UNION DRIVE WITH CHICAGO NETS RESULTS

Alumni Show Enthusiasm
Which Equals That Displayed Last Fall

ADD TO SUBSCRIPTIONS

That Chicago alumni are showing an enthusiasm for the Memorial Union campaign equal to that displayed on the campus last fall, is the statement of Prof. E. H. Gardner, who with Dean Goodnight has been in Chicago during the past week to start the work.

Double Subscriptions

Following the play, "On Wisconsin" given Wednesday night, a group of prominent alumni met and decided to double their former subscriptions. Among those who have thus doubled are Kemper Knapp, $2250, Israel Shrimski, $1350, George Haight, $1350, Fred Silber, $600, John Lord, $500. A large number of the younger alumni have given amounts varying from $100 to $250.

Have Disadvantage

"It seems probable," says Prof. Gardner, "that over 1700 Wisconsin alumni are in Chicago. No attempt has been made until the present campaign to keep track of the location of former students, so that Wisconsin is at a disadvantage in this regard as compared with other universities, with Michigan for example, which locates non-graduates and graduates alike. The Wisconsin club of Chicago, however, has compiled a list of over 1700 correct addresses."

Urge Appropriation

The alumni association, according to Robert Crawford, secretary of the association, keeps an up-to-date list of its own membership of 7000, and has long urged the regents to set aside a small sum for keeping similar track of all former students. If this is not now done, much of the value of the work accomplished during the campaign will be lost for the future.

As evidence of the interest taken by Wisconsin men and women in their Alma Mater, two dinners are being arranged for next week because of the desire of different groups to see the new three-reel moving picture, which already has been shown once in Chicago. It is possible that two other dinners will

Pistol Team May Take Part In Meet

As a result of its victory over the Iowa pistol team in a telegraphic meet Saturday, the Badger pistol team has been asked by Lt. Col. Morton C. Mumma, head of the annual national pistol competition and coach of the Iowa pistol team, to take part in the national match which will be held at Camp Perry, Ohio, this summer.

In a letter to Major Ward, instructor in pistol shooting here, Colonel Mumma said, "I tell you that team of yours can win the National pistol team match at Camp Perry if they can duplicate what they have just made. The score of the winning team last year, the U. S. Marine corps, does not equal it."

The score in the Iowa match of a possible 1,400 was Wisconsin, 1,288, to Iowa's 1,229. The individual score of Wisconsin men was, R. B. Russell '23, captain, 258; H. N. Tofton '24, manager, 260; J. P. Jones '22, 268; B. K. Breed '24, 265; D. E. Aultman '24, 237.

Colonel Mumma's letter has aroused enthusiasm among members of the pistol team, but it has not yet decided whether to accept the invitation.

Wooded Hills and Sylvan Parks Form Appeal In May Mag

Illustrated with rare photos of scenic beauty, and replete with classic descriptions of beautiful lakes, cool wooded hills, and sylvan parks, the "Wisconsin Beautiful" number of the Country magazine, which appears on the campus Tuesday morning, will appeal to all true lovers of nature.

Ghosts of the Tay-cho-pe-rah, by Hyman Smith, is one of the illustrated articles in the May number of the magazine. From the dome of Wisconsin's state capitol, he tells the tourists of romantic beauty spots that may be seen in the surrounding country.

Continuing the theme of "See Wisconsin First," John S. Donald, former secretary of state, makes an appeal to "Preserve the State Parks for Everybody."

"Outing for Busy People," by Mrs. O. P. Watts, gives the naturalist some reminiscences of hikes among the natural beauties of the Dells of Wisconsin. Beautiful illustrations intensify the vividness of her descriptions.

The Wisconsin Beautiful number of the magazine is designed to appeal to the home lover as well as the tourist. R. G. Packer, director of immigration, portrays the great opportunities that Wisconsin still offers to the settlers who are seeking a home.

Attractively illustrated articles on "Equipment for Out of Doors," by Jessie Morton '23, "Preserve the Native Shade Trees," by Marion Benedict '23, "The Highway System in Wisconsin," by F. A. Cannon, non, of the good roads commission, "Fish Stories," by R. F. Balliette '23, "Native Flowers," by Iona Irish '23, "Wisconsin's Climate," by E. A. Woelfer '22, "Deer Hunting in the Northern Woods," by Albert Fiedler, completes the accounts of Wisconsin's beauty spots.

