The DANE COUNTY MEMORIAL COLISEUM

Wisconsin plays its home games in the beautiful and spacious Dane County Memorial Coliseum. There are 8,000 theatre type seats and space for 662 additional seats and standing room making the capacity for hockey 8,662. It is the largest college hockey arena in the nation. The ice surface is regulation 85 x 200 feet.

RECORD ATTENDANCE

Wisconsin hockey has attracted record crowds to the Coliseum ever since the Badgers joined the Western Collegiate Hockey Ass'n in the 1969-70 season. Wisconsin fans have set college hockey attendance records for 8 consecutive seasons starting with 1970. The 1976-77 season total of 217,532 fans that saw 27 home games set an all-time collegiate record. The 1977-78 average attendance total of 8,652 is a school and collegiate record.

Wisconsin Hockey History

The "modern" era in Wisconsin hockey history began in March of 1962 when then Athletic Director Ivan Williamson announced that the Badgers would return to intercollegiate hockey competition for the 1963-64 season — after a 28-year layoff.

Long-time Madison hockey backers John Riley and Art Thomsen coached the early Badger icers and quickly formed a respectable hockey club. Wisconsin went on to post an 8-5-3 record in its first year, playing mainly teams from small colleges in Minnesota, Michigan and Illinois.

The following season the Badgers won 14 games and lost nine. That year, the Badger icemen, in an effort to upgrade the level of competition, added eight games against opponents from the Western Collegiate Hockey Conference (WCHA). They lost all eight.

Undaunted by their lack of success, the Badgers in 1965-66 scheduled six games against WCHA foes. True to form, they lost the first five; but the final margins were decidedly closer than they had been the previous year: 3-2 to Colorado College, and 3-1 and 5-3 to Michigan State.

Then on the evening of February 22, 1966, it finally happened. The Badgers had battled back from a three-goal first-period deficit to pull even with the Minnesota Gophers at the end of regulation time, 4-4. Barely two minutes into the sudden-death overtime period, junior wing Jim Petruzzates snared an errant Gopher pass and unmolested, fired a 20-foot slapshot past the sprawling Minnesota goalie. Wisconsin hockey had come of age.

John Riley retired as coach after the 1965-66 season and was replaced by 35-year-old Robert N. Johnson; a Minnesota native, a former professional baseball player, and the hockey coach at Colorado College. In his first season, Johnson expanded the Wisconsin schedule to 26 games.

The following year, led by national scoring champion Bert DeHate, the Badgers improved their season mark to 21-10. DeHate, a sophomore from St. Paul, Minn., finished the year with 77 points on 47 goals and 30 assists, including seven hat tricks. A mid-term graduate in 1969-70, DeHate still ranks as one of Wisconsin's highest scorers.

Wisconsin's hockey fortunes continued to improve as the Badgers won 22, lost 10 and tied two in 1968-69; including, for the first time, a winning record (11-9-2) against WCHA competition. With his team's record to show, Bob Johnson began lobbying for Wisconsin's admittance into the prestigious conference.

On March 30, 1969, the Badgers were admitted to the league, and quickly proved a worthy entry by placing fourth in the standings. All first-year teams previously had finished dead last. It was also the year the Badgers made their initial appearance at the NCAA Tournament in Lake Placid, N. Y. Led by the "Freshman Flyer" line of Max Bentley, Tim Dool and Norm Cherrey, the Badgers finished third in the tourney, and became recognized as a national power.

Following the tournament, defenseman John Jagger, from Sault St. Marie, Ontario, became Wisconsin's first hockey All-American.

In 1970-71, the Badgers again played well, finishing with a record of 20-13-1; but Wisconsin fans, who were packing the Dane County Coliseum in record numbers, had another goal in mind — a national championship. It was not to be that year; or the next, when Wisconsin again placed third at the national tournament.

With a blazing start in 1972-73, the Badgers won 10 of their first 11 contests. They finished 18-9-1 in league play and earned the right to travel to Boston for their third try at the NCAA title. In one of the most electrifying games in tournament history, Wisconsin beat semi-final opponent Cornell, 6-5 in sudden-death overtime. Sophomore Dean Talafous scored with five seconds left in regulation time; and again just 33 seconds into the extra period to send the Badgers into the championship game for the first time ever.

