Gent's Furnishing Goods

TRUNKS AND VALISES.

Corner State and School Streets.

Opposite The Goodwin.

He has the lightest and most pleasant store in Beloit. Always aiming to keep first class high grade of goods, never allowing himself to buy any old bankrupt stocks, consequently you never see the old odds and ends that you do in a great many stores. Therefore, his stock always has a fresh look. He buying direct and never failing to discount his bills in ten days, has made a good success of his fine, large new store which so many thought a year ago was too large and fine for Beloit, and the best of all is that his business is increasing each month.

PRESENTATION.

We herewith hand the citizens of Beloit the fifth annual edition of the Hand-Book of Beloit.

The growth of the past year has been steady and substantial. In making the Directory census but half a dozen vacant houses were found and many new ones and under construction.

The population of the city now is 7910, an increase over last year of 492.

A new departure has been taken this year; that of charging twenty-five cents for the Hand Book. We have done this believing the citizens generally willing to bear a small portion of the burden of publication.

On page X-XI is presented a list of advertisers, whose co-operation with the publishers makes the publication of this Hand-Book possible.

Thanking the people of Beloit for courtesies shown in the preparation of this work, We remain very truly,

INGERSOLL, CLARK & DUNLAP.

HISTORICAL.

The city of Beloit has attained the age of fifty seven years. After the Mound Builders and the Indians, came the white man, the way having been cleared by the Blackhawk war.

The first white man to live on the site of Beloit was a French Canadian, Joseph Thiebeau, (his name is variously spelled), who had two Indian wives and several children. His log house stood just about where the office of the Keeler Lumber Co. now stands. It was at about this time that Abraham Lincoln, a private in a militia company returning from the pursuit of Blackhawk, passed through "Turtle Village;" when he spoke in Hanchett's Hall in 1858, he told Professor Emerson about it.

Caleb Blodgett was the first real settler. He was here exploring with one or two of his sons as early as May, 1836. Through the latter half of that year he was farming, building, and getting ready for his family, who came in December. His house stood on the river bank, where the Frederick Hardware Co. now have their store.

From Colebrook, N. H., about that time, "The New England Emigrating Company" sent out Dr. Horace White, Robert P. Crane, and Otis P. Bicknell, to find them a suitable place. Dr. White, as financial agent, bought for the Company a part of Mr. Blodgett's claim; it became the "east side" of the future Beloit. The other members of the Company came scattering along through that year and the next. The Company began housekeeping in Thiebeau's log house. Their fame led many steady and high-minded people to cast their lot with them.

They set up a saw-mill, which cut its first boards in April, 1837; these made a floor for the Blodgett cabin. The first death in the community was that of Horace Clark, Dec. 2d, 1837, the interment being made in what is now the City Green; there are said to have been three burials in the Green, as it was then meant to be the village cemetery. The grist mill began grinding, and the first store was built in 1838.

The post-office for the first year was Chicago; then Rockford; then Roscoe. The Beloit post-office was established in 1839.

The settlement was first called Turtle, but that name did not suit; then Albany, or New Albany, was proposed; the name Beloit was selected by a public meeting in the fall of 1838; L. G. Fisher proposed the name Beloit as short, euphonious, and unique. It has since been copied in Iowa, Kansas, Alabama, and other states.

The city bridge dates from 1840, a stock company being then organized to erect a toll-bridge. Finally the village paid the bill, and the bridge was made free. This bridge brought the west side land into market.

The Rock river dam dates from 1844; the attempts to use Turtle creek as a water-power began with the village but have been suspended for about a dozen years past.

One of the earliest structures was the "Beloit House," erected where the Milwaukee railroad station now stands. State street was then called Turtle.

The Methodist church was organized as a class December 27, 1838; the First Congregational church began to be on December 30th of that year. The Baptist and Episcopal churches soon followed, and in time the rest.

In 1844 began the conventions that resulted in the organization of the College. Middle College was begun in 1846; the first instruction was given November 4, 1847.

The Chicago and Northwestern railroad began running to Beloit in the winter of 1850, trains from Chicago coming by Belvidere. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad was opened to Beloit 1856. The railroad debt of the town, originally of $100,000, was incurred in aid of this road; the bonds were dated May 21, 1853. The amount unpaid is now small and will soon be cleared away.

