THANKSGIVING RECESS COVERS FRIDAY, NOV. 26

"No Cut" Rules Still in Force—Delay in Christmas Vacation

Thanksgiving recess will begin at 6 p. m., Wednesday, November 24, and will terminate at noon Saturday, November 27, according to official announcement received yesterday from the registrar's office. Regular work will be resumed on Monday, November 29, at 8 a. m.

This extension of the Thanksgiving recess is made possible by the postponement of the beginning of the Christmas recess from Thursday noon, December 16, to 6 p. m., Friday, December 17.

Under the rules of the university, any student who shall be absent without his dean's excuse from the last regular class, quiz, laboratory, or conference exercise in each study preceding the recess, and similarly from the first regular exercises after the recess, will not be admitted to the examination at the close of the semester in the study or studies involved.

The above regulations apply to undergraduates in all colleges and schools and to graduates enrolled in undergraduate classes.

6,500 ROOTERS TO PARADE BEFORE CHICAGO GAME

A parade of 6,500 Wisconsin rooters, including the 2,000 Chicago alumni, headed by a 60-piece band, will be one of the features prior to the Wisconsin-Chicago football game, November 20, in Chicago.

The First Regimental band will leave Madison at 7 a. m., Saturday morning, and each member will wear a cardinal chrysanthemum. The plan is for the band to meet the Badger rooters at the Great Northern hotel immediately upon its arrival. From there the entire body will march through the loop to Van Buren street station of the Illinois Central, where accommodations to Stagg field will be secured.

"Every student should get an arm-band or a ribbon or a distinguishing mark of some kind," said "Bill" Pickard, varsity cheer-leader, last night. "The bunch at Minnesota with their red arm-bands made a dandy appearance."

"Bill" will make the trip with the team and rooters, and will take with him Tuckerman and Marvin, assistant varsity cheer-leaders.

SHORT COURSE MEN ARE WELCOMED BY A. C. F. AT "AG" HALL

The short course welcome will be given tonight in Agricultural hall at 7:30, by the Agricultural College Federation board.

Community singing led by E. J. Cooper, will open the program. Dean H. L. Russell, and Miss Abbie L. Marlatt are among those that have been chosen for short talks.

300 TICKETS GO ON SALE TODAY

There are still 300 tickets left for the Chicago game. They will go on sale at 9 o'clock this morning at the gym office, at $1.00.

About 800 tickets were sold yesterday soon after the arrival of the extra 1,100, and the 300 left will probably go just as fast.

Old English Inn Provides Plot In 'My Lady's Ring'

"A rainy week held Alice Brown prisoner in an old inn in Exeter, and gave her leisure to read the old magazines stored there. In one of these she found the story containing the plot for the play, 'My Lady's Ring,' which I am going to read tomorrow," Katherine Jewell Everts explained last night, when asked for the story of the play's conception.

"Miss Brown brought the manuscript of the play back to America. When I met her in Boston a little later, she said that she had just the play for me, and brought out 'My Lady's Ring.' I have the original manuscript still, although many people have tried to secure it," she continued.

"My first important stage appearance was with Otis Skinner and Ada Rehan in 'The Merchant of Venice,' in which I played Jessica. But after a year of this, I was forced to stop because of an attack of appendicitis. A statement of Henry James' set me off on a new track, after two years' inactivity. He said that in America there was no real voice culture at all. So I wrote two books on that subject, and since then have been teaching elocution at different places."

When she was asked if she ever intended to go back on the stage again, Miss Everts seemed to be doubtful. "The Little Theater movement is so fascinating that I may yet be drawn into it," she said. "I have had nothing to do with it so far, but I am very interested in it."

Although she did not return to the stage for good after the first year, Miss Everts has played many parts at different times. She created the role of "Sister Beatrice," in Maeterlinck's play of that name in Boston, and has played in several Shakespearian plays, besides giving recitals and speaking tours. At present she has a private school of voice culture in New Haven, and is on a two or three weeks' tour, giving recitals in different cities.

SENATE REPORTS RESULT OF PROBE INTO SEAT SALE

Suggests Faculty Investigation,
Scale of Rates and Enlarged Stadium

The investigating committee appointed by the Student Senate to look into the manner in which seats were assigned by the Athletic department for the Homecoming game has completed its work and prepared the report for publication. Members of the senate who composed the committee were: Philip Falk, chairman; George Stolley, and Thomas Coxon.

In view of the findings of the committee the following suggestions and recommendations were made to the senate:

MEDICS WALLOP COMMERCE, 10-0

In a fast game at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon, the Medics eliminated the Commerce eleven from the race for inter-college gridiron honors. The final score was 10 to 0.

Eggelberg was the star of the game, making a touchdown from the kick-off and a drop-kick from the 40-yard line.