Although they fell behind league rival Denver early in the title game, the young Badgers were determined to leave Boston a winner. With workmanlike precision, the Cardinal and White came back to muster a 4-2 decision; and with it, the national championship.

The Badgers did not return to the NCAA meet until four seasons later. Those seasons were not failures by any stretch of the imagination. In 1973-74 the team finished with a fine 18-13-5 record and in '74-75 the Badgers won 24, lost 12 and tied 2 and Brian Engblom became the school's 3rd All-American defenseman. Even during the 1975-76 season, when the Badgers suffered through their first losing season of the modern era, a young and inexperienced team made a late-season surge and moved from 10th to 7th place in the WCHA to make the play-offs.

The Badgers were determined to play in the NCAA meet in '77. They downed Colorado College and Minnesota in the 1st two rounds of the play-offs and then had to face Michigan in the WCHA's 1st play-off Championship series. Wisconsin had beaten the Wolverines 3 of 4 times during the regular season and once again the Badgers proved to be the better team by sweeping the total goal series 9-4.

Winning the NCAA meet for the second time was no easy task for the Badgers. It took two overtime victories in Detroit's Olympia Stadium before Wisconsin could claim its second title. In the first game against New Hampshire, it was Les Grauer and Mike Eaves who scored the tying and winning goals that enabled Wisconsin, once more, to play Michigan, this time for the NCAA Championship. Senior Steve Alley, scoring on a rebound only 23 seconds after the overtime began gave the final victory to the Badgers and triggered a celebration that lasted for days.

1976-77 was a season long to be remembered. The Badgers were the 1st team ever to win the NCAA Championship, the WCHA title and the Big Ten crown in the same year. Three players were selected to the All-American team, Julian Baretta, also MVP in the NCAA meet, Mike Eaves, and Craig Norwich, for the second year in a row. Bob Johnson was the WCHA's Coach of the Year and his son Mark Johnson was tabbed as the league's Rookie of the Year. All this, plus the school's best record ever of 37-7-1 and a total of 18 other school records that were established add up to Wisconsin's finest year in hockey.

The Badgers made a return trip to the NCAA tournament to defend their title in 1978, but lost both games and finished 4th in the nation. Mike Eaves, the Badger Captain for three years, ended his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. He was named to the All-American team for the second time, and, with Wisconsin's other All-American Mark Johnson, tied for the WCHA scoring title. Both Eaves and Johnson were named to every WCHA All-Star team.

The Badger fans got into the act when the city of Providence, RI, site of the NCAA '78 tournament, honored the 3,000 plus fans that made the trip by presenting them with a huge trophy. The trophy claimed the Badger fans as "The World's greatest Hockey Fans."

Elroy Hirsch accepts trophy for Badger Fans.

Bob Johnson

BOB JOHNSON Head Coach - 12th Season

The saga of Wisconsin Head Hockey Coach Bob Johnson continues. Now about to enter his 12th season as the Badger mentor, he has never coached a losing team while at Wisconsin. His career record at Wisconsin shows 265 wins against 177 losses and 17 ties, and there is no team in the WCHA that can boast a winning margin against a Bob Johnson coached Badger team. During the 1970's five Badger teams have made it to the NCAA tournament with the '73 and '77 squads capturing the national title. Badger teams have also laid claim to 4 of the last 6 Big Ten hockey crowns. Seven of Johnson's skaters have been honored by being named to the All-American squad nine times. Coach Johnson was honored by his peers in 1977 by being named the WCHA Coach of the Year.

Johnson took over the coaching reins at Wisconsin in 1966. For three years the team operated as an independent before joining the tough Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) for the 1969-70 campaign. That young band of upstarts surprised the hockey world that year by finishing fourth in the league when all other first-year teams previously had finished last. The Badgers then went on to their first NCAA tournament and finished third.

