WEEK'S PROGRESS

CONTESTS ON WESTERN FOOT-BALL FIELDS.

Grade of Minor Teams is High—Real Battles Commence Next Week.

The past week has been one of great and ceaseless activity on western gridirons. Coaches and their assistants, despite the rainy weather, have kept the men at work preparing for the big games. Within a week the first of the inter-collegiate contests will be on; Minnesota will meet Chicago, Beloit will play Wisconsin, while Indiana will oppose the boys from Evansville. At the finish of the Knox-Illinois games the "comparative score-fiend" will begin his uncertain work with a vengeance as the Knoxites have already played the University of Chicago.

It would be difficult to state which of the western teams has made the greatest advances during the past week. Strange reversals of form and unexpected scores were made which upset many previous calculations. Michigan's hard tussle with Kalamazoo, the close score at Madison and Minnesota's poor showing against Ames while not entirely unlooked for were nevertheless disappointing.

Chicago set the pace for the western colleges in hard work. On Wednesday she met the scrappy team from Dixon and on Saturday Purdue's eleven. The maroon's work, although variable, is on the whole, very promising. Although scored on in both games her defense at times was excellent, while her offensive work, dependent as it was to a great extent on individual ability, was oftentimes brilliant. The return of Henry to the back field has greatly strengthened the maroon's back field as his carrying of the ball in the Purdue game showed. In Ervin, Stagg has a most promising punter, the kicking match in the second half of the Purdue game, resulting almost always in Chicago's gain. In the line McNab at tackle seems to be the weakest spot, gains being made through him in both of last week's games. The physical condition of the men is excellent and according to form, Chicago should dispose of the Gophers next Saturday with quite a margin to spare.

Purdue's showing last Saturday demonstrated that the Indians have one of the best teams of late years. It reminded old-time enthusiasts of a time a few years ago when the black and gold was the foremost team in the West. In Robertson, they have a place kicker of no mean ability, although his punting is nothing remarkable.

The work of the Northwestern has been bettered considerably since they were beaten by P. & S. a week ago. The work of the entire eleven was fast and snappy and on defense, especially the purple showed unexpected strength. The offensive work is still ragged and there is much room for improvement. The size of the score against Rush should not be taken as a comparison between the two teams, as Northwestern's work was far superior to that of the Doctors.

The Illinois-Wesleyan game was disappointing to both the champaign coaches and to the supporters. Despite the rain, a much larger score should have been made. The week before Purdue defeated Wesleyan 39-0 while the best Illinois would make was 21 points. The work of the back field was especially disappointing. Unless a brace is taken the sturdy Knox eleven will give the Illinoisans one of the hardest games of the year as Chicago was only able to defeat them by 16 points.

Critics are unanimous in declaring that the Ames eleven outclassed the Minnesota team in tactics and knowledge of the game, at all stages of the game last Saturday and that the superior weight of the Gophers alone won them the game. In view of this and the long trip they have to take the game with Chicago promises to be one-sided. Nevertheless Head-Coach Williams is still hopeful and expects his colts to hold the maroons down to a low score.

At Notre Dame the prospects have brightened considerably during the past week or so. New material has come out and Pat O'Dea promises a team that will prove a surprise to many of the large colleges. Englewood was no barrier to them Saturday and a score of 72-0 was easily made. Iowa also promises an unusually fast team this year. Dr. Knipe has plenty of material and many of the old team are back and even as early in the season as now they are playing better ball than they did last season. From all reports the outlook at Ann Arbor is discouraging. There is a great scarcity of heavy material and Coach Lea will have hard work to cope with the heavy lines of the other western colleges.

Saturday's contest with Kalamazoo proved a hard tussle and the Blue and Maize could cross the visitor's line for but two touchdowns.

Some surprise was expressed at the low score in the P. and S.—Wisconsin game on Saturday. Critics, although acknowledging the doctors to be a hard proposition for any team early in the season, generally expected King's bunch to run up a pretty large score. Considering, however, that the game was arranged late Friday, and that the Wisconsin squad had spent almost the entire week in charging and such work, the score is not so surprising. The Badgers will have a hard week ahead of them however, in order to be in the proper condition for Beloit next Saturday at Milwaukee.

The P. and S. Game.

Saturday's game with the Physicians and Surgeons team, although not highly satisfactory as an exhibition of football, was decidedly instructive and a valuable indication of the strength and weakness of Wisconsin's team. At times also it offered an excellent field of study for a kindergarten worker as the game was continually marred by the childish tactics of the visitors who disputed every decision and played for wind at every opportunity. Wisconsin was in decidedly better physical condition but showed lack of team work. Most of her gains were made almost unaided. The fact that no game was expected until the last moment and that the week had been spent in entirely different work would sufficiently account for this.