The Medics will meet later the winners of the Engineer-Ag game, which is to be held Monday,

HARESFOOT CAST TO PERFORM AT ANNUAL 'FOLLIES'

"Sunny" Ray, Wells Carberry, and "Sparks" Dodge Will Stage Feature Acts

The third annual "Haresfoot Follies," featuring "Sunny" Ray, Wells Carberry, "Sparks" Dodge, and other Haresfoot stars, in songs and skits, will be given at Lathrop gymnasium and concert room Saturday, December 4. The floor will be cleared for dancing between the numbers. Thompson's first orchestra has been engaged for the music.

The Follies marks the first appearance of the Haresfoot club since the production of "Mary's Lamb" last spring. Wells Carberry, the star of that performance, will take the place of "Jimmy" Hemings as the partner of "Sunny" Ray, in a song and dance act, which will be the feature of the Follies. "Sparks" Dodge will appear in an entirely new role to university audiences, while "Bob" Mailer, "Phil" Reed, and "Ace" Carver complete the cast for the performance.

The ticket sale will be limited. Advance orders for the Follies may be mailed to "Shorty" Fee, 627 N. Lake street, after Tuesday, November 23. Open sale of tickets will begin Tuesday, November 30, at Morgan's and the University pharmacy. The tickets are priced at $2, which includes the fee for dancing, as well as the war tax.

RUNNERS ENTER BIG TEN MEET

Badgers Cross Country Team to Compete at Urbana Saturday

Faced with the probability of losing both Dennis and Wall, the Wisconsin cross-country squad leaves this afternoon at 4:10 for Urbana, where the team will compete in the annual Big Ten cross-country meet.

Dennis and Wall are suffering from foot injuries which are proving very painful, but Coach G. T. Bresnahan stated last night that it was probable the men would start in the conference meet. The squad which will be taken to Urbana is made up of Captain W. E. Brothers, '21; W. L. Dayton, '21; H. C. Dennis, '21; R. A. Noble, '23; G. C. Wade, '23; M. H. Wall, '22; C. W. Wille, '22; R. B. Powell, '22; A. F. Zielsky, '22; R. O. Blodgett, '23. If Wall and Dennis are unable to start, Powell and Wille will replace the two regulars.

Fifteen schools have entered long distance teams in the Big Ten meet, and the meet, which was formerly limited to conference squads, has taken on the aspect of an inter-sectional competition since the entry of the southern champions and the winners of the Missouri Valley conference meet which was held last Saturday.

Mississippi A. and M. captured the southern long distance meet handily, and Ames annexed the valley meet with five Ames entries finishing in the first five places. Kansas and Nebraska, which are entered in the Big Ten meet, finished well up in the running in the Missouri conference race, and both teams are conceded a chance of victory at Urbana.

The Purdue runners will have the best record of any teams entered, having defeated Illinois and Michigan. The Indians are sure to finish within the first five positions, with Furnas, who ran in the Olym-

BADGERS HAVE LAST WORKOUT ON HOME FIELD

Team in Excellent Shape,
Leaves Friday for Last Game

Camp Randall was the scene of the last hard scrimmage of the 1920 season when the varsity and frosh worked-out for several hours yesterday afternoon. Coach Richards called an early practice, and kept the men hard at it until close to the dinner hour. The yearlings ran their formations against the regulars for the last time, since today's work will consist entirely in dummy scrimmage and signal drill. Tomorrow morning the squad will depart for Chicago and run their signals on the Stagg gridiron in the afternoon.

Richards was pleased with the showing made by his team against the yearlings, who made numerous attempts to penetrate the varsity line with Chicago plays. Considerable time has been spent in instructing the line-men, for Stagg's entire strength lies in the front wall. The Maroon backfield is the weakest it has been in years. Captain Jackson is still on the sick-list and probably will be forced to view Saturday's contest from the bench.

Squad in Good Condition

The Badger squad is all in good condition, considering the fact that they have practically completed the season's schedule. Those men who received serious injuries earlier in the year are now all ready to enter the Chicago game, in case they are needed. Captain Weston and "Gus" Tebell both have almost entirely recovered from the effects of the Ohio State game, which kept them from the Gopher-Badger contest. Those two backs, who received sprains and bruises in the Illini game, are now in fighting trim.

Coach Stagg is drilling his men on a number of new formations to use against the Badgers Saturday. The Maroon mentor well realizes the strength of his old rivals, and will spare no time or effort in presenting the strongest available attack. Although the Chicagoans are not rated with the leaders of the conference, they are due for a comeback. Illinois, Michigan, and Ohio State have all defeated the Stagmen, and the Chicago aggregation is in line to receive the breaks in the final game of their schedule.

C. & N. W. WILL RUN NON-STOP SPECIAL

A special non-stop train, leaving Madison at 7 a. m. and arriving in Chicago at 10:30 a. m., will be run by the Northwestern road Saturday to accommodate the large number of students attending the Maroon-Badger game. The train will carry 30 all steel coaches, including chair cars.

The same train will return shortly after the game, although the exact time that it will leave has not yet been announced. On the regular day sleeper provisions will be made for those who desire to remain in Chicago until 2:45 a. m. Sunday. This train will be equipped with extra sleeping cars and day coaches.

