The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, key of D major. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes and chords, while the left hand provides a steady bass line. The piece concludes with a ffz (fortissimo forzando) dynamic marking.

Now there's a place I know, It's al-ways on the go, Where they
And when you're feel-ing blue, Just don't know what to do, And your

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the grand staff. The piano part continues with a similar rhythmic pattern to the introduction.

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a final chord in the right hand and a sustained bass note in the left hand.

CHORUS

S - H - E - B - O - Y - G - A - N, ————— That's the town that I long to be in.

— I like the folks up there — and noth - ing can com - pare — With that smash-in', dash-in' good old-fash-ioned town, Say It's a bear, I've been 'round, all a-round, ev-'ry - where, — And I've found lots of folks on the square. — But there's a place I know I al-ways like to go, S - H - E - B - O - Y - G - A - N. S - H - N.
