THE 1902 BADGER

MATERIAL FOR BOOK ASSUMING SUBSTANTIAL FORM.

Slowness of Seniors Only Obstacle in Way of Early Appearance—Many Innovations Planned.

The material submitted for the 1902 Badger is now beginning to assume some substantial form. The Board has been hard at work for the last two months in collecting the photos and statistics necessary for the book. With the exception of the senior summaries and photos, which are unusually slow in coming in this year, the material is practically all collected. It is the earnest desire of the Board to have the book out shortly after Easter. The only obstacles at present in the way of its early appearance are these senior summary blanks and photos. The interest shown by the seniors this year in the Badger has not been in any way what it should be. Many seniors have even neglected to have their pictures taken; as many more have not yet selected their thesis subjects and still others seem to have utterly ignored the repeated request of the Board in regard to the photos and summaries. If the seniors would make this a personal matter and remember that it is their book as much as the Board's, and that without their immediate support the book will not be the success that it should be, its early appearance would be assured.

Many innovations in all departments of the Badger are promised this year and the Board is confident that it will exceed all others in brilliancy, in appearance and in general popularity with the students. In fact it will be such a book that every student will be proud to have it in his library.

Since the price will be $1.50 this year instead of $1.00 as formerly, the mechanical makeup will be a radical departure from that in any previous Badger. Many special attractions will be introduced within its covers and the cover itself will be a novelty, unique but rich in design.

The art work is this year of an exceptionally high grade and the increase in the amount of excellent work in this department will be a marked feature. The illustrations, also, will be of a much higher standard than previously and with this in view the work will be done by one of the largest and best known engraving firms in the country. Originality and novelty have been sought for in the entire preparation of the material for the book. The competition for prizes in the literary and art departments has been very close; the work submitted is of a very high quality. All of the work is of an extremely original character which will naturally tend toward making the annual a thoroughly representative production of college life.

The prizes in both departments will be announced in a few days.

Meanwhile, seniors, select your thesis subject, fill out your summary blanks, have your pictures taken and help the Badger Board in their honest attempt to get their book out early.

—Mr. Goldsmith of the Goldsmith orchestra which is to furnish the music for the Prom was in town yesterday to confer with the Prom committee. Nothing definite was decided upon.

Why Wisconsin Was Wise.

The wisdom of Wisconsin's legislators was never more in evidence than it was the day they were willing to add a commercial course to the University courses.

When one looks abroad and sees a little kingdom like Saxony, a state of Germany, with less than four million souls sending to far off parts annually, manufactured goods worth upwards of $100,000,000 all the raw materials of which go in from our country, Australia, the East and from South America one is urged to ask how it happens and to seek inspiration to do likewise. Saxony is a long way from the sea. It is an inland state of the German empire. Its natural resources are few and of little value. It owes its greatness to the industrial art, commercial and technical education of its people. It is no better off, hardly as well off, as far as natural resources are concerned, as is this state, and yet its paper, textiles of all kinds, from the coarsest cottons to the finest silks, its leather wares, toys, dolls, scientific instruments china and glass ware go to all parts of the world. The people of Wisconsin, thrifty, intelligent, honest, and industrious by training and inheritance, have the foundation for just such success as has come to Saxony in recent years. The development of its industries, now in their infancy, is to go on and on with ever accelerating speed. To carry forward the success, in agriculture, commerce will have to be studied and coaxed to come to the farmer's aid. What will it profit him to run his farm successfully, along scientific lines, laid down for him and learned at the agricultural college, unless he has learned also the laws of merchandising or marketing his goods? In that day, the rich red of whose dawning, is lighting the horizon line, when Wisconsin is to add woolen mills, iron works in the south, great paper mills, toy and wood working shops along all its rivers to the mills and shops already in operation, the merchant-manufacturer will want to know all about the world's markets in which to buy as well as to sell. Schools of Commerce will keep these before him or before his boys. It is significant that Saxony referred to in this article, far inland, has set the pace in merchandising as well as in commercial education for the German empire if not for all Europe. It is just as significant that the Regents of Wisconsin's University were the first in this country to set the proper pace in the matter of commercial education. Let us hope that the merchandising is to follow. There is no good reason to regret any step taken; there will be I believe, every reason to rejoice thereover. For such a people, possessing just, thrift, industry and intelligence second to no people in the world, must march up from a merely agricultural to a great industrial and commercial state. It must certainly do this, to be true to its motto of Forward.

J. C. Monaghan.

To Abolish Tuition.

In the senate last night Senator Mills introduced a bill abolishing tuition in the University and other state institutions for residents of Wisconsin.

The bill says: "It is hereby declared unlawful for any person or body of persons to charge any bona fide resident of this state a tuition for receiving instruction in or attending the Wisconsin State University or any of its kindred institutions receiving aid from this state."

This would include the various normal schools of the state.

UNUSUAL INTEREST

SHOWN IN THE HARESFOOT PLAY OF FEB. 8.