Reservations for these trains can be made now at the local office. The fare, including war tax, is $5.05 one way.

An all-university mixer will be given by Union Board Saturday night in Lathrop hall.

CAKE AWARDED TO TEAM NUMBER SIX FOR BUTTON SALE

First place in the Homecoming button sale was won by team No. 6, under the direction of Rosemary Lyons. Of the 6,000 buttons sold by members of W. A. A. 692 were disposed of by the winning team made up of the following people: Mabel Winter, Marion Strassburger, Marion Baldwin, Esther Bellows, Irene Clayton, Adelle Falk, Esther Haven, Agnes Iverson, Elizabeth Markham, Helen Rockwell, Dorothy Westendorf, and Mildred Rogers.

Twenty-five per cent of the proceeds of the sale will be turned over to W. A. A., and the rest of the money will go to the Homecoming committee. All women who have not turned in their money may check up directly with Winifred Titus instead of with their captains. Members of the winning team are to meet with their captain at 1 p. m. today.

DOLPHIN CLUB TO STAGE EXHIBITION

Arrangements for the swimming exhibition which will be held next week were completed at the regular meeting of Dolphin club last night. The exhibition is to be a very elaborate and complete one, and will give everyone an opportunity to see the work of Dolphin club as well as the swimming and diving of some of the best women athletes in the university. It promises to surpass all meets held last year. The pool will be made attractive by special decorations.

Those in charge of the exhibition are: Olga Anderson, life saving; Dixie Davie, diving; Grace Gleerup, strokes; Edith Ewald, stunts; Dorothy Westendorf, posters; Rosemary Lyons, publicity.

No admission will be charged.

INDIAN ECONOMIST SPEAKS AT SOCIAL SCIENCE MEETING

New political and economic disturbances in India and Asia and their influence on world politics will be discussed tonight in Music hall by Dr. N. S. Hardiker, secretary of the council of India home rule league of America. Dr. Hardiker is a native Indian patriot, and has been leading political movements ever since his youth. He took active part in the Swadeshi Boycott in 1905 and while still at high school opposed the teaching staff installed by the British government.

Dr. Hardiker came to America a few years ago to study medicine and while here was elected president of the Hindustan association of America. He has been traveling through the country giving speeches to acquaint the American public with true conditions in India. The pan-Asiatic movement and the future role of India in international politics will be part of his message tonight. The meeting will be conducted under the auspices of the Social Science club.

CHICAGO BADGERS PLAN STUNTS FOR VISITING ROOTERS

Reception and Banquet Are Among Features of Week-End

In order to offer adequate entertainment for the Badger rooters in Chicago the Chicago alumni have arranged a number of functions, among which are an "open house" and a banquet.

The reception will be held for the students, alumni, and friends of Wisconsin at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bertram W. Sippy, 5615 Woodlawn avenue, after the football game, Saturday, from 3:30 to 6 in the afternoon.

"This will be a great opportunity for everybody to meet everybody else," said R. S. Crawford, local secretary of the alumni association. "The women down there have a very active club, and they expect to have many of the old football heroes there to greet the callers.

"Miss Helen Seymour, secretary of the club, expects every Wisconsin rooter to drop in, warm up, and meet his friends and companions for the evening. I think it will be well worthwhile," concluded Mr. Crawford, "for every student to get in on this reunion and make it run over with Wisconsin spirit."

While the women graduates in Chicago have planned this open house, the U. W. club, which is the men's organization, will hold a big football dinner in the Crystal room of the Sherman hotel, November 19, at 6:30 p. m. The price of the dinner, which is an annual affair, has been set at $3.00 per plate, and the event will be strictly informal. There will be short snappy speeches by "Tom" Jones and others, and short programs will be given by the Haresfoot club and the Glee club. Besides this, the crowd is going to vocalize some of its pep by singing and yelling. I. L. Reynolds, '06, who has charge of the dinner, can be reached at the Peoples' Gas building, Chicago.

The Chicago alumni, organized into the Chicago Association of Wisconsin Alumnae and the U. W. club, form one of the most active groups of Wisconsin boosters outside of the university. The U. W. club includes many of Chicago's influential citizens, bankers, doctors, lawyers, and big business men who meet at the City club every Friday noon for luncheon so as to keep more closely in touch with their alma mater. During the year they also sponsor several bigger festivities such as the football dinner on Friday evening.

CADET OFFICERS TO RETAIN BRAID AND CHEVRONS IS VOTE

That the flashy cardinal officers' braids and non-commissioned officers' chevrons should be retained to distinguish the Wisconsin unit of the R. O. T. C. from similar units, was the decision reached at the meeting of the Cadet Officers' association last Friday in the Scabbard and Blade room in the armory. New discs and diamonds denoting rank are to be enameled in cardinal.

