with 18 big points.

Basketball will also suffer severe losses next year by the graduation of three stellar players. "Doc" Schmidt was the only member of the Falcon squad to be named on the all-conference team. Schmidt proved his versatility on the hardcourt by alternating between center and guard and was equally effective at both positions. He had a fine eye and scored many a Falcon point from far out on the floor. Coach Lowery took advantage of his rugged defensive play by putting him on the star players of opposing teams. "Doc" was a three letter winner in basketball.

To George Noyes went the honor of being perhaps the leading cog in the Falcon's amazing triumph over the champion Stout Blue Devils in the last game of the season. He led the inspiring Falcon play by his beautiful snaring of rebounds and dropping in eight crucial points. Two of these counters came in the last minute of play, as he dropped in a bucket to clinch the Falls victory. Noyes proved to be a steady performer at all times and possessed an unusually fine shooting eye. He was a two letter winner.

"Carrot-topped" Stan Peloquin was the steadiest player on the Falcon squad and, in addition, was the team's leading scorer. Red gave Falcon fans many a thrill with his accurate push shots and likewise gave opponents many a headache. Peloquin got his chance last year when he filled the shoes of Swede Nelson and has proved to be a star ever since. His loss will be keenly felt by next year's Falcon squad. He was a three letter winner.

BASEBALL

Despite the loss of several key men from last year's nine, Coach Clifford Juedes anticipated a well balanced baseball team to represent the school in the 1942 spring baseball season. The withdrawals from school of Mraz, Schulenberg, Kelly, Olson and Hageseth put a blight on the excellent chances of River Falls improving the second-place rating attained last year. However, the Falcons still figured as strong pennant contenders with lettermen Kliszcz, Trecker, Horn, Noyes and Peloquin forming the nucleus of the squad aided by Bratberg, Greschner, Drehmel, Poppy, Miller and several promising freshmen. The chief problem of Coach Juedes was to find a capable third-baseman and to fill the vacancy as catcher which was filled last year by Bob Mraz, leading Falcon hitter.

TENNIS—GOLF

Two of the biggest foes the Falcon golf and tennis teams had to combat were the shortage of equipment and the acceleration of school programs. However, despite shortened schedules, Falcon prospects in both of these sports appeared rather good.

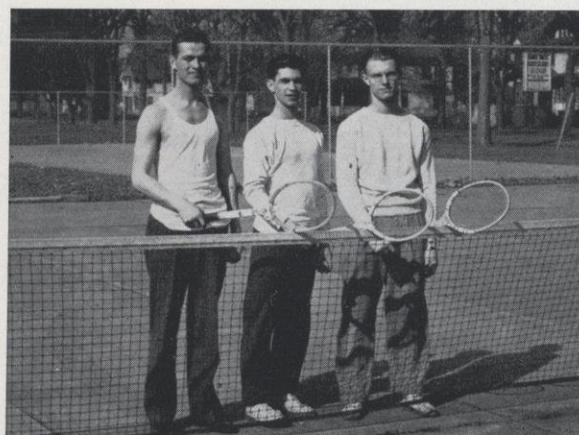

The outlook for the golf team was exceptionally bright with two freshmen, Foss and Prucha, supplementing Jacobson and Schmidt of last year's team. Sophomore Hugh McCardle rounded out the squad. Matches were scheduled with the River Falls city team, La Crosse, Eau Claire and two with Stout.

In tennis Coach Lowery was faced with the problem of replacing King, Anderson and Palm from last year's squad. The nucleus of the team was formed around veterans Wessels, Willink and Junkman. La Crosse, Concordia, Eau Claire and Stout provided the Falcon opposition.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

With at least eighty per cent of the men students participating in one or more events, the intramural program for 1941-42 was run off in good style. Under the capable direction of Clifford Juedes a well rounded series of sports was presented and the various interests of all the participants were thus satisfied. Each active participant was given points for participation in the event while bonus points were given to winners or members of a winning team. Medals were given to the three students who chalked up the greatest number of points.

