PROM CHAIRMAN DENIES HE HAS ASKED PARTNER

Reports of Choice Are False, Declares Gordon Wanzer

Despite rumors to the contrary which flooded the campus yesterday, no prom queen has been chosen, Gordon B. Wanzer, prom chairman, said last night.

The rumors were started by a story in an early edition of a Milwaukee paper which said that a choice had already been made and the prom queen had been announced. Later editions of a Madison paper also carried the story.

"There is no foundation for the story, whatsoever," Wanzer said. "I have not made up my mind yet. There are a number of correspondents about the campus who have been anxious to announce the selection and who have been after me right along. One of them decided that he would accept one of the most prevalent 'hunch' as truth and announce the queen. I didn't know of it at all until I saw it in the paper."

Newspaper selection of the prom queen would be strenuously opposed Wanzer said. An attempt to discover the identity of the person who sent the story to Milwaukee will be made.

"I don't know when the queen will be announced," Wanzer said. "I don't want to be rushed in considering it and the papers are trying to rush me. I have many friends who are helping me in making the choice and I want to make sure I have the help and opinions of all of them before I act."

COACHES SPEAK AT MEETING OF TRACK SQUADS

The trophy room of the gymnasium was filled to capacity last night when the first general meeting of all freshmen and Varsity track men was held.

The purpose of the meeting was to get together all men on the present and future track teams to give them a general idea of the work to be done before the beginning of the competitive season on February 12 when the first indoor meet will be held.

Athletic Director T. E. Jones talked to the men, and impressed upon them the necessity of training consistently and keeping the proper Wisconsin spirit throughout the season. He also told of the hard schedule which Wisconsin faces for the season and the necessity of having several men available for each event in case of sickness or accident to any of the men.

Coach Meade Burke talked to the men on the question of eligibility. "The principal thing to give attention to for the remainder of the semester is eligibility," he said. "If the men get and stay eligible we will have a team which should equal those of several years ago when it was common for Wisconsin to come out on top."

Captain Ralph Spetz urged the men to give much time and consideration to their particular events.

"It takes many years to learn to run or to jump," said Spetz. "The more a man studies and practices his event the better he will be."

Lauder to Be Guest of Rotary Club During Stay

Sir Harry Lauder, Scotch singer, who is to play at the Parkway this afternoon and evening, will be the guest of the Rotary club, of which he is a member, during his stay in Madison.

A special quartet and several other features have been arranged in Sir Harry's honor according to William Meuer, social chairman of the club.

Mr. Lauder will arrive in Madison about noon today.

Sale of Christmas Seals Reaches Total of $200

The annual sale of Christmas seals this year has brought in a total of $200 so far. The stamps put on sale numbered 100,000 and a return of at least $700 is expected, according to Arlene Kling '24, who is in charge of the drive.

Through the members of the S. G. A. board the stamps have been sold in the women's rooming houses, dormitories and sorority houses. Stamps were also sent to the men's rooming houses and the fraternity houses.

The faculty is to be solicited this week by the members of the sophomore commission of the Y. W. C. A.

Solicitors are asked to turn in all their respective receipts and seals on Friday at the latest. This may be done in the S. G. A. room between 11 a. m. and 6 p. m.

TO RESTRICT UNION DANCES

Students Must Be Identified, According to New Ruling

Students must hereafter be identified before entering any dance held under the auspices of Union Board, it was decided yesterday.

This action was found necessary in order to keep the functions from being classified as public dances as defined in an ordinance passed by the city council last summer. According to the ordinance, a public dance is a dance where anyone can gain entrance by the payment of an admission. Furthermore it calls for the publication of every public dance a week before the date upon which it is to be held.

"Besides eliminating the dances from being classed as public dances, this action assures us of having exclusive student parties at Lathrop parlors," declared Oscar Sander '24, in charge of dances. "Persons who are not regularly registered students will not be admitted to these dances hereafter, and are warned not to come."

The "Serenade Quartet", composed of Marty Below, Russel Irish, Jack Cornelius, and Bobby Costello, will give a song and dance act at the parties held at Lathrop parlors Friday and Saturday nights of this week-end. The Quartet appeared in the Haresfoot Follies, December 2. This strikes something new in features held in connection with Lathrop parlor dances.

A special Thompson orchestra will play at both dances.

Dr. Ozora Davis Speaks Tonight in Music Hall

Dr. Ozora Davis, president of the Chicago Theological seminary, will speak at Music hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight on "The Reality of Religion." The lecture is open to the public under the sponsorship of the Campus Religious council. Rev. J. E. Sarles, Congregational student pastor, declared that Dr. Davis is highly recommended as an orator and is in great demand as a lecturer to students throughout the country.

Point System Will Be Discussed By Keystone

Keystone will hold its regular fortnightly meeting at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon at Lathrop hall. The first part of the meeting will be a discussion of the point system which the organization is trying to revise. An hour will be devoted to Parliamentary drill.

Not to Sell Students Copies of New Directory

The corrected copies of the student and faculty directories that were discussed yesterday morning are not for student distribution. This edition is intended only for university professors, instructors, and administrative officers, but twenty-five hundred copies having been ordered. The number is so limited that there are no copies for sale.

It promotes, especially, education as a profession and encourages the principles underlying American public-education. There are 23 chapters of the fraternity in existence at various universities throughout the United States.

Members of the university faculty belonging to Phi Delta Kappa are V. A. C. Henmon, F. L. Clapp, P. W. West, T. L. Jones, M. V. O'Shea, E. M. Tiffany, W. L. Uhl, H. L. Miller, W. J. Chase, S. A. Leonard, and F. A. Fitzpatrick.