Arrangements for the informal Military hop, to be held tomorrow night in the gym, are practically complete, and judging from the advance ticket sale, this dance will be one of the most successful ever held in the armory. The regulation cadet uniform, including straight trousers and flannel shirt with black tie, will be worn by all members of the corps.

Instead of having several group pictures of the officers in the Badger, it was decided to have individual pictures, as has been the custom in past years. A mock-formal officers' dance will be given by the association January 29, in Lathrop parlors.

JAPANESE GARDEN PARTY IS PLAN OF ANNUAL Y. W. FAIR

New Features Will be Introduced Into Bazaar Held
Dec. 11

The annual Y. W. C. A. bazaar will be held in Lathrop hall December 11. The building will be made over into a Japanese flower garden, and all people connected with the bazaar will be dressed in elaborate and attractive costumes. Burning incense, fans, parasols, and flowers will be used to create a true Japanese atmosphere.

The first floor will be filled with booths displaying a large assortment of dainty and attractive Christmas gifts. Frances Drake has charge of the raffling booth, and Louise Moore is chairman of the candy booth committee. The home economic girls will manage the food sale, and the S. G. A. room will be a Japanese tea room with the cabinet council in charge. Dolphin club will give exhibitions of swimming, diving, and stunts in the swimming pool. The parlors will be used for dancing.

Fortune-telling booths will be found on the second floor. Plays of different countries will be put on by the French, Hawaiians, Chinese, Japanese, and Norwegian students in the university. Red Domino and Twelfth Night will put on a joint Japanese play in the concert room.

The decorations will be directed by the sophomore commission with Isabel Capps as chairman. The freshman commission, with Helen Cheetham as chairman, has charge of the flower sale. Esther Haven is chairman of the committee on gifts, and Cleo Parsley will have charge of the ticket sale. Jean Heard is chairman of the financial committee.

BAR "LOW CUTS" BY GIRL SWIMMERS

Amateur Athletic Union Passes Drastic Rule at Convention

NEW ORLEANS, La.— Girl swimmers who compete in amateur Athletic Union contests in future must wear swimming suits that come higher about neck and must be cut with a due allowance for shrinkage, under a rule adopted last night at the final session of the annual convention of the Union here. Judge Barlow S. Weeks, chairman of the legislative committee described the low cut and tight fitting suits worn by American girls in the Olympic Games and said these girls had been criticized by the Europeans.

CROSS COUNTRY MEN OFF FOR CHICAGO

pic games at Antwerp, the logical choice for individual winner of the meet. Minnesota boasts a victory over the Wisconsin hill and dale men, and the Gophers may spring a surprise by annexing the conference long distance title.

The Wisconsin pack has defeated the Chicago runners by a big margin, and while the Badgers were defeated by Minnesota by the narrow margin of three points, Wisconsin stands as good a chance as any for the conference championship, if not the middle western title.

"We have an excellent chance for first honors," declared Coach Bresnahan, yesterday afternoon, "and there is no reason why Wisconsin should not be up among the first four teams to finish. The strongest opposition will be furnished by Purdue, Ames, and Minnesota, and I feel sure that when the returns are in, Wisconsin will be found ahead of the Gophers."

The cross-country squad will leave Thursday at 4:10, and will stay overnight at the New Southern hotel in Chicago.

The men will entrain for Urbana Friday morning, and the program calls for a preliminary jaunt over the five mile course Friday afternoon. The race will be held on a cinder course which will work to the advantage of the Badger runners.

COMMERCE CLUB HOLDS BANQUET FOR INITIATES

Prof. Gilman Explains Functions of Club to 15 New Members

Fifteen new members were initiated into the Commerce club last night at a banquet held at the city Y. M. C. A. One of the features of the evening was the talk by Prof. Stephen H. Gilman who very forcefully explained the relationship of the club to the Commerce school. The scope of the club's activities were clearly defined and he described the opportunities the club possessed for serving the school in fields that the curriculum failed to take care of.

Arno Schmidt, president of the club, acted as toastmaster and introduced the speakers. Walter Meissner gave the welcome in behalf of the club to the new initiates. Tom Coxon made the response for the newly elected members.

Prof. F. H. Elwell offered suggestions on the way Commerce club could work in conjunction with the business men of the state in aiding them in obtaining better and more detailed statistics along their special of work.

Prof. K. F. McMurray gave a short impromptu talk on how the Commerce course at the University of Wisconsin stood in respect to other Commerce schools in the country.

The initiates were as follows: Sophomores, Charles Hawks, Robert Reynolds, and Ralph Scheinpflug; juniors, Tom Coxon, Lester V. Griem, Fred Brewer, Carl Fuhrmann, W. W. Crane, and Humphrey Desmond; seniors, Dewey Nelson, Hobart Kletzien, Emil Hofsoos, David Smith, T. H. Seeber, and Earle W. Hardy.

"Rowdy" Says Team Will Break Training With Chocolate Football Feast

"What am I going to do with that chocolate football?"

