Senior Class Pledges Reach $17,100, Early Report

FIRST CHECK-UP SHOWS CAMPAIGN WILL BE SUCCESS

Seniors in 22 Fraternities, 10 Sororities Subscribe 100 Per Cent

With $17,100 in life memberships already subscribed by members of the class and with many solicitors still to be heard from the Memorial union campaign among the seniors was well on its way to success last night, a preliminary check-up at the Union board office indicated.

Immediately after the firing of the salute from a 3-inch field piece on Muir Knoll at 7:45 o'clock yesterday morning, the 150 solicitors began their work of enrolling members of the class as life members of the union and within an hour signed pledged slips began to pour into the Union board office at 752 Langdon street, headquarters for the campaign. The check-up last night showed 302 new life members for the union.

More to be 100 Per Cent

Twenty-two out of the 55 fraternities on the campus and ten sororities early reported a 100 per cent enrollment among the seniors in their respective houses. In nearly every other fraternity there were only one or two seniors still to be solicited and it is expected that later reports from these houses will also show a 100 per cent enrollment.

The senior clean-up campaign has raised the Memorial union pledges to a mark well over $900,000. The incomplete reports also have increased to 39.9 per cent the enrollment of life members in the senior class.

The solicitors unable during the day to see the seniors to whom they were assigned, started making their calls after dinner last night, and many worked from then until midnight. They will resume their work this morning in order that all members of the class will be seen and that the propositions of the Memorial union will be laid before them.

To Meet at Luncheon

"Everything points to the fact that the seniors are not falling down in their task of getting as many life subscribers as possible," John C. Dawson '24, chairman of the campaign said last night. "We will continue our work until every member of the class has been called upon."

All the solicitors are expected to meet at a luncheon in Lathrop hall at noon today. This will enable them to make fuller reports on their progress and will give an opportunity for a discussion of some

Lake Broadcasts Spring Proposals, Heated Arguments

Quarrels, victrola music, and proposals come across the waters of Lake Mendota with equal clarity.

Many a man who has expressed the desire to shout his love to the world has been unconsciously doing it over the quiet waters of the lake.

One observing canoeist reports on an evening hearing two proposals, three heated arguments and one conversation attendant to the hanging of a fraternity pin.

"The 'fussing' period begins about 8 o'clock and it is then that we do the heaviest business," said Emil Neibhufer, of the university boat house. "A disagreeable spring has made canoes much less in demand than in many previous years."

Union Facts

All senior solicitors will be guests at a luncheon to be given by Union board at 12 o'clock today, in Lathrop hall.

Nella Burgess '24, led all the other solicitors by turning in 18 new life memberships yesterday. That makes a total of $900.

The women in the physical education course are 100 per cent life members.

An elderly woman called at the Union board office yesterday and offered to help the campaign by giving $25 on each of two seniors' life-membership pledges. In this way she helped two seniors who wanted to subscribe but who did not have enough funds to become life members.

At 6 o'clock last night the figures showed 39.9 per cent of the seniors to be life members of the union. The seniors in 22 fraternities and 10 sororities are 100 per cent.

The Memorial union fund now is well past the $900,000 mark.

This is the way the various schools stood last night:

| No. in school       | Percentage |
|---------------------|------------|
| Letters and Science | 757 38.13  |
| Commerce course     | 166 37.47  |
| Agriculture         | 196 28.30  |
| Law                 | 23 30.44   |
| Engineering         | 192 27.00  |
| Medicine            | 64 34.40   |

UNIVERSITY GETS $350,000 BEQUEST

Thomas Brittingham Leaves Huge Trust Fund; City Gets $50,000

A bequest of approximately $350,000 in a trust fund was willed to the university by Thomas E. Brittingham wealthy Madison lumberman, who died on May 3, it became known yesterday when his will was admitted to probate court.

The city of Madison received a gift of $50,000 to be used for civil and philanthropic purposes. The will, which was made on December 3, 1923, amounts to approximately $443,000, and after the $50,000 is given to the city the balance reverts to the university. "Dunmoven" the family home on the Old Sauk road goes to Mrs. Brittingham, 89, until her death when it reverts to the children.

Mrs. Mary Brittingham-Reid, Riverside, Ill., Harold H. Brittingham, Cleveland, Ohio and Thomas E. Brittingham, Jr. are named as trustees.

Mr. Brittingham was the former president of the Brittingham and Hixon lumber company of this city. He died of heart disease on ship board while he was returning from a trip to South America.

RICE READS "YOUNGER GENERATION" TONIGHT

The reading of "The Younger Generation," by Phidelah Rice will not be given until after the Mortar board supper tonight, to accommodate those who are planning to attend both, George Fiedler '25, vice-president of the Forensic board announced yesterday.

"The Younger Generation" is a three-act comedy by Stanley Houghton and deals with the problems of modern youth.

Tickets for the reading are 50 cents and will be on sale at both south and west entrances of the gymnasium.

Mr. Rice, who is director of the Phidelah Rice Summer school has received high recognition for his impersonation work. He is appearing under the auspices of the Forensic board.

WIESE, ANDERSON ELECTED HEADS OF 1926 BADGER

Crowley and Rasmussen to Assist; Election First Under New System

Otis Wiese '26 was elected editor-in-chief of the 1926 Badger staff, Ben Anderson '26, business manager, and Ralph Crowley '26 and Leland Rasmussen '26, assistant business manager at a meeting of the Badger board held at noon yesterday in the Union building.

