The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Xenophon and Xenocrates - Zeno and Zenobia

Sir
As you think it worth your while to know whether I am dead or living I will just tell you that I am yet in the land of the living & am much obliged to you for your little epistle which I found this morning on the sto lunch. Please to give me a detail of your tramp on Montaut did you get that Thanksgiving goose - I guess

You had your labor for your Gains
when you get your language } completed you better advertise } your work for little for a school I should like } Gains — to come I am Sir your very humble servant & real friend

P Baker