From 1973 through 1976 Johnson coached the U. S. National teams and the U.S. Olympic team which took fourth place in the 1976 Winter Games held in Innsbruck, Austria. Johnson's teams gained respect of the hockey community around the world and received the 1976 Meritorious Service Award from the Amateur Hockey Ass'n of the United States. Currently Bob serves as a consultant to the President's Commission on Olympic sports.

The 47-year-old Johnson is a native of Minneapolis, Minn. He played hockey and baseball at the University of North Dakota in 1950-51; and at the University of Minnesota 1952-54. Bob started his coaching career in 1956 at Warroad, Minn., and started a three-year stint at Colorado College in 1963 as hockey and baseball coach. His hockey teams at CC compiled a 29-51-3 record. In baseball, Johnson was named the Coach of the Year for NCAA College division Rocky Mtn. District in 1964 and '65.

Bob received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minnesota in '54 and holds a Master of Education degree, also from Minnesota. Along with his coaching duties at Wisconsin, he is also a professor in the Physical Education Department.

Bob and his wife Martha are the parents of five children.

GRANT STANDBROOK Assistant Coach - 3rd Season

Grant Standbrook has fast become an important part of Wisconsin's highly successful hockey program. Coach Johnson has given Grant the responsibility of the Badgers off-ice conditioning program and the seeking out of prospective hockey players who can fit the mold of past Badger stand-outs. Grant works closely with Coach Johnson in assessing the Badger talent and performances. Coach Johnson has stated that he feels "there is no better assistant coach in the country than Grant Standbrook."

Prior to coming to Wisconsin Standbrook was Johnson's assistant coach for three years with the U.S. National and Olympic teams. A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Standbrook graduated from the University of Minnesota-Duluth in 1961. He lettered in hockey two years and was an alternate captain in 1960-61.

Standbrook, 41, began his coaching career at Churchill High School in Winnipeg in 1961. In 1963, he took over the coaching position at Greenway High School in Coleraine, Minn., and in three years his teams posted a 56-21-2 record.

Grant entered the college coaching ranks in 1966 when he joined the Dartmouth College staff; he became that school's head coach in 1970—a position he held for five years. At Dartmouth Grant also coached soccer and lacrosse. Grant was a member of the Canadian championship soccer team in 1963.

Grant and his wife Joy have three children.

TOM OSENTON Administrative Assistant - 1st Season

Tom Osenton will serve the Wisconsin hockey program in a number of ways; not only will he work directly with Coach Johnson on a part-time basis, but he will serve as the new Executive Director of the Blue Line Club of Madison. Tom succeeds Fenton Kelsey, who helped form the club and served in that capacity for 8 years.

Tom comes to Wisconsin after being the Public Relations Director for the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S. during the past two years. Tom is a 1976 graduate of New Hampshire, where he played hockey and majored in journalism.

Tom is a native of Brookline, MA, as is his wife Mary Ellen.

COACH BOB JOHNSON LOOKS AT THE BADGERS . . .

GOALTENDING: This spot appears to be solid for the upcoming season with Julian Baretta returning for his senior year. An All-American as a sophomore and a key performer for us last season as he won 20, lost 10 and tied 3. As in last season, Baretta will be a key to our success. Sophomore Jamie Gremore will back-up Baretta; he has shown potential to make the goaltending position a solid one.

DEFENSE: The Blueliners will be very young, as we lost 4 starters to graduation. Leading the returnees are Senior Bob Suter and Theran Welsh, who had a great 1st year. Other lettermen back are Ian Perrin and Ron Griffin. How fast four newcomers can develop and adjust to the WCHA will dictate what kind of season the Badgers will have.

CENTER: The big question is who replaces Mike Eaves. Wisconsin's all-time leading scorer and two time All-American; Mike's departure leaves a big hole. Mark Johnson, our other All-American last season and the WCHA's leading goal scorer, gives us a start at building a solid position. Lettermen Jim Scheid and Clark Kavolinas will provide us with depth at this spot. Two newcomers will be in the thick of things battling for a starting berth.

LEFT WING: Two regulars return with 3 years of experience to bolster this side. Les Grauer and Rod Romanchuk are both 100 percenters who are coming off outstanding seasons. A wide open battle is anticipated for the other spots between limited experienced players and several incoming freshmen.