The fall program began with the ever-popular touch-football. When the final results were tabulated the Skippers, captained by "Doc" Palon, were found to be on top of the six team standings. Other members of the championship squad were Drehmel, Wilson, Pappendorf, Zignego, Qualman, Schumitch, Maas, and John Peterson. Second place honors went to the Playboys led by Newell Olson.

Other fall sports included horseshoe, cribbage, table tennis, and bowling. The honors in horseshoe were divided between Howard Hull and Howard Chinnock. Junkman, Ott, O'Brien and Finstad all reached the quarter-finals in the cribbage tourney, but the matches never went beyond this point, the contestants all apparently fearing each other's strength. Eugene Hopkins took the table tennis championship after a lively tourney.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONSHIP BASKETBALL TEAM

The basketball league was unusually active with several powerful teams battling for top honors. Doug Harlander's Boilermakers finally emerged champions, as they proved their mettle in the round robin tournament. The Hoosiers, under the direction of Beyl, took second place. In the class tournament which followed, the juniors won first place honors by edging out the sophomores, 38-37, in a thrilling championship tussle.

In the annual free throw contest Harlander led the field by dropping in 36 out of 50. Doolittle ran a close second by sinking 35.

Swimming is a sport that has gained importance at RFSTC during the past few years. Freshmen physical education classes meet once a week for swimming and the pool is open several times a week to the upperclassmen for recreation swims and mixed recreation swimming. In addition to this classes in life saving and water safety are conducted for prospective life-guards. River Falls sent a swimming team to the conference meet at Stout last year, but due to current conditions a team was not organized this year.

Team bowling was abandoned this year because of the lack of participants, but four weeks of individual bowling were held in which Don Johnson led the field with a 163 average, followed by Don Elkington with 151.

Activities that remained to be finished in the closing weeks of school were checkers, volleyball, all school table tennis singles, mixed doubles in table tennis, shuffleboard, softball, and a track and field meet.

Part of the winter program had to be cut short due to unfavorable weather for winter sports. Thus the plans for an ice hockey league and a winter sports carnival had to be abandoned.

VOLLEYBALL

W.A.A. forms the nucleus which directs the intramural sports activities and carries on an active sports program throughout the year for women. Each Tuesday and Thursday is set aside for such group sports as hockey, pinball, basketball, softball, volleyball—each in its season. Every Wednesday throughout the year is devoted to swimming. Besides these the W.A.A. encourages several individual sports. Members of W.A.A. are given points for all participation in sports. When a girl has a total of 500 points, she is eligible for a letter. This year five girls have earned this award: June Johnson, Vonnie Fellrath, Irene Raawe, Marjorie Dempsey, Alma Goltz. In order to retain membership a girl must earn at least fifty points a year.

To senior girls who have been members of the organization for four years, awards are given. This year four seniors earned that distinction: June Johnson, Vonnie Fellrath, Irene Raawe, Joyce Chubb. Membership is open to all girls interested in sports.

The group sports are well organized and supervised by members chosen from the organization. Sports heads are elected at the beginning of each new season, each organizing, supervising, and attending all practices of her particular sport.

BASKETBALL

The intramural group sports for girls begins each fall with hockey. With eleven girls to a team, these teams compete against one another as long as the weather permits. There were not enough girls present to carry on a tournament this year; so the play was all informal.

Pinball was a very active sport this year. After several practice sessions the girls chose teams and elected captains. The captains were Alma Goltz, Dorothy Sampson, and Geraldine Hovde. These three teams played a round robin tournament in which Alma Goltz' team won all their games. An honor team was chosen from the forty girls who played.

Basektball, the winter sport, is usually the most popular, and this year was no exception. About forty girls participated in the games. Four teams captained by Geneva Bleisner, Dorothy Sampson, Marjorie Dempsey, and Ilene Hardy played three round robins. Geneva Bleisner's team was the winner, having won two out of three of these cycles.

Volleyball is rather an in-between season sport, and, due to the change in the school curriculum and an early spring, it had a very short season.

Spring and the close of school sports brings the softball season. This is another popular sport, for which many girls go out. No tournament is held; playing is done informally each time among those present.

