CAMPAIGN FOR FAR EAST FUND IS GOING WELL

One Fraternity Gives $60 Towards Jack Childs' Work

Early reports from the workers on the Wisconsin in China movement, being conducted this week, show that all three branches of the organization, fraternity, general and faculty are doing well and already have collected large sums of money to support Jack Childs.

The returns from the general canvass are rather light and have been coming in slowly, Lucius Chase '23, chairman of this division, stated last night.

Faculty Supports Movement

"Although we have gone far enough to assure us that we will be successful, our organization was developed rather late and due to exams it has not been able to get out as extensively as necessary," Chase asserted.

Reports from the faculty wing of the Wisconsin in China movement show that the faculty members are wholeheartedly supporting the idea.

Prof. E. H. Farrington in charge of the faculty movement, declared last night that all faculty returns undoubtedly will be in the early part of next week and will show the faculty to have subscribed more than its total.

One Frat Gives $60

Fraternity work, under the direction of Ku Klux Klan, has also been showing up well, Lee McCandless '23, fraternity chairman, asserted. One fraternity last night had subscribed $60, an average of $3 per man, to Jack Childs' work.

"If our workers will get out this week before the pre-vacation rush comes on, we will have no trouble in raising sufficient funds to support Childs in the Far East," Tredwell declared.

LOCAL MASONS TO JOIN WITH NATIONAL CLUB

Wisconsin's chapter of the Square and Compass will become a part of the national organization when it is installed as a square of that body at ceremonies at the Christ Presbyterian church tonight. The installation will be followed by a banquet served in the church club rooms.

Square and compass was founded at Washington and Lee university, Lexington, Va., and was incorporated under the laws of Virginia May 12, 1917. Every member of the organization enlisted in the service of the military and naval forces during the war, but the club was kept going by faculty members.

Upon the return of the student members they decided to form a national organization and the plan was put into operation.

The organization now has 22 squares including colleges and universities from coast to coast. Wisconsin was the twenty-second square to join the national ranks.

There will be a national convention of the organization January 2 and 3 at the headquarters in Lexington, Va.

Methodist Students Plan Novel Christmas Party

Final arrangements for the Christmas party at the University Methodist church have been made. Santa Claus has been sent a one-way ticket to the University Methodist church and will be on hand at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Home-made candy will be on sale for those to whom a dime's worth of fudge is needed for a perfect evening. Games and stunts, a program and special features will provide entertainment.

HOOT MON, FOLKS! HARRY'S IN TOWN

HARRY LAUDER

LAUDER GREETES U. W. STUDENTS

Scotch Singer Bids Americans to Preach Friendship and Happiness

Sir Harry Lauder, from his dressing room, last night sent a special message to every student in the university, telling them that with the young people of today lie the hopes of a peaceful and happy future. He appeared yesterday at the Parkway theater in two performances.

"I always like to come to college towns," he began, "because I enjoy seeing the young people at their work of building a peaceful future for the United States of America."

"Tell the students that my heart is with them as they go to and from their classes. My boy," and the great singer paused as he thought of his son, "my boy was a graduate of Cambridge. I love boys, and I love bonny lasses. I do not think that any father and mother has sacrificed and built up hopes on that boy only to prepare him for the battlefield."

Bids Lads to Sing

"Tell the lads to sing. Tell them to preach happiness instead of sadness. The world is a bonny place; and really there are some nice people in it. A grouch likes to live in a world of his own—that's why he is a grouch. I'm glad that I like my fellow men."

"Sing all the time. Music is a moral law. It gives soul to the universe, wings to the wind, flight to the imagination, charm to sadness, and life to everything. Music is the essence of order. It leads to things good, just, and beautiful. A kind word is music; kind words are the music of the world."

"All audiences are the same to me. All the English-speaking people love Harry Lauder because he lets them step into a happy atmosphere. I don't sing to the house—I sing personally to you down there, to you, and you."

Preach Friendship He Urges

"Get busy and preach friendship instead of war. I would rather be partner to the building of friendships than of battleships. The time is inevitable when the nations of the world will unite in one league of peace and friendship."

The little man spoke of fashion, of humor, and of prohibition. In regard to this last question, he said that he considered it one of America's great domestic problems, and one which was none of his business.

WEATHER: FAIR

Weather generally fair today and tomorrow is predicted for Madison and the vicinity. It will not be so cold tomorrow is the forecast. The highest temperature yesterday was 13 degrees and the lowest, 10.

600 Hear Snowflake Secrets As "Benny" Delivers Lecture

"You can make up your mind when you see a snow crystal which has fallen on your coat that no one has ever seen a crystal like that before and that no one will ever see one like it again," Prof. Benjamin W. Snow, head of the physics department declared in his famous snowflake lecture yesterday afternoon in the Physics auditorium.