RIGHT WING: Six players will be involved in a battle royal for the starting berths. Scott Lecy, Jon Morgan, and Tim Phippen are returning lettermen who will have a shot at making the 1st group. Some blue-chip newcomers who will all be fighting the upper-classmen are Mike Blaisdell, Dave Speer, and Ron Vincent. The right side should be one of the strong points of the Badger hockey team.

BADGER ALL-AMERICANS

1 JULIAN BARETTA

Goaltender, Senior, 5-9, 170
Edmonton, Alberta: Born October 3, 1957

The backbone of the Badger defense . . . In the last 2 years appeared in 59 games while compiling a 41-12-3 record . . . Julian was the 1st Wisconsin All-American goaltender in 1977 . . . Considered one of the WCHA's top goalies the past two seasons . . . Holds school record of 949 saves in a single season . . . Quickness is his biggest asset . . . Will be looked to for leadership of youthful Badgers . . . Drafted by L. A. Kings in 1977 . . . Major—Business.

COACH'S COMMENT: "One of the outstanding goaltenders in college hockey, certainly a key for the Badgers; we are expecting Julian to be one of our leaders."

10 MARK JOHNSON

Center, Junior, 5-9, 170
Madison, Wisconsin; Born September 22, 1957

One of the highest scoring skaters in Badger history . . . An All-American selection and named to every WCHA All-Star team . . . Tied for league's scoring with teammate Mike Eaves with 70 points . . . WCHA's leading goal-scorer with 39 . . . Tallied 16 PPG's, 10 tying goals and two hat-tricks . . . Scored 7 points in game against Mich Tech (5 G and 2 A) . . . Scored at least one point in every game but 4 . . . Holds school record for most goals in a single season, 48 . . . Took part in Olympic development program this past summer . . . Son of Coach Johnson . . . Major is Physical Education.

COACH'S COMMENT: "I don't know where he's going to stop, Mark's had two super seasons, and his being named to the All-American team last year made me quite proud as a coach and father. We just hope Mark continues to develop."

11 BRIAN CAMPBELL

Madison, Wisconsin; Born July 3, 1957

One of four local skaters on the team . . . Came to Wisconsin as a walk-on . . . Played in 19 games as a winger . . . Minor injuries slowed progress . . . Enrolled in Letters and Science.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Brian had a disappointing freshman year due to injuries and illness, we hope he is ready to make a real run at one of the left wing positions."

9 LES GRAUER

Regina, Saskatchewan, Born June 2, 1955

A total hockey player who works hard at both ends of the rink . . . The team's highest scoring winger last season . . . Tallied a natural hat-trick against UMD . . . A leader on the ice . . . Can play in any situation . . . Always works hard . . . Major—Business.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Les could be one of the real leaders for the Badgers, a 3 year regular and a twenty plus goal scorer the last two seasons, he might be one of the top players in the WCHA."

4 RON GRIFFIN

Defenseman, Junior, 5-11, 185
Lavonia, Michigan; Born May 16, 1958

Will be looked at to help fill gaps in depleted defense ...
Had a slight let-down in '77-78 after excellent 1st year ...
Was a member of the 1978 U. S. National Junior team ...
Led the Lavonia Senior team to state and national titles ...
Major—Recreation.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Ronnie has been in and out of the line-up for the last two seasons, he has all the hockey skills to become a regular, we need to have Ron come back and have a good year."

15 DAN GOROWSKY

White Bear Lake, Minnesota; Born January 4, 1959

A hard worker who was ready when needed ... Appeared in 16 games and gained valuable experience ... Biggest asset is quickness and lack of fear in corners ... Enrolled in Pre-Business.

COACH'S COMMENT: "One of the hardest workers on the team, Dan moved up to the varsity from the varsity reserve squad and at times became a regular, a real spark-plug who is always ready."