PINBALL

Besides these organized activities the swimming pool is open to all girls in school for an hour every week. Many girls take advantage of this opportunity, as they do all the sports.

Parallel to group sports activities, a very extensive individual sports program is carried out. Numerous singles and doubles tournaments are held in each sport.

During the winter such indoor sports as ping-pong, shuffleboard, duck-pins, badminton, bowling, and deck-tennis are popular. If enough persons become interested in these various activities, both singles and doubles competitions are held; if only a few are interested, only a singles tourney is organized. Our most popular type of tournament is the ladder, in which the object is to win your way to the top rung of the ladder. This year tournaments were held in nearly all these sports.

With spring interest in outdoor activities such sports as tennis, archery, croquet, hiking, boating, fishing, and swimming are brought out. Usually in the spring some kind of camping trip is planned. A play day is conducted with Eau Claire, and part of the competition is in these sports.

DEBATE

While nations were engaging in a war with guns and bullets, River Falls debaters fought verbal battles. The proposition which brought forth all the verbal clashes was: Resolved, that the democracies should form a federation to establish and maintain the eight Roosevelt-Churchill principles. Our debaters, with the help of their coach, Miss Loeb, fought verbally through six tournaments and several non-decision contests.

The Eau Claire tournament on January 17 officially opened our season. River Falls entered ten people who won thirteen of their twenty debates and placed second in the meet. At the Red River Valley tournament, February 6, 7, 8, our teams (Webb-Raawe, Kramschuster-Lynch, Willink-Snoeyenbos, Brace-Hedlund) made an outstanding record. Competing with thirty women's teams both women's teams won all six of their debates and thus gave River Falls a double claim to the championship. Individual entries were: women's extempore argument, Webb, first—Raawe, second; women's extempore speaking, Kramschuster, third; women's discussion, Kramschuster third out of thirty-one contestants; women's oratory, Lynch second; men's oratory, Brace, fourth.

Three teams (Willink-Snoeyenbos, Webb-Raawe, and Kramschuster-Lynch) were entered in the Stevens Point tournament February 21, 22. Webb-Raawe tied with Oshkosh for second place and Kramschuster-Lynch won third place. Snoeyenbos and Willink placed third in the men's discussion. Lynch placed first in oratory.

MEN'S TEAM

Willink      Snoeyenbos

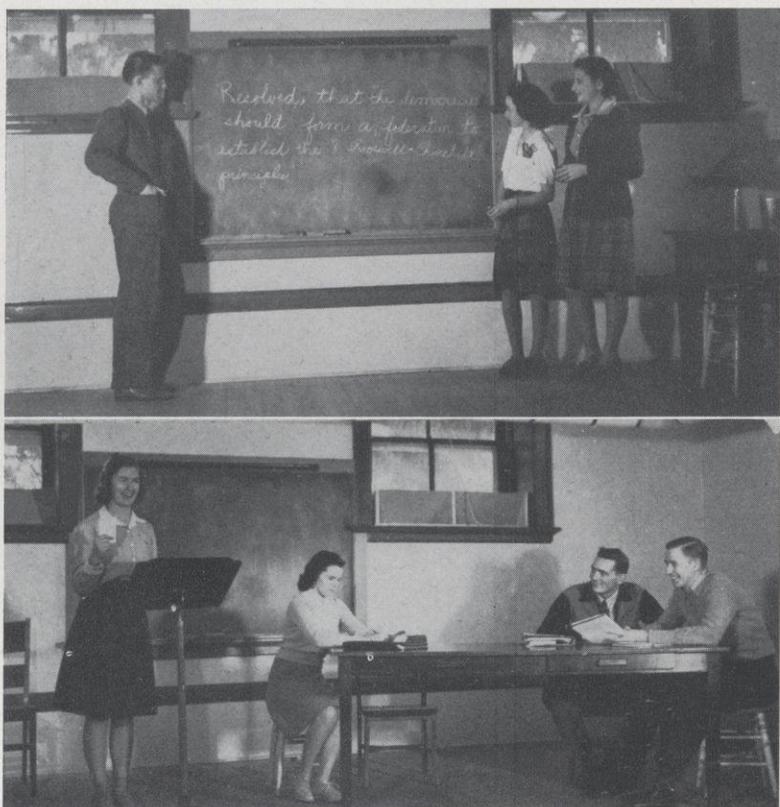

At the Northwest Tournament March 2, 3, 4 both women's teams (Webb-Raawe, Kramschuster-Lynch) won five of their eight debates and the men's team (Willink-Snoeyenbos) won four of their eight debates. Both women's teams finished the season with an average of 70 per cent wins and the men's team with 60 per cent wins.