Prof. Commons is New Head of Artus

Prof. John R. Commons of the department of economics was elected grand master of the order of Artus, honorary economics fraternity, at the closing session of the national convention in Sterling hall last night.

Other new officers are: Herbert F. Boettler, St. Louis, grand master of the round table; Arthur J. Altmeier, secretary of the Wisconsin industrial commission, grand master of the rolls; Prof. R. C. Walsh, Iowa university, chancellor of the exchequer; Prof. William H. Kiehoffer, Wisconsin, grand councillor.

Delegates from the various chapters were guests of Alpha chapter of Wisconsin. The convention, the first of its kind in the history of Artus, was successful in further uniting the chapter and making possible an unprecedent future expansion throughout the country.

General Bell Will Review R. O. T. C. Unit

Major General George S. Bell, U. S. A. will review the University, R. O. T. C. unit and take part in the Memorial Day exercises to be given by the military department on May 30.

The cadets will be put through drill exercises and a parade in memory of United States soldiers and sailors who lost their lives in service.

The R. O. T. C. unit held their final drill and review Friday afternoon in preparation for the general staff inspection next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday to determine whether Wisconsin will retain its distinguished college rating. Only about 15 universities and colleges are awarded distinguished rating each year. Wisconsin received the distinguished rating in 1914, 1915, 1916, and 1921.

Colonel Mumma's letter has aroused enthusiasm among members of the pistol team, but it has not yet decided whether to accept the invitation.

Flashing Beacons Brighten Shores at Water Spectacle

A flood of light will brighten the shores of Mendota and each float in the Venetian night water spectacle will be covered with myriads of flashing beacons on the night of the 28th annual Interscholastic track and field meet, which will be held here on May 27.

An electric lighting system is being prepared by a committee of engineers under Raymond L. Paulus '22. Generators will be set up on the shore and on barges so that flood lights can keep every event of the night well lighted. Banks and piers will be decorated in various color effects. Two prizes will be given for the best decorated piers. Powerful spotlights will be turned on a barge on which a program of water stunts will be given. Power for the floats will be furnished from the tow boat.

The lighting system is intended to replace the fire works, which will not be offered this year because of the risk involved.

Dance Drama to Be Held at Open Air Theater on May 26

The Dance Drama will be given in the open air theatre in back of Bascom hall following the senior swingout, Friday evening. The drama is being given under the personal supervision of Miss Margaret H'Doubler, and about thirty university women will appear in the program.

This year the big number on the program will be the Tapestry of Time. The Harlequinade will be repeated by request, and besides two solo dances, among the other numbers will be the Greed of King Midas, the Fairy Thorn, Jack in the Box, and two group dances, Question Mark, Period, and Exclamation Point, and Love Riches, and Youth.

The Dance Drama is given only for girls, but men will enjoy the program just as much as girls, and this year they are especially invited to come.

All seats in the theater will be reserved, tickets selling for $1.00. They will be on sale at the University Pharmacy, Lathrop hall and Bascom hall a week before the drama.

Varsity Quartet Serenades Friday

The Varsity quartet will give its first annual Sunset Serenade at the open air theater behind Bascom hall on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

A program of the best available serenade songs has been obtained and prepared for presentation. Most of the numbers, several of which have been composed by members of the quartet, have never been heard here before. The program will be of an hour's duration.

Noel H. Stearns, graduate and director, will sing the first tenor part. Earl B. Brown, grad, second tenor; Thomas L. Dartnell '23, baritone; and Whitford L. Huff '23, are the other members of the quartet. Paul Sanders '22 is pianist.

Since January, the quartet has been on a tour of Wisconsin and northern Illinois cities. Tickets for the open air serenade can be obtained at the Y. M. C. A., the University pharmacy, and other places on State street.