"These men were recommended to the Badger board by Ellis Fulton '25, editor-in-chief of the 1925 Badger staff, and Willis G. Sullivan '25, business manager of the 1925 staff, upon consideration of their ability and time of service," Cliff Huff '26, president of the Badger board said yesterday.

Elect Staff Soon

The other members of the 1926 Badger staff will be chosen next Monday and will be announced Tuesday, according to Huff.

This Badger election is the first to be held under the board system adopted after a referendum had been held May 3.

All four men have had two years' previous experience on Badger staffs. Crowley was collection manager during his freshman year, and has worked in several departments of the 1925 Badger. Rasmussen has held the office of collection manager of the annual for this year and also worked on the 1924 staff. Both Wiese and Anderson have had two full years of work on Wisconsin yearbooks.

PLAN AUTO POLO FOR HORSE SHOW

Military Department Prepares Wheeled "Ponies" For Combats on Lower Campus

Thrills for spectator and the participant will be furnished by the auto polo game which will be featured at the annual horse show to be held on the lower campus on May 24, Hugo Murray '25, chairman of the general arrangements committee, said yesterday.

"We have received three entries already and expect to receive others before the event is staged. While entries for the other events are closed, students may still enroll for the auto polo game," said Murray.

James H. Kellogg '26, Glen Lerch '26, and Frank Peters '27, have registered for this game. Each car will have a driver and a player. The event will be staged in the arena to be erected on the lower campus.

The military department is arranging for the equipping of the cars with bumpers and hoops to prevent injuries to the players and drivers. The blacksmith at Camp Randall will fix the cars for the game.

OLIVA FACES COURT ON LIQUOR CHARGE TODAY

The trial of Carmelito Oliva, charged with selling liquor to students on the evening of May 3, will be held at 9 o'clock this morning in Judge O. A. Stolen's court. Oliva is out on bond of $1,000. He was arrested on a warrant from T. G. Lewis, district attorney, last Monday, by Detective Smith, and pleaded not guilty when arranged.

SERVING OF WARRANT ON OFFICER DELAYED BY BLAINE'S REQUEST

Charge of First Degree Manslaughter Expected in Posepny Death

BY FRED GUSTORFF

Officer Patrick Powers, who was held responsible by the coroner's jury for the unwarranted killing of Peter M. Posepny '25, stated last night that his case was in the hands of his attorney, Frank Gilbert, and that he personally had nothing to say regarding the verdict. Attorney Gilbert and his client now await the next move of the state in following up the decision of the jury.

Although Assistant District Attorney Phil Sanborn after the inquest declared his intention of issuing a warrant at once for Powers' arrest, upon the order of Gov. Blaine last night, the serving of the warrant was delayed pending an investigation by J. E. Messerschmidt, assistant attorney general, who is representing the interests of the university.

The report upon the circumstances of the case called for by the governor has not yet been submitted by Sheriff Julius Krug. Krug said last night that the purpose of the investigation ordered by the governor was to keep a check on the proceedings of the inquiry, and see that the case was handled outside of the police department.

May Charge Manslaughter

It is expected that the warrant will contain the charge of first degree manslaughter.

Chief of Police Shaughnessy when questioned regarding his reaction to the decision of the coroner's jury, had nothing to say.

During a three-hour inquest which began with the recital of the story of the shooting by Powers on the stand, no dispute between investigators and witnesses arose until toward the last of the session, when Dr. C. H. Bunting, university physician who conducted the autopsy, was called upon to give his report.

After testifying that the course of the bullet was downward through the brain, rather than upward according to former testimony, Dr. Bunting was challenged by Attorney Frank Gilbert, representing Powers.

Eight witnesses who were called upon to testify by the district attorney offered evidence which in many instances was decidedly contradictory. Francis Martell '27, friend of the deceased, who had accompanied Posepny to the show and

The Sigma Nu orchestra will play from 7 to 8 o'clock and dancing will take place in the court. Supper will be served in both dining rooms and on the lawn. The Haresfoot stunt will be in charge of Tom Morony '25.

It is customary for fraternities, sororities and other organizations to attend the Mortar board supper in a body. Tickets may be had from all Mortar board members and they may be purchased at the door. Proceeds will go toward the annual scholarship fund of $100. Tickets are 75 cents each.

SORORITIES LEAD IN SCHOLARSHIP

S. G. A. Committee Finds Un- organized Houses Are Lower in Studies

That organized houses average much higher in scholarship than unorganized houses is proved by statistics which have just been completed by the women's scholarship committee after a thorough investigation of women's houses of the university.

The scholarship committee, consisting of Dorothy King '25, Margaret Meyer '25, and Ruth Hewitt '26 was organized by S. G. A. recently, for the purpose of finding causes of low scholastic averages among the women students of the university.

Questionnaires as to the condition of houses and school and social activities of women students were sent to all sorority and rooming houses.

Delta Gamma sorority was given first place of the sororities and Miss Mathilda Toepfer's rooming house, 209 N. Murray street of the unorganized houses.

"The fact that sorority averages were higher on the whole than those of rooming houses proves that organization and supervised study help a great deal," said Dorothy King, chairman of the committee yesterday. "The statistics prove that there is a need of closer organization and supervision of freshman women who have not yet learned how to study or utilize their time."