The village was cut out of the southeast corner of the township and made a city in 1856; it is two miles north and south, and two and a half miles wide.

Gas was introduced in 1859; the savings bank was founded in 1881; the water works date from 1885.

WATER SUPPLY.—The city of Beloit has one of the finest water supplies in the country, which is remarkable for its medicinal qualities and its purity. The source of supply is evidently the same as that of Waukesha, Palmyra and other notable Wisconsin waters in this part of the State. The water is supplied by innumerable springs bubbling up in the bottom of a huge well 30 feet in diameter and 40 feet deep. It is so clear and colorless that a cut glass when filled to the brim looks no different than an empty glass of the same style, and the great pureness of the water is demonstrated by heating the residue, which does not change its color. We give below the chemical analysis of the water made by Prof E G Smith of Beloit College who is an acknowledged authority on these matters.

ANALYSIS.

INTERPRETATION OF RESULTS:—The low amount of Free Ammonia, Albuminoid Ammonia, Oxygen Consumed, and Chlorine; the absence of Nitrites and Nitrates; and finally the Physical properties indicate an almost absolute freedom from organic matters. (2) The Hardness is about the average of our surface waters (3) The results of the analysis show this water to rank among the very best city supplies.

Signed, ERASTUS G. SMITH, Ph D

The grounds of the Water Works occupy about five acres on the East bluff of the city. The water tower, nearly 100 feet high, is built of stone and is the finest and largest piece of stone masonry of the kind in the West. The tower sustains a large cypress tank, holding 100,000 gallons of water, which is kept full at all times, day and night, and gives from its own head 60 pounds pressure to the business portion of the city. The pump gives a direct pressure of 125 pounds when required for fire purposes. The has over nine miles of water mains and eighty fire hydrants, thus giving splendid fire protection as well as beautiful and healthful water for domestic purposes.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU—This Bureau is maintained by the College Y M C A and forms a very convenient and successful medium through which students desiring employment for their spare time may secure suitable work. No commissions are charged, and those wishing to avail themselves of its advantages should hand their name, together with the kind of work desired, to the Secretary of the College Y M C A.

ORATORICAL CONTEST—All members of the Archæan Union are members of the Wisconsin State Oratorical Association and of the Inter-State Oratorical Association. Eight speakers from the Junior and Senior classes are elected for the Home Contest; the two winners represent Beloit College at the State Contest; the winner in this contest represents the State at the Inter-State Contest.

Y M C A—The Beloit College Young Men's Christian Association grew out of a Missionary Society which was formerly organized in 1849. Any student of good moral character may be elected associate member by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting.

E. LIPMAN'S, West Side.

STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE.

EXPLANATORY.—Beloit is numbered according to the Germantown plan, with 20 feet as the unit of measure.

All streets running north and south, count from the State line, with the even numbers on the west side of the street. The first block begins with 100, the second 200, the third with 300, etc., increasing by 100 with each succeeding block; but Bushnell street and Bridge street form a correction line, which corrects to 600.

All streets running east and west, count eastward and westward from Fifth street, with the even numbers on the south side of the street. The correction lines in passing eastward are Pleasant street, correcting to 500, and Park avenue, correcting to 900. In passing westward, Bluff street corrects to 300; Eighth street to 700, and Hackett street to 900.

On streets which cross Fifth street, "w" is annexed to the number of each house west of Fifth street, thus: St. Paul's Church, 102 w Bridge.

 References D4, Q9, etc., are to the map on pages 42 and 43.

 Stated Monthly Meeting of Directors, Fourth Friday of each Month.

 Annual Meeting, for election of officers, Third Friday in November.

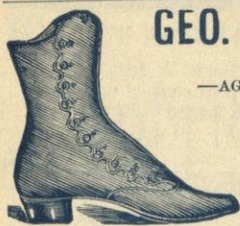

This Association offers advantages both to the stockholder and borrower second to none. It pays a larger percentage on the investment than any other banking institution, and gives to the borrower who builds himself a home such low rate of interest that when his stock matures he realizes that a home has practically been given him for simply the rentals he otherwise would have paid.

Any one who can save 50 cents a month can become a member of the Association, and be a sharer in its mutual benefits and profits, and can in time save, and own a home.

