ELECT 46 AS MEMBERS OF PHI KAPPA PHI

Fourteen Women and 32 Men Are Honored By Senior Society

NAME THREE IN FACULTY

Forty-six juniors and seniors have been elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi, the only honorary society which includes and represents all colleges of the university. The basis of election is such that only representative men and women with scholarship of the highest order are eligible.

Of those honored at this time, 14 are women chosen from among the students in letters and science courses and home economics. The various colleges are represented in the present election in the following manner: Law, two; Agriculture, five; Engineering, nine; Letters and Science, 30.

The Elections

The elections follow: Law—Phillip La Follette, Madison, and Marl Francis Mikkleson, Arkdale.

Agriculture—Charles D. Byrne, Oregon; W. H. Ebling, Richfield; K. P. Link, La Porte, Ind.; Lois Raymond, Troy, N. Y., and Mildred Downie, Madison.

Letters and Science

Letters and Science—Leroy D. Edwards, Lancaster; Herbert F. Copeland, Chico, Calif.; Lyle Phillip, Madison; Dean K. Kimball, Janesville; Ralph Spence, La Crosse; Melbourne Bergerman, Pueblo, Colo.; Sterling H. Tracy, Memphis, Tenn.; William M. Sale, Louisville, Ky.; G. Fred Brewer, Indianapolis, Ind.; John A. Dollard, Fond du Lac; Burton H. White, Oconomowoc; Edwin C. Guyer, Madison; Robert B. Stewart, Madison. (Continued on Page 12)

PREP QUINTETS GIVEN BANQUET BY "W" WEARERS

Winning Fond du Lac Team is Royally Toasted at Feed

The Fond du lac basketball team, winners of the seventh annual high school tournament and recipients of the Milwaukee Journal, the banquet given by "W" men at the banquet given by W men at the Capitol cafe last night, for the participants in the tourney. The teams which competed in the tournament and their coaches and all "W" men were present.

A cup was also presented to the New Richmond team which lost to Fond du lac last night, placed second in the tourney. Eight individual gold fobs were also awarded to the members of the winning team.

Coach Tom Jones, "Duke" Caesar, "Rollie" Williams, and representatives of the Fond du lac team made speeches.

"You can find many opportunities to work for your schooling, and you will find working under Dr. Meanwell a decided pleasure, if you come to Wisconsin and continue your basketball work," Caesar told the high school athletes. Williams congratulated the teams for the spirit of fair play which pervaded the tournament.

PHANTOM BAND PLACES FIRST IN PARADE CONTEST

Groth and Wille Carry Off Honors in Individual Competition

"An 8 o'clock in 1930," by L. A. Groth '25 and C. W. Wille '22 won the first prize in the individual contest, and the Phantom band by R. H. Herrick '22 won the first prize in the group contest of the Engineer's parade yesterday afternoon. "The Radio Controlled Husband" by the Signal club received honorable mention, but was not eligible for a prize.

"The Observatory" by William H. Carson '22 won second prize, and "Result of Home Ec. Agric Mixers" by Edward A. Wessely '23 and A. F. Roller '25 won third prize in the group contest. "Strong for Twenty Years" by C. M. Hare '23 won second prize, and "The Geologist" by W. O. Gericke '22 won third prize in the individual contest of the parade. "The Music School Pipe Organ" by A. S. M. E., and "Why Ags Leave Home" by A. S. C. E. received second and third places for honorable mention.

Entries Wer Many

More entries characterized the performance of the followers of St. Patrick this year than any previous year.

More as a prelude than a reflection on the efficiency of the city street cleaning department, came the street cleaners of Kellet and company. Every stray piece of paper on the road received its due share of attention, until the way was absolutely clean.

The gentlemen Kundorf and Samp kept discreetly well in the center of their car and thus kept the intruding rain drops from their tuxedoes. The sacred Blarney stone, destined this day to receive the embraces of fond engineers, followed them.

St. Pat on Hand

St. Pat was there himself, resplendent in robes of royal green. He smiled benignly on the bystanders and reassured them that the serpent which followed was but a garter snake.

Diverse floats followed, among them a few which slipped by while the censor took a hasty retreat occasioned by a mysterious wheelbarrow, which was good for 20 years.

COLOR AND HARMONY OF BALL PLAY WINS FAVOR OF AUDIENCE

By VIRGINIA SCHMUCK

"The Bells of Beaujolais" played to an enthusiastic audience last night at the Parkway, making its appeal to the sense of color and harmony. Exquisite color combinations and musical numbers, coupled with good acting, made the Gun and Blade club play a decided success.

The first scene was in a public square in Beaujolais in which flowers and natural beauty predominated, lending a colorful setting to the picturesque costumes of the villagers and other actors on the program.

The second scene was placed in a garden at Castle Beaujolais, with gold and red lanterns set off to effect against a blue-green background. Costumes of varied colors and designs, the flowers, the lively music, and easy acting lent a carnival spirit to the whole play.

John Sheldon as John Bender, a wealthy American widower, stood out as the success of the evening. His rollicking characterization and natural ease on the stage made his audience agree with him when he spoke of his "attractive way." In his costume of the American navy, Sheldon brought forth unrestrained mirth.