"Why, EAT it, of course!" says "Rowdy" Elliott, who won the chocolate football given by the Candy Shop to the first Wisconsin man to make a touchdown in the Homecoming game.

"There have been many conjectures as to what "Rowdy" would do with the big candy football when the time came for the kick-off. Some thought he might auction it at a fabulous price per slice and give the proceeds to some worthy cause. There was even a rumor that a certain young lady—but no one could find out whom. But it wasn't any of it so, "Rowdy" says.

"When we get back from Chicago, the whole team is going to help eat it," he declares. "Some football! It weighs sixteen pounds!"

KATHERINE JEWELL EVERETT

IN keeping with a general campus policy to offer to the student body the best and most varied type of educational diversion, Red Domino and Twelfth Night have combined to present Katherine Jewell Everts in a reading of an especially written three act comedy at Bascom hall tonight.

Miss Everts rapid rise to the position of one of the country's most noted readers has been the subject of favorable comment among all dramatic critics. Her keen interest in vocal expression has led her from active work on the stage into the educational phase of dramatic work, and it is perhaps on this account alone that we are enabled to hear her tonight.

Add to her charming personality, a reading by the author who three years ago wrote the $10,000 prize, and prices which are decidedly nominal, and the real opportunity to get in on something extraordinarily good becomes quite apparent.

DOES A COLLEGE EDUCATION PAY?

A WRITER in last week's Saturday Evening Post, dissertating under the caption "What a Man Loses in Going to College," makes some statements worthy of profound and thoughtful consideration by every student at Wisconsin.

The question of whether or not a university education is a paying or worthwhile proposition is one which looms high on the horizon of every prospective university student. Even after many students have been within the confines of the campus as much as two or more years they often catch themselves in idle moments to wonder what it all means, why they are here, and whether they could have done better in the business world minus a university education?

There are, of course, those who never have to give second thought to the matter—for example, the frivolous, the limited supply of the so-called bourgeoisie, and the like—but since they are in the extreme minority their case need not be considered.

The writer in the Post tells us that the atmosphere of the college campus is unworldly; that a man who goes to college immediately after leaving high school loses the beneficial effect of useful associations in his most formative years; that college students are indifferent, vain, egotistical, argumentative, unreliable, and altogether too adept at the use of slang.

Before passing any judgment on the indictment it is well to remember that it comes from a man who has spent a quarter of a century in more or less intimate contact with thousands of students, both individual and en masse, but who has also devoted nearly one-half of his life to business outside of college.

As the article well says, "he therefore appreciates, to some extent, at least, both sides of the situation."

If, then, the indictment be found true, the time for self examination and change has long since arrived. It is tantamount to a travesty on the bulk of the American public to think that the millions they are annually spending to support universities have been diverted to such ungainful channels.

The change and self examination must not come in the makeup of the universities themselves, but in the thoughts of the student bodies. One line of remedial attack must come through a discovery of antidotes for the student's limitations. Another, and perhaps the more effective, is "a full year of work between high school and college or between the freshman and sophomore years—and certainly not later than the end of the junior year."

Such a course of action brings a man to realize what kind of a world he must prepare to enter. It will cause him to realize that the chance to broaden oneself is here if one cares enough to take advantage of it. Not only for the man who interrupts his schooling with a year of practical experience, but also for the man who felt he did not want to take such a course, a university career should mean a refusal to look askance at broadening influences of the type of public lectures.

Both classes ought to remember that the successful graduate credits his success as much to those non-compulsory courses outside of the pale of the classroom as he does to those within. The charge has been made and it is up to the college man to refute or correct.

This column will have more to offer on the subject as facts in the case are unearthed. During the interim the columns of the Cardinal are open to the student body for a sincere, frank, and unbiased discussion of the whole matter. The questions raised are far too important to be dismissed with mere mention.

OLDER BOYS MEETING HERE

Conference Opens Nov. 26;
Ask Cooperation of Citizens

In the eighteen years of its existence the Wisconsin Older Boys' conference has never held an annual conference in Madison. This is given by the local committee as a reason why citizens of Madison ought to rise to the opportunity presented, and make the coming of 800 boys on Nov. 26 the occasion of a welcome no less cordial than the town gave the university homecomers.

Because the boys must be cared for in Madison homes, the local boys handling this end of the meet are looking to citizens to sign entertainment pledge cards. The local boys have undertaken a big job, and citizen cooperation is now asked.

The purpose of the conference, according to the preliminary program just issued, is "to bring together for inspiration, instruction and information older boys, 15 to 20 years of age and capable of Christian leadership, that they may become active in the doing of worthwhile deeds in the church, the school, the shop, the home and the community."

Eligible to attend the conference is "any Wisconsin boy over 15 years of age who is interested in the primary purpose of the conference as indicated by signing agreement on the registration card, and provided that each delegate is accompanied by a man delegate, one man to every five boys."