Stock in the Association can be purchased and applications for Loans be made of the Secretary at his office every day, (Sundays excepted,) and any information relative to the working details of the Association will be cheerfully given. Call on or address,

GEO. S. WHITFORD, Secretary.

 The high standing and well known business integrity of the officers of the Association are a sufficient guaranty that its affairs will be conducted upon a safe and reliable basis.

An Epitome of the Leading Business Firms of Beloit

In introducing you to some of the more important business enterprises of our city, we desire to preface our remarks by calling your attention to the fact that the welfare of Beloit is the welfare of her business men. They stand in the same relation to the city as Cromwell's "Ironsides" did to their veteran commander. There is no reform, moral or otherwise that can stand without their support. There can be no financial progress for our city without their backing. When any citizen of our fair Beloit contemplates going "to the city" or elsewhere to trade in the hope of saving a few paltry cents, we would have him seriously think of these things. We would say to him consider what your business men have and are doing for you; then if you can gain more than they have given you proceed.

Again, we would have you notice those business men who have and are supporting enterprises of public interest. Cast your eye over the pages of this book. Take note of those men who have been furnishing you such a convenience for so many years. Take them down in your note book if necessary and then when opportunity offers show them, at least, that you reciprocate their kindness and appreciate their public enterprise.

BELOIT COLLEGE: Its relations to the city.

The College and the city have always been in very close relations from the beginning. The College has been liberally helped by our citizens, and in return has given to the young men of Beloit opportunities of education by which many of them have attained very great success. During the past few years the College has erected four new buildings and refitted a fifth. Scoville Hall was erected in 1889-90 for $27,000 for the use of the Academy; in this building young men receive an excellent fitting for college or for business. Chapin Hall, costing $27,000, was next erected for use as a dormitory and boarding-club quarters; it is a model combination for comfort and economy. The new chapel came next, costing with the organ about $34,000; it is universally admired as one of the most beautiful buildings in the West. Finally came Pearsons Hall, costing $75,000, besides the equipment; it was dedicated in January, 1893. This is the largest and most elaborate of all the college-buildings. The center is used for the President's office, the Scientific reading-room, and the auditorium, which last is the especial headquarters of the rhetorical work; the departments of physics, geology, botany, and chemistry have suites of rooms in the wings, occupying each two floors. The front center up stairs is the room for the cabinets.

Few of our citizens realize the exceptional equipment that the College now has for the study of science. As to this the catalogue should be consulted and a trip through Pearsons Hall would be found of very great interest.

The refitting of the old chapel into an art-hall is one of the achievements of the year just closed. A remarkably promising beginning has been made in art.

The Athletic Field, of more than 16 acres, is going to bear a great part in the life of the College.

The pecuniary value of the College to Beloit should not be forgotten. The great sums expended on the buildings are paid out only once, but the annual expenditures by the College, by the Faculty, by the 350 students, and by the families attracted to the city by the College, make a great and important total. With the growth of the College these sums will greatly increase.

C. L. VALE, Manufacturer of Confection and Fine Bakery Goods, 332 Bridge St.

If the old adage is true that "the way to man's heart is through his stomach," it necessarily follows that Beloit's well-known baker and caterer commands access to the aforesaid inward recess of the average Beloit man's constitutional makeup. Established in 1872, he has by fair and business like treatment of his trade secured a voluntary monopoly not only in Beloit's retail trade but also of a large wholesale business with surrounding towns. To say that he deserves it all is to put the case but mildly. Beloit is certainly indebted to C. L. Vale, if any town was ever indebted to any man for generosity and sound business principles. To know that goods have his guarantee is to know that they are reliable in every way.

J. B. DOW, Attorney, Real Estate and Insurance Broker, 346-348 Bridge

In every town or city there are usually those whose energy and business ability fit them for leaders in all business enterprises. In what ever line of work they may be engaged they are sure to excel and to gain such success that they are practically outside the pale of competitive effort. They, thus, prove the adage that "there is always room at the top" is as true in business as elsewhere. But more than that such men are wide enough and broad and deep enough to take in a whole city's welfare. As they grow the city grows; their prosperity is the city's prosperity. Such a man is the subject of this sketch. The greatest compliment that we can pay to his business energy is to repeat the remark, which we accidentally overheard a citizen of Beloit make. "If I had a house and lot to sell I should rather put them into the hands of J. B. Dow than entrust them to any man I know of."