Large Number Expected From Out of Town—Scenic Artists From Milwaukee—Advertising Schemes.

There has never been the widespread and general interest in any University entertainment that there is in the Haresfoot Dramatic club performance to be given at the Fuller on Feb. 8. Friends of the club in Milwaukee, Racine, Oshkosh and nearly all the smaller towns about Madison have already endeavored to secure seats. It is expected that over one hundred people from outside this city will be present.

Manager Snow has secured from Gillin and Co., of New York the posters used in the regular southern production and the somewhat novel sight will be observed of an amateur production billed in the most approved professional style.

This insures the attendance of a large number of townspeople who are not reached by the ordinary channels of University advertising. The time when the box office will be opened for the initial sale of seats will be announced in tomorrow night's Cardinal. A rigorous attempt will be made by the management to limit strictly the number of seats to be sold to any one person, so that it will be possible for all who are on hand to secure seats.

Mr. Howard Tuttle, scenic artist of Milwaukee will be in Madison Friday to especially prepare some of the scenery to be used in the Mill scene. Mr. Herman Reuter of Milwaukee has been engaged to supervise the costuming and make-ups on the night of the play. This is made necessary by the large number in the cast—twenty-four in all. The rehearsals are proceeding with unusual success and the club is confident that no professional company this season has played to a larger or more delighted audience than will be at the Fuller a week from next Friday evening.

Another Meet Feb. 23rd.

February twenty-third has been decided upon as the date for the next indoor meet. As at the meet last Saturday night, one of the chief attractions will be another inter-fraternity relay race, and on account of the intense rivalry existing between the different fraternities, it will doubtless be a very interesting and hard fought race. Either a cup or pennant will be put up as a trophy for the winning team.

Another feature of the program will probably be a relay race between the "Hill" students, Law students and Engineers, though as to this nothing has as yet been definitely decided. Such a race would be novel, and if sufficient interest were aroused it would be a good event and a drawing card as well.

The other events have not yet been decided upon and it is too early yet to make any announcements.

Primary Election Bill.

The primary election bill was introduced last evening in both branches of the legislature. E. Ray Stevens presented the governor's pet measure in the assembly. Senator Miller introduced the bill into the senate.

Club Swinging.

Mr. Ishikawa's class in Club Swinging has begun work, and all who intend to join will hand in their names to me at once, so that the preliminary lessons may be taken by all. The class meets on Mondays at 5, and on Saturdays at 4, and it open to all. Credit will be given to Freshmen and Sophomores.

J. C. Elsom.

Greek Life.

Announcement has been made in the Cardinal, and through some of the instructors, that I would give a course of illustrated lectures in Greek Life, in case as many as 20 students took out cards for it. Those who wish the course might inform me to-morrow or Thursday at room 6, M. H. It would be sufficient to put a slip of paper with the name under the door. The lectures do not presuppose a knowledge of Greek, will be given Thursdays at 4 p. m., and will count as a one-fifth.

Chas. Forster Smith.

Elocution.

New classes in this subject will be formed for the 2nd semester as follows:—

1. A class for beginners meeting three hours per week as follows:—at 10 o'clock on M., W. and F. in Athenae Hall.

2. A class in Declamation giving practice in delivery of selections oratorical and dramatic, meeting two hours per week as follows:—Tu. and Th. at 10 o'clock in Athenae Hall.

Students who intend to elect either of these courses are requested to give their names to me in advance.

W. H. Pyre.

Course in Mental Development.

The course in Mental Development will be repeated the second semester, three-fifths, M. W. F. at 9. Particular attention is directed to the hour of recitation.

I shall offer the following courses also: Principles of Education,—with special reference to the work of the High School; three-fifths, M. W. F. at 10.

Educational Classics,—readings in some of the great classic writers on Education—Plato, Aristotle, Plutarch, Montaigne, Locke, Rousseau, et al. two-fifths, W. F. at 11.

Seminary in Education,—discussion in current educational questions, one-fifth, W. 7:30-9:30 p. m. every alternate week.

Genetic Psychology,—genesis of the social and ethical emotions, two-fifths, M. 2-4.

NOTICE.

The columns of the Daily Cardinal are always open to the students and faculty of the University. Any anonymous communications will not be published. The full name of the writer should accompany each communication. The name, however, will not be published unless it is so desired.

CARDINAL DURING EXAMINATION WEEK.

The Cardinal will be published tomorrow and Thursday of this week. It will be published on Friday only of examination week. All official notices for that issue must be left with the Registrar or the Librarian not later than 9 o'clock on that morning. All notices dropped in the boxes should be marked "official."

An Important Feature.