Dane Vermilion as Aunt Sarah Jessup, Bender's widow-sister, gave

FOND DU LAC BASKETBALL TEAM WINS STATE HIGH SCHOOL TITLE; DEFEATS NEW RICHMOND, 22-19

SAINT CROIX WINS JUDGING TOURNEY

Northern School Takes Permanent Possession Of Trophy As Result Of Second Victory.

The Saint Croix Falls high school livestock judging team won the state championship in competition with 17 other high school teams at the annual livestock judging contest. This is the second consecutive year that Saint Croix Falls has been declared state champion, and as a result this northern school now takes permanent possession of the handsome trophy presented by the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association.

The St. Croix Falls aggregation is coached by Louis Bensend, '16. Members of the winning team are Paul Ellefson, George Sorenson, and Helga Larson.

First honors as individual judges in the contest were awarded to Howard Bowen, Neillsville, George Cooley, was the second best judge of the contest.

In the dairy cattle classes, first place was awarded to Everett LaDuke, Gilmanton, Herbert Hazel, Sheboygan won second place. The 10 best judges of dairy cattle are picked to judge at the Wisconsin State fair next fall. The best judges there are awarded free transportation to the National Dairy show.

Eighteen high schools and county schools of agriculture were entered in the contest.

Daring Frosh Takes Dip in Icy Mendota

Howard C. Morton, '25, won a $5 bet yesterday noon when, fully clothed, he waded out into the icy waters of Lake Mendota until he was completely submerged.

The ice along the shore of the fourth lake did not break up until early Saturday morning, and, as far as is known, Morton holds the record for being the first to dare a swim.

a very realistic characterization of a high-brow, frequently-shocked aristocrat who surveys the rest of the world under the questioning lorgnette.

Other good characterizations were those of Olivia Fentress as the Countess Marie, a rich spinster; Paul Tobey as the Duke of Beaujolais; Eiel Myrlan as Harkins, the valet; and Helene French as Phyllis, Bender's daughter. Vernon Beardsley, J. A. Desmond, Helen Patterson, Gertrude Haase, Deborah Olds, and Florence Kohn were attractive in their parts.

The musical numbers were, almost without exception, delightful. The opening chorus number of "Flowers! Flowers!" "Except" with Olivia Fentress and Paul Tobey in the lead, and "The Fairest Dream of All," a duet with Vernon Beardsley and Gertrude Haase, were the best in the first act. In the second act "Lady Moon" was one of the most melodious numbers.

One of the most popular numbers of the evening was the fairy dance by the little children. Their folk and fairy dancing was delightfully done, and their costumes blended well with the settings.

Sidney Thorson, '24, originated the exceptional lighting effects of the play.

Consolation Series
Superior 25, Fall Creek 10.
Superior 23, Argyle 12.

Displaying a versatile attack that kept their opponents guessing at every stage of the game, the Fond du Lac high school basketball team won the state title last night by defeating New Richmond in the final clash of the seventh annual tournament. The score was 22 to 19.

Superior won the consolation series from Argyle by a score of 23 to 12. This game was much closer than the score would indicate, and, had it not been for Argyle's lack of ability to locate the basket, the count might have stood differently.

Dope Favored Losers

Although the advance dope favored New Richmond, the Fond du Lac five gained a six-point lead in the first few minutes of play, which enabled them to keep ahead of the northerners the whole time.

Whether or not the fact that the losing teams had to play two games yesterday cost them the game is not known, but Fond du Lac threw up a defense which would have been hard to penetrate under any circumstances, and no set of fresh guards would have been able to prevent Captain McKinley from making the baskets that he caged from all positions on the floor.

BALLIETTE IS A CANDIDATE FOR CARDINAL BOARD

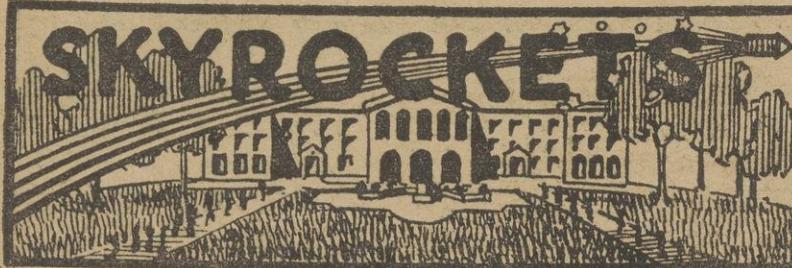

Has Had Eight Years' Experience as High School Principal

Ralph E. Balliette, '23, president of the Cardinal Board of Control, has announced his candidacy for re-election to one of the two one-year positions on the Cardinal board, which will be filled at the annual spring student election on April 28.

Balliette has had eight and one-half years' experience as a high school principal in this state. He is a graduate of the Platteville State Normal school, and while at Platteville in 1911-12, was editor-in-chief of the Pioneer and president of the Press association.

He has served on the Cardinal Board of Control since last fall, when he was appointed to fill a vacancy, and has had experience both as treasurer and later as the president of that board. He was also enrolled in a course in the journalism department last semester.

Balliette was treasurer of the 1923 Junior promenade, and is a member of Acacia, Phi Delta Phi, and Phi Delta Kappa fraternities. He is on the board of directors of Square club and is a member of the Interfraternity conference.

GOOD MORNING—

AND speaking of the aforesaid a. m. that's what it ain't nothing else but, as Big Ben smilingly says "1:26½" Sunday morning.

WHICH reminds us, as you have already probably noticed, that we are green hands at pounding off this black and white stuff which is meant to be read.