THE GOLDEN EAGLE CLOTHING HOUSE, Dealers in Clothing, Hats and Caps, etc., A. Loewi & Co., Proprietors, 356-358 Bridge

There are few persons in this world to whom the consciousness of being well dressed is not a positive pleasure; and although we all high or low pretend to scorn that old saying that "it is better to be out of the world than out of the fashion," and look with contempt upon the deluded sinner who takes for his motto: "In Rome do as the Roman does," nevertheless in the matter of clothing, down at the bottom of our hearts, we have a sincere respect for both ideas. Hence it happens that to many of us, when contemplating a visit to a clothier, comes the pungent inquiry: Where can we get most satisfaction for our money? It gives us the greatest pleasure to refer any such and our readers in general to the Golden Eagle Clothing House where we can assure them they will get the satisfaction they seek. The proprietor, Mr. A. Loewi, has been in the clothing business for 25 years, 13 of which he has spent in Beloit. With his wide experience he is able to buy salable goods at salable prices and to guarantee every article that goes out of his hands to be as represented. He can defy any man to prove that he has ever failed to make his guarantee good. What more could you ask?

GEO. H. CRAM, Boots and Shoes. Fine Footwear a Specialty, 330 State St.

A description of the remarkable advantages possessed by Beloit as a trading point cannot be overdrawn, and especially is that so in that branch of Beloit's industry commonly termed the shoe trade. And in this connection it is not unfitting to say that Mr. Cram heads the list. There can be found goods to suit the most fastidious taste, at prices to accommodate the most economical purse. There is no article of man's wearing apparel which adds or detracts so much from the general appearance as a good or ill-fitting shoe. But in looking for a place to purchase footwear one can not be deceived if he buy of Cram, because his long experience enables him to see at a glance what will suit his trade and makes him a careful, satisfactory buyer.

G. E. SANGER, Fancy Groceries, Vegetables, and Fruits, 422-424 School St.

If one is to give a review of the principle business houses he must necessarily mention this popular firm or else his work would be sadly incomplete. To say that Mr. Sanger is a hustler would be but to give you a tame idea of the man. Mr. Sanger has built up his large and ever increasing trade by the closest attention to the wants of his customers. He holds his trade with the motto the highest quality is the most satisfactory. Call on him for anything in his line.

BORT, BAILEY & CO, Dry Goods, Silks and Carpets, Beloit and Janesville, corner Bridge and State.

It is useless for us to endeavor to tell the public anything about this well known firm. Hence we will only mention in passing that it holds and deservedly holds high rank among the business firms of Rock county. Its theory has been buy in large quantities and buy for cash and consequently buy cheap. Its rule is small profits and quick sales. Mr.

A. N. Bort, the Beloit member of this firm, is prominent in both business and social circles; and in every enterprise for the good of the city you are sure to find him a prominent figure. By patronizing this establishment you will find good goods, reasonable prices and courteous treatment

W. L. ROBINSON, Livery, Feed and Boarding Stable, 312 Mill St.

There is no line of business so essential to the pleasure and general happiness of the public as one that enables the people to enjoy the blessing of the open air fresh and free from the pollution of work shop and factory. No where and in no way can one find greater enjoyment and satisfaction than when in well equipped vehicle he is permitted to drink in the beauty, the grandeur and the consummate skill displayed in nature's works. Any one, then, that supplies such need must be voted a public benefactor. Mr Robinson stands always ready to accommodate his patrons, at whatever cost to himself, both in service and prices. In addition to his livery trade he runs a line of omnibuses and hacks to and from all trains. We speak from experience when we say that it would be hard to find a more accommodating livery man.

CHAS. W. RAU & CO., Furniture and Upholstery, Wall Paper and Curtains, 301 Bridge St.

Everybody knows that the beauty, the style and refinement seen in the home is due very largely to the taste shown in the selection of the furniture and appointments of the home. When this is the case does not the selection of a place to buy your furniture demand more than a passing notice? Does it not demand careful and painstaking inquiry? Now that is just the kind of criticism we invite you to give to the popular West Side furniture store. And rest assured the proprietors will not suffer from such scrutiny. They carry a large and complete stock and are here to sell goods at reasonable prices. Give them a call and see if we are not right.

