Union News -

Set 'em up! That cry can mean only one thing -- the bowling season's here! Not to be caught sleeping at the switch Local #2542 has organized an interplant bowling league. The league was originally planned to be composed of eight teams but the response was so great that it will be necessary to form a twelve team league. Officers elected last Friday are Jack Miller - president and Jim Branca - secretary. Good luck, boys. Here's for bigger and better gutter balls.

There has been some talk in the yard about having dances every week or every second week. These dances would be solely for Zenith Dredge employees and their wives or gal friends.....and what branch of music could be better than that furnished at the picnic by Angelo Dandrea, Jim Branca, Ed Johnson and their pals? Incidentally, these boys unselfishly sacrificed their own time in order that the rest might have a good time and they played steadily for close to five hours. It's spirit like this that makes for better relationship among the employees. How do you feel about such a dance?

Gone with the draft! Bob Little, chipper extra-ordinary, will leave Tuesday for induction into the U.S.Army. Good luck, Bob. Get your first Jap for the boys at Zenith Dredge.

More war news: Jim Cameron, young squirt on Hull 6, was married last Friday. We will now have one minute's silence while we offer a silent prayer for Jim.

Bruce Reed, welder, left for Winona early this week, supposedly on a vacation, but Dame Rumor has it that Bruce has been receiving some perfumed letters lately! And, just a coincident, they bear the Winona stamp. Looks to us like some Winona minister is going to receive two visitors. Oh well, that's what you get for writing letters, Bruce.

The shipfitters on Hull 6 have been given tool boxes to keep their tools in. This will not only keep their tools from being lost, but it will also prevent them from falling off the boat and injuring someone. While on the subject of safety, remember, it pays to play safe. There's no such thing as being too safe. Someone might be hurt and it might be YOU! So be alert at all times.

Next Monday's Union Meeting has been postponed to Thursday Night, September 10th, at the West End Legion Quarters located at 21st Ave. West and Superior St.

Don't forget the Labor Day Festival at Fairmont Park Next Monday.

This is No. 570 signing off until next week.

THE ZENITH SPECIAL

At the head of Lake Superior,
This our great unsalted Sea,
Where the seaway soon will terminate
Lies this shipbuilding industry.
For here you'll find men busy
A building ships galore,
The boys keep welding, cranes a swinging
And the chipping hammers roar.

We hear how Adolph drives a wedge
Into his opponent's lines,
But if he could see the Zenith
 Dredge
He'd surely change his mind.
For that beast is not yet acquainted
With our great U. S. Marines,
The boys who'll soon obliterate
His lousy submarines.

A word or two we wish to say
About our personnel,
Mr. McDonald Junior-Senior
And Mr. Rockwell too ---
For with the help of you and me
These men they make things go
They're the most important cogs
 by heck
In our sprocket wheel you know.

Let's take a stroll around the yard
And see what we may find.
Men toiling here, men working there
Craftsmen of every kind.
With alertness stand the Coast
 Guards
In their uniforms and caps,
Waiting for these boats to be ready
So they may eliminate the Japs.

But now let's cease our poetry
Until some other time,
If we continue to work together
We may have another rhyme.
This little pamphlet has not room for anyone to tell ---
So let's keep the ships a sailing boys
Just give that Hitler (HELL).