Student Volunteers Will Hear Lecturer

Dr. Ralph Diffendorfer, who is to address the student volunteers on Sunday evening, will give his lecture at the Christ's Presbyterian church and not at Bascom hall. The lecture will be illustrated and will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

BADGERS LOSE SECOND GAME TO ILLINOIS

Suckers Play Air-tight Game
Behind Superb Pitching of Jackson

STRIKES OUT FOURTEEN

URBANA, Ill., May 13.—Wisconsin lost its second Conference game of the season yesterday when Illinois, playing an air tight game behind the superb pitching of Jackson, who struck out 14 men, defeated the Badgers, 3 to 2, at Huff field.

Gives Even Break

The game gave Illinois an even break in its two games schedule with Coach Lowman's team. Wisconsin won the first clash by a 4 to 1 score at Madison last Saturday.

Paddock Pitches

Paddock who was on the mound for Wisconsin allowed eight hits and walked three men, the same number as Jackson. The Illinois twirler held his opponents to four scattered hits, two of them being doubles by Elliott and Christianson.

Wisconsin was forced to go scoreless in every inning except the sixth in which errors mixed with a single by Jack Williams spelled two runs for the luckless Badger team. Ceaser, first man up, walked and Elliott reached first on an error by Stewart. Williams' hit scored Ceaser, Elliott followed him across the plate a few minutes later when Barry knocked a pretty grounder.

Scores Two Runs

Daugherty started the scoring for Illinois in the first frame when he came in from second on a single by Captain McCurdy. The other two runs were shoved across when Crossley walked, and Barry fumbled Daugherty's grounder, both Crossley and Daugherty being safe on the misplay. McCurdy singled, filling the bases, Vogel banged out a fielder's choice and the Badgers caught Crossley at the home plate. Hellstrom's single scored Daugherty and McCurdy followed on Reichel's out. Peden flied to "Rolie" Williams, retiring the side.

Wolf, Chi Psi Dog, Takes First Honor

Wolf, Chi Psi German police dog, was awarded first place in the interfraternity dog contest which was held today by the Public Welfare association in conjunction with the Madison Kennel club at the Stock pavilion.

Second place was awarded to Pat, Delta Chi Boston bull dog, and third place to Tex, Theta Xi Scotch collie. The entire proceeds of the show will be used in child health centers under the auspices of the Public Welfare association.

One hundred and fifty dogs from all parts of the country were entered, most of them of good breeding. Price Jean, A. T. O. dog, and Boscoe, Sigma Chi dog, who had been campus bets for prizes, failed to appear at the pavilion. Thirty classes of dogs were entered, and three ribbons were given to each class. Twelve cups were given away to individually high ranking dogs.

Clinic, a six-weeks-old airedale pup, which took third prize in the airedale class under one year, was given to twelve-year-old Graham Reynolds for selling more dog show tickets than any other school child. Julia Dodge was second in the ticket selling contest with only one ticket less than Reynolds. Receipts showed over a hundred dollars from school children alone, and the association hopes to find $2,000 in the treasury when the final count is made.

RUSS Irish, the boy singer, wishes to announce that if the girls in the right-hand room, second floor back of the Gamma Phi house throw any more electric light bulbs at him, he won't come and sing for them any more.

A new life saving boat for patrol and rescue work on Lake Mendota will be launched shortly after the close of the present school session, according to F. X. Ritger, purchasing agent, who has been authorized to purchase a new boat to supplant the work of the Cardinal, now in service.

"We are negotiating with a number of firms for a boat about the same size as the Cardinal, about 32 feet long with a 30 by 6 foot beam, which will make 30 miles an hour," said Mr. Ritger.

"Cap" Isabel, of the life-saving saving station, reports that the Cardinal, which has just been repaired, is not in excellent condition for service.

WELCOME THE VISITORS

NEXT week 500 high school students will be here to participate in the state interscholastic track meet. Of this number probably a very small percentage have ever visited the university before. Whatever impression they may receive now will be fixed firmly in their minds for years to come.

A young lad's early memories are always the most vivid. What takes root in his mind now remains fixed there. If Wisconsin students and the University of Wisconsin as a whole can convince him that this university can serve him in the best way, chances are he will always retain that impression in times to come.

Wisconsin needs athletes; but she needs more than athletes. She needs the enthusiastic supporters all over the state. Every participant should be given the same treatment; should be made to feel that this institution is a place where a spirit of sportsmanship and good fellowship prevail.