SEEK BEST FISH TO STOCK BADGER LAKES

Prof. George Kemmerer, of the chemistry department, and Prof. Chauncey Juday, lecturer in zoology, left Monday for northern Wisconsin to determine the species of fish best adapted for planting in the lakes of Vilas county.

By going early in the season they will be able to finish their study before the growth of vegetation in the lakes. Little was known until recently about the chemical and physical changes which take place

Wisconsin Death Rate Lower This Year Than Last

The death rate has dropped in Wisconsin to such an extent that there are 1,488 fewer deaths in three months this year than in the same period of 1923, according to the quarterly figures of the state board of health. Only 390 influenza cases were reported as compared with 9,493 for the first quarter of 1923.

Total deaths in the recent period were 7,536 giving a rate of 10.9 per thousand people, which is considered a normal rate.

Important causes of death included pulmonary tuberculosis 377; other tuberculosis 56; typhoid fever 8; diphtheria 67; scarlet fever 83; measles 40; whooping cough 45; pneumonia 887.

Deaths from violence were listed as follows: suicide 77; accidental falls 54; accidental burns 26; automobiles, 17; railroad accidents 27; homicide 9; freezing 9; machinery 7; street cars 7; carbon monoxide poisoning 8; accidental gunshot wounds 6; drowning 8; injury by animals 5; accidental poisoning 6; coasting accidents 2; moonshine poisoning 3; conflagration 1; dynamite explosion 1; lead poisoning 1.

ELECT SPORER HEAD OF FORENSIC BOARD

At a meeting of Forensic board yesterday Harold E. Sporer '25 was elected president, George J. Fiedler '25, vice-president, Glenn Beil '25, treasurer and Martha Drymple '25, secretary. The board also definitely decided to hold the reading of Stanley Houghton's "The Younger Generation" to be read by Phid-elah Rice, in the gymnasium, so that the crowd might be accommodated.

in a lake. Still less was known about the effect of these changes on the animal and plant life of the lake.

About 20 years ago, President Birge, then professor of zoology, started such a study of Lake Mendota. Later the work was extended to more than 200 Wisconsin lakes. A similar study of lakes was carried on by the United States bureau of fisheries in other states.

School on Ocean Vessel Is Plan of Eastern Professor

How would you like to attend a university on an ocean liner, exploring sultry, exotic harbors of the East, studying biology in the Galapagos Islands with William Beebe, ancient history in Egypt, French in Paris and art in Athens?

The object of education heretofore has always been to bring the world to the student. A plan is now being proposed to bring the student to the world.

Dean James E. Lough, director of the extra-mural division of New York university, who is attending the ninth annual conference of the National University Extension association, is the moving spirit in this unique enterprise.

The plans, which are not yet definite, are to buy the shipping board liner President Arthur. It will have a faculty chosen from different universities and 450 students.

"It is our belief that the floating university, carrying 450 alert, upstanding American youths, will be a sort of ambassador of friendliness in the ports of the Old World," Dr. Lough stated. "We shall go in all humility, in the spirit of learning, with the main purpose of studying the customs, the appearance and the background of the strange peoples of the world."

Although a rigorous schedule of instruction will be carried out, as exacting as that of the finest land university, relief will be afforded through athletics and entertainments. Navy-type cutters will be taken along and races arranged at every port of call. On board there will be motion picture shows, a student band, orchestra and glee club, dramatic clubs, and dancing.

The Old World universities and foreign capitals will provide formal receptions, and it is hoped, will lend their aid to the expedition. Wherever possible courtesies will be repaid by social events on board.

The fee will be $2,000, the trip lasting nine months. Such educators as Pres. Charles W. Eliot of Harvard have heartily endorsed the scheme and Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, has signified the navy's interest. Dr. Lough and those interested with him are awaiting the formation of a corporation before embarking on a campaign for the money.

OCONTO — Charles Epawler, 68, chairman of the town of Oconto, died at his home.

CHADBOURNE REVIEW TO BE ISSUED JUNE 1

The Review includes snaps, accounts of spreads, corridor stories, and something about every girl in the hall.

ANNOUNCE WINNER OF COMMERCIAL CONTEST

Colley, a member of the senior class of Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va. Hempstead S. Bull, a graduate student of the University of Michigan, received second prize. The first two prizes were for $100 and $50 respectively.

How the Warner System Saves Money for Fraternities

Twenty-five of the merchants of Madison are at present giving cash discounts to fraternities in the System for payments within ten days. The System is able to effect still further savings with its large purchases made directly from wholesale dealers.

The co-operative bargaining of the System gives it power to practically force the giving of such discounts. A report of all discounts received is included in the monthly statement submitted to the fraternity.

The discounts received last year by seventeen fraternities in the System amounted to $3,367.75.

All Football Men to Meet Last Time in Gym Tonight

There will be a meeting for all football men including the frosh in the Gym Thursday night at 7:15 o'clock. It is very important that all the men be present as this will probably be the last meeting of the year for the gridiron men.

Football practice will continue until a week from Saturday and all the men are urged to come out every day from now on as this is the most part of the whole practice sessions.

From now on the time will be devoted to tackling and possibly some scrimmage work. Then the drills will be discontinued in order that the men will have time to prepare for the final exams in June. Coach Ryan wants every man to be eligible for practice next fall.

TENNIS TOURNEY
AWARDS CHANGED

Winners in Doubles and Singles to Get Racquets Instead of Medals

A change has been made in the awards to be given to the winners of the all-university tennis tournament which was announced in yesterday's Cardinal. Instead of medals, tennis rackets will go to the championship coppers in the doubles and singles.