Over 600 students and town people packed the lecture room, and many were turned away. Professor Snow will give the lecture again at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning in order that those who were unable to attend may avail themselves of the opportunity at that time.

Professor Snow first became interested in the subject some 25 years ago when his attention was called to several photographic slides of snow crystals made by a boy, then 19 years old, living in a small town in Vermont.

A correspondence was started immediately with this country young lad, William A. Bentley of a town of Jericho, and has been continued with great enthusiasm and interest by both parties since.

Mr. Bentley, who is a pioneer in this field has sent over 3,000 duplicate slides of his various microphotographic productions to the university since his first venture in this crystalline world.

Wisconsin is the only university in the country which has a duplicate set of these various snowflake formations and continually is adding to the collection as new forms are discovered.

In photographing the flakes, or crystals as they are properly called they are allowed to fall through a hole in the room onto a black top table. The perfect crystals are picked out with the aid of a magnifying glass and after being placed under the microscope camera by use of a feather, they are photographed. The temperature in the room is kept very cool in order to keep the crystals from melting.

John Drinkwater Will Talk Here Next Year

John Drinkwater, English author of "Abraham Lincoln," will lecture here next year under the auspices of the Literary magazine.

Mr. Drinkwater will stop in Madison on a lecture tour of America. While here he will speak on his play, "Abraham Lincoln," which had a long run in New York and Chicago.

The contract with the Literary magazine was signed yesterday by Jane O'Day of the Lee Keedick company of New York city.

PLAN TO HOUSE VISITING GIRLS IN PROM WEEK

Plans to accommodate girls coming from other towns for the Junior Prom will be completed in the near future, Arlene B. Page, chairman of the women's arrangements committee, stated last night.

"The women's arrangements committee is working in conjunction with the alumni and reception committees," Miss Page said. "We will have the co-operation of sorority and rooming houses and the dormitories have promised to help so that there will be plenty of rooms for all."

Similar arrangements for men will be made by the committee working under the direction of Charles Gary.

THREE W. STARS ON ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin has selected Rollie Williams, Gus Tebell and Marty Below, Badger grid stars, for places on its first All-American honor eleven.

Kipke of Michigan is the only other Big Ten player placed in the paper's mythical backfield. Placing three men from the same school on a first All-American grid team is unusual in any All-American collection.

Gopher Daily to Publish Special Issue Each Week

The Minnesota Daily is planning to launch a "Know Your Own College" drive during the next quarter. The plan provides for the publishing each week of a special issue to list the activities, history, traditions and future work of the different colleges. It is directly in line with the movement to keep alive the intense "Greater Minnesota" spirit aroused during the stadium drive.

GOD AND MAN IS LIFE BASIS —DR. DAVIS

Religion in World is Needed, Chicago Theologian Says in U. W. Address

"The real business of living is the achievement of personality. This achievement of personality involves the symmetrical development of the physical, intellectual, emotional, moral and spiritual man."

This is the basis for useful religion in the opinion of Dr. Ozora Davis, president of the Chicago Theological seminary, who spoke in Music hall last night after the sponsorship of the Campus Religious council, on the subject of "The Reality of Religion."

Needs Of Present Age Dr. Davis defined religion as "that conscious personal relationship we maintain between that which we call God and ourselves, will all the rights and privileges that go with it."

"Religion is rather remote than central in the life of the average man," he asserted. "When remote, it is weak; when central, it is potent."

If we engage in the real business of living, in achieving personality, we will gradually shut out the ugliness of today and open our souls to the beautiful, making divine the ugly, common place things of life. What we need today is not so much scourging people for their wickedness, as showing people what is right.

Indiana Team Seeks to Defeat U. W. Again in Initial Tilt

Butler college will try to show that history repeats itself when a team from the Indiana institution clashes with Wisconsin in the curtain-raiser of the 1922-23 basketball season this evening. The two quintets are scheduled to meet at 7:30 o'clock in the men's gymnasium.

For the second time, Coach Pat Paige and his Hoosier huskies will attempt to grab a Wisconsin scalp and defeat the Badger quintet on its own court. Last year Paige developed a team which beat Wisconsin, 26 to 20, and then walloped Illinois and Chicago.

Can the 1922 quintet, composed of the same men, with one exception, repeat?

1,000 To Witness Tilt

More than 1,000 fans, forming probably the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a preliminary game, will see the two teams lift the lid. Despite the large number of duets sold, there is a large number which can be procured at the gym this afternoon and evening. It is expected that most of the tickets will be disposed of before the game starts.

