$49,000 SPENT BY STUDENTS FOR DANCING

Fraternities and Sororities
Spend This Amount Each
Semester

FORMALS COST $13,000

"It is for luxuries, not necessities, that the students at the university are spending too much money," says Dean S. H. Goodnight. The social activities of fraternities and sororities are demanding more than $49,000 a semester according to figures for the first semester.

University authorities do not want to impose further social restrictions upon the students, but they want them to realize that they spend too much and to establish their own corrective measures.

Formals Cost $13,000

The cost of the formals given last semester amounted to $13,000. This averaged $471 for each formal party.

The individual costs of the student amount to an average of about $900 for the out of state students, although this estimate varies with the more conservative and the more liberal class.

Room rents are constantly being watched by the dean's office, and whenever they become excessive the dean asks those who are charging too high prices to reduce them. The average room rent should be: $3 to 3:50 for double rooms; $5 to $6 for single rooms.

SWING-OUT SET FOR TOMORROW

Clad in white and formed according to classes, all the university women will escort the seniors, in the last farewell to the class of '22 at Senior Swing Out at 6:15 on the upper campus, Friday.

The freshmen will form at South hall, the sophomores at North hall, and the seniors leading out from both North and South halls. The juniors will meet at the main entrance of Bascom. After the march through the arch and up the hill through the two rows of juniors holding the daisy chain, the maypole dance will be given by the sophomore girls.

The Girls Glee club will sing, and the Mortar board announcements for the year 1922-23 will be made by Marion Strassberger, president of Mortar board.

The University regimental band will play and at the end the Seniors, followed by the other classes will march out in formation the way they entered.

START TO "CAMP" FOR FIRST BADGER EDITION

Two members of the Sigma Pi fraternity, Robert B. Atwood and George S. Wordworth, have camped on the steps of Music hall to obtain the first Badger which will be distributed Saturday morning.

According to tradition the first Badger is given to the first student in line.

LETTER GIVES ILL HEALTH AS SUICIDE CAUSE

Floyd Jewel Leaves Note:
"I Am Tired of Being Sick"

"I am tired of being sick."

This note was left by Floyd B. Jewell, 21, a junior in the civil engineering course, when he committed suicide by taking cyanide of potassium in his room at the home of Dr. M. T. Martin, 1328 Mound street, yesterday afternoon.

No other reason for the tragedy than that given in the note could be ascribed by other students living in the house. Jewell was always a bit reticent and mingled little with the other men, seldom telling about himself or his affairs. He was considered an exceptionally bright student, and could not have been worried about scholastic difficulties.

The poison was secured at a Madison drug store about a month ago. Jewell refused to tell his roommate where he got the drug or what use he intended to make of it.

His friends did not notice any difference in Jewell's actions during the last four weeks, but Sunday evening he left the house and remained away all night.

Jewell's home is in New Lisbon, Wis. He came to the university a year ago last fall from La Crosse Normal school. He had taught in Buffalo, Wyo. He was a second lieutenant in the army during the world war.

Will Revive Pipe Of Peace Custom In '22 Class Play

The Pipe of Peace ceremony, first used by the class of 1894, in accordance with the old Indian custom of extending the hand of friendship and brotherhood, and initiating its successors, the members of the next senior class, will be revived by the class of '22, and will be given on the evening of June 12 in place of the senior class play, on the lower campus.

Philip E. O'Neil is chairman of the committee in charge of the ceremony; Robert L. Wiley, assistant chairman; Ida G. Gilbert, Dale Merrick, Daniel O. Horns, Samuel Becker, and Jennie O. Heisig are also on the committee.

Miss H'Doubler's classes in dancing will give the appropriate calumet dance, and will be assisted by the State Historical society, which has possession of the pipe, to properly present the picturesque ceremony.

The setting on the lower campus will be a ring about 100 feet in diameter with a rack for the pipe, an Indian drum for a chant and a bonfire or red fire for the burning of the sacred tobacco.