It is planned that entertainment shall be provided in Madison homes Friday night, Nov. 26, to Monday morning following, except Saturday supper. The registration fee of $2.50 paid by each delegate includes the Friday night banquet in the university gymnasium and Saturday noon discussion group dinner. Calvert Dredick is chairman of the en-

OPEN AIR GYM UP TO BOARD

While expressing approval of the idea of an open-air gymnasium on the roof of the new vocational high school, the council voted unanimously at its adjourned session Tuesday morning to approve the project if it can be carried out by cutting expenses on equipment or other parts of the building.

The action of the council was in effect a refusal to grant an appropriation of $10,000 for the project in addition to the $550,000 already provided for the building.

Whether the project is to be carried out will depend on the joint building committee of the board of vocational education and the board of education, according to A. W. Siemers, director of vocational education, who appeared before the council.

The view of aldermen was that it would be impossible to include an additional appropriation for $10,000 in the 1921 budget. Ald. D. C. Sullivan's motion, the passage of which concluded the meeting, was intended to leave the way open for the council to provide for appropriations within a year or two to cover the curtailment of expenses on other parts of the building. The mayor and aldermen had inspected the building before the meeting.

C. S. Meek, superintendent of schools, said the board of education felt the open air gymnasium would be a valuable adjunct, but not absolutely necessary. Provision will be made for corrective work for children who need it, he said. F. L. Kronenberg, architect, explained technical details.

Small Roof Fire—Sparks from the chimney caused a small roof fire at the home of C. M. Johnson, 439 Conklin place, at 12:55 this afternoon. Fire company No. 2 answered the call and extinguished the flames before any damage was done.

SENATE REPORTS ON SEAT SALE PROBE

these charges with the evidences and recommendations presented.

That faculty be urged to investigate details of handling all ticket sales.

That the final solution of the problem lies in the enlargement of the stadium and urges the senate to use every influence possible to insure carrying out the proposed enlargement by 4,000 seats for next year.

That there should be a graduated scale of charges for public seat sale. For example: $3.00 for seats in D and E, $2.50 for F and C, $2.00 for B and G, $1.50 for A and H. and prices in east stands be regulated accordingly; and that there be a flat rate not to exceed $1.00 for students.

That there be an allotted time for mail order sale of seats to students exclusively on coupon or fee card before mail sale is open to public. This will insure good seats for all students and a solid student section and will solve cheering section difficulties.

The points upon which the investigation was based are as follows:

"Sale of seats at public rates has been given precedence over the sale of those by coupon or student fee card rates.

"We were informed by the Athletic department that 922 seats in section C of concrete stadium were sold at public sale, and also that seats in sections H. and A in the concrete stands were sold at public rates.

A condition of the contract of the Athletic department and coupon holders is as follows: 'Owners of coupon books will be given first consideration in the allotment of seats at all games where reservations are made.'

"In violation of this, coupon holders were assigned seats on the track.

"It is charged that mail orders for the more desirable seats were not filled in the sequence of receipt through the mails.

"In support of this we have had complaints to the effect that when students sent in more than one order later orders were filled first and with better seats. Director Jones informed us that his instructions were that all orders should be filled in sequence of their receipt through the mail. The above seems to indicate that these instructions were not followed in all cases.

"That men who had signed up and completed all arrangements for acquisition of seats in the cheering section did not receive seats as was promised.

"The Athletic department promised to reserve seats for all men to the number of 1,844 signing up for rooter's club within the week allotted. About 500 men completed their arrangements but many were not given seats in the section promised. Orders which had come in in the meantime designating cheering section regardless of rooter's club were given precedence."

HEY KIDS! SKATING SEASON IS OPENED

Lagoons at Wingra Are Solid;
Ice on Shore of Mendota

A truly wintry scene, although it is but the middle of November, presented itself yesterday afternoon at Henry Vilas park, where a large number of skaters, clad in wooly scarfs and mittens, enjoyed themselves on the numerous lagoons that are already frozen over solidly enough for skating.

Lake Wingra itself is not yet frozen over, but ice has formed along its shores several feet out into the lake. There is also ice of considerable thickness on Lake Mendota in the bay formed by the land along the university lake shore drive and the neck which stretches out into the lake known as Picnic Point. Fewer skaters go to this place because of the distance from dwelling places. The ice there is not so smooth as that on the lagoons of Wingra Lake.

URGE HEALTH OFFICER HERE

Committee to Ask City Council for Full-Time Officer

Employment of a full-time city health officer was agreed upon at a joint meeting of the board of health, the board of education, and the finance committee Tuesday evening. The board of health will meet to decide officially whether it will recommend passage of the ordinance providing for a full-time health officer at the meeting of the council Nov. 26, according to G. H. Mason, president.

The ordinance was referred to the board of health in August. The finance committee called the joint meeting Tuesday to ascertain whether provision shall be made for the official in the 1921 budget. It is expected that the ordinance as finally approved will provide specifically that the full-time health officer shall be in charge of the school health program.