Of the 13 men who are to be initiated Saturday only one is a junior, five are seniors, and six are graduate students. The initiates include George Baird '24, John A. Clark '23, Elmer Dunkel '23, Albert Elsner '23, Courtney Sherman '23, Ernest Weinke '23, LeRoy Glass, grad, Raymond James, grad, James Jackson, grad, Robert McConnell, grad, Martin Nelson, grad, and Herbert Olander, grad.

Pledges of Sigma Delta Chi journalistic fraternity have been placed in charge of the publication and distribution of the annual Sigma Delta Chi Prom Cardinal, to be issued at midnight, February 2, 1923.

The staff: Board of editors Joseph F. Lawler '24, manager; H. Eugene Alleman '24, Porter F. Butts '24, Harold F. Diehm '23, Harold R. Maier '24, and Oscar N. Riegel '24.

Circulation — Ralph E. Ammon '23, manager, Horace B. Powell '23, and Roswell H. Stinchfield '23.

The staff will meet at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Cardinal office in the Union building to make plans for the special souvenir Prom edition.

Miss Bilstad was chosen by a general committee composed of seniors. The conference will consist of both men and women who have recently broken away from the Canadian Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Senior Class Executive Committee Meets Friday

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the senior class Friday afternoon when the senior committees will be appointed, according to Rollie Williams, president of the class.

WEATHER: SNOW

Snow today and tomorrow, with warmer weather tomorrow is predicted for Madison and vicinity. Colder weather will return by tomorrow night. The highest temperature yesterday was 15 degrees above zero, and the lowest was 1 above.

Prof. Benny Snow Gives Snowflake Talk Today

Today Prof. "Benny" Snow gives his famous "Snowflake" lecture at 4:30 o'clock in the auditorium of Sterling hall.

For more than 20 years this lecture has been given for the public. The audience is always composed, for the most part, of students—students who probably never before have attended a lecture that they did not have to, until now, "Benny" Snow's "Snowflake" lecture has become a veritable Wisconsin tradition.

The lecture is illustrated by a collection of slides, some of which date back to the first "Snowflake" lecture. The photographs were made by Mr. W. A. Bently, who each year adds to the group. Mr. Bently's collection, and that belonging to the university, are as large as any of their kind in the world, and are, consequently, very valuable.

NON-FRAT MEN MEET TONIGHT

Arrangement Body to Provide Good Time For Prom

A meeting for all non-fraternity men who wish to organize prom parties will be held at 7 o'clock tonight at the Y. M. C. A., Charles V. Gary, chairman of the men's arrangements committee, announced yesterday.

An attempt to surpass the attendance of non-fraternity men at other proms will be made this year, Gary said. Complete arrangements for pre and post prom activities will be made for the various groups.

"We hope to convince the men at the meeting tonight that what was said at earlier dates in reference to making this a thoroughly enjoyable prom for non-fraternity men is going to be carried out. The men's arrangements committee is organized for this special purpose. It will organize groups into parties of suitable size, get rooms for friends of any of the men who will come from other cities, arrange for boxes which will be suitable to the parties, plan pre and post prom functions and assure the men of a good time generally," Gary explained.

"Arrangements for the parties must be complete by the first week after Christmas," Wilber Wittenberg, assistant general chairman, supervising the work of the men's arrangements committee said. "We will provide for those who cannot attend the meeting also if they will accommodate with Gary at F-190 or Ned Dodge at B-4100."

A system to check the expenditures of prom committees and to protect merchants who will be besieged by prom workers for needed materials has been devised by John D. Blossom, finance chairman.

"The idea is to warn the merchants not to make sales to prom workers unless they are shown a requisition blank which is to cover the order," Blossom said. "Blanks are to be issued by Wanzer and myself and to be valid must hold the signature of one of us. We have devised this scheme mostly to keep accurate check of all expenditures.

In addition to the requisition blanks, the committee will issue expense tickets. These are to be used by prom workers upon occasion of unexpected expenditures such as telegrams, telephones, or stamps.

VARSIETY SHOWS POORLY IN TILT WITH FRESHMEN

Ragged Team-work Displayed in Practice Game

Ragged patches of playing which were sandwiched in between a few brilliant flashes marked Varsity's showing last night in its last hard practice with the freshman five, before the Butler game to be held here Friday night. Although the regulars walloped the yearlings by a 28 to 8 score, their work was far from satisfactory.

Poor passing, "traveling" with the ball, failure to count easy tries for the net, and lack of a concerted drive augured ill for the Badgers season against Pat Paige's Butler team.

The Varsity defense has tightened up until opposing forwards find it almost impossible to break through for a short shot at the basket. With Capt. Gus Tebell and Rollie Williams in back territory and the remainder of the quintet arranged in a formidable formation, the Badger team had little difficulty in holding the frosh from their goal. Coach Harper's men counted four points in each half, the score at the end of the first period being 18 to 4.

Leslie Gage continues to be the scoring star of the outfit. Gage is able to work through opponents' defense and get clear for tries at the basket. His shots rarely miss the mark. In addition to being an accurate shot, he plays a sterling floor game and is a main cog in marches down the court. He makes free throws consistently, and this ability will be necessary when the Badgers stack up against Michigan and Purdue in games where every point will count.