H. P. DAILEY, Photographer, 324 State.

In all business and business relations, if one is to become a leader he must keep abreast of the times in every branch and every avenue of his line of work. But this statement is especially true of the photographer. If he is to be popular he must keep pace with every new device and invention pertaining to his art. Mr. Dailey is such an artist. A man who leaves no stone unturned and begrudges his patrons no effort or painstaking care on his part, if only he is enabled thereby to give them the latest and the best. Not only that but this firm has that other beautiful requisite. It believes in the motto, "Live and Let Live." Hence it is that Mr. Dailey's customers find his prices as satisfactory as his work.

BLAZER BROS., Meat Market, dealers in all kinds of Meat, Fresh and Cured, 414 School St.

A shrewd man, and one who was a keen observer of mankind in general, once said, when some friends were complaining of the difficulty of always finding a place to trade where they could place entire confidence in securing satisfaction, "I always choose the firm that can show a permanent and satisfied trade. No one will choose a firm that is both dishonest and ignorant. Some may choose a firm qualified but dishonest; others may choose a firm honest but disqualified; but all stay where they find the firm both honest and thoroughly qualified." We have no hesitancy in placing this firm among the latter class. We gladly recommend them to our readers.

STILES & ROGERS, Fine Groceries, Choice Teas and Coffees, Vegetables and Fruits, 412 School.

We are pleased to call attention in this brief review to the progressive firm of Stiles & Rogers. The members of this firm are Mr. Oliver J. Stiles and Mr. Louis J. Rogers, men of sterling worth and recognized ability. The name of the firm is enough of itself to stamp upon the public mind its business character. Unquestionably the grocery interest of our city has not a better representative house in the city than the one indicated above. They have, since moving into their new quarters, increased facilities and conveniences for handling their goods and pleasing their trade.

LOU. RAUBENHEIMER, Dealer in Boots and Shoes, Rubber and Fine Goods a specialty, 315 State. In presenting to our readers the name of Lou. Raubenheimer as one of Beloit's representative and liberal business firms we are bringing forth no new nor untried experiment to the notice of the public. But we are calling attention to a man who, by 20 years of continued work in his line and by the closest and most careful attention to the desires and needs of his customers, has established for himself a name and a record for square dealing that cannot be gainsaid. By the same methods he has won an enviable but well deserved success. It is certainly with pleasure that we note his well-earned prosperity and congratulate Beloit on her good fortune in having such a representative among her business men.

GEIST'S PHOTO STUDIO, 314 State St.
Artistically executed Portraits of any size; work done for amateurs.

In the photographer's work, as in painting and drawing, it is only the artistic eye that is capable of executing artistic work. So it matters not how fair the subject; unless the photographer himself be a natural artist and a master in his line the results cannot be satisfactory. The proprietor of this studio is a master artist and a credit to any city,—and should any reader of these pages want work done in this line and should have the good fortune to employ the proprietor of Geist's Studio he need never have the least anxiety for the outcome. Mr. Geist always gives his work careful personal attention and has for his motto: "Nothing but the Best."

J. E. HOUSTON, Furniture, Picture Frames, Undertaking and Embalming, 300 State corner Broad.

The civilization attained by any people is indexed by the character and nature of the household furniture with which they surround themselves. And to the household it is no insignificant problem to determine where he shall go to obtain what he desires at prices within the limit of his means. This ever-recurring problem is answered in Beloit when the questioner finds himself within the above named establishment. His stock is complete and his prices within the easy reach of all. As undertaker and embalmer he is reliable, performing his work with a care and efficiency worthy of the utmost confidence.

A. W. BULLOCK & SON, Groceries, Teas and Coffees, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables in season, 118 Bridge St.

Our purpose in writing this sketch is not to extol the many merits of this well-known firm for that would be superfluous and unnecessary. Its merits are two well known to need publishing. All we hope to accomplish is to render this review more complete by adding another representative business house to Beloit's already large list. But incidentally should any be so fortunate as to contemplate giving this firm their patronage we can assure such of prompt attention and courteous treatment. Mr. Bullock and son will always command the respect of the best citizens by their upright and honorable dealings and their endeavors to please every patron.

