COUNCIL RECOMMENDS RYAN FOR COACH

SENATORS WILL CONDUCT OPEN FORUM TONIGHT

Point System Debate Open to All

Fireworks of dispute are expected to fly off the point system "anvil" at the student mass meeting to be held tonight under the auspices of the Student senate, according to all indications yesterday.

Letters have been sent to all campus organizations, giving a formal invitation from the Student senate for students to attend the meeting tonight and make an expression of opinion on the proposed plan.

The meeting at Music hall starting 7:30 o'clock, will be conducted by the Senate sitting in body. An open forum is planned at which time any student will be entitled and welcomed to speak.

Discuss Cap Question

Official business of the senate, to be taken up tonight, includes the date for the spring election, election of delegates to the Mid-West student conference and the date for donning by freshmen of the green caps.

Whether another benevolent financial campaign should be conducted on the campus will be discussed by A. A. Ebersole of Chicago, director of the Student Friendship Fund, an organization interested in Near East student relief work.

Mr. Ebersole has asked permission of the senate to speak to that body on the campaign subject, although the senate is without authority to act upon it.

Student Conference Up

Official delegates for the Mid-West student conference will be appointed by the Student senate to night.

The conference is composed of delegates from 30 universities of the Mid-West. A meeting is held annually for the purpose of discussing problems of student activities and government.

Robert Stewart '23, secretary-treasurer of the organization, was a delegate from the Student senate last year when he served as president of the local senate. At that time, as official representative of the senate, he was elected to position in the conference, serving for one year.

Stewart will attend the conference this year, he stated yesterday. Gamber Tegtmeyer '24, editor of the 1924 Badger, has been invited by Harold Anderson, Northwestern university, president of the conference, to lead the discussion on publication of year books.

Tegtmeyer has accepted the invitation and, according to present plans, will attend the conference also.

S. G. A. Scholarship Drive Reaches Total of $350

The S. G. A. scholarship fund for Wei Lung, Chinese student, has reached the total of $350, Dorothea Wilgus '24, director of the canvass reported last night. Several of the pledges were turned in today, but contributions from Barnard hall and several of the houses on the campus have not been collected yet.

"It is necessary that all money be turned in to me at once," Dorothea Wilgus '24, said yesterday.

Y. M. C. A. Has Summer Positions For Students

"Bill" Young, secretary of the university Y. M. C. A. and head of the employment department, announces that he has a long list of positions for students this summer. Most of the jobs are as salesmen. Any student desiring summer employment should see Mr. Young.

PLUMBERS PLAN ANNUAL PARADE

"And sure it was Saint Pat himself, who presided at the meeting," said an engineer yesterday in commenting on the plumber's conclave held in the Engineering building Monday night to arrange for the annual St. Patrick's day parade.

Saint Patrick cannot be at the parade, but has called for a special election among the engineers to choose his representatives," James Mackie '23, general chairman of the parade committee, said. "We have received word that the official Blarney stone is on its way to Wisconsin."

Committee heads appointed at the meeting of representatives from the five engineering societies are: General chairman, James Mackie '23; assistant general chairman, Sherman Green '23; parade, Everett Jones '23; arrangements, Joseph Lotter '23, and Tom Niles '23.

FROSH FIVE TO GO TO CHICAGO

Game With Soph Team Will Furnish Railroad Fare

The frosh basketball team is going to Chicago next Saturday.

Plans to send the squad to witness the Badger-Maroon clash were set under way yesterday by Coach W. E. Meanwell and Gordon B. Wanner '24, team manager. The means of financing the trip will be a sophomore game at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the gymnasium.

Gans who have stormed the ticket window to get chance to see the Varsity in action will have an opportunity to witness a high-class entertainment in tomorrow's game. Both teams are well drilled in the Meanwell system, short pas attack and stonewall defense.

The frosh under the tutelage of Coach Harper have been working daily since the middle of November and have perfected an efficient practice machine for the Varsity to try its varied attack against. Some of the most promising material in years was uncovered in this year's crop of frosh.

The sophs have a strong quintet and are given the edge over the yearlings, but the result is far from a cinch for the second year men. Diebold, Radke and Harris have been under fire in Big Ten games. His trio with Spooner is expected to form the nucleus of a top notch five next winter.

Tickets for the game will be sold today and tomorrow by members of the frosh squad. "W" men may be called on to assist in the sale. The price of admission will be 25 cents. Coach Meanwell will referee the game.

The teams probably will line up as follows: Sophomores—Varney and Leberman, forwards, Radke and Harris, guards, and Diebold center; Freshmen—Olson and McCarthy, forwards, Merkel and Meyer, guards, and Wernicke, center.

French Club Completes

Tryouts For Play Cast

Tryouts for the French club play, "Les Plaisirs du Hasard" by Rene Benjamin, author of "Gaspard" a war novel, were held yesterday from 3:30 until 5:30 in 301 Bascom hall.

The play is a four-act comedy, the hero of which is a philosophical young man, who takes life easily and makes fun of everything: institutions, prejudices, manners, magistrates, and customs, but who finally marries happily in the end.

After the Dean has accepted the list, the 18 members of the cast will be announced.

Miss Marguerite Treille and Miss Marguerite Pons, both of the French department, will direct "Les Plaisirs du Hasard" which is to be given in the concert room at Lathrop May 2.

LOCAL SHOWING OF HAESFOOT SHOW DELAYED

Good Friday Prevents March 30 Date

The dates for the Madison performances of "Kikmi", the 1923 Haresfoot club production have been changed to April 20 and 21, according to an announcement made yesterday by Thomas A. Tredwell, manager of the show.

The change in dates was made, according to Gerold Koch '23, president of the club, because the first date, March 30, fell on Good Friday.

The changing of the dates will necessitate the holding over of the show for two weeks in Madison after the tour of the state and Illinois, club officials declared.

"We feel that it would be impossible for us to play on Good Friday, and we are glad to change the date in spite of the inconvenience of having to hold over the show" Tredwell asserted yesterday.

Promise Better Show

"A much better show will be presented in Madison because the rough edges will have been smoothed over in the other towns," Koch also declared.

The original plan was to open the show in Madison before taking the road trip. Many of the eastern clubs do this and find the plan satisfactory. It was impossible to get the first weekend after the spring vacation because of the playing date of Otis Skinner at the Parkway.

"The task of holding over the show will not be difficult this year because all the scenery is our own property," Sidney Thorsen '24, who is building the scenery, declared last night.

All of the scenery is being painted and built by students this year for the first time in the history of Haresfoot activities. The work is being done back-stage at the Parkway theater.