STILL, through the use of that colorful term, "green," we are able to gently lead the gentle reader back to that pious procession of plumbers which pillaged the region between the Libe and the Capitol yesterday p. m.

RUMORS hold that the lawyers are disgusted because they did not receive their usual amount of publicity as a result of St. Pat's annual hike.

AT that rate, the Ag school should now be well enough known so that even an L. and S. junior could direct a stranger how to reach the stables.

THEN, too, numerous inquiries poured into our office yesterday as to when the next Agric-Home Ec mixer would be slated.

TABU TAXIS AND FLOWERS AT BALL

That taxis will not be used by those attending the Military ball on April 7, became apparent at a recent meeting of the Cadet Officers' association at which time all the members agreed to discourage the use of taxis as much as possible. Flowers will be absolutely prohibited.

"We feel that the majority of the students are in favor of the measures and will do all in their power to observe them to the letter," said Evrard C. Caluwaert, '22 general chairman of the ball, yesterday.

These steps have been taken in order to make it possible for a representative number of students to attend the military function, according to Caluwaert.

Birge Recommends Rigid Requirements

Plans to make entrance requirements more rigid at the university are recommended by Pres. E. A. Birge in a communication to members of the board of regents.

Overcrowding of the university, during recent years will be stopped to a considerable degree, should President Birge's communication be acted upon favorably, it is believed.

It has been attempted in various ways since the enrollment has reached 7,000 to induce many students to start their college careers in normal schools or smaller institutions of the state.

Tryouts For Frosh "Dec" Held Monday

Tryouts for the freshman declamatory contest will be held on Monday in 165 Bascom hall. The tryouts are open to all men in the declamations or those taken from other sources may be used, providing they are not over 10 minutes long.

Prof. J. P. O'Neill, of the department of speech, Carroll Heft, '23, and Victor Werner, '22, will act as judges of the tryouts. The men wishing to enter must register with Prof. O'Neill before March 27.

Winners of this open freshman contest will meet the men selected by the literary societies on March 29 in 165 Bascom hall.

EDISON ACCEPTS SCOTT'S APOLOGY

That Prof. W. A. Scott, director of the School of Commerce at the university, has sent a letter of apology to Thomas A. Edison for remarks made in a recent letter to Mr. Edison, became known here yesterday.

Mr. Edison has already addressed a letter to Prof. Scott in which he has accepted the apology and states that he is willing to let the matter "become a closed incident."

It is said that Prof. Scott will take a year's leave of absence from the university. Prof. Scott's friends assert that he has not been in good health for some time.

ORCHESTRA HOLDS SECOND CONCERT

The second concert of the season by the University orchestra, under the direction of Professor E. W. Murphy, will be given at Music hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock. This will probably be the last public performance of the orchestra this year.

The following program will be given: "Italian Symphony," by Mendelssohn; selections from "Hansel and Gretel," Humperdinck; "Blue Danube" waltzes by Strauss; "Hungarian March," by Berlioz. The public is invited to attend.

GRAD DIES AT MONROE

MAHLON H. CARADINE, LAW, '19, KILLS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE.

Mahlon H. Caradine, '19, killed himself with a rifle at the home of his father in Monroe Thursday. Caradine's career at the university was a brilliant one. He may be remembered for his eloquent oratory and his excellent work in the law school. His father and mother, Attorney and Mrs. N. B. Caradine, and his wife, survive him.

When Seeking Price in Buying Clothes—You Sacrifice Quality

Usually ordinary made clothing is the easiest kind to sell. But we cannot believe it is good business for us to sell it, because we know it is not good business for you to buy it.

The quality in Grinde Clothes has never varied. Down in their innermost parts, they are skillfully hand-tailored in a way that gives them style and character that will last until the fabric is worn out.

If you are not acquainted with Grinde clothes, let us introduce them to you at your earliest convenience.

SCHOLARSHIP PLUS

WHAT constitutes a university education? Is it measured in grades or grade points, the time served sitting in the classroom, the hours of midnight oil burned, the number of organizations joined, the number of functions attended, the political caucuses held, or in the amount of time spent? Does the worth while education depend on the department in which the major lies, the course, school, division, or college where the student is enrolled?

The annual elections of Phi Kappa Phi, honorary society, raises this question in many student minds. The founders of this organization stressed scholarship plus—high and creditable marks in scholarship plus the qualities of strong character, forceful leadership, vision, and outstanding personality.

Phi Kappa Phi tries not to gamble on the future, but applies the yardstick of scholastic standing plus the guide rule of things accomplished as leaders in the college world. Grades are required for nomination for membership in this society; active leadership for election.

Realizing the broadening of character accomplished through the contact of students, both men and women, in the various courses and colleges, this society affords a meeting place for the leader in arts and letters, science, engineering, horticulture, law, medicine, music, or commerce. It is the only place where all student leaders may meet on the broad platform of scholarship plus. The guiding idea or motto of the society is a democratic one: "The love of learning rules the world."

WING—BAG OPTIMISTS

WHAT new species of homo stupidus has arisen. He is the wing-bag optimist. It is not difficult to picture him, since his type is becoming not at all uncommon these days. Generally he is tall, dark, with Arrow-collar features, jack-screwed chest, a chic air about him, and with a pronounced propensity to thrust his thumbs behind his suspenders and jut one foot forward in Napoleonic defiance. Everybody knows him, but nobody says much about him. The female flapper has been so shamefully derided that now it is about time to pay our compliments to her colleague, the male flap.