All those debaters who had not gone to the Northwestern Tournament entered the River Falls "B" tourney March 14. Entrants were Wheeler, Hayman, Froiland, Kostus, Olocki, Hedlund and Brace. A practice clash was held with Hamline February 25.

In addition our debaters entered discussion activities. Six students, Lynch, Raawe, Webb, Kramschuster, Willink and Glanzman gave a discussion on the high school debate question of compulsory military training at the Eau Claire Teachers Convention October 9. On March 7, Kramschuster, Webb and Lynch participated in a discussion contest at the University of Minnesota, sponsored by the Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs on Pan-American cooperation. Lynch placed third in the finals. Also during the year various groups gave discussions for campus organizations. To climax the debate season six people (Webb, Raawe, Kramschuster, Lynch, Willink and Snoeyenbos) entered the National Pi Kappa Delta Tournament which was held at Minneapolis April 5-10. Ninety-eight schools were represented by 500 students. Lois Webb represented us in the student assembly. Out of forty contestants Katherine Lynch placed eighth in oratory. Irene Raawe participated in five rounds of extempore speaking. In debate the teams of Snoeyenbos-Willink and Kramschuster-Lynch represented us. Miss Loeb, as governor of the host province, did much to make the tournament a success.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta is a national honorary, forensic fraternity. Local chapters are organized on college campuses. The purpose is to stimulate progress in and promote intercollegiate debate, oratory, and public speaking. Members are granted advanced degrees according to their achievements.

The River Falls chapter, organized in 1936, sponsors a high school discussion tournament in the fall and a high school district speech contest in the spring, and a debate tournament for inexperienced college debaters.

The outstanding event of this school year was participation in the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention which was held in Minneapolis from April 6-10. The local chapter was represented by two debate teams, one orator, one extempore speaker and a delegate to the Student Assembly.

Three members of Pi Kappa Delta, Irene Raawe, Dolores Kramschuster, and Lois Webb graduate this spring. As veterans of so many battles, Raawe and Kramschuster will receive keys of the degree of Special Distinction, and Lois Webb, the key of the degree of Honor.

The College Masquers is the dramatic organization of the college. During the year it produces one three-act play and numerous one-act plays. New members are taken into the organization in the fall after a thorough test of their dramatic ability. Membership is limited to thirty-five. To retain membership each person must keep a high scholastic average, and he must take an active part in all functions of the organization. Points are awarded for various services, and a certain number must be attained each year. To the senior gaining the most points an award is given on Honors Day. Masquers close their year with a formal banquet, at which they elect officers and make tentative plans for the following year. This year the Masquers bought a seventy-five dollar bond to help our "defense drive."

"What's he a sayin', Lige?"

"I'll get you for

In "Seven Keys to Baldpate" Dean Gordon, as William Hallowell Magee, made a bet with Merle Michaelson, the owner of the Baldpate resort, that he could write a first class mystery story in twenty-four hours. The only thing Magee asked for was the quietness offered by Baldpate, a resort in the mountains, in the dead of winter.

Mr. Quimby (Albert Zahradka), who was the rather ignorant caretaker at Baldpate, and his wife (Alma Sumner), opened the old resort and welcomed the half-frozen Magee in the middle of a bitter cold night. Magee learned from them that there was only one key to Baldpate in existence, and that there was a crabby old hermit (Glenn Cole) near by. From this Magee proceeded to write the play which the audience saw in the two main acts.