Ken Elsom in his first year of Varsity basketball, is erratic. At times, he appears to have an uncanny eye for the basket, while on other occasions, he is unable to locate the net with a fair degree of success. Elsom "travels" with the sphere, and his passing is often poor. Barwig is giving him a tough battle for the forward position opposite Gage.

Rollie Williams showed flashes of speed last night, but his throwing also slows up the Varsity offense when it approaches the basket.

Tickets for the Butler college game to be played tomorrow night will be on sale again this afternoon from 12:30 to 6 o'clock.

Coach Pat Paige, assistant coach Paul Hinkle, both former Chicago men, and the Butler squad are booked to arrive in Madison tomorrow. The collegians will work

FROSH TO HEAR DEAN NARDIN

Convocation For First Year
Women Scheduled
Jan. 8

Dean F. Louise Nardin will be the speaker at a convocation for freshmen women to be held January 8, 1923, in Lathrop parlors, according to an announcement by Lois Jacobs '24, chairman of the Women's Vocational Conference committee.

The primary purpose of this convocation will be to aid freshmen women in selecting their subjects for next semester's program," said Miss Jacobs. "Dean Nardin will tell the women just why it is advisable, and practically necessary, to choose one's major before the end of the freshman year."

Many students enter the university with no definite major in view, and no idea as to what vocation they wish to take up after graduation. It is these students which the vocational conference desires to assist, through the convocations, discussion groups with prominent employers and professors and by the maintenance of the vocational library in Dean Clara B. Flett's office at Lathrop hall.

Special fields for women which are not generally known on the campus will be discussed by Dean Nardin, and the requirements for such courses outlined.

Next semester's programs are to be made out sooner than in former years, and for this reason the convocation will be held on the Monday following the Christmas recess. Heads of the various departments are working with Dean Nardin by suggesting subjects necessary for degrees in their courses.

TO RECONSIDER BIG TEN'S PART IN TRACK MEET

To reconsider the previous recommendation that Big Ten athletes should not participate in the national collegiate track and field meet at Stagg field on the third Saturday of June, faculty representatives of the western conference colleges will meet at a special session, called by Prof. Ralph W. Aigler of Michigan, chairman of the faculty committee in Chicago Saturday.

Severe criticism has been made by the college men of the conference condemning the faculty committee for failing to support the meet which is expected to develop into the greatest in the country. Some faculty members of the committee have admitted that a mistake was probably made at the Dec. 2 meeting and are willing to reconsider the recommendation made then and try to take some definite action concerning the Big Ten conference outdoor meet to be held at Michigan this year. Possibly the outdoor meet will be limited to Big Ten institutions only, as the indoor meet already is closed. Officials of the only two meets in the country, the eastern intercollegiate and the western conference, attempted unsuccessfully to organize a national meet. Now there are at least thirty meets in the country, making a national meet seem the logical outcome for track sports. Soon a national meet will be looked upon as a necessity.

Madison Orchestra to Play at Oshkosh Dance

Thompson's orchestra has been engaged to play for the Memorial Union dance which will be held at the Century clubrooms in Oshkosh on December 26.

"So far no features have been arranged for," said Morris A. Bell '25, who is in charge of the dance, "but the music itself very likely will be one of the main features."

While the ticket sale has not been completed, it is estimated that about 100 couples will attend. Publicity for the event is being handled by the Oshkosh papers.

Neal H. MacNichol '26, is assisting with the arrangements.

Sales of Christmas Octi Reach 3,000 Yesterday

More than 3,300 copies of the Christmas number of the Octopus were sold yesterday and sales are continuing in drug stores which have the magazine.

"The hill sales were better this month than they have been for any other month of the year," Willard Kirchner, circulation manager, said last night.

OFFER SPECIAL SENIOR COURSE

"Advanced Reporting" is Title of Two Credit
Subject

"Advanced Reporting" is the title of a new two-credit course open to second semester senior majors in the Course in Journalism during the next semester, according to a report issued by Prof. Grant M. Hyde last night.

This experimental course has grown out of plans on the part of Prof. W. G. Bleyer and professor Hyde to offer senior journalists some practical reporting experience directly before they are ready to take positions as cub reporters in actual newspaper work. Prof. H. E. Birdsong will direct the course.

Mr. Hyde aims to have "Advanced Reporting" preparatory towards fitting the student reporter most advantageously for a job after graduation.

In a course of this nature, with an approximate enrollment of 35 students, we will be able to offer opportunities for a great deal more specialization and finish in the finer points of reporting. Since the average graduate starts out as a cub reporter, this course is prepared to give him more extensive practice in the actual news gathering and familiarity with runs and news sources." Professor Hyde said.

It is impossible to supply such experience in the present sophomore course in reporting, where emphasis is laid on the actual news writing of certain limited types of stories, and in which, due to the large enrollment and the students' unfamiliarity with the subject, it is impossible to supply the greater chances for initiative, longer and more regular assignments, and actual personal supervision under the city editors of the local newspapers. The papers of Madison are in close sympathy with an advanced course, and will supply perfect cooperation in the work," Professor Hyde explained.

At the present time there are 540 students enrolled in the 8 courses offered in the Course in Journalism. Three hundred of these are Journalism majors.