Send the message of the real Wisconsin spirit back to the little country high schools in the corners of the state. It will do more good than all the newspaper advertising or memorial drives could ever do. Not only that, but it helps dispel the feeling of distrust and suspicion that has been growing stronger throughout the state.

A NEW SPORT

THIS spring a new form of sport has come into vogue—horseback riding. From a comparatively exclusive recreation it has grown to a generally and enthusiastically received diversion. Two or three years ago riding in Madison was limited to a few occasional equestrians. Today it has become so common that riders scarcely attract attention.

Horseback riding is an excellent recreation.

It is ideally healthful since it combines fresh air with exercise which is efficacious but not too strenuous. Furthermore, it is a glorious sport. There is something about it that, in the eyes of horsemen at least, puts it above all other physical activities of an athletic nature. Perhaps it is due to the fact that the rider is controlling something that is alive, that responds to his guidance, not mechanically, but with a challenge. In other words, equitation is a game; you have got to ride the horse, and that is where the sport comes in. Riding is not a matter of passively sitting in the saddle, but a matter of being one with your mount and making him execute your will, which takes a certain physical prowess of no mean order.

All through history good horsemanship has always been greatly admired, and always has riding been one of the most popular sports. Legends have grown up about great men who were exceptionally good equestrians. One of the things that made Caesar admired by his soldiers was his ability to handle horses. A traditional story of Washington was where, as a boy, he broke a wild colt belonging to his mother. In ancient times, during the middle ages, and today horsemanship has held its place as one of the oldest and gamiest sports, since finished equitation means a combination of uncommon skill and considerable courage, a thing that always challenges sportsmen.

FRESHMAN WOMEN: BOOST YOUR CLASS

AS the year is drawing to a close the freshman women are holding a get-together banquet Monday night in Lathrop hall to unite their class with a common enthusiasm and a common aim.

The step is a worthy one and the first year women of the university are urged to give their best in support of the idea and attend the banquet en masse.

It is in our first year at university that lasting friendships are made and common memories treasured. The freshman women should feel this an opportunity to get a united spirit in their class and at the same time to regard Wisconsin with greater intensity and keener loyalty.

The first year men are doing their share. The first year women must not fall behind.

FAMILY LOANS

A questionnaire was sent a number of eastern colleges requesting information about the number of students who borrowed money from loan funds and who eventually pay up their obligations. Many colleges answered that the loans were almost entirely repaid. Only one institution reported that as high as 35 per cent had not fulfilled their word.

Whether this same scale would result if used in measuring our honesty in other business transactions is not known, but we do know that in the dealings between students themselves laxity becomes very prevalent. We rest too much on the friendship and brotherhood basis in college, where borrowing takes the character of family loans. And, as with the family, the student too often forgets his obligation; he forgets the business side and thinks too much of the brotherly point of view.

In college we do not judge such actions under dishonesty; they are rather privileges of exchange not offered later in life. As a result we have too many who make borrowing a pastime, a habit, once acquired, which is not dispensed with in later life.

The most famous writer of all times gave us his sound philosophy concerning this subject in the words, "Neither a borrower nor a lender be, for loan oft loses both itself and friend." These are words which we might well incorporate into our lives and well emphasize in the minds of those who in college make borrowing their business.—Daily Californian.

After the contests, track squads will be chosen, and training for the initial track meet on Field day will be under way.

Last year the class of '23 carried away the honors, and was represented by three members out of five on the Varsity team. Two track records are held by the juniors: Esther Mainland, who holds the 50 yard dash record, and Olivia Fentress, the high jump record. Esther Mainland took individual honors last year in the Field day events. The senior class will have strong support in Jean Kilgour, who holds the hurdles record.

W. A. A. is planning to hold a telegraphic meet with Northwestern university, as their field day is also to take place May 27.

Class cheer-leaders are urging that the classes come out to back up their teams at the preliminaries.

FLAPPER FILOSOFIE

LARGE BODY HATS LATEST CREATION

The latest fashion in hats is the large body type. Generally this particular style is adorned with many colors combined with flowers. The old fashioned garden flowers, lillies of the valley, sweet peas, and lilacs are used most frequently.

This spring the student, up-to-the minute in style, does not try to match her frock with the same shade hat. She purchases a contrasting color—perhaps a dark suit with a popular sand colored chapeau. The dark dresses are being worn with white hats, those covered with light delicate flowers.