EIGHT STUDENTS ARE PENALIZED FOR DISHONESTY

Eight students were penalized by the faculty discipline committee during the last month for dishonesty in classroom or library work. The action of the committee was reported and approved at the meeting of the university faculty Monday afternoon.

The eight students, whose names were not announced, were placed on probation and penalized by being required to earn from three to 10 extra credits for graduation. All are men. Four are freshmen; two are sophomores; one is a junior; and one is a senior.

Two are in the Course in Commerce; three are in Letters and Science; two are in Mechanical Engineering; and one is in Agriculture. One was dishonest in economics; one in zoology; one in mechanics; three in English; one in shop work; one in geology; and one in the signing of library reading room slips.

Two other students whose cases were before the committee were dropped from college because of scholarship but must appear before the committee before reentering the University. Four other students who were before the committee were given warnings or reprimands.

WEATHER: FAIR

Fair weather is predicted for today. Somewhat unsettled conditions with possibly rain or snow are expected tomorrow. Much change in temperature. The highest temperature during the past 24 hours was 30 degrees at 7 p. m.; the lowest 28 degrees 5 a. m.

REGENTS TO PASS ON CHOICE

Jack Ryan, formerly of Marquette university and Dartmouth college, was recommended for the position of head football coach at the University of Wisconsin during a joint meeting of the athletic council and a Board of Regents committee held late yesterday afternoon.

Athletic Director Thomas E. Jones, representing the council, made the recommendation in the presence of Regents A. J. Horlick, Walter J. Kohler, both members of the physical education committee, and other interested members of the Board of Regents.

Regents Meet at 10 O'clock

The "star chamber" session was held behind the closed doors of the office of J. D. Phillips, business manager. It began at 5 o'clock and lasted until after 6 o'clock.

Although several regents considered the recommendation, they decided to withhold its approval until the entire governing body meets at 10 o'clock this morning. Several of those present at the conference refused to deny that Ryan had been chosen or to comment upon the recommendation late last night.

"Professor" will probably be the title of the head football coach here.

The new mentor will be the first all-year coach who has been in charge of football at Wisconsin. The Board of Regents will today pass upon his salary, which is expected to be in the neighborhood of $5,000.

Ryan Develops Backs

Jack Ryan has been a successful football coach at Marquette university and Dartmouth. In 1919, he produced an eleven which held Wisconsin to a 13 to 0 victory and outplayed the Badgers a large part of the game, only to lose when backfield men fumbled within the shadow of Wisconsin goalposts.

Ryan has been assistant mentor at Dartmouth. He is noted for his ability to develop basketeers men.

Harry Hughes, Colorado A. & M., Harold "Hod" Ostie, Mississippi A. & M., and Harlan "Pat" Page, Butler college, have all been considered for the position of head coach at Wisconsin.

Each of these men came to Madison for sessions with Director Jones and the Athletic department. The problem of selecting a gridiron director has been the biggest one facing the athletic council since the resignation of John R. Richards at the conclusion of the 1922 season.

A. A. U. W. TO GIVE PLAYS FOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Three plays are to be given by the Wisconsin branch of the American Association of University Women on March 15 in the Concert room, Lathrop hall, for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Last year the A. A. U. W. gave $200, constituting their scholarship fund, to the committee on loans and scholarships of the University for distribution. Two people are now receiving the benefit of this money. The fund was raised by Service shop sales and plays.

This year the A. A. U. W. had charge of the Service Shop Feb. 28 and Mar. 1. The sales netted $85 and the remainder of the fund will be made up of the receipts from the plays. The sale of tickets has been progressing rapidly, almost 300 tickets having been sold. The admission is 50c. Mrs. Ray Owen has charge of the seat sale.

Miss Elizabeth Young is chairman of the scholarship fund committee. The plays are being coached by Miss Mary McCarthy and Mrs. J. B. Fuller. The rehearsals are now in progress.

MILITARY BALL TO BE HELD IN STATE CAPITOL

Assembly Grants Use By Large Vote

The Military Ball will be held in the state capitol. A resolution to allow the University cadet corps to hold its annual dance in the state house was introduced in the Assembly Tuesday morning by Assemblyman Weber, Milwaukee, and was passed with but two dissenting votes. It was passed by 89 votes.

The date on which the ball will be held, and the committees to be in charge of the hop will be determined at a meeting of the officers association of the cadet corps to be held Saturday, according to a statement made yesterday by Robert Luening '22, general chairman.

Two Opponents

"April 20, which was under consideration as a possible date, may conflict with the appearance of the Haresfoot production, and some change may be necessary," Luening said.

The two opponents to the use of the capitol were Assemblymen A. B. Blomberg, Price county, and W. A. Freehoff, Waukesha.

"Granting the use of the capitol for the cadet's dance would be inconsistent with their action in favoring the abolition of militarism," Mr. Blomberg declared in his attack upon the resolution.

"The dance will interfere with the student's study," Price said. "For that reason I join the faculty in opposing it."

Know Not Own Actions

"Give them the capitol," Weber said when he introduced the bill. "In the words of the Master, we must forgive them, for they know not what they do."

Assemblyman Duncan, Milwaukee, socialist leader in the legislature, strongly supported Weber on the resolution.

"It is a question of free speech," he said. "This is a public building and even if the National Guard asked for its use, they have a right to it."

The senate, over-ruling the objection of some of the members that the state house should not be used for "social purposes," concurred in supporting the resolution.

Kansas Legislator Seeks Prevention of Student Cars

Students at other state universities have their troubles as well as those at Wisconsin.

Men and women in attendance at all educational institutions in Kansas will be prohibited from having automobiles "for pleasure or recreation" while in school, if a bill by Senator Van De Mark of Concordia, recommended favorably recently by the senate committee of the whole, becomes a law.

Imprisonment from 10 to 30 days or fine of $100 to $500, or both, would be meted out to violators of the measure.

Prof. Gillen Talks on American Women Poets

Prof. Charles F. Gillen, assistant professor of romance languages, spoke on "Some Women Poets of America" at the regular meeting of the Catholic Woman's club yesterday in the Woman's building.

A series of readings from the works of the following American poets was given: Alice Brown, Theodocia Garrison, Sarah Teazdale, and Louise Imogen Guiney. Short criticisms on each poet accompanied the readings.

Two vocal solos by Miss Erma Duncan of the University School of Music, "Down in the Desert," Ross; and "Ho, Mr. Piper," Curran, concluded the program.

