The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Bohemian Polka.

Pub. by C. F. Hupfeld & Son. Phila.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time. It consists of five systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The second system includes a forte (f) dynamic marking. The third system contains a piano (p) dynamic marking. The fourth system concludes with the word "Fine." and a repeat sign. The fifth system ends with the instruction "D.C." (Da Capo). The score is heavily annotated with handwritten numbers (1-4) and symbols (x, +, B) above the notes, likely indicating fingerings or performance techniques. The paper shows signs of age, including foxing and staining.