With both teams in good condition, a battle royal can be looked for. Coach Walter E. Meanwell has sent his men through many weeks of hard drill which culminated

ORIGINAL SONGS IN INITIAL FEST OF U. W. QUARTET

A program including many original songs with words, music, or arrangement by the quartet will be given at the Baptist church at 8:15 o'clock tonight by the Varsity quartet. Among these are Americanized songs representing the different continents of Asia, Europe, Africa, and America; A Scotch Irish love song, a serenade song, and an anti-love song, "A Song of Matrimony"; and three Negro songs, "Wait Till I Put on My Crown," "Jordan Roll," and "Hear Dem Bells."

Work on a new fireproof addition to the service building on University avenue will be started soon, according to university authorities. The new building will cost $80,000, and when it is completed it will be used for the automotive equipment of the university. Provisions will be made for garage facilities on the first floor.

Math Club Hears Paper on Ruled Surface Theory

Prof. E. P. Lane, of the department of mathematics, read a paper on the theory of ruled surfaces in geometry, which he has compiled in research work, at the Mathematics club meeting yesterday afternoon. This is the first time that Professor Lane has made public the results of his research work. He will present the paper to the American Mathematical society meeting at Evanston, Illinois, December 29 and 30.

The no-cut rule will be in effect immediately preceding and following the Christmas recess, according to an official recess announcement issued yesterday by W. D. Hiestand, registrar.

Vacation will commence at noon next Wednesday and will end January 3. Regular lectures and recitations will be resumed at 8 o'clock on the morning of January 4.

The announcement: The Christmas recess will begin at 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, December 20 and will terminate Wednesday, January 3, 1923. Regular work will be resumed at 8 a. m. Thursday, January 4.

Under the rules of the university any student who shall be absent, without a written excuse from the dean of his college, from the last regular class, quiz, laboratory or conference exercise in each study preceding the recess, and likewise from the first following the recess, will not be admitted to the examination at the close of the semester in the study or studies involved.

The above regulations apply to undergraduates in all colleges and schools and to graduates enrolled in undergraduate classes.

The Gun and Blade held its regular initiation at the Union building. New men initiated into the club are Roy French '23, Laurence Moe '26, Joseph E. Marx, Roy F. Nye '25, Thomas H. Ford '24, and Martin J. Nelson. Skating To Band Music Is Proposed By Outing Club

Whether or not it would be worth while to have a band on Saturday and Sunday afternoons to play for the skaters on Lake Mendota was the question put before the members of Outing club by George Martin, at their meeting last night.

"Of course an admittance price of possibly 25 cents might be charged," Martin said.

He spoke to the club about his plans for making skiing and fancy skating two big winter sports at Wisconsin. He is planning to begin classes in skiing as soon as the students return from the holidays, and it is his wish that as many as possible sign up for the sport.

"Our American conception of skiing is of all high jumping," he said. "In Norway, where skiing is a national sport, jumping is a mere side line, with cross-country work the chief interest."

New members admitted to the club were Mary Devine '25, Ferne Power '25, Anita Schmidt '25, Frances Merritt '24, Eva McLeod '24, and Edith Schoenberg '24.

It was announced by Romaine Berryman '23, President of the organization, that the club tobaggans would be ready for rental after Christmas.

Eds and Co-eds Tumble Pell Mell Down Hill

An avalanche of students, books and papers poured out of Wisconsin's halls of learning and descended to the library as the noon bell rang.

The engineer, the lawyer, the physical "ed", and the English major has a characteristic slide, poise, tumble, and outburst according to careful observations made yesterday noon as they went pell mell down the campus.

It is rumored that the sandman will spoil the fun by putting ashes on the sidewalk this morning.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

COUNCIL GIVES FIVE TRACKMEN "W" SWEATERS

Moorhead, Wade, Tschudy, Rossmeissel, and Valley Get Award

Five Varsity cross-country men were awarded their "W" sweaters at a meeting of the Athletic council yesterday afternoon.

On the basis of the new rule covering cross-country awards, the following members of the 1922 Varsity outfit won their letters: Gerald Wade '23, Lionel Tschudy '23, Carl Rosmeissel '23, Douglas Moorhead '23 and Lloyd Valley '25.

Award "aW" Honors

These men represented Wisconsin in three dual meets and were the first five Wisconsin men to finish in the Conference.

Their order of finish was 4, 6, 8, 15, and 18, totalling 51 and placing Wisconsin second.

Russell Perry '25, who competed in three dual meets and the Conference race, and Earl Schneider '24, who entered three dual meets, will receive the "aW".

Jones Silent On Action

Enos Jones '24, was awarded the manager's "W".

The athletic council discussed the football situation, but Director Thoas E. Jones refused to make a declaration as to its action on Coach John R. Richards' resignation.

Neither of the two preliminary football games were closed, although opponents for Wisconsin were discussed.