Three old Wisconsin men, "Joe" Dean, Cory, and Donkle, played with P. and S. and they were also fortunate in the possession of a punter who equalled the best work of Schreiber and Driver. Dean and Dornall of the visitors proved themselves an exceptionally good pair of ends. Wisconsin excelled in line work, showing

ENJOYABLE EVENT

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION RECEPTION A SUCCESS.

Well Attended in Spite of Bad Weather. Patrons and Patronesses.

The annual reception given last Saturday evening by the Young Mens' and Young Womens' Christian Associations of the University was a complete success. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the number of students out was not as great as otherwise would have been the case, still those present had a most enjoyable time.

The new students were made acquainted with the instructors and older students and made to feel at home. In spite of the weather, between two and three hundred students were present.

During the evening Prof. Nitschke's orchestra gave entertaining selections of music to the enjoyment of all.

The value of such gatherings was plainly shown as all who attended reported a pleasant time.

The decorating committee is to be congratulated for the way in which the reception hall was decorated as well as the refreshment committee for the dainties served.

The patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. Adams, Acting-President and Mrs. Birge, Justice and Mrs. Winslow, Colonel and Mrs. M. V. Anderson, Professor and Mrs. M. V. O'Shea, Professor and Mrs. Scott, and Miss Mayhew.

Seats For Beloit Game.

Seats for the Beloit—Wisconsin game will be placed on sale at Sidney Rundell's to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. These seats will consist of one section of the grand stand, price $1 per seat, 2,000 reserved bleacher seats in the Wisconsin section, price $1 per seat, and the general admission tickets at 50 cents. Carriage space will cost $2. Boxes seating six people will be sold for $10. Both carriage spaces and boxes may be reserved at Rundell's. The excursion train will leave Madison, via. the Northwestern, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and will return over the Milwaukee and St. Paul leaving Milwaukee at 11:30 P. M. The fare for the round trip is $2.00 good over Monday. Manager Wheeler went to Milwaukee this morning to attend to all arrangements for the game. Later in the week Mr. Kilpatrick will have charge of the disposal of tickets.

Edwin Tanhouse of the Academy has invited the University team and the band to attend the performance of "Nancy and Co." in the evening after the game.

Charles W. Gorr, '00, is studying medicine in Chicago.

Will Fisher, '03, is attending the law school at Ann Arbor.

Oliver S. Andersen, '00, is in his father's store at Medford.

George W. Swartz, '00, is principal of the Lodi High School.

Miss Lucy Tompkins, '98, has returned to take a post graduate course.

Meetings of the general and engineering faculties were held this afternoon.

Mrs. Comstock, wife of Professor George C. Comstock of the astronomy department, is seriously ill.

All University girls are cordially invited to attend the Y. W. C. A. meeting next Wednesday, Oct. 10th at five o'clock, Ladies Hall, Mrs. Dr. Elsom will speak to the girls on "Christian Liberty."

Congressman Littlefield of Main, who speaks tonight in the assembly chamber on the political issues of the campaign from a republican standpoint, held a reception to the students in the Park Hotel this afternoon.

University Orchestra.

Students passing through the gymnasium Saturday afternoon were treated to a class of music much different from the usual boisterous and deafening band music. The sweet sounds of the violin and flute showed that the University orchestra was under way. This is a musical organization which is needed to fill out and otherwise almost complete the list of University organizations. The prospects for a successful orchestra are very good under such an experienced leader as Prof. Nitschke. Ten players attended the first meeting but double that number would have been present but for a change in date.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

There was an attendance of about seventy-five at the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the senior law lecture room at 4:30 p. m., yesterday. After some singing and a prayer, Mr. Frank Hall, a prominent lawyer of this city, addressed the meeting on "Bible Study."

In the first place Bible study underlies in a way the Y. M. C. A. work. He urged the students to read and read again until they could make the Bible a part of their own mind. After discussing how to study the Bible he passed on to the reasons why one should study it and in closing urged all present to enroll themselves in the Bible classes.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Fred Hook outlined the Y. M. C. A. courses in Bible study for the coming year and again urged the students to join. Most of those present joined the classes, which meet at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. on Sundays.

Chess.

Several chess enthusiasts were heard to-day discussing the possibility of forming a Chess Club. Among so large a number of students many Chess players and many who would like to play Chess ought to be found. Almost every University has its Chess Club. There is no doubt that a club could and should be formed here.