Frank D. Crane is New Head of Lit

Frank D. Crane '24, was elected editor-in-chief of the Wisconsin Literary Magazine, and Athol Odell '24, was elected business manager at a meeting held in the Union building last night.

The following are members of the staff of editors for next year: Horace Gregory '23, Margaret Emmerling '23, and Stanley Weinbaum '24. Allen W. Walters '24, and Dorothy Sickles '23, will be associates

Heads Field Day Program

—Courtesy Badger Studio.

Ellen Harris

Ellen Harris '24 is general chairman of the Field Day program, to be given Saturday at Camp Randall under the direction of W. A. A. Miss Harris is a member of Y. W. sophomore commission, W. A. A., Crucible, and the Pi Beta Pi sorority. She was manager of the sophomore hockey team and a member of sophomore basketball team. She also acted as captain in the Wisconsin-China drive this year.

Hold Elections For Student Court in 4 Places, Friday

Four buildings have been secured for the election Friday of members for the Student court, which was voted to be re-instated at the referendum last fall.

All L & S and law students will vote in the Biology building; ag students in Ag hall; medics in Science hall, and engineers in the engineering building.

One junior and one sophomore will be elected from the Engineering school, the course in commerce, and all other courses in the L. & S. college. Juniors will vote for junior member, and sophomores for the sophomore member.

One man of any class will be elected from the Ag school at which only juniors vote, and one man of any class from the Law school and also the Medical school. In each of the two latter schools all students vote.

Smart and Wupper To Edit Engineer

John W. Smart '23, was elected editor, and Benjamin F. Wupper '23, manager, of the Wisconsin Engineer for next year, at a meeting Tuesday of the Wisconsin Engineering Journal association.

Smart is a member of Theta Xi and Eta Kappa Nu, secretary and treasurer of the Madison section of A. I. E. E., and is fraternity editor of the 1923 Badger.

Business Manager.

PURPLE MEET BADGERS HERE AT 3:15 TODAY

Hoffman is Likely Choice For Mound; Line-up Will Not Change

LOOK FOR A VICTORY

The Badger baseball team starts out on the final lap of the 1922 season when it meets the Northwestern nine at Camp Randall this afternoon. This will be the second game between these teams this season, Lowman's men winning by a 4 to 2 score at Evanston several weeks ago.

Captain Paddock and his mates will go into the game as big favorites, but a close game can well be expected. The Purple have plenty of good material but have played erratically in a number of games which should have been victories. Northwestern's strength was shown when Ohio State, the first team to lick Michigan, was defeated three weeks ago. The other Purple victory was over Chicago.

Hoffman on Slab

"Phil" Hoffman will undoubtedly draw the mound assignment this afternoon. Christianson was used against Chicago, and Captain Paddock will probably be saved for the Michigan game. Hoffman has demonstrated his ability on a number of occasions this year, particularly when he held Notre Dame to two hits at South Bend.

The balance of the Wisconsin lineup will be the same as in the past few games. Christianson will be back in right field, and Combacker will probably start at second base.

Badgers Should Win

If the Badgers are going as they have in the past few encounters, an easy win should be annexed. The club has played an airtight defensive game all season, and the stick work has undergone a vast improvement of late.

The game will not be called until 3:45 p. m., and since it is the next to last home clash of the season, a large crowd will undoubtedly be on hand to watch the Badgers perform.

CO-ED SOCIETIES ELECT OFFICERS

Elizabeth Kirk '23, Marian Metcalf '24, and Elizabeth Tompkins '25, were elected presidents of Blue Dragon, Yellow Tassel, and Red Gauntlet, respectively, at the joint election held by the university women in Lathrop hall yesterday.

Other officers selected for Blue Dragon are: Norma Carl, vice-president; Belle Knights, treasurer; Marjorie Ruff, secretary.