GARDNER PLANS WESTERN TRIP

Will Make Six-weeks Trip in Behalf of Memorial Union

In an effort to infuse a new life in western alumni associations, and to secure additional support for the Wisconsin Memorial Union, Prof. Edward H. Gardner, of the department of marketing and advertising, will leave on March 11 for a tour through the West. Professor Gardner will be gone for six weeks, after which he plans to supplement the western trip with one through the eastern states.

Leaving Madison next Sunday, Professor Gardner will go to St. Louis where he will meet a well-organized and live alumni association. The tour will include the following western cities: Kansas City, Kan., Los Angeles, Barkley, and San Francisco, Cal., Portland, Ore., Tacoma, Spokane, and Seattle, Wash., Moscow, Idaho, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Denver, Col. Beyond Denver the route has not been definitely fixed, but it will include the largest of the western cities not already mentioned. At each place, Professor Gardner will show the three-reel film telling the story of the Wisconsin Memorial Union.

According to figures given out yesterday afternoon, the Memorial Union drive has netted well over $800,000 thus far. The total was given a boost by additional contributions received from a number of eastern states.

WILCE SHOWS VALUE OF DEBATES FOR ATHLETES

Coach John W. Wilce of Ohio State university in a recent interview compared debating with football and pointed out the value of debating to the football player as well as to other university students.

Coach Wilce was a debator in high school and was interested in the subject while a student at the University of Wisconsin.

"The debator must be able to place himself in the other fellow's shoes. He must first decide what his opponent may say, and then arrange his arguments accordingly," said Wilce.

"The same holds true in football. The brainy player will guess his opponent's moves beforehand and prepare for them. It is my opinion that a certain amount of speaking and arguments should be required in college," said Mr. Wilce.

Agricultural Professor

Will Address Blue Shield

Professor Humphrey, who spent nearly four months in the Argentine Republic last summer as a judge of Dairy cattle at the International fair, will address the members of the Blue Shield Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, at the Wesley Foundation.

Mr. Humphrey has had many experiences while in the south, but he will stress, in his talk, the social side of rural development. His talk will be illustrated by stereoptican slides.

The meeting is open to all those who are interested in social development, whether rural or urban.

Toronto U. May Found New Daily College Publication

The "Only College Daily in Canada," the McGill Daily, published by the McGill university at Montreal, is soon to lose its slogan and its honor of being the only one of its kind in Canada, if plans that are now proposed to make the "Varsity," a tri-weekly publication of the University of Toronto, a daily paper, go into effect. The proposed "Varsity" will be a smaller paper than the McGill Daily, probably a five-column sheet. It will be published only five days a week. A linotype machine will be installed exclusively for the use of the paper.

Kahlenberg Seized By Attack of La Grippe

Professor Louis Kahlenberg of the chemistry department was unable to be at the university last week because of a slight attack of grippe that he contracted on a recent trip to Two Rivers, where he gave a Washington's birthday address.

Prof Recommends Honey To Keep Warm Radiator

"Have a little honey in your radiator" may be the slogan of those who drive cars in the winter, predicts Prof. F. L. Fairbanks of Cornell university.

Professor Fairbanks and Prof. R. B. Wilson of the university have been experimenting to determine value of many anti-freezing mixtures, and their tests to date have shown that honey has a marked superiority to many other compounds frequently used by motorists.

Honey will not evaporate as quickly as alcohol, but remains in the radiator after the water has evaporated. The supply of honey will last throughout the winter, and it has no harmful effects on the motor, pump, or rubber connections. Honey has a far lower freezing point than many other compounds experimented with.

Calcutta U. in Bankruptcy Due to Financial Handling

Calcutta university, the premier university of India, is in a state of bankruptcy in consequence of financial mismanagement. The Government has offered assistance, but under conditions which officials of the university refuse to consider. "Freedom first, freedom last, and freedom all the time," exclaimed Sir Asutash Mukerjee, vice-chancellor of the university. Government representatives maintain that the government made no claim to interference in academic matters, but merely demanded a full statement of financial affairs before voting money for the institution. Public opinion is strongly in favor of the stand taken by the government.

NORTHWESTERN GIVES UP HONOR FRUIT STANDS

That there is no honor among some Northwestern university students became evident when several "honor" candy and fruit stands were established at the university some time ago. Students were supposed to help themselves and deposit the proper amount for the articles taken.

Because of the numerous thefts which occurred, it became necessary to establish a watch on the stands. This resulted in the detection of six students, one of them a co-ed, taking the goods without paying or short-changing the boxes. The co-ed stole an apple.

Regents to Discuss Men's Dormitories Here Today

The plan for building dormitories on the campus with private money will again be brought up and probably some definite action will be taken when the Board of Regents meet in conjunction with the Visitors' Committee this morning at 11 o'clock in their regular monthly meeting.

If this plan goes through it will mean that men's dormitory buildings worth $2,500,000 will be erected on the campus.

Women's Bowling Scores

For Teams Due Monday

All scores for the tryouts for women's class bowling teams must be in by next Monday noon. Squad members are the only ones eligible for team, and they must have at least four high scores in as well as all of the scores which they have bowled since squads were announced. The teams will be announced next week by the physical education department.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

NOTRE DAME TO SEND RUNNERS HERE SATURDAY

Both Teams Reported Strong

The Varsity track team took a light workout yesterday afternoon but will get down to hard work again today in preparation for its meet with the strong Notre Dame team to be held here next Saturday afternoon.

Results of the Illinois relays in which the Badger cinder men took part were encouraging after the slaughter to which the men submitted themselves at Iowa City in the first meet. The team worked at Illinois like a squad of veterans and future prospects are brighter than they have been for some time.

Notre Dame will present a strong line-up when the two teams meet here on Saturday. Many veterans are on the Catholics' team and Wisconsin will have a big job on their hands to beat them.

Hit Hard Luck Streak

Notre Dame tracksters met Illinois two weeks ago and held their opponents to a tie until they entered in the last event of the meet which was the mile relay. A win for either team meant victory and Notre Dame had the hard luck to have their third runner fall when he was leading by a foot. Illinois took the meet by a 50 to 45 score, but the strength of the Catholic cannot be doubted because of this score.

Wisconsin will hope for victory on the strength of men in a few events in which Notre Dame is particularly weak. Weeks of Notre Dame took the high jump from Illinois with a leap of 5 feet, 7 inches. Wisconsin should be able to score a shut-out in this event unless indications are deceiving.

Kennedy, Notre Dame miler, is a man to be feared by virtue of his win against Illinois.

Shot Put to Feature

The shot-put should develop into a feature event with Moes competing for Notre Dame and Van Ells working for Wisconsin. The heaves the men have made in meets this season are all in the near neighborhood of 40 feet and the margin by which one man will win over the other is not likely to be great.