Thomas Hayden (Glenn Snoeyenbos), the president of the Asquewam-Reuton Suburban Railway Company, had agreed to pay a vast amount of money for a certain city franchise; a franchise that the political crowd at Reuton had no power to grant. Bob Hotal, as Jim Cargan, the crooked mayor of Reuton, and his man "Friday," Lou Max (Norbert Snider), were going to cheat him out of this money and use it for campaign funds to fight the opposition party at the next election. If Hayden were to sue to get his money back, they were going to expose him for entering into an agreement which would be nothing short of bribery. Joe Klucarich, as Bland, Hayden's right-hand man, has the money in a safe in the Baldpate resort where Magee is trying to write a story, but has many interruptions. The first interruption was the appearance of Mary Norton (Marlys Lowe), the newspaper woman who had got wind of a story, and her companion, Mrs. Rhodes (Georgia Hopkins).

Mary Norton and Bland both had keys, thus with Magee's key, there were three keys to Baldpate. One by one, Peters, the hermit, Myra Thornhill (Annette Gantenbein), and Jim Cargan, who were all involved in the money deal, appeared, and all of them had keys to Baldpate! So far there were six keys to Baldpate. With the seventh key, the owner of Baldpate came in, and he revealed to Magee that these people were not real crooks, but actors. The joke was on Magee. He found out, however, that Mary was the genuine article and fell in love with her.

"I hate women."

"You don't think you're going to live to tell this!"

OUTDOOR LIFE

Students at River Falls are fortunate in having surroundings which lure them into the open. Probably the mound with its shady slopes and fine views is the favorite place for hikes and picnics. An extensive campus with smooth lawns and spreading trees is enjoyed from spring to winter, and the winding Kinnickinnic invites to jaunts "down river."

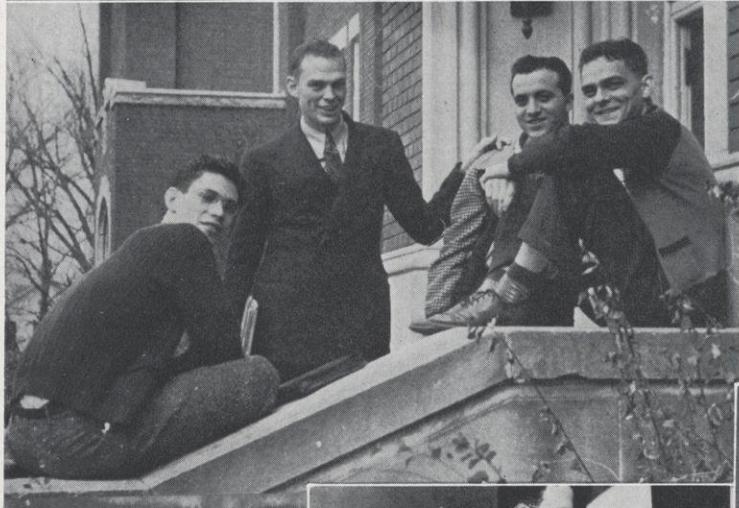

Every spring the YWCA cabinet goes on an all-day outing to plan the program for the following college year. The Kinnickinnic river north of town was the scene of their get-together last year. Here are the girls and their advisers in their leisure moments.

EVENTS

The Puff-Pant Prom is the high light of YW's social calendar. And do they have a good time! While the girls go formal the men enjoy themselves at the YM bean soup party, where Prof. Jake dispenses his specialty. The Latin club—SPQR—holds a Roman banquet, classical in every detail possible.

The Student Senate, a student governing body consisting of eleven members, seven of whom are elected by the student body at an assembly meeting during the second week of May of the previous year, and four of whom are acting as class presidents, is organized to assume the responsibilities and duties pertaining to student activities and matters primarily concerning the student body. A more democratic student attitude is thereby stimulated.

During the years that this organization has been in existence it has been assuming more and varied activities. Some of the annual duties are: the election of editors of The Student Voice and the Meletean; the publication of the freshman handbook; the organization of the school calendar, scheduling organization meetings; the purchase of magazines for the men's union, women's social room, and the health cottage; the enforcement of the payment of class dues via the "blacklist"; nominations for Homecoming chairman; supervision and maintenance of the bulletin board; care and maintenance of the radios in both buildings; and sponsorship of Recognition Day.

