The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

PROFILE OF A MEMORIAL NURSE

"THEY SPEAK A COMMON LANGUAGE..."

In the UN's shining glass tower by the East River, 126 nations meet in the cause of world peace.

In Memorial, overlooking the East River, professionals from over 40 nations
meet daily in the cause of humanity and in the conquest of cancer.

For the RN who wants to be involved in this conquest, write or call collect, person-to-person, MRS. BEATRICE A. CHASE, Director of Nursing