Brady will broad jump for the Catholics and will provide some real competition for the Badgers. He took first place in his event against the strong Illinois team.

Cox, Notre Dame half miler, Walsh, quarter miler, and Barr, sprint man, are other men to be feared.

BOOSTS SERVICE FOR COMMUNITY AS LIFE CALLING

Community service is a new profession for college graduates according to John J. Tigert, United States commissioner of education, who describes the opportunities for doing community service in a letter received by Prof. J. L. Gillin, of the sociology department from Community Service headquarters, 315 Fourth street, New York city.

"Community service in organizing and directing leisure time activities is a constantly growing field into which a number of our graduates from the sociology department have gone far in successive years", Professor Gillin said yesterday.

"I agree with Mr. Tigert in his statement that the soundness of community life depends upon the cultivation of the margin of time outside work and play," Professor Gillin said.

"Communities are analyzing the word "Recreation" back to its essential meaning "re-creation." There is truth in the warning that we are in danger of becoming a nation of "Bleacherites". Eighteen men play on a diamond while thousands sit and watch them, gaining their own exercise by occasional arm waving."

Three thousand samples of Molle, a special shaving preparation of the Pryde-Wynn company, New Brighton, Pennsylvania, have been distributed among the men students by William H. Conine '23, the company's representative on the campus.

W. A. A. REVISES RULES FOR TRAINING TABLES

Whether or not the girls on squads and teams are keeping training rules, can be definitely ascertained by a new method recently installed by the Women's Athletic association. An absolute check up is being on each girl by the means of slips filed daily.

Previously, the rules for girls in training were those prescribed in the Women's Athletic association laws. Many old rules have been eliminated, and only the ones appearing on the slip need be conformed to.

The three balanced meals a day rule is among the new ones. Eating between meals is to be discouraged, but the girls are permitted to use their own discretion in this matter.

These new rules were recently adopted when the bylaws of W. A. A. were changed.

ROWING SQUAD WORKING WELL

Coach Vail to Select Three Crews Soon; Material Promising

While the hard work of the season is still ahead of him, Coach Dad Vail of the Varsity crew is slowly molding his bunch of aspirants into a likely looking rowing squad.

None of the crews has been definitely selected from the recruits, but with many of the old Varsity crew men back in the ranks, selection should not be difficult.

A squad of almost 25 men is working in the rowing annex regularly waiting for the lake to open so that they may get on the water. Last spring the crew launched its shells on April 9.

Coach Vail believes in having a crew work together for some time before it competes with other teams and prefers to have the same eight men work together. The number of available men is still too large, however, to select a first eight.

Three eights will be selected and regular work will begin within the next few weeks. It frequently happens that a man working on a second or third crew shows up better late in the season than he promised and it is an advantage to get all the men working in separate squads so that they may be watched carefully.

UNION OF U. W. LITERARY SOCIETIES DISCUSSED

The advisability of admitting the National Association of Collegiate Debating clubs to membership at Wisconsin was discussed at the meeting of the Forensic Board held March 1.

Since it was not advisable for any one literary organization at Wisconsin to join the association, and that as it was apparently impossible for the six groups of this campus to be combined, the board decided that the question be dropped for the present or until more detailed information concerning the proposed association could be obtained.

The proposed point system for the literary society competition is still under consideration. Detailed plans are being developed concerning the points to be awarded on the various forensic and oratorical events. The main competitions of each year are the Men's Joint debate, Agricultural-Hill society debate, Women's Joint debate, Sophomore semi-public debates, N. O. L. contest, members placed on Intercollegiate debate teams, and the annual Freshman Declamatory contest.

The finals of this year's Freshman declamatory will be held April 19, while the preliminary open contest will be held April 17. Each literary society, both men and women, will send one contestant to the finals, while the three highest competitors of the open event will also meet in the final on April 19.

Plans for the first Intercollegiate debate to be held March 16 were made, and arrangements for the address by Ralph Dennis on March 21 were settled.

It was announced at the Methodist hospital late yesterday that Paul Urbanek '24, who has been seriously ill since an operation last Friday night for appendicitis,

ATHLETIC BODY OFFERS TEBELL COACHING JOB

Williams Gets Many Offers

Gustav K. Tebell has been offered the position of freshman athletic coach here by the Athletic council. He has not yet decided to accept the position.

The position involves coaching basketball and baseball, as well as football, which has heretofore been handled by Keg Driver.

Both Williams and Tebell were in consultation Monday with Michael Ahearn, representative of the Kansas Agricultural college. Kansas has expressed her willingness to take either of them for basketball and baseball coach for football scout or assistant coach.

Charles Bachman, formerly of Notre Dame has been coaching the Kansas Aggies. Both men are as yet undecided upon what course to follow, but a decision is expected within a few weeks.

Williams has been offered an especially remunerative job by the Beloit Fairies to play football, basketball and baseball. The Fairies would be willing to pay as much as $8,000 a year to Rollie.

Tebell and Williams both have had other offers some of which look especially promising, but both of them are keeping their opinion to themselves.

BADGER RIFLE TEAM MAKES GOOD SHOWING

The Wisconsin rifle team made a score of 2,978 out of a possible 3,000 in the contest of the National Rifle association which ended last Friday.

The targets were sent to Chicago to be camouflaged with the targets of the teams of the Universities of Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin, which constitute this corp area. The winning team will enter the National Intercollegiate rifle contest, in which teams representing the other corp areas will shoot.

The Wisconsin team is composed of 15 students, mostly freshmen and sophomores many of whom had no previous experience. C. J. Bode '22, L. P. Drake '26, L. O. Long '24, and H. J. Sporer '25, are the outstanding stars. Bode shot a perfect score in all six competitions, and Drake, Long and Sporer scored 298, 299 and 295 respectively, out of a possible 300.

Sergeant R. E. Shire, sponsor of the club, says he has great hopes of at least placing in the National Intercollegiate, but that competition is largely against schools which make shooting a major sport. Iowa and Northwestern are trying to make it that now, he said.

Last year Wisconsin placed third in the National Intercollegiate contest, winning a large silver cup and bronze individual medals. Last fall in another match of the National Rifle association, Wisconsin placed ninth.

This year gold medals will be given.

The teams follow: C. J. Bode '22, L. P. Drake '26, L. O. Long '24, H. J. Sporer '25, C. J. Ludwig '26, J. J. Coyle '23, E. P. Von Rohr, C. H. Swetil '26, W. A. Rorison '25, C. C. Fransien '25, G. H. Ross '26, C. Meyer '24, E. P. Pirce, F. O. Fulton '25, B. D. Tolman '23.