The male flap is usually a gaudy-colored optimist like all good people with little brains and much ambition. To him everyone that has a modicum of common sense is either a keen mind or a high brow. He himself knows everything poorly and nothing well. He can talk on any subject under the sun provided it is general enough. He is an expert wind-jammer, the salesman type manufactured in the commerce course.

He loves newspaper doggerel, carries on elaborate research to gleam the latest smutty stories and pigeonholes all the moron jokes, for which he has a peculiarly sharp scent. When he reads the Cardinal, he first turns to the Skyrockets; when he reads the Tribune, he turns almost subconsciously to the picture page. On the whole, he is a well-meaning, good-intentioned sort of chap, like all innocent souls bound for the Plutonic highway.

But that is not all. He has some more decidedly good qualities. He has studiously carved in his memory the motto—the only thing he learned from the Bible—"When ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." He is also quite gifted in his own way. He can recite with melodramatic ardor "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" and "The Face on the Bar-Room Floor."

He devours the sport news and gobble up the scandal sheet. When he talks to anyone, his eyebrows do a St. Vitus dance and he feels constrained to assume enough sobriety so that his motives will not be impugned. Always he punctuates his conversation with a paternal handshake and a caressing glance. Otherwise he might be misunderstood!

He is too well known already to need further description and we need only close with the fervent exhortation "From the flapper, preserve us, and also from her friend, the male flap, the wind-bag optimist."

COLLEGES AS CUPIDS

Does the modern educational institution operate as a matrimonial bureau?

This question causes many grave folk to shake their heads sadly, and mutter remarks concerning tempora and mores.

Perhaps the charge is true, more or less, as enemies vociferate. And if so, what of it? It seems that the advantage of such a scheme far outweigh the harm resulting from it, if there be any.

What is more natural than for young people to gravitate toward the married state, and where would this country wind up if college folk did not consider such matters seriously? It is well recognized and accepted by everyone, except man, that woman does the seeking. The truism being operative, why should she not have the opportunity to pick the best husband she can?

Where will a young woman be thrown into the company of a higher class of young unmarried men than in college? There she has unlimited chance to meet and fall in love with a future leader of the race, even while broadening her own mind and adding to her own knowledge. No one would advise her to turn down an offer from a healthy and intelligent young college graduate just because someone croaked, "I told you so."

The present state of economic duress which postpones the average marriage of well-educated couples beyond the age of 25, or even longer, is unfortunate. Too many of our college graduates, the salt of the earth, remain single.

By all means let the educational institution operate overtime, if necessary.—Indiana Daily Student.

Cornell seems to have gone the limit in the matter of Sabbath observance. She has even closed her library on Sundays, much to the disgust of the Cornell Daily Sun.

Several guests from out of town were present at the Sigma Chi formal dinner dance on Friday evening. Among the guests were Miss Charlotte Gates, Indianapolis, Miss Margaret Lambertson, New Ulm, Minn., Miss Dorothy Hahn, Chicago, Miss Hazel Mueller, Milwaukee, Miss Dorothy Schmolze, New York city, Curtiss Moss Buffalo, N. Y., and Richard Stout, Indianapolis.

Tri Delt Has
Guests for Dance

Miss Beulah Strang, Beloit, and Miss Marie Schmutzler, Watertown, were guests from out of town who attended the informal dance given last evening by Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Guests Are Entertained at Several Houses Over Week End

The Misses Marguerite Shepherd and Dorothy Meyer are guests of Alpha Phi sorority for Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Carlock is visiting at the Gamma Phi Beta house this week end. Miss Carlock was graduated from the university last June.

Miss Anna Anderson is entertaining Miss Helen Phillips, Milwaukee, as her guest at the Kappa house.

Miss Louise Madden has her sister, Miss Marguerite Madden, Menomonie, Mich., as her guest for a few days.

Miss Carol Richardson is entertaining Miss Helen Van Order, Racine, for the week end.

Students Make Short
Visits Out of Town

Miss Marian Juneau is in Milwaukee for the week end.

Miss Josephine Keech is spending a few days in Racine.

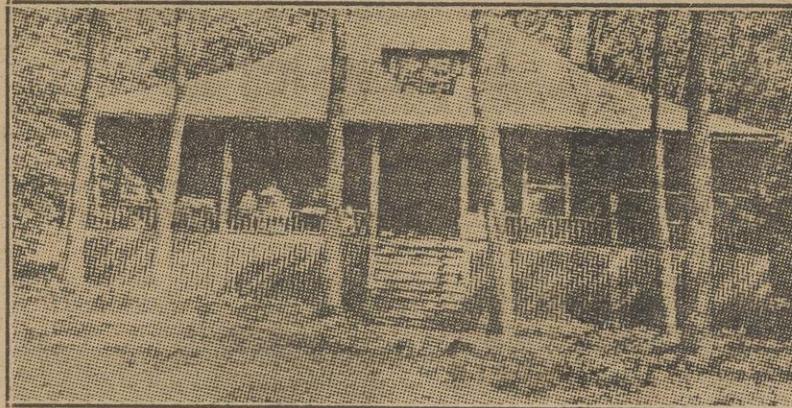

Miss Sybil Mossman left the latter part of the week for Huntington, W. Va., where she will be bridesmaid at a wedding.