Yellow Tassel will be directed by the following officers next year: vice-president, Mary Burchard; treasurer, Rosamond Nolte; secretary, Frances Warren.

The greatest number of votes were cast by the members of Green Button in electing Red Gauntlet officers for the coming year. Hazel Weingandt was chosen vice-president, Elizabeth Mahorney, treasurer, and Dorothy John, secretary, of Red Gauntlet.

A FEW LAMPINGS & EAR STRETCHINGS

By the Night Watchman
WE NOTE Walter Schulke, the Sig Chi wire walker, cemented to the Pi Phi porch. Seems like old times.

A LOT of these canaries hopping the bumps in knickers. Come on. Coax down the trou. You're over 16.

Old mother Hubbard went to the cupboard

To get her poor dog some cheese-cake.

When she got there she found nothing but onion and cucumber salad, and the poor little dog had to eat ice-cream.

WE OVERHEAD—say to—"Did you ever hear the one about the chicken who would fain traverse laterally across the highway?"

ANSWER TO ETIQUETTE PROBLEM

Never wear satin lapels on the Sabbath.

WE HEAR Bill Gnagi and Ole Hougen and Run coupe shooting craps. They used Bill's dice. They were trying to shoot the garage man double or nothing for a night's lodging for their white elephant.

I had a little dog and his name was Rush,
Tied him to a wagon and he'd run in the dust,

Team ran away and he let out a yell,

Busted up the conveyance all to— (What do you want prose or poetry?)

KAPPAS had an auction sale last Mon night. Auctioned off all their old clothes. (Meaning blank blank) sold her Kitchen skunk coat. 'Twas a smell affair. Murphy, the old clothes man, reports a heavy investing in woollens on Tues. The auction was held behind closed doors.

WE JUST got a nice long letter fro Do-Dough. She wants to be remembered to Mike Bundy, Bob Olmsted, Claude McIntosh, Steve Horton, Carl Reichert, Tom Reed, Bill Purnell, Carl Neumeister, Joe Holbrook, Doc Bond, Slew Fanning, Ralf Scott, Herb Smith, Clayton Van Pelt, the Alpha Phis, Thetas, Gamma Phis, 8 Delts, Kappas, A. ### Club Privileges Offered to Women

Any member of staff or any graduate or student of the university of Wisconsin presenting a letter of introduction from the Dean of Women, can be admitted temporarily during the summer months to club privileges in The Monteregian club, 22 McTavish Street, Montreal.

The executive committee of the National Headquarters club house of the American Association of University Women extends to any of the members of the 1923, '24, and '25 classes who may be in Washington during the summer vacation, a most cordial invitation to use the club for meals and social purposes, and to attend any of the functions scheduled. All that is necessary for the students to do who wish to avail themselves of this offer is to make themselves known at the office of the club house at 1634 I Street, N. W.

Award Medals For Service in Band

Gold keys were given to the men who had served four years in the band, at the annual banquet at the Woman's building, Tuesday. Silver medals were given for three years service; bronze for 2 years of service.

The following received gold keys: D. S. Deiver, A. H. Emerson, G.H. Head, Wendel Bonesteel, Karl R. N. Grill, C. W. Osgood. Those receiving silver medals were: S. M. Ryan, and H. M. Sharp. A. J. Gienfong received a bronze fob.

104 Will Play in Concert Tonight

A twilight concert will be given by the concert band of 64 players combined with the second band of 40 players, on the upper campus from 6:30 to 7:15 tonight.

This will be the first time in the history of the university that so large a band has been brought together for concert purposes. In case of rain the concert will be postponed.

Meanwell Marries Former "U" Student

Dr. W. E. Meanwell, basketball coach at the university, was married last Saturday, May 20, in Columbia, Missouri to Helen Kaph, '17, who was associate director of physical education and head of womens' athletics at the University of Missouri.

Mrs. Meanwell was a member of Alpha Phi sorority here and was a "W" woman. Mr. and Mrs. Meanwell are living in town at 1111 W. Johnson street and will remain here through the summer until August.

