JOHNNY SANDS.

The first system of the song features a vocal melody in the right hand and piano accompaniment in the left hand. The right hand is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps and a 6/8 time signature. The left hand is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The lyrics are: "A man whose name was Johnny Sands, Had married Betty Hague, And though she brought him".

The second system of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "gold and lands, She prov'd a terrible plague, For Oh! she was a scolding wife, Full".

The third system of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "of caprice and whim, He said, that he was tired of life, And she was tired of him, And".

of caprice and whim, He said, that he was tired of life, And she was tired of him, And she was tired of him, And she was tired of him. Says he "then I will drown myself— The river runs be-low," Says she, "pray do you silly elf, I wished it long a-go," Says he, "upon the brink I'll stand, Do you run down the hill, And push me in with all your might," Says she "my love I will," Say she "my love I will," Says she "my love I will."

"For fear that I should courage lack And try to save my life, Pray tie my hands behind my back," "I will" replied his wife She tied them fast as you may think, And when securely done, "Now stand" she says "up-on the brink And I'll prepare to run, And I'll prepare to run, And I'll prepare to run," All down the hill his loving bride Now ran with all her force To push him in — he stepped aside, And she fell in of course Now splashing, dashing, like a fish, "Oh save me Johnny Sands" "I can't my dear tho' much I wish, For you have tied my hands, For you have tied my hands, For you have tied my hands?"