Five nurses comprise the school health staff at present, and these will be retained if a full-time health officer is provided, according to G. S. Meek, superintendent of schools. Members of the board of education agreed that they would be glad to have a full-time health officer with the director of school nurses as his assistant. Mrs. Cicely A. Weaver explained the health program.

Every phase of the school health program was discussed at the joint meeting.

A resolution addressed to the city council to allow the board of education to borrow $300,000 to meet teachers' payrolls and running expenses until new funds are available in 1921, was passed by the board last night.

Plans for acquiring a site for a new east side high school were also discussed.

DR. J. SCHAFER AT ARCHAEOLOGY MEET

Report on Field Work Submitted at Milwaukee Meeting

Dr. Joseph Schafer, superintendent of the State Historical society, spoke at a meeting of the Wisconsin Archaeological society held in the lecture hall of the public museum at Milwaukee last night. He spoke on "Plans for the Study of Local History." Charles E. Brown, chief of the historical museum, also attended the meeting and presented a report on the recent archaeological field work in which members of the society have been engaged in Columbia, Jefferson and Walworth counties. Efforts will be made to secure the preservation of the famous Indian earthwork and mounds at Aztalan. In the vicinity of Wyocena it is expected to preserve an interesting effigy mound through the gift to the society of the land by its present owner.

The society is also cooperating with the Wisconsin Conservation Commission in properly marking the interesting animal-shaped and linear mounds located at the western end of Devil's Lake state park. Of these so called "lynx" effigy, located on a hill top above the Warner memorial road, is an especially fine and well-preserved example of Wisconsin effigy mounds. A recent visit made by Vice President H. E. Cole of the society, Mr. Brown and Mr. C. L. Harrington of the Wisconsin Conservation Commission to man-mound park, near Baraboo, found this huge earthwork in the human form and the park itself in the finest condition.

This mound and park were purchased by the Wisconsin Archaeological society in cooperation with the Sauk County Historical society and landmarks clubs, W. F. W. C., some years ago. It has since been marked with a fine bronze descriptive plaque.

AT THE ORPHEUM

While the Singer's Midgets act remains over on the Orpheum bill for the balance of the week including the three performances Sunday, there will be a change tonight in the four addition acts, when the following acts will be shown: Walmstey and Keating Comicalities of Life; Caesar Rivoli, "The Man of a Thousand Roles"; Karl Karem, in a Pianologue; The Rosaires, novelty wire artists and the Kinogram pictures. There will be three performances daily, matinee at 3 o'clock and two evening performances at 7:15 and 9 o'clock. While the advance seat sale for all performances, on account of the Singer's Midget act, is very heavy, there still remains plenty of tickets to be had by calling at the box office.

AT THE GRAND

Eugene O'Brien's magnetic personality and smile will culminate the production of "A Fool and His Money," opening today at the Grand.

"A Fool and His Money" is adapted from the novel of the same name by George Barr McCutcheon. The photoplay deals with the adventure of an American author who buys a castle on the banks of the Danube, and there commences to write a story. His thought had been to find peace and solitude for his work, but a "ghost" and a villainous nobleman disturb the even tenor of his way long before he gets into his book, and he finds himself engaged in a series of adventures far more exciting than any that he had designed for the hero of his novel.

Ruby DeRemer is chief in the support of the star.

AT THE STRAND

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" has reached the screen. John Barrymore, in the role of the unfortunate physician, makes of the film version a thoroughly worthwhile and, in many ways, fascinating photoplay. This picture is now showing at the Strand theater.

The film follows the story closely, relating how the young and philanthropic Dr. Jekyll discovered a mysterious liquid that would transform him into the grotesque brute that, under the name of Mr. Hyde, represented the wicked side of his nature. He thus had his good and bad sides in separate bodies and could enjoy the pleasures of both. But gradually Hyde gained the ascendancy and, to spare the young women to whom he was engaged, the unfortunate Jekyll took poison.

Mr. Barrymore's portrayal must be reckoned among the most intelligent and effective that he has offered on stage or screen. He manifests a keen understanding of and sympathy with his role and plays it with fineness. His Hyde is more than a masterpiece of makeup; it is the living personification of cruel cunning. He makes of Dr. Jekyll a man almost godlike in form and character.

As a special added feature there will be shown pictures of the Wisconsin Homecoming, including the Wisconsin-Illinois game. A comedy cartoon will complete the program.

WARD TO SPEAK ON FRENCH CATHEDRALS

Professor Clarence Ward of Oberlin College will speak on French cathedrals at 8 tonight in the auditorium of the engineering building. Professor Ward holds the chair of history and appreciation of art at Oberlin.

He has won a national reputation not only as a speaker of rare charm but also as a highly competent interpreter of art. He comes to Wisconsin under the auspices of the Archeological society. The public is invited.

GOOD CAST MAKES THREE WISE FOOLS AN EXCELLENT PLAY

BY R. C. W.

More than one good play has suffered an unfortunate fate because its cast failed to do its part. More than one poor play has passed muster only because of the cast.