FROSH WOMEN LOSE TO JUNIORS IN TENNIS

Three hotly contested sets of tennis Tuesday afternoon resulted in a victory for the junior women's tennis team over the freshmen. The juniors won the first set 7-5, but lost the second set to the freshmen 4-6. The third set, which went to the juniors 6-4, was marked by deuce games and fast playing.

Isabelle Capps '23 and Ida Atkinson '23 represented the juniors and Lois Barry '25 and Frances Tipple '25 the freshmen.

the World's Smartest COLLAR

The VAN HEUSEN Collar is as stylish as it is soft; and as comfortable as it is correct.

Ordinary collars depend upon stiffness for their style, and upon crispness for their comfort.

The VAN HEUSEN Collar tempers its style to the shorn neck.

Ordinary collars have as little consideration for a neck's curves as a round hole has for a square peg.

"Well dressed men take off their hats to the VAN HEUSEN Collar," wrote a leading haberdasher.

But it's even more significant that they bare their necks to it.

Price fifty cents. As easy to launder as a handkerchief. Will outwear half a dozen ordinary collars.

FULL UP

THIS week-end is so filled up with important events that it will take close planning on the part of most students to take in everything. It is unfortunate that so many university affairs should have to take place within a space of a few days, and these at the very end of the semester, but putting things off until the last minute seems to be a collegiate habit. In spite of the fact that the activities of the next three days come at a very busy time, they are major university affairs and should attract all who can possibly get them in.

Tomorrow there will take place one of the most beautiful of Wisconsin traditions, Swing-out, which no one can afford to miss. Friday is the date set for the Dance Drama. It might be said that Venetian Night is to the end of the year what Homecoming is to the beginning. It is undoubtedly the most gorgeous and most artistic spectacle that this university has ever carried out. It needs no introduction or advertisement to the students. Saturday is another big day, filled as it is with the Interscholastic meet, W. A. A. Field Day, and Wisconsin's first horse show. It will be rather difficult to take in all three, since they come at about the same time, so it will probably be a matter of viewing whatever one is most interested in.

In spite of the proximity of exams, everybody should be able to spare some time at least to help put over an exceptionally successful week-end.

PHI BETA KAPPA AT WORK

THE recently elected junior Phi Beta Kappa members got together last night and organized themselves for work next year. The program they outlined is an ambitious one, since it centers around an effort to stimulate interest in intellectual pursuits among college students.

That college students need such stimulation may sound like an anomaly, but it is a fact. It is true not only of Wisconsin, but of practically every institution of higher learning in the country. It is encouraging that Phi Beta Kappa has turned its attention to the problem. The Wisconsin chapter is one of the few in the national organization that has gone to work seriously on the question.

The adventure will do Phi Beta Kappa good and may be expected in the course of a few years to show some actual results in the character of American education. There is much loose talk about Phi Beta Kappa's being an organization that dispenses keys every year to an odd set of uninteresting people who have spent most of their college days and nights in grinding for grades. If such were the case the society would be wholly undeserving of respect and the key would not be worth the gold used in its manufacture.

Phi Beta Kappa stands for something more than this. It stands for active intelligence as opposed to complacent ignorance, for a reasonable degree of serious interest in the leading fields of human action as opposed to centering the attention on the silly superficialities of an age that seems to have forgotten whence it came and does not care very much where it is going. Such standards as these among college men and women are generally held by those who apply themselves to their work and hence have a respectable weighted average.

That such an organization should be practically concerned with toning up the intellectual life of the university is entirely fitting. The toning up process will by no means be easy. It involves fundamental changes in methods of teaching which only the faculty can effect, and it involves fundamental changes in attitude of mind which only the mass of students themselves can effect. Yet the problem must be dealt with successfully or higher education in this country will become a hollow farce.