It is the duty of the Senate to ratify all social events scheduled by organizations; to audit their books and grant charters to new organizations.

This year the Senate purchased equipment for the kitchenette in South Hall, and two new flags for the auditorium. It conducted the selection of outstanding students for recognition in "Who's Who Among College and Universities of America." The Student Senate held a Dad's Day in honor of all fathers of the students. It also provided for the mailing of the school paper to all our men in the service. To do our bit for defense the Student Senate set aside two weeks in April for a "defense drive" and set the goal at $1,000. In less than two weeks this goal had been passed!

The Social Committee, a sub-committee of the Student Senate, consisting of eight members, two from each class, selected to work with a Senate representative, makes arrangements for and takes charge of all social functions financed by the Senate throughout the year. Members take turns at assuming responsibility for the numerous school dances. A social calendar is made out for the year, and all social functions have to be registered on that calendar.

This committee is organized early in the fall in order to be able to function during the first week of school. During this week it sponsors the all-school dance. Football season is accompanied by many social functions. The biggest event is the Homecoming dance. This part of the Homecoming celebration is the work of the Social Committee. This year an excellent orchestra, Guy Dileo, was engaged for the occasion.

Following the Li'l Abner theme, a Sadie Hawkins dance was given, the girls asking men for dates and dances.

The Christmas holidays would not be complete without the all-school Christmas party. The gymnasium is decorated in holiday style and a good orchestra hired. This closes one-half of the social season of the school. The orchestras engaged this year have been exceptionally good. Many new groups were hired as well as the old bands we have engaged before.

To close the thousand dollar defense drive this committee sponsored a MacArthur dance. An orchestra from Macalester furnished the music. Admission was defense stamps or bonds.

Two other outstanding parties were the Valentine and spring tennis court dance. The latter is held on South Hall campus; the cement tennis courts become the dance floor. These parties are all in addition to the usual week-end dances. During the winter many dances were held after basketball games.

The purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association is to offer to the men in the college an opportunity to unite in the development of Christian personality through wholesome social and religious practice; to cooperate with other colleges in world-wide fellowship and to influence thinking toward a Christian solution of campus, community, and world problems.

The first service is offered to new students in school during orientation week, when freshmen are given assistance and entertainment in that first week away from home.

Programs are held every Monday night to which speakers are invited to discuss such vital problems as "The Church and War," "The Basis for a Permanent Peace," "Military Training," "Student Honor," and many others. Another part of the program consisted of Sunday morning discussions at the home of "Prof. Jake."

The YMCA climaxed the year with a "Religious Emphasis Week" which they sponsored jointly with the YWCA. Miss Jennie M. Dodge was the guest speaker and adviser for the week.

Much credit must be given to the members of the cabinet who plan the meeting and who continually strive to train themselves in leadership through the various meetings and discussions they attend.

The Young Women's Christian Association began the year by sponsoring a freshmen mixer for the new girls. Each member chose one of these girls as "little sister" to help her become acquainted with the school and its activities.

It also acted as hostess to the Area Conference in the fall at which twelve schools were represented. Various discussion groups were held and a guest speaker invited. The girls had lunch together at noon and a banquet at night. It was one of the most important undertakings this group has ever attempted, and it was very successful.

The projects sponsored by the YWCA this year were a dancing class, a knitting class, various vespers services and a "Religious Emphasis" week.

The Puff-Pant Prom, a strictly feminine delight, was more successful and more unique than ever this year. Margaret Stronks was the general chairman of arrangements.

Several of the girls attended the Spring Area Conference at Camp Ihduhapi in Minnesota. The girls who attended the Lake Geneva Conference were Jeanne Treadwell, Anita Setter, Mary Louise Jacobson, and Vonnie Fellrath.

At the spring retreat the program for the coming year was outlined by both old and new cabinet members.