Sport hat models are still in good style and they range in price at the stores from $2.50 and up. Felts, gorgettes—all have their place this season.

BEST SELLERS

This is the time of year one delights to take a book by the lake and read. Many delightful new books now afford an opportunity for enjoyment.

"Dancers in the Dark" has been having a heavy run this week. It is written by Dorothy Speare and dedicated to "The Girls of Today." You should find time to read it.

Louis Henion's "Marie Chapdelaine," a tale of the Lake St. John country, is proving popular, as well as "If" by Lord Dunsany. "Birth," a Zona Gale story, has again come to the foreground as one of the best sellers.

"Main Street," the once-popular book by Sinclair Lewis, is in the discard.

Have You Thought About Mother's Day?

Today is Mother's day; the day when from far and near Mother receives love, greetings, and flowers from those for whom she has sacrificed her whole lifetime. We, who are here at Wisconsin, perhaps think a little more deeply on this particular day about Mother's hopes and aspirations for our future success. She is the one who believes that we are really doing the thing worthwhile underneath all the outward appearances of frivolity and sham.

After all, it is in her honor that we aspire to achieve success. It is her untiring faith alone that steers us haltingly through our difficulties so enormous and vital to us, but mere stepping stones to character and success when viewed in the light of her greater wisdom.

Co-ed Riders Have Varied Experiences On Their Gallops

"He's running away with me!" "C'mere quick, stop mine, he's trying to kick the sun!"

"How can I stick on another minute if this crazy horse doesn't settle down any?"

The drives around Madison are having these harrowing predictions and scheduled catastrophes many times every day now that the beginning women's riding classes have begun their outdoor work. A trail of hairpins, hair nets, ties, and pins mark the course of their travels about the lake and campus.

Automobilists have had to use care in driving, for many of the horses have a strong family spirit and insist upon going abreast. Sometimes though, they become strikingly independent, and breaking all such family ties, gallop down the road with the riding master in hot pursuit and the rest of the class on the edge of their saddles.

A few girls have been thrown, but no one has been really hurt and the lessons are proving very successful.

As the girls say, "It's all right, except when your horse feels too gay, giddy, and frisky!"

Y. W. Cottage Gives Enjoyment to Groups

"The little old woman who lived in a shoe, she had so many children she didn't know what to do" is what Miss Anderson, the secretary of the university Y. W. C. A. is, for this month, and that's why the Y. W. C. A. cottage out near Blackhawk cave received the name of "The Shoe."

"The Shoe" is rented by the Y. W. C. A. for the month of May, and opened this year with the Cabinet houseparty May 5 and 6. It will be in use until the first of June. This cottage is primarily for the use of the officers of the Y. W. C. A., although a few other groups have signed up for week nights.

Sophomore commission is having its annual house party there this week end, the W. A. A. board will be there May 16, the freshman commission will have their house party the week end of May 20, the Y. W. C. A. visiting committee will have the cottage May 23, the cabinet council, the 26 and 27, and the Y. W. board, May 29 and 30. The night of May 31 is the only night which is still available for a group to go out.

Kieckhefer-Godfrey Engagement

Announcement was made yesterday noon of the engagement of Miss Norma Kieckhefer, daughter of Mrs. August Kieckhefer, Milwaukee, to Dudley Godfrey, Wauwatosa. Miss Kieckhefer is a senior in the College of Letters and Science and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Godfrey was formerly a student in the university and is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Lydia Brown To Speak At Frosh Dinner

Green Button, freshmen women's class organization, will hold its regular banquet tomorrow night, at 6 o'clock in Lathrop hall, at which time toasts will be given by Marion Strong '25 and Miss Lydia Brown, dean of freshman women. Class songs will be sung and officers nominated. Those intending to go to the banquet must sign up in Lathrop before Monday noon.

Like the three other women's class organizations, Green Button was organized early in the history of the university for the promotion of class spirit and acquaintances among women. Mary Devine is president of Green Button at present.

The sophomore organization, Red Gauntlet, has the same purpose of promoting comradeship. Mabel Jobse '24 is president.