Many of the difficulties have arisen from the vast movement to popularize college education which has swept over the country during the last ten years. It is widely thought now that it is the duty of the state to confer higher education upon all the youths who step out of high school. Until it is realized that higher education is an achievement to be won and not a gift to be conferred, the problem will not be solved ultimately. This may mean recasting the entire system of primary and secondary education. If so, it will be worth the pains.

Good luck to Phi Beta Kappa in breaking the ground.

EDUCATION BY THE HOUR

The student, like the wage-earner, is paid by the hour. He has his day's work cut out for him, and every hour he misses is chalked up against his pay-roll. Only the time-clock is lacking for him to punch as he enters and leaves the hall of learning. But the professor is both foreman and time-keeper; and he does the job well.

If on the other hand the purpose of a university is somewhat broader than the purpose of a factory—if an education is something more than drinking in knowledge by the hour—are we not stressing too heavily the requirements, till they become the chief end in the life of the student? The mechanism of a college course sticks out all over it.

If there is really a deeper reason for the existence of a university, why cannot the student be let in on the secret? Not by a high-sounding address at the beginning of the year, surely, but by finding it in his daily contact with those who dole out to him his morsels of knowledge.—Cornell Daily Sun.

AT THE STRAND

A comedy melodrama "Reported Missing" starring Owen Moore is now being shown at the Strand Theatre.

36 Will Take Part In Dance Drama in Open Air Theater

She was such a charming creature, he could hardly be blamed for flirting. But the policeman came along and made short work of the terrible flirt, and walked off with the girl himself, thus proving that to the victor belongs the spoils.

That's the way it works out in "The Harlequinade," one of the short sketches on the program of the Dance Drama to be given tomorrow night in the open air theatre on the campus by members of Miss H'Doubler's dancing classes.

All but three of the numbers on the program are given for the first time. "The Harlequinade" and two other dances from last year's group are being represented by request.

Bertha Ochsner '19, Chicago, who has written music for and arranged a number of dance studies, will take part in the presentation tomorrow night. "Sing a song of six-pence," to be given in the second part of the program, was composed by Miss Ochsner.

Costumes for the dancers have all been specially prepared and dyed to conform with the color scheme and lighting arrangement.

Tickets for the Dance Drama are on sale at Lathrop and Bascom halls for $1.00. They may also be obtained from Hook's music store.

Those who will take part in the program were announced yesterday by Helen Smallshaw '23, who is general chairman, as follows:

Women Hold Track Meet By Telegraph

The first intercollegiate track meet between women will take place Saturday, May 27, when Northwestern university will compete with University of Wisconsin by means of telegraph.

Woman's Athletic association at Northwestern holds its field day program at the same time of the W. A. A. Field day here at Camp Randall, and the two organizations will exchange results by wire.

Since Chicago is on daylight time schedule, the Northwestern meet will take place an hour earlier than the one here, and results will probably be known before Varsity elections are announced in the evening.

HIGH ATHLETES COMPETE FOR TRACK HONORS

Milwaukee Riverside
Enters Strong
Team

Competition for high honors in the Twenty-eighth Interscholastic track meet to be held Saturday at Camp Randall, with 23 schools entered in Class A and 29 in Class B, will be keener than in any of the former Interscholastic contests.

Milwaukee Riverside high school, winner of first place in class A last year, has entered 33 athletes, the largest number from any one school, and will undoubtedly make a strong bid for laurels again this year. In Class B, West Allis with 24 representatives has the longest entry list. Last year West Allis finished up in second place in Class B, just 3 points behind Stoughton; and, as the latter school is transferred to Class A this year, West Allis is evidently out in full strength to cop Class B honors.

Milwaukee Schools First

Appleton, Class A, and Lancaster, Class B, have each only one entry. John McDonald of Lancaster will participate in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and in the shot put; and Arnold Purvis of Appleton is slated for the half-mile and one-mile runs.