BUTLER ARRIVES TO PLAY BADGERS

ed in the two open practices against the freshmen this week. Butler has already been under fire, the team losing to the Indianapolis Omars, composed of ex-college stars and including Chuck Carney in its line-up.

One untried man will start for the Badgers. Both Byron Barwig and Ken Elsom are battling for the forward position opposite Les Gage. Each will be given his "under fire" test tonight.

Forward Job Contended

The success of the Wisconsin basketball team will depend in a great measure upon the showing of these two men. Les Gage has demonstrated that he is able to fill ex-Capt. Duke Ceaser's shoes at right forward. Whether Barwig and Elsom have the stuff is still a question although both played well in early-season scrimmages.

If Butler puts up the same sort of a battle which humbled Wisconsin before, it is unlikely that Coach Meanwell will use his reserves. Should the Badgers forge ahead, Wackman, center, and Bareis, forward, will be sent probably into the fray.

A team of all-around athletics represents the Hoosier school. Halden Griggs, center, is a star football player. Because of his outstanding backfield work during the past season, he has received mention on many honorary teams. Middlesworth and Captain Leslie also have won letters in more than one sport.

Williams Improves

Butler will use four men who play against Wisconsin in their first contest. Colway, Middlesworth, Leslie, and Hooker have all seen action against Coach Meanwell's proteges. Griggs will be the only man unfamiliar with the Wisconsin style of play.

Against this team of star basketball-shooters will be pitted the stars of the gridiron and court, Capt. Gus Tebell and Rollie William. Tebell is rated as one of the best back guards in the Middle-West today, and Williams' only rival for speed is Harry Kipke, of Michigan. Rollie is gradually getting rid of his tendency to "travel" the result of carrying the oval in football, and is making his passes more accurately than he did in early drills.

PURPLE MEETS MONMOUTH

Northwestern university will meet Monmouth college in a basketball game at Evanston tonight.

GREEK TOSSERS PLAY 9 GAMES IN HARD TILTS

Nine fraternity basketball games were played at the men's gymnasium last night in the contest which continues until December 19.

The hardest fight was between the Phi Chis and Lambda Chis, the score being 8 to 6 in favor of the latter outfit.

The following is a list of the other final scores.

- Sigma Nu 17, Delta Chi 9.
- Zeta Psi 20, Phi Sigma Kappa 11.
- Chi Psi 19, Pi Kappa Alpha 13.
- Phi Sigma Delta 3, Acacia 2.
- Delta Kappa Epsilon 13, Theta Chi 6.
- Alpha Tau Omega 17, Theta Delta Chi 13.
- Triangle 13, Kappa Psi 9.

RIVAL COACHES PIT PRODUCTS

Badger Five to Meet Lombard College Next Tuesday Night

"Friendly Enemies" will be re-enacted in Madison when two basketball coaches pit their products against each other next Tuesday night.

When Coach Walter E. Meanwell directed Missouri to a basketball championship in the Missouri Valley conference, Coach Schissler was in charge of the runner-up team, the University of Nebraska.

Meanwell Pilots Badgers

This time Coach Meanwell will send a Wisconsin team into battle, and Coach Schissler will handle the Lombard college, Illinois, quintet.

The Lombard squad plays its first game against Wisconsin in the university gym on Tuesday.

Meyers, Lamb, Murphy, and Swanson are veterans of last years team which won most of its games and tied for second place in the Little Nineteen conference.

Beat State Champions

The five easily defeated Monmouth, state champions, in the last game of the year.

Student sale on tickets for the Wisconsin-Lombard will begin at 12:30 Monday afternoon and last until 6. Public sale starts Tuesday afternoon.

NOTICE FROM DEAN

The office of the dean of men has approved the following 1 o'clock parties for Friday, December 15: Sigma Pi, Phi Delta Theta and Kappa Sigma.

ADOPT FROSH GRID RULE

In order that football games with more important teams may be obtained, the University of Detroit will adopt the freshman rule at the beginning of the season next year. It was announced by university authorities in Detroit recently.

BOOST CO-ED SPORTS

Intercollegiate athletics for women may result from the present policy at the University of Chicago of developing women's sports, it is believed by many students at the Midway. Basketball teams representing the 10 women's dormitories on the Maroon quadrangles next quarter will compete in a tournament for a cup. Off-campus women also will form quintets and enter the race for the campus title.

MICHIGAN VANDERBILT

Michigan's 1923 football schedule includes a game with Vanderbilt at Ann Arbor, October 13, according to the latter's schedule announced Tuesday in Nashville. Vanderbilt will meet the University of Texas at Dallas, October 20.

The matches this week are: Alpha Xi Delta vs Pi Phi; Chi Omega vs Kappa Kappa Gamma; Tri Delta vs Kappa Delta; Delta Zeta vs Kappa Alpha Theta; Alpha Chi Omega vs Alpha Omicron Pi.

