MEN OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH TO SERVE DINNER, JANUARY 18

Lawrence Hollister is General Chairman of the Dinner Committee, Carl M. Bjorge will have charge of the Dining Room. Alfred Johnson, Roy Johnson, Volmer H. Sorensen, Leslie Sawyer, Ed. Zabler will prepare the food.

It is up to Gene Hollister and Frank Van Epps to get the crowd out to eat the fine dinner that is assured.

The proceeds of the dinner go to the improvement fund of the Church.

The Congregational Church Building Society loaned without interest the sum of $1,000 provided the Church raise $600. Already the new roof is on and paid for. The interior of the Church and parsonage will be redecorated as well as the outside.

Work is going on now at the parsonage.

Every one is interested in seeing the Church property in the best of condition so will be glad to help by attending this dinner.

Dinner served at 6.00 P.M. Wednesday, January 18.

WILLIAMS BAY BOWLING TEAMS

Bowling is quite a sport with local men. There are three teams which are entered in leagues: The Vikings, Bay Bees, Bay Oils. The first two bowl at Elkhorn and the latter at Darien.

Commencing next week the scores will be run in Bay Leaves.

Look for them.

The teams advertise Williams Bay.

THIRTY THREE AT MEN'S CLUB

Thirty-three members of the Men's Community Club attended the January meeting which was held at Normandie Coffee Shop last Tuesday. A very fine dinner was served.

President Burton had reason to feel proud of the loyal support that he was assured from the members.

The Officers this year are R.E. Burton, president; F.M. Van Epps, vice-president and Dr. C.Y. Wiswell, Sec'y-Treasurer.

A committee will be appointed to bring in a policy for the future of the Club.

No meeting in February on account of the Men's Annual Banquet on or about February 20th. Dr. Wiswell is Chairman this year.

BASKET BALL FRIDAY NIGHT

Williams Bay High School Teams will play Clinton at Williams Bay Gymnasium tomorrow night. This will be an exciting game and should draw a big crowd.

Get out and root for the local team.

SPECIAL NUMBER

On January 26th a number as large as the Christmas number will be published. It will be a booster number and have several pages of printed matter with pictures. Order copies in advance at 10¢ each to send to your friends.

WILLIAM H. FREYTAG, WMS BAY, FORMER DISTRICT ATTORNEY, ENTERS PRIVATE PRACTICE IN ELKHORN

A new law firm was announced last week between William H. Freytag, who has served Walworth County as District Attorney for the past four years, his term expiring January 2, and Attorney William A. Sheldon in Elkhorn. The firm will be known as Sheldon & Freytag, and will continue with offices at 9 S. Wisconsin Street.

Atty. William A. Sheldon, a native of Lake Geneva, has practiced law in Elkhorn since his graduation from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1928. He entered practice with Atty. Charles Wilson and in 1930 established his own office in Elkhorn.

Atty. William H. Freytag graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1931 and worked in the Omar T. McMahon law office in Milwaukee for one year, moving to Williams Bay in 1932, where he practiced law for two years during which time he served as Village Attorney for Williams Bay and Walworth.

The offices at 9 S. Wisconsin Street are now being remodeled to provide additional space.

BELFRY PLAYERS

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Belfry Theatre, held Monday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hutton in Williams Bay, plans for the summer season were drafted to be presented to the organization at the next meeting. A season of six plays is being scheduled, which will require the services of two directors, who will alternate in producing the plays. The list of plays under consideration was also discussed, and about ten suitable plays are to be considered for the final choice. Of these, two will be major productions, that is, shows with large casts; the others with casts of ten or twelve.

The regular meeting will be held on Friday of this week at the home of Martha Ibsen, Cedar Point Park. The program will be a review of "Kind Lady", one of the plays on the list of possibilities for next season. Mary Ann Russell and Joe Diegnan are in charge of the program.