Miss Olga Anderson is visiting in Milwaukee over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Katherine Ryan is visiting in Chicago.

Miss Mabel Sauerhering is in Hartford for a short visit.

Miss Gertrude Collins is spending the week end at her home in Rockford, Ill.

Y. W. C. A. Cottage Will Open
For Groups Who Desire Recreation

A party given by the Freshman Y. W. C. A. commission will open the university Y. W. C. A. cottage at Eagle Heights, near Black Hawk's cave, May 5. That same week end, from May 5 to 7, the members of the cabinet will entertain with a house party.

The cottage is open to any girl who wishes to go out to spend the night during the week. The week ends are taken by the various Y. W. C. A. groups. A schedule will be posted in the Y. W. office at Lathrop and any girl who desires may sign up to go to the cottage. Between 20 and 25 girls can be accommodated at one time, and the parties are all chaperoned by Miss Mary Andersen, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Boscoe, the Sig Chi's Russian wolfhound, established his residence at the cottage last summer and hiked back and forth with the fair campers every evening and morning.

One of the humorous features in connection with the cottage last year was the "Incinerator's Union," which Marjorie Severance '23 headed as chief custodian. The union's slogan was, "Bury, Burn, or Bust."

The following week end parties will be given after the opening of the cottage: sophomore commission, May 12 to 14; freshman commission, May 19 to 21; cabinet council, 26 to 28; Y. W. C. A. board, Decoration day.

SHADES OF PARCHMENT

In spite of, or perhaps because of, the scathing criticisms, F. Scott Fitzgerald's, "The Beautiful and Damned," has been the best seller in fiction this last week. More copies of Stewart's "Parody of Outline of History," than any other non-fiction book have been sold.

BEST MUSIC SELLERS

The best sellers this week in records have been: "Virginia Blues," and "You're Only a Baby," Brunswick; "Angel Child," and "Say Persianna Say," Edison; and "Virginia Blues," and "Dear Old Southland," Columbia.

"You're Mine All Mine," and "Kentucky Moon" are the most popular in the sheet music.

FOUND IN THE SHOPS

Joseph's coat-of-many-colors finds its counter part in the slip-on Navajo sweaters on display at Burdick and Murray's. They range in colors from a predominating green to orange, and in price from $3.50 to $5.

Anderson's are showing slip-on silk sweaters of checkerboard weave in dark blue, black, and light brown, for $6.50. Richly colored summer scarfs may be had for $3.50 to $9.

Fringe has arrived in full sway as trimming for the sleeves and bottoms of silk filet sweaters. Keeley and Neckerman's are offering the filet-fringed sweaters for $16.50. They have also an assortment of the slip-overs, in various colors.

TWO-TONE SHOES POPULAR

Two-tone sport shoes are stepping off with all the honors for sportswear. All the shoe stores are showing them, at prices ranging from $6 to $9.50. The yellow-and-brown color combinations are most popular.

Castalia Initiates
New Members

Thirteen new members were initiated into Castalia at the regular meeting held Friday evening. They are: Alice White, Harrieta Lewis, Marion Thompson, Della Dan Dieffenholen, Annette O'Connor, Iris Fellows, Clementine Dolan, Eleanor Hanson, Lillian Tyler, Martha Kohl, Norma Rothenburg, Helen Bauldau, and Cornelia Groth.

Home Ec Students
Help Run Tea Shop

"Charm plus service" is the motto of the first and only University of Wisconsin tea shop, the Rendezvous, 1616 Monroe street, established early in February as a practical laboratory for home economic students in the course in institutional management. It is run under the direction of Miss Mabel C. Little of the home economics department.

Eight senior women in the course in tea room, restaurant, and hotel management who work a week at a time at salads, serving, and as cashiers at the establishment are: Elizabeth Baldwin, Margaret Butler, Dorothea Kroncke, Vivien Seiber, Mary Smiley, Naomi Waffle, and Salome Winkler.

The class will make an observation tour of Milwaukee institutions this spring, under the direction of Miss Little, assisted by Miss Edna Becker and Miss Elizabeth Bemis of the home economics faculty.

Upperclassmen Win
In Basket Tourney

The upperclassmen showed their superiority again in the second games of the women's basketball tournament at Lathrop, Friday evening, when the juniors defeated the sophomores 41 to 29, and the seniors defeated the freshmen 41 to 21.

The juniors and the seniors have each won two games, and the sophomores and freshmen have each lost two games. The next game to be played Wednesday, March 29 at 7:15 between the two tying teams, will determine the class championship.

The sophomore-junior game was marked by hard and fast playing on both sides, the sophomore's good team work losing by inaccuracies to the more accurate playing of the juniors, especially the basket shooting of Phyllis Tatman. The sophomore centers, Esther Bilstad and Ella Mae Smith, and Florence Fox, a forward, played fast games.

The freshmen obtained a lead over the seniors at the first of the game and kept it until nearly the end of the first half which ended 14 to 11 in the senior's favor. The second half, with substituting in the senior lineup and with increased rapidity in shooting baskets, proved too much for the freshmen to contend with.

Red Domino Elects 2
Members; S. G. A. To Install New Officers

Catherine Wilson '24 and Esther Griffith '25 succeeded in the Red Domino dramatic club tryouts last Thursday, and an initiation banquet will be held April 6.