The game between Alpha Chi Omega and A. O. Pi promises to be the closest. Both teams have won both of their first two games.

FRAT HARRIERS WILL CONTEST

Expect Keen Competition at Annual Track Meet

Some of the keenest competition between fraternities displayed in years is expected to develop when about 15 Greek letter track teams meet in the annual inter-frat track meet in the gym annex tomorrow afternoon. The teams have been practicing consistently and will be in good shape to put on a fast meet.

The Pi Kappa Alpha, the Sigma Nu and Alpha Gamma Rho aggregations are expected to show some of the class of the meet. These teams took the first three places in the meet last year and have been training to repeat the performance tomorrow.

The meet will start at 2 o'clock and will be open to spectators.

NOTRE DAME PILOT

It is expected that Harvey Brown, guard on the Notre Dame football squad, will be elected as pilot of the 1923 team at the annual football banquet to be held Sunday at the Oliver hotel, South Bend. William Maher, half back; Eugene Mayl, end; M. Bergmann III, half-back; and Robert Ragen, center, are also being considered.

VARSITY BASEBALL

All candidates for the Varsity baseball team report at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in the gymnasium.

PLAN AN ACTIVE HOCKEY SEASON HERE THIS YEAR

Start Work on Rink For First Game in January

With the first real winter weather of the season, plans are being made for an active hockey season at Wisconsin. Finding favor at Wisconsin but a short time ago, the winter sport has grown in popularity until now much time is devoted to it. The first meeting of the hockey team was held in the gym last night.

Prospects For Good Team

Although three men were lost from last year's team by graduation, prospects for a winning team this winter are fairly good. Three men from the 1921-1922 squad are still in school and will be eligible for the team.

Several excellent hockey players who were ineligible last year will be able to be in competition this winter.

Work will begin on the rink on the lower campus immediately so that there will be a place for the men to practice. The lower campus rink was an innovation last year. It proved so successful that it will be built again.

Plan Preliminary Meet

Plans are being made at the present time to hold the first preliminary meet within a week after school begins in January.

While this is rather early in the season, it is felt that a good preliminary tilt is as good as practice to put the men in shape to win the bigger games later in the season.

If present plans go through, St. Johns military academy will come here for the first game.

THE PROM QUEEN MYSTERY

THE annual guessing contest is on. Which lucky co-ed will be queen of the Junior prom has become again a popular subject of campus conversation.

Newspapers with their society oracles have proclaimed certain selections, despite the fact that the prom chairman himself has stated diplomatically that he "has made no choice yet."

A secret among women is certainly a risk as well as an alluring topic for conversation. Any mystery is fascinating, however. Yes, prom is coming.

More important to the success of the social event, however, than the selection of one beauty from the myriad of fair ones at Wisconsin is another matter.

The purpose of prom has been always to make it representative of the school. If the event is not democratic in spirit, then its function is not fulfilled.

Non-fraternity men met last night at the Y. M. C. A. to make arrangements for attendance. Indications are that the number of groups organized by clubs and societies will be larger perhaps than even last year.

As a fraternity of sorority is a union of friends, so the prom group can be. Interclass spirit disappears then with other artificial relations. Are the officials in charge of the prom striving to make it democratic?

To the stranger on the campus, perhaps the taxpayer in the state, such a question would seem warranted. A social function which is costly and exclusive and which benefits only a small group of students would justify the above query.

And Wisconsin's prom, because of the capitol in which it is held, has been foremost among university functions, in the entire country.

The action of officials in reducing the price to the prom play, in arranging for two shows instead of one, and in welcoming the fullest co-operation of non-fraternity and non-sorority students is an answer in itself.

The chairmen want a democratic prom. They are going half way. Success then of the affair seems to rest upon the students themselves.

There's going to be more than one prom queen, anyway.

If you haven't picked yours, remember there's a few more days until Christmas vacation.

PIPES O' PAN

MUSIC, like hardtack, is an essential in war when the morale of fighters and loyal citizens must be promoted.

Even the Arkansas congressman known its value. The psychology of singing "Onward Christian Soldier" before a threatening political outburst is one of the stump speaker's first commandments.

In everyday life music has its place, of course, whether it is by radio, phonograph, piano, voice or instrument.

But that it has an important place at the university is another matter which we seldom realize because of our close contact.

Is Wisconsin represented in music?

If you care for band music, the First Regimental band will entertain you—we hope your friend too—with a popular-priced concert on Sunday afternoon.

Quartet music is always a favorite of music lovers. The Varsity quartet, composed of students chosen by the Music school, will give a Christmas concert at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the Baptist church.

