NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the secretary at the office of the librarian of the Wausau Free Public Library, Wausau, Wis., until two o'clock p.m., Monday, October 16th, 1905, for furnishing all the materials for and for constructing a library building for the city of Wausau, to be completed not later than October 15th, 1906, and the basement walls of said building to be completed not later than December 1st 1905, according to the plans and specifications drawn and prepared by George W. Maher, architect, No. 218 LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill. Said plans and specifications are on file at the office of the librarian of the said library, at Wausau, Wis., and at the office of George W. Maher, at Chicago, Ill.

Contractors may submit separate bids for the material and construction of the heating and plumbing of said building, and for the material and construction of the remainder thereof, or for the heating and plumbing alone, and for the construction of the remainder of said building alone, at their option.

No bid will be considered unless accompanied by a certified check, made payable to the directors of the Wausau Free Public Library, in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) if for the entire building or for such building exclusive of heating and plumbing, and two hundred dollars ($200.00) if for the heating and plumbing alone; such check to be forfeited to said board as liquidated damages if the party whose bid is accepted by said board fails to enter into a contract with said board according to the terms of such bid. But no contractor shall be required to deposit a check for more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) because of any division he may make in his bid as herein authorized.

The successful bidder must furnish bonds as required in the specifications, for the faithful performance and completion of the work. The board of directors of the said Wausau Free Public Library expressly reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated this 28th day of September, 1905, by order of the Board of Directors of the Wausau Free Public Library.

Louis Marchetti President.

Mary W. Dickens Secretary.
