HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS ASKED TO EXPOSITION

Special Train Service and Guides to Be Provided for Guests

Invitations to graduating classes of high schools throughout the state to attend the University Exposition, April 21, 22, and 23 were sent out Friday afternoon.

These invitations were not only sent to high schools but to the eight normal schools, and to the grade and rural schools within a hundred miles of Madison. Officials of the Northwestern, St. Paul, and Illinois Central railroads have signified their desire to cooperate in the transportation at reduced rates to those accepting the invitation. In many cases special trains will be arranged that will pick up the classes along the route on Friday and Saturday and return late in the evening.

Special Guides for Students
The students from the state will have special guides assigned them and will have an opportunity to see the legislature at work in the morning and the Exposition and university grounds that afternoon and evening. It is expected that over 4,000 high school and grade students alone will take advantage of the reduced rates to visit Madison at that time as a part of their senior class activities.

Special Information Booths will be erected at the three stations and at the four hotels to direct the visitors to the Exposition and Madison attractions during Exposition week-end.

"Unlike information booths used in the past by various university societies these booths will be manned from six in the morning to ten in the evening," declared General Manager William Florea Friday afternoon. "We will spare no effort to arrange for the comfort of the visitors and a special committee is already at work making a list of the rooming accommodations."

MAGDALEN COLLEGE FELLOW TO SPEAK ON ARAB QUESTION

D. G. Hogarth to talk this afternoon in Bascom Hall

He has slept in mummy cases beneath Egypt's mystic skies. He has wrested the secrets of ages from the hidden recesses of the land of the Sphinx. He has roamed the desert with the Arab.

At the same time he is a fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford university. His name is Mr. D. G. Hogarth, and he is characterized by Prof. M. S. Slaughter as "one of the most charming and delightful men living today."

Mr. Hogarth will speak this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in room 165 Bascom Hall. He has taken for his subject "The Arabs in the Present Political Situation." The lecture will be illustrated.

The speaker comes here from a series of lectures which he has just delivered at the University of Chicago. He also filled a number of engagements in eastern colleges.

For many years Mr. Hogarth has devoted himself to exploration and travel in the Near East and he is thoroughly familiar with conditions there. He will deal in his lecture this afternoon with the question of Zionism.

The lecture will be free.

High Class Stock To Be Exhibited At Little International Show Today

AUTA LYMAN '22 IS NEW Y. W. PRESIDENT

Auta Lyman '22 was elected president of Y. W. C. A. yesterday in the election which polled the largest number of votes in an association election in several years. Ima Winchell, with the second highest vote, became Undergraduate Field representative.

The other officers elected were: Helen Kasbeer '23, vice-president; Catherine O'Shea '24, secretary; and Cleo Parsley '23, treasurer.

Auta Lyman has done efficient work throughout this year as financial chairman for Y. W. C. A., and has also taken an active part in athletics, and in general campus activities, such as Homecoming and Prom. She has for two years been chosen a forward on Varsity basketball teams, and this year was awarded sophomore honors.

Ima Winchell is a "W" wearer, and also won sophomore scholastic honors. She has been active in Y. W. C. A. work since her freshman year, has served on S. G. A. executive council, and has taken part in forensics and Badger work. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

MILITARY BALL USES CAPITOL

Joint Legislative Resolution Grants State Building for Annual Affair

The ninth annual Military ball will be held in the State Capitol building, April 8, instead of in the university armory, as has previously been announced.

The change in places was made possible only by a personal invitation from the governor and a resolution passed by both the senate and the assembly granting the use of the building to the cadet corps for their 1921 function.

Urgent requests for tickets for the affair had exceeded all expectations and early indicated that the university armory would be packed beyond its capacity, which is at best not over 350 couples.

Armory Thought Too Small

To limit the number to 350 would necessitate such a restriction of tickets as would cause not only many of the cadets to be turned away but also practically all of the ex-service men desiring to attend.

In view of the fact that the ball was to be a formal reunion of all the former service men attending the university, the cadet officers in charge felt that it would be a decided injustice to exclude these men, the majority of whom had been unable to attend Prom and were looking forward to the Military ball as their biggest social event of the year.

FROSH WILL DANCE AT FROLIC TONIGHT

Arrangements for the biggest freshman frolic in years are practically completed, and all will be in readiness by 9 o'clock for the annual Frosh dance in Lathrop gymnasium.

Luther Holman, with one of Thompson's orchestras, will provide the music for the dance. Tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased today at Morgan's and the University pharmacy.

Wild West Performance in Evening Will Complete Annual Fair

Exhibition of high class cattle and the staging of a big show are the major events in the Little International exhibition, the annual event of the College of Agriculture, which will be officially opened at 2:30 today. Judging of the live stock entered by university students for the $100 prize awards will begin at that time.