The Red Domino plans to bring its work more closely before the student body by establishing, like the Twelfth Night society, a guest night. Definite plans have not yet been made, but a committee has been assigned to the matter.

Red Domino has been active in its dramatic work on the hill since its organization in the spring of 1899. Under the supervision of Miss Jane Butt the organization was at first a secret one for the stimulation of interest in dramatic work among women. Later it changed its policy and the system of tryouts was adopted.

For several years Miss Gertrude E. Johnson has been its artistic director and supervisor of all the coaching. Under her direction, the society last year produced the plays, "Behind a Watteau Picture," "Helena's Husband," "The Bank Account," "Where But in America?" and this year, "The Untold Tale," "The Shepherd in the Distance," and "Phipps."

The officers who were elected last fall are: Esther Guerne '22, president; Miriam Doan '22, vice-president; Christina Affeld '23, secretary, and Alma Fenn '23, treasurer. New officers will be elected in about two weeks.

S. G. A. Officers
To Be Installed

The installation of the recently elected S. G. A. officers will take place Wednesday, March 29, in Lathrop parlors at 7:15. The officers to be installed are: Cleo Parsley '23, president; Mary Baldwin '23, vice-president; Ellen Harris '24, secretary; Eleanor Head '23, treasurer; Anita Haven '24, district chairman; Pauline Dickinson '24, census chairman.

This is the regular board meeting night but all girls at the university are invited to attend the installation. The reports of the year will be given and Dean Louise Nardin will speak.

Miss Agnes Hall to Talk at Y. W. Vespers

Miss Agnes Hall, a graduate of the class of '14, and national Episcopal student secretary for women, will give an address at Y. W. C. A. vespers this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Lathrop parlors. Miss Hall was national secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Bell Knights '24 will lead the service.

Miss Trilling to Attend
Physical Education Meet

Miss Blanche Trilling, director of Physical Education for women, and national chairman of athletics for women, will leave Tuesday night for Ames, Ia., where she will attend a meeting of the directors of Physical Education for women in colleges of the middle west, at the Iowa State College of Agriculture. She will read a paper on "Some Important Problems in Connection with Women's Athletics."

Miss Trilling will also attend a convention of the Middle West society of Physical Education at Des Moines.

Alpha Pi Epsilon
Initiates New Members

Alpha Pi Epsilon, honorary women's sociology club, initiated the following new members Tuesday with a banquet at the Rendezvous: Josephine Hornadal '23, Margaret Thun '23, Vivian Reinerston '22, Katherine Baird '22, and Alta Irwin, Edith Baker, and Louise Green, graduate students.

Miss Mildred Miller is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carleton Foster, in Oshkosh, over Saturday and Sunday.

Shoes For Well Dressed College People

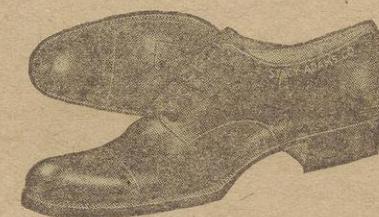

STACY-ADAMS

Sold To Madison Men For 22 Years
NOW WITH THE NEW KARSTEN'S STORE

The Stacy-Adams Company was one of the first to manufacture a high grade shoe. The reputation, so well earned in those early years, has ever grown and prospered.

They were the first to introduce the famous combination lasts in men's footwear. These lasts have been so developed that they border on perfection.

It is the means of giving to you a shoe that fits. It fits where the fit is necessary, giving a snugness in the heel and instep to prevent the slipping and sliding effect.

THE MADISON

Whitman SPECIAL High Grade Shoe

By STANLEY

THE NUT BROTHERS
(Ches & Wal)

Whitman-Keith were one of the first to manufacture a manly style in Women's Footwear.

They combine in their merchandise the qualities of comfort, sturdiness, fit, and wear of men's shoes, but at all times keep in mind the dainty, feminine lines so admired by young women.

As a result they have produced shoes which are a combination of grace, femininity, and style, coupled with restfulness and long wearing qualities.

A Smart Mannish Oxford

Military heel, moderately low shank, clean cut and graceful lines. Hard as a man's shoe, but retaining the trim shapely lines of the feminine foot.

NAME 16 MEN ON
HARESFOOT STAFF

With the announcement of the appointment of 16 men to the production staff of "Kitty Corner," the twenty-fourth annual Haresfoot production, plans for one of the most elaborate and complete productions ever attempted in a college dramatic performance have been finished. Sets for the three acts are being built in a Chicago studio, and costumes are in the making under the direction of a skilled modiste.

Those serving on the production staff are: Carl E. Bronson, '22, manager; Thomas A. Tredwell, '23, and Mord Bogie, '23, assistant managers; Walter K. Schwin, '22, publicity director; Walter Frautsch, '24, Samuel Thompson, '24, and F. Siebert, '23, assistants; William M. Sale, '22, score manager; Wittenberg, '24, C. S. Nolte, '24, John D. Fitzgerald, '24, W. W. Weller; Proehl Jaklon, '23, assistant; and Sidney Thorson, '24, property men.

Grafters' Club to Hear Fruit Expert

B. B. Jones, of the state department of markets, will address the Grafters' club, on the subject, "Breeding Standardizing and Marketing of Wisconsin Fruits," in the Horticulture building, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Mr. Jones has had a wide experience in dealing with Wisconsin fruits, and comes highly recommended. Visitors are urged to attend the lecture.