W. C. ROUSE & CO., Fresh and Cured Meats, 116 Bridge St.

There is nothing gives greater satisfaction to the average housekeeper than good meat. On the other hand there is nothing so liable to darken the household serenity with over-hanging clouds as to set the pater familias down to the arduous task of masticating and digesting a piece of tough beef steak. Hence the first query of the house-wife should be where can I get No. 1 meats. For answer to such a question we would advise you to see W. C. Rouse, whose long experience in that business enables them to answer wisely and well.

D. H. POLLOCK & CO., Dealers in Drugs, Toilet Articles, Fancy Goods. Agents for leading makes of Bicycles, Base Ball Goods, Fishing Tackle, Musical Supplies, etc., 308 Bridge St.

In a review calculated to present a faithful and comprehensive account of the commercial enterprises of the city of Beloit we must not omit those which are the most popular and largest establishments and most beneficial to the public. In Mr. Pollock's store is to be found one of the largest, most complete and best assorted stocks of goods in this city or in any of our neighboring cities. Any who have dealings here will find genial and courteous treatment. Prices are as low as the lowest and no one who has once given them a trial has ever had reason to complain.

JAS BENSON, Prop. of the College Book Store and Agent for the renowned Columbia Bicycles, 431 School St.

A noted business man once remarked: "That after all was said about genius and business ability, those desirable qualities were very insignificant factors in securing substantial success in the business world when compared with the influence of hard work and close, careful, conscientious attention and honesty." In fact there is no position on this mundane sphere where success can be secured without hard work. There is no excellence without great labor. In the light of the above statements it is not difficult to account for the success, the confidence and esteem won by the College Book Store, under the management of the present proprietor.

JOHN MARTIN, Groceries, Fruits, etc., 216 State St.

Industry and economy are the important factors in all progress, business or otherwise. If these essential features are lacking in any man's character the outlook is gloomy, especially in business circles where competition is so close and sharp. But we are pleased to note that there is no cause for alarm in Martin's case as it is upon these very principles that he has built upon his growing trade. When there is any worthy public enterprise on foot you will also find Mr. Martin quite ready to put his shoulder to the wheel and push.

CHAS. L. WILLARD, Restaurant, Ice Cream and Lunch Room, Unity Block.

Public opinion and public sentiment is remarkable for one characteristic and that is the diffidence and reluctance shown to the new and untried. This is remarkably so in the business world so that any one, who is inaugurating any new enterprise or even starting in an old one, some times meets with overwhelming obstacles owing to the conservatism and the prejudices of the public mind. Hence the fact that Mr. Willard has been so successful, in his new enterprise, only goes to show how great the popularity and business ability he has brought to bear upon the public thought. This puts him at once in the catalogue of our city's leading business men.

JOHN E. SARGENT, Dealer in Pianos, Organs, Musical Instruments and Sheet Music, Unity Block.

Mr. Sargent handles the very best instruments in the market and gives special attention to the tuning and repairing of pianos and organs. If any are contemplating a purchase in his line we cordially commend him as worthy of special notice.

LOUIS FISCHER, West Side Merchant Tailor, 311 Bridge.

Attention to dress in the matter of neat and well fitting garments is no unworthy subject because of its relation to society and refined taste. While on this subject we would invite you to inspect Mr. Fischer's stock and work knowing that he is able to satisfy the most fastidious.

W. H. BAUMES, Dry Goods and Carpets. Formerly Carpenter and Baumes, opposite Post Office.

It is an agreeable task which we have taken upon us when we call attention to the above named gentleman, but one worthy a more fertile mind and a more skillful and ready pen. Mr. Baumes by perseverance and enterprise has earned the right to rank among the leading business firms of Beloit and no word that we can say could elevate his already high position in business circles.

CITY STEAM LAUNDRY, J. W. Van Beynum, proprietor. Work given the closest attention.

It is said that cleanliness is akin to godliness, and we think few will deny the statement. Hence the means used to attain that divine state should be welcomed as a considerable factor in moral development. From that standpoint the work of a well equipped laundry is not to be despised as a humane and civilizing agency. As a representative of this line of work the City Steam Laundry deserves special mention. The proprietor is a careful and reliable business man. Uniform cleanliness is attained by his steam process without subjecting the garment to the wear and tear incident to the old process.