Association Calls For Help From Fraternities

All fraternities and sororities having any old clothes or articles that might be suitable for Christmas baskets are asked by Miss Davis of the Public Welfare Association to send them to the Public Welfare House at 22 N. Hancock St. These baskets, which will be sent out on Christmas day, will contain not only toys, and gifts but also Christmas dinners. Miss Davis asks the student to send those things which might no longer be of any use to them, but which would bring happiness and the spirit of Christmas into some Madison home.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

FIRST BASEBALL CALL ISSUED BY COACH LOWMAN

Loss of 1922 Stars Makes Present Outlook Doubtful

With the first call for baseball candidates issued by Coach Guy Lowman, for next Monday, sport writers are beginning to come out of the depths of football and wonder what will happen to Wisconsin when it lines up for the first Conference game next spring.

At the present time little can be said about the prospects for next year's team. It is only after the end of the first semester that coaches are able to find out who are eligible to play.

Star Players Gone

Handicapped by the loss of his star players, Coach Lowman will face a most serious problem in finding material to develop into pitchers, catchers and hitters.

The loss of Capt. "Paddy" Paddock was one of the worst blows dealt to the ball swatters. Paddock was one of the most reliable hurlers in the Big Ten and by his graduation a tremendous hole has been left in the pitching department of the game. Barry, who received all of Paddock's throws has not returned to school and consequently the problem of finding an entire new battery has to be solved by Coach Lowman.

Lose "Rowdy" Elliott

"Rowdy" Elliott, leading batter of the Conference graduated and the loss of his numerous homeruns will be keenly felt.

Jack Williams at first base and third leading batter on last year's team will create another hole that will be hard to fill. "Duke" Caesar the dependable center fielder graduated and only adds more worry in the mind of Coach Lowman.

Ruediger, captain of this year's team, Combacker, "Rolie" Williams and Dugan will compose the nucleus on which Coach Lowman will build his team this year.

Batters Start Soon

The call for candidates which has been issued for Monday is the first opportunity which the baseball men have had to get together this year.

"This call," declared Coach Guy Lowman yesterday, "is merely to give me a chance to get a tentative line-up on the possible material for this year's team. I will send the pitchers and catchers to the annex to start training immediately after the holidays, but the rest of the squad will not be called until a week after the beginning of the second semester."

Negotiations are now going on with colleges and universities in the south in an effort to fill up the Badger schedule for the spring training trip. Although nothing definite has been arranged as yet the athletic council has given permission for the team to go south on a practice tour before the official opening of the Western Conference schedule.

"Little Five" to Permit Pro Baseball in Summer

At a meeting in Milwaukee of representatives of the normal schools of the state and of the "Little Five" colleges it was decided that summer baseball for money would be permitted.

The "Little Five" colleges are: Beloit, Carroll, Ripon, Lawrence and Northwestern. While athletes will be permitted to play football, basketball or to be on the track team, they will be barred from baseball. Paul Carlson, faculty athletic members of Whitewater Normal school said that the session favored the amateur and ruled out the professional.

The eligibility rules of the "Little Five" will be adopted by the normal schools and applied to all contests between numbers of the two associations. Men who play on "pro" football or basket ball teams will be barred from participation in all sports of the colleges and normals as will the men who play in games where admission is charged other than college or alumni contests. A college-normal interconference is planned for a meeting to be held in January.

PHI SIGS LOSE TO DELTA SIGMA PHIS

In one of the hardest-fought games of the early schedule, Delta Sigma Phi defeated the Phi Psi basketball team, 15 to 11, last night. The game was one of three played in the interfraternity league.

Farm House succeeded in winning an 8 to 4 victory over the Alpha Chi Rho outfit in another tough battle. Sigma Phi Epsilon had a walkway with the Phi Delt. The final score was 17 to 2.

Alpha Sigma Phi and Alpha Gamma Rho won their games on Tuesday night. The Alpha Sigs nosed out Sigma Phi, 12 to 10. Alpha Gamma Rho had an easy time with the Tekes, winning by a 20 to 8 count.

Nine games are scheduled in the league tonight.

PHI SIGS KEEP BOWLING LEAD

Retain Position By Defeating A. T. O.'s 2 Out of 3 Games

In the first division of the fraternity bowling league the strong Phi Sig team is still holding first place. They successfully held their lead by defeating the A. T. O. aggregation 2 games out of three last Tuesday night. The Sig Phi Eps jumped up into second place by taking three games from Delta Chi. The Alpha Sigs are now in third place. There were also some changes in the rating of the tail-enders of the first division.

Some of the best men in the league who are helping to pull up the average of their teams are Long of the Triangles, Knutson and Kelly on the Phi Sig team, Brine who bowls for the Phi Gams, and Sanderson, an Alpha Sig. Rang of the Tekes is high man in the league with 243.

The Tekes also have the high games so far with 931. The highest single total goes to Bryson, who bowled 601 for the Betas. The high team total has been topped by the Sig Phi Eps with 2685 for their high score.

The tournament has three weeks to run yet. Although the Phi Sigs are still leading they can be knocked off their top perch.

COUNCIL NOT TO RUSH IN NAMING GRIDIRON COACH

Sufficient Time to Study Available Men, Says Jones

The University of Wisconsin athletic council will take its time in selecting a head football coach to succeed John R. Richards, whose recent resignation came as a complete surprise to athletic authorities here.

"We have nine months in which to select a mentor," Athletic Director Thomas E. Jones said yesterday, "and we do not intend to rush matters."

The athletic council will make a thorough study of possibilities before it recommends a new coach to the board of regents, which either accepts or rejects the council's recommendation.

Alumni Favor Rockne

Although dopes are picking every coach in the country to come to Wisconsin, it is unlikely that their choices will be the choice of the athletic council. Wisconsin alumni in Chicago are said to favor Knute Rockne. Cub Buck has been named by many, but the fact that he is a professional player and a line coach mainly make it improbable he will be selected. Jack Wilce, Bob Zuppke, Gene Van Gent who succeeded Richards, and other Badger graduates are being mentioned.