Yellow Tassel Holds Banquet Yellow Tassel, junior organization, is making plans for its banquet Tuesday, May 16, at the Woman's building, at which Merle Shaw '23, president, will act as toastmistress. This will be the last meeting of Yellow Tassel this year, and nominations for Blue Dragon officers will be made at this time. Tickets can be obtained from Miriam Arey '23 for 85 cents.

"We want the juniors out strong at the banquet so that our Blue Dragon organization next year will have a good start," said Louise Moore '23, who is at the head of the banquet arrangements.

Seniors Meet at Swing Out Blue Dragon, senior women's organization, has held its banquet and formed the alumnae organization. They will meet again at the Dance Drama following the Senior Swing-out in the section reserved for them, and recommendations have been made that all seniors wear the uniform white collars, obtainable at the Co-op, on their graduating gowns. The gowns should be 10 inches from the floor, and black shoes and hose should be worn.

S. G. A. Establishes New Rental Library

That students may have an opportunity to read the current books without purchasing them, a library is to be established in the S. G. A. office at Lathrop hall. Fiction, autobiographies, essays, and books of travel will be a part of the collection.

"The library will be started as soon as possible," said Mary Baldwin '23, vice-president of S. G. A. "We hope to get it under way before the present semester is over."

Professors will be consulted as to the best current literature and the library will be kept strictly up-to-date. A minimum rental fee will be charged.

PERSONALS

Mrs. William Gregory is a guest at the A. O. Pi house for a few days.

Miss Mary Tillotson, Waupun, and Miss Helen Sackett, Springfield, Ohio, are guests at the Theta house.

Miss Polly Schlossman is entertaining as her guests for the week end, Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, Kenosha, and Miss Emily Loomis, Evanston.

MAROON TRACK SQUAD LOSES TO WISCONSIN

Badgers Run Up Large Score in Meet With Chicago

The Badger track squad atoned for the defeat which it took from Illinois last week by humiliating Coach Stagg's Maroons on Camp Randall yesterday afternoon by a score of 48 1-3 to 86 2-3. Although no records were broken, most of the events were run in good time and the races were close.

That the meet was not as one-sided as the score would indicate is shown by the fact that neither team made a clean sweep in any event. The Badgers, however, won firsts and seconds in four of the events, while the invaders won eight points only in the discus throw.

Wisconsin showed improvement over last week in the distance events, particularly in the two mile run. Wall and Schneider were easily the class of the field in this run, the latter having improved sufficiently since last week to negotiate the eight laps in 9 minutes and 59 and 4-5 seconds.

Guy Sundt was the high individual scorer of the meet by virtue of a pair of firsts and a second. Frida, of Chicago, was second high with a total of 11 2-3 points. The Maroon star copped in the javelin and discus throws, placed third in the shot put, and shared a triple tie for third place in the pole vault.

Pyott and Brickman were two Maroon performers who were entered in a number of events and who pushed the Badgers on a number of occasions, but were not able to place consistently.

The 120 yard high hurdles was one of the most interesting races of the day. Knollin, Brickman ran neck to neck all of the way up the course, and only a few inches separated the three at the finish. The two Badgers were pronounced to be in the lead.

Summaries

100-yard dash—Spetz, W., first; Johnson, W., second; Puott, C., third. Time, 10 2-5 seconds.

One mile run—Ramsey, W., first; Krogh, C., second; Dooley, C., third. Time, 4 minutes 28 seconds.

Baseball Clashes Among Fraternities Produce Winners

Sigma Nu, Triangle, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon were the winners in yesterday's inter-fraternity baseball clashes; Phi Kappa Sigma forfeited to the Delta Sigma Phi nine; while the Phi Delta-Kappa Psi, the Delta Chi-Delta Kappa Epsilon, and the Phi Kappa-Phi Kappa Psi contests scheduled for yesterday were indefinitely postponed.

The Sigma Nu, Alpha Pi Delta scrap was the best pitcher's duel of the day with the final score 5 to 2 in favor of the Sigma Nu outfit. Bosworth and Booth formed the battery for the winners and Ormand and Walther worked out for Alpha Pi Delta.

In the game between Triangle and Phi Sigma Delta, the former romped away with the honors by piling up 15 runs to their opponents 4 tallies. Zander hurled a good brand of ball for the winners in this clash.