Any student may enter in the competition. Registration may be made with Proc Wright or John Petaja in Joe Steinauer's gym office where the regular signing for the student courts are made. The hours are 8 to 9 o'clock, 12 to 1:20, and 3:30 to 6 o'clock on any week day. No entry fee is charged in the all-university tournament.

Play on the student courts was formerly open mornings only on Sundays. It was announced at the gym yesterday, however, that from now on students may sign for the courts for Saturday mornings as well as for Sunday mornings.

Entries for the tournament will be open for the rest of the week and perhaps the first few days of next week. After May 22 the varsity courts will be available for play as Wisconsin's intercollegiate schedule will be finished by that date.

The Sling Shot

The editor of the only morning paper in Madison, a city of fifty thousand, 'lows as how David and Goliath aint no fit name to be attached to a classy column like we aims to put out, and so we mananimously agrees to sign ourselves as Mac and Bob.

Teckemeyer says that Dad Vail said just the meanest things to him the other day when he bent one of the out-riggers on the new shell.

Johnson, who storkes this year's varsity and was captain of last year's outfit, is said to be the best crewman ever turned out at Wisconsin. When Wisconsin rowed against Washington last year, Rusty Callow, the western coach, named Johnson as the best oarsman on the lake. In view of the fact that Walling, the Washington stroke, was the best at Poughkeepsie last year, this is no mean praise.

Persistent rumor has it that Marke, who starred for Cedar Rapids last fall at a halfback position, will enter Wisconsin next September. He was the premier prep gridman of the past year, and also was present at the recent Badger relays.

Having secured a canoe of our own, and having learned to coax music from the reluctant strings of an Hawaiian guitar we considered ourselves all set for the spring campaign. Now we are undecided who to sue for the belated April showers.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE STEW PORTER CUP

For a long time Mr. Porter has sought some fitting way of recognizing extra-curricular activities among fraternities of the opposite sex. After consulting with Benny Harmon it was decided to offer a traveling trophy to that group which should best exemplify the ideals of Benny and Stew. Their ideals are typified by the motto "there are no quitters at Wisconsin." Mr. Porter has decided that this trophy will travel no farther than the "Alley." Accordingly a close watch will be kept on all of these places and the results announced from time to time. The award will be made on the following basis: number and variety of dates and size and number of cellar gang. All groups are so evenly matched that there can be no favorite. The perpetrator of this column declines to forecast a winner but personal interviews with any of the contestants are welcomed. The only near rival of this event will be the Kentucky Derby. Remember girls Stewart is watching!

Johnson and Luther Pitch For Badgers; Eklund Gets Homer

(Special to The Cardinal)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 14. —In a slow game played on a wet diamond immediately following a rain, Wisconsin's cracker-jack nine defeated the Gophers on Northrop field yesterday afternoon 13 to 5. The Badgers hit three Minnesota pitchers for 13 safties. Every man on the Wisconsin team made a hit.

Johnson started the game for Wisconsin in the box, but after a bad session in the third-inning withdrew in favor of Luther who allowed only 3 runs to get over the plate, one of them being a homer by Eklund who drove a man in ahead of him.

Wisconsin started the ball rolling in the second inning, scoring five tallies. In the fourth they again went wild and chalked up four more. The rest of their scores were scattered out one apiece over the fifth, sixth, eighth and ninth innings.

Minnesota drew first blood in the third inning when Johnson walked the bases full and then scored a man with another pass. The Gophers took two more that inning; and then went scoreless until the eighth when Eklund's homer brought in two more.

FROSH RUNNERS MEET
ILLINI BY TELEGRAPH

Wisconsin's freshman track team will compete against Illinois in a telegraphic track meet at Camp Randall this afternoon.

The first year tracksters have put in several weeks of hard training and expect to make a good account of themselves in their first telegraphic meet of the season.

Although Illinois has several individual stars in the running events, the Badger freshmen hope to count up enough points in every event to give them a win.

"THE YOUNGER GENERATION"

Five or six years ago an interesting discussion and debate was being carried on in one of America's foremost magazines over the matter of the younger generations versus the older generation. It attracted nation wide attention. Every now and then we hear of another putbreak on this subject. It would be only natural that a the seat of a state university much comment would be made on the differences of the two generations, on the war that is going on quietly or noisily as the case may be between the two.

Students are condemned for their frivolous characters, are said to be going straight to the demnition bow-wows. They in turn condemn the older generation for having made a general mess of running the world's affairs, for having acted not better in their own youth than the members of the younger generation are acting now, for constantly misjudging the youngsters, for making mountains out of mole-hills, for being narrow-minded and so on and so on. It is all of it a war of misunderstandings and petty tomfoolery. It has probably been going on since Cain first disobeyed papa and will probably continue to go on until the heavens fall.

Just what Phidelah Rice will give on the subject tonight when he reads a play called "The Younger Generation" in the gymnasium is a question. But aside from his being a great speaker and a reader of national repute, he is a master of the art of entertainment, and his reading will doubtless be of great interest to a student body.