CARDINAL PRIZES.

At the close of each semester four prizes of $25, $20 and $15 (2) will be awarded for efficient service. Reporters and unsalaried editors are eligible for this competition. The management reserves the right to withhold any or all of these prizes provided the work is not of such quality as to merit them.

Students are urged to take advantage of the opportunity offered to secure seats for the Beloit game so far in advance. It is expected that a large crowd will go to Milwaukee to see the game and it will be highly advantageous to make seating arrangements in advance.

Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The reception to the students by the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening, was a great success, notwithstanding the unpleasantness of the evening. These receptions have come to be an annual event, and are of great pleasure and profit to all students, especially to the new students. Here the new student meets most informally all his classmates and discovers that his class is a very large one.

These receptions are given primarily to make the students acquainted with one another, and for this reason the Y. M. C. A. deserves great credit for its work in this direction. These receptions are one of the many causes for the democracy of our institution.

Extracts From University Library Rules.

I. The University library is open daily during term time from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. and from 6:30 to 10 P. M. except on Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. On Saturdays the library is open from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M.

II. Students may become entitled to borrow books for home use upon the presentation of a library deposit card which can be obtained by the payment of $2.00 to the secretary of the Board of Regents. This deposit, less charges for damages and fines, will be refunded upon the return of the card, endorsed by the librarian.

III. The holder of a card is entitled to borrow two books at a time. No two students will be permitted the use of the same card. Books may be retained two weeks and may be renewed for one week. A fine of two cents a day will be charged on each volume retained longer than the rules permit. In order to insure credit for books returned, they must in all cases be delivered to the person at the University library delivery desk.

IV. Encyclopedias, dictionaries and other reference works are not to be taken from the library. All other books are subject to reservation as reference works; when so reserved they may not be drawn from the library except at the close of library hours on Saturdays and must be returned by 8:15 A. M. on the following Monday. A failure to return such books at the proper time will subject the person to fine at double rates and to a forfeiture for one month of the privilege of borrowing reserved books.

V. Unbound periodicals may not be taken from the library by students. When taken from the periodical cases for use in the reading rooms, they are to be returned to their proper places in the case.

VI. All books and periodicals taken from the shelves in the reading and periodical rooms should be returned to their proper places after use. All books obtained from the University library delivery desk should be returned to said delivery desk.

VII. Courtesy to readers demands that the utmost quiet be maintained. Hence all unnecessary conversation is prohibited.

Is Chicago Watching Us?

It has been discovered that some one is getting the football plays at Randall Field. They take them with an Eastman Kodak, and buy their supplies at Sumner's Drug Store, as he carries a full line and is agent for Eastman's goods.

A great many students are finding that a typewriter is almost a necessity. When we remember that one can get through with from three to ten times as much work on a typewriter as with a pen it does not seem strange that they are coming into almost universal use.

The Madison Cycle Co. at 113 State street rents all makes at very reasonable rates and also carries a full line of typewriter supplies.

the effects of the systematic work that they have had in this department of the game. Holes seemed to be opened up continually but the quickness in stopping plays shown by the visitors prevented any considerable gains except in a few instances.

Wisconsin taking the west goal kicked off and secured the ball on a fumble. A series of slashing plays resulted in sending Riordan over for a touchdown in less than three minutes. This was the only score of the game. All three of the backs now got in some good work, Marshall making one run of 20 yards. P. and S. succeeded in holding Wisconsin on downs at critical points and always punted out of danger. Near the end of the half, P. and S. kicked a low ball which rolled on the ground over Wisconsin's goal line. Schreiber following and falling on it. A dispute arose as to whether it was a safety or a touchback but the referee decided that inasmuch as the last impetus given to the ball came from the opponent's side it was a touchback and no points could be scored. Schreiber retired with a bad ankle and Driver moved up to his position. Cropp taking left half. The half ended with the ball inside P. and S.'s 10-yard line.

In the second half Comstock and Poorman replaced Pickett and Turner in the P. and S. line-up. The half was uneventful, being marked by good gain on Wisconsin's part, wrangling over distances and continual punting. The half ended with the ball on the P. and S. 3-yard line. Score 5-0. Met the "Boys."

Dear Father:—After bucking hard all the week I took a constitutional around the pack up town and met several of the boys at the One Minute Coffee House. One fellow ordered "Adam and Eve on a raft" and a cup of fierce coffee. We all followed suit. It proved to be poached eggs on toast and the best Mocha and Java. Send me that V which ma is saving—that "calf money."