One of the best features of the literary societies, and one that may even now be enlarged, is the social side of their gatherings. The friendships formed and associations contracted will remain forever fond memories in the minds of the alumni as they go forth to take up their respective stations in life. Many an old Wisconsin man has come back on a visit to his alma mater and declared that he would willingly place the training and result obtained from membership in one or other of the three organizations of the kind on the hill above all else he gained, while in attendance upon the University. This may be an exaggeration but if it is such, the feeling that prompted the statement is a commendable one and is due largely to the social features of the society. Men cannot meet in weekly debate and other trials of intellectual skill and acumen without gaining a wholesome respect and a kindly feeling towards their fellow members—a sentiment that will remain with them for years to come. And then too, the little "song services" at recess time, that have recently become popular are further evidences of good fellowship. On the whole membership in a literary society may be said to give us far more than mere skill at debate.

Examination Marks.

Some of the professors on the hill have adopted the system of sending their standings to those who are anxious for them on an addressed postal card supplied by the students at the examination. The system is excellent and should it be generally employed, would do away with a world of annoyance to the instructors.

Weather Forecast.

Occasional snows Tuesday; rising temperature; east to southeast winds, brisk. Wednesday clearing.

Local and Personal.

—Miss Mayhew, Chadbourne Hall, is spending a few days at her home in Minneapolis.

—"Pete" Husting, former crack pitcher of the University, has been signed by the American league. His salary is to be $300 a month. Husting had just opened a law office with his brother when the offer came to him.

—The representatives of the six societies, who will contest in the Junior Oratorical Exhibition, have nearly finished their manuscripts and in a short time will be ready to appear. The date for the contest was originally set for the middle of February but on account of examinations a postponement will probably be made.

—Workmen have begun relaying the sewer pipes to Main Hall. In making connections they now use asphalt. The cement formerly used was impractical, the main fault being that the roots of the nearby elm trees repeatedly disintegrated the cement connections and burst or clogged the pipes.

—By the end of the week it will be possible to tell the result of the two hundred vaccinations recently made on Short Course and Dairy students. About one half of this large number were primary vaccinations and practically all were made on Friday or Saturday of the same week the date will be of considerable value.

—This morning Henry M. Schultz of Nora, Ill., was awarded the scholarship annually given to the second year Short Course student who shows the greatest proficiency in veterinary science. This scholarship is of the value of $75 and is given by the Mc Killif Veterinary College of Chicago. Warren C. Glasgow of Waterloo, Illinois was awarded the prize given to the second year student attaining the highest standing in veterinary science. He gains $10 worth of books on that subject—the books to be selected by the department. This prize is annually given by the Henry Riedeburg Farm at Stone Bank.

Purdue athletics are now out of debt, the $2,500 indebtedness contracted in '97 by poor business management having been paid off by faculty, resident alumni, and students.

Student Notices.

SENIORS!

Have you had your picture taken and filled out your summary blank for the Badger Board? If you have not kindly do so at once. By February first every picture and summary blank should be in the hands of either the Photo or Chronicle committees.

If you haven't received a blank notify the Board at once. This includes all students graduating in 1901, whether in June or in Summer School.

Y. W. C. A.

No more meetings will be held until next semester, February 14th.

Crew Candidates.

All crew candidates should watch the bulletin-board in regard to the time they are to report for crew work. Andrew M. O'Dea.

Odd Jobs.

Men who have made application for odd jobs at the Employment Bureau of the Y. M. C. A. would do well to call occasionally to the office, as jobs go, for the most part, to the men most available at the time.

Badger Board.

The Board will meet at usual Wednesday evening. As this is the last meeting until Feb. 11, a full attendance is especially desired. Members of the Chronicle and Photo committees are asked to come prepared to report on the progress of their work. Chairman.

Oratorical Contest.

The attention of those intending to enter the oratorical contests this year, is called to the following: The sophomore preliminary will be held on the 3rd Friday in February; the Junior Ex. on the fourth Friday in February; the junior preliminary, on the Wednesday succeeding the Junior Ex.; the senior preliminary on the Monday preceding the junior preliminary, and the annual final contest of the oratorical league, on the second Friday in March. Contestants should prepare their orations to Prof. Frankenburg at least three weeks prior to the date of the contest which they are to enter. R. A. Maurer.

The Seminary students at Stanford have drawn up resolutions expressing their regard for Dr. Howard and Professor Spencer and their regret at the departure of the two gentlemen.

The maroons are to meet the combined Y. M. C. A. teams of Chicago Saturday in a track meet.

RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE.

In Affiliation with the Univ. of Chicago. Organized 1837.

The academic year of Rush Medical College is divided into four quarters, corresponding with those recognized with the University of Chicago, beginning respectively the first of July, first of October, first of January and first of April, each continuing for twelve weeks. A recess of one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next following.

The general course of instruction requires four years of study in residence with a minimum attendance upon three Quarters of each year. A student may begin his college work on the first day of any Quarter, and may continue in residence for as many successive Quarters as he desires. Credit will not be allowed, however, for more than three consecutive Quarters. At least 45 months must elapse between the date of a first matriculation and the date of graduation. For further information, address RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE, Chicago, Illinois.