THE HALL OF FAME

Wisconsin has its hall of fame, the Phi Beta Kappa tablet, the Badger ace section, the Tau Beta Pi honor roll or what you will. Tuesday six new names were added to the national hall of fame at Columbia university. Purely an arbitrary matter, is this hall of fame as is any, but it is interesting to note what the newly elected did to achieve the honor. The six are Samuel Clemens (and who has not read at least his "Huckleberry Finn," and his "Tom Sawyer?"); James Buchanan Eads, to whom every St. Louis visitor pays respect when he gazes on the bridge across the Mississippi; Andrew Jackson, the great frontier president; William Thomas Green Morton, who made dentistry less painful and first used ether as an anaesthetic; Joseph Henry, the inventor of the electro-magnet and one of the greatest physicists America has produced; and Alice Freeman Palmer, a pioneer in the field of education and president of Wellesley college.

The busts of four other great figures in American history were also unveiled Tuesday, but they were of men who had been elected before—John Adams, Phillips Brooks, Peter Cooper and Thomas Jefferson.

Review of Building History Explains Conditions Here

BY GEORGE CHANDLER
(Secretary of the Faculty)

Constructed in 1857, increased in capacity in 1900 and 1906 by the addition of the south and north wings respectively, damaged by fire in 1916—such, in brief, is the history of the principal building of the university, known for over 60 years as Main hall, or University hall, and officially dedicated in 1921 as Bascom hall in honor of John Bascom, an early president of the institution. Bascom is not an old building, as college buildings go on older campuses; neither is it the oldest on our campus, North and South halls having been built in 1851 and 1855 respectively. But of course its construction is not of the most modern type and it is no longer adequate for the use to which circumstances require it to be put.

In 1917 a safety survey of the whole University was made by experts from the State Engineer's office who recommended a number of changes in the older buildings, namely Music, Chadbourne, North, South, and Bascom halls. Music hall was partly remodeled a number of years ago and plans for further extensive improvements have been under consideration for some time; Chadbourne was given a thorough overhauling two years ago, North hall was remodeled five years ago, and South hall will undergo alteration beginning about June 15 of this year. The changes are principally concerned with reducing the fire hazard in these old buildings, the plan being to install fireproof staircases and stairwells on the theory that persons should use in an emergency the means of exit with which they are already familiar, instead of searching for a hidden fire-escape and groping or climbing down its unaccustomed steel treads. Additional fire-escapes for Bascom hall have, however, been recently authorized, this is to provide for current emergencies.

Funds for taking care of expensive alterations are not easily secured and consequently only a little work is done at a time, as funds of appropriate amount become available. For several years there was a large item in the university budget for the complete remodeling of the central or original part of Bascom hall, including the construction of a new dome to replace the one destroyed by fire and the fireproofing of stairwells, but this has lately been replaced by an item providing $400,000 for the erection of a very considerable addition to the west of the present structure.

With the failure of the whole educational budget bill to pass the 1923 legislature, the special request for this last-named purpose was also lost, although it would undoubtedly have been allowed if the bill as a whole had not been killed. The university administration now faces the task of re-convincing the legislature which will convene this coming winter and, if success attends these efforts, it may be supposed that funds will actually be available sometime in 1926 for our present urgent needs.

There are now housed in Bascom hall, in addition to such administrative offices as those of the president, registrar, secretary of the faculty, committee on high school relations, bureau of educational research, and dean of the graduate school, the general offices of nine instructional departments, including the two largest in the whole university, English and romance languages. There are also 43 classrooms ranging in capacity from 12 or 15 up to 353, with a combined capacity of about 2600, as well as a multitude of small private offices, storerooms, etc.

In 1917, when Sterling hall (the last piece of new construction of any importance) was completed, the university attendance was about 5000, whereas since that time with virtually no additional space for instructional purposes, there has been an increase of 60% in enrollment. This accounts for the present cramped conditions, for a scarcity of classrooms always means either the spread of instruction over more hours of the day or else larger classes, or both—and both are undesirable from the point of view of maximum efficiency in education.

With the growth of the student body there comes a demand not only for more classrooms, but for more space in which to handle and file the increased number and steadily accumulating volume of records, and for additional offices to care for an augmented instructional staff. Little used rooms of all sorts—cloakrooms, closets, seminary rooms, reading rooms, etc.—have therefore been taken over for the purposes mentioned above. In certain cases it has even been necessary to remodel rather gloomy and poorly ventilated portions of the basement in order to meet the pressing demand for laboratory and storage space. Convenience has of necessity been sacrificed, especially in the case of the speech department which has its quarters distributed over the basement and second and fourth floors.

When it was discovered that only a very few students were making use of the cloakrooms, these rooms were gradually turned over for more pressing purposes. There is no type of lock-hook which provides any real protection.

The dogwood barked in the pig-weed's ear
As they stood together;
The horseradish said to the cow-pea near;

The catnip sprang, but the bird-seed flew,
And the cowslip caused wet mud to fly
In the sweetcorn's ear and the white spud's eye.

Then the dogwood barked at the pigweed's ear
Till the squeal was echoed far and near,
On the summer breeze, that chanced to pass,
Stamped a head of elephant grass.

The Reader's Say-So

PRaises EDITORIALS

Editor, The Cardinal:

I should like to tell you that I have enjoyed reading the editorials in the Cardinal during the present academic year. I can heartily congratulate you upon the excellent writing which has been exhibited in these editorials. I think they have been, alike in respect to their content and their style, distinctly to the credit of the persons who have written them.

I am confident that I am not overstating the case when I say that the Cardinal editorials would do credit to some of the pretentious newspapers that devote a good deal of attention and attach much importance to their editorial columns.