The athletic council has the right to refuse Richards' resignation and ask him to reconsider. In case this should happen, "Big John" would hardly be able to resist the "call" of football and would probably be directing his teams on Camp Randall for another year.

Lowman Defeated Ohio State

Coach Guy S. Lowman, assistant athletic director and baseball coach, is as well versed in the ins and outs of football as any man in the country. Lowman scouts for Wisconsin during the football season and his uncanny knack of analyzing opponents' formations and styles of play has made him invaluable to Wisconsin gridiron teams.

Coach Lowman directed Badger fortunes on the grid in the S. A. T. C. year 1918. With a team composed mainly of thirdraters, he defeated Ohio State, 14 to 3, the last time a Wisconsin team turned the trick, and held Minnesota to a 6 to 0 score. His eleven hung up a creditable record in that year.

That Wisconsin will attempt to procure an all-year-round coach, in case Richards has really retired, is the consensus of those "in the know". All Big Ten institutions have their football coach instructed throughout the entire year.

COACH CALLS FOR HOCKEY MATERIAL

Candidates for the Varsity hockey team are already skating to condition themselves for the season and a call for all men who desire to try out for the squad was issued yesterday by Coach A. K. Viner.

The meeting will be held at 6:30 this evening in the gymnasium. With Captain Howard Combacker Blodgett, Tommy Tredwell, and other members of the 1921-22 outfit back on the job, Viner will have a number of veterans around which he can build his team.

An ice rink will be prepared on the lower campus during the holiday vacation. Practise games are to be arranged before the team swings into action against Minnesota and Michigan, its two Big Ten opponents.

out in the afternoon for a few minutes.

Butler has one of the strongest college teams in the Middle West. The same quintet that beat Wisconsin last year has returned for this season, with several additions to strengthen the squad. Pat Paige sent his men against the Indianapolis Omars, a team composed of ex-college players, recently. Butler lost to the Omars, but ran its score up into the 30's.

Badger fans will have an opportunity to see Haldeen Griggs, famous football player, in action. Griggs plays center on the basketball quintet and is a member of the backfield in football. Because of his remarkable work on the gridiron during the past season, he received honorable mention on All-Western and All-American teams.

The freshman Varsity teams which scrimmaged before 350 fans last night were: Varsity-forwards, Gage, F. son, Barwig, Bareis; centers, Gilson, Wackman; guards, Capt. Tebell, Williams.

Freshmen—forwards, Merkle, Olson, Martinez, Scheer, McCarthy; centers, Wernecke, Skoaglund; guards, Christoff, Meyers, Christianson.

15 TEAMS TO RUN IN MEET

Inter-Fraternity Competition Expected to Be Keen

More than 15 fraternity track teams will lock horns in the annual inter-fraternity track meet to be held in the gym annex next Saturday afternoon. The meet will be held at 2 o'clock and will be open to all who wish to attend.

The fact that competition will be no less keen this year than it has been in other years is evident by the way the teams are practicing for the event. The annex is being worked to capacity every night by the Greek letter men.

The Pi Kappa Alpha team, which won the meet last year, is entered again for the meet Saturday and is expected to show some of the class of the meet. Many of the men on the winning team last year are still in school and will work hard to cap first place again.

The Sigma Nu team, winner of second place in the 1921 meet, has also signed up for this year's meet. They also have many good men remaining from last year and are expected to make a high score.

Alpha Gamma Rho is out to better its last year's showing when it took third place.

The meet is one of the big fraternity events of the year, and there is bound to be some keen rivalry displayed among the teams.

Coach Richards has been at a disadvantage, for he has attempted to do in three months what other coaches do in a year.

The athletic council will not hurry in its choice of a mentor. Meanwhile the dopes are merrily on their way picking coaches here and there with apparent discrimination.

MAROON MENTOR WORKS FLOOR MEN

Coach Nels Norgren of the University of Chicago has been putting his basket ball men through fast scrimmage, and has tried out several new combinations.

Likely material for guards and forwards is being watched by the coach. The more noteworthy applicants for the former positions are Duggan, Wiess, Barns, and Gowdy have been showing up particularly well. Barns was out of the scrimmage with a sore foot.

Material for forwards is supplied in Dickson, Balthachett, Howells, and Frida. Frida, who is somewhat slow, has speeded up his game considerably since the beginning of practice, and has developed a fine sense of aim in tossing baskets.

Dickson, a veteran "C" man, is sure to have one of the forward positions as soon as he recovers from football injuries.

It is said that Captain George Yardley, mainstay at center, is the star performer of the quintet. Joe Smid is an able understudy of Yardley.

VOTE YES

THE rushing rules committee of the Interfraternity conference awaits the answer of the several chapters on the question of deferred rushing. Its hands are tied until the opinions of the various fraternities are expressed.

It is to be hoped that the answers will be speedily forthcoming and that they will be favorable.

Postponement of rushing would work on the fraternities no hardships in any way comparable to the inconvenience and expense early to Madison. If coupled with a watertight body of rules efficiently enforced, it would aid considerably in bringing about fair and sane rushing.

A favorable vote on the proposed postponement in no way binds a chapter to vote for the rules which will be later drafted. It will merely give the committee a basis for further work.

The vote should be favorable.