Irma Wilson to Give Graduating Recital

The University School of Music will present Miss Irma Wilson, pianist, in a graduate recital at Music hall at 8:15 o'clock Thursday evening. Mr. Carroll Robb '25, baritone, will assist.

Miss Wilson will play "Gavotte and Variations" by Rameau, "Prelude and Fugue E Minor" by Mendelssohn, "Nocturne" by Creig, "Stern November" and "Indian Summer" by Burleigh, and "Etude A Flat Major," "Etude G Flat Major," and "Etude C Minor" by Chopin.

Mr. Robb will sing Kel's "Trade Winds," Elgar's "Pleading," and "Marie My Girl" by Aitkin.

NON-VARSITY SWIMMING PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Swimming will come in for its share of attention from the non-Varsity groups during the rest of the month. While the Varsity is busy in meets with Chicago, and the Conference set-to in Chicago, the inter-mural meets will fill the bill at home.

The first meet is the interclass, set for 8 o'clock tomorrow night, and it will be followed by four others. The interfraternity water basketball league's games will be played independently of these meets, however.

The schedule is as follows: Interclass meet, Thursday, March 9. Intercollegiate meet, Tuesday, March 13.

Interfraternity meet, Tuesday, March 20.

Freshman champs, Thursday, March 22.

College champs, Thursday, March 29.

IOWA DEFEAT PUTS SMILE ON BADGER FACES

Two Games in Three Days Left

The University of Wisconsin is wearing a big, wide smile today.

The grin is a result of Iowa's defeat at the hands of Indiana and it will last until Saturday night, at least, when Coach Walter E. Meanwell and his Wisconsin banees will clash with Chicago in Bartlett gymnasium.

Iowa has sailed along with a clear record and was within reach of an undisputed Conference championship when Coach Les Mann's Hoosiers upset the well-known dope bucket and spilled Hawkeye hopes all over the lot. With eleven victories and one game to play, the Hawks tripped over the Indiana obstacle. They have completed their schedule with 11 wins and a single loss.

Title at Stake

By defeating Northwestern Monday night, Wisconsin increased its string of victories to nine and put itself in hailing distance of the leaders. Two more games both of which will be hard as any previously played, are on the card. Playing two contests in three days is no easy task at any time, but when two such strong teams as Chicago and when a Conference title is at stake, the difficulty of the situation is immensely increased.

Chicago has improved a great deal since it was defeated by Wisconsin at Madison. The Badger defense held the Maroons to three baskets, but the personnel of their team was not definitely settled. Barnes, star forward, is now leading the Conference in points scored. Dickson is close to the leaders, and a Cpt. Yardley, center is doing his share of offensive work.

One Day Rest

After meeting Chicago in the Maroon stronghold, the Badgers will have a single day's respite and will then conclude the season with their all-important Indiana game.

The Hoosiers have beaten Purdue, Iowa, and other powerful quintets. Nyikos, forward who became eligible this year, and Parker, center, are high scorers for the Mannmen. They are furnishing most of the points.

Whether the Badgers win or lose their next contests, they cannot be shoved past second place in the standings. Michigan will probably keep third position although the Illinois and Chicago outfits are not far behind.

Hawks Probably Fatigued
Waterloo is not in Indiana, but nobody could convince Iowa rooters that it is in any other state. Barry's men were practically assured of the title when they hit the Hoosiers. The hard game with Michigan on Saturday night and the long train ride to Bloomington probably had much to do with the Hawks' defeat.

A few games this week-end, next Monday and Wednesday will conclude one of the hottest basketball fights that the Big Ten has known. Upsets of the favorites and irregular playing of most of the teams have characterized the season.

Prominent Sporting Men Will Appear at Strand

A prominent fighter will appear in each picture of the series of 12 pictures, "Fighting Blood," which will be shown at the Strand theater starting this week.

James J. Jeffries, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, will appear in one episode of the picture. Other men famous in the world of sports who will appear in the different episodes are:

Gene Sarazen, world golf champion; "Ad" Wolgast, former lightweight champion of the world; Jack Hutchinson, Australian golf champion; Leach Cross, one of the leading contenders for lightweight honors a few years ago.

In one of the bouts which is shown, a real referee, "Larry" McGrath, who was at one time a contender for the lightweight championship, will act as referee. Leach Cross, a former opponent of McGrath, will be one of the fighters in the scene and "Larry" will have the opportunity of "counting him out."

THE ISSUES IN TONIGHT'S MASSMEETING

The attitude of the student body toward the proposed point system will be sounded out tonight in the student mass meeting called by the Student senate.

Two important factors of vital interest to the university life probably will be taken up.

The advantages and disadvantages of such a means for the regulation of student activities will be brought up, reviewed and discussed.

Oratory is often unleashed in the debate of a highly controversial subject. Flowery onslaughts of eloquence will do little to clarify the situation.

Whether a real need exists for a point system at the University of Wisconsin is a more important matter for student attention. The Cardinal believes.

The fact that the University of Michigan or the University of Texas may have adopted such a system does not justify its adoption here.

The actual need at the University of Wisconsin for regulation of student activities should be proved first.

Is student activity handicapped by the over-activity of a few leaders?

Is the student scholastic standing lowered by the multiplicity of outside activity?

Is the present system wrong? What are the evils that would be remedied?

These questions, suggested in a impartial manner, are only a few that arise from an investigation of the need for a point system.

Unless a point system is considered necessary for the welfare of the student body, discussion of its merits and demerits is useless.

The answer of this problem can only be made by the student body.

A mass meeting deserves support for this reason. It is the democratic and representative way for self-expression of every student. The more students that express themselves tonight, the better equipped will be the senate to act wisely.

But may oratory not cloud the real issue. Is there a need for the point system here?

THE CLIMAX OF NEWS
Ruhr may be invaded, Turkey may declare war against Greece, thrones and kingdoms may totter, but there's something of relative greater importance to us today.

The fact that the Board of Regents will announce their selection of a football coach for Wisconsin's football team is of more interest to students in Madison today than the entire European mess of intrigues and conflicts.

We have seen the Badgers fight with glory for successive second place honors in the Conference.

And now with the flavor of a Conference title already in our mouth, thanks to the Hoosier basketball five, we find the palate already watering for a football championship team next year.

The football mentor announced today will do much in producing the 1924 team and in deciding Wisconsin's place in the Big Ten family.

Nine schools in the Big Ten ought to envy Wisconsin.