Chorus music also has a definite appeal. The Madison Choral union, another student-civic organization will present a concert at 8:15 o'clock Monday night at the Presbyterian church.

The University Glee club, another traditional campus organization, is planning a trip to Chicago on February 5 and a special tour during spring vacation.

The University of Wisconsin student orchestra, a new addition to campus music, gave its first concert last Wednesday night.

Dance music is furnished by 20 to 25 different student dance orchestras.

Wisconsin songs are sung at athletic games, dinner time, and student gatherings.

The prom committee is again offering a prize for the best fox trot composed by a student this year.

That music is an important factor in the university life cannot be denied. Its development at Wisconsin

Genial Scot In Third Farewell Tour Is "Riot"

By H. H. P.

We added another essential to our liberal education last night by going to the Parkway to hear Harry Lauder, who was in Madison on what he termed his third annual Farewell Tour. The genial Scot would have carried the audience away in his pocket if his kilts had had such a thing, but he contented himself with carrying away a deal of friendly feeling and leaving a laugh.

It seems vain to describe the Calsonian entertainer, for before we went everybody but us had seen him, and now we have. It would be difficult, too, for his appearance inexplicably calls to our mind a fat, friendly Irish potato, and everybody knows that Harry is Scotch.

He is everything his phonograph records are, plus a ponderously prancing knee and toe, each of which has a homey and passionate affinity for its mate.

His program was mostly impersonations a kilted dragon with be-traggled boots and dragging spurs, a homesick stoic's hand, a dusty baker, a beribboned bridegroom; and his songs merely served as foils for a series of Gaelic gestures and facial contortions coupled with a Highland burr.

The songs were of the familiar sort, but somewhat unfamiliar. We were quite disappointed not to hear "A Wee Deoch an' Doris," as was an insistent shouter from the gallery. But we suppose it is necessary to have new songs now and then.

"There's Somebody Waiting for Me," took the audience's fancy immediately, and a strong chorus joined in on the refrain and continued to hum the tune until the baronet returned for his next number.

The program of vaudeville which preceded Lauder's act was the best we have ever seen a group of feature attractions which kept away entirely from the him and her stuff of the two-a-day. A superlative Jap juggler with new tricks; some tumbling clowns who were funny; a winsome whistler, imitating wood-and songsters; a ventriloquist listed as versatile and living up to the advertisement; a mandolinist (rare bird) who made us wish we were back in the days when banjos and saxophones were anachronisms. The whole program made us forget the jazz age. We enjoyed it.

Spanish Romance Will Feature at Club Meet

A pantomime of old Spanish romance will be one of the acts to be presented by the Spanish students at the meeting of the International club in Lathrop parlors at 8:30 o'clock tonight. The performers will be Berta Leonarz '26, Mexico City, Isidro Marrero '26, San Juan, and Fernando Sola '23, Argentine.

Among other acts will be a tango by Anna Hilpert '23 and Jose Sola '26, Spanish songs by Miss Leonarz and English songs by Irmazarde Siegmeyer '23.

Doris Koeneman '24 Mexico City will give a Spanish bull fight dance, and Marrero will play a violin selection. After some classical music, which will be played by the band, there will be a Mexican Christmas party for all the members of the organization.

is both a compliment to the university and to the student body.

It is certainly worthy of unqualified support.

HOT CONTROVERSY

THE debate tonight in Music hall on the open shop question, between a representative of manufacturers and a member of a labor union, is an event of importance to Wisconsin intellectual activity.

Whatever has been said or may be said of the Social Science club, this debate is not a piece of radical propaganda. It is a straight forward method of putting before students both sides of one of the most important aspects of industrial conflict.

This will be no dry lecture; it will be a hot clash of opposing forces on a hot controversial subject.

It should be of interest to those who are interested in the great and important events of the economic world.

They got tight on "Lager beer"

And you sing there with 'em
In a simple logary

And their lives are full of cheer!

Oh, the wind blew a blizzard that would freeze your gizzard

And the ship sailed around in a fog

Oh the cold sweat froze
On the end of his nose

As the Captain wrote in his Log!

Oh this land of ice may be very nice

For an ice-man's son and all that

But I'll buy my wife a Sable Coat if I am able

And live in a heated flat

Well anyway, Benny Snow certainly picked out a good day to give his lecture on "Snowflakes".

Topnotch Acts Swamp Critic Of Orph's Bill

By M. S. C.

The majority of the acts at the Orph this week-end keep up the pace set the first of the week. The audience of last night was somewhat snowed under, if we may judge from the applause, which even the top-notch acts didn't get.

Ruth Granville, Billy Beard, and Henry Catalano's company are the chief entertainers. Miss Granville is a saxophonist who knows her stuff. Billy Beard's chatter warmed up a rather unresponsive house and gave the front-row hounds some wise cracks for their fellow roommates. The Catalano company deserves a better place on the bill than the last act.