DR. OZORA DAVIS

DR. Ozora Davis will speak tonight at Music hall on "The Reality of Religion." Students who fight shy of matters bearing on religion need have no fear of dullness in hearing Dr. Davis. They will not be bored with conventional sermonizing or vague and involved dogma. They will hear religion discussed as it applies to them. They will hear it treated as a reality.

Dr. Davis knows students. He does not preach from misty mountain tops of abstract philosophy. He meets young men and women on their own ground and talks to them in their own language.

He is peculiarly fitted to take part in student religious work. He is president of a great theological school, which gives him a broad background and deep foundation in the religion of Christianity. He can adapt himself to audiences which are concerned less with the theory and more with the reality and actuality of religion.

To many students religion is not a perpetual motion machine to be conjectured upon and which operates only in the mind of its conceiv'er. Religion to most is like an actually running machine trying to fulfill its purpose in reality and not in abstractions. Dr. Davis' work in the Campus Religious council is toward the perfecting of that machine.

Dr. Davis is a man much in demand by universities and organizations all over the country. Wisconsin is extremely fortunate in being able to hear him and his message on the reality of religion.

GREASE JOINTS

THE increase in hash houses along State street is not pleasant to most of those who pass them by. At least it is disturbing to our olfactory sense. In traversing the region of the restaurants one's appetite is very nearly satiated by smells.

This odiferous advertisement of the onion and other pungent products of the commissariat is, we presume, a necessary evil; man cannot live by bread alone. It is also a reminder. It is convincing evidence of the demand for restaurant food, convincing evidence that the number who must eat in restaurants is increasing.

The rushing committees of the interfraternity conference and of Panhellenic association are doing active work.

We would like to see more active work on the part of the committees for the encouragement and organization of new fraternities and sororities.

Let's have fewer grease joints and more Greek houses.

SMOKE NUISANCE

CHICAGO has nothing on the Latin quarter so far as the smoke nuisance is concerned. The occupants of several houses in the student section persist in showering their neighbors with soot.

Students open their windows at night to breathe freast air mingled with coal gas and carbon and awake in the morning to find their personal effects buried in an ash pile.

Madison, of course, has laws limiting the use of soft coal in residence sections and complaint to the health authorities might bring some relief. But a false standard of courtesy and good feeling inhibits the process of complaint.

A true standard of courtesy and good feeling would inhibit the process of burning soft coal.

Orchestra Gives Varied Program at Music Hall

By LOIS COLE

A varied and delightful program was presented last night by the University orchestra at Music hall auditorium.

The program opened with an effective rendition of Mendelssohn's Festival march, which was followed by the fantastic overture to "Midsummer Night's Dream", also by Mendelssohn. Both selections were characterized by the beauty and virve which are noticeable in all of this great composer's orchestral compositions.

The string numbers of the orchestra played together Loeschorn's "Evening Rest". This selection, without the wind instruments or drums, was an attractive contrast to the other numbers on the program. Miss Erma Duncan, mezzo-soprano, sang "A Song of Thanksgiving" by Allitsen, with orchestra accompaniment. The song had been arranged to blend with Miss Duncan's voice, and was a distinctive number of the program. Miss Duncan responded to applause with an encore.

The prelude to the fifth act of "King Manfred" by Reinecke was followed by the Morning from "Peer Gynt" suite, by Greig.

The march from the Symphony "Lenore", by Raff, and the Overture to the opera "The Merry Wives of Windsor" by Nicolai closed the program.

Professor Lauds December Issue of Commerce Mag

"I should regard it as a misfortune for any student on the campus interested in any way in business to fail to read the December Commerce Magazine", was the comment of Prof. C. L. Jamison upon reading the copy of the magazine which goes on sale this morning.

B. Olney Hough, editor of American Exporter and author of several books on exporting, has written an article especially for the Commerce Magazine on "Exporting as a Career for College Men". While cautioning students that there is no easy path to success in exporting, he shows that exporting presents a most fascinating and profitable field for the college graduate.

"Impressions of a Greenhorn Prince of Commerce" written by a prominent Wisconsin senior of last year relative to his first views of the business world and his memories of Wisconsin, is one of the features of the issue.

Miss Ethel Scully secretary-treasurer of Morris Fox and company and probably the highest salaried business woman in the state, has contributed an article entitled "Where Do I Belong?", a discussion of the opportunities for college students in the investment field.

URGES BETTER RURAL SCHOOLS

Professor M. N. O'Shea Suggests Improvements in Country Districts

That the first matter to be brought before the state legislature this next session should be that of establishing community rural schools in place of the present one-room school houses is the opinion of Prof. M. V. O'Shea, of the department of education, as he stated it after reviewing the suggestions made recently by the state board of education.

Rural school education in Wisconsin is far behind urban education," said Prof. O'Shea, "mainly because we still have the one-room dislocated rural school, except in a very few places in which district schools have been consolidated into graded schools."

"We ought to move vigorously into a program of consolidation of rural school to provide modern educational facilities for country children."

"Unless we can eliminate this type of school there will be a continually widening gulf between urban and rural education, and we will establish a peasant class and an urban class in American society."

In regard to the creation of a capital fund, the income of which shall be devoted to the maintenance of rural high schools, and in commenting upon direct state aid for such purposes, he said:

"In order to secure high schools and community schools in the farming districts, the communities must have state aid. The establishment of a capital fund would be a very great benefit to the educational system in Wisconsin. We must have high schools within the reach of all pupils."