But when a good cast falls in with a good play, unlimited possibilities arise. Just such opportunities has Austin Strong's mirthful and mysterious comedy, "Three Wise Fools."

With a fast moving plot, the story itself is one that has evoked much favorable comment; but augmented and interpreted by an unusually able cast, the play is deserving of the commendation it has won.

Three old bachelors, one a judge, another a financier, and the third a doctor, once loved and lost the same beautiful girl; so their declining years find them solacing and annoying one another. It was on one of their most sour, sullen nights of bachelorhood that the judge brought in the will of the fair lady they had wooed and lost. By it the three fall heir to her sole possession, her child, Sidney.

Of course, heated discussion arises as to the disposition of the little boy. Finally, it is decided to keep him with them. But when the little boy arrives he is not a boy after all but a beautiful young girl. About her revolves most of the plot.

Inimicable in his interpretation of Mr. Theodore Findley, the financier, long-legged and cynical, Claude Gillingwater, a slave of habit, supplies most of the mirth. His quaint, individual mannerisms are the spice in the sauce.

Companions of praise are Harry Davenport as Dr. Richard Gaunt and Howard Gould as Judge James Trumbull. Both have difficult character roles that they impersonate masterly.

Winning, with her shy reserve and pleasing voice, Helen Menkin does her rather emotional part in a fashion that grasps the audience.

Young and good looking Donald Foster has a dashing part that he takes well.

MAROON TEAM PREPARES FOR ROYAL SCRAP

Chicago Bases Faith in Come-back on Strength of Line

BY ARVID C. LUNDE
Ass't Sports Editor
(The Daily Maroon)

Although seriously handicapped by recent injuries and defeats, Director A. A. Stagg is working at top speed to get his Maroons in shape for the game with the Badgers at Stagg field Saturday. The contest promises to be a battle royal despite Wisconsin's advantage in the percentage column, for Coach Stagg has a reputation for developing fighting teams on short order.

Maroon fans, who have watched their team go down in defeat three successive times, are placing all their hopes on the "Old Man's" ability in this line, and all are primed for a real scrap Saturday.

Backfield Crippled

Chicago's backfield is still more or less banged up, but the fighting line, which has permitted but two teams to cross the Maroon goal line this season, is still intact.

Reber will hold down the pivotal position in the Maroon forward wall, and will be flanked by Pheney and Hartong. These three men all tip the scales at more than 200 pounds and all are valuable both on offense and defense.

Capt. Jackson and "Chuck" McGuire are the tackles. These two huskies are fixtures at the positions and have distinguished themselves all season by their brilliant work. For substitutes at the guards and tackles, Stagg has Lewis, Barker, Muller and Redmon. The latter was disabled in the Illinois game after playing sparkling football, but there is a chance that he will be on hand for the Badger game.

Hinkle Returns at End

The Maroon ends will be strengthened by the return of Hinkle, who has been playing a bang-up game all season. On the other wing, Strohmeier is the logical choice, with Halleday and Clark available for substitute duty. Strohmeier, playing his first year on the Varsity, has been the sensation of the season, playing real football since getting his first chance in a conference game.

The personnel of the backfield is still a puzzle. Injuries to Hanisch and Cole, both real stars in the backfield, have made necessary a complete revision. Crisler will probably pilot the team from the quarterback position, to which he was initiated against Michigan last week. In the event that he is used as a halfback, Tatge will fill in at quarter.

Halfbacks Plentiful

For halfback duty, the "Old Man" has Rouse, Hutchinson, Palmer and Bell. The probable starters are Rouse and Palmer, as these two have been doing the best work thus far. Neff may also break into the fray at a halfback. Hermes and Timme will be on deck for the fullback assignment, and although Stagg used Timme against the Wolverines, Hermes will probably start Saturday.

Long lines greeted the ticket sellers when the seats for the game went on sale at Bartlett gymnasium Monday morning. Those seats which had not been disposed of through reservations were quickly gobbled up and by noon none remained save the end bleachers and a few boxes. A capacity crowd will be packed into the stands when the whistle blows for the season's last game Saturday.

"Tommy" Counts While Budging Military Vernon Castle Marks Time

Sergeant Thomas Atkins is doing his utmost to make the Military hop a success. In speaking to the cadets on Friday morning Sergeant Atkins volunteered to procure girls for those cadets who have not attended the various mixers given so far this year. He also volunteered to give dancing lessons to those yearning youngsters who are at present having difficulty with their feet.

Sergeant Atkins is well qualified to give lessons. During the years he served at Fort Sill, the sergeant acted as post dance instructor. At the Governor's ball in New York, on New Year's Eve, 1902, Sergeant Atkins captured the gold loving cup for winning the waltz contest. He still has the cup and newspaper clippings to show doubtful students.

It is requested that cadets desiring to take dancing lessons report to Tommy on Tuesday or Thursday afternoons at the armory. Cadets desiring a partner are requested to present their applications in writing. Preferences as to blonds or brunettes and heights will be given full consideration.