M. V. O'SHEA.

SONGS BY GRAD TO BE SUNG AT MUSIC CONVO

Songs written by Winifred Ryan, graduate student of the School of Music, will be sung by Katherine Reid '25, at the convention of the State Federation of Music clubs, at Waukesha May 22. Miss Ryan was formerly organist at St. John's Episcopal church, Wausau. She is now a pupil of Cecil Burleigh of the music school faculty.

Clarence Lalley. A musical program has been planned.

PIONEER CLUB

Because of the Mortar board supper the Freshman Pioneer club will not meet tonight.

ATHLETIC REVIEW STAFF

Several workers are needed to help on the interscholastic program. This will be a good opportunity for underclassmen to try for the business staff for next year. Call Al Tucker, B. 195.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL FAVORS NEW PIER

"Shoot-the-Shoots," Diving Boards and Towers Com- prise Equipment

The Athletic council has under consideration plans for a new bathing pier to be constructed at the boat house. Estimates have been submitted and the plans are in the hands of the architect. As soon as the plans are finished they will be given to the Board of Regents for approval and then construction will begin immediately.

This new pier will be superior to any that is at present on the lake and with its new modern equipment will add greatly to bathing facilities. The pier will extend 130 feet out into the lake and will end in a wide platform which will be equipped with two high diving towers, four spring boards and a water chute. The two diving towers one at the two outer corners of the pier, will be 20 feet high with small platforms at varying heights for divers too timid to venture to the top.

The water shoot the shoots will be a novel feature of the new pier. At other resorts the chutes have always proved to be a favorite attraction of swimmers both young and old.

Construction will begin immediately following the approval of the plans and it is hoped that the pier will be completed in time for use by Venetian night and for the spring regatta. If this can be accomplished the new pier will add greatly to the festivities and the diving events will probably be held there.

SENIORS HAVE 33 DAYS TO COMPLETE THESES

Only 33 days remain before theses are due. All senior papers must be in at the library not later than June 17, the Tuesday before graduation.

Take the "before Christmas" motto, engage your typist early, and avoid the rush during the last week of school, this is the advice issued to all seniors from the registrar's office.

After theses are in the proper form to be submitted for final consideration they should be taken to the desk at the Historical library where they will be bound and filed. Payment of fees for theses should be made at the bursar's office prior to handing them in at the library.

SENIORS ORDER 800 GOWNS FROM CO-OP

The Co-op is still receiving orders for caps and gowns. Although 800 have been ordered, seniors are urged to place their orders as soon as possible if they wish delivery before commencement.

COURSES BY RADIO IN FUTURE--LIGHTY

Station WHA Interprets Life of Students to Home Folks

Radio programs arranged by the Extension division interpret the daily life of the students and take it to the people at home rather than furnish these people with academic courses. William H. Lighty of the Extension division explained yesterday.

"Radio audiences are still too much in a state of flux to encourage us to teach Latin and history by wireless," Professor Lighty said. "Some day a definite program of broadcasting may enable us to do so, but that is far in the future."

"Music appreciation and radio code instruction are two courses we gave, but most of the educational lectures are individuals. Some colleges give regular credit courses under special regulations."

"The radio shares with every listener in the lectures of prominent visitors, band concerts, student music recitals and other benefits of university life. This side of a student's life is not known or appreciated by most people."

REPUBLICAN CLUB IS POPULAR IN COLLEGES

WASHINGTON, May 12—Nearly every college and university in the country will soon have a student Republican club, the college bureau of the Republican national committee announced today. With 150 clubs already joining in the movement to arouse undergraduate interest in national affairs and Republican party principles, the bureau will now extend organization to approximately 500 other colleges and secondary schools.

PLAN FROSH AND
SOPH BALL GAMEArrangements Not Completed;
Combacker Has Promising
First Year Team

The frosh ball team is fast rounding into shape and Coach Cambacker expects to have a real team on the field when the frosh mix with the sophs. Arrangements are being made for the annual mix-up. The team is working daily at Randall. The frosh mix with the Varsity three times a week and are responsible for rounding the big boys into shape.

Because of the hard workouts that will be handed out now on Coach Cambacker will not let any of the men play on fraternity teams in the future. He said that this held especially for pitchers because he needed all the possible strength he could get in this department.

There are about sixteen men who look like possible Varsity material for next year. The most likely looking men are Barnum, catcher, Edwards and Stoll, pitchers, Donagon, Tyle, Tyke, infielders and Novotny and Hawley, outfielders.

The team will elect a captain early next week. The frosh will probably play the Varsity as soon as they come home from Minnesota and several more times before the next game.

The semi-annual meeting of the University of Wisconsin Scout club will be held at 5 o'clock Sunday May 25 at Eagle Heights. The executive committee in charge of arrangements includes Irvin Aron '26, chairman; Orville Schoerke '27, who is an eagle scout and Barkhausen '27, who is a veteran scout.

SAVE $42,000 IN LIGHT RATE CUT

Madison Gas and Electric Company Announces New Schedule

Gas and electric consumers in Madison will receive an annual saving of $42,000 on a rate cut agreed to between the city and the Madison Gas and Electric Co., on a new schedule of rate announced Wednesday and to become effective after the next reading of the meters.

The reduction will probably give the city the lowest electric rate in the United States and the lowest gas rate in the state outside of Milwaukee and Superior, Roman A. Heilman, city attorney, said Wednesday.