The Grafters' club plans to give university students an opportunity to hear other authorities on fruit raising in the near future. Among these authorities are C. L. Fluke and L. K. Jones.

Something New Kessenich's

The Exclusive Agency for Hand-Made Parisian Dresses
We have found Something New!
Frocks

Through the assistance of a friend just back from Paris, we were introduced to a French designer of young women's frocks, who has recently established an office in New York City.

The name of the frock is "BAB," and the label that is sewed in every garment is here-with reproduced.

You will be interested to know what kind of frocks these are. They are entirely made by hand of the most wonderful materials—beautifully beaded and embroidered, entirely by hand, and designed along lines that are entirely different and quite in advance of American fashions.

Every good color is shown and the fit and workmanship is superior to anything we have heretofore seen in Misses' Dresses.

They are made in sizes 16, 18 and 20, in both silk and dainty sheer cotton fabrics, and "NO TWO ARE ALIKE."

They are moderately priced—cotton dresses at from $22 up; and silks at from $50 up.

We are showing several in our window displays for today and tomorrow. If you care for an exclusive afternoon gown or frock, you will be more than delighted with these "BAB" dresses.

JONES INJURED IN
ENGINEERS' PARADE

T. Delbert Jones, '22, received severe injuries to his foot while preparing for the Engineer's parade yesterday afternoon, when a tractor ran over his foot. He was first taken to the clinic and later removed to the St. Mary's hospital where he was forced to undergo an operation on his foot. His condition last night was reported as being favorable, but it was said that he would probably have a bad foot for some time, because his toes were quite severely smashed.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The new vaudeville bill which opens at the Orpheum theater Monday will include as its feature attraction Miss Edith Clifford. This young lady has been the hit of the present show at the popular Monona playhouse and is being held over by the management for the first three days of the week and will offer an entirely new program of exclusive songs, with a complete change of costumes.

FOND DU LAC
WINS IN HIGH SCHOOL MEETSuperior Wins Consolation Series From Argyle

fense kept New Richmond on the defense so much of the time that the Hawkins-Williams combination never really got started. Brown also played a wonderful game for the winners, his terrific driving power being the feature of the second half.

The play started off in a furious manner right at the tip-off, and four minutes passed before either team got a close shot at the basket. Wagner, of Fond du Lac, drew the first blood when he caged a field goal, but Captain McKinley followed suit with another basket almost immediately. Breitzman was going at a terrific rate, and the New Richmond five were continually guarding against his sensational dribbles. In addition, he was smothering every attempt that Hawkins made to get in for a short shot.

New Richmond Leads

After 10 minutes of scrimmage, Hawkins did manage to steal in for one of his pet shots, bringing the count up to 10 to 3. The Oshkosh tourney winners then settled down into a cool steady pace, and managed to have a 12 to 7 lead at the end of the first period. Williams was playing a great floor game for New Richmond, but he had little success in locating the iron hoop.

The northerners came back with a rush in the second period, and baskets by Williams and McDermott had the score tied inside of three minutes of play. The next few minutes of play were all in New Richmond's favor, and a long field goal gave them a lead. Breitzman scored a pretty field goal, and immediately afterwards tossed the ball to McKinley for a short shot at the basket. The latter counted, and the score stood 20 to 17 with six minutes left to play.

Fondy Fouls Twice

Williams made a long basket, and Fond du Lac started to stall for the remaining two minutes on a one-point lead. Two fouls by Fond du Lac gave Hawkins as many chances to tie the count, but both of them broke against New Richmond. The suspense evidently got on McKinley's nerves, so he sent another one of his long ones through the hoop for two more points. The New Richmond team fought fiercely to ward off the defeat, but the time was too short, and the gun sounded before any more scoring was done.

The reason for the Fond du Lac victory seemed to lie in the fact that New Richmond depended pretty much on Hawkins to do the scoring, and the latter was watched so closely that he was not able to garner his usual number of points.

Players Are Good

This makes the second consecutive year that the winners of the Oshkosh Normal tournament have won the state title. Last year Appleton won from Menominee in a close game after the former five had played a hard game the same morning.

The two teams that played for the title last night were easily the class of the tournament. Both had well balanced aggregations, and both were coached to a fine degree. The players were heady men who knew their stuff, and the finished machines made the game the most interesting final ever staged at a state tournament here.

outcome was never much in doubt, although the score stood at 10 to 8 at the end of the first period. McCreary hit his stride in the second half, and the Argyle boys were gradually left behind.

It must be admitted that the teamwork of Argyle was way above the ordinary. The downstatters had a massed attack that the Superior defense was never able to stop, but they had no idea as to where the basket was located, and thus could never get into the lead.

Superior has a most unusual record in that the team has played 14 games in the last 22 days. The men plainly showed the results of such a strenuous schedule, as the whole team was played out when the final gun sounded.

The tournament just closed was probably the best ever staged on the local floor. The games were all close and even the weaker teams looked good in defeat. The crowds were much larger than last year, and no game saw a team go on the floor that was not well backed by a bunch of lusty rooters. Upsets were frequent, the biggest one being the miserable showing made by the Watertown quintet, who had been reckoned as title contenders in all of the advance dope.