"Some states have built dormitories adjoining community schools so that the rural pupils can be accommodated. In Colorado the parents may come and live with their children near the community schools. Some such plan is desirable in certain sections of Wisconsin."

Professor O'Shea also approved the suggestion made by the state school board that every high school should have at least five teachers in order that a modern program can be offered the pupils.

"Teachers who offer themselves to instruct in any subject whatsoever in the curriculum have no place in a modern high school," he concluded.

GORDON WILL HOLD MEET IN SUPERIOR

Professor E. B. Gordon of the Extension bureau of community development assisted by Dr. J. C. Elsom of the Physical education department and Miss Emily Elmore formerly of the woman's physical education department, will hold his next recreational institute in Superior on January 26-27.

Professor Gordon aims to develop potential leaders by demonstrating the need for community organization and aiding the people in organizing. Instructions are to be given to the people on song leadership, folk games, group games, mixer stunts, social gatherings and amateur dramatics.

Mr. Gordon's secretary states that he has aided in the advancement of education in rural communities by his recreational institutes and hopes to achieve more at Superior next month than he has at any previous time.

Northwestern Students Give $2,000 to Russians

Northwestern university students have pledged the money, ordinarily devoted to the usual semester dance to a provision kitchen to supply food for the unfortunate Russian students this winter. Girls pledged the price of their admission, and the men the amount of what they would have spent for tickets, taxicabs and the like. As a result of their efforts, Miss Marthetta Vance, Pan-Hellenic president, and Ray Bond, chairman of the committee, placed a check for $2,000 in the hands of Prof. Franklyn Bliss, faculty committee man, Tuesday.

1922 COMMERCE GRADS HOLDING GOOD POSITIONS

Many graduates from the Commerce course last spring now are holding good positions in various parts of the country, according to department records in the commerce department show the present location of approximately 100 of the 187 graduates. Sixty-two are holding jobs in business and manufacturing concerns, 28 are continuing with college work and 10 are in the teaching profession.

Students holding important positions are E. H. Myrlan, assistant manager of the Chicago hotel, Chicago, Ill.; Reginald Garstang, secretary and treasurer of Julius Walke company, retail jewelers, Indianapolis; Philip Lawson and G. C. Orvis, National Cash Register company, Dayton, Ohio; Ruth Lindstrom, secretary Northwestern Life Insurance company, Milwaukee; H. C. Duecker, Phoenix Knitting company, Milwaukee; Joseph Coleman, Reo Automobile company, Lansing, Mich.; and P. T. Tobey, Holeproof Hosiery company. The course in commerce places many of its graduates in good positions each year.

Those who are teaching school are chiefly in high schools.

STUDENT CHOIR TO SING NEXT MONDAY

The ninth annual Christmas concert of the Methodist student vestry choir will be held at the University Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening instead of the regular meeting of the Wesley Forum.

Prof. Lowell L. Townsend, of the School of Music and director of the choir, asserts that a program surpassing all previous ones is being planned. Though the program has not been announced yet, it will include Tschaikowsky's "Hymn to the Trinity," Mathews' Cantata, "The Story of Christmas" and others equally well known.

For nine years the Methodist student choir has sung in various churches of Madison, in numerous concerts and has taken trips to cities throughout Wisconsin. Last week the choir made a trip to Oregon. Two members of the choir, John Irwin and Earl Stevers, are in charge of smaller choirs in Madison. Chris Hendra '23, is president and Josephine Bemis, secretary.

Association Recommends Texts By Wisconsin Men

Four of the eight text books recommended by the American Library Association in its pamphlet, "Reading Course on Journalism," are written by Wisconsin men. They are:

"Types of News Writing," and "How to Write Special Feature Articles," by Prof. W. G. Bleyer, of the department of journalism; "A Handbook for Newspaper Workers" written by Prof. Grant M. Hyde, acting director of the course in journalism; and "The Country Weekly," by Phil. C. Bing, former Wisconsin man.

The pamphlet is being distributed in libraries and to newspaper workers throughout the country.

PICKS WORKERS FOR A DSTAFF

E. F. Gill Chooses 19 as Assistants on 1924 Badger

Nineteen students out of a group of 45 were chosen for the advertising staff of the 1923 Badger by E. F. Gill '23, local advertising manager, yesterday.

"Because of the need of a larger staff this year and the splendid spirit shown by the members who tried out for the staff, I have increased the number from 13, the total used last year, to 19," Gill said.

"The choice was made on the basis of the results shown in securing advertising contracts, upon the interest shown by the solicitors in meetings, and upon the work done throughout the campaign.

"A number of students who were doing excellent work were dropped because of ineligibility."

"The campaign will be extended into next semester with this staff in operation."

Those who were appointed are: Perry R. Fulkerson '25; assistant local manager; Cornelius A. Ross '24; William R. Carlyon '25; Carlyle F. Richards '25; Glen H. Bell '25; Delbert H. Schmall '24; G. TALKS TO CLASSES

Dividing his audience into two groups, those interested in landscape gardening and those interested in agriculture only, Jens Jenson, noted Chicago landscape artist, talked to both classes Tuesday afternoon at the Horticulture building.

To the agricultural students, Mr. Jenson said, "Something is lacking on our farms today. Farmers seem to wait for the time when they shall be rich so they can move to town. They never seem to think of spending their retired life in beautifying the farm. But the time is coming when the man that can beautify the farm will be in greater demand than he who plans beautiful gardens for the wealthy."

To the students of landscape gardening, Mr. Jenson talked about the exquisite beauty of the sand dunes just east of Chicago.