Ben Mowatt and Billy Mullen: This act would be improved if Santa Claus would bring Ben & "tux". His line is good enough to accompany such attire. Miss Mullen talks better than she sings.

Ruth Granville and Hal Sanders: A saxophone that talks, a striking background, and a clever violinist.

Frank Wilcox and Company: A playlet with some very amusing and entertaining situations. We fail to get the "Ssh-h" idea—much, much noise, would be a better title.

Billy Beard: Most of his line was new; a few of his wise cracks were crude and passe.

Henry Catalano and Company: Catalano and the three Sturm sisters were particularly snappy. As to Miss Davies—not so much.

Murphy and Lockmar: Quite dumb.

PROF TELLS OF ENGLISH CRISIS

Britain's Condition is Now Critical, Prof. Blanton Declares

Dr. Smiley Blanton, professor of speech hygiene, now abroad on a leave of absence from the university, writes from London that economic conditions there are critical and that thousands are without employment.

In a letter dated November 25 to his secretary, Miss Fay B. McConkey, Dr. Blanton stated:

"The streets swarm with beggars and with begging soldiers many of whom have been wounded and disabled but who do not get enough to live on.

"Yesterday I saw a shell shocked soldier in Trafalgar square, with a begging sign written on the sidewalk, standing on the corner having a hysterical fit. His cap was full of silver and pennies. Soldiers without arms and legs, who were trying to make a living selling papers, get little or nothing.

"The sadness, misery and suffering oppresses one. It makes one feel glad that our country, for the most part is free of such extreme cases.

"You must admire the English paying their debt to us with such unemployment at home. The taxes are 25 per cent on incomes over $1200; and a higher rate for higher incomes."

Dr. Blanton is now doing neurological research work in a London hospital.

U. S. FAMILY IS NOW ON SLUMP

University Probe Discloses That Size of Family is Decreasing

The size of American born families is decreasing.

For three years the department of sociology has been carrying on research work to determine whether or not the American family is decreasing or increasing in size.

Prof. R. E. Baber of the department of sociology, with student assistants, has been carrying on this work which will be completed next summer.

Questionnaires have been sent to approximately 600 families of the first generation of American-born people who in turn represent approximately 15,000 people of the second generation, of American born people.

Most of these questionnaires have been returned and the department intends to have a finished report which will reveal some startling information. Reports already in show that different occupations have different sized families and have decreased in different ratios.

The parents and grandparents of students in the university were sent the questionnaires, the department feeling that this would give a natural representation of all classes and occupations of American born people, and they were somewhat easier to reach.

"This is the first real survey of its kind", said Prof. J. O. Hertzler, of the department of sociology who is helping Professor Baber carry on the work. "We intend to present this report in some eastern magazine and later convert it into a university bulletin."

Andy Gump to Appear at Orph. in Special Number

The Honorable Andy Gump, made famous in cartoons by Sidney Smith, is coming in person next week to the Orpheum theatre.

Mr. Gump, who wears no man's collar, and is 100 per cent for the people, will appear in the wide black Stetson hat and regalia with which his creator, Sidney Smith, has equipped him in the nationally famous drawings. Gump will be delineated here by Jack Ponie, a character actor of renown. Sidney Smith wrote the act and personally rehearsed the performer.

handful of snow are thousands of them, each with its own particular design and individuality.

Although the crystals are different in pattern, they are all hexagonal and symmetrical and seem to exhibit the animal characteristics of having grown from a germ which in most flakes is still discernible in the center of the design.

It is also been observed that certain types of flakes fall from certain kinds of clouds and that the severity or mildness of the weather is a determining factor in the shaping of the hexagonal.

"A snow crystal continually is growing and building up when it is in the air," said Professor Snow. "It takes the moisture out of the air and transforms it into ice. Each crystal exhibits an individuality in characteristic and form as do individuals. It is marvelous when we think of the myriads of different icy organisms we crush under our feet as we walk up the hill on a snowy day."

Accept 80 Men From 130 For President's Guard

Plans for the coming year were made at the largest meeting the President's guard has ever had when 80 men out of 130 who tried out were accepted into the organization.

Commander Robert Luening talked on the history of the corps during the evening and told of the work which was laid out. A competitive meet against St. John's Military academy was announced for some time later in the year.

The commander also announced that the Beloit Chamber of Commerce had invited the corps to give an exhibition in the city and that the possibility of this trip would be taken up later.

New insignia in the form of white cords after the French fashion were adopted and will be worn this year by the guard. A ritual and code have also been adopted this year making the President's guard a more formal organization.