Following the afternoon's judging of the livestock, will be the "Wild West" show at the pavilion. The event this year will be more varied and unique than ever, the management claims, and will combine both education and entertainment in a lively manner. Music will be furnished by the Wisconsin Second Regimental band.

The program for the evening show will take the following order: Parade of university draft teams in harness, parade of university dairy cattle, "Ham and Bacon" act by the Ag Triangle, parade of university beef cattle and sheep, cockerel race by the Badger Poultry club, steer roping and bull riding, riding of saddle horses in five gaited class, Madison "light deliveries," tug of war between short course students, belt contest by Agricultural engi-

SWIMMING TEAM TO MEET CHICAGO IN LAST CONTEST

Coach Steinauer's Men Will Compete in Final Scrap

Today

Depleted of many veteran members, the Wisconsin swimming team of 11 men will leave this morning to meet the Maroon tankers in the last dual meet of the season. Ineligibilities have wrecked Coach Steinauer's squad, which began the season with many old members.

Team Weakened

J. J. Lamboley '22, who with Capt. John Koch '21 made the Wisconsin squad one of the strongest in the Big Ten, has been disqualified. Lamboley, whose eligibility was to have been settled by a special examination this week, has been prevented by a faculty ruling from taking the exam.

Chicago possesses a team which defeated Iowa and Illinois, and lost only to Northwestern by one point. The Maroons are especially fast in the dashes, where Blinks, a sophomore, has set two tank records. Against Illinois, Blinks broke the records for the 50 and 100-yard swims.

Maroons Are Strong

Captain Yegge of the Maroons smashed the 150 yard swim in the meet with Illinois. Gordon, Allison, Schuh, and Jenkins are other Maroons who have brought the Chicago swimming team to one of the leading positions on the conference ladder. Gordon plunged 68 1/4 feet in the Illinois meet. In the 1920 struggle against Wisconsin at Madison he broke the conference record with a 60-foot plunge in 17 seconds.

The Wisconsin lineup will be as follows: relay: Bach, Davies, Halderman, Sollitt; dives: Koch, Collins; 40-yard dash: Davies, Sollitt, Bach; 200-yard breast stroke: Koch, Petersen, Collins; 20-yard swim: Logie, Baker, Halderman; plunge: R. bel, McMurray; back stroke: Baker, Koch, Bach, and the 100-yard swim: Davis, Bach, and Sollitt.

TRACK TEAM MEETS NOTRE DAME TODAY

Excellent Condition of Squad Promises Hot Contest for Honors

Represented by one of the strongest track teams in years, Wisconsin will meet the Notre Dame track squad in the gymnasium annex at 2:30 this afternoon. Every Badger track and field man is in excellent condition after the hard workouts of the past week, and if Wisconsin runners maintain the form they have previously displayed, several annex records may be shattered.

Three inter-college relays, one-third mile, one mile, and two mile events, and two high school relays between Madison high school and University high to settle the disputed supremacy between these teams will be held.

In the dual meet, Coach Knute Rockne, Notre Dame, will enter 15 men, two of whom represented America at the Olympic games in Antwerp, Belgium. Johnny Murphy, one of the best high jumpers in the country, and August Desch, holder of world's record in the 40-yard low hurdles are two men sure to count points for Notre Dame.

Murphy injured his knee at the American Legion meet held in Boston recently, and although he has been kept from competition since that time, the Notre Dame jumper will leap against Armstrong, Mobley, Platten, and Geget of Wisconsin. Wynne, a hurdler who tied the national record in the 40-yard low hurdles at the First Regimental games, Chicago, is slated to enter this event against Knollin, Armstrong, Stolley, and Newell of Wisconsin.

40-yard dash—Wisconsin: A. J. Knollin '22, G. B. Stolley '22, W. A. Field '23, J. P. Woods '22, R. C. Matbox '21; Notre Dame: Ficks, Desch.

SUNDAY IS LAST DAY FOR OCTOPUS COPY TO COME IN

On Sunday, the last day on which contributions for the next Octopus will be accepted, the editorial office of the Octopus will be open from 4:30 to 6 o'clock.

The particular kind of contributions which is most welcome this month is the short paragraph of satire or any kind of humor. The only limitations are that they are to be original and not on purely local subjects.

THE day the Duke's column was to be that morning dawned auspiciously—a disintegration of syntax in such colossal proportions as to lend considerable merit to the sentence. We hope nobody present happened to read the Post a few years back and is able to identify he steal.

BILLY REEVES who spoke here recently tells how he enjoys looking up and speaking to old acquaintances when he arrives in familiar towns. When he got to Madison he saw a person whom he thought identified. Says he ambling up to the person, "Are not you Doctor Smith?" The person philosophically replies, "No, but I know where I can get you some."

HAROLD TAYLOR who has written the prize fox-trot may write some more pieces. If he writes enough of them, might we term him the Record Harold? No, you could not and live says the reading populace, so we desist.