E. LIPMAN & CO., Dry Goods and Carpets, 302 Bridge.

Among Beloit's wide-awake business men we are glad to mention E. Lipman, the West Side dry goods man. As proof we ask our friends to notice the taste and energy he has displayed in advertising his store; not only thus calling attention to his goods but giving enjoyment and pleasure to his customers. His show windows are simply immense. His store furnished in truly metropolitan style is always attractive. His system of cash and bundle carriers is a novelty. And the fact that he has, during the twelve years he has been in business been successful in building up a reliable and constantly increasing trade should be sufficient to command the attention of the purchaser wanting any thing in his line.

GEO. H. CLARKE, corner State and School Sts.

This is the genial and accommodating proprietor of the two-story dry goods house directly opposite The Goodwin. It is really almost unnecessary to mention this gentleman's name as he has spent the best 33 years of his life in Beloit and 15 years in the business in which he is now engaged. But as any account of Beloit's enterprising sons must be very incomplete without his familiar name, we have felt constrained to introduce his firm. A year ago Mr. Clarke had a new store. To-day he has a new stock. If our readers would know the new style we must advise him to visit this new dry goods house. The patrons have but to sit by that beautiful little fountain and those affable clerks do the rest.

JOHN NICHOLS, the Shoe Dealer, 318 Bridge St.

The craft of the shoemaker's trade is one that antedates almost every one known to mankind. The use of the awl has been familiar to our ancestors from earliest antiquity. Even Socrates, the philosopher, seemed to be well acquainted with the business, for it was from this that he drew illustrations for some of his most profound arguments and from this source drew much of his immortal philosophy. But when we compare the best known specimens of the early art with the product of the modern skill and the ingenuity of the shoemaker we must pause to get a conception of the progress made. If you doubt the statement make the comparison for yourself and in doing so get your sample of present style from John Nichols, the reliable West Side shoe dealer, as he keeps all the very latest styles and nothing but perfect fitting goods.

FREDERICK HARDWARE CO. For anything usually found in a first-class hardware establishment, 320-322 State

No doubt this establishment is as popular as any hardware establishment in this section of the country. Good goods will become popular and it has been the aim of this firm to place on the market goods that will not only please the customer but will make it profitable for him to deal at this place. His new and finely equipped store-room is not only a monument of his own enterprise but a matter of pride and beauty to the city. And the old saying is, that a thing of beauty is a joy forever.

J THOMPSON & SONS, Mfg. Co., Plow Makers, Etc.

No branch of industry is more conducive to the permanent prosperity of a town than manufacturing. We believe there are many people in Beloit who have never realized fully the advantages of a permanent manufacturing establishment. Nor is it likely they will until they should be deprived of its benefits. One of the oldest of Beloit's manufacturies is the plow works of J. Thompson & Sons. Established in 1860, it has secured a permanent footing and enriches Beloit by a pay roll amounting to many thousands of dollars yearly. But even more valuable yet is the public spirit and enterprise of the firm. In this respect especially is Beloit to be congratulated on the acquisition of such an enterprise.

ECLIPSE WIND ENGINE CO., Makers of Eclipse Wind Mills, Beloit Steel Wind Mills, Creamery Tanks, Stock Tanks, Reservoir Tanks, Grinders, etc.

The fame of this establishment is world-wide and the value of the vast sums of money paid to its workmen as a revenue, is to Beloit well nigh incalculable. In fact it is safe to assert that there are few cities the size of Beloit that can boast of an enterprise of half the magnitude. The local agents for their mills are Holcomb Bros. & Co., who are also dealers in pumps, pipes, steam fittings and wood pumps. Their specialty is hot water heating. The public will find these gentlemen agreeable and obliging, and bespeak for them a general share of the public patronage.

A. S. TROSTLE & SON, Successors to A. L. Buckeridge, Butchers and Dealers in all kinds of Meats, 423 School.

It was with the deepest regret that the many friends of this firm some time ago, received the news of their determination to retire from active business, and hence, it will be a relief to them to know that after an excursion through the east and a well earned vacation, they return with renewed interest and energy to once more serve the people of Beloit.

THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK, Receives Deposits, Sell, Exchange and does a General Banking Business.

There is no establishment that gives greater financial stability to a city than a sound National bank, such as the National Bank of Beloit is. It is the only National bank in the city and therefore worthy of the confidence of our citizens. If you wish to make a deposit look at the names of its directors and officers, and govern yourself accordingly.