We admit it.

When the University Glee club captured highest honors at Chicago, defeating other conference clubs by their remarkable musical harmony, the average student at Madison puffed up like an owl and said:

"We've got some glee club. Rather wish now that I might carry their music or something."

An then when the club was invited to make a special tour of New York city and to appear at Carnegie hall in the presence of Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth and other eastern school clubs, we ripped off our vest in pride.

The opportunity to hear the conference "champions" in glee club music will be offered Friday and Saturday nights at Music hall when the University Glee club will give special concerts for students and the public.

We're going to sew on all four buttons on that vest and attend. A musical treat like that should be patronized by every music lover.

OUR SAFE AND SANE LEGISLATURE

Metropolitan editors have been proclaiming with horror that Wisconsin is headed for doom.

When the state legislature moves to abolish the national guard, surely civilization in this state is radically wrong, they say.

The action of the state legislature in approving of the Military ball in the state capitol reaches the city journalists, they may change their mind.

Wisconsin is noted for its progressive laws. Because the assembly voted for the abolishment of the guard was no sign that Senator La Follette, Governor Blaine and the senate would also approve.

Despite the radical's view that the capitol should not be opened for university social functions in which "youth apes the ways of the rich," the legislature followed the practical procedure of inviting the university to use the state building.

The legislature is safe and sound. The Cardinal wishes to thank the members for their splendid attitude.

MISS SPRING

Balmy days when the very urge of life seems to revive new energy within us and makes us remember that spring vacation is not far distant are both pleasant and alarming.

If one balmy day will tempt us to throw aside the books, what will a solid season do?

While the Mendota winds grow colder in a pre-spring frolic of winter, we have resolved to do our studying now while the icy blasts cannot tempt us.

That is not wishing, confidentially, that Miss Spring wouldn't invite us for a walk tomorrow. However, with spring vacation only a month distant, may reason prevail over sentiment.

Editors Say—

COLLEGE NEWSPAPER INFLUENCE

Michigan Daily

Quite aside from any discussion or comparison of the man-at-college and the "practical" man of the world and its affairs, the college newspaper reaches materially the ideal of what a newspaper should contain, and be.

Few newspapers, and almost no daily publications, have risen above the ranks of those which satisfy a certain element of the public that craves sensational articles in its daily reading.

Headlines which tell of crime are a favorite resort to increase the circulation of newspapers, and values are often widely distorted, the things the public should know being subordinated to the more bizarre attractive incidents.

But the college paper for the most part presents events and thoughts of the day which should be followed by everyone, presents them properly stressed, in the order of their true importance. In doing so it draws close to the ideal newspaper, the ideal that should be present in an institution which today is the world's greatest moulder of thought and public policy.

The college paper does not headline its front page with the latest murder or most novel homicide mystery, at the expense of important developments in world affairs; a truer conception of values prevails. In spite of ever-changing personnel, the continued policy of the college newspaper is to publish an ideal sheet, a publication which is all that such an institution as the newspaper should be.

One or two other current newspapers have entirely disregarded the sensational appeal in their effort to give the public the things it should keep in touch with.

With the aid of these, and with the idealistic policy of future newspaper editors exemplified in their policy as editors of college publications, it is to be hoped that a new era in the field of the newspaper may soon dawn, that in the future publicity will be given where it should, and that a public shall be enlightened on affairs the universal knowledge of which is so essential in this day of democracy and stupendous social problems.

Column Right!

Books and things—cabbages—Kings—as penciled by Ever Sharp

This column was pretty slight last Sunday, wasn't it? There is a rule, you know, that communications are not to be over a certain length. But what are rules for, if not to be broken.

Anyway, we were exceptionally glad to be able to make room for that communication.

Here's one that was sent to us.

THOSE VALENTINES

Dear Ever:

I see you've got a place for cabbages in your column and so here's a couple via your competitor, The Wake, in the W. G. N.

Dear Wake: Replying to Wisconsin's "delivery route" since Cardinal. Oh yes, would that we were on your delivery route, Wisconsin, remembering it is far more blessed to give than to receive. OLD MAN IOWA.

Michigan has been on Wisconsin's "delivery route" since 1900, and Wisconsin has yet to deliver a football victory. The Badger's best was a lucky tie in 1921.

I hear there's been a few more directed our way insinuating something about what Wisconsin didn't deliver to Iowa on the track and swimming route.

How come, Ever, this gore about track, swimming, football and such? Seems to me we're talking about basketball valentines. And as the Daily Deet said yesterday morning, even Iowa had the pleasure of a Wisconsin basketball valentine.

It was probably so late in getting into Iowa territory that it looks more like a shamrock now than anything else. But it appears that Iowa is going to have to keep it. Hope there's enough Irish in Iowa to appreciate shamrocks.

Atlanta Debutantes Don't Like Blue Law Ordinance

An uprising against a recent city ordinance forbidding Sunday movies, theatres, or cabarets in Atlanta, Georgia, is being promoted by the "1923 Debutant Club" of that city. Led by three debutant heiresses the club is causing much public sentiment to be aroused against the blue laws. "Any town with blue laws is a dead issue," they say. "To raise a community from a small town grown up to a real metropolis, you've got to give folks fun on Sunday." As first move in its campaign the club petitioned to the city council for Sunday movies and baseball.

CURTAIN CLUB TO GIVE PLAYS

Prominent Faculty Members Will Take Part in the Production

The lure of the footlights is calling Wisconsin's professors from the classrooms. A number have signified their intentions to heed the siren voice of the stage.

Among those who will shortly appear in public are Dr. Eugene H. Bryne, professor of history, C. L. Fernberg, and Prof. Warner Taylor, of the English department, and Robert W. West, professor of speech. They will make their stage debut in the plays to be produced by the Curtain club, the dramatic organization of the faculty, on Tuesday, March 27, in the Madison High School auditorium.

The Curtain club, which giving its annual performance, includes in its membership the most distinguished dramatic lights of Wisconsin's faculty. On its lists are the names of Carl Russell Fish, known as the university's most popular professor; Prof. Karl Young, head of the English department; Prof. William Ellry Leonard, whose four-act play, "Red Bird," the club produced last year, and Dean F. W. Roe.

The four one-act plays that the club is staging are "Minuet" by Louis M. Parker, author of "Diaradi;" "The Shadow of the Glen" by John Millington Synge, one of the best known of Irish playwrights; "A Night at an Inn," by Lord Dunsay; and "Peace at Home," a French farce by George Courteil, translated and arranged by Prof. J. F. A. Pyre and Prof. F. A. Ernst, both members of the club.