The score of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Alpha Gamma Rho game was 12 to 8 in favor of the S. A. E. aggregation with Murry pitching and Jones catching for the victors.

Baseball Team to Meet Iowa Monday

The Wisconsin baseball team will meet Iowa University at Iowa City tomorrow afternoon. The Badgers entrained for the Hawkeye game after meeting Illinois at Urbana yesterday.

Although the Iowans are not as strong as they were last year, they have a team strong enough to finish in the first division of the Big Ten standings. They led Illinois until the ninth inning in a recent contest, the Suckers taking the victory by a last-minute rally.

Frosh-Soph Nines To Play Wednesday

The freshmen and sophomore baseball teams will play Wednesday afternoon to determine which of the two teams will meet the juniors in the finals of the inter-class baseball tournament. The junior nine eliminated the seniors in a free-for-all slug-fest last Thursday by a score of 16 to 14.

In the inter-college league the Commerce, Medic, and Engineers teams are still in the running. The two latter nines will play Tuesday to decide which is to meet the Commerce aggregation in the finals of the tourney. Commerce drew a bye, while the Agric and L. and S. crews have been eliminated.

Plaster, Lath, and Pipes Fall in Lab

Grim Fate smiled, but in vain. Time had played Dane Fortune's role and averted a catastrophe which might have resulted in several deaths this morning, when the ceiling of the agricultural chemistry building crashed to the floor at 5:30.

A class of chemistry students occupies the room throughout the daytime. Had the ceiling fallen while students were at work, several casualties might have resulted, it was said today.

Behrend Asks Repair Of Fire Engine

Repairs have been ordered to be made on the large American LaFrance pumper which has been in poor condition at the central fire station for the past three months. The proposal that the pumper be repaired as quickly as possible met with the approval of the council, which passed a resolution that the work be done. It was Ald. J. H. Behrend's suggestion.

Scherer's Band In Vilas Park Sunday

Scherer's band will open the concert season at Vilas Park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The program for the afternoon will include marches, overtures, popular pieces, and selections of classical music. C. Halvorsen is director of the band.

TENNIS TEAM PLAYS GOPHER SQUAD TO TIE

Crowd of 500 Witness Second Deadlock of Season

The Wisconsin tennis team played the University of Minnesota to its second deadlock of the season yesterday afternoon, on the Breeze terrace courts, before a crowd of 500. The final score was 3 to 3. The Badgers journeyed to Minneapolis last week and played the Gophers to a 2 to 2 score in an unfinished match that was postponed because of rain.

The greatest doubles game of the season was seen when Tredwell and Gotfredson of Wisconsin stacked up against Norton and Pidgeon, of Minnesota. The match was a furious overhead smashing game, each team grabbing every possible opportunity to take the net. The Wisconsin pair played masterly tennis the first set and let the northerners down with a score of 6-2. The second set was practically on "ice" for the Badger team, but the Gophers staged a come-back and won 7-5.

Wisconsin started the third set with whirlwind tennis and won 6-2.

Moulding and Hastings, playing third and fourth man for Wisconsin, won their match from Kuhlman and Bros. of Minnesota after the northerners had taken the first set 6-1. The second set went 4-4 when Coach Linden's men forged ahead and took the next two games and set.

Moulding and Hastings played the Gopher men to a standstill, showing a marked improvement over their preceding matches this year. They won the third set, 6 to 3.

In the singles, Captain Tredwell had little difficulty in winning from Bros. The first set was tight for a few minutes, but Tredwell emerged on the long end of a 7-5 score. The second set went 6-3 in favor of the Badger captain.

Although Gotfredson lost his match to Captain Norton of the Gophers, it was playing one of the most outstanding racquet men in the Conference. Norton has played three years of Big Ten tennis and shows that he knows every angle of the game. Last year Norton was runner-up to the Milwaukee flash, Abbey Weller, in the Wisconsin state championship. His serve is not a hard one but always accurate.

In the first set Gotfredson trounced his opponent to the tune of 6-3. In the second set the consistency of the northerner showed clearly over the brilliant driving of his opponent and he duplicated the score of the first set. After eighth grueling games in the third contest, the Gopher nosed out Coach Linden's man and won, 6-4.