JACK HARDING is not only a youthful apolinaris, but Georgiana Kimberly is the "Age of Innocence." It seems as though a good many academicians are likened to the famous statues. We saw several gents in front of Lawrence's the other night that thought snakes were making a Lacon Group out of them. We have not been so fortunate as to see any Venus (plural of Venus). The dying Gaul has no counterparts in this university. Gall will never die out around this place. Many of our neighbors are statuesque in that most statues are made of marble and these neighbors in question have . . . . well never mind.

We will borrow the style of the old tobacco wheeze long enough to render the following: Oh red dog is a noful game;

I like it.

It makes your senses verry lame;

I like it.

It wrecks accounts,

It wrecks your purse,

It makes simoleons disperse,

You lose your coat, and suit—

and worse—

I like it.

Been riding in yellow cabs pretty much lately. Shame the way they charge, though. Can remember when the fare used to be only a nickel (now it's 6 cents), and even

ART IS STUDY FOR MEN AND WOMEN SAYS PROF. BROWN

"American people must be taught that art and poetry are not mere pastimes or recreations of 'sissies,'" said Prof. Frederick Bruns of the German department yesterday in his third lecture on "German Art of the Nineteenth Century."

"It is a man's work, and a woman's too, to understand great literature and art. To hear more, to feel more, and to understand more, are the birthrights and privileges of the poet and artist."

Professor Bruns delivered an illustrated lecture on the paintings of the great artists of the middle of the last century. He included in his discussion three divisions: the Nazarines, copyists of the old school of Raphael; the Historians, depictors of the famous historical sites and incidents; and the modern religious painters.

"Modern Realism" will be the subject of his lecture next Wednesday.

Stude—Yes, Rheims.

THEY say that of all the professors on the hill, Fish gets the best net results.

Do not be alarmed. The people coming out of the Lake street alley the other night were just leaving the basketball game.

SOME inordinate and sinful personage sent us an ad from a Canadian magazine. The poorest quality of goods advertised was ten year old Scotch for $1.80 per quart. And he had the nerve to suggest that the Imperial quart is greater than that of the U. S. by 20 per cent. And he thought he was being funny.

SUNNY PYRE came frantically to class the other day. He needs must pause to get his breath before he could talk. Have you noticed, however, that when one gets a breath, one takes too much often, doesn't one?

Henry and Lake streets will soon be suffering the ordinary number of windows broken by baseballs. The open is filled with vigorous young men with more exuberance than control.

IS it not a regrettable fact that charity must embody afternoon dancing? We refer to the relay dance scheduled for this afternoon. One must be either a lizzie or a tightwad, or else so blatantly and ostentatiously generous as to give and not go.

CHUCK CARPENTER heaved into the city yesterday. Madison society will be augmented from now on with his enormous hulk and Carpenteresque smile.

BOSCOE, the Sig Chi Giraffe Hound has been washed. Seven large bars of soap were used in the operation. We don't know at this time just where the Sigs got the soap.

WE must now pull out and return to our case of la grippe which is trying to drown us. Anyone with suggestions and proper medicine for annihilating said grippe will be welcomed with secrecy and open arms.

The regular elections will be held April 1, when the officers will be elected from the candidates chosen yesterday. The voting yesterday was heavier than it has been for several years and the contest for the candidates was very close.

BADGER CLUB WILL HEAR "CRUCIFIXION"

"The Crucifixion," by Strainer, will be presented at the Badger club Sunday night, March 18, by the following quartet: Mrs. Frederick E. Wolf, soprano; Miss Lee Jutton, contralto; Edward Swain, bass; and Frederick E. Wolf, tenor.

All who know the members of this quartet are looking forward to a splendid interpretation of this sacred oration. The Badger club extends a special invitation to all university students to attend this entertainment.

Primary elections of S. G. A. held yesterday narrowed the contest to

"Poor Willies" Are No Longer Found On Glee Club Program

By Walter K. Schwinn

"Home concerts" are always more or less an event in the season's program, and the Glee club last night made their first 1920-1921 appearance, a performance that will set a record for many concerts to come.

The Men's Glee club has, since its last appearance here at the 1921 Prom, grown and matured considerably. No more do they gallop on and off the stage, no more do they sing "Poor Willies"; but they have acquired a distinct stage presence, a real refinement of appearance and of singing. Last night the club appeared increased to 24 members, each part well balanced against the other. If the Glee club has improved in appearance, it has doubly improved in tonal quality and technique. Always well-trained, the club this year shows an accuracy of pitch, of tone production, and enunciation that ranks it high among men's choruses.

The program was exceptionally well-balanced and arranged. Opening with a short group of lyrics by DeKoven, Parks, and Berger, the club continued with a group of older pieces: "Hark, Hark, the Lark," "The Rosary," and "Rolling Down to Rio." In "Rosalie," the opening selection, the light tones contrasted well with the rich, sustained passages of "The Rosary," in the next group. Schubert's "Hark, Hark, the Lark" was given with a fine sense of its lyric qualities and its full harmonies.