"The production will doubtless be as successful as those of previous years," said Prof. James O'Neill, head of the speech department and president of the Curtain club. "This is the first year since the first, when we gave Wilde's The Importance of Being Ernest that we have turned from tragedy. The group of plays selected can hardly fail to attract."

DR. ERNEST BURTON IS CHICAGO'S NEW PREXY

The University of Chicago passed under a new administration last Tuesday when President Emeritus Harry Pratt Judson handed over his office in the Harper library, symbolizing the presidency of the University, to Dr. Ernest DeWitt Burton, recently selected acting chief executive.

The regime of Acting President Burton began in a quiet manner which accorded with his determination to make his administration "one not of stagnation but of advance." He is planning to carry on the work of his predecessors, and gave a prospectus of what he hopes to accomplish during his administration.

"Our aim here will not be greatly to enlarge the colleges, but to discover and provide a type of college education better adapted to American life. Quality, not numbers, will be our watchword," said Dr. Burton.

"Rubeville Leads New Orph Show

Three performances today will give Madison vaudeville followers the last opportunity to witness the Orpheum bill for the first half.

"Rubeville," a melange of rural mirth and melody, with a cast including ten people, is scheduled to headline the new show starting tomorrow afternoon. It is a musical offering with a plot and all the players are men.

Another feature of the new bill will be Jane and Irwin Connelly's comedy of laundry life, "The Tale of a Shirt," which is reported to be a riot of fun from start to finish. Four more Orpheum Circuit acts will complete the week-end program.

Nebraska to Decline Invite For So. California Grid Game

Nebraska will decline the invitation of the University of Southern California for a football game between the two schools at Los Angeles, Dec. 8, according to the announcement made Monday. The reason given by Director Dawson is that Nebraska already has a full schedule of games. If the games were to be played it would necessitate a two weeks' trip, and the permission of the Missouri Valley Conference board would be necessary.

Dunne to Be Assistant
Coach at Northwestern

Robert Jerome Dunne, captain of Michigan's football team in 1920 was selected as assistant gridiron coach at Northwestern Monday.

Dunne will succeed George Trafton, and his duties will commence with spring practice. He was tackle end, and center for Michigan for three years. His ability as a lineman fits him especially well to assist the head coach, as his principal duty will be to train the forward wall.

Since his graduation from Michigan, Dunne has been assistant to Fielding H. Yost, and last year he was coach at Loyola university. At present he is a student in the Northwestern law school.

MENORAH GIVES
PLAY OF RACES"The Melting Pot" Tells Story of Poor Russian
Musician

Having been driven from his peaceful home in Russia by the massacres of the Black Hundreds, David Quixano came to America, firm in the belief that here would he find that all the old traditions, prejudices and superstitions disappear in a vast crucible, in which all races are immersed and emerge as true Americans. He succeeds in presenting his American symphony the portrayal of his faith in this country, and it is about this young Jewish violinist, and his sweetheart Vera Revendal a social worker and daughter of a Russian baron, that the story of "The Melting Pot" weaves itself. The Menorah society of the university is presenting this play a product of the pen of Israel Zangwill in Lathrop concert room the evening of March 22.

In the leading roles, Harry Katowitz, portraying the character David, and Yvette Goldberg as Vera, characterize their parts well. The supporting cast includes Norman Leshin as Quincy Davenport, a millionaire connoisseur of music; William Lipman, Mendel Quixano, David's uncle; Nathaniel Breslauer, Baron Revendal; Benjamin Lieberman, Herr Pappelmeister, symphony orchestra leader; Gertrude Kasdin, Frau Quixano, David's grandmother; Sara Abrams, Baroness Revendal; Harriet Lewis, Kathleen O'Reilly, the maid.

The players are being directed by Prof. R. W. West of the speech department who is assisted by Miss Lewis. The coaches report splendid progress being made by the cast, which is rehearsing three or four times each week.

Reservations may now be made with the business manager, Harold H. Laskey, 615 W. Johnson street. All seats are reserved, the prices of admission being 50 and 75 cents. Tickets are obtainable from members of the cast or others of the society and may be exchanged for reserved seats or reservations may be made directly with Mr. Laskey.

Paxson Plans Topics For Recent American History

Professor Frederic Paxson has conceived the plan of allowing his class in Recent American History to write up one certain year between 1900 and 1920 for the semester topic. The usual method has been to assign historical events, and permit each student to choose one for his topic. Prof. Paxson insists that there is nothing startling about it. He merely was tired of the old plan and wanted a little variety.

Coach Lark Wilce of Ohio State made the first cut in the spring football squad when he dropped 30 men because of improper mental attitude and too many absences. Janet Marshall is in Milwaukee this week-end.

Going Into Business?

After graduation, you must bridge the "years of experience" before you will be fitted to occupy a position of business responsibility and trust.

To men who are eager to shorten these years, Babson Institute offers an intensive training course of one or two years in business practice.

No lectures; no conferences. No written work; no dictation through dictating machines and secretaries.

Babson Institute, an educational institution endowed for the purpose of fitting men for true executive responsibilities, invites you to send for the booklet "Training for Business Leadership." Write today.

Big Schooner Comes Into Fire Action in "Thelma" Schooners are coming into play in the motion picture industry. You remember the one that was used in Dick Barthelmess' last film. Well, another one has been used in "Thelma," the picture which is coming to the Strand Sunday. It's a two-master and was bought especially for the picture and then fired for one of the scenes.

We were nearly impressed with this picture. It starts out with in-terminable slowness which lasts about half way through. Then it picks up a current of life and sends out sparks.

The star and her leading man were ordinary throughout the film. They did absolutely no real acting. But the character part, taken by Frank Keenan, was done to perfection. Especially along towards the end did the old man please us.

same? Tricks must be used in any trade under certain conditions and if the trick is effective, and also ethical, it is best that it should be carried out to the end.

The story doesn't amount to a great deal. Its underlying theme is the love of trees—white pines—and the struggle of an aged and wealthy lumberjack to gain the last tract of Michigan pine. For his opponents he has his son, a "cigarette Charlie" who had to come into actual contact with big timber to gain character and a back-bone, and a girl who had been willed a tract of pine by her father on one condition. That condition was that should the pine, which was planted by him, be cut down, new trees should be planted in its place.

We enjoyed Nazimova's "Salome" partly because it contained no villain, and no triangle. "Hearts Aflame," however, is a picture which could not possibly get along without these two qualities.

Oh for some more like "Salome."

