The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

SEE AT YOUR FEET A SUPPLIANT.

AS SUNG BY MRS. SEGUIN.

IN THE OPERA OF THE BOHEMIAN GIRL.

COMPOSED BY BALFE.

Larghetto
con grand Expression.

See at your feet a suppliant one, Whose place should be your heart; Behold the on - ly liv - ing thing To which she had to cling : Who saved her life, f p

watch'd o'er her years, With all the fondness faith endears, And her af - fec - tion won.

decres. p

Rend not such ties a - part.

Oh spurn him not, my only friend
Through good and ill he's been ;
And was the only living thing
To which I had to cling.

He saved my life, watch'd o'er my years,
With all the fondness faith endears,
And my affection won :—
Rend not such ties apart.