Madison Boy Promoted to Lieut. in Marines

Word has been received here by Capt. and Mrs. Morgan Griffiths of the promotion of their son, Trevor B. Griffiths who is with the U. S. marines, to lieutenancy. Lieut. Griffiths is now with the marines in Hatti, West Indies.

Mr. Kenneth Damon, singing Handel and a piece by Kramer, showed a high baritone voice of smooth, rich qualities, together with a real interpretive sense. His solo in "Beautiful Ship From Toyland," was well sung, and stood out nicely above the staccato chorus behind.

Max Peterson played a pleasing group of violin solos, doing exceptional work in the well known Kreisler "Caprice Viennois." He gave Kreisler's arrangement of Rimsky-Karsakow's "Hindoo Chant" as an encore.

Paul Sanders furnished brilliant and sympathetic accompaniments, in addition to a solo, "Garden in the Rain," by Debussy, played in sparkling and vivid fashion. A male quartet number and a duet between Earl Brown and Rueben Brown were well sung.

Back of the entire program one felt the influence of the director, Prof. E. Earle Swinney. For three years, when he first took charge of the Glee club, Professor Swinney has worked towards artistic and excellent glee singing. Last night's concert proved that the Glee club has been steadily gaining in maturity and sheer musical ability. Professor Swinney directed each group.

A radio telephone, installed by the physics department, sent the concert all over the country. A report from Independence, Mo., stated that the concert was being greatly enjoyed there.

Passion Play May Be Resumed, Report

HOBOKEN, N. J.—Residents of the village of Oberammergau are considering resumption of the "Passion Play," according to letters which said Anton Lang, who took the part of Christ in the spectacle, had not been killed in the war, only wounded.

neers, and exhibition of high-jumping horses.

Valuable Animals on Exhibit

The stock exhibit will include valuable pure bred animals, many of which have won high prizes and national records. The sheep, holding the world's prize, and the dairy cow having the national record for milk products will be shown. Duroc Jersey, Poland China, and Hampshire hogs, among the best in the state, and Shorthorn Aberdeen Angus cattle, direct from England and Scotland, are to be exhibited. Poultry will be also shown.

The entries of live stock in the exhibition this year have been numerous. Keen rivalry has been evidenced by the students competing in the classes, the winners of which will be determined largely by their ability in preparing their entrants for exhibit.

Judged Upon Improvement

Judging of animals and awards will be made on the following points:

The amount of improvement shown in the animals between the time students entered them and the time of judging will constitute 75 per cent. The merits of the animal in the show ring will constitute the remaining 25 per cent. Ribbons will be awarded for the first, second, third, and fourth prizes. First prize winners in each class will compete for the championship in each department.

The judges for the different classes are: Dairy cattle, Prof. A. S. Hulce, A. J. Kramer, J. M. Alderson; sheep, Prof. Frank Kleinheinz; beef cattle, J. M. Fargo, J. T. Tormey, field representative of the Wisconsin Short-horn Breeders' association, E. E. McQuillan; horses, Prof. J. H. Fuller, Joseph Delinche, George Hutton; swine, Prof. G. Bohsted, Burley Dobson, Lancaster, Wis., Ernest Kirst, herdsman.

Prof. J. J. Yoke, University of West Virginia, will judge all horse classes.

The city printing committee Thursday night voted to recommend that the annual reports of the fire, police, water and city engineering departments be published in

ATHENAE PICKS INTER-SOCIETY REPRESENTATIVES

Samuel Sygman '22 and Abraham Sygman '24 were selected at a meeting last night to represent Athenae at the inter-society oratorical meet, to be held March 22-23. Abraham Sygman won the "Frosh Dec," speaking on "The Power of Conviction." Samuel Sygman won the "Junior Ex." The topic of his speech was "What About Russia?"

Officers elected for the present semester occupied position for the first time. There will be no meeting next week on account of inter-collegiate debating.

A decision in favor of the negative in a debate on the regulation of the packing industries was rendered by J. H. Kolb, Agricultural Economics department, at a meeting of Agricultural Literary society last night.

F. J. O'Connell '21 gave a five minute speech and W. C. Strauss '21 conducted parliamentary drill.

Hesperia elected Henry Blume '22 and Carlyle Richards '24 as representatives to the inter-society meet. The winner of the final clash will represent Wisconsin at a Northern Oratorical league meet.

Wayne Morse '23 spoke on parliamentary procedure. Attorney Reiser '12 of Superior told of experiences in the society during his active membership.