"The sand dunes are the most interesting section in North America. They have the greatest diversity of vegetation, being the meeting place of plants from the north and south," he said.

The lecture was illustrated by colored slides showing the natural beauty of the sand dunes, marshes, and plant life of that region.

COLLEGE SEEKS ENDOWMENT

Approximately $300,000 of the $1,100,000 sought for the endowment fund of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has already been raised. The college trustees gave $200,000. A campaign to raise the amount started last Monday and will continue through this week.

ORPH TO PRESENT
"SHOW OF SHOWS"

Heralded as "The Show of Shows", the Orpheum show for the last half of the week, starting today, looks to be a program far above the average. Among the week-end promises for entertainment are, beautiful girls, stunning costumes, catch tunes, and a riot of fun and laughter.

Henry Catalano needs no introduction to Madison theatre-goers, because of his recent visits to Madison, bringing with him always a bright and breezy revue with a cast of peppy entertainers. His offering this time is said to surpass all his previous efforts. "A Timely Revue of Class," is the attraction in which Henry Catalano, Mildred Davies, the Three Strum Sisters and Billy Carr will offer for the approval of week-end audiences. All are musical comedy artists noted for their singing and dancing abilities.

Frenzied finance is the basic principle of Frank Wilcox's bright one act playlet, "Sssh-H". Mr. Wilcox is an accomplished actor. Mr. Wilcox and his players excel in light comedy and farce and his new playlet is a cross between the two.

To give this "Show of Shows" just the right sort of comedy, Billy Beard has been engaged. He bills himself as "The Party from the South" and is a mirth provoking blackface comedian who presents a monologue with some stories and a song or two that are assuredly original in construction and quality. DEFEAT THIRD PARTY PROJECT

Formation of Progressive Organization is Voted Down

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—Formation of a third party was defeated at the closing session of the second progressive conference last night after a prolonged debate in which many speakers characterized the Republican and Democratic parties as "owned and financed by Wall street."

A feature of the report of the resolutions committee as adopted was a declaration that the conference "as a leading factor in securing the election of progressive United States senators and members of the House, request such members to act as a people's bloc and to work for the people's progressive program and that the chairman and secretary of this conference call such progressive members together as soon as the new congress convenes to organize them for the effective action."

William H. Johnston, president of the machinists' union in summing up the work of the conference declared that "much had been accomplished in welding together the farmer and labor organizations for United political activity and that the work of setting up organizations in all states will follow shortly."

ANDY HIMSELF TO COME TO ORPHEUM

The Honorable Andy Gump, made famous in cartoons by Sidney Smith, is coming in person to the Orpheum theater next week.

Mr. Gump, who wears no man's collar, and is 100 per cent for the people will appear in the wide black Stetson hat and regalia with which his creator, Sidney Smith, has equipped him in the nationally famous drawings. It is also reported in advance that Mr. Gump will page his wife, with the familiar "Oh Min", as he has been seen to do several times in the daily pen and ink strip.

Gump will be delineated here by Jack Ponie, a character actor of renown. The depiction is said to be so faithful it seems that, Gump, himself, suddenly has sprung from a cartoon and thus animated, is making a personal bow to the audiences.

Sidney Smith personally is responsible for his famous character's local appearance. He wrote the act along the lines of the well known Gump conversational style. Then, after putting the words in Ponie's mouth, he personally rehearsed the performer until a living, breathing Gump was obtained. The stage character will thus depict Gump as Sidney Smith visualizes his "100 per cent" congressional candidate.

The tango will be given by Anna Hilpert '23 and Jose Sola '26, Argentina Spanish songs will be sung by Berta Leonarz '26, Mexico City, while English songs will be offered by Irmagard Siegmeyer '23.

Mining Club Gives Feast For Faculty Members

The faculty members of the Geology department were entertained by the mining club at a Christmas banquet last evening.

The mining lab was the scene of the revelry, coke furnaces roasted chicken instead of iron ore, and the geology profs, surrounded by chicken, sweet spuds, pie and hilarious miners, succumbed to the Christmas atmosphere.

Inexpensive Christmas gifts of doubtful utility were presented and informal speeches were made by

A large Christmas tree, lighted with colored electric lights was donated for this evening's entertainment by Prof. Kremers from his estate at Highlands.

The Misses Gertrude Bruns Ingenberg Bruns, and Annelies Morgan sang children's songs.

BYRNE APPOINTS GROUP HEADS IN AG OPEN HOUSE

Committee heads for the 17 departments of the College of Agriculture, which will be open for inspection to the public during the agricultural open house to be held February 24, were appointed by Chancellor, C. D. Byrne, at the meeting of Alpha Zeta last night.

The occasion is an exhibit of every department of the Agricultural college with the purpose of interesting the people of the state in agricultural education. An attempt will be made to secure the attendance of high school students from all of the secondary schools in the vicinity of Madison. Reduced railroad rates, transportation from the station, luncheon at noon, and other advantages are possibilities that will be worked out by the chairmen of the various committees.

Each of the department displays will be in charge of one of the committee heads. Faculty members

Janitors Have Ideas on Student Intellect

Janitors have definite opinions about students and their intellectual habits.

"Students around here have to work so hard that they don't think about another thing than pleasing the teachers," said one janitor as he removed a chair that had been carefully placed in the middle of a table by some students.

So runs the sentiment of the 38 janitors who care for the buildings on the campus. Sympathetic souls they are, pitying the over-worked seekers of knowledge and giving thanks that they do not suffer likewise.