The Milwaukee schools, as usual, are being given the edge by dopsters. Milwaukee South which garnered only three points in the meet last year has entered 25 runners this year and promises to capture a number of places. Milwaukee Riverside, however, can be considered the most powerful Milwaukee aggregation as this school walked away with the St. Johns Interscholastic high school meet last Saturday and won the city championship of Milwaukee the week previous. Some of the stars who will appear for the east side institution are Graff, shot put and javelin, Kennan, hurdles, Henkle, quarter-mile, Grossman, mile Shay and Wilson pole vault.

OFFICIALS NAMED

The following men will act as officials of the meet:
Referee, Thomas E. Jones.
Starter, Mead Burke.
Clerk of Course, Burt White.
Clerk of Track Events, Edwin Mead.
Clerk of Field Events, Charles Jensch.
Judges of Finish: E. J. McEach-

VARSITY TENNIS MEN LEAVE FOR CHICAGO MEET

Tredwell and Godfredson Are
Doped to Win
Doubles

The Wisconsin tennis team left for Chicago yesterday, where it will engage in the annual Conference matches. The Badger men were in the best of condition, despite the rain of the past few days which have kept them off the courts.

In Capt. Tredwell and Godfredson, Wisconsin is entering a strong doubles team. This pair placed in the semi-finals in the Big Ten tournament last year after only playing together for a few days. The two men have formed the first doubles team of this season and should make an exceptionally good showing when they stack up against the stiff competition which is sure to be offered by Chicago and Michigan.

In the singles, Coach George E. Linden refused to make any comment. Godfredson and Tredwell are both playing flashy tennis this spring and will, no doubt, make trouble for Norton of Minnesota, Rorick of Michigan and Frankenstein of Chicago.

Notre Dame Will Enter M. C. A. A. Meet

(Special to Daily Cardinal.)

URBANA, Ill., May 23.—K. K. Rockne, football and track coach of Notre Dame University has entered his track team in the National Collegiate Athletic association Track and Field meet. Notre Dame finished second last year in the first annual N. C. A. A. meet with 16 3-4 points.

Murphy, the winner of the high jump last year in the National meet and of the same event this spring in the Pennsylvania relays, will defend his honors against the pick of the high jumpers of the nation.

Hayes, who won both the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the Illinois dual meet last week and who also won the 100 yard in the Drake relays this year will again start for Rockne, while Lieb, who threw the discus 141 feet in the Illinois dual and also won the same event at Drake, will be entered in both the shot and discus. With these three stars and several other men of lesser importance Notre Dame will make a bid for national honors.

Rains Hold up Varsity Golfers

With the heavy rains yesterday afternoon and last night, the golf course at Maple Bluffs has been put in a bad condition for the meet with Minnesota here tomorrow.

The Badger golf club swingers have been seriously handicapped by inclement weather. The Badger men under Captain "Mort" Frost invading Minneapolis a week ago defeated their northern foe in their first meeting. The Wisconsin squad is composed of Capt. Frost, Stegerman, Capen, Baurer, Pope, and Bach.

Conference Track Officials Chosen

(Special to the Daily Cardinal.)

IOWA CITY, Ia. May 22—Charles A. Dean of Chicago is officially announced as referee and Charles H. Wilson of Joliet as starter for the twenty-second annual track and field meet of the Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association which will be held at the University of Iowa June 2 and 3.

Both officials, between whom the actual conduct of the meet will be largely controlled, are widely known in athletic circles. Mr. Dean is the present manager of the Illinois Athletic club, and former national president of the American Athletic Union. Mr. Wilson, the superintendent of the Joliet Steel club, was formerly a member of the coaching staffs at Princeton, Purdue and Wisconsin. The complete list of officials, numbering nearly fifty, all of whom will be brought from Chicago and vicinity to run the meet is expected to be announced within a day or two.

Ripon Authorities Approve of Sundt As Athletic Coach

That Ripon college feels fortunate in procuring the services of Guy M. Sundt for athletic director is indicated by a letter written to Coach Thomas E. Jones by President Silas E. Evans of Ripon.