MILWAUKEE RABBI TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

The Jewish Students' association will hold a meeting at the Woman's building Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rabbi S. Levi of Milwaukee Temple Benai Jehurun, who will give an address on "Priests and Prophets in Israel." Rabbi Levi has conducted services here several times before. These meetings are open to the public as well as to students who are not members. A choir will render traditional melodies of the Hebrew prayers. Many of the members of the organization are sons and daughters of Rabbi Levi's congregation in Milwaukee.

There will be Lenten services in Norwegian at Bethel Lutheran church tonight at 7:45.

FATE BROUGHT MRS. HAYS TO CAPITAL AS MEMBER OF THE CABINET CIRCLE

Mrs. Will H. Hays.

Helen Louise Thomas (now Mrs. Will H. Hays) nearly missed being in the cabinet circle. The year young Hays entered college at Crawfordsville, Ind., on the banks of the Wabash, Helen Louise Thomas, daughter of Judge A. D. Thomas, of that city, was sent to school in New York, where she remained three years. Fate, however, brought her back to the shade of the soft maples which surround Wabash college, and there Will Hays met her and put a sudden end to her New York school plans by marrying her.

Mrs. Hays is a vivacious young woman of striking personality. She has an unusually good voice and is artistically inclined, both in drawing and painting. With all this, however, Mrs. Hays, the wife of the new postmaster general, is very domestic in her tastes and finds much time for the reading of good books. She carries herself well in society and promises to hold her own in Washington's official life.

ANNUAL LITERARY SOCIETY DEBATE HELD ON APRIL 1

The annual Pythia-Castalia debate will be held Friday evening, April 1, in Music hall. The question will be "Resolved, that the Philippine Islands should be granted an Independence equal to that of Cuba."

Castalia, represented by Gladys Haskins '22, leader, Mildred Throne '23, and Florence Koltes '22, will uphold the affirmative against a Pythia team composed of Eleanor Shearer, leader, Fern Busby '21, and Carroll Conlee '23.

The debate will be open to the public, and the question is of such current interest that a large attendance is expected.

ADVERTISING BY MAIL THE BEST, REESE DECLARES

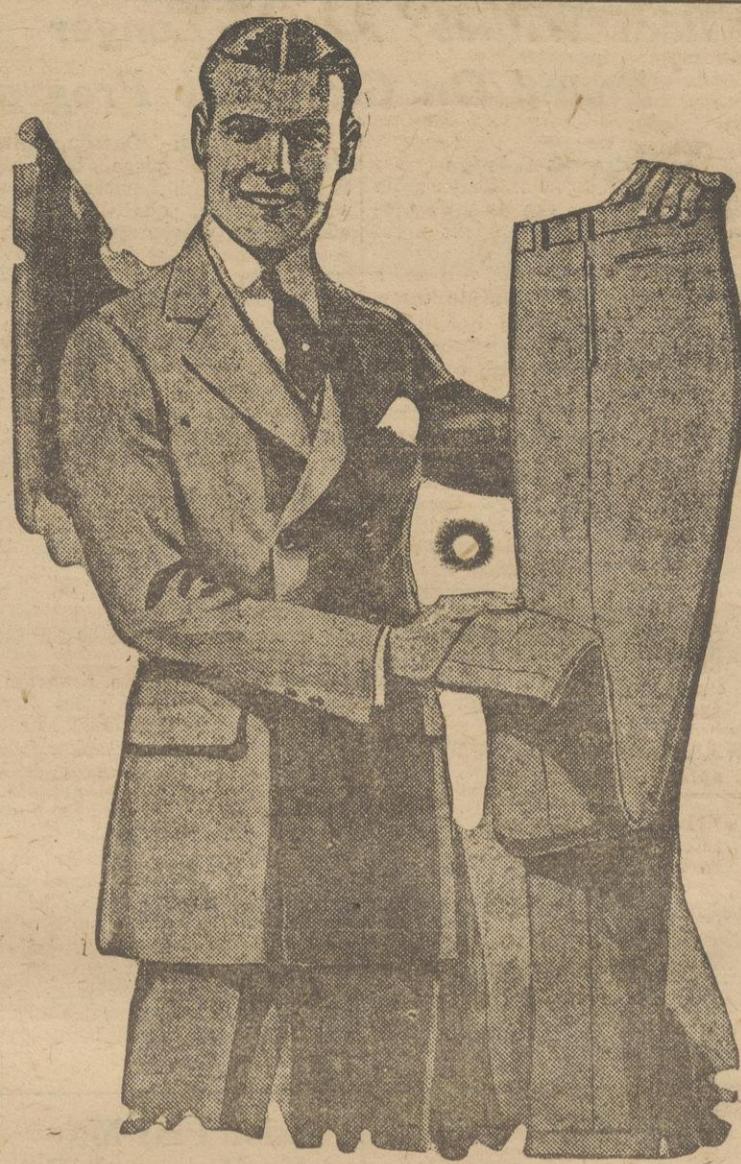

"Direct mail advertising is the most effective of all," declared William Reese, advertising manager of the Sterling Motor Truck company, in his address at a banquet of the Advertising club, held at the city Y. M. C. A. Thursday night.