The Midgardians' membership consists of all juniors and seniors enrolled in the intermediate division of the elementary department. Sophomores were elected in March and initiated into the organization in May. Its aim is to attain professional and social improvement in elementary teaching through discussions, social projects, and a study of problems common to all.

Such speakers as Mrs. Ritchie, who talked on her doll collection hobby; Mrs. Prucha, who spoke about some of the phases of teaching; and Miss McGregor, who demonstrated children's books were guests this year. During Book Week the members attended the book institute in St. Paul where they learned many interesting methods and displays to be used in making books appeal. The activities were carried on with the organization aim in mind—to attain professional improvement. All this information the girls hope to use in their own future teaching experience.

The social activities of the club were concluded with a picnic in the spring, held on the site of the first house in River Falls, which Mrs. Frank Finn described so well in her interesting talk on pioneer days here.

ACE is the local chapter of the national organization of the Association for Childhood Education, and is designed to bring into active cooperation all childhood educational interests; to promote the progressive type of education in the primary grades, and to raise the standards of the professional training for the teachers and leaders in that field. All students enrolled in the primary department of this college are eligible to membership.

The first project of the ACE this year was a book exhibit held during the latter part of Book Week in November. Each girl worked on some part of this display, to which the community and out-of-town guests as well as the students were invited.

A second project has been a story-hour on Saturdays for children in the community of ages four to nine. Members of the ACE told the stories and gained some valuable experience in presenting and working on this project.

Other interesting activities of the ACE have been book reviews concerned with primary education, a Christmas project, and a "studio" night. Again this year undergraduates of the River Falls chapter will honor the graduates with a May breakfast.

Every two weeks all students interested in mathematics meet to discuss topics and problems concerned with this field. The students themselves act as leaders and do the research necessary for the discussion. During the year each student participates at least once in planning a meeting and carrying on the discussion.

Some of the topics chosen for group appreciation this year were: magic circles and magic squares, nine point circle, the theory of complex numbers. Famous men whose biographies were read were: Euler, Nicoloi Labochiviski, Rene Da Cartes, Napier, Professor Gibbs. The club attempts to discuss past mathematicians as well as men of contemporary importance. Members produce puzzles and problems which they think the group would like to try.

Some of the highlights of this season were the Homecoming activities; the annual Christmas party, and a "welcome-back" party for Mrs. Eide.

Mrs. Eide who has formerly been the adviser of the Mathematics Club was gone during the first two terms of this year. In her absence Mr. Kirchen took over the duties as adviser to the group.

The threefold purpose of Sigma Chi Sigma is to promote the social life of the individual member, to promote culture, and to render service to the college. Membership is selected from all eligible sophomore, junior, and senior women. Those eligible are girls enrolled in the four-year course who have attended River Falls at least one year. They must maintain a 1.5 scholastic average. Fifteen new members were formally initiated last fall.

The club is advised by a board of three. Each year the senior member is replaced through election by the club. Two of these members must be from the faculty. The senior member this year is Miss Helen Loeb, who has been an excellent adviser since the formation of the organization three years ago. The other two advisers are Miss Catherine Lieneman and Mrs. Walker D. Wyman.

Activities of the club this year included an alumnae tea at Homecoming following the game; a formal banquet in honor of all senior members; a picnic for election of new officers; a tea for all faculty women and mothers of the club members.

A scholarship is awarded each year on Honors Day to the outstanding freshman girl, socially and scholastically.

SPQR, which stands for "Senatus Populusque Romanus," the Senate and the Roman People, is the club to which students who are studying or interested in Latin belong.

The club is designed to meet a two-fold desire of the members: to broaden the student's background in classical antiquity and to experiment with activities that might be carried on in high school Latin classwork.

Meetings are held regularly for this study. A committee of two works with the program chairman to plan and conduct these meetings. Membership is open to all who will loyally support the meetings of the club.