New Theater Will Open

With "My American Wife"

The new Madison theater is practically ready for opening. In fact, the final touches are being put on it and the doors will be thrown open tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock with Gloria Swanson in the premier film, "My American Wife." Yesterday afternoon the only major things that were left to be done were the installation of the organ and the downstairs seats. The balcony seats have been put in place and very comfortable they look.

Some of it was undoubtedly a real fire. Whether or not it all

Matinee Fan
Loses Way In Dark Theater

The story of an afternoon movie fan is often a pitiable one. Especially is this so when the fan chooses bright days in which to make his theater sojourn. For then a sojourn it is; adventure abounds.

The other afternoon a young miss entered the lobby of one of the local playhouses. She purchased her ticket and made for the entrance into the theater. She stopped and closed her eyes before she reached the ticket collector, for she seemed to know that soon she would thrust herself into utter darkness and that it might be well for her to accustom herself to being temporarily blind. Then with a shrug of the shoulders she opened her eyes and advanced into the left aisle of the theater.

At first she proceeded with certainty. Of course, no usher volunteered his aid. Local ushers, most of them anyway, seem to think that they are merely ornaments.

Suddenly things became as black as pitch to the poor girl. But she went bravely on. For she did not dare sit down for fear of landing in someone's lap.

Forward she went until—ouch. She barked her shin on the end of a row of seats. She stooped over to rub the injured member and bumped her head against something hard.

"For goodness sake, look out what you're doing," someone very close hollered at her. It was a man's irate voice so she did not think it worth while to apologize.

She pressed onward, hands outstretched. Horrors! What had come into the clutch of her fingers? a woman's hair? or a man's beard? It was the farmer. She clutched in terror while so did the possessor, "John, she's taking my—". The wail ceased as the girl loosened her grasp and crouched down silently onto her hands and knees.

REIN TO USE RARE VIOLIN

Madison Artist Will Use
$10,000 Instrument in Concert Tonight

Nils Rein who plays in a concert tonight at Christ Presbyterian church will give one number on a genuine Guadagnini violin valued at $10,000. The violinist will use his own violin made for him by Knute Reindahl, Norwegian master violin maker.

Madison is the home of both Mr. Rein and Mr. Reindahl, although the former has spent much of his time in concert tour.

Two works of his own composition will be played by Mr. Rein. He will be accompanied by Miss Margaret Otterson.

Some reserved seats for the concert which begins at 8 o'clock may still be obtained at the Forbes-Meagher company.

The program follows:

1—Concerto, F. Mendelssohn, op. 64. Andante Allegretto, Ma non Tropo. Allegro molto vivace.

2—Vision, Drdla.

Minuet—Handel; Waltz—Brahms-Hochstein; Hindoo Chant—Rimsky-Korsakow-Kreisler; Mazurka de Concert—Musin.

3—Nobody Knows the Trouble I Have Seen—C. C. White; From the Canebrake—Gardner; Spanish Serenade—R. White; The Lonely Wanderer—Grieg-Piastro; Halling Norse Folk Melodies, Rein.

4—Zigeunerweisen—Sarasate.

FACULTY PASSES RESOLUTION IN REINSCH'S HONOR

In honor of the late Dr. Paul S. Reinsch, the faculty of the University of Wisconsin Monday voted the following resolution commemorating his association with the university:

The faculty of the University of Wisconsin has been grieved to learn of the death of one of its most distinguished sons, Dr. Paul Samuel Reinsch; and, in the presence of this lamentable event, desires to record its appreciation of his varied activities while a member of this body, and of his later labors in many fields.

Beginning in 1895 as instructor, he was rapidly advanced to the professorship of Political Science. Working at first with American material, he quickly advanced into regions where national interests passed into international problems, particularly those affecting Latin America and the Orient; and here his labors culminated in notable service as United States minister to China, and eventually as adviser to the Chinese government. Along this course of swift advancement he left a series of books and monographs which bear testimony to the breadth and depth of his scholarship.

The faculty deems it a matter of pride to make grateful acknowledgement of his achievements as a professor and as an active worker in the broader spheres of diplomacy and statesmanship, in which he served with honor to himself and his family, to his State and University, and to our country."

of the University is presenting at the Central High school auditorium are progressing favorably, according to a report of the committee in charge of the show.

"Blue Bandits" is strictly a product of Wisconsin, although the scene of the opera is in France. It is written by a Wisconsin man and has been played only in this state. Many of the larger American Legion posts of the state have already produced "Blue Bandits" and those who have not are laying plans to do so in the future.

The "Blue Bandits", besides calling for almost one hundred actors and singers, is also orchestrated for a small symphony orchestra. An orchestra consisting of students only is being organized for the occasion. Special scenery and costumes will be imported for the production here. Rehearsals are being held in Lathrop Hall.

Pauline Dickinson is visiting in Edgerton for the week-end.

State Spends $1,580,000 On Farms Yearly

Report On Agricultural Aid Expenditures Is Submitted

The state is spending approximately $1,580,000 annually for the direct betterment of agriculture through state aids and the maintenance of state departments devoted to the administration of laws intended to improve farming conditions, a report to the finance committee of the legislature shows. In addition approximately $700,000 on the university college of agriculture and its activities and $114,000 for the dairy and food department.

An appropriation of $1,000,000 to the state department of agriculture is the largest single expenditure. The state department of markets, with an appropriation of $116,000 annually, is devoting almost all of its activities to a study of farm problems. County fairs held in the 71 counties of Wisconsin received aid from the state last year amounting to $271,000. An appropriation of $40,000 is made by the state for maintenance of county agents, with $36,000 for aid to small agricultural societies, $36,000 for aid to county agricultural schools, $29,000 for branch agricultural stations, $20,000 for aid to the state board of vocational education and $26,000 for aid to high school offering agricultural training.

The legislature is being asked to increase the appropriation to the department of agriculture in order to give it $1,000,000 annually for indemnities arising from eradication of bovine tuberculosis.

New Madison Theater Will Open Thursday

The New Madison Theater, State st., formerly the Grand, will be opened to the public under the management of F. W. Fischer on Thursday. Special invitations are being mailed out to business firms and close friends of Mr. Fischer but the entire public will be welcomed at the opening program.

Delta Zeta Entertained

Delta Zeta sorority entertained Sunday from 5 to 7 o'clock with an "all Delta Zeta" tea at the chapter house. The sorority colors of rose and green were carried out in the refreshments.

Among the guests were the Misses Thelma Jones, Milwaukee; Harriet Kock, Davenport, Ia.; Edith Ray; Helen Robertson; and their patroness Mrs. H. G. Thomas. Mrs. Ludo Starbuck acted as chaperon.