"Advertising is one subject that people seem to know all about," observed Mr. Reese. "They seem to think that business consists merely in spending money. As a matter of fact, the most judicious planning is necessary to make the most of the available space."

In speaking of the necessary qualifications of a good advertising man, Mr. Reese asserted that salesmanship was the one essential.

Mr. Reese was unanimously elected as honorary member of the Advertising club. About 30 members of the club were present, including Professors S. L. Gilman and E. H. Gardner. Irvin Maier, president of the club, acted as toast-master.

ATTEND THE TRACK MEET

COACH T. E. JONES' track men are scheduled to meet one of the strongest cinder squads in the history of the country when Coach Rockne sends his 15 Notre Dame men against the Badgers in the only intercollegiate indoor meet at home this season.

In spite of the fact that Notre Dame squad boasts of two Olympic stars and many other high class track performers, there is no reason why the Badgers should lose if they are given the proper support from the student body. Coach Jones has many athletes of unusual ability, yet there is less incentive for them to perform their best when they feel that few students are interested in their efforts than when they are assured of whole-hearted support.

A track meet is one of the best sports to watch, yet Wisconsin crowds at the indoor contests have not in past years been as large as they should be. The meet will be close, with the outcome depending almost as much upon which team exhibits the most fight as upon the individual ability of the men.

Let's support the track team in its only indoor meet at home.

ON BEING LATE

ONE of the besetting sins of the race is the sin of being late. It would be interesting to compute even a small part of the mischief that is wrought every day by the straggler, the man who brings up the rear.

Napoleon thought Waterloo was lost because one of his chieftains came up late. Certainly, if Blucher had been a straggler the whole course of history might have been changed.

There seems to be no vice which society condones so much as the vice of tardiness. The theaters have largely surrendered to the tail-enders. If by chance a performance starts on time the first half-hour is made miserable by the shuffling and rubbing and sliding of those who regard promptness as the virtue of small minds. It is common for church services to be spoiled by the belated entry of the faithful. It is rare that such services start on time. Thus a vicious circle is established. "They never start on time" is the commonplace comment in regard to all public meetings.

Occasionally, as in the case of some concerts, the doors are shut when the performance finally starts. Then the stragglers rush in with an air of injured innocence.

There is no excuse for condoning this practice in the university. The few instructors who fight the evil are to be commended, the others deserve censure. Every student owes it to himself and to society to get the habit of promptness and keep it for the rest of his life.

THE FIVE HUNDRED

REPORTS show that the work on the exposition is now coming into full swing. The ready response of the 500 men and women who have assumed duty on the various committees has been gratifying.

Half the fight to make this exposition a success consists in the right kind of a start. The enthusiasm and spirit now evident show that the venture is starting strong.

The other half of the fight consists in keeping up the pace. There are elements of weakness as well as strength in the composition of the committee as a whole, not in personnel but by reason of size. There is the natural tendency to unwieldiness present in all large bodies. Then there is the tendency to weaken personal responsibility. The individual may suppose that after all his efforts will not count for much since there are 499 others on the job.

These dangers can easily be avoided by a realization of the nature of the situation in hand. The committee must be large because the task is large. The personal responsibility is present in a marked degree because the success of the exposition will depend on the excellency of details and every man and woman in the work is responsible for one or more important link in this chain of details.

The committeemen may well feel that theirs is the most important piece of work which the students have tackled this year and they are entitled to the sense of pride which comes with the knowledge of a worthy task well accomplished.

Trouble With Their Feet

Only 3 per cent of Wisconsin's co-eds wear "bad" shoes according to a survey made by the physical education department on the hill, University avenue, and State street, but 70.7 per cent of all freshmen and sophomore women taking corrective gymnasium work have trouble with their feet.

"We don't have to worry about the heels our girls wear," says Miss Louise Lippitt who has charge of the corrective work. "The hill soon convinces them that high heels are impossible. But we do have to fight for sensible toes. Hundreds of girls are suffering as the result of pointed shoes, shoes that were made for some one else's foot, or no foot at all."

Each year the department conducts a shoe drive for the purpose of helping girls combine comfort and style in choice of shoes. Local dealers cooperate by loaning displays of various makes, and report that as a result of the drive they find a greatly increased demand for sensible lasts.

WILL USE CAUTOL FOR ANNUAL BALL

tion by his secretary, Gov. John J. Blaine invited Cadet Col. J. Calvin Wolfe '21, general chairman of the ball, and Cadet Maj. Evrard C. Caluwaert '22, assistant general chairman as representatives of the cadet corps, to confer with him. At this time the difficulties facing the ball committee were set forth in detail.