Some very interesting programs were planned this year. During the fall Miss Maud Latta gave an illustrated lecture on Greek and Roman architecture. Stories famous in Greek mythology was the subject of another meeting. The Roman Saturnalia, which corresponds to our Christmas, was celebrated in December with the Latin class of the Training School as guests. The entire entertainment followed the Roman idea and a Latin skit was presented. During March a Roman banquet was held in the cafeteria. Typical Roman foods were served; no utensils for eating could be used except the fingers; and Roman togas were fashioned from sheets. A story taken from one of Pliny's letters was enacted by the group.

All the meetings followed the Roman or Latin theme and were very carefully planned and executed so that every member in the club benefited.

The Palette Club is an organization of students interested in furthering their knowledge and appreciation of art, and is open to others who are encouraged to develop techniques, crafts and special interests through the club. Its membership is not limited to persons taking art courses. The organization is an excellent means of furthering art appreciation among its own members and the college in general.

The Palette Club began the year by doing individual research. Each member studied and planned an individual project which he carried out. Some of these activities were wood-burning, making novel bracelets, original necklaces, decorating and finishing trays, book-ends and other wooden articles.

Another interesting study made by all members was charcoal work. To make this more difficult and interesting charcoal profiles were made. Still another phase of art, water color, was discussed by Irene Hophan and Lusetta Biege. Following their discussion, Miss Greene demonstrated several of the points brought out.

Each year the organization tries to choose new subjects for study. Such projects, discussions and demonstrations are chosen by the group as will be of value to the members in future work. To some these aids may lead to a vocation, or to others an avocation or hobby.

A breakfast-picnic at Miss Greene's apartment ended the social season for the Palette Club.

The purpose of the Collegiate Chapter of the Future Farmers of America is to provide training for potential agriculture teachers who will later act as advisers of high school chapters of the organization. At the beginning of each year the Collegiate Chapter makes out a program of activities which they expect to follow. This outline is followed by the program chairman.

During the second week in September the college ag. men acted as hosts to representatives from numerous high schools in the vicinity at a high school judging contest. Thirty-three schools were represented. This is excellent experience for both the college and high school men.

On October 22 a rural school fair was held. This consisted of crop exhibits by the rural school boys and girls, judging contests, rural school booths, and a program arranged for all the schools. Preceding the fair the seniors visited these schools, demonstrating the preparation and selection of exhibits.

In the first week of December an officers' training conference was conducted. Thirty-five high school officers attended this session. The purpose was to demonstrate the duties of the various officers of the high school chapters and to show how they could make their work more effective in their schools. The seniors were again the leaders of this group.

February 18 the annual Future Farmers banquet was held. Mr. I. G. Fay of the State Board of Vocational Education was the principal speaker.

Another part of the program is in connection with the degree teams. These consist of groups of college students who go out to the high schools to put on the various degrees of the high school chapters.

Other activities carried out during the year were parliamentary contests between the different classes, panel discussions on vital farm problems, a public speaking contest held in May concluding the school year.

The Rural Life Club includes all students enrolled in the two-year rural department of the college. The organization attempts to increase the knowledge and understanding of problems which confront all rural teachers. Special emphasis is placed on problems which beginning teachers are apt to meet in actual teaching. In addition the organization provides a means of bringing the rural students together, so they may become better acquainted, and at the same time provides programs that give practice in management and organization. The programs feature educational topics of interest and value to the rural teacher. Membership is voluntary; however, the services and values of the organization gain membership from practically all the students in this department.

This year the organization was host to the Inter-County Teachers' meeting with a program and banquet. In the spring members attended the rural conference at Whitewater. The night of the senior class play an alumni banquet was held to which all former members are welcomed. These activities were in addition to the program carried on regularly by the rural students.

The success of the club depends greatly upon the program chairman whose duty it is to plan and prepare the meetings for the year. His duties are divided on the half-year basis. This year Grace Roatch and Grace Foley divided honors, each directing activities for half a year.

During the year the sophomore or graduating members of the club do cadet teaching for six weeks in the rural schools of St. Croix and Pierce counties. They take over all the responsibilities they will later be expected to have when teaching alone. Their work is closely supervised and helpful criticism given for future work. The director of the Rural Department is Mr. C. L. Eggert and the adviser of the Rural Life Club is Miss Mabel Jorstad.