The reduced rates will mean a reduction of 15 cents on gas and 10 cents on electric current used per month or a total saving to consumers of 25 cents per month. This will mean a saving of $3 a year to each consumer on both electric and gas rates.

There will be a saving of one cent on the primary rates in the electrical department.

The rates are being reduced from 8 cents, 6 cents and 2 cents, to 7 cents, 6 cents and 2 cents, which will mean an aggregate reduction of $22,339.35, based on the business figures of the company for 1923. The street arc lights will be reduced $3,976. The all night all year lamps for which the city now pays $58 a year will be reduced by $6. All other lights will be reduced $2 except the bridge lights which are on a special rating.

The saving on the gas rate will be .05 on the first 1,000 cubic feet, an actual reduction from $1.15 to $1.10 net. The rate on the second 1,000 cubic feet will be reduced 10 cents or from $1.15 to $1.05. The new rate will be $1.10 on the first 1,000 cubic feet and $1.05 cents on the next 1,000 cubic feet. The total reduction on the gas consumed will be $15,500.90.

NORWEGIAN-AMERICANS PLAN BIG CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION FOR 1925

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Through the northwest, where the Norwegian strain makes up a large proportion of the population, the celebration on May 17 of "Constitution Day"—sometimes called the "Norwegian Fourth of July," will have unusual significance this year. For in reality the celebration will be a sort of curtain-raiser for the greatest Norwegian festival ever held in the United States—the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the first boatload of Norse pilgrims to America—which will be held at Minneapolis June 7, 8 and 9 of next year.

Norwegians from all parts of the world will gather here.

First and foremost of the visitors will be Crown Prince Olaf of Norway, who is coming to America specially for this occasion. Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the famous explorer and Nobel prize winner, and other persons of world prominence will also be present. There will be the athletic contests between Norwegian-American colleges and other institutions and a great pageant depicting the history of the Norse immigrants in America.

It is customary in Minneapolis, which is the greatest Norwegian center in the new world, to decorate the statue of Ole Bull, the great Norwegian violinist. There always has been singing in front of the statue and afterward the celebration is completed in the Armory.

Decoration of Ole Bull's statue has a double significance. He was one of Norway's greatest musicians, and he also was an American citizen, for he took out citizenship papers and spent about half of his mature life in this country. He always returned to Norway, however, for the 17th of May celebration, which marks the adoption of the constitution of Norway by the representatives elected by the people at Eidsvold on May 17, 1814.

Norway until that time had been a province of Denmark, and when the treaty of Kiel, after the Napoleonic wars, Denmark ceded Norway to Sweden as a province, the people arose and declared their independence. As a result of later had left him at the corner of State and Lake streets on the return home, could not be shaken in his account of the victim's motives or absence of motives for turning down Lake street instead of continuing on to Murray, the avenue upon which he lived.

POWERS AWAITS ACTION BY STATE

Charge of First Degree Man- slaughter Expected in Posepny Death

Pliers Clue Fails

The so-called pliers angle of the case could not stand up under the evidence in spite of Attorney Gilbert's efforts to attach some importance to the incident of finding a pair of pliers lying in the grass close to the spot where the boy was slain. Powers could not say, to the best of his opinion whether the pliers might belong to him or not, but he admitted having worked around in the yard during the day of the shooting.

Important witnesses whose testimony may hold great weight in determining the justifiability of the slaying are still awaiting call. The importance of the testimony of Einar Tangen '26, of Two Rivers, who was said to have met and talked with Posepny after the latter had left Martell at State street, is believed to have diminished after Tangen's friends reported that he had denied the fact before leaving for Minneapolis with the baseball squad.

Mrs. Powers Testifies

A third witness called to the stand was Mrs. Patrick Powers, wife of the officer. Although she claimed to be very nervous over the presence of a man lurking behind a tree in front of her window, Mrs. Powers testified that she did not speak to her son Leo to inform him of her fears when he entered the front door and called to her as he climbed the stairs to his room.

She stated that there was no chance of error in identifying the victim as the same man she had watched from her window before she called her husband. Mrs. Powers' statement that Posepny carried something over his left arm disagreed with her husband's testimony that the coat was on the right arm. According to Martell, Posepny was carrying home a yellow slicker which had been borrowed by the former from someone at the rooming house where he lived.

Attempts to show that there was a possibility of Posepny's having intended cutting through the Powers' premises in order to save time on the way home brought nothing but the fact that no convenient passageway offered any such opportunity.

Roomers Heard No Noise

Frank Bliss, a roomer occupying the corner of the house to the south of the Powers' residence, gave testimony in a sharp and straightforward tone that startled the court room, which had been straining its ears to catch the words of previous witnesses. His statements as well as his tone of uttering them caused to jury to take careful notice, for he emphatically denied having heard any sound from the officer's yard prior to the noise of the falling garbage can and the single shot which followed almost immediately.

Questioning brought out the fact that Bliss was in the act of opening the second of two windows in his room when the shooting occurred. He stated that almost the whole of the Powers' back yard was visible from his window in the day time. Failure of Bliss to hear the officer's command of "Halt" unquestionably will carry with it considerable importance in the prosecution, if there is one.

When asked why he did not dress and go down to investigate the cause of the shooting, after he had realized something was wrong, Bliss declared.