Gov. Blaine Favors Plan

After the situation had been fully explained, Governor Blaine expressed himself as being heartily in sympathy with the plan of making the ball a real "Buddies' Get-together", an all-university function given in honor of the ex-service men. He promised to give the matter his most prompt and careful consideration.

In a letter received Wednesday by the general chairman of the ball, the governor, through his secretary, Harry Sauthoff, extended a cordial invitation to the university cadet corps to make full use of the State Capitol building for the 1921 Military ball.

Legislature Passes Resolution

Following the governor's invitation, a joint resolution was passed by the legislature, "granting the use of the assembly and senate chambers and parlors on Friday evening, April 8, 1921, to the cadet corps of the university for its ninth annual ball."

The resolution in full follows:

"Whereas, The cadet corps of the university of Wisconsin desire to hold their annual ball on Friday evening, April 8, 1921; and

RAILROADS TO SLASH WAGES

Sweeping Reduction is Contemplated by Officials

CHICAGO—Steps to bring about reductions in the wages of skilled employees probably would be taken by many railroads throughout the country so soon as adjustments can be made in the pay of unskilled workers, according to officials of the association of railway executives. Such reductions if made, will be handled individually by the various roads in the same manner that present announcements of cuts in pay for unskilled men now are being made, it was said, with no attempt at concerted or simultaneous action by the railroads.

NEW YORK—A general move by the nation's railroads to cut war-time wage scales, long forecast by rail officials, appeared to be in full swing today. Following the lead of several lines which earlier had announced cuts, the N. Y. Central and N. Y., New Haven and

Over 100 couples attended the Kommerce Kaper at the Park hotel last evening. The orchestra started the dance in a true Kommerce way, playing "Great Scott, Don't Bank on Us." This very successful selection was followed by "Elwell's Balanced Blues," and "The Statistical Stumble."

"Sunny" Ray and "Doc" Dorward entertained during the intermission. "Unny's" negro character songs were well acted and highly applauded. Dorward's sons were highly successful, especially "I Never Knew."

"TALK WISCONSIN"

SUGGESTS SPEAKER

"You are lucky to have an opportunity to get instruction at this wonderful institution—I'd rather be flunked at Wisconsin than get a diploma from any other university," said William Reese, advertising manager and director of sales of the Sterling Motor Truck Co., Milwaukee, by way of encouraging the university students and residents of the state to "talk Wisconsin," speaking at a student convocation held as part of the commerce week program, Thursday afternoon.

"We ought to be able to talk Wisconsin fully as well as the other fellows talk California or Texas. Four of the things we're proud of, our hens and our shes and our cheese and our peas," suggested Mr. Reese.

UNIVERSITY METHODIST

A series of Easter studies led by Attorney Frank W. Hall, upon the following themes, is announced beginning March 13: "The Trial of Jesus, From a Lawyer's Stand-point," March 20, Palm Sunday, "The Crucifixion, as Literature and as Religion," and Easter "The Resurrection, the Record and Why I Believe." These discussions of the Scripture will be held at Wesley hall, opposite the Chemistry building at 12 M. each Sunday. All students are invited.

NICOLAI DISCUSSES SERBIAN STRUGGLE

Bishop Tells of Country's Significant Position in European History

"It is wrong education-hard, materialistic teaching—which has been the cause of all the wars in the nineteenth century," said Bishop Nicolai, head of the Orthodox church of Serbia, in his lecture on "The Problems of Serbia," Thursday afternoon in 165 Bascom hall.

"Europe has always educated her people by theorizing," he said. "I have been glad to see that in America the young people are being taught not by theory, but by practice."

"Throughout the past century Europe has accused Serbia of continually making war. It is true—Serbia has been much at war, but it has been war for the sake of preserving her ideals and securing freedom from the Turkish tyrant. Today it is Europe who is making war, not for ideals, not for freedom, but for selfish commercial and economic interests. All the money America would give to stop the war could not do it, because the very spirit of Europe is wrong."

"To develop symmetrically, man must develop brain, heart, and will—all three. Europe has developed only brain."

Serbia Position Important
Bishop Nicolai gave a brief account of the history of his country during the past century, with its little triumphs, its little defeats, and its long suffering under the oppression of the Turks.

"Before the war there were 4,000,000 free men in Serbia. Today there are 13,000,000," he said. "Serbia's position is significant. She stands between Europe and Asia—between the civilization of the east, and that of the west. She will live or die as the spirit of Europe survives or falls."

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND

"The Kentucky Colonel," a screen version of Opie Reed's "best seller" of the same name is the feature attraction at the Grand today. Joseph H. Dowling, famous for his interpretation of the role of "The Patriarch" in "The Miracle Man" is seen as "the Colonel."