Dad Uses the Power of Suggestion--

Just before the football game on Dad's Day "one of the boys" and his father came into the Pen Shop to make use of the "fountain pen filling station."

No sooner had the "junior member" taken his Rider Master Pen out of his pocket than the "senior member" was all interested. "Where did you get that pen, Billy?"

Of course I showed him our stock of both large sizes which are made up in both the rich black and the beautifully mottled barrels, and I thought sure he would buy one, but "No sire," he had a better idea, and said, "Billy, you understand I'm not hinting at anything like that, but I do think that one of those pens would make me a mighty fine Christmas present."

Just a couple of days ago Bill was in the Pen Shop and bought his father a Rider Master Pen—one of the large mottled ones with his father's name engraved on the barrel.

SOPH DEBATES HELD TONIGHT

Second Year Society Wranglers to Argue at Open Meetings

The three men's literary societies, Hesperia, Philomathia and Athena will hold their annual sophomore debates tonight. The question this year involves the ship subsidy bill. Each society is represented by two teams of three men each, chosen by competitive tryouts from the sophomore members of the societies.

Hesperia's affirmative team, consisting of Carl W. Damsheuser, first speaker, Clifford C. Fransien, second speaker, and Frank C. Stuart, closer, will meet Athena's negative, composed of Max N. Cizon, Glen H. Bell, and George H. Nicholas, closer, at 456 Bascom hall, Philomathia's affirmative team consisting of Hampton K. Snell, first speaker, Max A. Brackett, second speaker, and Stuart E. Strong, closer, will debate Hesperia's negative, composed of Beverley T. Masslich, Edwin A. Uehling, and Harold A. Cranefield, closer at 220 Bascom hall.

Athenian Debating Teams

Athena's affirmative team, composed of Simon S. Levitin, first speaker, Richard V. Rhode, second speaker, and Louis S. Berkoff, closer, will meet Philomathia's negative team, consisting of Vernon F. Houghton, first speaker, Harold J. Sporer, second speaker, and George W. Mitchell, closer, at 401, Bascom hall.

Each debate will have one judge, probably a member of the university speech department or prominent in varsity debating. Main speeches are limited to eight minutes, with three minute rebuttals for the first two speakers, and five minute rebuttal for the closers.

These debates are open to the public. No admission is charged.

Tariff Is Debate Issue

The Agricultural Literary society will debate the question, "Resolved: that the tariff on raw agricultural products as indicated in the general tariff act of 1922 is for the best interest of the farmers."

R. C. Klussendorf '23, F. H. Kaufmann '25 and R. Jacobs '26 will argue the affirmative side of the question.

The negative will be upheld by G. D. Scarseth '24, H. C. Dohrman '23 and H. Sherburne '26.

Santa Will Greet Poor Kiddies Of Madison In Latin Quarter

The poor kiddies of Madison will be entertained at Christmas parties given next Monday and Tuesday by various fraternities and sororities.

Under the auspices of the associated charities the Greek letter societies plan to make 100 to 150 youngsters glad that Christmas is here. The children will be entertained with Santa Clauses, Christmas trees, candy and presents.

The sororities and fraternities who are not entertaining this year are making contributions to the Christmas fund of the associated charities.

U. W. Uses 200 Pounds Of Coal Per Minute

The cold weather which set in several days ago has kept the university heating plant force working double time.

In order to keep the rooms in the university building at a comfortable temperature, 200 pounds of coal are being consumed every minute of the night and day. If the fuel required to heat the buildings for 24 hours were delivered in two ton trucks every morning, the procession of trucks would extend two and a half blocks.

Approximately 150 tons of coal drop automatically into the furnace in the heating plant at a regulated rate during each 24 hours. The fuel falls from huge bunkers which hold about 800 tons.

THE PARK HOTEL

Eclipse of the sun

THIS is the month when the sun is outshone, and we mortals draw greater warmth and sustenance from that homely provender—mince pie.

It is the warmth of the holiday spirit, which causes human hearts to glow when temperatures are lowest. Mother's cooking—the family united—Christmas trees and crackling logs—what would this world be without them?

In promoting the family good cheer the college man's part is such that modesty often blinds him to it.

It would hardly occur to the glee club man to sing over the songs of Alma Mater for the still Dearer One at home.

The football man would scarcely suspect that his younger brother is dying to have him drop-kick for the "fellers".

The Prom leader would not presume to think that among those sisters who have been waiting to share his agility at fox-trot may be his own sister.

And in general, college men would scorn to believe that any conversational prowess they might possess on books, professors or campus activities could possibly interest a certain Gentleman Who Foots the Bills.

But just try it, all of you. The welcome you get will warm the cockles of your heart.

This suggestion, amid sighs as they look back across the years, is the best way a bunch of old grads here know of wishing you "Merry Christmas".