Bliss Amuses Court

"If there was any shooting going on, I was going to stay away." This reply and the emphasis that was behind it caused the spectators some amusement for a few moments. Immediately the gravity of the situation took hold of the affair again, and the investigation was resumed.

John Arnold, ambulance driver, Dr. W. W. Gill, and F. L. Fischer, roommate of the dead student were the only other witnesses questioned. Before the court adjourned, Patrick Powers was called to the stand again and given a brief examination.

The oral combat between Attor-

Faculty to Meet in Barnyard Golf Tourney Next Week

Faculty members are going to revert to the olden days.

The F. H. P. C., or in other words the Faculty Horseshoe Pitching congress, is slated to begin action early next week on the courts which have been laid out between the gym and the Y. M. C. A.

So far, four squads have entered the barnyard golf competition. These are the agricultural chemistry department team captained by Prof. C. A. Elvehjem, the animal husbandry department team headed by Prof. J. M. Fargo, the Medical School aggregation led by Dr. T. H. Bast, and the athletic department squad, headed by Coach George Berg.

"Entries may still be made by any faculty department wishing to place a team in the field," said George Berg yesterday. "But Saturday will be the last day open as the first match will be scheduled for the first part of next week."

Members of the four teams which have entered follow:

Athletic department—G. Berg, J. J. Ryan, T. E. Jones.

Animal husbandry—G. C. Humphrey, J. G. Fuller, R. S. Hulce, A. O. Collentine, S. D. Simms, H. J. Brant, F. B. Morrison, A. W. Lathrop.

NEED 400 ROOMS FOR PREP MEN

Letters Sent to Fraternities Asking Aid in Housing Men

Rooms are needed for more than 400 high school delegates to the Interscholastic track meet which will be held here, May 31, in connection with Venetian night, according to an announcement made last night, by Paul Faust '26, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Only 75 men have been provided with rooms so far. More than 60 high schools will be represented at the meet. A second set of letters urging fraternities to assist with placing the men has been sent out.

"Wisconsin spirit demands that every fraternity take an interest in providing rooms for the delegates," Faust said. "It's up to us to interest the high school students coming to Wisconsin and it will give us a chance to look out for athletic material for next year."

Faust is being assisted on the entertainment committee by James Heldreth '26, Paul Smith '26, Harley Gates '26, Irving Clendennin '27, Cliff Huff '26, Stan McGivern '26, Ralph Jacobs '26, Mat Walrich '26, Fred Stemm '26 and Paul McFadden '26.

VERHAEGHE STARS IN FRENCH CLUB PLAY

The difficult role of an imaginary invalid was successfully enacted by Eugene Verhaeghe, grad, at the annual presentation of the French club last night in Lathrop concert room. "Le Malade Imaginaire" was the production put on with a cast selected from students prominent in the French club.

Beatrice Wadleigh '25 took the part of Toinette with equal skill. The humor of the piece was furnished by the part of Diaforirus acted by George Darby '25.

Adrienne Hecht '26, played the part of the daughter of Argan, the imaginary invalid. Others in the cast were Louis Mallory '25, as Purgon, Joseph Taussig '27, as Flurant, Elton Hocking '25, as Cleant, Veclav Strela '25, as Beralde, Kathleen Munn '25, as Aline, and Earl Morse '27, as the notary Bonne Foi.

ney Gilbert, representing Powers and Dr. C. H. Bunting furnished the only bit of real thrill that came from the investigation of the coroner's jury.

Two hundred students who stood throughout the entire proceedings, anxious to see the course of the investigation, were amused to see Dr. Bunting pull a familiar blue book out of his pocket and read his report from the notes he had taken during his examination.

PLAYERS GET USE OF RARE POSTERS

Will Make Part of Setting in Comedy to Be Given Tomorrow

Posters which have been imported from London by the university museum are to be used to cover the walls of the restaurant in which "The Crimson Cocoon" one of the three one-act comedies to be presented tomorrow night by the University Players is set.

The scene of the play is a restaurant in Soho, the Bohemian district of London. The posters, which will decorate the walls, have been in the museum for some time.

They are extremely rare, for very few of their kind have come into the country, according to Ben Weeding '26, stage manager for the University Players.

William "Shorty" Ross '21, who has been active in theatricals on the campus for several years, will take the chief comedy role in "The Crimson Cocoon". As the old, blustering father of the heroine, this Mr. Jabstick does nothing but bawl out the waiter and crab everything in sight. Although nothing at all seems to please him, he is at heart a good fellow.

George "Shorty" Walsted '25 takes the part of a bomb throwing anarchist, a real proletarian, who plots to blow up the bank of England. Both he and his wife are the most foreign of the foreign with all the temperament that goes along with that characterization.

A large part of the seats were sold at the hill sale yesterday but more will be on sale at the door of Lathrop concert room where the plays will be given on the hill today. They are 50 cents apiece. The plays will start at 8 o'clock.

W. A. A. BENEFIT MOVIE DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

The W. A. A. benefit movie "The White Sister", now showing at the Parkway theater, is realizing more on the sale of benefit tickets than any other benefit movie given this spring, according to W. D. Nealand theater manager.

"The reason for the popularity of these benefit tickets, he said is that they were printed at the regular prices before the high price of the film made it necessary for the Parkway to raise the general prices to forty and fifty cents.

W. A. A. was able to get its benefit tickets at thirty-five and forty cents, consequently, and this fact greatly added to the sales.