The story tells of two men, chums from boyhood, who are in love with the same girl. The Civil war breaks out, and they answer their country's call. One returns and marries the girl. And then the other, long supposed to be dead, comes back, war-worn and weary. Despite his keen disappointment he swears to devote his life toward making the couple happy. The action pilots the spectators through exciting scenes and climaxes. Mr. Dowling as the disappointed lover contributes a performance marked by dignity and poise.

Constance Talmadge will return to the Grand tomorrow in her new picture "Mamma's Affair."

AT THE FULLER

All who flocked yesterday, under the spell and magnetism of that master-adventurer of life and literature, Jack London, to the Fuller theater, where his "The Star Rover" is being shown for two more days, came expecting to see a truly sensational picture. They were not disappointed.

The last sentence says everything. The fact that a screen adaptation of this celebrated story was to be shown, acted as a lodestone to all who know or have heard of the vigorous, rich stories Jack London delighted his readers with during his lifetime. They were transported into the same world as the leading character—into the unseen star-world on the wings of the subconscious.

This is a thrilling, not-to-be-forgotten picture telling of young Dr. Hugh Standing, who dazedly picks up a fallen revolver in his theater box, and is promptly accused of the murder of a notorious political boss. To wrest a confession, the police subject him to torture, but instead his soul roves among the stars to the scenes of his past reincarnations. His fiancee is about to have

AT THE STRAND

As "Square" Kelly in "The Cradle of Courage" his newest Paramount picture, which will be seen at the Strand theater for the last times today, Mr. Hart depicts a man whose belief is that all cops are made to be deceived and that the law was made to be broken. He bears the proud distinction of being the best safe-cracker on the "coast." Through stress of circumstances he is reformed and goes out of the maelstrom as "Square" Kelly, now square in the actual sense of the word. In fact, he becomes one of the much hated fraternity, the police.

How he proves himself a man, despite his early training and past life, and wins the love of a girl who had the same environment and yet has gone through unscathed, forms a story that is extremely powerful as well as appealing.

CRUCIBLE CONDUCTS
FIRST OF FIRELIGHT
MEETINGS TONIGHT

Red Domino and Glee Club
Quartet Will Entertain

Readings by several members of Red Domino and selections of Glee club music by the men's quartet will constitute part of an exceptionally interesting program at firelight meeting tonight in Lathrop parlors, at 7:30.

Gladys Borchers '22, member of Red Domino and Wisconsin's first woman representative in the N. O. L. contest here last spring, will give a short reading from tragedy. The noted quartet of the Men's Glee club will sing several of their most popular songs, appearing for the last time before their annual tour of the state. The program will close in the form of a reading from "Neighbors," by Ruth Koppke '22, also a member of Red Domino.

Firelight meetings, which were instituted as informal get-togethers for faculty and students in the university are being resumed for the first time this year. Crucible, the honorary junior girls organization will conduct a series of these meetings every week for the rest of the year. A special meeting was held yesterday afternoon to complete the arrangements.

DEPARTMENT FILLS TEACHING POSITIONS

Practically all of the 630 university men and women who have received recommendations from the Department of Education last year are now holding positions as teachers. The department, which receives requests daily for both men and women teachers, is able to recommend persons to fill almost all demands.

It is often difficult to find persons capable of teaching various combinations of subjects. There are always plenty of candidates to supply the many requests received for teachers of mathematics and science because a Science major is almost always capable of teaching mathematics.

During the year 1920-21 there have been many requests for teachers of special subjects. Those most in demand are teachers of Science 275, Mathematics 154, English 184, Domestic Science 180. There have also been calls for 88 superintendents and principals.

"We are planning to make these meetings very informal," said Edith Royse '21, chairman. "Everyone is welcome, and we hope that new students will take advantage of this opportunity to get better acquainted."

The meeting, which starts at 7:30, will be over by 8:30 so that students who have later engagements may leave in plenty of time.

STUDENT AUTHORS SELL STORIES TO GOOD MAGAZINES

Three articles written by University of Wisconsin students are scheduled for early appearance in national publications. "Iceland the Wonderland," a highly illustrated five thousand word article by Earl Hanson, junior in the College of Engineering, will be published in the National Geographic magazine. Hanson, accompanied by Bjorne Bjornson of Iceland, also a student in the College of Engineering, shipped to the island as common seaman last summer and spent several months there. He has just returned for the second semester. Many of his narrative stories have appeared in the Wisconsin Literary magazine. He has been commissioned by the National Geographic society to write a second article on the Faroe Islands, which were visited going to and returning from Iceland.

"Ahe You Going Back?—France's Call to her War-time Students," by J. Stuart Hamilton has been accepted by The Collegiate World, an inter-college publication in Chicago. Hamilton, who is a junior in the Course in Journalism, spent from June to November at the universities of Paris and Bordeaux, and tells of the new welcoming spirit toward American which he found there. He has also written an article on "Andy's Honor System," explaining the news-stand system of Madison, for the American Boy.