NORTHMEN TRIM FALL
CREEK IN SEMIFINALS

Superior Central defeated Fall Creek by a score of 25 to 10 yesterday morning in the semi-finals of the consolation series. McCreary's fast playing, which gave his team 12 points on field goals and three on free throws, was the outstanding feature of the game.

During the first quarter the scores ran close, ending with Superior on the big end of a 6 to 5

Tournament Talk

Superior fans cheered their fans with a yell composed of latin words.

A fair Argyle rooter continually shouted, "Get that man!" while the Gargoylians were battling with Watertown. "Dan" O'Neill thought she wanted him, and crossed the floor so she could look him over.

Watertown was a distinct disappointment in the tournament. The Goslings were outed as the strongest team in the crowd. They defeated Kenosha, Racine, and other big fives in the Milwaukee tourney, but seemed unable to get started on the Badger gym floor. Their 400 rooters and a brass band were unable to carry the team to victory over LaCrosse in the first game, and the defeat at the hands of little Argyle put the Watertown quintet out of the tournament.

More midges have made their appearance during this meet than ever before. Each team appears to have at least one undersized player. What the little fellows lack in size and weight, they make up for by aggressiveness. New Richmond's guard, Superior's forwards, and little Jacobs of Argyle, are all of the Tom Thumb type.

Whereatt did some nice shooting to make six baskets when Superior defeated Menominee. The Central team has no players who remind fans of the famous Hancock-Nevers combination. Capt. Camp, bulky center, is the nearest approach to the bygone stars in size.

Watertown's back guard reached up several times and interfered with Argyle's shots, which had the appearance of entering the net.

McCreary made three baskets in the first quarter, but failed to add to his team's score in the second period. The second quarter saw McKenna and McNabb each cage one field goal. Miller made one basket for Fall Creek, which made the score 10 to 7 in favor of Superior at the close of the half.

Superior added eight points to its credit in the third quarter, and Fall Creek added three. McCreary, McNabb, and Camp each made one field goal, and Superior's other two points were made by McCreary on fouls made by Weir and Hoehn.

Fall Creek's points were made by a basket caged by Miller, and a foul called on Camp.

During the fourth quarter, Fall Creek failed to add to its score, but Superior made seven additional points. McCreary made two field goals and one free throw. Jacobinus made the first basket he has caged during this tournament, by a sensational dribble half the length of the floor. By overcoming Fall Creek by the score of 25 to 10, Superior entered the finals against Argyle.

NEW RICRMOND BEATS
RHINELANDER, 20-11

In the semi-finals of the championship series, New Richmond beat Rhinelander by 20 to 11. Hawkins was the sensation of the game; his running mate, Williams did not show up so well as he did in the previous games of the tournament. Although his floor work can be commended, he failed to cage a single basket, but tried several long shots.

In the first quarter, Hawkins and McDermott each made one field goal for New Richmond, and Bohn made one for Rhinelander. The latter team also gained a point from a foul on McDermott. Williams was slightly hurt by a fall, during the first period, and had to call time out. He got up, and continued playing, however. The quarter ended with the score 4 to 3 in favor of New Richmond.

During the second period, New Richmond jumped ahead to a lead which secured the game for them. Hawkins made a basket, and as soon as the ball was tossed up in

Elect Three in Faculty

Major John S. Wood, of the military department, Dr. M. F. Guyer, of the department of zoology, and Miss Jean Krueger, of the department of home economics, were elected to faculty membership at the meeting just held.

The officers of the university chapter of Phi Kappa Phi are B. H. Hibbard, chief of the department of agricultural economics, president; Mrs. J. O. Hertzler, secretary; and E. Ramsay, chemical engineering department, treasurer.

Scholarship First

Speaking upon the basis of election to membership in Phi Kappa Phi, President Hibbard told a representative of the Cardinal staff that scholarship is considered first and secondly activities in college and community affairs.

"Scholarship," declared Hibbard, "is primary. The number to be elected is determined by each local chapter, but must be made from the upper one-fourth of the students judged by standings who are approximately within one year of graduation.

Includes All Fields

"By taking into account the activities outside of regular classroom work it should be possible to elect only those who show ability to make application of the culture gained in study. Representative men and women with scholarship of the highest order are, so far as possible, the ones chosen.

"Phi Kappa Phi is the only honorary society which comprehends the entire range of university life. It takes the best in each school and college without reference to the particular field, believing that equal merit should have the encouragement of recognition."

the center of the floor, McDermott dribbled down the floor and put the ball through the ring again. Hawkins made another basket after a few moments of fast playing on both sides. The only point made by Rhinelander during the second quarter was gained from a foul made by Hawkins. The score then stood at 10 to 4.

During the third period the scores of each of the teams were increased by four points. Johnson and Sampson each caged one field goal for Rhinelander and Hawkins made one basket and two free throws for his team. The fouls which caused these free throws were made by Sampson and Bohn. The score at the end of the third period was 14 to 8 in New Richmond's favor.

McDermott started the scoring in the fourth quarter by another basket for New Richmond. After that the winning team did a little stalling, and then fast playing on both sides resulted in two more baskets by Hawkins, and one for Rhinelander, made by Traigai. Sampson hurt his arm and the Rhinelander coach put Curl in to take his place. A foul called on Walsh in the last minute of play Rhinelander's score up one point, making the final result 20 to 11 in favor of New Richmond.