21 CLARK KAVOLINAS

Center, Senior, 6-0, 185
Surrey, British Columbia; Born February 9, 1957

Became a regular at end of season after battling injuries ... Showed steady improvement ... Tallied lone goal against Notre Dame in final WCHA series ... A healthy senior season needed ... Majoring in Landscape Architecture.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Another player who has seen limited action because of a variety of injuries and illness. A hard-worker who is well liked by all, we'd like nothing better than for Clark to finish up at Wisconsin on a high note."

24 ROD ROMANCHUK

St. Paul, Minnesota; Born December 9, 1957

A Badger fan favorite . . . Plays the game full tilt when on the ice . . . Increased his point production by 31 points . . . An excellent puck stealer who scored 4 short-handed goals . . . Wisconsin's top penalty killer . . . Scored a goal in each period against MSU for 1st hat-trick . . . Majoring in Secondary Education.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Up to this point Rod has had a great career here, he became a regular last season and gave us tremendous leadership, popular with everyone; it's hoped he can go out in a blaze of glory."

23 JIM SCHEID

Center, Junior, 5-10, 160
Rochester, Minnesota; Born August 6, 1957

Regular center on all-important 3rd line . . . Played in every game after seeing only spot action in freshman season . . . Known for his quickness and stick-handling ability . . . Tallied two goals against Mich Tech . . . Majoring in Physical Education.

COACH'S COMMENT: "As our 3rd line center he played extremely well providing great opportunities for his wingers, with experience he should add a lot to our team."

2 BOB SUTER

Defenseman, Senior, 5-10, 175
Madison, Wisconsin; Born May 16, 1957

The Badger "Policeman" who is never out of the action . . . Had his best scoring year in 1977-78 . . . Rink-long rushes with the puck became a trademark . . . Wisconsin's WCHA penalty leader . . . He and Theran Welsh were considered one of better defensive duos in league . . . Bob is the only married player on the squad . . . Major is Recreation.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Bob developed last year into one of the top defensemen in the league; he was plagued with penalty problems early, but overcame that and found he could play well in all phases of the game. One of our toughest, he appears ready to have an outstanding senior year."

5 THERAN WELSH

Defenseman, Sophomore, 5-7, 160
Prince Alberta, Saskatchewan; Born February 25, 1958

Highest scoring defenseman on the team . . . Finished 13th in WCHA scoring . . . An adept stick-handler with great maneuverability . . . Scored most points ever by a Badger freshman defender . . . 4 of his 10 goals were PPG's . . . Honorable mention on WCHA All-star team . . . Enrolled in Pre-Business.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Theran had an outstanding freshman season at both ends of the rink, probably our smallest player yet one of the best. He made the adjustment to the WCHA in one year which is tough to do; I look for him to improve even more in his sophomore year."

16 SCOTT LECY

Right Wing, Sophomore, 5-9, 165
Rochester, Minnesota; Born April 8, 1959

Missed only 2 games as a freshman last year . . . Proved he could score by chalking up 13 goals . . . Along with Griffin played on 1978 U. S. National Junior team . . . Teamed with high school teammate Jim Scheid over last half of season . . . Enrolled in Pre-Business.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Scott's 13 goals last season were outstanding for a freshman, he played extremely well early, had a slight let-down, but finished strong, we're expecting Scott to come back and have an outstanding sophomore year."

22 JON MORGAN

Right Wing, Sophomore, 5-11, 190
Minnetonka, Minnesota; Born May 14, 1958

As a spot player saw action in 29 games . . . Big and strong with the ability to play anywhere . . . Enrolled in Engineering.

COACH'S COMMENT: "This young man has great potential, he did not fully realize his abilities last season. Jon is big, strong and has quickness, if he can settle down he'll be a good player for us."

12 IAN PERRIN

Defenseman, Senior, 6-1, 175
Spy Hill, Saskatchewan; Born September 13, 1956

Plagued with injuries since freshman year . . . Red-shirted last season in an effort to fully recover . . . A defensive defenseman who only needs ice time to become effective . . . Majoring in Business.

COACH'S COMMENT: "Red-shirted with injuries last season and has not played much since his 1st year, Ian still possesses all the skills and has the tools to be a regular defenseman for Wisconsin."