The state college has been noted for its strong teams in every sport and for its high rating in the "Little Five" conference, and President Evans believes that Athletic Director Sundt will successfully fill the place left by Harold Olsen, who leaves to coach basketball at Ohio State.

Guy Sundt has won 8 "W's" in three sports, football, basketball, and track, during his athletic career at Wisconsin. He was captain of the 1921 football team and won the Pearce trophy offered to the man who was most valuable to the team. Sundt enters five field events in track.

He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, Iron Cross, White Spades, Ku Klux Klan, Star and Arrow, and Sigma Delta Psi. He is president of the senior class and of the "W" club. His scholastic averages during four years at Wisconsin were high enough to warrant his being recommended for the Conference medal.

CANUCK CREW ARRIVES HERE FOR BIG RACE

Culver Academy Will Meet Junior
Crew

The University of Manitoba varsity crew, carrying ten men, will arrive in Madison at 5:45 this afternoon. The Canadians will work out on Lake Mendota Friday afternoon tional race with Wisconsin at 11:30 in preparation for their international race Saturday morning.

It is not known whether the Canucks will bring their own boat or whether they will use a Badger shell. Their method of rowing, which differs from the American system, makes it almost necessary for them to bring a special boat, but difficulties in transportation may prevent it.

The Culver Military academy eight, which will row Junior varsity at 11:00 Saturday morning, is scheduled to arrive in Madison by automobile. The prep soldiers will use a Wisconsin boat.

Poor weather conditions yesterday prevented the Vail men from getting a good workout on Mendota, but they are in tip-top condition for the biggest race in several years. With Capt. George Toepfer leading his men against the strong Canuck outfit, water fans will see a close race from start to finish. Coached by two Henley oarsmen, Manitoba is reputed to be one of the strongest crews on this side of the water. Wisconsin last year indicated that it ranks with the best when it defeated the Lincoln Park Boat club of Chicago. Practically a veteran crew will be in the Badger boat this year.

GOLF TEAMS TO PLAY 2 ADDITIONAL GAMES

Two additional Varsity golf matches were scheduled for the Wisconsin team yesterday. Northwestern university will golf here on May 31, and the Badgers will play a return match at Northwestern on June 16.

With two victories and one defeat to its credit, the Badger team has shown that it will be one of the strongest in the Conference. Minnesota comes here Friday to get revenge for its defeat of last week.

Graduating Recital Pleases, Says Critic

By Mary James

A well selected program, a pleasing voice, and an excellent pianist, all contributed to make the graduating recital of Paul Sanders and Earl Brown very enjoyable.

The selections, chosen from composers of the foremost nations and representing almost every period of musical development from the early fifteenth century to the present day, formed not only a delightful contrast but afforded an opportunity for Mr. Sanders and Mr. Brown to display their ability in many fields.

Mr. Sanders is a pianist possessing a very clean technique. Each note is made to sound distinct and no inharmonious mingling tones can be noticed. His soft passages are very mellow. His touch is pleasing and in every selection his expression was very impressing.

Mr. Brown is the possessor of a clear and vibrant voice, which was at its best in the Indian "Kashmiri Song." His rendition of "Vesti la giubba" from Pagliacci displayed his excellent breath control and also made noticeable his clear enunciation. Each word is distinct and one can easily follow the meaning of his songs even when they are in a foreign tongue.

The most enjoyable part of the program for true music lovers was the Concerto A minor by Grieg, played by Mr. Sanders with the assistance of Robert Nethercut at the second piano. Here all the characteristics which marked his shorter selections were united to make this big composition even more beautiful than the others had been. His listeners were carried through the soft slow movements, then over the livelier runs and trills without a break or pause. Those who had heard the concerto played by the more famous musicians could have found no fault with the manner in which Mr. Sanders and Mr. Nethercut rendered it.
